COMMENT

By RAYMOND COPELAND.

THE SKIFF is asking all its readers to vote in the preliminary election to determine just how T. C. U. stands on the presidential race.

If your choice is Al Smith, vote for him. If it is for Herbert Hoover, vote for him. You must sign your name to your ballot or it will not be counted. More details about the election are told in the box story containing the ballot on this page.

IT'S the things we have to do that we least like to do.

Witness the holler that students make about studying foreign languages, Bible, math, government, and philosophy.

Having been over the road that each of these students has to travel before obtaining his or her degree, I would like to drop a word or so of encouragement just to let them know that all of these pains are to make you feel better.

IN my own experiences I found that math was quite a mountain. In fact I built a two-year wall around it so high that I had to fall in love with it before I could pass, but now that I have two hours credit, I feel rather accomplished over the fight.

Bible is a subject that students kick about that seems to me most interesting. I wouldn't trade my six hour course in school for three hours of Bible. You can think what you please, but when you have studied the life of Jesus Christ as it is taught here in T. C. U., you are bound to feel a little closer to your religion. I know that I did.

PHILOSOPHY, ethics, logic, and psychology each holds a world of applicable knowledge. In ethics you learn what is right and wrong, in logic, how to arrive at the most logical conclusions, in psychology, why you do what you do, and in philosophy, you train yourself to think.

It is vitally important that you know something of the government under which you live. So when you study government, you learn to throw away all of your old ideas about how your government is run, and come to realize that your government is not supposed to be a policeman, but that its purpose is to serve your needs best.

FOREIGN languages give you an appreciation of your own language. They let you know how some other nation of the world talks. They show you that other peoples are as wealthy in thought as yourself, and that the English language is not the biggest spokesman for knowledge and culture.

For some complex reason we don't always do what we have been taught to do. I have in mind a paragraph in last week's "As I See It" about the syllabus epidemic. I have always been taught not to attempt smartness in my writing. Just now, I am not so sure but what the syllabus paragraph had a little smartness in it, and for that reason I apologize to any whose efforts I may have offended.

Gray Speaks at Brite
"Ministry Not Profession But Lofty Work," He Says.

"If I had my life to live over, I'd choose the ministry again because it has given me such an opportunity for great service," said A. Preston Gray, pastor of the University Christian Church, at Brite Chapel last Wednesday morning.

"The ministry is not a profession but a lofty work which must be undertaken not in a spirit of pride but of proud humility. The greatest and most common mistake of many ministers today is that they preach their own philosophies, assumptions and surmises instead of following the distinct purpose of the ministry, that of preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ." Preceding Gray's talk, Dr. W. C. Morro led the devotional, based on the third and fourth chapter of Second Corinthians.

Austin College

Touted Eleven to Meet T.C.U.

CECIL GRIGG NOW COACH

Former Central High Star Here
Now Mentor of Sherman
Aggregation.

Austin College will invade Frogland Saturday to encounter the Frogs in their third gridiron tussle of 1928 on the home field and the fourth of the season.

The Kangaroos come highly touted by football critics that are familiar with the Sherman institution. Last year the Frogs got the scare of their lives when the Austin College boys uncorked an air attack that lacked only a few points of spelling defeat for the Belmen.

Even though the Kangaroos are in a lesser conference they have always been a tough assignment for the Purple. The game is an annual affair and will be watched with interest by Frog followers because a week later the Christian aggregation will journey to Aggie land for their first conference encounter.

Grigg Succeeds Cowtown.

Cecil Grigg succeeds Pete Cawthorn as head coach at Austin College. He is a former Kangaroo, being an all-around athlete. He has played both professional football and baseball, and during the summer months he is a Texas League umpire. As an assistant he has Joe Ward, late of Texas University, where he starred in football, basketball and track. His home is in Fort Worth and his high school days were spent at Central.

The two Kangaroo coaches are confronted with the problem of formulating an entirely new team, for such stars as Wingo, Keeling and others passed by the graduation route. Therefore the strength of the visiting team will be comparatively unknown. However, the boys from Sherman all ways put up a stiff battle.

As to the Frogs, it looks as if they have the edge on the visitors so far as experience and ability is concerned. With the East Texas, Daniel Baker and Simmons games out of the way and the conference games looming ahead, Bell expects to play a conservative game, for the Aggie contest comes but a week later. And we all know the Aggies.

Frogs to Use Varied Line-Up.

