Campus Meeting Discusses Improved Student Government

Approximately 150 students interested in campus politics met Monday evening in the Student Center Ballroom to discuss better student government, introduce prospective candidates for fall elections and organize for participation in the fall campaign and election.

Under the chairmanship of Joe

Kantz Will Speak To Educators Here

The statewide guidance and testing program in the Texas public schools will be discussed at a meeting of high school principals and counselors from the North Texas area to be held here Tuesday evening, Oct. 6.

Some 125 persons are expected to attend the session scheduled at 7:30 p.m. in the Ballroom.

Paul Kantz of Austin, director of the division of guidance and supervision in the Texas Education Agency, will be the guest speaker. He will discuss the testing and counseling program on the secondary school level under the National Defense Education Act.

Dr. Otto Nielson, dean of the School of Education, is in charge of arrangements for the meeting.

The program is one of a series of conferences for public school personnel planned by the School of Education for 1959-60 in the areas of administration, supervision counseling and curriculum.

A second conference, concerning curriculum proposals, has been scheduled for Nov. 7.

Short, Ponca City, Okla. junior, the group adopted the following objectives: 1. To focus campus attention upon the importance of political responsibility; 2. To draft qualified candidates who will conscientiously seek to better our student government; 3. To insure that the majority of students have a voice in our student government and 4. To encourage the growth of responsible student government in the interest of the aims of TCU and all its students.

A steering committee was formed with representatives from each dormitory, Brite College and town students. The committee will aid in placing candidates for office before the student body, in evaluating this fall's election and in anticipation of a proposed spring convention based on democratic principles. Charles Downing, Kansas City, Mo. junior, was elected chairman of the steering committee.

Professor Ben Procter and Dr. James Vardaman of the history department are sponsoring and advising the group. Miss Brenda Towles, Pasadena sophomore, is chairman of the publicity committee. Miss Anita Barickman, Jefferson City, Mo., accepted secretarial responsibility.

"Council for Better Student Government" was selected as a tentative name for the organization.

Another meeting has been scheduled for next Monday at 6:00 p.m. in the Ballroom. Town students have been invited to come and take part in student government.

FUTURE IN NUMBERS

Jeff Stevens, Dallas sophomore and chairman of the Student Directory committee has announced that the 1959-60 Student Directory will be on sale Nov. 1.

The directory will sell for $1.00. The increased price is due to the fact that the printer made a mistake in billing the cost last year. Consequently, Student Congress was able to sell the directory for much less than actual cost.

Angel Flight is editing, compiling and will handle the sales of the directory this year. Cover art is being done by Richard LaBoon, Fort Worth ex '59.

Speech Curriculum Expands

The Speech clinic now has a new course available to all students. The course is Speech 01 and is taught by Mrs. Telete Lawrence, a certified speech therapist.

The course specializes in voice problems and speech improvement. It teaches the student to project his voice, make it more resonant, and provide a more efficient communication. Students receive one hour of credit for the course.

A person does not have to have a pathological defect to take the course and it is open to anyone who wishes to improve their speech to make their profession more effective.

This is the second week of operation for the new course where tape recorders and all types of new techniques are used.

Students may register for the course at any time without paying a late registration fee.

Mrs. Lawrence received her B. A. in speech at the University of California. She also has 39 hours of speech therapy which qualifies her to teach in Texas.

Geology Seminar Begins Monday

A Graduate geology seminar will begin Monday and continue weekly through the semester, announced Dr. Leo Hendricks, head of the Geology Department.

The seminar will be held every Monday evening at 7:00 p.m. in room 310 of the Science Building. They will feature various discussion subjects concerning geology and will be arranged by the staff and students.

The subject for the Oct. 5 meeting will be "Geomorphology of the Brazos River Valley in Parker County" with Dr. Hendricks heading the first discussion.

Sport Sampler Passes Will Be Sold To Students at Information Booth

Sport Sampler pass books containing coupons that can be exchanged for admissions to activities in Fort Worth valued at $77.96 during the coming year will be sold next Monday through Friday at the Student Center Information Booth.

Price of the Sport Sampler is three dollars. The books will not be sold later than Friday, Oct. 9.

Activities which are included in the pass book's program are Casa Manana musicals, Fort Worth Cat

Baseball games, bowling, dancing at the Casino Ballroom, Fort Worth Opera Association productions, Fort Worth Sympony concerts, movies, roller skating, auto racing, swimming, bowling, wrestling, horseback riding, boxing and miniature golf.

