And Congress Said, 'Let There Be a Frog'

Frogs, 'Pokes to Clash In Night Home Opener

First home game! The 1949 T. C. U. Horned Frogs will be out to make it two in a row tomorrow night at 8 o'clock when the Aggies of Oklahoma A. & M. open their season here. The Frogs will be seeking their second victory of the new season and the second game in a row over the Aggies.

The Purple and White started last week, 28-0, over Kansas at Lawrence, and Oklahoma A. & M.

went down, 21-14, last season in Stillwater. As the Aggies, or Cowpokes, as they also are dubbed, have yet to play this year, they will have an advantage in scout reports from the Frog opener. Oklahoma A. & M. has not been beaten in an opening game since 1941.

Coach Jim Lookabaugh has steered the visitors' football machine since 1939. The Aggies usually come up with a strong team and this one has 22 lettermen back from the 1948 Missouri Valley championship outfit which won the Delta Bowl.

The T. C. U. forces are led by Captain Lindy Berry and Co-Captain Don Narrell. Lindy was the busiest back in the nation last season. On 190 runs and 134 passes he paced the Southwest Conference both in running and total offense.

The offensive lineup for Coach L. R. ("Dutch") Meyer's double and single wing and spread formations puts Morris Bailey and

After kicking around the above names and other suggestions, the Pep Cabinet at its Monday afternoon meeting decided to sponsor a contest for the naming of T. C. U.'s new mascot.

Any student may enter except members of the Pep Cabinet. Just clip the entry blank on this page, write in your suggestion and drop it in the box marked "Mascot Contest" in the Student Lounge.

Doss Lauds TCU Parking

Only Nine Offenders Are Given Tickets

Parking on the Hill has improved greatly over that of a year ago, M. A. Doss, superintendent of grounds, announced this week. He pointed out that only nine warning tickets have had to be issued since the beginning of school as of 4:30 p. m. Tuesday.

However, leniency in giving tickets has been exercised this week. Starting Monday, all parking violators will be given warning tickets.

Second offenders will be issued tickets that carry a $2 fine. These tickets are to be paid in the business office; failure to do so will result in the withholding of credit for courses until the fine is paid.

To date the parking problem has been limited to the west campus, where double parking, especially behind Clark and Goode Halls, and blocking of loading zones are the major violations.

Mr. Doss points out that the drives west of the Administration Building are fire lanes and must be kept open. Parking in loading zones causes delay and difficulty in delivering supplies to the school and in some instances results in keeping goods from being delivered.

Double parking and other traffic violations invite accidents. Even if car owners have insurance and are parked in a restricted zone or double parked they can not collect their own insurance, states Mr.

"... on the east campus has ... rates," says Mr. Doss, and I want to thank the students for the fine job they have done and ask their co-operation in obeying all traffic regulations."

Oct. 5 Election Set By Congress For Student Officers, Referendum

The election of Student Congress officers and a constitution revision referendum will be held at the same time, Oct. 5, the ad interim congress headed by Bill Hamilton, San Antonio senior, has decided.

Nineteen congress posts—president and vice-president of the student association and 17 representative positions will be filled. Candidates started filing petitions for posts today in the congress office. Deadline for filing is noon Wednesday. Candidates will meet at 11 a. m. Thursday in the congress office.

The constitution revision referendum offers three choices on the method of congressional representation to be incorporated into the constitution. The proposed revisions would (1) keep the present system of representation by classes, (2) switch qualifications to a school-and-college basis, or (3) remove virtually all requirements and make all Student Association offices open to any student.

Another revision to be voted on proposes to give to The Skiff 25 per cent of the Student Association fund. That fund is now divided between the permanent improvement fund and the Student Congress. The permanent improvement fund has been getting 30 per cent of the Student Association fund and congress has been receiving 70 per cent.

The proposed amendment would divide the Student Association fund three ways. Congress would receive 45 per cent, the permanent improvement fund would get 30 per cent and The Skiff would be allotted 25 per cent.

In the election each student will vote for a Student Association President, vice-president and the president and representative of his class. In addition freshmen and sophomores will elect six lower-class representatives at large while upper class students will elect three representatives at large.

Any student may file a petition for himself, attaching his signature, home town and classification and be listed on the ballot, or he may file a petition with his signature, home town and classification nominating someone else.

The candidate for president of the Student Association must be an undergraduate with no less than 84 semester hours, must have a grade-point index of at least 1.5 for the preceding semester, must have had experience as a student body officer and must have been a T. C. U. student for at least one preceding semester.

The vice-presidential candidate must be an undergraduate of at least junior standing with a 1.0 grade-point minimum for the preceding semester.

