Jarvis Hall? No, Boys, It's Changed to 'Jo Ann's Joint'

"Jo Ann's Joint" might become technically the new name of Jarvis Hall. There are nine Jo Anns in Jarvis, five of whom are freshmen, two are sophomores, one a junior, and one a graduate student. Not all of them spell their names alike, but the pronunciation is the same.

First on the list is Miss Jo Ann Brenner, San Antonio, freshman art major, who "sees no sense in sitting around moping," so she laughs all the time. Her pet peeve is false people and her hobby is men. She taught swimming to beginners and intermediates at the Y. W. C. A. in San Antonio, and was formerly a "Lasso" at Jefferson High School. "I was top sergeant and played a bugle," she elaborated gleefully. "Let me show you a picture."

Miss Jo Ann Folsom, freshman from Dallas, formerly attended the Miss Ella Hockaday School for Girls. She is also an art major who adores ice skating.

In addition to the Freshman Prom and the Homecoming Dance, Matthews announced tentative plans for another street dance, weather permitting. The lounge will have a free dance every Wednesday evening.

Since there are three night football games this year, dances that usually follow after the game may be held on the Friday nights preceding the games, reports Matthews.

Frogs Shade Kansas 14-13 In Near Upset

Ludiker Kicks Jayhawks Into Defeat as Miscues Are Costly to Both Teams

The University of Kansas Jayhawks proved themselves very formidable opening game competition, and except for two perfect extra point boots by Homer Ludiker, the game would have ended in a third consecutive tie between the two teams.

The 14-to-13 count is comparable to the closeness of the entire proceedings, and the record opening throng of about 26,000 spectators were well entertained.

It was an interesting, if not spectacular, match. Blocked punts, fumbles, dropped passes and other new-season miscues were a dime a dozen, and mistakes were directly responsible for three of the four touchdowns.

The Frogs were the first to cash in when they recovered a fumble by K. U. on the Jayhawk 10 late in the first quarter. Wayne Rogers pounced on the "hide, and four plays later Pete Stout edged across the double stripe. Ludiker's P. A. T. kick was good, and first half scoring was over.

The lighter Kansas threw a scare into the Frog camp before the second half was two minutes old. Little Dave Schmidt, one of the smallest varsity ends the Frogs have faced since the days Herbie Smith performed for Texas A. & M., blocked a Joslin punt. Tackle Hugh Johnson was back first, scooped up the ball on the 15 and lumbered into pay dirt untouched. The potential tying extra point try by Forrest Griffith went wide.

Kicking was to play a most important part in the second Frog score some five minutes later, and punters for both teams had a hand in it. Joslin started things by spiraling a beauty out on the five. Frank Pattee dropped back to punt. Billy Moonman got in the way and Wayne Rogers covered it in the end zone for a touchdown. Again Ludiker came through with a high and true boot through the uprights.

The Purple's seemingly safe lead took a turn for the worse in the last setto when the host club marched half the length of the field for their second mark. Running and passing plays were about equally responsible for the yardage, and Pattee rammed middle from a foot out for the tally. The kick was good, but to no avail.

Witness the statistics for an idea of how well the two teams were matched: T. C. U. had the edge in first downs, 10 to 8; in yards gained rushing, 138 to 115; in passing, 83 to 78; and in pass completions, eight for 20 as compared to 6 of 16 by the Kansas. The Christians swiped two enemy aerials and lost only one in like manner. Incidentally, the Frogs also "led" in penalties, being set back seven times for 55 yards.

Lindy Berry was the leading offensive threat of the game with

Texas Picked to Take Crown In T. C. U. News Service Poll

Frogs Named 4th Although Polling More First Place Votes Than 3rd Place Owls—Mustangs Picked Second

The Texas Longhorns are going to win the 1948 Southwest Conference football championship—that is the composite prediction of the newspaper sports writers and radio announcers of the area in the fifteenth annual T. C. U. News Service pre-season poll.

Texas was the first place choice of slightly more than half the 90 "experts" and was picked no lower than fourth by those who voted in the poll, conducted this year by Paul O. Ridings, director of the T. C. U. News Service, who has succeeded his father, the late J. Willard Ridings, who died last spring after 21 years of handling Frog publicity and who inaugurated the pre-season poll in 1934.

