Give Generously—

City to See Fund Plea Many Times

"GIVE GENEROUSLY! YOU'RE BUILDING A GREAT TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY."

This slogan, appearing on three mammoth outdoor bulletin boards in downtown Fort Worth, is the plea to Fort Worth citizens by the directors of the T. C. U. Building Program Committee. Merchants are also including the campaign slogan in daily advertising.

The bulletins, along with window displays, radio broadcasts, newspaper advertising and speakers bureau, constitute the largest such campaign in the 75 historic years of the University. I. C. Parker, chairman of the T. C. U. Diamond Jubilee Building Fund Campaign's publicity committee and president of the Pangburn Company, is utilizing every available source to aid the building program leaders achieve their goal of $5,000,000.

Largest of the publicity features are three gigantic billboards. Located near the Worth Theater in full view of theater-goers and shoppers, is one 15x50-foot sign bearing the slogan in huge letters done in T. C. U. purple on white. Another, similar in design and size, appears on the north-east corner of 7th and Henderson. Space on the signs was donated by the North Texas Advertising Company.

Another sign, 15x15-feet, is on Hotel Texas. On it appears a reproduction in color of an architect's bird's eye sketch of T. C. U. as the school will appear in the future. A caption—"T. C. U. OF TOMORROW"—appears in the lower left-hand corner, while the campaign slogan is shown in the opposite corner.

Nine window displays, donated by Fort Worth merchants, will be set up over the week-end. Featuring blown-up photographs and sketches of T. C. U. buildings from old AddRan College at Thorp Spring to those at Fort Worth, the window displays will have exterior and interior views of the three new dormitories. Some of the displays will portray the future T. C. U.

Prepared under the supervision of Jimmy Cook of The Fair department store, the displays will remain for at least one week, possibly longer.

Merchants donating window space include: The Fair, Washer Bros., Meachams department store, R. E. Cox & Company, Leonards, Monnig's, J. C. Penney Company, Stripling's and Texas Electric Service.

A series of four weekly 15-minute transcription broadcasts began at 6:45 p.m. last night over all local stations. The scripts, prepared by Larry Dupont of WCAP, are written to coincide

Weickersheimmer, Morrison, Launius Win; 1107 Cast Ballots

With the largest vote in student body history being recorded—1107 ballots cast—students went to the polls Tuesday to elect seven 1948-49 officers and named Mopsy Morrison, head yell leader; Bryan ("Wicky") Weickersheimmer, editor of The Skiff; and Charles Launius, editor of The Horned Frog.

Weickersheimer with 668 ballots cast in his favor received the largest vote of any candidate and easily established a majority of virtually two to one over his two opponents combined.

Closest contest of the election for a top position was the battle for annual editorship in which Launius polled 578 votes to defeat Marvin Veal by a margin of 107 ballots.

Her 616 votes made Morrison head yell leader.

Named as assistant yell leaders, according to election results posted by Joe Sherrod, election chairman, were: Boys, Bob Matthews, 450 votes, and Al Kilgore, 403 votes; and girls, Pat Miller, 403 votes, and Ann Zimmerman, 356 votes.

Because three girls and two boys were named as yell leaders, there is a report that this part of the election may be protested. Some students contend that the "spirit" of the amendment passed to govern yell leader elections was to provide three boys and two girls as cheer leaders. They are, so rumor says, considering writing a request to the student judiciary committee to so interpret the matter and revise the election returns in this regard.

Sherrod, who did not reveal the number of votes received by losing yell leader candidates immediately following the balloting, will make his full election report at next Monday night's Student Council meeting. At that time, when the votes received by every candidate on the ballot will be revealed, the election results are expected to be made official.

Student Council Gives Campus Station $100

Plans for the proposed campus radio station have progressed this week with the Student Council voting $100 to the project Monday. John Hoesmann, a senior physics major, has agreed to construct the transmitter and to solve the technical problems.

In order to comply with F. C. C. regulations the transmitter will be attached to some conveyor of radio waves that connects all campus buildings, such as telephone wires. The F. C. C. ruling would be violated if the transmitter carried more than 60 feet from the campus.

Student Prospects to Get 1948 Fine Arts Bulletin

Just off the presses is the 1948 School of Fine Arts Bulletin, which will be distributed among prospective students in Texas high schools, reports Dean T. Smith McCorkle.