Upper-class representatives must have at least 54 semester hours and may be junior, senior or graduate students. Their grade-point index for the preceding semester must be at least 1.0.

Lower-class representatives may have up to 53 semester hours with the same grade-point requirement as upper-class representatives.

Class presidents must have an index of 1.0 with the exception of first-semester freshmen. The freshman candidates may have no more than 23 semester hours, and the sophomore candidates may have from 24 to 53 semester hours. The junior president may have 54 to 83 hours. The senior president must be an undergraduate with no less than 84 hours.

If only one candidate runs for an office, another election must be held for that office since the constitution states no candidate may be elected unopposed, declares Election Chairman Nancy King, Greenville senior.

Freshman Prom To Be Thursday

The curtain for the fall semester's social calendar will be rung up Thursday night when the annual formal Freshman Prom is held in the Basketball Gymnasium. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.

Harvey Anderson's orchestra will play. Feature of the dance, sponsored by the Student Congress and Pep Cabinet, will be the selection of a Freshman Queen.

She will be picked at random from the dance floor by a five-member committee composed of Dr. W. J. Hammond, congress sponsor; Mrs. Sara Morgan, president of the T. C. U. Women's Exes Association; R. S. Wetherell, acting director of men's dormitories; Miss Pat Miller, Fort Worth senior and head cheer leader; and Billy Dan Bass, Cleburne sophomore and cheer leader.

Jimmy Paschal, Amarillo senior, will be master of ceremonies. Freshmen and their dates will be admitted free if they wear their "caps," otherwise $1.50 a couple will be charged. Any student who wants to go but cannot afford the price of a ticket may see Mr. Wetherell, who has made arrangements with congress for this situation.

Although the dance is formal, tuxedos are not required. Suits and ties for the men and evening dresses for the women are essential, however.

A fall motif featuring autumn "trees" will be used. Dark green, brown and red crepe paper will be the "leaves" and brown cardboard will compose the "trunks." Each "tree" will represent one of T. C. U.'s football opponents.

Court Fight Promised—

Skiff Asks Portion Of Student Body Fee

The ad interim congress Wednesday okayed an additional amendment to the constitution to appear on the Oct. 5 election ballot.

The proposed amendment would increase the revenue of The Skiff if it were passed by the Student Association.

Yesterday, however, the Student Court received a formal protest from Thorp Andrews, Fort Worth junior, declaring that congress' action was illegal. He cited four reasons for believing that congress had acted without the proper authority:

1. No notice was given of the congress meeting.

2. Only five members were present and that was not a quorum.

3. The ad interim congress is not an official body and does not have the constitutional right to decide upon such matters.

4. The Skiff is a journalism laboratory and does not merit financial support from congress.

George Wilde, Graham senior, and James Vaughan, Fort Worth senior, the two judges in the Student Court will render a decision today on whether or not congress acted within its jurisdiction.

The proposed amendment would divide the student body fee of $1 a student three ways instead of two as it is now.

At the present time the two beneficiaries of the student body fee are congress, 70 per cent, and the permanent improvement fund 30 per cent.

The proposed amendment would give The Skiff 25 per cent of the total, leaving congress 45 per cent and the permanent improvement fund 30 per cent. The Skiff would receive no money from congress.

"The Skiff needs this money to lift itself from the deficit it has been operating under and, in addition, to provide adequate campus coverage by having a six-page paper," explains Editor Larry Denton, Bonham senior.

"We have galleys of type left over every week which means that several organizations which have been 'covered' by a reporter will fail to find their news in the paper. To have thorough coverage we need a six-page paper," he continues.

Denton appeared before congress with the permission of the publications committee to whom he first took the plea for money.

1400 Attend Convocation

LL.D. Degree Is Given The Rev. Mr. Gresham

"We are the forty-niners of our generation," the Rev. Perry E. Gresham of Detroit told his audience at the annual fall convocation Monday. It was the first meeting in the auditorium of the new fine arts building.

In his discussion of "Free Minds for a Free World" before more than 1400 students and faculty members, the former T. C. U. professor of philosophy said there is still pioneering to be done. Students of today "face the same perils of the unexplored" as did their ancestors who trekked across the treacherous mountains and prairies of the West, he emphasized.

The Rev. Mr. Gresham, who received an honorary LL.D. degree from President M. E. Sadler after his address, listed three great social trends of the American people: growth of the total state, amazing rapidity of social growth and the new power of communications which takes the form of propaganda. He warned that "if an individual wants freedom of free minds he must be worthy of freedom and remain free of his inhibitions."

"If we are to exercise freedom, we must be able to think for ourselves," he continued. Referring to the original forty-niners, the Rev. Mr. Gresham declared, "Cowards never started and the weak died on the way."

