

Life 'Reporter' Found Imposter

BY DON BUCKMAN

"See that man over there?" our feature editor whispered in our ear.

"Yeah," we said, glancing at the man who wore a two-day beard and a dirty, rumpled white shirt. He was in his mid-twenties.

"He's from Life magazine," the editor said.

"So what?" we said, adding more to the number fooled by Noel Kilgen, whose only connection with Life is that he was once an office boy for the magazine in New York.

Kilgen (which seems to be his real name) showed up in the journalism department last Tuesday and timed his stay so that he was on his way to SMU by the time TCU officials found out that he was an imposter with bogus credentials.

Working on "Story"

"I got a fast glance at his credentials," Skiff photographer Joel Council said. Council, one of many students taken in by Kilgen's fast talk and false identification, agreed to go with him to watch the Horned Frog Band rehearse after Kilgen said he was working on a story for Life about American colleges and universities.

Kilgen told Council that he had just finished work on a story about movie star Kim Novak in Tennessee. "He gave a pretty good line," Council said.

Band director James A. Jacobsen gave Kilgen permission to watch and to interview some band members after rehearsal. Jacobsen became suspicious when some students complained that Kilgen asked some embarrassing questions, so he called Social Director Miss Elizabeth Youngblood. (Jacobsen later described Kilgen as "the typical big shot type.")

He Interviews

In the meantime, Kilgen had gone to the Student Center to conduct more interviews, this time asking students what they thought about Barry Goldwater, Cuba, the John Birch Society and birth control, among other subjects. He and Council also took some pictures.

He also told Miss Glover that he planned to visit "every major college and university in the country."

Miss Youngblood, trying to see if Kilgen was on the level, called Bob Carrell, assistant professor of journalism. Carrell in turn talked to Council and Kilgen by phone and later said of Kilgen, "He had a good line."

Melton Checks Up

Not satisfied, Carrell called Jim Lehman in the public relations department, who checked with his boss, Amos Melton. Melton called Time-Life's Southwestern headquarters in Dallas, who told him that Kilgen most certainly was not their representative, but that he was a former mental patient and was wanted in connection with a string of bad checks, written across the Eastern half of the country.

But by this time Kilgen had given Council money to mail his negatives to the editor of Life in New York and disappeared.

Kilgen headed for SMU and was there during the day Wednesday.

"He showed up in the reading clinic," an SMU spokesman said Friday. "Because he was unshaven and not very well dressed, the people at the clinic called our public relations office and we called Time-Life."

SMU officials became especially skeptical when Kilgen said he didn't even know Time and Life had a Dallas office.

"Borrows" Clothes

Up to his old tricks, Kilgen had made friends at an SMU fraternity house, "borrowed" some clothes and went out to give more of his "tests." Again he disappeared by the time his identity was determined.

"We and the Time-Life people are quite interested in finding him," the SMU public relations man said. "In fact, the fraternity boys told me they'd like to see him again, too."

Kilgen had indicated at TCU that he would visit Baylor after SMU, but Baylor officials said they hadn't heard anything about a reporter from Life on the Waco campus.

Fall Enrollment Exceeds 6,000 Mark for 6th Year

BY LINDA KAYE

For the sixth consecutive fall, enrollment at TCU has exceeded 6,000.

Official figures released Monday by Registrar Calvin A. Cumbie show that complete registration in all divisions of the University totals 6,309. This figure is still 165 short of the record set in 1958.

New Records Set

Although this semester's total is only a token increase of one student over the fall of 1960, the Day School and Colleges set an all-time record with an increase of 50 students over last fall.

Also setting records were Brite College of the Bible and the Graduate School with increases of 21 and 63 respectively.

The only drop in enrollment came in the Evening College where there was a decrease of 133.

Here are the totals in all divisions:

Day School (Undergraduate) .....	4,085
Graduate School .....	532
Evening College .....	1,524
Brite College .....	168

Total .....

6,309
Forty-six religious groups are represented in this fall's enrollment, compared with 37 last fall. According to Cumbie, this is the largest number of religious groups ever represented.

There are 1,403 Baptists, 1,388 Methodists, 1,132 Disciples of Christ, 537 Presbyterians, 402 Catholics, 385 Episcopalians, 255 Church of Christ, 123 Lutherans, and 64 Jewish students.

48 States Represented

Students come from 48 states and the District of Columbia. Only North Dakota and Vermont, as was the case last year, are not represented.

Cumbie said that there are 50 students from outside the United States, representing 22 foreign countries and U.S. possessions. They are: Africa (3), China (5), Iraq (1), Lebanon (1), Peru (1), Hong Kong (3), Jordan (2), Canada (6), Denmark (1) Egypt (3), England (3), France (1), Germany (1), Greece (1), Japan (1), Korea (4), Iran (2), Puerto Rico (2), Yugoslavia (1), Saudia Arabia (1), and Venezuela (3).