Close behind the Longhorns in the favor of the sports writers and announcers are the defending champions, S. M. U.'s Mustangs. The Pones with 32½ first place votes finished just 39½ points behind the Steers in the balloting.

Scoring one point for each first place vote, two for second, etc., the Texas selections add up to 154 points, and S. M. U.'s total is 103½. The tally for all seven teams indicates that this fall's conference race will find the teams divided into four parts:

Texas, 154, and S. M. U., 103½, battling it out for the championship.

Rice, 309, and T. C. U., 329½, fighting it out behind the leaders.

Arkansas, 423, following in fifth place.

And A. & M., 548, and Baylor,

553, trying to stay out of the cellar. The five point margin of the Aggies over the Bears, it might be pointed out, marked the closest balloting of the poll.

Extreme diversity of opinion among the experts is shown by the fact that four teams, including the defending champion, S. M. U., were picked to finish in every spot from first to last. In addition to Texas and S. M. U., others picked by some experts as potential champions include T. C. U. with eight first place votes, Rice with three, and Arkansas with one.

Although the Frogs received more championship votes than the Owls, they also were relegated to next to last and the cellar more often, with the result that Rice ended up as third place choice, T. C. U. as fourth.

With the knowledge that his Texas Longhorns have been established by the poll as favorites, Coach Blair Cherry perhaps should take warning that in the past this has generally been a hex instead of a guarantee of the title. Only three times in the previous 14 polls has the team picked as composite pre-season favorite emerged as champion; twice, however, it was Texas, in 1943 and 1945, and the other correct September call was T. C. U. in 1938.

The Ridings poll, nevertheless, has usually given a fair idea of the relative strength of the seven teams.

Wilde Returns After Shift From Redskins to Lions

George Wilde, a promising tailback prospect with the Frogs in the spring of 1947, who was troubled with leg injuries, has secured his release from the Detroit Lions professional football club and has returned to T. C. U.

After being declared ineligible for Southwest Conference play in 1947, Wilde signed a professional contract with the Washington Redskins with whom he enjoyed a successful season as defensive back.

Wilde was traded to the Lions this past summer, but after a conference with Coach Bo McMillin, he decided to leave the game chiefly because of the injuries. Another contributing factor to his leaving the professional ranks and returning to college was that the Redskins and Lions failed to use him as a passer.

Wilde says he does not intend to return to the pro game unless he is assured that his passing ability, which he considers his primary asset, will be utilized.

"The pro game, in comparison with college football, is a rougher, faster, more advanced contest by specialists trying to score from a position on the field," claims Wilde.

Wilde, a sociology major in Graham, played two years of football at Texas A&M prior to entering the Navy in 1943. He has younger brothers attending T. U., Garner and Dan—the latter tailback on the Frog squad.

Cat's Shortstop Lindsey To Study Business Here

Jack Lindsey, Fort Worth Cat shortstop, has enrolled in T. C. U., majoring in business administration.

Limping on an injured ankle, hurt in the recent Cat-Shreveport play-offs, Lindsey hopes he'll be excused from classes should the Cats get in the Dixie Series, and naturally hopes he can play. "How are the Frogs' chances against Oklahoma A&M this week?" Lindsey queries. "Really hope they win," he adds.

Jack plans on playing baseball for Fort Worth during the season. "If I get good enough," he says, "I would like to 'move up' in baseball."

Lindsey attended the University of Texas in 1944-45, playing baseball with the Longhorns, after graduating from Adamson High in Dallas.

a total of 125 yards picked up from scrimmage.

Greatest defensive game was turned in by Wayne Rogers. Little yardage was gained around his end, and his alertness in recovering a fumble and a blocked punt gives him the nod over other standouts like Doyle Malone, the half-pint center, Hubert Eoff and George Brown.

Frogs Ready For Tussle With Cowpokes

TCU Has Lost Four Straight To Farmers

Kick-off Time 2:30 p. m.; Game Will Be Dedication For Lewis Field Stadium

The Frogs are ready to meet the hard charging Oklahoma A. & M. Cowpokes tomorrow afternoon in Stillwater. Minor injuries received by the Frogs in their opener with Kansas City last week have all healed.

The kick-off is slated for 2:30 p. m., and the game has been chosen for dedication ceremonies of Lewis Field Stadium, recently enlarged to accommodate more than 31,000 fans.