But the great hope for the future, he said, lies in the fact that "strong men keep coming on."

President Sadler opened the convocation by welcoming new students. He emphasized particularly the "splendid spirit" which he said prevailed on the campus during Freshman Week.

John W. Townsend, Fort Worth senior, was the first student to have his picture taken for the 1950 Horned Frog. It was snapped Sept. 13, the first day pictures were being taken.

Pictures are being made daily without appointments at Organ's Studio, 805 1/2 Houston St. The cost is $1 for all students except seniors, who pay $2. Seniors have two pictures made, one with cap and gown and one without.

"Oct. 22 is positively the last day for having your picture made for the annual," stresses Miss Billie Marie Meyers, Fort Worth senior and Horned Frog editor.

The deadline will not be extended beyond Oct. 22 because the Horned Frog is working under a cut budget and the pictures must be at the engravers in early November in order that the annual may receive a large discount, explains Miss Meyers.

Honorary LL.D. Given by T.C.U. For 75th Time

Seventy-five honorary degrees have been conferred by T. C. U. since the special ceremony was inaugurated during the University's 50th anniversary in 1923, it was announced from President Sadler's office this week.

The most recent to receive an honorary LL.D. degree was the Rev. Perry E. Gresham, former minister of the University Christian Church, who was the principal speaker at Monday's convocation.

Among the early recipients were the Rev. L. D. Anderson, pastor of First Christian Church; Major K. M. Van Zandt, and Col. Lewis Wortham, former publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, the latter two now deceased.

Clock-like precision was demonstrated by all faculty members and students who assisted in the registration of approximately 4200 students during the initial school week.

Complete figures will be released next week by the statistical department.

More than 1800 veterans have registered to date, announced Dr. Thomas F. Richardson, dean of student personnel. This figure is approximately 400 short of the high established last fall. Approximately 600 freshmen are enrolled in classes, the dean said.

Registration, handled more smoothly than any time since the influx in enrollment, was declared a success by C. A. Cumbie, assistant to the registrar. He pointed

'49 Enrollment Nears Record

Final T. C. U. enrollment figures probably will equal that of last year when 5883 students set a new high mark over a 12-month period, Dean Jerome Moore announced yesterday.

'Hi' Week Big Success

Dr. Sadler Applauds Welcome Committee

"I doubt if T. C. U. ever had a group of students trying harder to make new students feel welcome," commented President M. E. Sadler after he had watched "Howdy Week" progress.

The events on the "Howdy Week" calendar began when Jimmy Paschal, Amarillo senior who was largely responsible for the observance, met new students at the train stations, bus depot and air terminal on Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

From that time until the Saturday football game the calendar was crowded with social events. Monday there was a campus-wide open house with dancing, games, sing-songs and refreshments.

A cinematic dance planned for Tuesday night was rained out.

"Hi, There!," a musical comedy, was produced Wednesday and Thursday nights. A square dance sponsored by the "Y" also was held Thursday night.

Friday night there was a theater party at the T. C. U. theater followed by a send-off pep rally at the train station.

"Howdy Week" was climaxed Saturday, when the Frogs won their first game of the year.

Porterfield to Address

Dr. Austin L. Porterfield, professor of sociology, will travel to Milwaukee, Wis., this weekend, where he will attend the Congress of Correction, sponsored by the National Prison Association and the National Probation and Parole Association.

Notice

For the protection of the students there are University regulations which forbid the use of the name T. C. U. in any selling or commercial promotions and which also do not permit students to organize in any manner to seek preferential discounts from merchants.

Furthermore, solicitation of merchants and others for advertising, funds, prizes or other forms of support is expressly limited to The Skiff, The Horned Frog, and the athletic department programs.

Since this is the beginning of a new school year, these policies are being brought to the attention of all students.

Frogs Batter Kansas, 28-0, In First Game

Texas Christian University's Horned Frogs came home from Lawrence last week with a 28-0 victory over Kansas. It was the first game of the season for both teams.

The first Frog touchdown was set up by a 21-yard pass from Lindy Berry to Morris Bailey on the Kansas five-yard line. Lindy carried over for the first T. C. U. touchdown of 1949. Homer Ludiker's try for point was good to make the score 7-0, mid-way through the first quarter.

Berry's punt return of 45 yards early in the second period gave the Frogs a first-and-10 on the Kansas 35. Dan Wilde, Orein Browning, Johnny Dunn, and Otis McKelvey came into the backfield and McKelvey went to the 27. Wilde stepped all the way on the next play. Ludiker kicked goal. T. C. U. 14, Kansas 0.