The 32-page illustrated bulletin gives a detailed description of the three departments of the school—art, music and speech-drama—including facilities, teachers and a description of the new Fine Arts Building.

Proving the Point Again (An Editorial)

The inadequacy of the present student body constitution has again been demonstrated to the students. The Student Council members are arguing among themselves over the validity of the cheer leader election. It seems that the amendment to the constitution reads in this manner:

The Student Body shall each spring, three weeks prior to the end of the semester, elect five cheer leaders, two of whom shall be boys and three shall be girls. They shall serve throughout the following fall and spring. The candidate with previous experience as a cheer leader at T. C. U. who polls the highest number of votes shall be head cheer leader. In the event that no winning candidate has had experience at T. C. U., the candidate polling the highest number of votes shall be head cheer leader. The Student Body Secretary shall, two weeks before the election, announce applications will be accepted for the positions as cheer leaders.

After reading this amendment, it might appear that the head yell leader would have to be of neuter gender, since, of the five yell leaders, the amendment states that two shall be male and two shall be female.

This only proves, once again, the need for a constitution to be written which will cover the needs of the student body and which won't have to be interpreted by the judiciary committee on every point which arises.

Moore to Speak Again On 'Mexico As A Symbol'

"Mexico As A Symbol" is the subject of a speech to be given for the third time by Dean Jerome Moore on June 3, when he talks to the Technical Club. Dean Moore has delivered the same speech to the Southside Lions Club and to 900 men of Carswell Air Force Base in recent weeks.

"All chemistry students are invited to attend the meeting," says Dr. Henry Hardt. "Transportation will be available for everyone who wishes to go."

1st National Championship Since 1938 May Be in Sight for TCU

FLYING FROGS' President Bill Padon and Vice-President Royce Livingston take pride in the many trophies their team has won in the four big air meets this year.

First national championship for T. C. U. since 1938-39 when the Frog football team went through its season and the Sugar Bowl undefeated and ended up No. 1 in all ratings is in sight.

Another undefeated Purple-and-White team—the Flying Frogs—is the favorite to win the National Intercollegiate Air Meet, June 20, at Ann Arbor, Mich., provided financial arrangements can be made to get the T. C. U. team to the contest.

Winning their own meet Saturday made it three in a row for the Flying Frogs and kept their record unblemished. In capturing the titles at this year's Denver, Stephens College and then their own meets, they have met and conquered virtually every collegiate flight combination which might be pitted against them in the national championships.

Last week-end's T. C. U. meet was the largest and best ever held by a college. W. T. Piper, president of Piper Aircraft Corp., told guests at the meet banquet. The 13 colleges competing comprised the biggest field ever entered in an intercollegiate meet.

Scoring 35 points, 19 more than their nearest competitor, and winning three of the six events, the Flying Frogs easily won their own meet despite the large number of entries.

Robert Carouthers of the T. C. U. team was high point man of the meet with 10 points. He won first place in the bomb dropping event with Louis Latham as his bombardier and took second in navigation.

Jim Whitman, one of two other Frog first place winners, and Mary Helen Rattikin also scored in two events. Whitman captured the navigation championship and placed fifth in the treasure hunt, while Miss Rattikin was third in both navigation and the treasure hunt.

Aaron Giebel won first place in spot landing, and other T. C. U. scorers included Bill Ellis, second in seaplane spot landing, and Bill Padon with John Latham as his bombardier, fourth in bomb dropping.

Other team honors went to: Second, Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., girls school, 16 points; third, University of Denver, 12 points; and fourth, University of Texas, 10 points.

Expenses of the Flying Frogs' own meet have virtually depreciated the organization's treasury, according to Troy A. Stinson, sponsor, and leave the club's entry in the national championship meet in doubt. "But we're hoping that some financial arrangements can be made to get us to Ann Arbor," he adds. "If so, we'll go."

Banquet, Dance To Be Tonight

The last of the spring semester's extra-curricular activities will come to a close tonight at 7 p.m. with the junior-senior banquet, followed by an all-student dance at 8:30 p.m. at Lake Worth Casino.

Tickets for the banquet went off sale yesterday and only juniors and seniors are invited to attend. The dance, however, is open to everyone.