Sport Sampler books entitle the purchaser to admission to any of the participating activities. The TCU Little Theatre is a participant in the program which is organized by the Recreational Institute.

First Appearance of Series

City Editor Initiates Lectures

The first speaker in a series of "Jobs-in-Journalism" lectures at TCU this year will be the city editor of the Fort Worth Press, Delbert Willis. The veteran newspaperman, who joined the Press Staff in 1932 as a copy boy, will speak on "Adventures in Newspaper Journalism" at the first monthly journalism assembly, scheduled today at 1 p.m. in the auditorium of Dan D. Rogers Hall.

"These monthly journalism assembly programs are sponsored by the department or journalism and the J. Willard Ridings Press Club and are open to all interested students, but especially students studying, or planning to study in journalism, advertising, radio-TV and other related fields," stated Professor D. Wayne Rowland, department chairman.

At today's assembly, editors of The Skiff and Horned Frog and officers of student journalistic organizations will be introduced, along with members of the journalism faculty.

Walter Humphrey, editor of the Press, will introduce the speaker. A question and answer period will be followed by an informal coffee break during which students will have a chance to visit with both newsmen.

Willis has been a reporter on most Press beats during his career. In World War II he served as an infantry platoon leader and was wounded in action in the South Pacific, causing the loss of one leg. Also, he was a Nieman Fellow at Harvard in 1941-42, chosen because of his performance as a political and courthouse reporter in Fort Worth.

In 1951 and 1953, Willis was cited by the National Headliners Club for a national award for the best domestic news story in the United States.

D. Wayne Rowland, chairman of the journalism department, looks over a copy of the Fort Worth Press, with Walter Humphrey, Fort Worth Press Editor, and Delbert Willis, city editor. The three are on the "Jobs for Journalism" program in Dan D. Rogers Hall today. This program is the first in a series to acquaint future journalists with opportunities in the field.

Council Will Study Rush

The Panhellenic Council will conduct its rush evaluation meeting on Oct. 7 under the guidance of Miss Wilma Fowler, Wichita Falls sophomore.

The senior delegates, rush chairman, and alumnae rush advisors from each sorority will attend and evaluate the rules and outcome of the overall 1959 rush.

Panhellenic has also set Oct. 9 as the date of their Ribbon Dance honoring all the pledges of all sororities. Miss Sarah Loden, Wichita Falls senior, has announced that the theme will be Grecian.

Danny Burke's Orchestra will play in the Student Center Ballroom, and there will be a combo in the cafeteria.

Each sorority will formally present their pledges at the dance.

Phi Alpha Theta History Fraternity Accepts Membership Applications

Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary history fraternity is now accepting applications for membership for the fall semester.

Requirements for membership include 12 hours of history above the social science level, a B average in history and a three point overall average.

The purposes of this fraternity are to promote fellowship among the history faculty and students, to emphasize scholarship and cultural research in history and give to members the opportunity to hear some of the outstanding teachers and writers in lecture and discussion form.

Interested students should contact Mr. Ben Procter, assistant professor of history, in the Administration Building, room 313, or Robert Carr Ext. 238.

TOOTHPASTE?

It seems as if unfortunate happenings were plentiful over the weekend. Besides the TCU football score, one student returning on the train from Baton Rouge awoke early Sunday morning and staggered into the men's room to brush his teeth. To his dismay, he discovered that he was using Brylcreem instead of toothpaste.

His teeth may not have been clean, but they were very easy to comb.

Prepare For Your Health

Last year at the request of the Student Body and the Student Congress a health and accident insurance plan was provided for students. The program, offered by the Equitable Life Assurance Society, is being continued this year.

This coverage is designed to pay a substantial amount of the expense resulting from accidental bodily injury or sickness.

The plan offers a wide range of benefits to students at a reasonable rate. For off-campus students the plan offers medical expense protection at the low group plan rates.

For the resident students this plan supplements the services provided by the regular University medical fee. Married students may secure the same coverages for their dependents if a minimum of ten dependents apply.

This student plan is an excellent opportunity for students, don't pass it up.

For Work or Credit

Be a worker as well as a joiner.

Last week, at the Activities Carnival, several hundred students joined clubs and committees. Although the membership lists are lengthy, many of the clubs will become inactive or all of the work will have to be done by a few members. Many of the students are joiners but they forget the obligations of their membership or else they join so many clubs that they can't possibly devote enough time to any of them.

Students who join clubs should realize that to enjoy their membership, they must do their share in making the club's projects successful.