Illinois Has 49

Students from states other than Texas number 686. The largest representation is from Illinois with 49, followed closely by Missouri (47), New Mexico (46), Oklahoma (46), California (43) and Louisiana (41).

Cumbie said that lack of dormitory space for women, the recall of reservists, and the increase in tuition kept the enrollment from being any higher. All available dormitory space had been reserved by the first of last June.

Concert Set By Fleisher

Leon Fleisher will present a dedicatory concert tonight at 8:15 in Ed Landreth Auditorium.

The occasion which brings the famous pianist to campus is the dedication of the University's new Steinway piano. The instrument is a gift of Mrs. Charles D. Reimers.

The young artist, 33, has a long history of musical achievements. He was the first American to win the Queen Elisabeth of Belgium Concours, one of Europe's toughest competitions. In 1958, Fleisher represented the United States at the Brussels World's Fair.

Fleisher began studying piano at the age of four and two years later gave his first public recital. He studied with the late Artur Schnabel in Italy and New York.

His performance on campus will be his first appearance in this area.

The instrument which Fleisher is dedicating will remain on the Ed Landreth Auditorium stage and will be used only for major concerts.

The evening's program includes Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," Beethoven's Sonata in G major, Op. 79 and Sonata in B minor by Liszt.

There will be no admission charge.

Television Rerun

Mixup Hits Bowl Team

Television viewers hoping to see the University's College Bowl team meet the University of Buffalo Sunday on the General Electric College Bowl were treated to a half-hour of suspense.

A network mixup caused last week's bout with DePaul University to be shown again instead of the scheduled contest with the team from Buffalo, N. Y.

Even though the nation didn't see them, the University's scholars defeated the New York team by a score of 210-80. Last week they won over DePaul by 195-40.

The team of four and their two alternates will return for a third try against Upsala University of East Orange, New Jersey.

The victory Sunday gave TCU the distinction of being the first school from the Southwest to win twice on the national contest. SMU won once last year.

Comprising the team are: Miss Randie Jean Guenther, Fort Worth sophomore and only woman on the team; James Dunkly, team captain and Arlington senior; Richard Bond, Denison sophomore; and Joe Lake, Gainesville senior.

Dr. Marguerite Potter of the history department is the team's coach. Alternates are Miss Patricia Potter and Fred Kemp, both Fort Worth juniors.

The team ran into other difficulties. Its plane back to Fort Worth was delayed several hours.

Clubs To Meet Deadlines For Yearbook by Oct. 31

Clubs and organizations belong in the yearbook!

Any club desiring to be represented in the 1962 Horned Frog must be approved by the committee on Student Clubs and organizations. No club will have a page in the annual unless it has been declared by this committee, according to Editor Lynda Wolfe.

Deadline for copy required of clubs is Oct. 31. All requested information must be in by this date.

Organizations must meet the following requirements:

1. A check or cash amounting to $35 per page;
2. An alphabetical list of members, hometowns, and classifications;
3. A list of club officers and their offices; and
4. A brief type-written article on the club's activities.

Individual pictures will be obtained from Orgain's Studio and will be sent directly from the photographer to the editor.

An additional 20 cents will be billed to clubs to cover the cost of pictures.

Any organization failing to meet the above requirements by Oct. 31 will not be included in the 1962 Horned Frog, said Miss Wolfe.

Requirements for sororities and fraternities are the same with these exceptions.

They must buy two pages ($70). Pictures must be uniform and by the same photographer. Sororities must submit a proof by Oct. 31 for editors approval. No off-the-shoulder drapes or scoop-necked blouses may be worn.

Further information may be obtained by calling the Horned Frog editor, at extension 289.

Construction Gets Financial Booster

The construction Management Program in the School of Business got a financial boost Sept. 21 with $3,500 in grants. They were presented at a luncheon meeting of the Southwestern Builders Conference at Texas Hotel.

Richard Bloomfield, Fort Worth senior; Jon Whites, Cleburne freshman; and Patrick Riley, Fort Worth junior, shared a grant of $1,500 from the National Association of Homebuilders Scholarship Foundation, Inc.

Hughes Presents

R. G. Hughes, president of Hughes Investment Co., presented the awards.

Following the awards to the students, Hughes presented $1,000 in behalf of U. S. Gypsum Corp. and $1,000 from his own company to be used in support of the Construction Management Program at the University.

Hughes cited several examples of students of construction management who had entered the field with various starting salaries and who now had their own businesses.

Hughes would like to see the recipients of the grants use their money "to eat good so they can work hard."

'Whiskers' Topic At Colloquium

Here is a lecture for anyone who has ever had a "close shave."

A talk entitled "Growth and Properties of Whiskers" will be given at the physics graduate colloquium at 4:30 p. m. Oct. 5 in Room 151 of the Science Building.