The Frog mentor will probably use a varied group of men in the line-up against the Kangaroos, as he has done in the previous games. Bell is desirous of being able to send the best possible eleven into the battle.

The end positions are still a source of worry for the Purple coach. There are several men out for the two positions, but as yet none of them has shown the experienced play that it takes to hold down the wings. From game to game the new comers will gain experience that will bolster the hopes of the Purple and White. It is not altogether a matter of ability or experience that makes it difficult for a backfield to be selected out of the array of material, it is partly a matter of decision. Never has the T. C. U. team been blessed with so many capable backs as are numbered among the squad this year. Grubbs, Tolar, Thompson and Griffith are a combination that will be hard to beat. Yet there is Sain, Eddleman, Morgan and Roberts to whom any coach would gladly issue uniforms. Too, Leland and Akers cannot be overlooked. It is unlikely that anyone will push Barr and Williams off the tackle positions, nor will it be an easy task to displace Brumbelow and Reynolds at guards. Atkins seems to have an easy row at center.

T. C. U. Woman Publishes Story

"As the Bell Rings" is the title of an article by Mrs. R. E. Souther, which was published in the June issue of The English Journal. Mrs. Souther prepared the article last year in the course of "The Teaching of English in the Secondary Schools," conducted by Professor Mabel Major

School Aims Discussed

B. C. B. Association Meeting in Charge of Clyde Yarborough.

"My Aims in College," was discussed as a part of the program given by new students at the meeting of the Brite College of the Bible Association last week at T. C. U.

Clyde Yarborough was in charge of the program, on which the following took part: Miss Jessie Hawkins, George Wheeler, and Travis White. The devotional was led by Miss Thelma Reed. Lawrence Bridges led the song service.

The social which followed the regular meeting was arranged by Miss Maurine Sutherland, chairman of the social committee. Punch was served to about 50 members.

Rothe Hilger is president of the organization.

Debate Topics Voted On

"The Direct Primary Should Be Abolished," and "The Jury System Should Be Abolished," are the first and second choices, respectively, of the local Texas Zeta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, from a list of 12 debating topics sent out by the national headquarters. This list is submitted to each chapter in the United States, and the two topics receiving the highest number of votes are declared the official question for debate during the year.

"Senior Grab Bag"
To Be Given Soon

Committee on Arrangements Is Appointed.

The "Senior Grab Bag," the first show of the year, is to be presented by the senior class in the T. C. U. auditorium, within the next two weeks.

At the class meeting last Friday President Fred Erisman appointed the following persons to perfect the necessary arrangements for the entertainment, and to act as a managing committee: Margaret Rankin, chairman; Bob Alexander, Elizabeth Ayres, Adeline Boyd, Charlotte Housel, Franklin Fitts, Phyllis Pope, and Miller Robertson.

Among the outstanding numbers on the program will be the "Shooting of Dan McGrew" and the "Mystery Act."

The Horned Frog Quartet will make its initial appearance at this time and musical numbers will be given by Misses Grace Bucher and Hazel Yarborough. Motion pictures will be shown.

in School Colors.

Glen LaDue of Shamrock, Texas, has been elected leader of the Boys' Pep Squad of T. C. U.

Uniforms for the members of the Pep Squad will consist of white trousers, white shirts trimmed in purple, and a purple sash.

The squad will be limited to 24 members. Letters will be attached to the back of each member's shirt so that the whole will spell out "TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY."

Vote Your Choice, Al or Herb

EDITOR'S NOTE—No names will be revealed, but all votes must be signed.

If the selection of our next President depended upon the votes of T. C. U. students and T. C. U. faculty members, who would be elected, Al Smith or Herbert Hoover?

The Skiff is interested to know how T. C. U. stands on this present-day question. To see the HOW, the Skiff is going to conduct a preliminary election, and ask the students and faculty to do the voting.

Cast your vote by filling out the ballot below. Put a mark through the name not voted for.

T. C. U. Represented
At Training Camp

Bob Alexander Wins Honors at Fort Logan During Summer Vacation.

T. C. U. was well represented at the Citizens' Military Training Camp held from June 19 to July 20, at Fort Logan, Colo., in the person of Arthur "Bob" Alexander.

Besides being chosen the best all-around man in his company and the second best in the entire camp, composed of more than five hundred boys, Bob won a gold medal for writing the best essay on citizenship.

He was captain of his company's basketball team, and a member of the baseball team.