The "Farewell" dance is being sponsored by the Evening College and the Day College Student Councils. Admission is 25 cents a person. Students are asked to bring their activity cards to be presented at the door.

Music for the dance will be by Jack Amlung and his orchestra. Free buses will be provided for students who are unable to get transportation to and from the dance. They are scheduled to leave the Arch at 7:45 p.m. and will return at 12.

Miss Henson Is Elected Priscilla Club President

Miss Lucille Henson was elected president of Priscilla Club Monday at a business meeting. Serving with her will be Mrs. Margaret Pearce, vice-president; Miss Bonnie Disney, secretary; and Miss Olga Carrejo, treasurer. Miss Wanda Jetty will be the reporter.

Local Citizens to Inspect T.C.U., Attend 2 Dormitory Dedications

Citizens of Fort Worth are being invited to visit the campus on May 30, with the main event of the day being the dedication services for Waits and Brown Halls. Young men and women of Brown and Waits Hall will guide visitors through the new dormitories, and a tour of the campus is being planned with members of a campus organization serving as guides.

Previous plans for the dedication services have been reversed. The new plan calls for services to begin at 3 p.m. on the veranda of Brown Hall, with music being furnished by the band. Efforts are being made to have Tom Brown, for whom the dormitory was named, present for a speech, after which Dean Jerome Moore will give the dedication speech and prayer.

A similar program will begin at 3:30 p.m. on the veranda of Waits Hall. Dr. L. D. Anderson, chairman of the Board of Trustees and pastor of the First Christian Church, will give the Waits Hall dedication address and prayer. Following this service a tea will be given at 4 p.m. in the Waits Hall reception room. A concert will be given at 4:30 p.m.

Members of the committee on arrangements include: Dean Moore, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Shelburne; Miss Mabel Major; Don J. Ver Duin; Paul O. Ridings; and Noel Keith.

Chapel Service to Honor Brite College Graduates

Brite College graduates will be honored at 11 a.m. services Wednesday in Morro Chapel. Dean D. Ray Lindley will speak to the group and George Stuart will be the worship leader.

Radio Receives Real Reward

They are winners of the first scholarships awarded by KFJZ. For their work on seven 30-minute broadcasts, they each will receive a full year's scholarship or approximately $300 in cash.

That is as much as the editor and business manager of The Horned Frog received for a whole year's work and more than The Skiff editor gets for 68 full afternoons of scheduled work plus his writing assignments per year.

Combined, the three awards amount to a $900-per-year gift from the local radio station. They represent many times more generous support than any other similar annual scholarship awards or other prizes cited in the T. C. U. catalog.

The radio scholarships were established this year by KFJZ, according to Gene L. Cagle, station manager, to encourage support for the school's newly-established radio department, to encourage more students to study radio. Such generosity should certainly achieve this end—and, it is to be hoped, perhaps inspire an even more important objective from the viewpoint of other than radio students: The establishment of similar really significant awards by other companies in the departments training for their respective fields of endeavor.

Thank you, KFJZ and Mr. Cagle; your scholarships do indeed provide real encouragement . . . and to more than just the radio students. Your awards make us all feel that the business world does indeed want us to obtain college training for our professional life to follow graduation; such reassurance is appreciated.

Who Lost?

The candidates who didn't win in Tuesday's election didn't lose. The campaigning for cheer leader and editor posts was the best the campus has seen, at least since the war.

Even ex-Texas U.-ites were feeling at home Tuesday in the middle of the surge of politicking, the roar of airplanes carrying signs, the hub-bub of machines backing their boys with election stunts.

To those just looking on—and it was hard to do that with so much enthusiasm flying around—the campaigns seemed to have a remarkable amount of fair play as well as cleverness. In a school the size of T. C. U., a lot of friends have to run against friends, and campaigning can hit below the belt or stay friendly.

What the losing students helped win was the biggest election ever held, with over 1,000 votes cast. Numerical figures cannot picture the interest stirred up in this election. Even with rather strict, if reasonable, election rules, ingenuity won all of the positions.

When people stand in line to vote at T. C. U., in any sort of election, something new has happened. This time it was terrific publicity.