Not since 1943, when the Christians had their own way with a 25-10 victory, have they been able to scratch the win column. Since that time the Cowpokes have waited off with victories of 35-10 (Cotton Bowl game of '45), 25 to 12, 7 to 6 and 14 to 7.

Spavital Back

In last year's engagement, it was touchdowns on Dynamo Jim Spavital's 87-yard punt runback and a pass by John Carey that spelled the difference. A TD pass from Leon Joslin to Pete Stout, and that stupendous 94-yard boot by Carl Knox were all the relaxed Frogs could do.

Practically the same lineup will confront the Frogs tomorrow, and that means the boys from the Hill are in for a rough and tough afternoon.

Men who are capable of really throwing their weight around are Right Halfback Bill Grimes, one of the flashiest broken field runners the Frogs will face, Bulldozing Bob Meinert, 240-pound tackle, J. D. Cheek, and the forementioned Spavital.

Neither team was as impressive in their opening games last week as their followers had hoped, although both squeezed through with victories.

A. & M. had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to defeat a surprisingly tough Wichita University, 27 to 14. It was the speedy Grimes who pulled the game out of the fire with an 80-yard scoring dash, and Spavital added a marker for good measure with less than a minute left in the game.

Teams Matched

Indications are that both teams will be in fairly good condition. A handful of Frogs have been slowed down by minor injuries and they are expected to be ready by game time. George Brown has a sore shoulder, Pete Stout wrenched his neck—the same one that was broken in high school play—but both are ticketed for service.

Jack Archer has recovered from a leg wound and may possibly get the starting nod at the wingback post, although Johnny Dunn performed credibly in his first game in the big-time last week.

Coach Meyer has been concentrating on a sharper passing attack and better condition for his boys. The Frogs worked against the Wogs for the first time this week and were impressive against the unfamiliar frosh.

A lot of beef will be on hand for the opening whistle tomorrow, as both lines will tip the scales at an average of 211 pounds per man. The purple will have a slight advantage in the secondary, with a 192-pound average as compared to 184 for the Oakies. The overall team average favors the Christians by only two pounds—204 to 202.

Lettermen Plentiful

Every position of the two teams—with the exception of the Frog wingback—will be manned by at least two lettermen.

32 All-State, All-District Men On '48 Horned Frog Squad

All-state and all-district honors among the Horned Frog players seem to be a regularity instead of a novelty. Of the 50 varsity members, no less than 32 are former all-state and all-district timber.

Nine of them were named to all-state berths; four were on the first eleven. These are Bill Elliott, Highland Park, and Bill Moorman, Odessa, ends; Morelle ("Bull") Hicks, Lufkin, right guard, and Gene Read, Ardmore, Okla., fullback.

Named to all-state second squads were Lindy Berry, Wichita Falls, back; George Boal, Thomas Jefferson, end; Otis McKelvey, Odessa, fullback. Third string all-state nominees include Bob Moorman, Odessa, end, and Jimmy Hickey, Paris, fullback.

Frogs who won all-district honors include Morris Bailey, Vernon, end; Tom Bishop, Kileen, back; David Bloxom, Jeff Davis, back; Shankle Bloxom, Houston, guard; Keith Carpenter, Beeville, back; George Clifton, Decatur, tackle.

Light or Heavy, Prof. Alexander Can Throw You

An undefeated collegiate wrestling champion is now one of the faculty members. He is E. R. Alexander, professor of chemistry.

In his senior year, 1924, at Colorado State College of Education, Prof. Alexander was in the light heavyweight wrestling division. Although he weighed 170 pounds, he remarks, he often wrestled the heavyweights and was never defeated by anyone in the Rocky Mountain District.

Prof. Alexander explains that wrestling is one of the college sports in that section of the country.

Wrestling is not the limit to Prof. Alexander's athletic prowess. He has three letters in football and one in track from the same college.

Heidt Will Play For Frog Club

Horace Heidt and his new Musical Knights—complete with their coast-to-coast headliner acts—will appear Oct. 17 in Fort Worth at the W.M. Rogers Memorial Auditorium. Heidt will perform under the auspices of the Texas Christian University Frog Club.

Highlight of the two-hour program will be Heidt's 30-minute radio broadcast sponsored by Philip Morris cigarettes over the National Broadcasting Company at 9:30 p.m. The complete performance will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Advance ticket sales will begin October 1 at the Central Ticket Office, located downtown on the main floor lobby of the Hotel Texas. Ducats are $3.50, $2.40 and $1.80.