After spending one month each summer for four years at such a camp any boy accepted is given a reserve commission as second lieutenant in the U. S. Army. Bob was given an honorable recommendation for such, although this was only his third year. In case of war he would enter active service as a second lieutenant.

Library Adds to Staff

Miss Grace Emma Herrick Is Experienced Cataloguer.

Miss Grace Herrick of Rockford, Ill., has recently been added to the staff of the Mary Coyle Burnett Library as cataloguer.

Miss Herrick was for several years librarian of Western College for Women at Oxford, Ohio, and has for the past six years taught the summer library course at Oklahoma University. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Carlton University at Northfield, Minn., and her Bachelor of Library Science from the University of Illinois.

Are Planned.

Six students who took part in debating last year and seven new students attended the first meeting of those interested in debating at T. C. U. this year.

Lloyd Armstrong, Fred Erisman, Stewart Felham, Ralph Isely, Sterling Brown and Hugh Buck are the old students who showed up for the first meeting.

New contenders for debating honors include Miss Anna Marie Bennett, Louis Thompson, Uddell Jackson, Miss Gladys Martin, Roland Hall, Riley Rutherford and Milton Leath.

Hugh Buck is manager of the debating and he reports that the schedule is not completed, but it is certain that triangle debates will be held with S. M. U., Baylor, A. & M., Southwestern, Trinity and Simmons. It is expected that a trip will be arranged for the team to visit West Texas and probably Oklahoma.

A Southern Debating League will be formed this year, with T. C. U. as a probable member of the new organization.

DEAN LEFTWICH ASSISTS

Music, Refreshments, and Talk on Y. M. C. A. Also Part of Program.

Curtis McHorne, Clyde Robertson and Guy Fox, have been appointed as a committee to sponsor all parties, entertainments and meetings that take place in Clark Hall, during the remainder of the year. This action was taken at a meeting called by Dean L. L. Leftwich in the parlor of Clark Hall last Wednesday night.

Dean Leftwich presented a set of policies to the boys for their approval all of which were adopted unanimously. The policies were drawn up by three representatives from the freshman class, John Phillips, John Schuler and Fletcher Johnson; two representatives from the sophomore class, Carl Rolator and Clyde Yarborough and Dean Leftwich. The policies are as follows:

"The house committee, seeking your co-operation in making this hall an attractive, homelike place, submits the following policies for your approval.

"The men of Clark Hall are placed upon their honor to keep their rooms orderly; to observe study and rest hours; and to conduct themselves as gentlemen at all times. In case any are unable to lift themselves to this collegiate level of honor and trust, privileges will be withdrawn from them according to the seriousness of their immature behavior.

"Rooms should be swept daily to avoid disease.

"Tobacco may be tolerated in your own room, provided it does not become a nuisance.

"Loose paper and cigarette stubs invite fires and disfigure the halls.

"Leave Clark better than you found it—defacing the walls with writing or breaking down the furniture is beneath your honor.

"Stealing, gambling, swearing, and betting are sub-collegiate.

"Automobiles parked on the campus after 11:30 p. m. belong to police department. Permits to keep a car for business purposes must be obtained from Mr. Smiser.

"Visitors should not be invited to your rooms without permission from the dean.

"The parlor is for your use; protect the furnishings and help keep it orderly.

"All forms of hazing, including poaching, treats, etc., are a state crime and taboo in T. C. U.

"All men should be in their rooms for serious study between 8 p. m. and 11 p. m. daily. Those who have regular outside work at those hours should file a written statement with the dean as to their hours of work.

"Place of employment and hours of study.

"Quiet hours for study and rest are from 8 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., 1:30 p. m. to 3:30 p. m.; 8 p. m. to 11 p. m. Musical instruments should not be played during these hours. Band instruments should be played in the Band House.

"Attempt to use the telephone at the periods not listed above. Request your friends to call at hours when you are in the hall.

"All salesmen, peddlers, advertisers must not attempt to sell or distribute their goods in this hall, unless invited by the student to his room.

"Freshmen are allowed one business trip to town a week (besides Saturday) by signing the register in Room 112. Extra trips must be by special permission. Sophomores have the freedom to come and go as long as they keep the study hours (8 to 11 p. m.) and maintain good standing in studies and conduct.

"Those who find these general policies unfair in their case or those who find that policies are unintentionally broken should consult the dean immediately."

Talks On Learning
To Juniors-Seniors

President Waits Gives Chapel Talk on Aims of College.

