FROGS TO MEET AGGIES SATURDAY

EDITORIAL AS WE SEE THINGS COMMENT

BY RAYMOND COPELAND THE high and cry of the hour is "All to A. & M." "Farm the Farmers."

There will be a football game played down on Kyle field Saturday that will be worth a lot more money than any of us that go will pay.

Besides seeing the best game of the schedule, all who go will have one of the most enjoyable trips possible.

GALA will not be the word, thrilling does not half reach the climax, and entrancing only suggests the glamor of the day.

Just recall that last trip to Aggie-land. The girls of T. C. U. need no urging to lead them on to the wonderful fray.

ABOUT this money proposition. The tickets will be $3.40 the round trip. Admission to the game will be $1.00.

OH! YES, the Aggie-Eleven, and the Fighting Frogs. They are the two biggest reasons for the occasion.

If we turned back the pages of history for the past three years we would find that in all that time; the strong Aggie squad has not yet been able to defeat the Fighting Frogs on Kyle Field nor on Clark-Field.

Well, I've said all that I can think of to say, and I guess that is a little too much, however, when a fellow is sold on a thing, he has to get it off his chest.

Estes to Deliver Second Math Talk

Series of Lectures Planned by Department for Faculty and High Teachers.

Grahamd Estes, assistant professor of mathematics, will deliver, early in November, the second lecture in a series being arranged by T. C. U. mathematics department for faculty members, city high school teachers, graduate students and seniors.

A lecture will be given once a month during the school year, according to Professor Sherer. The purpose is to stimulate interest in mathematics and bring up new material in the field.

Band Limited to 50

Musical Organization Is Planning Active Year.

The officials at T. C. U. have decided to limit the Horned Frog Band to 50 pieces this year. This will be larger than any of the bands heretofore.

The band has purchased considerable new music, and is now working on it. Some new drills are being learned to be used at the A. & M. game Saturday.

The present plans of the band are to give the annual concert and show this year before the Christmas holidays.

Hoover Is Ahead In First Ballot

Contest to Continue Until Thursday Next Week.

In the first ballot taken last week in the presidential contest straw vote, Herbert Hoover polled 191 votes to Al Smith's 14.

T. C. U. led three Southwestern Conference schools in the number of votes cast. Rice polled only 102 votes, with Baylor and Southwestern University polling a number less than Rice.

The T. C. U. contest will extend until Thursday. Many students were unable to obtain regular Skiff ballots and all of these votes had to be voided. Also there are some students and faculty members who did not vote because they did not get a copy of the Skiff ballot.

Play With Orchestras

Sandifer Brothers Perform at Denton and Waco in Summer.

Milford and Perry Sandifer, both sophomores in T. C. U., spent the first part of the summer in Denton playing with Tom Rose's Orchestra there.

They spent the last part of the summer in Waco playing at the Hilton Hotel with Charley Potts and his Nine Little Pans. Milford is a new student in T. C. U. this year. He attended the State Teachers' College in Denton last year.

Style Show to Be "Grab Bag" Feature

Seniors Appoint Committees to Handle Details of Annual Show.

A style show to be sponsored by some Fort Worth store will be one of the outstanding features of the "Senior Grab Bag," to be presented by the senior class the night of Nov. 2, in the T. C. U. auditorium.

The details of the show will be arranged by the following committee: Elizabeth Ayres, Adeline Boyd, Charlotte Houzel, Margaret Rankin and Phyllis Pope.

A recording orchestra has been secured for the evening and will remain on the stage during the entire performance.

Volunteers to Meet

T. W. C. to Be Host to Council Oct. 20 and 21.

The fall council of the North Texas Union of the Student Volunteer Movement will meet at Texas Woman's College Oct. 20 and 21. Two days are being given to the meeting in order that the members may become better acquainted and have more time for business and devotional periods.

William Parkinson, the movement's traveling secretary for this region, will be present at the meetings. Miss Sue Mann, who visited in Europe this summer, will be one of the speakers.

Committee Is Named

In compliance with a request made by President E. M. Waits that the senior class co-operate with the administration in the matter of chapel attendance, the following persons have been chosen by the class to represent the seniors on the chapel committee: John Garnett, Lois Houtchens, Cecelia Byrne, Jim Frierson and Tadashi Tomimaga.

Aggie Defeat Last Saturday Puts Bible Crew In Fighting Spirit To Battle Frogs On Kyle Field

Farmers Say That They Must Break Bellmen's Defense Or Else Suffer Humiliation at Frogs Hands Again.

BOTH TEAMS ARE PRIMED FOR THE BIG BATTLE

Aggies Are Weakened By the Loss of Old Men But Still Have Lots of Reserves to Back Them Up If Needed.

ON to Aggie-land and Farm the Farmers, will be the cry of several hundred T. C. U. students, and Fort Worth football fans when the Frogs parade Saturday morning before leaving for A. & M. and the hardest battle of the year.

The special train which will carry the aggregation of fans will leave Fort Worth from the Texas Pacific depot at 8 o'clock a. m. The exact number of boosters going is not known, but it is considerably larger than went in '26.