Many say their groups are inactive or that plans are never carried out. They shouldn't depend upon the other members to do all the work. If they will accept some of the responsibilities and duties of the club, they will find that it will be more successful and they will enjoy their membership much more than they would as inactive members.

Cards to Counsel

For the convenience of both the instructor and the student, many professors have adopted the policy of inserting a three by five index card on their office door stating their office hours.

This is a good way in which to inform the students when they will be free to counsel with them, answer questions or give make-up tests.

What is unfortunate, however, is the fact that many professors are neglectful of the little white card. They wait until the middle of the semester before typing up their schedule, while the out-of-date card remains on the door, confusing everyone.

What also is regretful, is that once the cards are in place, some students fail to ever check them or abide by them. They barge in to receive help and interrupt the instructor when he is busy.

It's a little thing, only three inches by five, but its value, if properly used, is tremendous.

We're No. 1!!

By BETH MORRIS

If the Sportsmanship Trophy, at present considered extinct in the Southwest Conference, should find its way into the Southeast Conference, I doubt very seriously that the LSU student body would be on the receiving end in the near future. At least their fans would prevent it.

Being the No. 1 team of the gridiron is enough to give anyone a big head, but not to the extent of greeting a visiting school with boos and jeers.

The majority of students on the Tiger campus seemed to insist on an arrogant and unfriendly attitude from the beginning. Our cheerleaders weren't the recipients of any "southern hospitality" when they were refused aid in finding places to change their clothes. But this didn't sting as much as a school cheer and the near-kickoff during the playing of the TCU Alma Mater.

We haven't gotten the Sportsmanship Trophy every year and there's been times when I've seen school spirit on our own campus hit rock bottom, but I have yet to witness an opposing team departing Frogland on buses and being stoned at the same time.

Certainly the students couldn't take 100% of the blame. Adults, the alumnae and boosters of LSU, also antagonized and encouraged a display of unsportsmanlike attitudes.

Had TCU met their opponents even less than halfway in this mud-slinging contest, I wouldn't have had any reason to write this column. But the skill of being sportsmen did not precede the path of a top team.

***

Observing a few scenes between classes . . . same old situation in the Cafeteria and Snack Bar, having to wait 45 minutes for an expensive meal . . . some students dug out their woolies yesterday to greet the nice break from the heat . . . we should be able to send our own track team to the Olympics if the water sprinklers are kept on much longer . . . keep your eyes open to those school fashions people, that "Best Dressed Girl on Campus" contest is about to erupt . . . speaking of the Sportsmanship Trophy, its elimination is a stab in the back of some of us around here, what's your idea? Write a Letter to the Editor and let us air your pet peeves.

SW Campus Confidential

By JACK HARKRIDER

A&M—

The Battalion reports mischief afoot on the campus, in the form of theft:

"Elsewhere on the campus yesterday thefts of approximately $30 from four soft drink vending machines on the campus were reported when a soft drink distributor made his morning rounds."

Now, now Mr. Distributor. You have absolutely no right to complain. After all, how do you think the Aggies finance their corps trips?

TEXAS—

A long search on the UT campus has finally ended, so the Daily reports:

"Mike Fry was named chairman of the Silver Spur's Bevo Committee Tuesday night at a meeting of the honorary service organization.

"This committee is in charge of walking the Longhorn mascot around the cinder track at home football games."

Now all the Silver Spurs' group has to do is organize a "Head Pilot" committee to follow Bevo around and clean up the track.

U OF H—

The Cougar reports of an infernal device, designed to make student auto owners tear their student auto owners tear their

"There is an old friend on campus again this semester. It goes by the name of 'rhino boot'.

"The 'rhino boot' is a steel gadget that attaches to the wheel of a car, making it immobile. Campus police attach the 'boot' if an offender has more than three parking violations."

Of course TCU has a much more effective gadget known as a "wrecker". When attached to the wheel of a car, it renders the student immobile.

SMU—

The Campus has gone the way of all worldly newspapers, trying to increase their circulation by starting a big giveaway contest:

"In keeping with its policy of furthering goodwill, competition, and brotherly hatred among incoming students, The Campus takes pride in announcing its first annual Gump of the Year contest.

"Prizes are as follows:

"First prize is two glorious weeks as left tackle for the Baltimore Colts.

"Second prize is a week in San Quentin's exotic death row. Meet all sorts of interesting people in the prime of their lives.

"Third prize is a duplicate registration permit. You can have the ultimate of joy — register twice!"

