124 Vie in Campus Race

Run-Offs Will Be May 5-6

Heated political battles are in the offing for the five top campus offices when polls open for spring elections at 8 a.m. Tuesday.

In all, 124 candidates have filed for 25 campus offices, as compared to only 80 contenders last spring.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES being sought are those of Student Association president and vice president, Activities Council director and editors of The Skiff and Horned Frog.

Joel Adams, Crane junior, John Tyson, Coleman junior, and Paul Youngdale, Beaumont junior share the spotlight in campaigning for President.

Jerry Johnson, Decatur, Ga. sophomore and Perry Wooten, Hartland, Wis. sophomore will seek the vice president position.

Joe Dulle, Fort Worth junior, goes after a second term as head of the Activities Council. Harry Aston, Fort Worth sophomore, is the only other candidate.

Pat Beckham, Athens junior; Harvey Fort, Rogers, Ark., junior, and Nelson Marsh, Fort Worth junior, will vie for editor of The Skiff.

John Cantwell, Fort Worth sophomore, is running against Miss Ann Stubbs, Cincinnati, Ohio sophomore for editor of the Horned Frog.

THE ELECTION committee ruled that the Graduate School and Brite College will not be represented in Congress next year since no candidate from either school filed for office.

Voting in the primary will be from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Student Center Tuesday and Wednesday and until 12:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building and Dan D. Rogers Hall.

NEW STUDENTS voting for the first time must sign beside their names on a master list compiled by the registrar's office.

Other students must present their activity cards before voting. An appropriate number will be punched on the cards.

'Biggest Dance'

1,000 Expected to Attend Spring Formal Thursday

Approximately 1,000 students are expected to attend the Spring Formal at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Student Center.

The dance, billed as the "Biggest College Dance of the Year in the Southwest," will feature music for every taste including jazz, violin, Latin American and "Music in the Miller Mood."

ADMISSION is $1.50 per person. Tickets go on sale Monday at the Snack Bar candy counter and during meals at the Information Booth.

For the first time, students will be dancing on three floors to music of five groups. In the Ballroom, the Glenn Miller Orchestra, under the direction of Ray McKinley and featuring the Lenny Hambro Jazz Quintet, will be presented.

THE KEN FOELLER eight-piece orchestra will play "Fascination" type music on the first floor.

On the third floor, the Jose Azcona Latin American combo, a five-piece Mexican group will play favorite Latin rhythms.

The Collegians will play in the Ballroom at intermissions.

The dancing will utilize more than 11,200 square feet of space, approximately two-thirds more room than was used at the 1957 Spring Formal.

The front part and upper floors of the Student Center will be closed at 2 p.m. Thursday to allow decorating to begin, Logan Ware, Student Center director, said.

STUDENTS ARE asked to enter the Cafeteria for the evening meal through the side doors, through the Snack Bar area, or at the rear of the University Store.

A green and white decorating theme will be used, with potted greenery and more than 1,200 yards of silk draperies.

FOR THE first time, proper attire for men will be a dark suit or a tuxedo. Women may wear long or short formals.

A total of 36 musicians, vocalists and entertainers will participate in conducting the dance.

Crackdown Is Ordered On Traffic

Speeders and jaywalkers will be ticketed in front of the campus on University Dr. beginning next week.

A radar unit will enforce the 30-mile speed limit.

Students and teachers will be required to use crosswalks designated at both ends of the campus and in front of the Memorial Arch. Those who cross elsewhere must pay fines.

The crackdown on faulty driving and walking habits follows a traffic flow survey by Biggars and Edward Burckhart, Dallas junior, and a conference with City Safety Engineer William Buckman.

School zone signs will be posted, and officers will be placed on duty.

TCU to Receive Millions Under Milton Daniel Will

For years to come, TCU will be receiving annual income under terms of the will of Milton E. Daniel, late board chairman. Revenue from the Daniel estate, valued at "several million dollars," will go to the University under a perpetual trust fund.

Mr. Daniel — oil man, rancher, businessman and banker — died April 16 after a short illness in Breckenridge.

His will was read Tuesday in the trust office of the First National Bank, which will act as executor and trustee. The will is to be probated May 5 in Breckenridge.