Talent scouts from the Heidt entourage will come to Fort Worth next week to begin auditions for the five musical performers who will be selected to appear on the national hook-up with Heidt. These performers will be picked from the Fort Worth high schools and two colleges. Definite times and sites for these try-outs will be announced later.

Among those featured with Heidt include Dick Contino, Richard Melari, Frank Saputo, Jr., Tiny Hutton, Harold Peck, Vic Valente, Jerry Rothaus, Lorraine Burton, Barbara Page, the Triple Tongue Trupeteers, and thirty others.

Heidt will broadcast from only one other Texas city and his Fort Worth showing will be the only one in North Texas.

Intramural Sports Will Begin 2 o'Clock Tuesday Afternoon

Touch Football, Volleyball, Handball and Tennis Included on Activity Program This Semester

Touch football, volleyball, handball and tennis are on the intramural sports agenda for this semester with football officially getting underway at 2 p. m. Tuesday on the field near the tennis courts.

The Tuesday league, made up of the freshmen, sophomores, juniors and preachers, has two games scheduled. Play, which opens Tuesday, will find the preachers meeting the freshmen in the 2 o'clock opener and the sophomores and juniors clashing in a game which will start immediately after the preacher-freshmen tilt.

The Wednesday league, composed of the freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors, will open its season Wednesday with the freshmen engaging the seniors in the 2 p. m. curtain raiser. This tilt will be followed by a game putting the sophomores against the juniors.

These two leagues will play one game weekly for the coming six weeks with the league winners meeting in a best two-out-of-three series for the intramural championship. Last year's sophomore teams swept honors by garnering 144 points. As a result, this year's junior team will be heavily favored. The seniors were runners-up last season with 87 points.

Volley ball, handball and tennis schedules have not been made up, but will be arranged before the completion of the touch football program.

Students wishing to participate in intramural sports may do so by signing their names on the Physical Education bulletin board located in the Gym.

Intramural awards will be based on a point system. To receive one of these awards, it is necessary for the student to take part in each of the sports offered by the physical education department. Contestants will be given 10 points for each of the major sports they take part in, these being football, volleyball, softball and basketball. Five points will be given for each match played in handball and tennis. Points will also be given for swimming and track. The number of points to be given in these events will be judged by the contestant's ability.

Election, Reorganizations Planned in Leti Meeting

Members of Leti, sophomore girls' social club met for reorganization and election of officers last night in Waits Hall Modern Lounge. Plans were also made for organization of the freshman girls' club, Frogettes.

Miss Betty Perot, Texarkana Junior, retiring Leti president, and Miss Mary Ruth Boone, Woodstock sophomore, retiring Frogettes president, were co-chairmen for the meeting. Miss Elizabeth Shelburne, dean of women, and Miss Alma McClendon, dormitory director, assisted the girls.

Plans were made to help freshmen girls become acquainted with T. C. U. and to get them dates for the Freshman Prom.

Sophomore transfers are eligible to join Leti.

Frogs were victims — almost as neat a "snow job" as was handed out by a Frog in some time.

Attempting to find a bunch of horses who didn't know which way to run with the ball, the Meyer team up against a pretty good group of leather luggers, and a mite later to come back with their shirts Saturday against Kansas Cinderella boys.

Even though the contest was no closer than was expected, it is probable that the Frogs learned about needed improvements from other conference teams, Arkansas and Texas, who are carrying their way. The disconcerting of opening-season games will start showing when the Frogs are down later in the conference race. Let 'em have their one of the most enlightening things that arose in the Kansas game was the passing of Lindy True, his average of 6 for 7, was much to be desired, and it is indicative of the manner in which he tossed the ball. Numerous passes were made to their mark only to be deflected by their intended receiver.

On the debit side was that the present Frog handicap—ineptness. It cost them several precious yards that could have meant an altogether different ball game.

Frogs definitely weren't as impressive as they could have been and they will have to kick their heels if they hope to stall the powerful Oklahoma Cowpokes. Last year the Christians had around for breaks that they show and lost by 7 to 14 a game they should have taken. The same have virtually the same back and with speed that Bill Grimes and Jim Spavital, the Frogs will have at their best.