FACTS ABOUT THE GAME

Saturday is an official holiday. Train will leave at 8 o'clock sharp from T. & P. depot. Fare is $3.40 the round trip. Tickets are $1 for students only. Students meeting at Ninth and Houston will parade to the depot. T. C. U. students will receive dinner and supper free at A. & M. Time not set for train to leave A. & M. Big pep meeting Friday evening at "big gym."

Men's Glee Club Begins Operetta

Production Will Have Pure Western Setting.

The Men's Glee Club of T. C. U. under the direction of Paul T. Klingstedt, head of the voice department, has started work on a light operetta, "The Sunset Trail," for male voices only. The operetta, which has a colorful story with pure western setting and a background of old cowboy and Spanish folk tunes, is only one of the glee club activities planned for the year.

R. Z. Dallas is president, Lee Emory, vice-president, and Joe Pate, secretary-treasurer, of the organization this year.

Following is a complete roster of the members: Chester Crow, R. Z. Dallas, Lee Emory, Charles Mitchell, Joe Pate, Robert Qualls, Thomas Reeder, Alton Thompson, Raymond Thompson, Shannon Thompson, A. D. Weatherly, Jack Greer, Warren Day, Roy Iyy, Richard Long, Weir McDiarmid, J. H. Meade, Marvin Norman, Clark Rhodes, Gibson Randle, Randolph Scott and Ralph Sanders.

Reid Speaks in Chapel

Asks Students Co-operation in Making Annual Pictures.

Guy N. Reid of the Reid Studios, made a talk in chapel last Wednesday morning. The Reid Studios have charge of the "Horned Frog" pictures this year and Mr. Reid expressed his wish to make this year's book the best ever published.

The T. C. U. studio is in the room to the right of the chapel, and the freshmen are requested to have their pictures made on Monday and Wednesday from 2 to 3 o'clock, and on Friday from 2 to 4 o'clock. Upperclassmen may go in whenever it is convenient, but a special time will be announced for them later in the year.

Executive Committee Meets

The executive committee of the board of trustees of Texas Christian University met Thursday morning in the office of President E. M. Waits.

It will be a gala day in Frog-land made at College Station Saturday when the Fighting Frogs take on the tory at College Station Saturday.

It will be the battle of the year—each team is set and primed and not until the referee blows the final whistle will the world know who has won the game, for the never say die spirit will prevail as it has in the past.

According to advance reports the Aggies are set for the Frogs. They state that they are out for victory this time, and that a tie will be a disgrace to the Crimson tide of Aggie-land.

The fact that the Centenary Gentlemen of Shreveport plastered a 6 to 0 victory on the Farmers only spelled additional trouble for the Frogs, for the losers of a week ago will be out for blood.

Each team is about evenly matched so far as weight, speed, experience, etc., is concerned. Both teams lost several veterans from the 1927 squads. In fact, weight and experience will have little to do with the outcome of the game. The keynote of this game, as well as any game, is FIGHT and the team that puts out will win.

The defeat handed the Aggies last Saturday proved one thing in the eyes of T. C. U. followers, and that is that it is possible to defeat an A. & M. team on Kyle field.

It looks as though the Frogs will be in the pink of condition for the annual classic. Red Edleman's broken finger is due to come out of the cast this week and with his offensive power in the game the Frog hopes will be considerably boosted. He was forced to sit on the sidelines in civilian clothes during the Austin College game due to the injury.

Students of T. C. U. seem to be full of pep for the oncoming game and its looks as though the entire student body will be transplanted to College Station.

The Frogs have not really opened up with their full quota of plays and formations in the four non-conference games, therefore the whole works will be turned loose in an attempt to bring home the bacon.

With such men as Griffith, Grubbs, Roberts, Thompson, Sain, Leland, Edleman and Tolar in the backfield the scoring power of the Purple looks good. And with the stellar work of the Kubale coached line, including Brumblow, Reynolds, Handler, Barr, Williams, Bruce, Moore, Atkins, Robertson, Martin, Walker, Baxter and Alexander the Aggies will have considerable trouble in gaining ground.

From previous showing it appears that Atkins will be the unanimous choice at center, with Brumblow and Reynolds at his side, and Williams teaming with Barr at tackles. While at the ends it is a problem to pick the starter but Robertson and Martin will probably get the call. In the back field Grubbs will probably start as quarter and Thompson on one half with Tolar on the other. At fullback it appears as though Griffith will get the call over Roberts, because of his powerful defensive ability. However there will be backs ready to go, such as Akers, Edleman, Sain, Leland, etc.

On to Aggie-land is the cry and FARM THE FARMERS is the slogan of battle.

Vote Your Choice, Al or Herb. EDITOR'S NOTE—No names will be revealed, but all votes must be signed. If the selection of our next President depended upon the votes of T. C. U. students and T. C. U. faculty members, who would be elected, Al Smith or Herbert Hoover? Cast your vote by filling out the ballot below. Put a mark through the name not voted for.

