17th Annual Presentation Ball Monday

German Classes Plan Christmas Story Play 8 P. M. Wednesday

"Ein deutsches Weihnachtsspiel," a German Christmas play of the Middle Ages, with sacred music and settings of that time, will be presented by the German Club and the German classes at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the University Christian Church.

The entire play will be in German. Anyone interested in German or in this modern method of teaching languages is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Members of the cast are Marie-Edna Welkie, Lorene Mittendorf, Jimmy Tinkle, Richard Sherer, Virginia Wilder, Kermit Huckabee, Edward Rankin, Frank Rose, Curtis Carter, Paul Detweiler and Richard Harrell. The play consists of eight scenes depicting the story of the birth of Christ. A choir of 25 first-year German students will sing traditional

Fine Arts to Give Choral Festival

"The Yule Fire," a Christmas choral festival, will be presented by the School of Fine Arts at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the University Christian Church.

A program of music and choral speaking arranged and adapted by W. R. Rucker and conducted by Miss Dorothy Nies, the festival will tell the traditional Christmas story.

The speaking part will be presented by a narrator, Ed Carruth, nine solo speakers and 40 members of the speech choir. Solo parts will be taken by Misses Rosemary Wynne, Pat Kelsey, Sue Sparks and Moana Connell, and Warren Newman, Connie Mac Hood, Dave Randall, Mark Randle and Grady Johnson.

The music will be under the direction of Prof. Arthur Faguy-Cote. Mrs. Q'Zella Oliver Jeffus will play the organ. Arthur Arney will sing Schubert's "Ave Maria," and Miss Dorothy Forrester will sing "Ave Maria," by Gounod. Other members of the singing choir will be Misses Max Helen Pickens, Betty Easley and Hazel Hutton, and John Underwood, Melvin Dacus and Stan Barker.

Four 'Barracks' Near Completion

With final touches being put on, and harring unexpected trouble, the four barracks-type men's dormitories will be ready for occupancy following the Christmas holidays, according to Don Ver Duin.

Designated as A, B, C, and D dormitories, starting from the north end, the wooden construction buildings will house 50 men each in two-man rooms. The individually heated rooms are equipped with double decker beds, two tables and chairs, shelves and bureaus. There is a large shower and wash room located in the center of the structure.

"Acknowledging that these buildings are not the best, and that they have many faults, any man planning to live there is requested to inspect the facilities before making a decision," says Ver Duin. "This is to insure that the men know just what they are getting before they move."

Lists of Club Membership Requested by Mrs. Bryson

Membership data in the campus' 54 recognized school organizations has been requested by Mrs. Artemisia Bryson, chairman of the faculty committee on student societies. Letters have been mailed to the clubs and completed reports should be returned to Mrs. Bryson in the English department.

Submission of members names by club presidents and class officers will enable the committee to fulfill requests for information. A previous request this fall met with response from only 12 organizations.

Breeden's Dream: 'Tie and Tails' For Swing Group

With an eye on the recognition given the T. C. U. Horned Frog band as a swing group, Band Director Leon Breeden has hopes of getting new uniforms to match the music—a tuxedo type suit of purple and white. Purple tux-like trousers with wide white stripes on each leg, worn with a white dinner jacket which has purple lapels, is the lay-out which Breeden has in view. A white visored hat with purple band and the band emblem would top the ensemble.

This distinctive new style band uniform received the unanimous approval of the present members of the band. Administrative approval is needed before orders can be placed.

'Y' Names Two To Go to Chicago

Ben Hearn and Miss Jean Mundhenke have been named as the T. C. U. delegates to the national "Y" assembly in Chicago, Dec. 26 to Jan. 7.

David Bunn and Miss Beth James will represent the Southwest Region and the North Texas District. Sandwiches, cokes, and Hersheys are being sold in the dormitories by "Y" members until Christmas to help raise funds for the trip.

Each "Y" group will discuss some division of the "Assembly Prospectus," booklet which outlines questions of the convention, in next Tuesday's group meetings.

Employment Office Has Jobs Listed

The student employment service in the personnel office has been enlarged and is now under the direction of Vardaman Cockrell, it was announced today by Dr. T. F. Richardson.

Full-time and part-time employment is available for students, as well as a large number of jobs for the Christmas holidays, Dr. Richardson reports.

Students interested in the service should see Mr. Cockrell in Room 205, Administration Building.