George Boal's jump for Berry's 10-yard pass resulted in the big right end coming down wrong-side-up on the one-inch line. Some of the Frogs thought he was on the goal post side of the double-stripe, but Fullback John Merton made it official the next play with a lunge over the middle. Ludiker kicked. It stayed, 21-0, at the half.

Lindy hauled in a pass from the arm of Kansas' Jerry Bouge at the start of the fourth quarter and scored the final frog touchdown 56 yards later. Ludiker's place-kick left the score at 28-0.

A fourth-quarter field goal attempt by Ludiker failed from the Kansas 16.

A wet field failed to prevent T. C. U. from completing 13 of 29 passes attempted. The Frogs also caught more of the Jayhawkers' passes than the Kansas boys.

Homer Tompkins got half of the six intercepted by the Frogs. Only four out of 19 Kansas passes found their way into Jayhawkers hands.

Harold Kilman was a Frog defensive standout.

Forrest Griffith gave the Horned Frogs trouble from his fullback spot in the Kansas T. He made 79 of the 112 net yards gained rushing by the home team.

SPORTS NOTE BOOK
By CHARLES DICKEY

A new football season, a new Skiff, a new writer "expert." This is the place to look each week for the secret of how Krunchy Toasties were the real reason behind Jack Archer's touchdown run and not Don Narrell's blocking effort that moved down three would-be tacklers.

This is where the readers (if any) will find the answers to their (or his) questions about the Frogs. So, to get off to a flying start flat on our face, here is the inside dope on tomorrow's game straight from the mother-in-law of the guy who last painted the goal posts. It will be played.

Also in action this week-end will be the future opponents of T. C. U. in the Southwest Conference chase.

A. & M. goes over to San Antonio to meet Texas Tech. It doesn't make much difference who wins this one. Besides, we'd guess wrong anyway.

North Texas and Arkansas tangle in Little Rock. The Porkers will probably send their third string over to see how that new T-formation is going to work.

South Carolina comes to Baylor. Wake Forest tries to S. M. U. in Dallas. (Nepo, no mention of Johnson. Who's Walker?)

Texas should have a nice trip up to Temple. No telling what will happen after they get there.

Clemson and Rice will be way down in Houston, so we won't worry about them either, this week.

The Cowboys from Oklahoma A. & M. bring a rugged and rapid outfit down here for their season opener. Ken Roof and Ben Aldridge are supposed to run circles around Okie Jackrabbits for their morning exercises.

Quarterback Jack Hartman was top scorer for the Pokes last year. He's also rated as their best passer. Here's hoping tomorrow night he throws 'em straight—to Homer Tompkins.

It has been a good start for the Purple and White teammates down the trail they have chosen for themselves toward a season of hard work—hard work to make a Frog team to remember with pride.

The team WANTS to WIN.

This is the kickoff for a new Skiff sports column. As the Frogs have already played their opening game, the column is a little behind in point of time. It is every bit behind the Frogs from the point of supporting the effort they will make this Fall. (Although we're inclined to think they don't need any help from this column).

This weekly pile of print can't make any blocks nor pull down any seat-backs from behind. The coaches and players are the ones who know what is done right and what is not done far better than column writers.

And, as the coaches and players will be slightly more efficient than a sports writer in producing this football team, it will be the aim of this space each week to try to interpret rather than criticize the Frog fortunes for 1949.

New Faculty Members Are Honored at Party

A preview of the social year for T. C. U. faculty was given Tuesday night when new members of the faculty were honored at an informal open house and reception in the parlor of Foster Hall.

Honor guest at the reception was the Rev. Perry E. Gresham, pastor of the Central-Woodward Christian Church, Detroit, a former member of the T. C. U. faculty and one-time pastor of the University Christian Church. Rev. Mr. Gresham and President and Mrs. Sadler were in the receiving line.

Mrs. Gale Scott, director of faculty social activities, was in charge of arrangement.

Grid Tickets Now Available

Tickets for the first home football game tomorrow night should be picked up at the Stadium prior to 4:30 p. m. today. Athletic Director Howard Grubbs has announced.

Seating arrangements for home games will be based on the system used last year, Grubbs said. As many tickets may be obtained as the student brings activity books to the ticket office, but each student must bring his own activity book and ticket to the gate for the games.

Tickets may be obtained from 8 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Monday through Friday before each home game.

Student seats will be reserved by number as listed on the tickets. This is to prevent others sitting in the students' places, Grubbs said. Many students in the past have been forced to sit far down toward the goal line because non-students came early and got the best seats.

Hurry, Gridiron Gladiators

Intramural Registrations End at Noon Tomorrow

Registrations will be accepted until tomorrow for the intramural football leagues which will swing into action Tuesday and Wednesday. Intramural Manager Bill Padon, Fort Worth graduate student, said Tuesday.