AS SATURDAY flies at us we become more and more high pitched and our nerves seem to tighten a wee bit more each day in preparation for the big battle with the Aggies. And just to drop a line of caution to the nerve tightened students who are counting the minutes until the whistle blows to start the scrap on Kyle Field, we want to say—let every T. C. U. student be a gentleman while visiting the Farmers, don't let your high pitched nervous tension cause you to lose your head and cause something to happen which might ruin the beginning of a beautiful friendship.

ALMOST anything might happen at a football game which might be excuse for some student to attempt smartness. That student might be an A. & M. cadet, or he might be a T. C. U. student, but whoever he is, remember this: a gentleman is always respected. If there is anything that we do want to keep, it is our reputation of being good sportsmen, good winners, and better losers. I doubt if the type of student who might cause something like that to come up would be caught reading an editorial, and for that reason, let the fellows who do read this sorta pass it on. Let's remember—A GENTLEMAN ALWAYS.

LAST week we started some discussion about the present library system of returning books. Mr. Curry has written to us to tell why such a system is not advisable. One reason which he gives is that the destruction, or rather wear and tear on the books is such that it would leave our books in a very poor condition. At the present time, we are unable to state any definite figures on the comparatives of wear and tear as against losses, but libraries of larger institutions than ours, and with twice the usage of ours, find that the slot system of returning books is a saving one.

IF WE lose 75 books, and that's an indefinite figure, at an average cost of $2 per book, the cost is $150. It seems that if we could retain the books, and the $150 there would be a bit of saving somewhere. To say the least, it would lessen a lot of hard feeling between students when one student learns that another is using a book at his expense, or even selling it at his expense. Such things have happened. But perhaps the thing needs more investigation, so we will wait until we can learn more about how successful other libraries are using the slot system.

Letters From the Readers

Editor of THE SKIFF: I have long felt the need of relieving the loan desk promptly of books to be discharged, but the idea of a slot in the loan desk seems impractical because of the damage the books would receive in being poked through and dropped down. Even an incline plane would not prevent jamming of the books at the end of it. We are providing shelf space now where the books can be placed by the staff till the books can be discharged. We hope to keep the desk clear by promptly removing books to the discharge shelves. This will at least remedy the situation, and we hope it will prove an adequate solution of the problem. Frankly, we must depend on students, on their honor, to leave books in the library except when they are properly charged to go out. We have some of our most valuable and useful books on the open shelves, as you know. We hope the confidence thus shown in the students' honesty, and our efforts to make the books as accessible and usable as possible, will be appreciated. Very truly yours, ARTHUR R. CURRY.

New Books of General Interest to All, Added to T. C. U. Library

Many new volumes of interest to students in all departments of the university can now be found on the shelves of the Mary Coats Burnett Library. Every department is well represented in the selection of this year's additions to the library. Quite a few of the books are of general interest to all students. "The Collegiate Songbook," a gift from Jerome Smiser, contains the football songs of all the colleges in America. To collectors of folk-lore, Ahloe James' "Towa Firelight Tales," stories of South America, should prove of special interest. Those who like travel should read Richard Halliburton's "Royal Road to Romance." Among the new fiction is: "Something About Eve," by Cabelli; "Swan Song," by Galsworthy; "Dusty Answer," by Lehman; "Sword Play," by Stilson; "Bridal Wreath," by Underhill; "High Winds," by Train, and "The Main Storm," by Stuart Sherman. Non-fiction books of general interest are "Skyward," by Commander Byrd; "Modern Aircraft," by Page; "Student Relationships," by Clippinger; "Catholicism in the American Mind," by Carrison, and "Possible Worlds," by Haldane. A long list of history books is ready for the student in that field.

Among the most promising are: Adams', "Gateway to American History; Albion, "Forests and Sea Power;" Bemis, "American Secretaries of State;" Palou, "New California;" Childs, "Dawn of European Civilization;" Whitaker, "The Spanish-American Frontier," and the "Oxford History of the United States." The foreign language department has obtained many new books this year which have long been desired. Some of these are: Romera Navarra's "Historia de la Literatura Espanola;" Stephens' "French Novelists of Today;" several copies of "The Cid," and the "Encyclopedie par L'Image," which contains pictures of many French scenes and customs. Useful to students of journalism is "The American Newspaper Annual and Directory." There are also copies of Taylor's "Morton Prince and Abnormal Psychology;" Boynton's "London in English Literature," and Gordon's "Social Ideals of Alfred Tennyson." Junior Chapel Group Is Chosen. A chapel committee composed of Miss Loyse Price, Miss Sarah Beth Boggess, and Nathan Carpenter has been chosen by the junior class to represent them in helping the faculty in organizing programs for the Friday chapel.

Henry Bowden to Leave T. C. U. on First of Year

President Has Letter Announcing His Resignation.

School Will Feel the Loss of One of Its Hardest Workers.