This is outright theft! The Skiff has had a similar contest for years. The Fink of the Year contest this time features the following prizes: First prize is a two-week vacation in the beautiful Robert Carr Chapel tower, winding the clock.

Second prize is 200 gallons of cold Snack Bar coffee and a free pass to the Infirmary.

Third prize is a certificate guaranteeing the winner of being the last person to register on the last day. Think of it! Seventeen hours of basket weaving and the history of Ancient Inca Skindiving.

Tunics Take Over

Practical Fashions Replace Chemise

By RUTH ANN KINDIGER
Key words in the fall fashion story this season are "wearability" and "mobility." The majority of new wool blends are washable and require a minimum of ironing. Featured fabrics and colors move easily from day to evening wear. Exaggerated chemises have almost disappeared in favor of new shapes and forms which adapt to the figure. Many of the new designs feature normal waistlines or follow a growing trend toward lower waists. Dresses are supple-waisted and bloused. Waists are accentuated by wide contour belts.

The tunic look, one of the smartest looks this fall, is seen in a wide variety of lengths and shapes—tunics that just graze underskirts, tunics that take the look of really long jackets, tunics side-buttoned, belt-cinched, bloused, and the tunic look of a peplum.

Fall colors range from neutral beiges and creamed whites to sizzling pastels for both day or evening wear. Some of the most popular pastel shades are torchy pink, sizzling violet, tangy green and milk-glass blue.

Chanel style suits trimmed with a variety of braids are being spotlighted by many top designers, as are the coat suits. Coat suits and the basic suits are trimmed with a wide range of fur, from seal to civet, and from leopard to mink.

The trend in hats is toward derbys, cloches, and toques. Purses can be described in one word—large. In accessories, as in fashions, the key word is "wearability."

Miss Sally Stout, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. freshman, models a fitted sheath dress with new soufflé sleeves.

Chemists Begin Graduate Seminar

A new addition to the chemistry department this year will be a seminar for graduate students and staff members. Pre-selected topics dealing with research at other universities and at TCU will be discussed every two weeks on Saturday from 10:00 to 12:00 a.m.

The only two under-graduates, Mike Hughes and Warner Bailey, will give a lecture on their research at the last meeting this spring.

The first meeting will be held Oct. 3, with Curtis Watson lecturing. These meetings are open to all scientists and those in allied fields of medicine and research.

FOOTBALL: ITS CAUSE AND CURE

Next Saturday at the football game while you are sitting in your choice student's seat behind the end zone, won't you give a thought to Alaric Sigafoos?

Alaric Sigafoos (1868-1934) started life humbly on a farm near Thud, Kansas. His mother and father, both named Ralph, were bean-gleaners, and Alaric became a bean-gleaner too. Later he moved to Oregon and found work with a logging firm as a stump-thumper. Then he went to North Dakota where he tended the furnace in a granary (wheat-heater). Then he drifted to Texas where he tidied up oil fields (pipe-wiper). Then to Arizona where he strung dried fruit (fig-rigger). Then to Kentucky where he fed horses at a breeding farm (oat-toter). Then to Long Island where he dressed poultry (duck-plucker). Then to Alaska where he drove a delivery van for a bakery (bread-sledder). Then to Minnesota where he cut up frozen lakes (ice-slicer). Then to Nevada where he computed odds in a gambling house (dice-pricer). Then to Milwaukee where he pasted camera lenses together (Zeiss-splicer).

Finally he went to Omaha where he got a job in a tannery beating pig hides until they were soft and supple (hog-flogger). Here he found happiness at last.

Mr. Doubleday had invented baseball the day before....

Why, you ask, did he find happiness at last? Light a firm and fragrant Marlboro, taste those better makin's, enjoy that filter that filters like no other filter filters, possess your souls in sweet content, cross your little fat legs, and read on.

Next door to Alaric's hog-floggery was an almond grove owned by a girl named Chimera Emrick. Chimera was pink and white and marvelously hinged, and Alaric was instantly in love. Each day he came to the almond grove to woo Chimera, but she, alas, stayed cool.

Then one day Alaric got a brilliant idea. It was the day before the annual Omaha Almond Festival. On this day, as everyone knows, all the almond growers in Omaha enter floats in the big parade. These floats always consist of large cardboard almonds hanging from large cardboard almond trees.

Alaric's inspiration was to stitch pieces of pigskin together and inflate them until they looked like big, plump almonds. "These sure beat skinny old cardboard almonds," said Alaric to himself. "Tomorrow they will surely take first prize for Chimera and she will be mine!"

