WHICH CLASS?

Dick Finney, 1958 Frog quarterback, was surprised upon returning home one day to discover that his wife, the former Janie Baton, ex '58, had delivered their expected baby at home all by herself.

Although she hadn't had time to summon help, she had cared for the baby in near-professional style.

The reason she was able to do it? "I learned what to do in a class I took at TCU."

Enrollment for 1959 Reaches 6264 Total

Final enrollment figures released Tuesday by the Registrar's office showed a total of 6264 students enrolled for the 1959 fall semester.

Undergraduates in the day schools total 3819. Brite College has 147 students; Evening College, 1773, and Graduate School, 525. This is a 3.2% decrease from last year.

The ratio of men and women in the undergraduate day schools and colleges increased over last fall by 2%. The enrollment in Brite College, Graduate School and Evening College is predominantly men, causing the total University distribution to be 63% men and 37% women.

All undergraduate classes show increases over last year with the exception of the sophomore class, which decreased 14 students.

Another interesting tabulation is that 47 states, including Hawaii and Alaska, are represented in the fall 1959 enrollment. Only three states are not represented: Maine, North Dakota and Rhode Island. The out-of-state students total 531.

The largest representation from states other than Texas are:

New Mexico, 53; Missouri, 47; Oklahoma, 34; Illinois, 31, and 30 each from California and Louisiana.

Foreign students number 48, representing 22 countries and US possessions.

Religious groups are well represented on campus with a total of 36.

Continuing a pattern established in 1947, the Baptists dominate with the largest number of students, 1528; followed by the Methodists with 1351 and the Disciples of Christ with 1111.

The remaining prominent religious groups are:

Presbyterians, 513; Catholics, 411; Episcopalians, 308 and the Church of Christ with 255 members.

Admission Test Dates Scheduled

The Law School admission test will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on Nov. 14, 1959; Feb. 20, April 9, and Aug. 6, 1960.

Ranch Program Expands

The ranch training program reports a record enrollment of 22 students. "This represents a 27% increase over last year," Director Arthur H. Courtade stated. These students come from Arizona, Georgia, Mexico, New Jersey, New York, and Texas.

Floyd Keen, Fort Worth, has joined the teaching staff of the program, which now offers a total of 30 hours credit. For the first time a course in "Anatomy and Diseases" will be taught.

State Representative to Interview Students Here

Jackson W. Wilson of the State Department will be on campus Oct. 13 to interview students who would like to make applications for foreign service officer jobs. Applicants may contact Wilson in Room 216 of the Student Center at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday.

Natives Dig Rock and Roll

Guthrie, Music Prof Reports on Africa

By Lynn Swann

William Guthrie, recently named assistant professor of music and choral director, recently completed a five-month tour of Africa.

The trip, made with 23 other musical instructors from all over the US, was one of many such projects included in President Eisenhower's attempt to promote good public relations with other countries through cultural exchange. Financed by the US government, the tour included graduates of Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J.

The group, of which Guthrie was financial manager, flew to 21 African countries and Lebanon and Jordan as well. They traveled from N. Y. to Paris, down the West coast of Africa and up the Eastern seaboard.

Guthrie was impressed by the warm reception which the people of Africa showed the group. "Surprisingly enough, however, the only American music with which most of the audiences were familiar was rock and roll. Though they may not have recognized the name Lawrence Melchior, Elvis Presley has become a common word." "The reason for rock and roll's popularity is that recording companies recognize the commercial value of the unique form of music and have promoted the sale of it. As a result, rock and roll is classified as the music representative of America," Guthrie continued.

The group with which Guthrie and his wife toured tried to give the audiences a cross-section of typical American music, choosing a variety of musical types. Their program included the classics, Bach and Durante; experts from the musical comedies, "Oklahoma, Carousel," and "Plain and Fancy;" Western folk songs; Negro spirituals and true American jazz such as the "St. Louis Blues".

Guthrie was surprised to find that one woman wept when she discovered that Americans play something other than rock and roll.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Is Your Election Weak?