The correspondence submitted below is self-explanatory. Henry G. Bowden has handed in his resignation as vice-president of T. C. U., and the resignation is to take effect on January 1, 1929. It is with great regret that the Skiff receives and publishes this information. It is agreed that conditions here have made impossible the carrying out of the large plans devised by Mr. Bowden, so that the decision arrived at seemed to be the only thing to be done. Mr. Bowden has been untiring in his representation of the interests of T. C. U. From his work, good will come long beyond the period of his employment. The correspondence between Mr. Bowden and President Waits follows: Later an effort will be made to evaluate the service rendered by Mr. Bowden.

September 20, 1928. Dr. Edward McShane Waits, President, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas. Dear Dr. Waits: I have been reviewing the work that I have attempted to do as vice-president and chairman of the Committee of Promotion of Texas Christian University. If we keep in mind all the facts that I came to Texas Christian University to be an evangel of good-will and understanding as well as to attempt to make possible an enlarged program from the standpoint of added buildings, endowment, living maintenance and additional support through the churches, we will have some conception of the task. I am sure you will agree with me that an honest effort has been made to reach the objectives set forth herein. If we have failed to reach our goal it certainly is not because of failure to present both the need and the challenge of the University. The very thing that we hoped would be a stepping stone, namely, the Burnett gift, has been so grievously misrepresented and misunderstood that from a promotional standpoint it has proven a stumbling block with a great percentage of our constituents. The campaign method of securing support for our institutions has been given such a large place that it seems almost impossible to make definite impression by individual appeal and challenge.

I do not plan to review in this letter all of the work nor do I intend here to make recommendations for the future. I hope in a subsequent letter, or shall I not call it a report, to review the whole situation as I see it. Some of the constituents of Texas Christian University think we should adopt "the watchful waiting" policy. From a promotional standpoint I fear that the interests of the University will be impaired unless there be a continuous program of promotion emphasizing the needs and how these needs should be met. I yield to no man in my love for and appreciation of the great service that is being rendered by yourself as president of the University and I assure you that I feel I am quite aware of the very wonderful service that Texas Christian University is rendering to our great brotherhood at large and I must say particular service and opportunity to the citizens of Fort Worth. In every undertaking of this character there are of necessity many regrets and surely many disappointments. There is a seed time and a harvest. God grant that there may be a great harvest in the immediate future in favor of the University. There must not be given an impression that Texas Christian University has arrived: "from the standpoint of endowment, living maintenance, church support or equipment. There is as you know a very desperate need along these particular lines. In the dormitories the sign is "no room in the inn."

My contract with Texas Christian University provides that a ninety-day notice should be presented either by the writer or the University in case there is a desire by either party for a change of relationship. I had expected to place in your hands this letter on October 1st but since there is to be a meeting of the trustees on September 21st it may be your desire to present at that time this letter

Painting Is Discussed Brite Chapel Hears Ethel Johnson on William Hunt Work.

"The Light of the World," famous painting by William H. Hunt, was discussed by Miss Ethel Johnson, southwestern district regional junior superintendent, at Brite Chapel Wednesday. "The artist," explained Miss Johnson, "was a realist and painted things as they really were. He has shown Jesus dressed in priestly and kingly robes with a lighted lantern in his hand while he knocked at the closed door behind which was the soul. In the painting there can be discovered thirty symbols of philosophical and spiritual interest. John Ruskin, when he saw the painting, declared it to be the best done in the last fifty years." Prof. E. E. Billington led the devotional. Angeline Jones sang "O Jesus, Thou Art Standing."

which is my resignation effective January 1st, 1929. With deep and abiding affection. Cordially yours, HENRY G. BOWDEN, Vice-President. Isaiah 41:13. September 24, 1928. Mr. Henry G. Bowden, Vice-President, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas. My Dear Mr. Bowden: I am writing this line to acknowledge your good letter of September 20th which you addressed to the Board of Trustees through me. I presented this letter to the board at its regular meeting Friday, September 21st. The Board of Trustees expressed its appreciation of the fine, frank and friendly spirit which was expressed in your letter. The board requested that in addition to the official notification of the secretary of the board as to the acceptance of the resignation, that the president of the University be asked to write you a letter expressing the board's personal appreciation for the sincere, enthusiastic and earnest services which you have rendered as vice president of Texas Christian University during the last two years. The entire board recognizes that you have spent yourself untiringly and unselfishly in endeavoring to realize the aims and purposes for which you were called as vice-president of Texas Christian University, and that much good in every way has been accomplished. The board has not been unmindful of the bigness and difficulty of the task to which you were called and how the almost wilful misunderstanding of the needs of Texas Christian University on the part of our constituency has made it very difficult for you to realize our aims and ambitions in securing the larger gifts to meet the expanding needs of the University. This they do not believe is because of any lack of diligence on your part, but to circumstances over which none of us had any control. In severing your connection with the University, they wish to assure you that you are leaving with the good will of every member of the Board of Trustees and if it is in their power, they will be very happy to co-operate with you in making any necessary readjustments in your field of work. Rest assured that our highest personal regards together with our Christian interest and good fellowship will attend you and your delightful family in all your undertakings for the Kingdom of our Lord. I am most sincerely yours, TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY, E. M. WAITS, President. For the Board of Trustees of T. C. U.