The annual editor and cheer leader posts are generally the most coveted posts in campus elections, and this year, with three eligible candidates for Skiff editor for the first time in years, that post was fought for too. But publicity made this election.

If student council posts, and much-desired "Favorites," positions could have as much politicking, campus style, there would always be a line waiting to vote, election days.

Spring Finale

An important year in the University's colorful history is approaching its end. Most events honoring the school's 75th anniversary are already written off. One, yet to be observed is the premiere performance of Don Gillis' "Symphony No. 7," "Saga of a Prairie School." It will be the spring finale of T. C. U.'s Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

The symphony's four movements will follow a spiritual rather than a realistic or historical approach. The music will have a feeling of Texas' vast open spaces; a prayerful willingness of the founding fathers to devote their lives to a cause.

Southwestern folk—active, openhearted, hospitable, good people—are portrayed. They are men of courage and the future is in them.

Gillis' symphony concludes depicting the University as it is today, ending with its Alma Mater heard in perfect tribute to its present glory and future power.

Hundreds of persons will jam Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium June 6 to hear the different score. The famous composer whose "music of sentiment" was inspired by his love of T. C. U., has produced a work that will sing in a new way, "Hail all hail, T. C. U."

★ That's Right, Scotty
★ Cough Contest!
★ Elections and Food

Scotty Scott, candidate for head yell leader, was somewhat worried Tuesday as students filed in to the polls.

"There's too many Republicans on the campus," remarked Scotty. "And I'm afraid they will object to a third term."

The latest word in excuses for tardiness: E. W. Harrison, late to an 8 o'clock class, explained that he had had to sleep in his car all night. It seems that his partner in a trucking business had accidentally carried E. W.'s keys home after a late snack at a cafe, and E. W. didn't want to take a taxi home and leave his new Lincoln Continental alone on the street overnight.

A fellow classmate pointed out a poem in English to Bill Short, saying that it was an excellent work. Bill read it, shook his head vigorously and said, "Nope. It's no good. It's not a masterpiece. I can understand it."

Richard Owens was trying desperately to attract a student's eye in Dr. Nunn's history class to see if the Prof had checked the roll and was surprised to hear the Prof say, "Yes I have checked the roll Owens, come in."

"Champion Speaker to Be Named," was the headline of an article in the Star-Telegram, May 20, announcing the Gough Press will "hire" Journalism Junior.

Some junior Journalism major will be offered the opportunity to start an internship as a reporter for the Fort Worth Press this summer with an expense allowance of $27.50 per week and living quarters at the Y.M.C.A. or Y.W.C.A. if desired.

This opportunity comes through a new plan for co-operation between the Texas Newspaper Association and the recognized schools and departments of journalism in Texas.

The plan was formulated by a committee headed by the late J. Willard Ridings and is so established that each school will provide a specified number of students to work for various newspapers during the summer months.

3 Radio Majors
Get Scholarships

Three one-year scholarships or the equivalent in cash, valued at $300 each have been awarded to three radio majors for their work in the past year.

Based on the seven programs presented by the radio department over KFJZ entitled "T. C. U. On The Air" judges awarded Miss Virginia Swank the award for best actress.

The actor's award went to W. B. Shropshire, sophomore, for showing the most improvement in acting during the series of programs.

James Boultinghouse, junior, was presented the other scholarship though his voice was never heard on the program. His award came for handling the sound effects in the most consistent and satisfactory manner for the programs.

Winners were chosen on the basis of actual performances on the programs, active interests shown in the radio department and future possibilities in radio work.

Judges for the contest were Gene L. Cagle, station manager of KFJZ; Dean T. Smith McCorkle, and Dr. E. L. Pross.

By JIM WILLMON

This Spring's conference meeting in Houston brought up once again the idea of admitting Texas Tech and possibly more schools into the S. W. C. A group of civic leaders from Lubbock represented the High Plains school, but no formal admission request was made. It seems that the Tech officials have taken the commendable stand of not asking for admission but of waiting until the conference members, themselves, ask Tech to join the circuit.

There are two sides to the question of whether or not the conference should be expanded. Opponents to the idea argue that by increasing the membership, it would be impossible to play a round-robin football schedule without seriously cutting down on the number of inter-sectional tilts. By cutting down the number of such games, it is felt that the prestige of the conference might suffer. Then too, others argue that Tech is a "small" school, but these people fail to take into consideration the fact that there are three present members that have smaller enrollments—T. C. U., Baylor and Rice.