Dr. P. L. Edwards, associate professor of physics, will deliver the talk.

All professors and graduate students in physics are urged to attend. Undergraduate upper-class physics majors and minors, and other interested individuals are invited.

A coffee period will precede the meeting at 4:15 p. m.

Offer Travel Abroad

Grants Awarded for Study

Students interested in graduate study and travel abroad, may apply for one of the 700 available Fulbright scholarships.

Applications will be accepted until Nov. 1, as announced by the Institute of International Education.

The scholarship will enable a student to do graduate study and research in 31 countries in Europe, Latin America and the Asia-Pacific areas.

Tuition Paid

Recipients of Fulbright awards will receive tuition, maintenance, and round-trip travel.

Fulbright Travel Grants to supplement maintenance and tuition scholarships awarded from other sources are also available to students receiving research awards in universities in Austria, Denmark, France, Germany, Israel, Italy and the Netherlands.

General eligibility requires that the applicant be a U. S. citizen at the time of the application, have received a bachelor's degree before the beginning date of the award, have a knowledge of the language of the host country and be in good health.

Must Submit Plan

The student should also show a capacity for independent study and have a good academic record.

Applicants will be required to submit a plan of proposed study that they intend to carry out during the year abroad.

All interested students should consult the campus Fulbright Program Advisor for information and applications.

Who Lost His 'Silver Chest Key'?

A nickel-plated key about one and a quarter inches long has been found by Social Director Elizabeth Youngblood. It carries a white label on which is written "TCU Silver Chest."

Whoever has the key and has been unable to unlock his silver chest may pick up the key in Miss Youngblood's office.

300 Witness

More than 300 builders from Texas and six surrounding states witnessed the presentations, which were accepted for TCU by Amos Melton, assistant to the Chancellor.

Hughes, a past president of NAHB, and one of the administrators of the NAHB Scholarship program, has offices in Pampa, Albuquerque, El Paso, Tulsa and Bartlesville, Okla. He has built more than 10,000 homes and commercial buildings.

In a later interview, Hughes said, "Any challenge you want to find can be found in the building industry."

He emphasized the growth of building when he said "by 1970 America will need 160 billion dollars for new home loans."

WELCOME PARENTS and STUDENTS

As the 1961-62 session at TCU gets underway, all of us at the HI-HO MOTEL would like to extend a special invitation to the parents, relatives and friends of TCU students. We shall do everything to make you comfortable and happy while visiting TCU. As there are special and great events during the college year, such as Howdy Week, home football games, and many others, we know you will be visiting in Fort Worth often.

We are looking forward to seeing you this new TCU year, and are hoping the HI-HO will be your home away from home while visiting the TCU campus.

European Group Announces Grants

The Institute of European Studies, an educational organization specializing in overseas study for American college students, will announce the scholarships for undergraduate study in Europe during the 1962-63 academic year. Valued from $1,950 to $2,350, these scholarships provide a full year of study at one of the Institute's three study centers; Vienna, Freiburg (West Germany) and Paris.

The application period begins October and closes Feb. 1, 1962, for students who have the minimum qualifications required by each program and who are sophomores or juniors.

Full information about programs can be obtained by writing the Institute of European Studies, 35 East Wacker Drive, Chicago 1, Ill.

Poets Invited To Enter Anthology Competition

Annual competition in the poetry anthology contest of the National Poetry Association is now open to any student attending either junior or senior college. There is no limitation as to form or theme. Shorter works are preferred by the judges, because of space limitations.

Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet. The sheet must bear the name of the college attended. Closing date for submission of manuscripts by students is Nov. 5.

Teachers and librarians are invited to submit poetry for consideration for inclusion in the Annual National Teachers Anthology. All work will be judged on merit alone. The closing date for submission is Jan. 1.

Manuscripts should be sent to the National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Avenue, Los Angeles 34, California.

TCU Hosts Credit Conference

Regional and national leaders in business and education will meet here during the annual Texas Consumer Credit Management Conference Oct. 20 and 21. Conference director is Dr. James M. Whitsett, professor of finance. Sponsoring the meeting are TCU, the University of Texas and the University of Houston. Other TCU faculty members on the planning committee are

Dr. Ike H. Harrison, dean of the school of business, and Gene C. Lynch, assistant professor of finance. Committee members also include representatives from other universities and organizations connected with finance.

Current influences on and operational problems of consumer credit lenders in the Southwest will be considered at the conference.

SAIL ON, SAIL ON!

I suppose October 12 is just another day to you. You get up in the ordinary way and do all the ordinary things you ordinarily do. You have your breakfast, you walk your ocelot, you go to classes, you write home for money, you burn the dean in effigy, you watch Howdy-Doody, and you go to bed. And do you give one little thought to the fact that October 12 is Columbus Day? No, you do not.