T. C. U. Students Prefer Pastry to Any Food Served in Cafeteria

Students eating in the T. C. U. cafeteria prefer pastry to any other form of food, according to Mrs. Georgia Harris, in charge of the cafeteria. Their favorite pastry is a special preparation of Chef R. G. Norton's known as "King Tut Pie." The pie is a combination of fresh fruit and whipped cream. Meat is preferred to vegetables, while steak is the favorite meat. The menu is changed each day, although a variety of vegetables are served every day and chicken is served about twice a week. Fish is usually on the menu once during a week. Mrs. Harris orders about 200 pounds of chicken and 150 pounds of steak on days when these are served. One hundred and fifty pounds of Irish potatoes, 50 pounds of ripe tomatoes and five dozen heads of lettuce are used each day. "Cereal is the most popular food served at breakfast," Mrs. Harris says, "some students would eat two cereals if they were permitted to." Fifty-five dozen eggs are also served each morning. Mrs. Harris says that she has no trouble inducing her patrons to use butter and milk as 40 pounds of butter and 300 pints of milk are consumed daily. This does not include the 40 gallons of milk used per day in cooking. Approximately 1,200 meals are served each day at the average cost of 20 cents a meal for town people and 28 cents each for boarding students.

dents. Mrs. Harris says that the cafeteria is operated on a non-profit basis, all profits being turned back into the business.

New equipment at an approximate cost of $3,000 was added to the cafeteria this year. This equipment includes an electric cash register, an automatic water cooler, a baker's table and cabinet, a pantry table and cabinet, a cook's table and dishwasher and a new frigidaire.

Frog Flashes

BY WADE HAWKINS
A GAIN the Fighting Frogs amassed three touchdowns to turn the enemy back in defeat. It looks as though they have acquired the name of the "three touchdown team."

But a tighter battle is expected when the Frogs journey to Aggie-land Saturday. Yet it is hoped that the boys will be able to do as they have done in four consecutive games, make three touchdowns.

THE team that makes three touchdowns against A. & M. will win. Anyway it will be anybody's battle and the Frogs have a 50-50 chance to win.

Centenary's defeat of the Aggies will make it all the harder for the Frogs. However, it proves that it can be done. At any rate the Aggies will come back with blood in their eyes.

S. M. U. caused considerable amount comment by their 6-0 victory over the Simmons Cowboys. A 50-0 victory was predicted, with some 20 Cowboys ineligible under Southwest Conference rules. T. C. U. played the Bridges crew at their full strength and won 19-3. Dope it out for yourself.

T. C. U. fans are wondering why the Frog athletic council does not schedule an inter-sectional game such as A. & M. has with Sewanee, Texas, with Vanderbilt and S. M. U., with the Army. Without a doubt the gate receipts would be larger regardless of the score.

WHEN Clifton Bruce tackled an Austin College player Saturday, Matty Bell remarked, "You can tell he is from West Texas the way he tackles." Coach says the way to tackle is to get them low. But if a runner is stopped that is what counts.

Frog students are all "het up" over the Aggie trip. Especially the girls. I wonder why?

Arkansas' victory over the Baylor Bears seems to prove that the latter has a lot of material but less ability. Baylor has the greatest array of material in the conference but it looks as though they are doomed for a low berth in the percentage column.

ODY THOMPSON is playing his third, best and last year on the Frog eleven. He turned in a dandy game against the Kangaroos Saturday.

When Tolar was taken from the game semi-conscious it caused considerable worry on the part of fans, but it proven to be only a case of being knocked cold. He is o. k. now.

On to Aggie-land, students. Make that trip, you will never forget the cordial welcome and wonderful treatment extended you by the Cadets. Those who went down in '26 will remember what a wonderful trip we had.

WE NEED more fight, more pep and more ambition on the part of the student body. Students get behind Sid Latham, Lafayette Fall and Johnnie Lebus and yell as you have never yelled before when we go down to College Station.

We outplayed and outyelled them last year, so let's do it again.

Yell, students, and help the boys FARM THE FARMERS!

Pollywogs Did Well

First Freshman Battle Shows Meyer's Efforts Not in Vain.

Dutch Meyer's Pollywogs showed up exceptionally well in their first scrimmage with the varsity reserves last Monday.

Several potential stars of next year's Frog eleven were uncovered in the big Monday classic, and if some of the boys continue to do as well Matty Bell will have several good men to report in the fall of '29.

Cooper, a star of last year's Ranger eleven, showed uncanny ability in getting through the line to smash the reserves' offense on numerous occasions. Boswell came up to previous expectations and showed the old hands a few things about defensive play.

In the backfield "Football" Moore reminded us of Berry, one-time A. & M. midget, fleet-footed back. The little Sunset High product of Dallas showed the boys a few things about carrying the ball. Green's work both on the defense and the offense was pleasing to the coaches' eyes. He promises to be a star with the first-year men. Wright looked good carrying the ball, and some say he resembles the noted Joel Hunt. Wright comes from Polytechnic while Green is a product of North Side.