Dees Needs Manpower During Christmas Holidays

Any student who would like to earn some extra money during the Christmas holidays, may be able to work at T. C. U.

"Several students are needed over the holidays to help move furniture and get the new barracks ready for occupancy," L. L. Dees, superintendent of buildings, says.

Any student who is interested should see Mr. Dees at his office in the Warehouse.

'Mental Hygiene' Class to Study City Cases

To learn by observing is the purpose of a new project of students in the mental hygiene class of Mrs. Jessie R. Adams.

With Fort Worth as a "laboratory," the students will work from two to three hours a week, observing and contacting people of underprivileged areas, children, mental cases and hospital patients.

"We want to make this class just as practical as possible," says Mrs. Adams, "and we want to make our approach from the possibilities of im-

Council Plans Traffic Study

To Request Activity Fee Raise — Brickley Reports Revue Gross of $361.48

Ralph McCamy, staff member of The Skiff, was appointed by the Student Council at its regular meeting Tuesday night to discuss with the chief traffic officer of Fort Worth problems concerning the traffic hazards around T. C. U., and to make a report to the Council upon the findings.

Also approved was a letter directed to Dr. L. D. Anderson, president of the Board of Trustees, requesting that the student activity fee be raised to $1 a semester and a fee of $1 be assessed against Summer School students carrying six or more semester hours.

A report on the finances of the Homecoming Revue was made by Dick Brickley, Brickley and Miss Pat Timbes, business manager of the show, were tendered an apology for the misuse of the word "investigate" in a prior meeting. A profit of $361.48 was reported by Brickley from the Revue, with only taxes to be deducted.

The Council approved a motion to grant the dance manager $5, plus 5 per cent of the net proceeds, on each dance.

Miss Betty Perot Named 'Best Freshman' by Leti

Miss Betty Perot was presented with a "Frog pin" by the Leti club as the "Best Freshman" of the year. Her name was disclosed at the "De-capping Ceremony" of freshman dormitory girls Sunday night.

Miss Mary Jo Horton has announced that plans are being made for a Frogette party, with the date to be announced later.

Band Majorettes, Yell Leaders Too

Drive Chairman Dons Barrel For Today's WSSF Parade

"Mr. W. S. S. F.," with $250 already jangling in his pockets, will parade the campus this morning. "If the flood hasn't washed us all away," James Standridge, chairman of the drive, adds.

The W. S. S. F. parade will start from the band stand at 11:30 o'clock this morning. Frogettes are decorating the band stand in good parade style. The marchers, led by the band, the yell leaders, and the majorettes, will go down the campus, come up University Drive, and back to the band stand.

"Long John" Standridge, wearing a barrel, and representatives of most campus clubs, carrying signs to "Push W. S. S. F. Over the Goal," will live up the procession.

When the group reaches the band stand, "There'll be lots of hillbilly and popular music by the band," says "Long John." "There'll be one short speech by Prof. Charles R. Sherer, and 20 beautiful girls will take up donations during class. Other girls will take collections at the Library and the Drug, from students not in class at that hour. "Long John" has threatened to wear his W. S. S. F. barrel to class if the fund goal is not reached.

The winter drive officially ends Wednesday, but next semester a big special social will be held with benefits going to the T. C. U. fund for W. S. S. F.

Two clubs have been assigned the campus and Main Hall booth every day, and judges will decide which club has been most active in the campaign. Pi Kappa Delta and the Chamber of Commerce are assigned Saturday, B. S. U. and Natural Science Club work Monday, and the Ministers' Wives Club and yell leaders take charge Tuesday.

Campus Magician to Help Entertain County Orphans

Luther Adkins, campus magician and vice-president of the Fort Worth Magic Club, will be one of 12 magicians who will entertain at Tarrant County orphan homes during the Christmas holidays. The 12 magicians will give one big show at Masonic Home, and then split up into two-man teams and perform at the county's other orphanages.

Flight Training Program To Be Enlarged in Spring

The flight training program will be enlarged in the spring if enough students are interested in flying to warrant it. A survey of the number of students who wish to take flight training is being made by the Evening College at the present time.

"We are trying to work out a program where veterans and nonveterans can fly," says Dean Cortell K. Holsapple. "The extent of the training will depend on the number of students who desire to fly and the number of hours they want. Students who are interested should come to the Evening College office and fill out a card as soon as possible."