In the elections next week, the student should realize before he votes that a class officer or representative will have duties to perform as well as the honor of being elected.

To be a good officer, a student should have the ability to accept responsibility and do his best for the class he is representing. Therefore, before voting, consider the qualifications of each candidate and decide who will do the best job representing your class.

Some students who seek only the honor of the office are chosen as representatives and officers. After they are elected, duties are often forgotten.

Both the individual student and the entire class will benefit if candidates who really want to work are elected.

Light and Bright?

One night this fall a dark-clad figure may walk slowly from the archway in front of the Administration Building out into University Drive. Then, suddenly a cruising motorist will look up and realize that he is almost on top of the pedestrian.

This type of tragedy hasn't occurred yet. It may occur on the dimly lighted drive.

TCU has had lamps placed near the street, but still they are not enough to properly light the wide street.

Since University is a public thoroughfare it should be the responsibility of the City of Fort Worth to furnish it with proper lighting. That responsibility has not been accepted as yet by the city.

For action to be taken, the University administration should appeal to the city government for more and better lighting facilities in the TCU area.

Until these steps are taken, be sure to wear light colored clothes.

Thousand Dollar 'F'

Study has officially begun on campus, for those who study, anyway. Naturally there are a few who wait until the last minute to do anything—and then flunk as a result.

If those "flunkin' Freddies" would stop and consider just how expensive it is everytime they make a single "F", they might not act quite so allergic to a little, old-fashioned study.

Suppose a student made only one "F" in his college career. He loses three hours credit plus the $51 paid for the course. These hours must be made up before he can graduate.

It is possible that this student would have to come back an extra semester to make up the lost hours. He couldn't live in the dorm unless he took at least nine hours.

It would cost $156 for nine hours, $160 for board, from $90 to $135 for room, $7.50 medical fee $5 student Center fee and $1.50 Student Congress fee. All this adds up to from $370.75 to $415.75.

During the semester he was here unnecessarily. He might have already had a job and earned eight or nine hundred dollars.

So making that one little "F" could easily cost him as much as $1,315.75.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"QUICK—SOMEBODY TEAR UP SOME CLEAN SHEETS AND RUN FETCH US PLENTY OF BOILING WATER!"

THE LEDGER

Dial 'S' for Spirit

By BETH MORRIS

Making an entry in The Ledger this week will be Miss Sandy Stokes with an important message:

School Spirit at TCU was seriously injured two weeks ago after our football loss to the number one team in the nation.

The injuring blow occurred during the weekly pep rally on Oct. 1 at 7 p.m. Only a few—the Horned Frog Band, the cheerleaders, the Vigilantes and approximately 40 students were conscious of the event. They were the only ones present.

Oddly enough, School Spirit was struck by an unseen body of college-age adults. The exact identity of the members of this cruel group is not known. But investigations led authorities to believe they were living in and about the TCU area.

School Spirit suffered a relapse the following Saturday when the muddy Frogs lost their first conference game. Although he was in terrible pain, he stager an appearance last night in the Ballroom during a student effort "to cheer him up!"

Eye-witnesses to these events have described each one as disappointing and heart-breaking. One of School Spirit's champions, Jerry Johnson, President of the Student Congress, expressed his views:

"It's hard to be a good winner. The six hundred TCU-ites going to LSU found that out as we witnessed several incidents that created a bad impression of the LSU campus."

"However, TCU has continued to uphold high standards as LSU has commended the band, the team, and the students for creating 'the best possible impression' of TCU while in Louisiana."

"It's hard for some Froggies to be good losers, mainly because we're not accustomed to losing. But most students here now have seen TCU with its back to the wall, and they refuse to believe now that there's any reason to get down-hearted."

"The team is working harder than ever. We of the student body have 'gotta have heart' because how very much easier it is for us to keep up the spirit than it is for the players to be sweaty, dirty and tired on the field. We have an opportunity to be an 'All American' student body . . . are you willing?"

In reply, Mr. Spirit said:

"It takes a worried man to sing a worried song, but it takes a stronger worried man to sing a happy song!"