T. C. U. Is "Jonah" Is Viewpoint of Bible's Aggies

A. & M. Writer Predicts Hard-Fought Battle Saturday.

FIRST CONFERENCE TILT
Record of Squads Gives Small Hint as to Game Outcome.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Oct. 16.—One of the hardest fought games of the 1928 season is expected at Kyle Field Saturday, when Coach Dana Bible's Texas Aggie gridsters open their Southwest Conference schedule with the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs of Coach Matty Bell. It will be the first conference tilt for both elevens.

For the Aggies the game will be of more than usual interest, for T. C. U. has held a jinx over the Aggies during the last three years. Of the three times in the past three seasons that the Aggies and Frogs have met, the Frogs came off victorious on one occasion and in the other two games they held the Aggies to a tie. Two of these Aggie teams that faced the Frogs closed their seasons as Southwest Conference champions, one in 1925 and the other in 1927.

In 1925 the Frogs earned the title of "Conquerors of the Champions" by downing the Aggies 3 to 0, as a result of a field goal made by Washmon. In the following year the Frogs came to College Station and battled the Aggies to a 13-13 tie on Kyle Field. Six of the points made by both teams were the results of field goals, Joel Hunt, three years a star in the Aggie backfield, kicking two and Washmon booting two for the Frogs. Washmon's toe-work in these two games earned him the nickname of "Three-Point" Washmon.

Last year Coach Bible's eleven went to Fort Worth, favored to win over the Fighting Frogs, but again the T. C. U. eleven proved a "Jonah" for the Aggies and the game resulted in a scoreless tie. Again the charges of Coach Matty Bell had held their own against a championship eleven.

This year the Aggies and Frogs will meet a little earlier in the season than last year and each team has earned three victories in as many starts. The Aggies in their first three games piled up 111 points to 0 for their opponents. The Frogs in their first three games garnered 91 points to their opponent's 3, the Simmons-Cowboys having succeeded in making a field goal against the T. C. U. eleven.

The Aggies in their first three games were victorious, but lost their fourth battle to Centenary by 6-0 while the Frogs took their fourth battle by winning from Austin College by 21-0.

The Frogs this season have a team composed of more experienced men than the Aggies. Eight of the T. C. U. gridsters are playing their third year on the team and eleven of them are in their second year. Only three Aggies are bidding for their third letter this season while six are seeking their second letters as members of the team.

What little difference there is in the weights of the squads is in favor of the Horned Frogs. The Aggie squad of 36 men averages 170 pounds to the man, just two pounds under the average weight of the T. C. U. squad of 41 men. The Aggie backs are outweighed three pounds to the man by the Frog runners, the Aggies averaging 158 pounds and the Frogs 161 pounds to the man. On the line the weight is evenly divided both teams averaging about 177 pounds to the man.

Lawrence Perry, Sport Writer, Is Campus Visitor

Lawrence Perry, nationally known writer for the Consolidated Press Association and authority on football, visited T. C. U. last Wednesday.

Perry's visit to Texas is a result of the showing made by the Southwest in the last year or two. No doubt the noteworthy work of Matthews, Hunt, Mann and Sikes in the East-West game last December had a lot to do with his coming this way. He witnessed the encounter which took place in San Francisco and states that Redmond Hume is the talk of the nation following the wonderful showing of the Mustangs last week against West Point.

Harvey Gates Wins Guessing Contest

Alex Goldstein Is Second Prize Winner in Last Week's Grid Games.

Harvey Gates was the lucky man in last week's Skiff football guessing contest.

Alex Goldstein took second prize. Neither of the winners picked the exact scores on any of the games except T. C. U. game. Both picked T. C. U. to win by 21-0, which was the correct score.

The winners can receive their prizes by calling at the Skiff office, second floor in the Journalism Department.

Pick Saturday's Winning Scores

The Skiff will continue its prize awards for the students who can best predict the outcome of the conference games.

Below is a list of next Saturday's games. Turn in to the Skiff office before Saturday noon your guesses on the scores of these games. The students whose guesses most nearly tally with the actual scores will be awarded a prize of $2 by the Skiff. The second best list of guesses will receive $1.

Last week's announcement caused some misunderstanding. The object of this contest is not to guess the winners, but to guess the scores. Your list must include your idea of what the final score is going to be in each game.

Here is the schedule for next Saturday:
T. C. U. vs. Aggies.
State vs. Arkansas.
S. M. U. vs. Rice.
Baylor vs. Centenary.

Intramural Work Begins This Week

Handball, Football and Basketball on Athletic Menu.

Graham Estes, head of intramural athletics, will have his athletic program in full swing by the ensuing week.

A handball tournament will be staged immediately, lasting until the end of the football season, Thanksgiving Day. After Thanksgiving, there will be an interclass football tournament, which will continue until the Christmas holidays. There will be five teams, one from each of the four classes, and one team made up of the members of the faculty, with each team playing a maximum of four or five games.

After the close of the regular basketball season, an extensive intramural basketball season has been planned, which will last until the latter part of April, at which time baseball and track will be begun.

Mr. Estes has asked that anyone wanting to make suggestions as to schedules, or any sort of athletic event that would be popular with the students, see him as soon as possible in his office.