TWO NIECES were named as the other beneficiaries. They are Mrs. Earlie Daniel Clark of Fort Worth and Mrs. Le Vier Daniel Barrett of Ansley, Ala. Each will receive $1,000 monthly from the estate, tax free.

Mr. Daniel left a deep mark (See DANIEL on Page 4)

Campus Chest Nets Half of $2,250 Goal

Chi Omega, Phi Delta Theta and the Rodeo Club will be awarded trophies at Student Congress meeting Tuesday for contributing more money to Campus Chest this year than any other organization.

At press time, the drive had reached $1,224.58. The figure was $1,025.42 short of the goal of $2,250.

Last year's drive netted $1,502.89 as compared to a goal of $2,500.

A FACULTY basketball team played Delta Tau Delta Wednesday in an effort to raise more money for the drive. Gate receipts were not available at press time.

Chi Omega will receive its trophy for the largest sorority donation, $165. Phi Delta Theta led all fraternities with a $139.03 contribution.

Bill Moore Wins Grant For Study in Germany

Bill Dwain Moore, Amarillo senior, has been awarded a Fulbright scholarship for graduate study in Germany. He will study modern German literature at the Rhenish Friedrich Wilhelms University in Bonn.

Approximately 900 grants for graduate study abroad in 1958-59 are being awarded under the International Educational Exchange program of the Department of State.

Twenty-five foreign countries are participating in the program, designed to promote a better understanding between the United States and other nations.

Moore, a German-English major, will receive his B. A. degree in June. He is a member of the Newman Club and serves on the Select Series and student welfare committees.

He is the second TCU student to receive a Fulbright grant this year. Earlier, James Sharp, Duncan, Okla., senior, was awarded a scholarship to study organ at the Danish Graduate School for Foreign Students at the University of Copenhagen.

But if you want to enjoy smoking as never before, switch to Camels. Nothing else tastes so rich, smokes so mild. Today more people smoke Camels than any other cigarette. The best tobacco gives you the best smoke. Try Camels and you'll agree!

Students to Edit Gainesville Paper

Twelve journalism students will edit Monday's issue of the Gainesville Daily Register.

The staff will consist of: editor, Frank Perkins; wire editor, Barry Stephenson; sports editor, Galyn Wilkins; woman's page, Alice Buford; advertising, Jerry Hyde; and photographer, Bill Seymour.

Reporters include Gene Randall, Lee Roy Grimsley, Dave Smith, Richard Tipton, Linda Major and George Bennett.

This is the last of three field trips. Others were to Hillsboro and Cleburne.

Purpose of the trips is to give journalism majors experience in editing small city dailies.

her family, for she has two sisters who are nurses, one in England and the other in Hong Kong.

Louisa, sophomore medical technology major, lives with her husband, Alfred Cho, at 3061 Rogers. He is a senior structural engineer with Con-vair.

SHE LEFT Hong Kong two years ago, afraid of what the future had in store for her in this country. Her fears were quickly overcome when her boat landed in San Francisco.

The gentle woman was met there by a government representative who helped her check into a hotel and made arrangements for her travel by train to Texas.

From San Francisco, her travels led her to Denton, home of Texas Woman's University.

Mrs. Cho began her medical technology studies there and moved to Fort Worth and TCU when she was married here last September.

LOUISA says that a principal difference between her country and the United States is the name problem.

"In China the last name of a person is always his first," she said. "When I came to the United States, I had a hard time figuring out a person's last name."

The shy little woman got the name of Louisa while in school at Denton.

"My teachers thought for simplicity that I ought to choose a new first name," Mrs. Cho related. "I couldn't think of one so my English professor selected Louisa. My mother and family in Hong Kong still don't know that I have a new first name."

THE HARDEST phase of Louisa's studies is listening to classroom lectures. She must translate the discussion into English and then write her notes in English.

"IF I'M sleepy in class, or distracted, I lose my place in the discussion, and I'm lost for the rest of the lecture," she said.

Although not eligible for naturalization, she has secured permission for permanent residence from the government.