T.C.U. broke about even on the season market of high school transfer stars. Adrian Burke, Jr. College transfer and Ed Dutch wanted to replace Knox, turned up at Baylor probably will do the Bear. However, Gil Bartosh, who led who sparkled in the school all-star games, kept his promise of playing in after spending a week-down camp College Station. His game you-have-me-now-you-own-it was followed almost as by the press as the much after Byron Townsend. The has east his lot with the Longhorns in case you have heard.

The Frogs were recipients before the game last week of a thoughtful telegram from Alton Taylor who was slated for the wingback post before being stricken with polio this winter. The compliment was returned by the team by sending him a game ball, autographed by all the players. A very fine game indeed!

Attempting to pick football winners before the season gets underway is like playing the lottery—you can't win. But leave it to our two cents worth, a bit of tight-rope program (Continued on Page 6)

TCU Students Will Be Given Reserved Seats

No Standing In Lines, Grubbs States; Activity Passes To Be Exchanged

In order to protect the interests of the students and to keep outsiders out of the students' section T. C. U., for the first time, will assign students individual reserved seats at this year's Frog home games, according to Howard Grubbs, athletic director in charge of ticket sales.

"This new seating arrangement was approved by the Student Council last spring," says Ben Hearn, Jacksonville senior, "and it seems to me that the new arrangement will certainly be advantageous to the students."

The primary purpose of the new seating arrangement is to eliminate the necessity of students having to stand in line at the gate in order to get the better seats.

Tickets will be distributed differently under the new plan. From 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Monday through Friday preceding the home game tickets may be obtained at the ticket booth at the main entrance on the east side of the stadium, says Mr. Grubbs.

Coupons in the activity books can be traded for tickets. The admission stub will be detached and the student will be admitted to the game by his seat stub only if it is accompanied by his own activity book, declares Grubbs.

"One student may obtain as many student tickets as he has activity books, which will permit students to obtain tickets adjacent to those with whom they desire to sit," continues Grubbs, "but there will be no extra seats available in the students' section."

Wives of students may obtain activity books by accompanying their husbands to the Registrar's Office and the price is $10 per book, the Registrar's Office announced.

T. C. U. Spudnut Shop Will Be Opened Oct. 1

The T. C. U. Spudnut Shop, 3061 University Dr., will open Oct. 1 under the ownership of Bill Chiller, a former T. C. U. student, and R. S. Folsom.

KTCU, New Campus Radio Station, Should Be on Air About October 20

KTCU, T. C. U.'s own radio station, should be on the air by Oct. 20, according to Frederic B. Folks, instructor in radio and manager of the new station to be located on the campus.

With 90 per cent of the technical work now complete, only two major tasks remain to be done, Mr. Folks states. A cable has to be extended from the Library to Building No. 2, and work to be completed on the construction of the transmitter recently started by John Hoseman, Fort Worth senior physics major, who is engineer of the project.

Once the station is in operation programs will originate in Building No. 2 and from there will be carried by cable to the Administration Building where they will be transmitted to campus light wires. This means that anyone can pick up the programs at one of the numerous outlets on the campus's private light system.

Topics to be broadcast will be decided on by a committee composed of faculty members and students. No definite method as to the selection of this committee has been decided on, according to Mr. Folks.

While the K. T. C. U. studio is located in the speech building and will be used to train students of that department, Mr. Folks said that it is the aim of the school to make the station an all student affair and not an exclusive speech training hook-up.

The exact date of the first fall meeting of the Radio Workshop will be announced next week. This campus radio club is open to all T. C. U. students interested in any phase of radio.

TCU Scores 1st In New Stands For Band Boys

T. C. U. is probably the first university in the country to provide bandstands built into the stadium for both the home and visiting band, announced Leon Breeden, band director. These bandstands are raised platforms, each one four and one half feet higher than the lower one. A 100 piece band can be seated on each bandstand, every band member having a folding chair to sit on.

A unique feature of this addition will be the use of a telephone hook-up between band directors, who will be seated on opposite sides of the stadium. "Better coordination of game music is expected through the use of this system," said Breeden.

In order to separate the band from the spectators a steel railing runs in front and along one side of the bandstands. Aisles border the back and the other side.

Departmental editors, special writers, and advertising assistants for the Horned Frog, T. C. U. annual, will be selected Thursday.

All students interested in working on the 1949 annual should be present at the meeting.

Remaining positions must be filled next week, Launius said.