The Tuesday and Wednesday Leagues each will be composed of four teams which will play from 2 p. m. to 5:30 p. m. on their respective days. In each league one team will represent each class unless too few sign up to fill out a team. In such a case, the Freshmen will be substituted for the short-handed squad.

Padon listed for The Skiff some of the major requirements for eligibility and also posted a list in the Gymnasium.

The major requirements are: enrollment may be in day school or the Evening College, with no limit to the number of hours being taken; no varsity letter or numeral winners may compete; the student will hold the same classification throughout the year; and none of the varsity or freshmen football players may enter.

A schedule will not be posted until registration has ended. Padon advised that those interested in winning an intramural jacket this year should join one of the teams. Points are awarded for competition, he said, with members of the winning team receiving bonus points. At the end of the year's activities, the eight high-point men throughout all intramural athletics will be awarded jackets.

Members of the team winning the playoff in football will receive a small gold football.

Better Net Season Seen

Dr. C. A. Burch, tennis coach, has high hopes for the next tennis season, and believes the squad will be able to better its third-place standing of last year.

Three of the first four men of last year's team, a close contender for the Southwest Conference title behind Texas and Rice, will be back, aided by three recruits from the freshman team. Returning lettermen are Dick Osborne, John Baker and Jack Levinson, who were Nos. 1, 3 and 4, respectively, on the Frog team last season. Osborne is No. 3 man on the mythical junior Davis Cup team.

Coming up from the freshman team are Charles Ludwig of Cincinnati, James Wilson of Eastland and Dick Woods of Denison.

Looking even further into the future, Dr. Burch has high praise for one of this year's freshmen, Rod Williams of Garland, whom he hopes will be able to help the 1950 Purple squad up from the third place rut they have held down for the past two seasons.

Williams has won several junior tournaments in Texas. Since he is now only 16 years old, it's not too much to expect that he show great improvement.

With Osborne and Williams in the lineup for the 1950 season, Dr. Burch would have good reason to dream of taking the title.

of both teams. The Band will play in front of both stands with the swing formation facing the student side.

Lawrence Intravala, the band's new director, will be introduced, and the 1949 drum major, majorette and flag twirlers will be presented.

Wogs, Cubs Set Wednesday Tilt

Walter Roach, freshman football coach, will get his first look at his charges under fire when they take the field at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the Stadium to tangle with the Baylor Cubs.

After the two weeks of practice, Roach is still pretty much in the dark as to the potentialities of the Polliwogs. The Wogs came out on the short end of a 20-6 score Monday when they held their first scrimmage against the varsity reserves.

Roach held another scrimmage session Wednesday afternoon, striving to build an offense powerful enough to beat the Baby Bears. He has just about settled on his first two strings out of the 46-man squad.

Following are the probable offensive starters for Wednesday night's game:

LE, Blair; LT, Wren; LG, Pitzer; C, McCormack; RG, Parrett; RT, Temple; RE, Vaught; QB, Ambury; LH, Cathey; RHB, Fowler; FB, Harville.

Substitutions will be made in this lineup if the Wogs kick off.

The Polliwogs have a five-game schedule this season, with the next game slated for Oct. 29, when they journey to College Station to meet the Texas A. & M. first-year men. The Wogs face the Rice Owls No. 3 at Houston. The Texas Shortorns will be the opponents Nov. 11 at Taylor, and the season closes Nov. 24 here as the S. M. U. Colts invade the Stadium.

Following is the Wog roster:

Backs: Robert Snow, Arlington Heights (Fort Worth); John Harville, Pleasanton (Fort Worth); Melvin Fowler, Vero Beach (Monahans); Don Parker, Fort Worth; North Side (Fort Worth); Steve Harding, McGregor; Floyd Windsor, Sherman; Billy Gibson, Hantley; Jim Ambury, Carlisle; Don Hill, Kaufman; Joe Knapp, Panhandle; Marshall Robinson, Paschal (Fort Worth); Donald Pugh, Giddens; N. M. Jerry Glass, Berger; Ray Moore, Gladwin, Mich.; Kenneth Cathey, Paschal (Fort Worth); not eligible are Bobby Floyd, Paris, a transfer student, and O. R. Stewart, Angleton, with no many hours.

Poll Shows— Skiff Is Well Read

Results of a Skiff readership survey, made during the spring semester last year, have been released to The Skiff showing that the paper has a high readership percentage.

The survey was made by three business reports classes as a spring term project under the direction of Raymond V. Lesikar, instructor in business administration. Lesikar said, "The Skiff has proved itself well read."