Louisa Cho would like to return to China to visit her family. However, she says her permanent place is with her husband, already a naturalized citizen.

on the University. He became a student in the old academy in 1905, moved up to college work, captained the football team in 1911 and coached the Frogs in 1915-16 after taking a law degree at the University of Texas.

He became a trustee in 1927 and was made chairman in 1953. Mr. Daniel was considered TCU's "most valuable alumnus," given an honorary degree and lived to see one of the men's dormitories bear his name.

FOR ALL HIS skill in business, his intensive interest and endless contributions to civic matters, Mr. Daniel had a great "humanness" that made him loved by all, Amos Melton, Information Services director, said.

"He had a fine sense of humor," Mr. Melton related, "and was fond of telling the story of what happened to him at a Horned Frog football game same years ago."

"A rabid fan sitting behind him kept criticizing everything Coach Dutch Meyer did. Finally Mr. Daniel called the loud-mouth's hand on some decision, causing the fan to retort, 'What do you know about football?'"

"Daniel replied, 'A little. I used to coach TCU and Dutch Meyer.'

"After a moment of reflection, the fan came back with, 'No wonder Dutch doesn't know one thing about the game.'"

Highlighting the event was Devon Hamilton, Fort Worth senior, vocal soloist, and the TCU Singers, selected group of 15 voice majors under the direction of Dean Hull.

Immediately following the concert, was the Cake Cutting Party which included about 500. The 150 pound replica of the Student Center was cut by Dean Thomas F. Richardson, who was chairman of the Student Center Planning committee.

Dr. Henry Bowman of the University of Texas spoke Wed. night on "Making Marriage Meaningful."

The final event of the birthday series was Game Night held last night in the Ballroom. More than $80 in prizes were given away.

Winners of the Second Annual Frog Cup Ping-Pong Tournament were presented.

Bingo winners were awarded large cakes.

Presidential Candidates' Platforms

JOEL ADAMS

1) I believe that the Student Congress should work in symbiotic relationship with the administration of TCU.

2) I believe that the Student Congress is an effective mechanism for radiating TCU's interests and influence in other schools.

3) I believe in the student body of TCU as being the future of TCU and as such should be represented (not commanded by) the Student Congress, and that TCU's future in this way can be governed by the student body through coordination by its chosen officials.

Some things I would like to do are:

1) Send representatives from TCU to other Southwest Conference schools to represent us in such events as Ranch Week, etc.

2) To avoid the infamous practice of holiday arrangement as practiced earlier. For instance, the Christmas holidays last year required students in distant places from TCU to travel in New Year's Day traffic whereas another four days could have been gotten by adding another day of school at a different time.

3) Cope with the problems presenting themselves to the Student Congress in the best interests of all the students of TCU.

JOHN TYSON

If I am elected Student Association president, I want you, the student, in Student Congress, and this is how I want you in Congress. I want you personally to attend scheduled meetings of Student Congress, and to attend meeting of the Administration-Student Forum. I want you present in Student Congress through your elected representatives; representatives that are well-informed of Student Congress matters, representatives that are present at all Student Congress meetings, and representatives that are active in Student Congress.

I want you in Student Congress through use of a suggestion box whereby problems you feel pertinent to campus life may be presented to Student Congress. I want you to realize the countless tasks performed by the Activities Council and to understand the problems it faces in organization of a broader program for foreign students and married students.

I want you, the student, to feel that you have the privilege of seeing that your Student Congress functions properly and efficiently.

I want YOU in Student Congress.

PAUL YOUNGDALE

I feel that, while this year's Student Congress has laid the groundwork for an effective honor system, the student body, as a whole, has not been imbued with the principles which are necessary for the proper employment of such a system. However, if, in this spring's referendum, the student body, by a majority vote, demonstrates that it favors an honor system, I will work to the utmost of my ability to fulfill this obligation which has been placed upon the Student Congress.

I feel that one of the purposes of any university is to furnish, for those who wish it, an opportunity to obtain an education. In order to help them achieve this goal, I feel that the library should be kept open Saturdays and Sunday afternoons.

I feel that it is the right of every student to have a chance to read the minutes of Congress exactly as they are recorded, for this is your Congress. In order to insure this, I will have available for those who want them, mimeographed copies of Congress minutes.