SW Campus Confidential

By JACK HARKRIDER

NORTH TEXAS—

A Campus Chat columnist, writing a farewell column prior to graduation, looked back over the years he had been there.

He remarked that during his stay North Texas had risen both in academic reputation and in prominence.

"People used to say to NT students, 'Are you going to be a teacher?' or 'That college is at Arlington, isn't it?'

"They don't any more."

Yes sir. That North Texas is coming up in the world. They've got a very good school there in Dallas.

A&M—

A classified ad in the Battalion read thusly:

"Dogs Boarded: Clean, comfortable quarters. Caucasian Boarding Kennels. Special rate to 'Aggies'."

Always knew those Aggies were going to the dogs.

SMU—

Memories are wonderful. In fact, the Campus likes to look back through the years and reprint stories of long ago. For example:

"Three Years Ago—the APO's Christmas Tree (charity drive) fell short of its expected goal of $200, collecting only $66.21, two pieces of chalk, three cough-drops, six paper clips and an art gum eraser."

After all, it's the thought behind the gift, you know.

Still at SMU,
"Everybody should, it's more collegiate, it's exercise, it's cheaper!"

Such were the comments of the bicyclists of SMU.

In other words, poppa took away the credit card.

BAYLOR—

Some unusual students appeared on the Baylor campus recently. The Lariat thought they were unusual enough to write a feature article about them:

"At least two of Baylor University's new freshmen this year won't be on the school's official registration list."

"They are Ken Hall and Dell Marrs, two wooden dummies owned by Lee Dean, a 17-year-old professional ventriloquist from Harrodsburg, Ky."

What a shame they weren't registered, they might have made excellent student body leaders.

TWU—

The Daily Lass-O, always striving to educate its readers, came up with the following filler:

"The mudskipper has a head and forelegs very similar to that of a frog but the rest of his body is like that of a fish."

In other words, a mudskipper is a TCU sophomore who transferred from A&M.

STUDYING CAN BE SCREAMS

If studying is bugging you, try mnemonics.

Mnemonics, as we all know, was invented by the great Greek philosopher Mnemon in 526 B.C. (Mnemonies, incidentally, was only one of the inventions of this fertile Athenian. He also invented the staircase which, as you may imagine, was of inestimable value to mankind. Before the staircase people who wished to go from floor to floor were forced to live out their lives, willy-nilly, on the ground floor, and many of them grew cross as bears. Especially Demosthenes who was elected Consul of Athens three times but never served because he was unable to get up to the office of Commissioner of Oaths on the third floor to be sworn in. But after Mnemon's staircase, Demosthenes got up to the third floor easy as pie—to Athens' sorrow, as it turned out. Demosthenes, his temper shortened by years of confinement to the ground floor, soon embroiled his countrymen in a series of senseless wars with the Persians, the Visigoths and the Ogallala Sioux. He was voted out of office in 517 B.C. and Mnemon, who had made his accession possible, was pelted to death with fruit salad in the Duomo. This later became known as the Missouri Compromise.)

He was unable to get to the third floor to be sworn in.

But I digress. We were discussing mnemonics, which are nothing more than aids to memory—catchwords or jingles that help you remember names, dates and places. For example:

Columbus sailed the ocean blue
In fourteen hundred ninety-two.

See how simple? Make up your own jingles. What, for instance, is the important event immediately following Columbus's discovery of America? The Boston Tea Party, of course. Try this:

Samuel Adams flung the tea
Into the briny Zuyder Zee.

(NOTE: The Zuyder Zee was located in Boston Harbor until 1904 when Salmon P. Chase traded it to Holland for Louisiana and two outfielders.)

But I digress. To get back to mnemonics, you can see how simple and useful they are—not only for history but also for everyday living; for instance:

In nineteen hundred fifty-nine
The smoke to look for is Alpine.

"Why Alpine?" you ask. Taste that fine, fresh flavor. Enjoy that subtle coolness. Until Alpine you needed two cigarettes to reap the benefits of Alpine—one for flavor, one for high filtration—and smoking two cigarettes is never graceful; in fact, with mittens it is nigh impossible. Now you need only one cigarette—Alpine. Get some. You'll see.