There also, has been a consistent rumor in the past few months that Oklahoma is seriously considering leaving the Big Seven and may seek a S. W. C. berth. O. U. is probably the most misplaced school in the country as far as athletic conferences are concerned. The institution has practically nothing in common with the Northern schools which comprise the rest of the loop. Oklahoma was one of the original members of the S. W. C. when it was organized back in 1914.

Out of all the major conferences in the nation, the Big Seven and the Southwest are the only two which maintain a round-robin football schedule. There are eight members in the Ivy League, 12 in the Southeast Conference, 16 in the Southern, nine in the Western, five in the Missouri Valley, nine in the border, seven in the Mountain States and 10 in the Pacific Coast Conference—none of these conferences have round-robin schedules.

It might be well to expand the S. W. C. to include Tech, Oklahoma and possibly Oklahoma A. & M. and Tulsa. All these schools have played member teams consistently for years. Regulations could be set up governing the minimum number of games to be played for championship consideration, and in case two teams, which haven't met during the regular season, should tie for the crown, the two could play in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day for the championship. Such a tilt would draw more interest than any possible inter-sectional game.

The balls and bats are stored away at last and in the final analysis, the Frogs' batting averages stack up like this:

	AB	H	Pct.
Jim Busby	53	27	.509

As Intramural Trackmen Compete Today Records of Past Years Will Be at Stake

The annual intramural track and field meet will get under way at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon on the Stadium cinder path. Competition in five races and four field events will pit members of all classes for the team title and individuals for medal honors. Medals will be presented to the winner of each event and points toward intramural letters will be awarded all competitors.

The annual event, as now run, began in 1937 as a recognized campus affair. Competition is now limited as then to students other than those who had earned a varsity letter in any of the major sports. In the early days the meets were held with all students and varsity athletics except trackmen allowed to compete, and also in 1938, 1939 and 1940.

Last year's meet was a duel for top honors between Bill Padon and James Kellett. Both men garnered 14½ points for their respective classes. Padon was a junior and Kellett a freshman. Ray Eller set new records in the 100 and 220 yard dash. Eller stepped the century in 10.3 and the 220 in 25.1.

Records for this year's entrants to shoot at were established this week when The Skiff sports staff collected summaries of previous meets and recorded the best performances. The records have been divided into two groups, one for the meets in which varsity athletes have been barred and the other for all-time including both the old and new style meets.

In the non-varsity class the records are:

Event	Record	Name	Year
100	10.3	Ray Eller	1947
220	25.1	Ray Eller	1947
440	55.1	James Kellett	1947

Shot	36'7"	Brooks	1937
Discus	95'7"	Bill Padon	1947

The records for competition of all students are:

Event	Record	Name	Year
100	10.1	Olin Jones	1935
220	24.3	Don Looney	1938
440	55.1	James Kellett	1947

Intramural Lettermen, Champion to Be Picked
An intramural champion and the individual winners of intramural letters will be decided next week.

The undefeated Juniors, champions of the Wednesday league, and the Sophs, leaders of the Tuesday circuit, will meet either Tuesday or Wednesday for the softball crown.

Winners in the tennis tournament cannot be determined yet due to lack of games played off to date. If the games are played then the finals can be arranged.

When these events, along with the intramural track meet, are completed, points will then be compiled as soon as possible to determine the letter winners.

TOP FROG NETMEN, John Baker and Hap Manning, in practice matches.

TCU Tennis Team Repeats With Third Place in SWC

For the second year the T. C. U. netmen have fought their way to third place in the Southwest Conference.

The Christian courtmen opened the season like a house on fire, with victories over non-conference Texas Tech, 4-2, 3-3. In the conference the netmen won three matches losing two and tying with Texas A. & M. Victories were over Baylor 6-0, S. M. U. 4-2 and Arkansas 4-2. Losses were Texas with a score of 6-0 and Rice with 6-0.

At the individual championship meeting of the Southwest Conference in Houston last week T. C. U. netmen representatives, Hap Manning and John Baker drew as their opponents netmen from Texas. Manning went to the quarters before meeting defeat. Baker got as far as second round in the singles before he too went down.