Nobody thinks about Columbus these days. Let us, therefore, pause for a moment and retell his ever-glorious, endlessly stirring saga.

Is this the only reason for using Mennen Skin Bracer?

Skin Bracer's rugged, long-lasting aroma is an obvious attribute. But is it everything?

After all, Menthol-Iced Skin Bracer is the after-shave lotion that cools rather than burns. It helps heal shaving nicks and scrapes. Helps prevent blemishes. Conditions your skin.

Aren't these sound, scientific virtues more important than the purely emotional effect Skin Bracer has on women? In that case, buy a bottle. And—have fun!

IN THE NEW NON-SLIP FLASK

Christopher Columbus was born in Genoa on August 25, 1451. His father, Ralph T. Columbus, was in the three-minute auto wash game. His mother, Eleanor (Swiftly) Columbus, was a sprinter. Christopher was an only child, except for his four brothers and eight sisters. With his father busy all day at the auto wash and his mother constantly away at track meets, young Columbus was left pretty much to his own devices. However, the lad did not sulk or brood. He was an avid reader and spent all his waking hours immersed in a book. Unfortunately, there was only one book in Genoa at the time—Care of the Horse by Aristotle—and after several years of reading Care of the Horse, Columbus grew restless. So when rumor reached him that there was another book in Barcelona, off he ran as fast as his fat little legs would carry him.

The rumor, alas, proved false. The only book in Barcelona was Cuidar un Caballo by Aristotle, which proved to be nothing more than a Spanish translation of Care of the Horse.

Bitterly disappointed, Columbus began to dream of going to India where, according to legend, there were thousands of books. But the only way to go to India was on horseback, and after so many years of reading Care of the Horse, Columbus never wanted to clap eyes on a horse again. Then a new thought struck him: perhaps it was possible to get to India by sea!

Fired with his revolutionary new idea, Columbus raced to the court of Ferdinand and Isabella on his little fat legs (Columbus, though six feet tall, was plagued with little fat legs all his life) and pleaded his case with such fervor that the rulers were persuaded.

On October 12, 1492, Columbus set foot on the New World. The following year he returned to Spain with a cargo of wonders never before seen in Europe—spices and metals and plants and flowers and—most wondrous of all—tobacco! Oh, what a sensation tobacco caused in Europe! The filter had long since been invented (by Aristotle, curiously enough) but nobody knew what to do with it. Now Columbus, the Great Discoverer, made still another great discovery: he took a filter, put tobacco in front of it, and invented the world's first filter cigarette!

Through the centuries filters have been steadily improved and so has tobacco, until today we have achieved the ultimate in the filter cigarette—Marlboro, of course! Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! Great tobacco, great filter, great smoke! And so, good friends, when next you enjoy a fine Marlboro Cigarette, give a thought to the plucky Genoese, Christopher Columbus, whose vision and perseverance made the whole lovely thing possible.

© 1961 Max Shulman

And thank Columbus too for the king-size Philip Morris Commander. If unfiltered cigarettes are your choice, you'll find Commander the choice of the unfiltered. Welcome aboard.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"BY TH' WAY, ED, THAT'S A HI-POWER ACID IN THAT COKE BOTTLE."

'Reporter' From Life 1961-62 Looks Stirrs Scare on Campus Brighter Than Ever

As far as is known, the fake "reporter" from Life magazine who visited the campus did no real harm. The story of his stay, told elsewhere in this issue, seems quite humorous at first.

But what if he had been working on a story for some sensational magazine, a "campus confidential" sort of thing? If the material he gathered through his interviews were spicy enough, its publication could embarrass students and the colleges involved.

So apparently it's safe to laugh at the antics of this imposter, but the incident should remind students and faculty to check with the public relations office when they are approached by anyone who says he is a reporter—whether for a newspaper or magazine.

The University is happy to help genuine reporters. Fakes, however, we don't need.

More people turned out for the activities carnival last week than ever before.

Several organizations carried spirited signs at the pep rally beforehand.

Why this enthusiasm? Maybe it is because TCU has a positive attitude that has been lacking in previous years.

And why shouldn't we be optimistic? The University's accomplishments thus far this year have been outstanding.

Assistant to the Chancellor Amos Melton speaks of the four "Bs" — beauty, brains, brawn and ballots.

Linda Loftis made TCU shine in the beauty division by placing fourth in the Miss America pageant.

Then the TCU College Bowl team defeated DePaul University 190-45 and the University of Buffalo 210-80.

And the brawn. The Frogs defeated Kansas and tied Ohio State.

Melton's mention of ballots, of course refers to the Worth Hills issue.

Yes, 1961-62 looks bright for TCU.

Got the Bighead

Coeds nowadays have the bighead. They are not conceited — just stylish.

The bigheads in question are due to new hair styles. The fashion is bouffant and is achieved by "ratting" the hair.