I feel that the crossing on University Dr. has long needed improvement. Here, every morning, there are thousands of chances for one of our students to be struck down. If elected, I promise to meet with city officials to see if something can be done, and done in a hurry, before such a tragedy strikes our campus.

Editorial Comment

You're Key to Election Success

All right friends, you've been muttering all year about what a lousy Congress TCU has, or what an eight-ball you have for a Skiff editor or why in tunket those nuts had to name Houston as a student body trip — now is your chance to do something about it.

It's election time on campus, and like the song says, "It takes two to tango."

It also takes two to make an election . . . a candidate and a voting populace.

Well, the candidates are so thick around here you can't stir them with an Australian ballot, and here's where you come in, friends.

If you don't get out and vote, the whole shooting match is not worth a single poster.

You can't expect to get adequate representation unless the candidates are motivated.

And what motivates a candidate? You, friend, you motivate him! You put the fire in his eye and the conviction in his soul; you supply the kick in the pants, he'll supply the representation.

You also have another commodity that any candidate would give his eye-teeth for . . . VOTES!

This vote is your insurance and your protection.

With a vote, you can make or break a candidate, and you can make or break the effectiveness of student offices.

Think carefully before you vote, but please vote.

Get out and elect the person you want and the person you think is the best one for the job.

A vote is a small item, but oh how important! Don't misuse it, or, even worse—don't ignore it.

Half-Hearted Activity

Had she been here we would have offered her our help, for she could not be denied.

But she was not here, so we said "No."

The reference is to the 10-year-old Greek girl who was to benefit from 10 per cent of the Campus Chest proceeds.

Something is wrong when the only charity campaign on the campus misses its mark.

Something is wrong when students who have cars, fine clothes, radios, TV sets and a multitude of expensive gadgets can not or will not contribute to what may be termed a worthy cause.

A number of reasons could be cited for the present failure.

The town student was neglected, and many persons could not find people to take their contributions.

If every class, on a designated Monday and Tuesday morning, had been called upon by solicitors, and the cup passed, the chest goal probably would have been met.

One gets only half-hearted results from half-hearted activity.

'Teahouse of August Moon' Offers Laugh-Filled Evening

By PAT RECORD
Guest Critic

The long and successful run of the Broadway original must have convinced almost everyone that John Patrick wrote a very funny play in "The Teahouse of the August Moon." And the Little Theater is currently presenting a very funny version of it.

The play concerns the efforts of a young Marine captain to bring democracy, GI style, to an Okinawan village. Capt. Fisby has his Plan B to follow, but the natives have their own plan, which involves passively resist a definite identity. An interesting sidelight is that the dialect spouted by the natives is authentic to the area and not something made up for the purpose.

Washington prescribes a pentagon-shaped school house, but the natives want a teahouse, and it looks like the government is on the losing side.

ROBERT O. JONES is excellent as the harassed young captain, who wants to please Washington, but finds the native atmosphere too much for him.

Harold Blackwelder steals the show as Sakini, the native interpreter who explains the play to the audience. His accent misses the mark by several degrees, but he can easily be forgiven that because of the overall charm of his performance.

Another good performance is turned in by Edmond DeLatte as Capt. McLean, the psychiatrist who comes to examine Fisby and stays to plant the fields of the village.

Unfortunately, Erwin Swint, who plays crochety Col. Purdy, has been forced to miss several performances because of a severe throat infection. Although Charles Jeffries has done an amazing job in filling in on such short notice, his portrayal lacks the polish which undoubtedly would have accrued from a longer rehearsal period.

DIRECTOR HENRY Hammack is to be complimented on the general smoothness of the show, and the effectiveness of the group scenes, wherein each native manages to establish a definite identity. An interesting sidelight is that the dialect spouted by the natives is authentic to the area and not something made up for the purpose.

Two stand-out scenes were ones in which Captain Fisby struggles to prevent a geisha girl from undressing him while talking on the phone to his superior officer, and a native dance by the same Geisha girl, played by Doris Nolan, who, incidentally, is a graduate ballet student.

Both costumes and sets are attractive and well suited to the requirements of the production.