RAIDERS

Besides the passing, the Raiders have used their opponents mistakes to best advantage. A fumble recovery last week helped them edge Tulsa, 8-7. They also feature a stable of fast backs and a top notch kicking game.

Coach DeWitt Weaver is also proud of his line led by All-American candidate, E. J. Holub and tackle Jerry Selfridge.

Holub, a junior center was one of the best in the Southwest last season and is expected to make a strong bid for national honors this year. The 6-4, 210-pound center had quite a night against the Frogs a year ago.

Tomorrow night's West Texas meeting will be the 16th of a series that started back in 1928. The Frogs hold an edge of nine wins against six losses but they have never fared well out in Lubbock. Weaver's Red Raiders have won four out of six on the plains. Last fall the Purple took an easy 26-0 win.

The Christians are due to finally return home next week when they play host to the Texas Aggies in a conference clash on Parent's Day.

FROGS SEEK SCORING PUNCH

Sports Lines

By GORDON PYNES

After listening to the TCU-Arkansas game last Saturday I wasn't in the best of moods. I don't imagine there was a Frog fan in the land happy after that muddy three-point loss.

Teasips Roar

Then while watching the Texas-California game on TV I just got plain mad. Sportscaster Lindsey Nelson remarked at halftime that the biggest roar during the first half came not when Texas scored its touchdowns but instead when it was announced, "Final score, Arkansas 3, TCU 0."

That blew my stack but then I thought to myself, "Just wait teasips, the Frogs will rise again and they'll be down in Austin to beat the Longhorns in a few weeks." There is no doubt here that Abe will bring them back and they can win the conference again. The Purples lost one game last year in the SWC race and still won the championship. Last fall they lost the last one to SMU and this time it is just the opposite, they dropped the first to Arkansas.

Frogs Won't Quit

Many folks think the year is already lost. Some might even say why finish out the schedule. The Froggies think quite differently. With guys like Captains Don Floyd, Marvin Lasater and Bubba Meyer leading a team there is no fear of Martin's men giving up. Instead they will push a little harder in practice and get prepared to win the next one.

They Gonna Unload

It's like senior end, Jimmy Gilmore told a downtown reporter in the dressing room after the Arkansas loss, "We're gonna get a break one of these days and unload on someone."

Jimmy Gilmore

Coach Abe Martin put it even better after the Arkansas defeat, when he spoke to his mud-caked boys in the dressing room.

"It wasn't in the cards to win, lads, the good Lord is testing us to see how good of a team we really are."

Tomorrow night the Froggies face Texas Tech in Lubbock and this will be the time to pass the test. A win over the Red Raiders would give the incentive needed for a rebound against the Texas Aggies in conference warfare.

I can't help but feel the Christians have it and will unload tomorrow night right in DeWitt Weaver's lap to break Tech's three game winning streak.

Now is the time for all good Frogs to come to the aid of the Purple and White and we will WIN.

ROBERT LILY . . . Strength & Health Inc.

Froggie Strong Boy Covers Right Side

By HARRY MORELAND

TCU has two of the finest tackles in the nation. On the left side of the Frog line is All-American, Donald Floyd and on the right side is Robert "Tiger" Lily who in his own right is an All-American candidate.

As a sophomore last fall the 6-5, 247-pound Lily was one of the top all-around performers on last season's Southwest Conference championship team. Tabbed the "Tiger" by teammates, Lily has continued with top notch performance in the three games thus far this fall.

Lily has had a fabulous athletic career, dating back to his freshman year in high school at Throckmorton. He played varsity football, basketball and ran track. In his junior year he made the All-State teams in both football and basketball. That year he averaged 29 points a game in the hardwood game.

Robert's senior year the family moved to Pendleton, Oregon, where he continued to gain fame as an athlete. Both on the gridiron and the basketball court, Robert was named to the High School All-American teams.