To the women, these terms are old hat (no pun intended.) But to the men, they probably need explaining.

The word "bouffant" comes from the same root as the French "bouffee," meaning a puff or whiff. No gentlemen, each strand of the coed's hair does not become puffy all of a sudden. The hair is made to look that way by ratting or back combing.

The gals hold a lock of hair with one hand, combing it toward the scalp with the other. Soon, the hair is standing out like a witch at the stake.

But the femme fatales do not stay this way long. They comb the remaining tresses smoothly over the ratted hair.

The result? A new hair style — and often a new boyfriend.

"Some great men always, before reading a book, made a short, rough analysis of the questions which they expected to be answered in it, the additions to made to their knowledge, and whither it would take them. I have sometimes tried that way of studying, and guiding attention. I have never done so without advantage, and I commend it to you."—John Morley.

"Summarizing is difficult work. In its highest form it becomes a rare literary art as well as a beautiful evidence of clear thinking. The man who can seize upon the essentials of a situation, a case, a book, and report these briefly and at the same time clearly is valuable to society."—Hall-Quest, "Supervised Study in the Secondary School."

How To Study Study Habits Affect Grades

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is a second of a series of articles on how to study. Skiff feature editor Kay Lynn Glover has discussed study habits with students in Alpha Chi, national scholastic honors fraternity, and with Dean's List scholars. Next week she'll report on how to take notes.

BY KAY LYNN GLOVER

Are you already behind in your courses?

With a new semester just beginning, now is the time to take stock of your study habits. Is the time you have for study being put to its best possible use.

Let's Get Organized

First, let's get organized. If our time is carefully organized, there is more time for bridge in the student center — a coke date with that cute girl in the second row, third seat of history class.

Find a time in your day you can devote exclusively to studying. Discipline yourself to turn down a plea for just one more hand of bridge so you can get started with lessons. It might be wise to plan ahead and begin a few minutes early!

You should have a quiet place to study, whether it is in your room, a nook in the library or a room in the student center. Hard as it may be to find such a place, you should try to give your brain a chance to function with little outside interference.

Get in the Mood

You have to be in the mood for studying, so turn off the radio and record player. Turn the heart throb's picture around if necessary; it IS distracting. Take a break now and then for a coke or cigaret, but don't get too involved in something more interesting than studying.

Have all your materials ready for work. Have a dictionary and thesaurus at hand, as well as needed textbooks, note books, pens, paper, ink, and pencils.

Outline Notes

Ready to study? Now look at Oops! You didn't outline them?

Law School Sets Admission Tests

Law School Admission Tests will be given Nov. 18 at SMU in Dallas. These tests are required for admission to a number of leading American law schools.

Application blanks may be obtained from Dr. Curtis J. Firkins, director of the testing bureau, or by writing Law School Admission Test, Education Testing Service, Princeton, N. J., at least four weeks before testing date.

Completed applications must be received by the testing service at least two weeks before date of testing.

Dr. Firkins stresses that "any pre-law student who will be graduated next spring should take this examination this year, the sooner the better."

Other testing dates are Feb. 10, April 28 and Aug. 4, 1962.

Non-Registered Cars Get Parking Tickets

Tickets are nice, but not the kind that are now being issued by security officers to students driving un-registered cars on campus.

The registration decals go on the left wing vent and require less than two minutes to apply.

A check by a Skiff Reporter of the parking lots behind Winton-Scott Hall and the Library showed that at 11 a.m. Thursday, four cars had been given tickets for illegal parking, 12 showed no registration stickers.

your class notes for the day. Studying for a quiz is a lot easier if your notes are in outline form.

You are on your own now. Nobody is here to force you to study. If you study, your grades will prove it at the end of the semester. If you don't? We'll miss you next semester.

So, in short, set aside specific time and a quiet place to study. Shut out all distraction. Have your study materials ready and hit those books!

But most important, remember that a job put off is twice as difficult and half as effective.

Seminarians Tuning Up

Hymns, anthems, male choruses of the early church and music of a lighter nature will be included in spring concerts of the Singing Seminarians.

Twenty-five attended the first fall practice of the group recently in Weatherly Hall.

Brite College of the Bible has sponsored the singing men for nine years. "Each man in the group is studying to become a minister, educational director or missionary," said Dr. Gentry A. Shelton, director.

"We lost 12 men last year but we expect to have 30 by our next rehearsal," he said.

Dr. Shelton, who has been directing the chorus since 1955, explained that fall semester is spent in preparing a program for spring concerts. "We expect to sing for several churches, conventions and other such gatherings," the professor of religious education added.

Officers for the Singing Seminarians are Charles Sanders, Dallas, president; David Baker, Tyler, vice-president; Loyd Gentry, Liberty, Mo., secretary-treasurer and Ken Nunnally, San Antonio, librarian.