Coach C. A. Burch is expecting a powerful team next season, as Carl Knox will be the only loss off this year's squad.

Malone Plays "Hot-Cold" Golf

Bobby Malone, T.C.U.'s hot and cold golfer, carded his lowest score in the history of his golf career last Thursday in the opening round of the Southwest Conference individual tournament at Houston.

Although the Frog southpaw finished the 72-hole test in a three-way tie for eighth place, his six under par 66 gave him the satisfaction of leading a field of Texas' finest golfers and his nearest rival by five strokes. Bobby toured the front side in 34 and blazed the back nine in 32, picking up seven birdies and one bogie in professional style. But for the last three rounds, Malone played like a Sunday golfer on a strange windy course to wind up with a 302 total.

"Everything went wrong after that first 18 holes," he remarked. Slender Bob Watson of the University of Texas won the 1948 title with a 69 on his final round over the 6-756-yard Brae Burn Country Club to finish with a three under par total of 285.

The Frogs' Jack Williams carded rounds of 73-75-75-80 to finish 11th with a 303 score.

Texas A. & M. won the team championship this season under the new single round robin system.

A son was born May 14 to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Killian. Mrs. Killian is the former Miss Ann Orbeck, ex '46, daughter of Mrs. Helen Orbeck, dietician in the Cafeteria.

Sherry Turney, ex '47 from Dallas, spent the week-end on the campus as the guest of Billie Grace Tucker. Sherry is now an S. M. U. journalism major.

Kilman's Hopes Boosted in Loss

Although losing to Tom Adams Monday in Abilene, Harold Kilman's bid for an Olympic berth was in no way set back. The fight had no bearing on the Olympic tryouts scheduled in June for San Antonio.

The decision in Monday's bout was so close that even the highly partisan Abilene crowd was split in their opinion of the decision. Adams himself said, "Kilman should have had a draw at least." The Hardin-Simmons heavy refused to fight Kilman in a return bout later this month here. "Even in defeat,—however," says Lloyd Barber of the Fort Worth Recreation Department, "Kilman has strengthened his chance for an Olympic berth." Barber has trained him since entering T. C. U. in 1946.

The next scheduled fight for Kilman will be May 29 in an open air card at Sycamore Park. No opponent has been named yet. Prior to the Olympic try-outs June 15-17 in San Antonio, Kilman will meet Don Thompson, Odessa footballer, June 7 in Odessa.

Town Students Win WSA Softball Series

The town students' team emerged as champions over the dorm team in the best-two-out-of-three series of softball games which ended this week, bringing the W. S. A. intramural program for this semester to a close. Scores in the two games played were: 10 to 2 and 15 to 10, both in favor of the town team.

Frogs Lose to SMU to End Worst Season Since 1941

Closing out the most disastrous season since 1941, the Horned Frog baseball team was blanked by the S. M. U. Mustangs, 2 to 0, Tuesday, in Dallas. The Roachmen ended the year's play with the mediocre record of one game won and 13 lost in conference standings.

Tuesday's finale with the Ponies was strictly a pitcher's duel with Irwin Kay limiting the Frogs to three singles while Dave Choate was giving up seven well scattered hits. All the scoring was concentrated in the eighth frame when the Methodist managed to put three singles together for the two runs.

Jim Busby was held hitless for the second time of the season. The only Frogs able to knock Kay were Jim Nolen, George Stancoff and Carl Koch.

Both teams committed but one error, which is something of a record for the Purple. Choate struck out two men and issued only three free passes. Kay hurled strike No. 3 to seven and gave up four BOB's.

This season was almost a carbon copy of 1941, as in both years, the only Purple victory came at the expense of the Rice Owls. In the 24 years that T. C. U. has been playing baseball in the S. W. C., only one time have the Frogs been able to win the pennant—1933. In the 15 years since then, the Purple has been the cellar-dweller six times and has only been able to finish higher than third place one time.

High expectations were held early in the season that the Roachmen might be the dark-horse contender for conference honors when the Frogs pushed over five of their first six non-conference collegiate opponents, but these hopes failed to materialize.