The chief feature of the Junior and Senior chapel services held last Friday morning, was President Waits' talk upon learning. He emphasized the fact that "the fear of the Lord is wisdom" and "to depart from evil is understanding."

He quoted the following verse which is written in the top of the dome of the Congressional library: "Do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with the Lord thy God." President Waits also quoted Lord Asquith's opinion of persons lacking the religious element as possessing only "bungalow" minds and lacking the loftiness of Christians.

He gave as the aim of the university, to teach religion to all students, not by continual exhortation but to each in "in mathematics by accuracy, in geography by breadth of mind, in history by the struggles of men, and in athletics by fair play."

In closing he expressed the hope and belief that the seniors and juniors would adopt the ideal, "Noblesse Oblige"; that is, realize that their rank imposes obligation in exercising the proper dignity and school spirit. The president asked that a committee be appointed from both classes to meet with him and discuss chapel improvements.

Three hundred and fifty-nine students have their names on the honor roll of scholarship for the last semester of 1927-28, according to an announcement from the office of E. R. Tucker, registrar.

A student, to be eligible for the honor roll, must be carrying at least nine hours in subjects he is counting toward a degree; make an average of "B" and be passing in each subject he is carrying.

In the list are included ninety-eight freshmen, sixty-four sophomores, eighty-six juniors, eighty-eight seniors, eighteen graduates, four special students and one fine arts student.

Two hundred and seventeen of those whose names appear on the honor roll live in Fort Worth.

A perfect grade of "A" in all subjects was made by forty-four students. These are:

According to library information, some 75 library books were lost last year.

Of the 75 books lost, misplaced, or otherwise, 43 were reserve books, which faculty members ask to be read in the library. The other 32 were two-week books which have become several month books by now.

Why did we lose, misplace, or OTHERWISE, this many books?

We might say that students are careless with books, or that the library system is poor. We are prone to think that it is a little of both. In the first place, students are careful when they get a book, but become careless when they return them. In fact books are left all over the library with the expectation of the librarians picking them up later. This causes a great loss of books by other students picking them up before they can be found by the librarians.

On the other hand, our system of returning books to the library is poor. Most schools provide a special slot for returned books. When books are put in this slot, there is no danger of another student obtaining the book before the librarians have checked it off and control of all books is more accurate.

We advocate this system. Let us have a special slot or box in library for returned books instead of the present system of laying them on the top of the desk for some other student to carry off before the book is charged off.

AN o'possum loose in a dormitory caused a good deal of excitement at C. I. A. two weeks ago. A girl discovered the animal in her bathtub and it took the combined efforts of several room mates to capture him and restore order.

More students are going to college this year than ever before, if we can judge by the new high enrollment records set at T. C. U., S. M. U., C. I. A. and other colleges of Texas.

THIS year's presidential campaign has entered Howard Payne College, where a straw vote is being held, results of which will be made known until Nov. 1. According to the Howard Payne Yellow Jacket, a mock Smith-Hoover debate was to have been held last Tuesday, and any amount of heckling, cheering or any other disturbance was to have been allowed and encouraged.

A music library has been established at S. M. U., which includes most of the works and compositions of the great composers of music for violin, piano and voice.

A COURSE in clogging, described as a form of the old-fashioned jig, is being offered North Texas Teachers' is year. The class has an enrollment of 35 girls.

Southwestern University began the fall session by formally inaugurating Dr. King Vivian as president of the school to succeed former President Sam Barcus, who retired.

THE publicity which Baylor University got from the article in The Literary Digest containing adverse criticism of the Browning Collection may lead to the finding of other valuable Browning items to add to the library, according to a recent issue of The Daily Lariat. A librarian in Shanghai, China, promises to send a Chinese translation of Browning to Baylor, and many other writers are sending in information as to the whereabouts of important articles.

"Texas had more than her share of great football material last fall," writes Grantland Rice in his sports article for Collier's for Oct. 13. "Hunt and Matthews of Texas A. & M. were two of the year's best football players." No doubt Mr. Rice knows his football, but he's mixed up in his colleges. Rags Matthews was of T. C. U., not A. & M.

Old-New Girl Wedding Is Set For Thursday

Y.W.C.A. Plans Annual Friendship Event—Miss Spraggins Is Sponsor.