Spotlight to Feature 12 Class Favorites, 12 'Reg'ler Fellers'

From a door-decked cover of the 1947 Horned Frog, along a flower-decked lane to a Christmas tree arch, the "Class Favorites" and their "Reg'ler Feller" escorts will make the presentation march at the 17th annual showing of the Presentation Ball at Rivercrest Country Club Monday night.

Opening at 8:15 p. m. with the introduction of the man voted the ugliest on the campus—Beno ("The Beast") Park—the debuts of the 24 selected representatives will follow, freshman class first, to the music of Leon Breeden's orchestra and with Norman Adelberg as master of ceremonies.

Committee Solves Problem of Rides To and From Ball

The question of the week, "But how'll we get out to Rivercrest for the Presentation Ball?" has been answered. A committee of Horned Frog staff members, under the direction of the business manager, Miss Sammy Morrow, is checking with town students who are taking their cars to the ball on a "double date with dorm students" plan.

Buses will answer the question for many students. At least one chartered bus will leave the campus at 7:30 p. m. Monday, coming back from the dance at 12:15 a. m. Charge for the trip by bus will not be more than 50 cents a person.

To any gentlemanly worries of "Will my girl want to ride a bus to a formal?" the transportation committee also has the answer. When the committee conducted an unofficial Gallup poll this week, every girl interviewed but one (and her boy friend has a car) was surprised at the question. "Why, of course I wouldn't mind!" was the universal response.

Sue Sparks, of Jarvis Hall is all for the plans. "Let's do have the buses!" she insists. "Who knows? There might be a handsome bus driver!" Marilyn Keaton, who lives across the hall from Sue, says, "Who'd mind? I ride the bus with dates all the time. And if everybody does, why not?"

Sadlers to Hold Christmas Party

President and Mrs. M. E. Sadler will hold their annual Christmas open house for faculty members from 8 to 10 p. m. Sunday at their home, 2409 Medford Court, East.

An old-fashioned Christmas scene will be placed on the serving table, and traditional Christmas greetings will decorate the living room.

Parents Report Matheny's Arrival at California Home

Following a telephone conversation with the student's parents in Long Beach, Calif., Dean Colby D. Hall reports that Robert Matheny, graduate student in Brite College, has returned to his home.

Matheny left the campus about Nov. 30 to keep a preaching appointment, and after his failure to keep the engagement or return to the campus, his disappearance was reported to police.

Having failed to recuperate sufficiently from a recent appendectomy to continue his studies, he will re-enter T. C. U. next semester.

Business-Economics Club Features Talks, Discussions

A new "unofficial" organization, to be known as the Business and Economics Club, has been gaining momentum on the campus for several weeks.

The new club is spearheaded by Dr. R. H. Gregory and James Mussetter. Informal round-table discussions are held at 1 o'clock, Tuesdays, in Room 1, Administration Building. Dr. Herbert Mundehenke spoke on "The Economic Outlook for the Coming Year" at this week's meeting.

Dr. Newton Gaines will speak on "Commercial Exploration of Patents" at Tuesday's round-table discussion.

With dress formal for girls and tux or suits optional for men, dancing to follow the presentation will last until midnight. Permission has been given by Dean Elizabeth Shelburne for dormitory girls to return following this time. Special invitations have been sent to members of the faculty, administration and families of the favorites.

For those unable to arrange private conveyance, chartered buses will leave from the Arch at 7:30 p. m. and return from the club at 12:15 a. m. Students who have space in their car for other couples are requested to contact a member of the transportation committee in the Main Hall booth, to list the opening. Tickets will also be on sale at the booth and from any member of the Horned Frog staff. Price is $1.50, couple or stag.

"With no intention of playing cupid, the Horned Frog staff is trying to pair up couples to suit the tastes and desires of both," says Perry Gandy, Horned Frog editor. "Our date bureau will handle all applications at the booth."

A Christmas decoration theme will be carried out in the club and all facilities will be open to students. This includes waiter service, ample table space with the small dance floor being used for this, grill room with a complete soda fountain and a soft drinks bar on the main floor.

Faculty Will Hold Christmas Party

A faculty Christmas dinner, sponsored by the Faculty Woman's Club, will be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the University Cafeteria. Mrs. Mary L. Cantrell is chairman of the committee in charge.

A Christmas tree and traditional Christmas decorations will be used. Miss Marguerite Potter is in charge of decorating the Cafeteria, and Mrs. Charles S. Adams is in charge of table decorations.