June and Graduation Mark Trek Toward Hitching Post

No. 1 hit tune on the campus these days is "The Girl That I Married." Coeds are changing from gingham to satin and their best beaux are "saying it with diamonds." Could it be the early Spring or the effects of the "Marriage and the Family" class?

June, moon, croon, swoon—they still rhyme for the future brides and grooms who will be married during the traditional wedding month. Planning June weddings are JOHN COOK, first football player since the middle twenties to win four varsity letters, and BILLIE SANDERS, GENE WARDYNSKI and TERRY DEAN, MARGIE LEE GOBER and EDWIN DAN POWELL, JEAN DYER and ARNOLD BROWER, BETTY RAE FORTNER and O. B. SMITH, MARCY RAINES and ELDEAN HEAD. Best man for ELDEAN will be twin brother ODEAN.

It will probably be a honeymoon in Mexico or New Orleans for FRANCES SADLER and DAVE McPHERSON, who will say "I do" next month.

Marriage will follow soon after graduation exercises for ROSE ANN FOX. She will marry GEORGE COLDWELL in ROSE ANN'S hometown of Albuquerque, N. M. Also on the list of June brides is MARY MAUDE MACK. She and groom-to-be TOM PRENTICE will honeymoon in New Mexico, and then move to Abilene where Tom attends Hardin-Simmons. MARGARET HAILEY will marry DR. W. O. WHITE in June, and then continue her studies at T. C. U. BROWN CHILES will also graduate to the tune of the wedding march. He'll be married to his high school sweetheart, WANDA WILLIAMS in Waxahachie on June 4.

Looking forward to July are CURTIS CANTOR, senior and MARYLOU MILLER, A. B. '48. They will walk down the aisle July 9 in St. John's Episcopal Church. LA VERNE CAPPS and JACK LEE, graduate law student at the University of Texas, will be married July 17 in Mason.

JIM LACY, T. C. U. golfer, and JOY LEE WELCH will have an August wedding as will CELESTE RENFRO and FRED SMITH, BETTY LOU HITSON and ALEX COX. HAROLD ("PLUFF") THOMAS and JANE GORDON of Amarillo. PLUFF's engagement was announced at a Clark Hall stag party at Mosque Point recently.

Looking at the practical side of marriage are JANE GRAHAM and LEWIS JONES, both of Washington, D. C. They will be married Sept. 4 in Washington, and already have an apartment rented for next fall. DIANNE POPE and JOHN PASS, recently engaged, are planning a September wedding. LEIGH ATHA will go north to find her husband. She will be married to BOB JOHNSON, Michigan State student, next winter.

Engaged, but with no definite date set for the big event are CHARLEEN PLUMLY and CARROLL HARBUCK, KATHLEEN

BOYD and JAMES C. MILES, mathematics and history teacher at Polytechnic High School.

Marriage will be "good enough" for ERNIE MORRIS, senior, and MARY WATERS, freshman. The twosome will be married July 20 at Del Rio by the REV. HAROLD GOODENOUGH!

Dean to Preach Gospel Sunday In Synagogue

Dean D. Ray Lindley will preach the gospel Sunday in a Jewish synagogue.

While the Central Christian Church of San Antonio is without a building, the congregation has been invited to hold services in the synagogue. Dean Lindley will supply the pulpit in the absence of the Rev. Floyd Allen Bash, pastor.

After officiating at the dedication service of H. H. Phillips III in the afternoon, he will fly home in the Reynolds plane which made the "Round the World" flight. It was purchased by H. H. Phillips II.

Dr. Scott's Books Donated to Library

Approximately eight hundred and fifty volumes have been donated to the Library this week. Five hundred of these books belonged to the late Dr. Gayle Scott.

The Scott collection is made up of science periodicals, miscellaneous documents and selected books on geology.

"Books from the Scott library include many rare volumes which will prove valuable to geology students," says Mrs. Berdie Motherhead, "including many which the school has not previously had."

All of these books will be shelved in a special place when the new library addition is completed.

The second donation, made up of 350 bound volumes of the Dallas Morning News, was presented by the Dallas Public Library.

Big Spring Forum June 1 Picks Spain as Speaker

Dr. August O. Spain will be one of the principal speakers at a public forum on world government which will be held in the City Auditorium at Big Spring on June 1. The Big Spring Herald and the San Angelo Institute of World Government will sponsor the 8 p. m. meeting.