Ninety per cent of the dormitory students, 76 per cent of the town students and 72 per cent of the faculty read The Skiff, the survey indicated. This shows that 79 per cent of the paper's potential readers read part of the paper each week. The survey covered two issues, March 11 and 25. Average readership of the 99 items in the two issues was 45.1 per cent. The individual items had a range of readership from the low of 18 to the high of 88 per cent.

Forty of the 99 items scored better than 50 per cent readership. The percentage of those reading all the paper was greater than the combination of those who scanned and those who read only the headlines.

All regular features of The Skiff had better than 50 per cent readership in a combined rating of the two issues. The cartoons were on top with 78 per cent and "Purple Pulse" was runner up with 73 per cent.

Other regular features ratings were: "Names 'n' Notes," 66; "Letters to the Editor," 64; "Burchbark," 62; "The Lighter Side," 61; and editorials, 51.

The most popular type of news was stories about all-student attractions; they averaged 58 per cent readership. Least read were items of religious activities and club notices, 25 and 24 per cent respectively.

Percentages for other groupings were:
53—Brighteners.
52—Miscellaneous.
51—Sports.
50—Student politics.
49—University policy.
48—Dormitory.
47—Student body activities (lounge and displaced persons' scholarship funds).
46—Extra-curricular activities.
45—Academic.
44—Society.

Prof. Paul O. Ridings, director of journalism and publicity departments and former faculty advisor of The Skiff, said, "Skiff readers must be more serious minded than those of most newspapers as editorials proved to be better read than eight of the news classifications."

Readership of the 99 items was distributed as follows:
1—Better than 80 per cent.
2—From 70 to 79 per cent.
3—From 60 to 69 per cent.
4—From 50 to 59 per cent.
5—From 40 to 49 per cent.
6—From 30 to 39 per cent.
7—From 20 to 29 per cent.
8—Below 20 per cent.

The 21 per cent who do not read The Skiff gave four major reasons for not doing so. Thirty-six per cent gave poor distribution; 26 per cent said it was a lack of interest; 20 per cent said they had no time; 17 per cent said they were not on the campus Fridays. The remaining one per cent gave miscellaneous reasons.

Prof. Ridings was highly pleased with the results of the survey. "The Skiff received higher ratings in every way than I dared hope," he said.

Moving Tactics Like Checkers

Continuation of T. C. U.'s $10,000,000 building program awaits a meeting of the board of trustees, it was indicated this week. Date of the meeting has not been announced.

Meanwhile the administration used checker board tactics in switching of offices in the Administration Building and the exodus of the fine arts department from the third floor of that building to the new fine arts building this summer.

On the main floor of the Administration Building the Business Office was enlarged to take in the former office of Dean Jerome Moore and now extends on the west side from the south door to the middle of the building.

Dean Moore's office now occupies the space where a portion of the registrar's office was located on the east side of the building.

The rest of the registrar's office, the catalog room and the private office of Registrar S. W. Hutton, has been taken over by Noel Keith, special assistant to the president, J. E. Montgomery, assistant to the president and Ben F. Hearn, Sr., a director of living endowment.

The Registrar's office was switched to the room that formerly housed the Amphitheater on the west side and at the north end of the building.

The foreign language department has been split up, each language having its own office, with Ed Landreth, director of the building program, having his private office in the old foreign language office.

The Spanish office has moved to the old office of Dr. Thomas Richardson, dean of students, in room 205. The German office has moved to room 323, a former practice room for students of fine arts, and the French and Italian office is located in Jarvis Hall, room 101.

The offices of Dr. Richardson, the veteran's and personnel offices and R. S. Wetherell, acting director of men's dormitories, now occupy former class rooms, 106 and 107 on the main floor of the Administration Building.

Mr. Wetherell's old office, room 208, is now the office Dr. A. T. De Groot, dean of the graduate school.

The entire third floor was vacated this summer when the fine arts department moved to the new building. This floor is now made up of class rooms and offices of part of the English department staff.

What used to be music practice rooms on the third floor are now the offices of Dr. L. M. Cecil and Karl Snyder, room 330; Dr. Paul Dinkins and Dr. Warren Wood, room 329; Mrs. Mary Wadill and Miss Lura Gregory, room 328; and Mrs. Rita McAlister and Estus Polk, room 331, all of the English department.

Prof. Paul O. Ridings, director of publicity, and Gordon C. Lund, editor of the T. C. U. News Service, have moved their offices from the basement of Goode Hall to former class room 1 in the Administration Building. However, The Skiff office is still in the basement of Goode Hall.

Troy A. Stinson, assistant professor of aviation, has moved his office from room 106 to 102 in the basement of Goode Hall, the former office of Prof. Ridings.