Accompanists are Miss Brenda Boyd, Breckenridge senior and Miss Carolyn Britton, Dallas senior. This is Carolyn's second year with the group.

Practice is from 4 to 5 p. m. Wednesdays.

1962 Miss Texas To Sing Thursday For Convocation

The traditional fall convocation will feature as its speaker, Dr. Travis White, president of Midwestern University at Wichita Falls, at 11 a. m. Thursday.

Dr. White was graduated from the University in 1932.

Dr. Ben Proctor, assistant professor of history, and Dr. Jim W. Corder, assistant professor of English, will act as marshals in the academic procession of the faculty in caps and gowns.

Other highlights will include special music presented by Miss Linda Loftis, Fort Worth senior and 1962 Miss Texas. Emmet Smith, assistant professor of organ, will accompany her.

Singing will be led by Bev Henson, choral director.

Discussing New Lectureship

George E. Sirback, vice president of the Sperry and Hutchinson Co. (right) discusses the new series of lectures to be given on campus this school year with Dr. O. Men May Apply For Scholarship

Junior and senior students who are interested in endorsement for the Rhodes Scholarships should immediately contact Dean J. M. Moudy of the graduate school.

To be eligible for the scholarships, the student must be a single, male citizen of the United States, having at least five years residence. He must be between the ages of 18 and 24 on Oct. 1.

The Rhodes Scholarship is one of the few which insists on physical or athletic vigor as well as intellectual and moral excellence.

Applicants' qualifications are reviewed by a committee of Selection assigned to this district after students receive University endorsement.

Army ROTC Increases

More freshman are enrolled in Army ROTC here this fall than ever before. Lt. Col. Marion F. Felt, professor of military science, reports that 145 freshmen are in the corps this fall as compared to 103 last year.

Is the current world situation—especially the Berlin crisis—primarily responsible for the increase? Col. Felt doesn't think so.

"Many schools are experiencing a decreased ROTC enrollment this year," he said.

What then does explain the increase? "Dr. Sadler sent letters to counselors of freshmen, inviting them to call ROTC to the attention of entering men students," the colonel said. "That was one important factor.

"Another is the increased interest of our advanced course cadets and staff," he said.

The freshmen (including 24 football and eight basketball hopefuls) and other cadets will be able to participate in several special activities this year, including field exercises and M-1 rifle firing at Camp Wolters, Col. Felt said.

Berke To Visit Republican Club

Dr. Malcolm D. Arnoult, associate professor of psychology will sponsor the Young Republicans club this year.

The club plans an active program this year including speeches by prominent Republicans and Young Republican Federation, a visit by John A. Berke, Chairman of the Texas Republican Federation. Berke will conduct a workshop here later this month.

Information will be distributed to members this year by direct mail, and a newsletter will be sent from the State Federation with local club news in it.

Emphasis will be placed on educating members concerning working politics and conservative principles.

Meeting will be held in room 204 of the Student Center on alternating Wednesdays.

Carillon Chimes Fail To Indicate Hours Correctly

Noticed anything missing from the campus this year? For one thing, the carillon bells in Robert Carr Chapel have not been indicating the correct hour.

Mrs. Mary Maddux, secretary to the dean of Brite College and hostess for Carr Chapel, said the system has not been working for more than a month because of a failure in its automatic mechanism. It is scheduled to be repaired next week.

The bells will play manually, but not automatically, thereby limiting their use to special occasions.

Since their installation in the spring of 1960, the carillons have chimed the hour daily from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. Additionally, a medley of three songs is played before noon and again before 5 p. m.

Also, a 15-minute concert is heard before chapel each Tuesday. Because these are played manually by Emmet G. Smith, assistant professor of organ in the School of Fine Arts, the concert was given as usual last Tuesday.

The carillon bells, largest of their kind west of the Mississippi, were donated to the University by Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Carr of San Angelo.

Foreign students discuss their native lands before leaving on the international picnic Saturday. Those who attended the function of the United Church Women represented the East, the West, the old, the modern. Yet they exchanged ideas and laughter and a common interest.

Foreign Students Feted By United Church Women

Saturday afternoon, as in the past five years, foreign students were entertained by the United Church women of Fort Worth at Camp Carter with dinner and fellowship.

Students from TCU, TWC, and the Baptist Seminary attended. Mrs. Harold Lunger, chairman of the International Student Committee of the United Church Women, was in charge.

Mrs. Lunger pointed out that there had been a 30 per cent increase of foreign students in the United States from 1960-1961 — a rise from 45,000 to 57,000.

A fellowship and a scavenger hunt were on the day's calendar. Dinner and a sharing of folk songs and talk from the "old country" consumed the evening. Students introduced themselves and mentioned their native country.

Host-family Relationship

A foreign student in Fort Worth, thanks to the United Church women, has a home away from home while he is here. Here the student learns about American ways. He can feel free to ask questions of the "family" at any time about American life and customs.