The title of Dr. Spain's talk will be "American Experience as a Guide for World Government."

A SCENE from Shaw's comedy, "Missalliance," which is the Fallis Players' last production for this school year, shows Vivien Johnson, Betty Ingle, Richard McGuire and Ed Parker. The final production will be at 8 p. m. tonight.

'Missalliance' Big Hit, to Be Repeated Tonight

"Missalliance," the last Fallis Players' production for this school year, was staged last night in the Auditorium, and will be presented again tonight.

It is a George Bernard Shaw comedy in two acts and is considered by some critics as his brightest work.

An elaborate set has been built on the stage under the direction of Miss Andrea Hetzel, speech department instructor. Stagecraft 318 class has erected the entire rear of an English country mansion, complete with patio and garden.

Faculty Square Dancing Slows Down to Waltzing

Although faculty members, their wives and husbands, spent Tuesday night in the Basketball Gymnasium learning five different square dances, the good-night number was a waltz. "We had to have one dance that everyone could enjoy," explains Miss Kitty Wingo, Hoe Down Club sponsor, who helped with instructing.

The square dance party was sponsored by the Faculty Woman's Club. Music was furnished by a string band, with Hugh Echols and Bill Padon doing the calling. During the intermission Dr. Newton Gaines played his guitar for the dancers.

Jimmy Paschal Will Sing Solo at Evensong Sunday

Jimmy Paschal will sing a solo, "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go," at 7:15 p. m. Sunday at University Christian Church's Evensong. Prof. George Fowler will speak and Mrs. Fred Parker will be guest organist.

The Rev. Granville Walker will deliver the message Sunday Morning at 9:30 and 10:50 a. m. The choir will sing "A Hymn of Praise."

New officers will be elected at Meliorist Club at 8:15 p. m.

Dr. Walter Volbach, director of the play, has chosen his cast well. An outstanding performance was turned out by Odin Wilson, who portrays "Bentley," a spoiled, snobbish, brutally rude young man. Other commendably comical parts were done by Harry Flowers, as "Tarleton Sr.," Robert Durrett, as "Percival" and Dick Horst, in the role of the ardent Socialist, "Gunner."

Other members of the cast are Ed Parker, as "Tarleton Jr.," Richard McGuire, "Lord Sommerhays"; Vivien Johnson, "Mrs. Tarleton"; Betty Ingle, "Hypatia," and Dorothy Nuss, as "Lina."

In Shaw's brilliant style he deals with many touchy problems, such as family life, scandal and Socialism versus capitalism. But all are handled in a laughable, satirical fashion, with the characters putting over the "punch lines" with effective ease.

Great fun is poked at the stuffy, throat-clearing type of English lord, but an equal amount of ribbing is directed toward the farcical, chest-thumping radical Socialist.

Even a few plugs for vegetarianism occasionally punctuate the lines. G. B. S. is, of course, a devout vegetarian.

Dr. Volbach's skill in the direction of the play is accountable to his previous experience with it. He was assistant director and producer of "Missalliance" in 1922 when it was presented at the Deutsche Theater in Berlin.

The technical crew, with Morton Walker as assistant director, have created good effects with lighting. Also the costuming, of the period around 1912, is authentic.

"Missalliance" may be seen again at 8 p. m. tonight in the Auditorium. The price is 60 cents.

history professor and Legionnaire, "Red" Brothers, student body president, and Gene Abshire, T. C. U. Legionnaire commander. Joe Spurlock, commander of the 12th district, will give the opening address on "State of the American Legion." Also included in the morning activities will be a debate on the question of a state bonus for veterans.

During the afternoon session, there will be a mass initiation carried on by the 40 & 8 and a talk, "Veterans on Trial," by John Shirley. Officers for next year will be elected and delegates selected to attend the national convention in Miami next October.

Representatives from the Veterans Administration, Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Affairs Commission will be present to discuss problems with veterans.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, who will meet in joint session with the Legionnaires during the morning, will meet in the Mexican Lounge of Foster Hall during the afternoon.

Abshire, commander of the T. C. U. post, states that this is the first time that such a convention has been held on a university campus and also the first time that a post composed entirely of World War II veterans has been host to a district convention.