"The Teahouse of the August Moon" is being repeated at 8 p.m. daily through Saturday. A ticket guarantees you both a seat and two hours of laughter.

Egyptian Student Travels 2 Years En Route to Brite

By JERRY HYDE

Sphinx, pharaohs and pyramids—all are a part of the cultural background of Samuel Ghattas of Cairo, Egypt.

The sophomore religion major wanted an education in the United States so avidly that he worked his way over on a steamship. The trip took two and one-half years before he landed in Miami, Fla.

From there, his search for knowledge led him to Portland, Ore., where he enrolled at Multnomah School of the Bible. Ghattas had read of the school in a brochure.

IN PORTLAND, he met the Rev. Raymond Glen Brown, who had heard of TCU from friends. Mr. Brown, minister of the First Christian Church in Portland, so extolled the virtues of TCU's Brite College of the Bible that Ghattas enrolled last fall.

in the United States until January 1957.

"I would have gotten here sooner, but I ran out of money," he explained.

Ghattas paid his fare by working as a seaman and fireman aboard a steamer.

En route to the United States he worked in Cuba for six months. There he learned Spanish. He also fluently speaks Arabic, English, French, Italian and Turkish.

"I PLAN TO go to the Middle East and begin teaching Christian work," he said.

"I hope to work for a radio broadcasting station, such as the 'Voice of Tangiers' or ElWa in Monrovia, Liberia."

Ghattas now is working part-time for Engineering Associates Inc. He is looking for a summer job so he may resume studies this fall.

The handsome Egyptian says he "enjoys TCU very much" and is glad he came.

"I was attracted to this school because of the spirit of the people here, the curriculum and the friendliness of faculty members," he remarked.

Second Blood Plea Is Issued

A second plea for blood — any type — was issued today by the TCU Chamber of Commerce.

The plea was issued on behalf of Mary Jane Howell, secretarial science teaching fellow, injured a few weeks ago in a traffic accident.

The first plea was answered by three persons last week. However, three more donors are still needed.

Those three people wishing to contribute should contact Dick Haggard at PE7-9292.

Student Congress OK's Plans for Reorganization

Plans calling for the reorganization of Student Congress, an earlier appointment of committee chairmen and an increase in officers' salaries were approved by the governing body Tuesday night.

Next fall Congress will meet only on alternate weeks with the delegates assigned to attend committee meetings the intervening weeks. Those representatives not assigned to a specific committee will meet with the Activities Council or a committee of the council.

COMMITTEE chairmen will submit the names of representatives attending meetings to the Student Association vice-president the following day, along with a report of the proceedings.

Congress has been meeting weekly.

Mimeographed copies of the proposed meeting agenda and minutes from the preceding meeting will be distributed to representatives each time Congress convenes.

Monthly financial reports also will be distributed by the treasurer.

BIDS FOR editing next year's student directory must be submitted to Congress May 15 so the job may be let before the spring semester ends. The editor will then be expected to compile the directory during registration week so that the book can be distributed early in the fall semester.

The Campus Chest chairman will be appointed by Student Association President George Depee and the incoming president by May 15.

NEXT YEAR'S Congress must appoint a Howdy Week chairman by March 1, and a Homecoming chairman and Parents' Day chairman by April 1.

The wage hike boosts the combined salaries of officers from $765 to $1,260 per nine-month term.

The Student Association president and Activities Council director each will receive $35 per month while the vice-president, secretary and treasurer will be paid $25.

Interviews Planned

Faculty Explodes Myth About Delt's Ability

By JACK HARKRIDER
Before a crowd of 50 students and faculty members, the faculty basketball team downed Delta Tau Delta, 55-48, Wednesday in the Practice Gymnasium.

The Delt, winners of the fraternity basketball race last fall, presented no problem to the faculty and never got any closer than the seven point deficit at the end of the game.

The faculty took the ball at the opening whistle and forged into the lead behind the shooting of Jim Brock, sports publicity director, and Ben Proctor, history instructor.

BOLSTERED BY the court work and accuracy of Johnny Swaim, Wog basketball and baseball coach, the faculty walked off the court after the first quarter with a comfortable 17-6 lead.