Girl Hikers Start Season's Class Work

Seven 5-Mile and Five 10-Mile Jaunts on Program For W. A. A. Group.

The girls' hiking team of Texas Christian University made its initial hike of the season last Wednesday afternoon, when fourteen girls hiked from T. C. U. to Double Dam and Trinity Park and then back to the university.

Each girl who joins the hiking team is required to make seven five-

Pep Squad to See Frog-Aggie Game

Will Go as Unit With Other Rooters on Special Train.

Fifty pep squad girls from T. C. U., dressed in their purple and white bell-hop uniforms, will file out on Kyle Field to perform a novel stunt between halves at the Frog-Aggie game on Oct. 20.

The entire squad will go to College Station on the special train which will carry the band, the Boys' Pep Squad and other rooters.

The nature of the stunt to be given has not yet been announced, but the squad began practice at the regular meeting last Friday afternoon, according to Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy, physical director, who also directs the activities of the organization.

The only other out-of-town trip which the Girls' Pep Squad will make this year is to Dallas when the T. C. U. team meets the Ponies of Southern Methodist University on Thanksgiving.

Miss Helen Jenkins, Houston, a sophomore, is president of the squad this year. Miss Betty Southwell, a senior, is vice-president, and Bernice Austin, a junior, is secretary-treasurer. Both are Fort Worth girls. Miss Lona Dougherty, a freshman, and Miss Vera Turberville, a junior, will carry the banner of the squad. They are also from Fort Worth.

Golf May Be Major Sport

Provided there is sufficient interest and work put forth on golf this year the athletic department states that it will be made a major sport whereby a student will be able to win a letter.

Victor Roberson, captain of golf, is anxious for all those interested in golf, whether you are a star or not, to try out for the 36-hole medal play to be held in the near future. If you want to win a letter in golf it is up to you to do your part and put the sport on the level with tennis and track.

Two Sections of Boxing Class Are Planned by Estes

Will Go as Unit With Other Rooters on Special Train.

Graham Estes has divided his boxing class into two sections and has arranged for each section to meet once a week. Members of the class who are juniors or seniors comprise one section and will meet at 10 o'clock each Monday morning, beginning Oct. 22. The other section will be composed of class members who are freshmen or sophomores, and they will meet at 10 o'clock each Friday morning, beginning Oct. 26.

All meetings will be held at the basketball gymnasium, and beginning with the first meeting it is imperative that members wear their gym suits and shoes, which they must furnish. All other equipment will be furnished by athletic director, Pete Wright.

At present there are forty-five students signed up for the class, but it will not be necessary to see Mr. Estes in order to attend class meetings, since he will be able to handle forty or fifty students in each section.

Mr. Estes says, though, that every student wishing to attend the classes should necessarily attend each of the first six or eight meetings in order to learn the theoretical points so important in the science of boxing.

NORTHERN TEXAS TRACTION CO.

SOCIETY

THERE seems to be a feeling of suspense and excitement among students on the campus as the first conference football game looms upon the horizon. The most important event of the week will be the trip to the Frog-aggie game at College Station. The student body will have its first holiday and joy will reign supreme. The entire Girls' Pep Squad, the band and the Boys' Pep Squad and many of the fair coeds of Jarvis Hall will make the trip to Aggie land on the special train sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Fort Worth.

Although the game overshadows all other events of the week, there are other affairs to be given as listed on the social calendar. In an effort to avoid conflicts in dates of social affairs of the student body, as a whole and of the different organizations, the social calendar committee is working on a calendar, setting dates for the year. The committee will meet today to complete the calendar.

Mrs. Sadie Beckham, chairman of the committee, asks that officers of the various organizations send in the dates of their regular meetings and also the names of the officers.

Others on the calendar committee are Miss Mable Majors, Dean L. L. Lettlich, Dr. Gayle Scott, Prof. J. W. Ballard and Weir McDiarmid, president of the student body.

Among other activities will be a theater party about Nov. 1; a treasure hunt between the dates of Sept. 25 and Oct. 1; a skating party Dec. 15, and a formal dinner, which will probably be held either at the Woman's Club or the University Club about Jan. 15.

A party for the freshman class and their parents to be given at an early date was placed in the hands of a committee.

The report on the scholarship fund by Mrs. B. G. Corder shows an increase of interest and funds. Miss Kathryn Knight, representative from the junior class, was introduced. Each class is to have a representative as soon as plans are completed.

Dean Lettlich gave an interesting talk on the "Psychology of the College Student." President Waits and Dean Hall welcomed the club and brought messages as to the possibilities of the future activities of the club. The members of the club were introduced and a social half-hour was enjoyed.

An investigation shows that many of the recent graduates of the Graduate School of T. C. U. are teaching, several of them in Fort Worth. Others have entered the business world, while some are continuing their graduate studies.

The following notes on various graduates compiled from records in the office of Dr. John Lord, indicate some of the activities:

Advises Upperclassmen

Waits Asks for "Positive Attitude" in Work.