The east campus was also affected by the moving. The economics department and part of the School of Business has moved from Building 1 to Building 2, former home of the speech department.

Geology and psychology now occupy Building 3, which formerly housed a portion of the art department.

And finally the education office has moved two doors, from B104 to B106, the former being made into a class room.

Are 'Fish' Getting Giggled? Do They Grovel and 'Jig'?

By James Lankford

Say, have you heard about this hazing that's goin' on around the campus? Now mind you, I'm not scared for myself, 'cause as you can probably tell I ain't a freshman. But I just get to thinking about what'll happen to my kids in a few years if things get worse.

Course I ain't seen none of these things, but just take the freshman football players—I hear they get spankings from those big ole varsity boys. And those little fellows in the barracks—they have to sweep rooms, carry luggage, get acquainted with upperclassmen and do other such unpleasant tasks.

I overheard a couple of gals say they had been asked to "button" when they were found without their freshman caps. Now I don't know what that means, but it sounds real bad.

You must have heard about those meetings in the girls' dorms. No? Well, they say the sophomores make all the "fish" crawl backwards into a room. They gotta call the sophs "Miss." Then they have to fry like bacon, pop like pop corn, string like a bean, cogitate without thinking, and do other things like that. They also have to do the button dance and learn the Alma Mater. I even heard of some that had to run errands for the sophs.

Now wotta you think about all this? Bad, eh?

Reckon you oughta write to the President or somebody like that?

Student Lounge Racks Up Profit

The Student Lounge made a profit during July and August, the two months of congress operation, according to a monthly statement just released.

The net profit for August, $7.82, was only half the July profit of $15.48, but this was considered satisfactory by members of the lounge committee who desire only that the lounge shall "come out even" at the end of every month.

Under the management of Bill Bishop, Corpus Christi senior, the lounge has hired four new employees for the semester. The lounge is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. during the week. It is closed on Sunday.

Drama Schedule Given

Tryouts Today For First Play

Tryouts for selection of a cast for the Kaufman and Hart comedy, "You Can't Take It With You," will be held in the Little Theater this afternoon from 2 until 4. The first of five plays to be presented by the Drama Division of the School of Fine Arts this year, this production will be given Oct. 24 through 29.

Any student, regardless of his course of study, may try out for a part in the play.

KTCU Shifts To New Site

Change in Frequency To Improve Reception

KTCU, "The Voice of Texas Christian University," is now in the process of occupying new quarters. Formerly the studios of KTCU were housed in Building 2 on the east campus. With the opening of the fine arts building, however, KTCU moved to more dignified and vastly superior quarters in the new building.

The radio equipment is not yet completely installed in the new studio and control room, and it is not known when the station will go on the air.

When the installation is completed, progress may be picked up from the studio, from the Auditorium, the Little Theater, or from any one of the several studios in the building.

Direct loops lead from the KTCU control room to each of the five broadcasting stations in Fort Worth. The control room facilities are such that two broadcasts may be handled simultaneously.

A change in KTCU's broadcast frequency is also planned. The frequency probably will be lowered to enable better reception on the campus.

No particular program is planned for the station at present," says Frederic Folks, instructor in radio. "It will be mostly just good music."

Students from Distant Spots Enroll in School of Nursing

Distance was no barrier to some of the 45 new students in Harris College of Nursing, who came south from Vermont, east from Colorado, and north from Galveston Island to register last week. Texas, however, continued to lead the enrollment with more than forty students from various sections of the state.

Art Department Plans 3 Exhibits

Three major art exhibits are planned during the coming school year, says Prof. Samuel P. Ziegler of the art department.

First of the exhibits is planned during the Fine Arts Festival to be held Dec. 2 through 12th.

The main theme of this first exhibit has not been definitely determined. Arrangements are still under way to secure paintings for the exhibit.

If these paintings can be obtained Prof. Ziegler says, the work of American painters will be emphasized.

No details have been announced on the other two exhibits.

Heidt Tryouts Close Tonight

Frog Club to Sponsor All-New Musical Show

T. C. U. students will have their last opportunity tonight to audition for Horace Heidt's show coming to Fort Worth Oct. 12 and 13. Heidt's all-new musical, "The Kids Break Thru," and his Youth Opportunity Show will be staged in Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium under the sponsorship of the T. C. U. Frog Club. Performances start at 8 p. m.

Jim Rankin, talent scout for Heidt, will begin auditions at 7 p. m. in Radio Station KFJZ, 1201 West Lancaster. There is no pre-registration for the auditions. Those wishing to try out shall go to the studio with music, accompanist and instrument, if any. Group acts are limited to four persons and all contestants must be over 14 years of age.