The family benefits too, for they can learn about a foreign country, something they can never learn from books, Mrs. Lunger emphasized.

Families Benefit

Families in Fort Worth are not the only ones who benefit from the relationship with foreign students. Students invite foreign students home with them for weekends and holidays. Foreign students see the American home, and they see it with students their own age.

The growing demand for education has been reflected in the record number of foreign students in the United States, according to the findings of "Open Doors, 1961". This collection of six surveys reports the number of foreign students, professors, physicians, and industrial trainees in the United States as well as the number of American students and professors abroad.

TCU Students interested in learning more about the foreign exchange may call Mrs. Lunger at WA 6-3717.

Frogs Happy To Tie Bucks

BY HAROLD MCKINNEY

There is an old football saying that "No one is happy with a tie." If that is true, then Abe Martin and his white-shirted "Giant Killers" put on a mighty convincing act pretending to be happy after Saturday's 7-7 deadlock with Ohio State in Columbus.

The Frogs went into the game as two touchdown underdogs against the team rated by many as No. 1 in the nation. They held the mighty Buckeyes to a lone six-pointer and pulled off what has to be considered an upset.

It is interesting that State Coach Woody Hayes paid the exact same left-handed compliment to TCU's spirit that Kansas' Jack Mitchell offered the week before in Fort Worth. "We just got out-fought," Hayes mumbled in the locker room following the game.

Ohio State took the opening kick-off and marched 55 yards to its only score of the afternoon. All-America fullback Bob Ferguson toted the ball 14 times in the grind-it-out drive which consumed nine minutes of the opening period.

Bill Murkowski flipped a two-yard pass to end Charles Bryant in the end zone to send the Bucks out ahead. Dick Vanrapporth, who wasn't even listed on the roster, booted the point after.

The Frogs scored early in the last quarter. Sonny Gibbs guided TCU 85 yards in eight quick plays. Gibbs passed 12 yards into the waiting arms of Dale Glasscock and Jimmy McAteer converted to knot the score, 7-7.

A 63-yard Gibbs to Pete Hill pass set up the touchdown. The play carried to the Bucks' 20.

Gibbs turned in a stellar performance offensively and defensively. The 6-7 quarterback completed 7 of 12 passes for 136 yards. He delighted the 82,000-plus crowd with his pin-point aeriels.

But it was Sonny's two pass interceptions that saved the day for TCU. It was the second, coming late in the final period on the TCU 10, that Frog fans are likely to remember.

TCU stayed on the ground and then sophomore Garry Thomas got the Frogs out of trouble with a beautiful 55-yard punt.

State almost pulled the game out on the last harrowing play. The Bucks tried a last minute field goal from the 47. Larry Thomas fielded it on the 7, reversed his field and was almost dumped in the end zone. It was a supreme team effort by TCU. The Christians effectively plugged up the middle by using strong pursuit.

Bobby Plummer, Ray Pinion, Jesse Hall and Gibbs turned in fine defensive performances for the Frogs.

Gary Thomas was TCU's leading rusher with 35 yards in six carries, while Gibbs had 27 yards in 12 attempts.

The 212-pound Ferguson was the game's real workhorse. The big Negro slammed into the line 35 times notching 135 yards.

Ohio State played ball control, having the ball 76 plays (60 rushing, 12 passing and 4 punting) to TCU's 55 (34 rushing, 17 passing and 4 punting.)

Martin's second and third teams took over in the second period and battled the Bucks on even terms. The reserves never allowed Ohio State inside their 50-yard line.

Many of the Frogs felt they could have won by as much as two touchdowns if they had cashed in on their opportunities but most were happy to settle for a tie.

Freshman Coach Fred Taylor looks over Wog backfield that will start against A&M Freshmen Thursday night at College Station. Left to right are halfback Jim Fauver, Houston; fullback Robert Barker and halfback Larry Bulaich, both of Lamarque and quarterback Randy Howard, Dawson. Game will be season opener for both teams.

Conference Teams Win Two, Lose Two Non-League Games

For the second week in a row it was the Frogs who made the biggest news in the Southwest Conference — this time by tying powerful Ohio State, 7-7.

Meanwhile, the rest of the league was in action winning two and losing two inter-sectional contests. Texas kicked-off the title race by drubbing Texas Tech 42-14.

Rice spent a lost weekend in Atlanta getting knocked around by Georgia Tech, 24-0. The Owls went into the contest a slight favorite but it was evident from the opening kick-off that the Yellow Jackets were out to please the home folks.

Confederates Hot

Tech quarterbacks Stan Gann and Billy Lothridge treated the visitors to a flawless passing exhibition. Completing 15 of 23 for 178 yards the confederate field generals kept the Rice defenses constantly off-balance. The loss left the Owls with a 1-1 record. It was the second victory in as many tries for the Ramblin' Wrecks.