Others on the planning committee include Mrs. Robert H. Gregory, Mrs. Howard Grubbs, Mrs. Abe Martin, Mrs. H. R. McQuillan, Mrs. Mirth Sherer and Miss Nell Van Zandt.

"The Difference" Is Topic Of Sunday Morning Sermon

"The Difference that Makes a Difference," will be the topic of the sermon by the Rev. Granville Walker at the 10:50 a. m. worship service Sunday at the University Christian Church.

The choir under the direction of Arthur Faguy-Cote will sing "While By Our Sleeping Flocks We Lay," by Carol.

The University Place Music Study Club Chorus, under the direction of William J. Marsh will present its annual concert of sacred music at Evensong at 7:15 o'clock.

The Meliorist Club will leave the church immediately following Evensong to go caroling. The club will be guests of the Colonial Cafeteria when the caroling is over. This will be the last meeting until Jan. 5.

Pres. Sadler Continues Religious Endowment Work

President M. E. Sadler left for Amarillo and the Panhandle area Wednesday night to meet with groups in behalf of the "Intensive Effort for Ministerial Education." He is seeking large endowment gifts to total $1,875,000.

He will return in time to speak at the Greenville Christian Church Sunday morning, at a special celebration.

What's Cookin'?

"What's cookin', Joe?" "Why, southwestern friendship!" might be the reply in connection with the "skillet trophy" that has been launched in the hope of encouraging good will between T. C. U. and S. M. U.

The "skillet," beribboned and engraved, was presented to the winner of the T. C. U.-S. M. U. game during the Thanksgiving holidays. The schools plan to make this an annual affair, to be sponsored jointly by the student governments of the two universities.

Rivalry, both mental and physical, has been encouraged throughout the years by the schools of the Southwest Conference. But little has been done to unify the group.

This "skillet trophy" may well lead the way to more friendship and better understanding.

Think First

An unanimous vote of the Student Council called for an "investigation" into the financial handling of the Homecoming Revue and, at the same time, called for a report by the director of the show.

This week's meeting of the body brought into the open the facts which should have been discussed prior to the vote, and, following the requested report, a formal apology acknowledging the poor judgment of the hasty action was made by the Student Council.

This is an example that may well be studied by all individuals and groups on the campus. During a period of difficulties and inconveniences, many phases of campus life are subjected to quick criticism that all too often is misdirected, from lack of thought and discussion of the whole scene or from lack of knowledge of all the facts.

'Twas the Night Before Christmas (Holidays):
Students Fill Week's Schedule With Parties

The Christmas party of the student affiliate of the American Chemical Society will be held at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of Dr. Henry B. Haidt, 3415 Meadowbrook Drive.

Gifts for the Juliet Fowler Home will be presented by Jarvis and Foster Hall students at 10:30 p. m. Christmas parties Sunday.

"Christmas in Foreign Lands" will be the theme of the International Relations Club Christmas party at the home of Dr. H. R. Mundhencke, 3184 Westcliff Rd. West.

A buffet supper and program for the husbands and families will be the Christmas social event of the Ministers' Wives Club at 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

Leslie Chambers Heading
Science Section for Army

Dr. Leslie A. Chambers, B. S. '27, M. S. '28, is now chief of the physical and chemistry section of the Army's Biological Warfare Branch.

Dr. Chambers was formerly a research professor at the University of Pennsylvania, where he helped develop the present influenza serum.

A "relaxation picnic" will be held Wednesday afternoon by members of W. S. A. The picnic, a Christmas outing at Inspiration Point, will be the last club activity before the holidays.

The Library staff will entertain the student assistants at a Christmas party from 5 to 7 p. m. Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bertie Mothershead, 2618 Rogers Rd.

Dr. Cheverton to Speak
At Timothy Club Monday

Dr. Cecil Cheverton will talk to the members of the Timothy Club at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon on how to conduct funerals and marriages.

Stanley Hovatter will be in charge of the Christmas worship service at Britte Chapel Wednesday morning.

Dean Moore Represents
T.C.U. at Southern Assn.

Dean Jerome Moore is in Memphis, Tenn., this week attending a meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. He is the T. C. U. representative for the convention.

Solo Flight Course Offered
As Essay Contest Prize

An essay writing contest on "The Advantages of Ground and Flight Work in Aviation," has been announced by the Evening College. Roy Taylor of Southwest Aviation Enterprises at Meacham Field, is sponsoring the contest.