The annual old girl-new girl wedding of the Y. W. C. A. will be solemnized at 8 o'clock Thursday in the parlors of Jarvis Hall. As is the custom the identity of the bridal party will be kept secret until the time of the wedding. This event symbolizes the friendship between the old and the new girls and all girls and women members of the faculty are cordially invited to be present.

Elberta Sturm and Billy Jo Davis were elected new members of the organization last week at a cabinet meeting in Jarvis Hall. Miss Sturm is to hold the office of program chairman and Miss Davis that of post-er chairman. Miss Lyde Spraggins was adopted as faculty sponsor.

According to the president, Gladys Simons, who presided at the meeting, the association will hold club meetings every second Thursday and business meetings every fourth Thursday. Membership is now open to every girl in T. C. U., and all girls, especially those who live on the Hill, are urged to attend.

Goode Inmates Waked Daily By Laundry Criers

"Cleaning, pressing—laundry!" Such are cries that greet every would-be sleeper in Goode Hall each morning. About the time the cock crows for the first time the din begins—and continues—even unto the wee hours of the night.

Some of the "criers" confine their efforts to just walking up and down the halls shouting the aforesaid words at the top of their voices; others and by the way, the more successful ones, enter right into the sacred confines of the sleeper's room, whereupon Morpheus flees, leaving his prey to the mercy of the cleaner-presser—who in veigils, persuades, forces, and otherwise extracts some clothes or promises of clothes, usually the latter, from his sleepy victim.

Numerous efforts have been made to thwart these intruders. Some have locked their doors, thinking they could sleep as long as the disturbance took place in the halls and not in their own rooms, but they soon learned that it was better to be waked up than to have their doors battered down. One boy and his "roomie" spent several hours painting a beautiful "Silence—No Cleaning or Pressing" sign, and hung it over their bed—but even this was of no avail.

The inmates of Goode Hall will welcome any suggestions about this matter. In the meantime they are applying every effort to a solution of this problem—hoping that by the time cold weather comes, they will have found a remedy.

Plays For Annual Contest Are Named

"Florist's Shop" and "Lie That Jack Built" to Be Given by Underclassmen.

"The Florist's Shop" will be the freshman play in the annual freshman-sophomore play contest, according to Miss De Rue Armstrong, who has charge of the selection of the plays. "The Lie That Jack Built" will be the sophomore offering.

Fifty sophomores and freshmen were candidates for membership in the Dramatic Club at its first meeting of school year. Stewart Hellman has been elected president of the club to take the place of Fred McConnell, resigned.

The club has under way plans for the production of several plays this year, the details of which will be announced later.

Give Club Plans to Mrs. Beckham

All student organizations MUST turn in dates for their regular meetings and for special social events to Mrs. Beckham. Regular meeting dates should be turned into her by Monday, Oct. 15. Attention to this matter has been called once through the columns of the Skiff, but Mrs. Beckham reports that the response has been very poor. All organizations should comply with this rule by the time set by Mrs. Beckham.

Magazine Uses Thesis

Virginia Bales Study of Negro Folk Lore Published.

Miss Virginia Bales, who received the Degree of Master of Arts from T. C. U. in 1927, has had published in the September issue of Folklore a portion of her thesis on "Negro Folklore." The thesis was written under the direction of Miss Mabel Major, member of the English department faculty of T. C. U.

Miss Bales spent the summer in European travel and is now teaching English in the San Antonio schools.

Wade Hawkins Is Counselor for Camp Rio Vista

Wade Hawkins, Fort Worth, a senior at T. C. U., spent the summer at Camp Rio Vista near Kerrville, Texas. Hawkins had charge of a cabin of seven boys and the Nature Study Club. Counselors are selected from the various colleges and universities of the South.

The two months between June 32 and Aug. 31 were devoted to camp life. The purpose of camp is to give the boy the opportunity to spend the summer on the banks of a beautiful river, the Guadalupe, and enjoy a real constructive program of character building and activities.

Hawkins awarded thirty-four emblems to boys who met the requirements of the Nature Study Club.

He says that a great deal of interest was manifested in nature study by the camp as a whole and probably the most interesting thing in connection with the club was the fact that there were thirty-five Dobson flies caught during the camp period. Those familiar with biology will remember that the Dobson fly is a rare insect in this section of the country.

This is Hawkins' third summer at Rio Vista.

13 Try Out For Play

Freshman Cast for Contest Entry to Be Named Soon.