In track the big blond used his long arms to excell as a javelin thrower. He hurled the spear near 200 feet and only five feet short of the Oregon state record.

The Frog coaching staff found out about Lily through his high school coach at Throckmorton who was a former Frog himself. Line coach, Allie White contacted the big tackle and after seeing movies of Robert's play he decided he wanted "Tiger" for the Purple line.

As coach White says, "Lily came equipped, like a new automobile—with overdrive, air conditioning, power pack and everything one would want." When Robert's family decided to move back to Texas, he decided TCU was for him.

Robert's tremendous size and strength make him one of the best professional football prospects in Frog history. Many claim he is the strongest tackle in the country. If lifting small foreign cars and putting them on the sidewalk is any indication, Lily is definitely strong.

Asked how he got so strong, "Tiger" jokingly replied, "I just eat my spinach."

Delts, Sigs Cop Intramural Wins

Phi Delta Theta and the Sigma Chi's grabbed opening-game wins in Intramural Fraternity League action Tuesday.

The Phi Deltas started slow but a three-touchdown deluge in the second half gave the Deltas a 24-0 victory over Sigma Phi Epsilon. Richie Stephens, Ken Anderson, Lonnie Holliday and Barry Acker all contributed 6-pointers for the Deltas.

In the second game Sigma Chi finally outlasted Kappa Sigma in a defensive battle by winning 12-6. John Smith and Jack Kell tallied for the winners while Bronson had the lone score for the Kappa Sigs.

DADS FACE FROGS AGAIN

Last week in Fayetteville it was Dad's Day for the Arkansas Razorbacks. The Porkers' Dads sat along the sidelines in the rain to watch their sons edge the Frogs 3-0.

This week will find the Frogs running into another Dad's Day gathering. Texas Tech fathers will be seated along the sidelines to watch the Red Raiders Saturday night.

Dry Gridiron Could End Christian Scoring Drouth

Hoping to find an offensive punch and a dry field to display it on, the TCU Frogs tackle undefeated Texas Tech in a non-conference clash tomorrow night. The bout is set for 8 p.m. out on the plains in Lubbock at Tech's Jones Stadium.

This will be TCU's last unofficial look at the Raiders because next fall the game will count in the Southwest Conference standings. Tech, which already competes in all SWC sports except football, is playing five conference members this fall in preparation for their 1960 entry into league action. Thus far this season the Raiders have whipped one conference member, Texas A&M 15-14.

Abe Martin's Purples will be looking for their first win since the 14-7 victory over Kansas in the opener. Since then, they have failed to score in losing two straight to LSU and Arkansas. In both those losses the Froggies have had to operate on rain-soaked fields.

Texas Tech has enjoyed tremendous come-from-behind success in its three outings with wins over Texas A&M, Oregon State and Tulsa in that order. In all three contests they have had to come from behind to win. The last two victories have come by the margin of a single point, 15-14 and 8-7.

Featuring somewhat of an aerial attack they have overhauled every foe in the last half. The passing game features senior quarterback, Ken Talkington.

Style Tips from the
CLYDE CAMPBELL UNIVERSITY SHOP

(one of a series)

What? Where? When? How? Why?

Journalism students and devotees of old Clark Gable movies recognize the five essentials of a newspaper story.

The same five things go to make up a well-dressed college man, and they are all equally important.

WHAT to wear is simple, really the easiest of all . . . if it comes from the CCUS it's got to be right.

WHERE you wear a given outfit seems to be a harder problem—in our college days we actually knew a boy who turned up for Poly Sci in a dinner jacket! Obviously the outfit must be suitable to the locale.

WHEN is also obviously important, for instance a striped dress shirt is correct for business wear, but a white shirt should be substituted after five.

HOW is the most subtle of all, and one it is hard to teach, but we think at CCUS we have some of the answers on why it is that one man looks great in identically the same outfit that another man looks like a bum in.

WHY is simple: we are all status seekers to some extent, that is why we dress up as much as we can. Even beatniks who profess not to care, have their own mode of dress, although we don't stock it at the CCUS.