The second quarter revealed the ball handling qualities of such notables at Vernon Hallbeck, assistant football coach, Lt. Leon E. Lichtenwaller, professor of military science, Dr. Ernest Barratt, professor of psychology, and John F. Haltom, professor of history.

WITH THESE odds in their favor, the faculty owned a 35-20 lead at the half.

In the third and fourth quarters, the Delt's began to show signs of retaliation as Jerry Ray, Harry Aston, and Kelly Westlake found the range and started pumping in one-handers from all angles of the court.

However, not even the full court press employed by the Delt's could overcome the first half deficit and the faculty sailed on to victory.

HIGH-POINT honors went to Ray, who dumped in 15 notches, and Proctor who tallied 14 times. Close behind was Swaim with 12 points to his credit.

Misses Elizabeth Youngblood and Kitty Wingo, Dean Laurence Smith and Estus Polk provided the proper background by acting as cheerleaders.

The Fort Worth-Dallas section sponsored the contest to create statistical interest at the college level. Dr. John L. Wortham of the economics department said.

The TCU racquet-eers get a chance to add much-needed points today when they host the Baylor Tennis team.

The Frogs are firmly established in the Southwest Conference cellar with one victory in a dozen tries, but the Bears also are far down the ladder with a 7-17 mark. The match will be played on the Colonial Country Club courts, beginning at 1 p.m.

John Skogstad is Baylor's top man with three wins in four bouts.

Playing for TCU will be Harlan Baker, Paul Pendergrass, Gene Cook and Jim White.

THE SCORE

They're Rustlin' The Bushes

By PAT BECKHAM

It's "hunting season" for the college football scouts, and everywhere these talent-seekers may be found beating the bushes for shifty backs and mobile linemen.

And the boys themselves, fresh from completing their high school eligibility, aren't trying very hard to evade the nets—if they're smart enough to realize the benefits of an education.

Some have heard the sage advice to "get ye some larnin', son," while others listen to pool hall gossip about "the money you can make under the table."

The latter fellow probably will be in for a rude awakening, but the winner will choose the school that most appeals to him. He will go there with getting an education and making a good football player the foremost thoughts in his mind.

Texas high schools spawn some top-notch football players, and some of them are fortunate enough to be able to attend one of the Southwest Conference schools, compliments of that school's athletic department. Many other athletes will have that opportunity in years to come, and perhaps a few words of guidance may be appreciated.

I speak from first-hand experience. I entered TCU on a four-year football scholarship in the fall of 1955. Prior to signing a "Letter of Intent" I had listened to numerous "under the table" propositions at various schools and strongly considered some.

Never will I regret coming to TCU instead, although I'm sure many of the other schools would have stuck by their unwritten contract to see me through college just as TCU has.

The results of a car wreck in my freshman year made it unwise for me to continue with football. I retained my scholarship, working a few hours weekly in return for the benefits.

Each year players are knocked from football, but if they have made the right choice of schools initially they have no problem concerning their education.

"We like to see a kid come to TCU, make good and graduate here," says Frog Coach Abe Martin. "It's a good feeling to watch him progress."

That is the wholesome attitude of many other coaches, too, but beware of that "extra deal" you may be offered some places.

The SWC schools offer financial aid not to exceed room, board, $10 in laundry money monthly, books, fees and tuition.

That's considerable aid, but many fall for offers of a car, a few hundred dollars or a suit of clothes every month. Then when the boy fails to make good—they don't know him—he worries—his grades slip—and he's digging ditches. It's an old story.

Illegal recruiting of athletes has become a common term, and the smart fellow will avoid like the plague what it signifies.

When you get to college you'll find all your competition is pretty doggone good. Where you go to college will determine how much of that competition for a position you'll have to face.

The SWC allows each of the eight member schools—Texas A&M, Texas Tech, University of Texas, Baylor University, University of Arkansas, Rice Institute, SMU and TCU—to file the names of 22 athletes in the office of the executive secretary, Howard Grubbs. That assures the boy of a scholarship at the respective school and it "insures" the school against losing him to another conference member.