The winner will receive a solo flight course free. Dean Cortell K. Holsapple estimates the cash value of the course to be from $80 to $100. The final date to submit essays will be about Jan. 15.

Heirloom New Testament
Placed in Wooten Collection

A New Testament, once owned by Barton W. Stone, one of the founders of the Disciples of Christ movement, will be placed in the Wooten collection in the Library. It is being loaned to the school by Mrs. Virginia Roberts Dana. An heirloom, the book will eventually go to Mrs. Dana's daughter, Anne.

Two famous mathematicians—Euler and Gauss—will be the subjects of talks to be given by Al Barker and Janie Callahan at a meeting of the Parabola Club at 7 p. m. next Friday at the home of Don Cowan, president.

Picked-Up
Passing By

- ★ Sold! To W.S.S.F.
- ★ Ye Old Jinx
- ★ It's the Money

Befuddled as to what song to use at the Presentation Ball, Katherine Ann Frank asked her mother for a suggestion. "Why not 'Beautiful Katy'?" "No," Katherine replied. "I think I'll choose 'Beer Barrel Polka' and roll down the aisle!"

One man who likes to be sold on something before investing money in it is Calvin Beasley, who spent half an hour discussing the W. S. S. F. with the representative before giving his dollar.

A bunch of physics majors have formed the most successful boycott of local beaneries. In the darkroom of the physics lab they're prepared to serve cocoa, coffee and tea from accumulated utensils.

When Ben Hearn doesn't receive any mail, he blames it all on the old jinx: his box number is 13.

ly gave Dr. W. B. Gates the devil Wednesday. But it's not as bad as it sounds. Dr. Gates assigned the students to write a theme on Satan, as pictured in Milton's "Paradise Lost."

Wondered Jimmy Hunt, who lost a little ground in freshman English while laying it on the line for Dutch and Alma Mater, in answer to his tutor's query: "Notes? Well, I'll be darned! Now why didn't I ever think of that?"

Bill Harper says his new economics text is kept busy all through the night. He explains that he reads it half the night and the other half uses it to press his pants. The book weighs three and three-quarter pounds.

Informed by a clerk in the Book Store that his G.I. credit for the current semester had expired, Jerry Jones complained, "It's not the principle; it's the money of the thousand."

Jim Has Them:
Records Any Age,
Any Language

Jim New possesses a most varied record collection. Lying in a dusty record cabinet, deep amid scientific apparatus in the physics lab, are 40 albums of popular, classical, and folk song records. Some are sung in Japanese, Egyptian, German, French, Italian, Hebrew, Spanish, or the native tongue of American Indian tribes.

Any record wanted can be produced immediately from the collection of more than 400. Jim has cross-indexed them all according to title, singer, language, opera, etc. Popular records are retained only if they represent a period of music. Therefore "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" stays in the cabinet because it is a standard of the popular music of 1918.

Cowboy songs are kept only if Jim recognizes their rhythm as in cadence with the gait of a horse. He theorizes that authentic cowboy songs were first sung from the saddle, so naturally they were timed with the walk of the horse.

Two prize Victor records are: "A-Walkin' the Streets of Laredo" opposite a Texas version of "Barbara Allen," and a Negro version of the legend of Casey Jones, "Wreck of the Six-Wheeler" with "For Work I'm Too Lazy." The four songs are all sung by Jim New himself.

"Jim New" is just a pseudonym. The Victor Recording Company created it after they visualized a prospective platter buyer staring starkly at a disc of "For Work I'm Too Lazy," sung by D. Newton Gaines.

Vets to Request
Morning Labs

"Isn't there some way that morning labs for required science subjects can be instituted at T. C. U.?"

In the near future a petition requesting action on this subject will be submitted to President M. E. Sadler. The petition will be signed by the veterans on the campus who work during the afternoons.

These vets are worried. Most of them, having families, find that it is necessary to work. The remaining few do not want to give up good paying jobs simply because one required class meets only in the afternoon.

In an informal poll taken this week, it was found that the majority of those working vets had given the matter a lot of thought, but had treated it as a personal problem, not realizing that it affected so many students.

Because of the difficulties of time involved, a regular meeting has not been held to discuss the matter, and the old grapevine system is being used. No one seems to know who started the petition, although several of those who were interviewed have already signed it.

One of the students interviewed summed up the average feelings of those whom the problem applies to by saying, "I suppose that this will be classed as just another gripe from the ex-G. I., but to us who are involved, it means either giving up our jobs or giving up the idea of a degree."