There will be no campus auditions as there were last year, but T. C. U. students are welcome at the downtown tryouts.

Four or five acts will be selected for each of the two shows. Performers will compete for cash prizes and Heidt, if he deems them worthy, may invite them to participate in one of his coast-to-coast CBS Sunday night broadcasts or contact them for one of his stage traveling units.

Tickets for both performances went on sale Monday at the Central Ticket Office, Hotel Texas lobby. Prices are $3.60, $2.40 and $1.80, tax included. Mail orders may be sent there or to Frog Club Headquarters, P. O. Box 244, 1117 Houston St.

The Frog Club is composed of local and out-of-town alumni and others interested in boosting T. C. U. and Horned Frog athletics.

Brite Now Has Daily Services

For the first time in T. C. U. history daily chapel services are being held in Brite College of the Bible. From 12 o'clock noon to 12:20 p. m. Monday through Friday, the services will be in the W. C. Morro Memorial Chapel.

A new high was reached last year when chapel was held three times per week. Before that there was only one weekly service.

"We shall strive for variety in our programs this year," says Dr. William L. Reed, religion professor and chairman of the chapel committee. Music, meditation and many different speakers are on the agenda.

There will be a different organist and a different speaker each day. The speaker on Wednesdays will be a member of the faculty or a guest, while the other days will be divided among students from Brite College and the department of religion.

In addition to Dr. Reed, the committee members are: Prof. Glenn Routh of Brite College; Ralph Palmer, graduate from Oxnard, Calif.; and Ralph Stone, senior from Jefferson City, Mo.

Dedication of New Building Scheduled for December

Formal dedication of the $1,500,000 fine arts building, as tentatively planned, will take place during the Fine Arts Festival in December.

Initial plans also call for a separate dedication of the Auditorium and the organ at ceremonies sometime in October.

The soundproofed, air-conditioned structure, a part of T. C. U.'s $10,000,000 building program, is the first classroom building added to the campus since 1914, when Brite College of the Bible was constructed.

The building is the largest of its kind in Texas, if not in the South, and is the only structure in the nation providing under one roof complete facilities for all the arts.

The Auditorium, seating 1258 persons, is entered by a foyer inside the building's main entrance. It will be used for general University functions as well as for production of the School of Fine Arts.

The Auditorium also houses the concert pipe organ, one of the three or four largest organs in the South. The organ contains a total of 3970 pipes, plus chimneys.

Designed according to specifications of the T. C. U. music staff, in conjunction with engineers of the Moeller company, which constructed the organ, it is equipped with complete Baroque, French Romantic and Modern American facilities.

The four-manual console is portable so that it may be rolled onto the stage for concerts and back on the wings when the stage is in use for other purposes.

The workshop will be under the direction of Karl Krutz, conductor of the Metropolitan Opera in New York and of the San Francisco and Pittsburgh operas. Mr. Krutz has been jointly engaged with the Fort Worth Opera Association as a member of the T. C. U. faculty.

The T. C. U. workshop will be the official workshop of the Fort Worth Association.

Church Music Major Available A full four-year major curriculum in church music has been made possible by the new auditorium, beginning this fall. Gordon Young, eminent young American organist, has been appointed to the faculty as instructor in organ and church music.

The Little Theater is designed to give every theater-goer a "seat down front." It seats 224 persons, none of whom will be more than 75 feet from the stage. Instead of one large audience, plays will be repeated before successive small audiences.

Stage lights totaling more than 75,000 watts are interchangeable between the Little Theater and the Auditorium and provide a brilliance and flexibility of lighting which will make possible direct television transmission from either stage.

An electric organ in the Little Theater will provide overture and intermission music.

All scenery and costumes for plays and operas will be made in the workshop and the wardrobe room in the basement below the stages. More than $2500 worth of equipment will be used to handle woodworking, painting, sewing and pressing, and furniture design. Special fabrics may be woven on the art department's looms.

Full Radio Equipment Installed Radio equipment, including a new radio studio, control room set-up, transcribing equipment, campus radio station KTCU, and an experimental laboratory with a total value of $20,000 is being installed in the building. No definite date has been set for the resumption of radio broadcasts by KTCU.

The music department has approximately $100,000 worth of equipment, including 54 pianos, two electronic organs and one two-manual Moeller practice pipe organ. In addition, the department has about $20,000 worth of band and orchestra instruments.

The art department has, exclusive of paintings, about $10,000 worth of equipment.

Building Contains Library The building contains a library equipped for research through the master's degree level in all art forms. It is a branch of the Mary Coats Burnett Library, containing more than 5000 art slides, 5500 electrical transcriptions, 10,000 phonograph records with scores to match and com-