Early the next morning Alaric carried his lovely inflated pigskin almonds over to Chimera, but she, alas, had run off during the night with Walter T. Severidge, her broker. Alaric flew into such a rage that he started kicking his pigskin almonds all over the place. And who should be walking by that very instant but Abner Doubleday!

Mr. Doubleday had invented baseball the day before, and he was now trying to invent football, but he was stymied because he couldn't figure out what kind of ball to use. Now, seeing Alaric kick the pigskin spheroids, his problem was suddenly solved. "Eureka!" he cried and ran to his drawing board and invented football, which was such a big success that he was inspired to go on and invent lacrosse, Monopoly, run sheep run and nylon.

When you go to next Saturday's game, take along the perfect football companion—Marlboro Cigarettes or Philip Morris Cigarettes or new Alpine Cigarettes—all a delight—all sponsors of this column.

Arvie Ranks With Greatest

By HARRY MORELAND
In the past, TCU has been blessed with such fine centers as Darell Lester, Ki Aldrich, Hugh Pitts and Dale Walker. This year will be no exception, for the Frogs again have one of the finest centers in the land.

He's 6-2, 220-pounder, Arvie Martin. Last year Arvie played on the alternate unit behind All-SWC Dale Walker, the Frog Captain. This fall he anchors the No. 1 center slot and odds are, he will follow Walker and be an All-SWC selection.

Aside from his offensive duties at center, Arvie has the ever important job of linebacker on defense. With his agility and speed Arvie has no equal at this position. He's always in the right place at the right time to stop the play. Last year he intercepted two passes against Iowa and grabbed another in the Cotton Bowl game with the Air Force.

Arvie came to TCU from Pleasant Grove High School in Dallas where he was an All-District and All-State choice. After graduation he was selected to play in the North-South, Green Belt Bowl and Oil Bowl All-Star games. In the Oil Bowl, Arvie met disaster when he broke his ankle. Later that year, during his freshman season here, he rehurt the ankle. Then he broke a leg at the start of his sophomore year.

The leg healed by mid-season but Arvie decided to stay out of action so he would have a full year of eligibility left. This was a wise decision because it will give him an extra year to work on a Business degree. It also will give Abe Martin another year with no worries about the center position since Arvie returns for the 1960 season.

Line coach, Allie White, who has produced many of the Frog's top linemen has this to say about Arvie:

"I can't single out any game where Martin really starred, but at the same time I can't think of a game in which he didn't play good. He's just a good, dependable, strong football player with all the equipment to be a great one."

Williamson System Rates Frogs 8th Nationally After LSU Defeat

Of the three major football ranking surveys, only the Williamson system retains the Frogs in the top ten.

Rated number eight in the Williamson system, TCU was dropped completely from the top 20 of the Associated Press and United Press International polls.

The Williamson system is based on past performances, strength of the opposing teams and other factors, all reduced to mathematical formulas. Both the AP and the UPI polls are made by polling the nation's sportswriters.

Last week, TCU was rated number eight by all three surveys before meeting the nation's number one team, the LSU Tigers.

The only Southwest Conference team in the top 20 is Texas by virtue of their two straight wins over Nebraska and Maryland. The Longhorns are ranked number eight in the AP poll.

SMU, ranked number four before the season began, also slid out of the top ten by losing to Georgia Tech. The Ponies now hold a slight edge over the Frogs in the AP and UPI polls.

PORKERS

Defensively, the situation is rosy to Ozark rooters also. Sparked by center, Wayne Harris the Hog line has yielded but one touchdown in its two games thus far.

The rivalry between the two elevens dates back to 1920 when the Purple took a 19-2 win. To date the foes have met 35 times with TCU holding an edge of 20 wins against 13 defeats and two ties.

Martin, the Frog mentor, is expected to field his usual starting lineup intact as his men came out of the LSU struggle with no serious hurt. Offensively, the Frogs are expected to show more fireworks than last week. A slippery turf contained the wide stuff last Saturday forcing the Purples to stick with their line plunges.

By GORDON PYNES

Carl Warwick, the former Frog All-SWC baseballer and the loop's leading hitter in 1957 had quite a summer in his second year of professional baseball.

Most of you will remember that Carl passed up his senior year of eligibility to sign a contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers for a nice bonus. In 1958, Carl got off to a great start in his first job as a centerfielder for Macon, Georgia, in the Class A Sally League. He led the league in homers with 22 and batted something like .275.