Seven boys and six girls met Monday night to try out for the freshman play, "The Florist's Shop," which is to be given in the middle of October. Miss De Rue Armstrong held the try-out, assisted by Stewart Helman, president of the Dramatic Club. They will decide on the characters in a few days. The candidates for the play read from the copies of "The Florist's Shop."

After the try-out Stewart Helman extended an invitation to those interested in the Dramatic Club to meet in the auditorium next Monday night at 8 o'clock. At this time the requirements to become a member of the club will be explained.

The system of taking in new members is being revised. All those wishing to become members may prepare a reading and give it for the club to pass on. All transfer students who have been members of a dramatic club elsewhere are eligible. This system is being used in order that the club will have more material with which to work.

Frog Flashes

By WADE HAWKINS.

Who said the Frogs did not have offense? Those that saw the Frog-Cowboy tilt will verify the fact that they have one, and a good one at that.

Draw your own conclusions as to the offensive ability of the Frogs. They beat the Hill Billies almost entirely by the air, while straight football was engaged against the Cowpunchers. Put two and two together and see what the Bell-Kubale crew could do when employing both.

What a fine thing it would have been for the Mustangs and the Southwest if they had won over the Army. As it is Morrison has proved to the world that football is football, whether it is in the South, East, North or West. According to reports the encounter was thrilling from start to finish. Oh numerous occasions long runs were made by each side, while some of them were in vain on account of penalty.

Each side narrowly missed adding additional points on several occasions. Love, S. M. U., repeated Hume's stunt of a few moments previous by scooping up an Army fumble and dashing 50 yards across the line, but an off-side penalty canceled his efforts. Again S. M. U. narrowly missed scoring when Hume intercepted a pass and raced 45 yards only to drop the oval with no one in front of him.

Hopper, Mustang fullback, dropped an easy 20 yard pass with the coast clear. Sammy Reed repeated the occurrence late in the fourth period by dropping on the ground 16 yards from victory with the oval tucked under his arm. Before he could get to his feet, and scamper across the line a Cadet was on top of him.

It sure does do a feller good to know that his home team can launch a varied attack as did the Frogs against Simmons. It lets us know that when we encounter the Conference eleven there will be punting, passing and running with equal smoothness.

Another pleasing thing about the Frogs is the ability of the reserves to deliver. Roberts, Moore, Eddleman and Walker did well when sent in to fill the place of a regular. In other words competition is keen for positions on the Fighting Frog eleven of Texas Christian University.

Farm the Farmers! October 20 is the day when the T. C. U. student body will be transplanted to Aggie land. Let's get the old time pep and pour it on the Aggies. Their 69 to 0 victory over the Sewanee Tigers Saturday looks bad for us. Anyway there will be two fighting elevens on Kile field that day.

Freshman Coach Roswell Higginbotham, A. & M., has 212 applications from candidates for his freshman gridiron squad. This many are not out for the team, they are merely applying for the privilege of coming out.

The varsity grid squad at A. & M. has been cut from fifty-six to thirty-five. No doubt there were some men deprived of the further opportunity of coming out that would look good on other college or university elevens of this section. It is not quantity but quality.

George White, sports editor of the Dallas News, picks Longhorns to win the Southwestern crown. Incidentally he does not give the Frogs a look in and states that Matty Bell will have to perform a miracle in order to win a single conference game. Well, we are not saying anything, time alone will. At least we believe in our Fighting Frogs.

A great deal of interest is being manifested by freshman track aspirants. Assistant track coach Harve Light is working with a squad of sixteen men. Prospects for next year's varsity were considerably bolstered when such an array of material reported to him for tryouts.

According to the Daily Lariat, Baylor University publication, the student body of that institution is planning to run a special train to Fort Worth to witness the Bear-Frog contest November 3. T. C. U. plans to treat the Bears as they treated us last year in Waco by preparing a barbecue for the visitors.

Baylor is considered the "problem team of the conference." With a wonderful array of material Coach Jennings should go far in the title contest.

Fight, Frogs, Fight! Get the jump on the Kangaroos Saturday.

Fighting Frogs Beat Simmons By Offensive Play

Abilene Team Must Get Better to Enter Conference.

FEW PASSES WERE USED

Coach Bell Still Making Men Fight for Places on the Squad.

By playing straight football the Fighting Frogs completely outclassed the Cowboys of Simmons University, Abilene, last Saturday. An entirely different brand of offense was employed by the Bellmen against the Bridges' aggregation, than was used the Saturday before against Herman Clark's Hill Billies.