Frog lashes

By RICHARD MOORE

T. C. U.'s basketball team and the Frog rosters made their respective bows to the home public Monday night. One was good—the other poor. Need an answer be given as to which was which?

There was some justification for the rough playing the Frog five did, and, in the long run, the team will suffer by the fouls called against them. There was, though, no reason for the poor sportsmanship the T. C. U. students displayed. No one can recall just when before in the school's history, the good will of the students "stunk" as it did the other night.

Sure, one can always yell at the referee—from now to doomsday—but there is no logic to pitching pennies or yelling when an opponent is attempting a four shot.

The pitching pennies deal was the worst act of the two. Not only did it endanger the safety of the opposition, but a T. C. U. player might have stepped on a coin and broken a bone from the fall. Basketball is extremely fast and one can see the terrific spills that may take place after the bad fall Mutt Pasco took.

Yep, one could preach to high heaven, but there will still be some guys who will always be poor sports. But the other students can help by chiding them. Give them a sugar tit, they need it! And don't look as foolish as the "toy" students when the Loyola player took a swing at a Frog, as, one after the other, four "kids" rose up with their fists clinched. The Purple cagers can take care of themselves, but that clinched fists stuff smells of Aggie land and the old saying, "An Aggie will always fight—when the odds are 10 to 1 in his favor."

It now looks as if the deal to use the Will Rogers Coliseum for the home Frog games will be put through. When Howard Grubbs talked to the Council two weeks ago, he was pretty pessimistic about obtaining the lumber and labor needed. But the "Gloomy One" was just a little optimistic this week, and if Grubbs smiles just a little, boy, there is a doggone big chance of the project being accomplished!

Little Pasco took individual scoring lead among his teammates in the three-game series just completed, racking up 33 points. In second spot, with 18 points, is shifty Gene Wardynski. Tied for third are Bob Hendricks and Julius Dolnic, with 17 points. Frank Kudlaty and Bob Young each have 13, and Red Brothers has counted eight points.

Pasco also leads in free pitches with nine. Young has three, as does also Kudlaty. The Frog esgers have made 22 free shots and missed 17, which isn't too good an average. Oklahoma was the team that could really sink the gratis throw, missing only two of 17 tries against the Frogs.

All-Intramural Team Has Power, Speed, Versatility; Woodfin, Pasco, Weatherford Are Tops

By RICHARD MOORE

The powerful champion Senior eight, completely dominated the all-intramural team selected this week, placing five men on the first team and two on the alternate squad.

Only one member from the Wednesday loop—Aaron Barker—was able to gain a berth on this mythical team, selected by the student managers and captain. This was undoubtedly due to the poor showing the Wednesday champs displayed in the playoff against the Tuesday victors.

Big Jim Woodfin, rugged defensive and offensive center of the Senior squad, was the only player able to get a unanimous decision. However, Mutt Pasco, the little general of the Sophomore team, missed by only one vote, and Sam Weatherford, who directed the Senior eight, lacked but two.

Competition for the remaining two backfield berths was heated, and it was by only a narrow margin that Blair Kirkpatrick of the Seniors and American Legion Norm Adleberg were able to get the nod over little Shrimp Fisher of the Fresh team. One vote was the margin.

| Player, Team              | Position | Player, Team              | Position |
|---------------------------|----------|---------------------------|----------|
| Wendell Towers, Senior    | End      | Nolan Weeks, Legion       | Guard    |
| Aaron Barker, Preacher    | Guard    | Paul Vinsant, Juniors     | Center   |
| Jim Woodfin, Senior       | Center   | Richard Stubbs, Soph      | Guard    |
| James McGehee, Senior     | Guard    | Derrace Hutchins, Legion  | End      |
| Jay Disney, Soph          | End      | George Gartner, Senior    | Back     |
| Mutt Pasco, Soph          | Back     | Shrimp Fisher, Fresh      | Back     |
| Sam Weatherford, Senior   | Back     | Connie Mac Hood, Preacher | Back     |
| Blair Kirkpatrick, Senior | Back     | Hap Ellis, Preacher       | Back     |
| Norm Adleberg, Legion     | Back     | Pud Roberts, Soph         | Back     |

Selected for the end posts were two defensive aces, Senior Wendell Towers and Soph Jay Disney. Towers, one of the stand-outs of the Senior line, made a specialty of smashing rival passers. Offensively, he tallied 31 points. Disney scored 20 points and was equally hard to handle on defense.