A school may "sign" as many players as it likes to Applications for Financial Aid (formerly called Letter of Intent), but those applications in excess of 22 are kept by the school. This makes for "one-way insurance"—the school's.

Some schools give scholarships to perhaps as many as 100 boys and then wait for them to "weed" themselves out. Sometimes there is very little difference in the ability of a dozen players who vie for one position, and the breaks decide who wins. Most of the others become disgusted and quit.

Purples Try Aggie Nine

By GALYN WILKINS

Roughed up by the conference-leading Texas Longhorns Monday, TCU's baseball team goes against Texas A&M, another league powerhouse, today at College Station.

The contest, first of a two-game series will begin at 3 p.m. The second tilt will be played at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

The Aggies, who whipped the Frogs 10-2 here April 1, vaulted into a second-place tie with SMU last week with victories over Baylor and SMU. Texas leads the SWC by two games with an 8-1 conference record. A&M has a 6-3 mark.

Coach "Rabbit" McDowell said he will start Ken Wineburg on the mound today and Darrel Read tomorrow. Both are righthanders.

WINEBURG is 0-1 in SWC play and Read has a 1-4 record. He owns the Frogs' only conference victory — a neat 2-1 job over Baylor.

McDowell changed his lineup for the Texas game Monday, but said he will use the same lineup today and tomorrow.

That includes Harold Key, catcher; Hunter Enis, first base; Charles Franklin, second base; George Banda, shortstop; Joe Selman, third base; I. B. Childs, right field; Marshall Harris, center field, and Jim Walker, left field.

ENIS LEADS the Frog hitters with a .345 average.

The Aggies probably will go with lefty Toby Newton on the hill today and Donnie Hullum tomorrow.

The rest of the A&M lineup will have Garry Harrington, catcher; Bill Houchin, first base; Dink Patterson, second base; Ralph Plumlee, shortstop, and J. B. Carroll, third base.

Jim Smotherman, Dickie Thomas and Wendell Reed will be in the outfield left to right.

AFTER MONDAY'S 8-3 loss to the Longhorns, McDowell remarked, "It was the same old story. We gave them too many runs."

Texas counted only two earned runs. All of TCU's tallies were earned.

Ten walks by Frog hurlers and six fielding miscues told a different story, however.

Texas picked up three runs in the third, one in the fourth, three in the fifth and one in the final inning.

THE FROGS picked up runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth frames.

Five Frogs Make Drake

By PAT BECKHAM

A trainer, a coach, a pole-vaulter and four distance runners try to get a break at Drake today and tomorrow at Des Moines.

The storied Drake Relays represent a hurdle Coach J. Eddie Weems, Trainer Elmer Brown and their migratory band of Frog athletes would like to span.

"It will be very good if we can place in any of the events we are entered in up there," Weems volunteered just before the group departed by car Wednesday for Iowa.

"It's a big meet, and the competition will be fierce."

THE FROG trackmen will be entered in the two and four-mile relays and the pole vault.

Mike Howell, the Victoria sophomore who hit 13-2 twice in practice this week, will be trying to throw his 5-8 frame over the bar when it counts.

In last week's Kansas Relays a 13-6 effort was enough for second money, and Mike hopes it doesn't take more today.

"HE HAS A chance to place, but there are some very fine vaulters there every year," his coach said with a hopeful tone to his voice.

Robert Flores, James Livergood, Jerry Hutson and Joe Douglas are the men who will run stations on the relays.

Each is capable of at least a 4:20 mile, and Weems thinks they will come through. The four-mile event is today, while the shorter race comes tomorrow.

TCU RANKS as one of the teams to beat, but the University of Kansas is a strong favorite to carry away top honors. The Universities of Houston, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma also are worthy contenders.

Abilene Christian College has split its forces, sending aces Bobby Morrow and Bill Woodhouse to the Penn Relays at Philadelphia along with some of their other less notables. The rest will visit Drake.

PERHAPS THE biggest attraction will be Eddie Southern, the "any-distance" sprinter, who is getting more fingers pointed at him than Nikita Khrushchev at a Security Council meeting.

Southern, the University of Texas' answer to Morrow and Duke's Daye Sime, won't be entered in any of his open specialties, but he'll be plugging at records once more in anchoring Longhorn quartets in the relays.