Home Run Leader

Last spring he moved up a notch to the AA Texas League with the Victoria Rosebuds. It seems colorful Carl took quite a liking to my old hometown. The 5-10, 170-pounder had quite a record in leading the Rosebuds to the league pennant. Warwick led the loop in round trippers with 35, scored 129 runs to lead in that department and drove in 94 while batting .331. On top of this he was selected to the All-Star team and named Most Valuable Player by league sportswriters.

It was our pleasure to watch the little slugger knock a few out of the park this summer in several games.

Majors Next Stop?

Besides his tremendous hitting Carl was just as good defensively while covering the center field garden. Many times he made some near impossible catches.

"HARE SCOOP"

With hopes of a spot in the majors next spring, Carl at last report was planning on staying in top shape by playing some winter ball in Cuba.

Keep your eye on this handsome ex-Frog because he may well be a major league star, shortly.

Football coverage on the Skiff sports pages should be a mite better this year than in the past and there's a good reason for it. In fact it might even have a slight jump on the downtown sports sheets.

The big reason, is Harry Moreland. Moreland, who is studying journalism with the hope of someday entering the public relations field, is a member of The Skiff sports staff. As someone said the other day, "He might be able to give you the inside the huddle scoop." No doubt Harry will be much closer to the game than other sportswriters from his position on the field at left halfback.

Known as the "Hare" by his teammates he takes another name when sitting behind the typewriter, "Scoop" Moreland. We hope you'll be seeing plenty of "Scoop's" inside the huddle reports this fall and so does he, for his grade's sake.

Sports Fact

Babe Ruth hit more homers than any man in history but also struck out more than any batter by whiffing 1,330 times in his major league career.

THE DRIVER AND HIS BULLDOZER

Frog center, Arvie Martin (left) will lead the way for signal caller, Larry Dawson in Arkansas game tomorrow afternoon.

Porker Tilt Starts SWC Crown Race

Touchdowns take on a new meaning for Abe Martin's Horned Frogs tomorrow afternoon when they clash with the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. This time every score will count toward another conference championship as the Frogs and Hogs lead off the Southwest Conference title scramble. Kickoff time is 2 p.m.

Arkansas, tabbed as the league's darkhorse for this fall's campaign, figures to be a tough foe for the Purple, especially so in their Ozarks home. Coach Frank Broyles' unit has always been a big obstacle to Froggie teams.

Last season it took a last quarter burst of 39 yards by Jack Spikes to salvage a 7-6 win for TCU. The year before, the Porkers bopped us 20-7 when Froggies were still thinking of their 18-14 upset of top ranked, Ohio State.

This time it will be different as the Razorbacks have won two straight over Tulsa and Oklahoma State and the Christians own a victory over Kansas plus a heart-breaking loss to mighty LSU.

Pride of the Porkers is Jim Mooty, a speedy, All-SWC selection last fall who was third in league rushing in 1958. There's plenty to go with him too, with quarterback, James Monroe, and a host of speedy sophs off a freshmen team considered the best in school history.

Spikes Tops Rush Race

The Southwest Conference rushing race is shaping up as a battle and as usual it won't be until the last play is run this season before the title can be decided.

A TCU back has held the title three of the last four years with Jim Swink copping two crowns in 1955 and '56 while Jim Shofnerf was the leader in '57. Last fall the scrap went to the final day before Baylor's Larry Hickman edged out Frog fullback, Jack Spikes for top honors.

With just two games played, Spikes has taken an early lead but is pressed by Arkansas' Jim Mooty who finished third last year and by sophomore Jessie McGuire of Texas A&M.

Big Jack has blasted for 168 steps in 25 carries while Mooty has 161 yards in 22 tries and McGuire 155 yards in 23 attempts.

The total offense story is much the same except that SMU's great Don Meredith is the overall leader after playing only one game. The Mustang passing wizard had a fantastic day against Georgia Tech even in defeat by hitting on Milstead, is back in the thick of Aggie quarterback, Charlie 16 of 23 for 191 yards. the fight also. Using his passing and running abilities off of coach Jim Meyer's multiple offense, the senior has netted 180 yards.

Several outstanding sophomore prospects besides McGuire are already sounding warning for future foes with top performances. Baylor's Ronnie Bull started off with a big blast that netted him over 100 yards rushing. His 64 yard gallop last Saturday sunk Colorado. Jack Collins, Texas' swift soph had a big night in the Longhorns' 26-0 win over Maryland. Collins sailed 86 paces the first time he touched the ball in that contest.

With stiff competition developing in every game it looks as if the SWC will again produce another great crop of football players.