Barker, giant Preacher guard, and James McGehee of the Seniors were chosen for the middle spots. Neither were pushed in the selection, winning by wide margins. Barker was a rock in the Ministers' line. McGehee was a powerful blocker and consistently steady on defense.

Woodfin was a natural for the pivot post, a good pass defender and very potent in leading the powerful end sweeps of the Seniors.

Pasco was the heart and soul of the Soph attack. The little man racked up 37 points during the season, besides tossing 12 touchdown heaves. He was best, though, in the broken field, breaking up many contests by his long, weaving jaunts.

Weatherford personally led the Seniors to their three narrow victories over the Sophs, accounting for all of the last-year men's four scores, either by runs or passes. He counted 20 points during the season, but was noted for his accurate passing, tossing for 15 six-pointers.

Adleberg was a triple-threat; passing, running and punting besides quarterbacking the Legion team.

Kirkpatrick was probably the best defensive backfield man in the two leagues. Few passes were completed in his territory and the enemy ground offense just didn't function near him.

He was an able blocker and a good receiver.

Frog Hoopsters Prime for Eagles

Tilt to Show League Strength---Game Here 8 P.M., Wednesday

An indication of the relative strength of T. C. U. against other conference schools will be known after the game tonight in Denton with North Texas State College. The Eagles have played Texas, Baylor and Texas A. & M., losing two games each to the Steers and Bears, but defeating the Aggies.

Wednesday night, a return game with the Eagles will be played in the T. C. U. Basketball Gymnasium.

Both Texas and Baylor easily tripped North Texas, the Longhorns winning 63 to 41, and 60 to 40, while the Bears were even more impressive, being victorious by scores of 73 to 54, and 73 to 41. The Eagles defeated the Cadets, 59 to 49.

Coach Hub McQuillan was not overly disappointed in the Frogs' three defeats in the Oklahoma and two Loyola contests. Still striving to find a starting quintet for conference play, Coach Hub wants to give as many boys as possible a chance to gain experience in the exhibition games. Also, five will participate in a post-season game. Dean Bagley, who made the famous 1941 touchdown run against Texas, will play in the Pecan Bowl at San Saba as a member of the San Saba High School ex-students' team against the Comanche High exes.

Fred Taylor has been invited to play on the Grey team in the North-South clash this year. He will not participate, though, if he is granted eligibility for next year's Frog team. The conference has not ruled on Fred's status as yet. Coach Dutch Meyer will be the head mentor of the South squad in the classic.

Captain one day, co-captain the next. That is the story of Clifton Caffey, captain-elect of the '47 T. C. U. football team. The following day after his selection Clifton took the long jump and was married—and was demoted to co-captain. What a sad tale for such a beautiful beginning.

a traveling squad for the Christmas Holidays frays will be selected.

Although they lost by the widest margin to Oklahoma, the Frogs looked best in this scrap. Their passing was good, the plays were clicking and only a few wild shots were taken. All-American Tucker was the difference in the teams. He just couldn't miss for the Soomers.

Monday night, against Loyola the Frogs had a comfortable 12-to-2 margin in the first 11 minutes of the opening half. Coach Hub began to sub freely, and T. C. U.'s lead was cut to 20-to-19 at the half.

The play really became rough in the second half, and the Ramblers moved ahead early in the first minutes of the period, to gain a margin they never relinquished.

Coach Hub has indicated he will start the same five against North Texas State that opened against Loyola. Bob Hendricks and Frank Kudlaty will be at the pivot spot, and Mutt Pasco and Gene Wardynski, guards, will complete the starting five.

Caffey, Bishop Will Lead '47 Frog Football Team

Clifton Caffey and Tom Bishop were chosen as the captains of the 1947 Frog Football team at a dinner recently. Both players lettered this year.

Caffey, elected as captain, lettered in '42. He will be a senior. This was Bishop's first year of play for the Frogs.

Seniors Annex 'Mural Title Defeating Ministers, 13 to 6

With listless ease the Senior "S" annexed the intramural football championship yesterday in Frog Stadium, edging by the Preachers, 13 to 6, in a slow game marked by missed blocks, dropped passes and numerous penalties.

The Senior team was not the sharp-hitting, perfection machine that ran over the Preachers last week. Fireworks would have probably been of no avail to give the last-year men the spark needed to get their attack to functioning.