ONE FROG who isn't going ment is John Cantrell. The along, but has made improvement weight-chunker heaved the discus 164 feet this week.

"If he keeps that up he'll be going with us next time," Weems said.

TCU Golfers Have Showdown With Arkansas Greensmen

By TONY CLARK

It's showdown day for the Christian golfers.

Currently in the Southwest Conference third slot, they will tangle with the top dog Arkansas swingers in Fayetteville this afternoon.

The Porkers lead TCU by seven matches, and second-place SMU by six. An unlikely 6-0 Purple sweep virtually would throw the race wide open, but even a 4-2 victory would make the race much tighter.

At the same time, a tie or an Arkansas victory would just about retire TCU from crucial competition.

A BIT of strategy may be employed by the locals to better their chances. A top-bottom switch, sending No. 4 man Jerry Johnson to the No. 1 position and either of the Frogs' top two players—Charles Coody or Don Massengale—to the last place, has been discussed and may be tried.

Theoretically, this move might sacrifice a singles point, but it would make much stronger the chances of TCU's winning both a doubles and a singles bout in the lower half of the order.

IN CURRENT SWC standings, Massengale is tied with Arkansas' Jerry Breckenridge for individual leadership. Both have won five matches and suffered no setbacks. Massengale has chipped at least two strokes off par in four of his five conference outings, his best score being a 66.

Two other Razorback linksmen — Bob Waldron and Lewis Henderson — also appear in the conference top 10 individuals list.

Johnson gave the Christians a boost in their climb to SWC contention Monday at College Station when he fired a one-over 71 to topple A&M's Al Jones, 1-up. Massengale beat Bob Nichols, 2-1, and Johnson and Massengale teamed to tumble Jones and Nichols, 3-2.

COODY broke his slump with a 4-3 victory over Binky Mitchell, and TCU's No. 3 man, Frank Mackey, lost to Buck Prewitt, 4-3. In doubles, Mitchell-Prewitt beat Mackey-Coody, 1-up. The Frogs won the match, 4-2.

The Baylor quartet handed the Purples a setback Friday in Waco by edging them, 3½-2½. Massengale was the only Frog singles winner, besting Don Arreaga, 3-1. Mackey tied his match with George Hale, and Massengale-Johnson defeated Arreaga-Jerry Coats, 2-1. Both Coody and Johnson lost, and Coody-Mackey lost their doubles match.

AND THEN HE CROUCHES — Hunter Enis, the Frogs' No. 1 hitter, stoops at first base for a throw from pitcher Charles Rutherford. That's Texas Longhorn Max Alvis trying to get back.

Wogs Play Road Final Tomorrow

The TCU baseball team goes to Tarleton State College at Stephenville tomorrow for its last road game of the season.

The contest will begin at 7:30 p.m. Coach Johnny Swain, whose charges sheared the Plowboys 10-4 March 20, said he will start righthander Larry (Yank) Terrell on the hill.

Tuesday, the Wogs dropped a 15-0 decision to Carswell Air Force Base.

Southpaw Paul Lockary gave the Wogs but three hits. He fanned 12 hitters. Bomber catcher Willie Mayes slashed a three-run homer in the seventh.

Six Marks Tumble In Intramural Track

If intramural track records stand, Coach J. Eddie Weems may be doing some recruiting right here on campus.

Phi Delta Theta continued to dominate the Greeks in running and jumping. It swept to its second consecutive meet victory with 43 points, 13 better than second-place Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Kappa Sigma was third with 17 points.

In nine events, six marks fell, and one record was established in a new event.

THE PHIDELTS' Paul Peebles was the tournaments outstanding individual. He set a new record of 53.2 in the 440-yard run to win that event, placed second in the 220-yard dash and ran on the first-place 880-yard relay team. Phi Delta Theta took that event with a record 1:36.6 clocking.

Peebles, Billy Harlin, Dean McClellan and Phil Watts ran on the Phi Delt 880 team. McClellan and Watts teamed with Max Pierce and R. E. Dodson to grab for Phi Delta Theta the 440-yard relay in the record time of 45 seconds flat.