The air game being employed against the Clark crew, while straight running plays were used against the West Texas aggregation.

The ability of the Frogs to vary their attack is pleasing to the Frog fans, because such teams as A. & M., Baylor and Texas are looming on the horizon, and it will take everything to defeat them.

Matty Bell's Frogs ripped, snorted and tore at the Bridges' men in a manner that shattered the front line defense and made all of the three touchdowns possible.

Virgil Roberts, stellar fullback, nosed in between two stars, Austin Griffith and Merlin Tolar, to grab a share of the glory himself. These three men went a long way in bringing the bunting home to Frogland. However, Eddleman, Thompson and Morgan shared in the galaxy of stars. Yes, they are all stars, for they fought in the traditional Fighting Frog manner.

The Cowboys fought doggedly to keep down the score but the superior efficiency of the Frogs on both the defense and offense sent the Abilene crew away with the little end of the score.

Had it not been for a miscue on the part of a Frog safety man the enemy would have been shut out. A fumbled punt, deep in his own territory and a quick recovery on the part of Davenport enabled the Cowboys to boot a dropkick for three points.

Statistics show the superiority of the Frog eleven. First downs T. C. U. 16, Simmons 2. Yards gained from scrimmage T. C. U. 318, Simmons 34. T. C. U. carried the ball 55 times off running plays and gained 275 yards; Simmons carried 12 times and gained 34 yards.

Tolar made two long runs, one for 27 yards and a touchdown, while the other was for 23 yards. Eddleman completed two beautiful passes in succession, the first went to Morgan for 25 yards and the second was a short one to Walker, who made a fine catch for a first down.

All in all the Frogs looked mighty good, both on offense as well as defense. This fact is more than pleasing to the lovers of the Purple and White.

Boys' P. T. Work Begins

150 Underclassmen Report for Required Classes.

With 150 boys attending six classes, work in the boys' physical education department is well under way. All freshmen and sophomores are required to take the work and regular classes are conducted.

This year some new features have been added. The classes during the fall term will play "tag" football and lectures on the game will be given by Coaches Dutch Meyers and Ed Kubale, who are in charge of the work. Talks on hygiene will also be given.

During the winter, basketball teams will be organized and regular games played. Indoor baseball and track are on the list for spring.

This year all students will be required to keep notebooks and regular examinations on lectures and instruction will be given. Regular grades are given out as in other studies.

Harve Light To Assist in Track Work This Year

Assistant Track Coach Harve Light is working daily with a squad of seven men. Preparation is being made for a varsity cross-country meet with S. M. U. at the football game with Texas University here Nov. 10. The run will finish before the game on the track.

An intramural cross-country race will be run between the tracksters of Frogland on the day of the Baylor game. Members of all four classes are eligible for this contest.

The varsity men working out under Light's tutelage are: Sam Kinch, Fort Worth; Rainey Elliott, Memphis; Hugh Buck, Crosbyton; Ralph Isely, Fort Worth; Joe Gandy, Lipan; Clyde Yarbrough, Cameron, and Duane Smith, Belleflower, Ill.

Freshmen Plan Activities

The freshman class has petitioned for nine social events. After calendar is passed upon by Mrs. Beckham and her committee, there will then be a meeting of the freshman class Friday at 10 o'clock at which time the approved calendar will be voted upon.

Track Aspirants To Form Large Squad

Sixteen Freshmen Come Out for First Call of the Year This Week.

Sixteen freshmen track aspirants answered the call of Assistant Coach Harve Light last week and are working out daily in their respective places. Light states that the varsity prospects for 1930 took considerable rise when such an array of material turned out.

Light states that William Cassidy and Jimmie Wilmett are showing up well in the cross country try-outs. Both are Fort Worth boys. There is a boy from Dallas by the name of Allen Black, who is a pole vaulter of no mean ability. T. C. U. is exceptionally fortunate in having the winners of first and second places at the state high school meet in Austin last spring numbered among the students of Frogland. "Red" Oliver, Polytechnic high flash, won first and Houser of Electra won second place. - Oliver is casting his lot with the '32 footballers, while Houser is confining his efforts to the kinder path.

The complete freshman squad is as follows: Norman Reed, William Cassidy, Walter Nicholson, Roland Hall, Allen Black, Jimmie Wilmett, Monroe Jackson, Iley Steele, George Massey, Tom Hanks, Tim Green, Charles Jackson, William Gonder, Cyrus Terry, Claude Goodreau and James Leath.