The first time the Seniors got the ball, they went 62 yards for a score. For the remainder of the first half, the victors toddle along, always keeping the Ministers at bay. The final Senior counter came middle way in the third stanza. That was the ball game.

Giving their passer plenty of protection, the Preachers played inspired ball, but the receivers couldn't hold on to the pigskin. Their ace receiver, Jim Farrar, dropped four aeriels, two of which might have been for touchdowns. The Ministers scored their lone touch late in the final period.

For the champs, it was Blair Kirkpatrick and Jim Woodfin who sparkled in the dim glow of the Senior machine. Hap Ellis and John Standridge were standouts for the Preachers.

Operating from the 38-yard line, after the Preachers had failed to gain and kicked, the Seniors, alternating with passes and runs scored in eight plays. The payoff punch was a long pass from Sam Weatherford to George Gartner. Gartner was finally downed on the Preacher 20. It was another aerial from Weatherford to Gartner carrying 10 yards which resulted in the opening tally.

In the third period, on fourth down, Weatherford shot a heave to Woodfin over the middle. With a timely block by Kirkpatrick, Woodfin raced 40 yards before being down on the 6. Weatherford took it over from the 6 on fourth down. Hall converted.

Second Chanter, Same O'd Story, Muses K. Muse

After four years in the army, Ken Muse has returned to the same teacher, same room, same seat—but not the same course.

When Ken came to T. C. U. in 1940 he had Miss Mabel Major for Freshman English in Room 206, Administration Building.

In the spring of '42 Ken went into the Army. He returned this fall, and decided to take the Shakespeare course that Miss Major teaches. When he reported to the class it was back to Room 206 for him. Miss Major seated the class in alphabetical order again, and there he was for another year—in the same seat.

"I'm really getting the feel of that seat," Ken remarks.

12 Class Favorites Answer Question, 'What to Wear?'

A "Favorite" question (with a capital "F") on the campus this week is "What am I going to wear to the Presentation Ball Monday evening?"

Unlike the original Eve, who was pretty undecided, the 12 class favorites have already picked their glamma' clothes for the hop.

Senior PODDY JONES will wear a white strapless gown and carry American Beauty roses. She will be presented with JESSE MASON to the strains of "Surrender."

An old hand at the presentation game, Senior NEL EPPERSON will wear an orchid dress trimmed in fuchsia, and her escort will be DAVID BUNN. "September Song" will be the background music.

EMMA OWNSBY will make her entrance on the arm of PERRY GANDY to the tune of "The Night Is Young." Senior Emma will be wearing a silver and white formal.

Petite HELEN MARIE BROWN, in a white net evening dress with a strapless lame top, will be presented to the strains of "The Things We Did Last Summer." Junior Helen will be escorted by CARL KNOX. She will carry red roses.

"Star Dust" will introduce HELEN CHRISTIE. Presented with HARRY MULLINS, Helen, who is a junior on the Hill, will wear a blue lace and net dress with a silver sequin top. She'll carry an orchid.

"LONG JOHN" STANDRIDGE will be RUTH KNOX'S escort. Her presentation formal is a white net gown with rosettes accentuating the draped skirt and a satin top. She will carry gardenias and be presented to "Old Lamp-lighter." Ruth is a junior class favorite.

Making her debut as a favorite for the second time Monday evening will be PAT TIMBES, sophomore yell leader, who will enter to the tune of "You Keep Coming Back Like a Song." She'll wear a black velvet strapless evening gown. Her escort will be RANDY ROGERS.

"Night and Day" will introduce GWEN KNOX, another sophomore favorite. Her presentation dress will be a white lace and net formal sprinkled with rhinestones. PETE STOUT will lead Gwen down the aisle.

Wearing a strapless white net gown, JOANNE OLMSTED will be introduced with JIM LUCAS to the music of "Oh, What It Seemed to Be." Joanne is a sophomore.

Blonde, brown-eyed KATHERINE FRANK will be presented as a freshman favorite, dressed in a black and white plaid taffeta gown. Her entrance tune is "This Is Always," and her escort is LINDY BERRY.

KATHY STURGIS will make her freshman bow in a pink formal with a lace bodice, and a net skirt strung with satin rosebuds and sequins. She will be paired with MORRELLE HICKS. They will enter to the tune of "The Very Thought of You."

Freshman BARBARA SCOTT will wear a light blue strapless gown with a full skirt studded with ostrich plumes. She has chosen "Twilight