Southern California decided that SMU would have to wait at least one more week to notch its first victory in over a year in a game on the West Coast Friday night.

USC sophomore halfback Willie Brown stunned the Mustangs with a 93-yard touchdown gallop in the first quarter to lead his teammates to a 21-16 triumph. It was the Trojans' first victory of the year and SMU's 13th loss in a row.

53-Yard Drive

Arkansas out-splashed Tulsa en route to a rain-soaked 6-0 decision in Fayetteville. George McKinney climaxed a 53-yard drive by skirting left end for the game's only score to keep the Razorbacks from suffering a humiliating upset.

Baylor's Ronnie Stanley pulled two fourth quarter touchdowns passes out of his bag of tricks to enable the Bears to grab a 16-13 come from behind decision over Pittsburgh.

The Baptists trailed throughout and a major upset was in the making until Stanley's tosses snatched the game out of the Panther's grasp.

Tigers Rally

Texas A&M almost pulled-off a shocker before LSU struck for two quickie tallies in the fourth period to win, 16-7. The Aggies held the highly-rated Tigers to a safety through the first 45 bruising minutes but Wendell Harris sparked the last quarter flurry which carried LSU to its first win of the season. A&M has a loss and a tie in two outings.

Texas displayed awesome power in thumping the Red Raiders in the SWC inaugural at Austin. Coach Darrell Royal put all 39 of his squadmen into the game and they responded by piling up the outstanding total of 584 offensive yards. The Longhorns took their second decision this fall and Tech remained winless in two games.

SAE-Sigma Chi Kick-off Frat Football Race

Those afternoon sun bathers are going to find another place to do their "resting" starting today.

Because once again the University kicks off its expanding intramural program.

At 2 p. m. today Sigma Chi, one of the pre-season fraternity favorites, faces its first big test in Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

And following at 4 p. m. Delta Tau Delta, another favorite, matches wits with the men from Phi Kappa Sigma.

Last year's winner, Phi Delta Theta, opens play at 4 p. m. Thursday against Sigma Epsilon. Lambda Chi Alpha and Kappa Sig precede this contest at 2 p. m. All games will be played on the intramural field behind Milton Daniel dormitory.

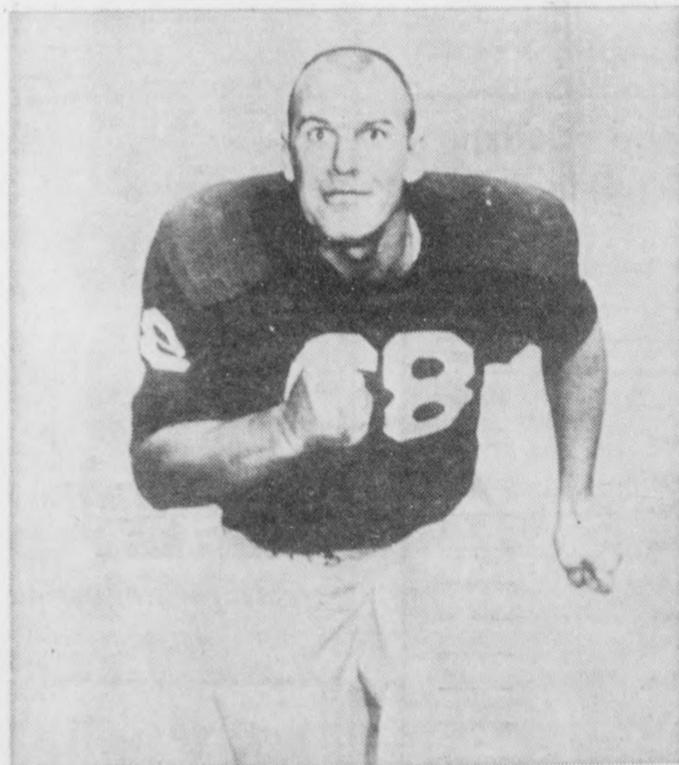

While the fraternity program is all scheduled, the independents are still at work gathering teams and what have you. Tim James is intramural director.

An interesting note this year is that professional referees will call each fraternity game. And to settle disputes, director Tom Prouse has initiated an Intramural Council.

The council is composed of two professors — Malcolm Phillips and Ben Proctor — and Assistant Dean of Men Ken Fulkerson.

At the end of the season, an all-star team from the independent program and an all-star unit from the fraternities will hold a one-game playoff to decide the school champion.

One change has been made in fraternity rules. Players have only five years of eligibility and must be members.

Ready to tackle Arkansas this Saturday is senior co-captain Ray "Pine Tree" Pinion. The 6' 1", 220-lb. guard from Celina has proved himself to be one of the main stalwarts of the Frog line with his outstanding defensive play against both Kansas and Ohio State.