Junior-Senior chapel met on Columbus Day, last week, and President Waits reminded everyone of the "revolutionary discovery of America," which took place 436 years ago. "America" was sung.

The president then talked upon "The Positive Attitude," taking as his text Peter's answer to the lame beggar of the Beautiful Gate of the temple who asked him for alms. Peter replied, "Silver and gold have I none. Such as I have I give thee." He then gave the beggar power to walk.

President Waits said that one of the criticisms of college students is that they are too negative in thought and conduct. He expressed the hope that the upperclassmen would try to get a positive attitude, and so become constructive in their work, setting an example for the lowerclassmen.

What They Did During Their Vacation Days

Helen Cowan and Lois Isham of Fort Worth, spent several weeks on a ranch near Wichita Falls this summer.

Dorritt Moses of Dallas, spent the summer in Austin with her uncle who is a member of the T. C. U. board of trustees.

Robert George and Newton Riggs rode a cattle train to Chicago and saw the sights during the summer.

Austin Griffith had a job with the Crystal Ice Co. this summer, and kinda got on to the "Rags" style of football.

Nell Russell from Ballinger was in Mexico this summer where she saw the annual bull fights.

Frances and Dorothy Ratliff of Midland, toured Western states during the summer. They drove eight thousand miles in five weeks.

John Peter Smith worked with a surveying crew on the Eagle Mountain Lake project.

Lois Dewees visited in the Ozarks during the summer. She also visited the University of Oklahoma and the University of Arkansas.

Miss Josephine Hughes studied art at the Sallie Blyth Mummert Studio in Fort Worth during the summer.

New Program System

Freshman Sunday School Takes as Text, "Everybody Works."

According to a report from the president, Russell C. Ball, the freshmen are putting the pep in the T. C. U. Sunday School by means of a new system which they have inaugurated with the assistance of Prof. H. L. Pickerrill. This system is known as the system of correlation.

Concert Work Will Be Taken Up at Close of Season.

MATERIAL IS IMPROVED

Many New Names Appear in List of 1928-29 T. C. U.

The Band is having special rehearsals and drill practices in preparation for football games. The Band has resolved to have a good football band at the present and later become a concert band. A low platform has been built in the stadium where the band will play for football games.

Competition was doubly keen Saturday in Breckenridge, with the Simmons' Cowboy Band playing across the field. It will be remembered that about this time last year the T. C. U. Band defeated the Cowboy Band in a contest at Ranger. The band has been much improved in material and membership since last year.

Following is the membership of the band:

Trumpets: Gordon Bounds, W. C. George, Claude Goodreau, Tom Hanks, Oliver Harrison, Melvin Milliger, Milliner Sandifer, Alden Webster, C. A. Denney, Sharp Pulliam, Harry Watkins.

Trombones: Bob Alexander, Rob E. Cox, Joe Pate, Perry Sandifer. Clarinets: Hugh Boren, Eugene Cagle, Willis Cox, Ellicott Hansford, E. M. Ewing, Max Hoffman, Walter Hurst, George Kline, Murry Livingston, Don Nugent, John Stuart.

T. U. Stops Honor Idea

Rice Is for Al

S. M. U. Freshmen

TEXAS UNIVERSITY has abolished the honor system of taking examinations. Upon the insistence of a student committee working with the student government, the university recently voted against this honor plan. "Our present system is not an honor system," maintains the Daily Texan editorially, "but on the contrary is a disguised judicial system, smoothed over by being called an honor system. Students are police and have to swear on their honor that they have seen no one cribbing on quizzes."

The men's debating team of the University of Australia will debate the team of N. T. S. T. C., Nov. 2, on the subject: "Resolved, That Parliamentary Government Is Superior to the Presidential Form." The Australian team will also debate Texas University while in this state.

CO-EDS at Stephen College at Columbia, Missouri, must fake an afternoon nap every day whether they want to or not. Authorities of the college require it because it improves efficiency in scholarship.

Rice Institute is for Al Smith; Southwestern University favors Herbert Hoover. Al Smith led the Republican candidate in a straw vote at Rice by two votes, while Hoover beat the New Yorker at the Georgetown school by a count of 167 to 128. Interest was slight at both schools, as only 102 votes were cast at Rice, and less than half the student body voted at Southwestern.

These universities co-operated with College Humor in its nation-wide college straw vote to determine student sentiment. Results of the entire student vote of the country will be published by the magazine on November 2.

Lewis Copeland Represents T. C. U. In Industrial Project

T. C. U. was represented by Lewis Copeland, sophomore, at a Southwest Students' Sociology Industrial Project held in Houston this summer. The project was sponsored by the Southwest Council of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., and was conducted for six weeks, beginning June 25. The project was under the leadership of Chard Nelson, student secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in the Southwest, and Miss Fern Babcock, student Y. W. C. A. secretary at the University of Arkansas.

Students came to Houston from these universities of the Southwest: Texas Christian University, Rice Institute, Texas University, University of Michigan, Oklahoma College for Women and Arkansas University. The students secured any kind of jobs available at any salary and studied the industrial conditions of the business. They worked in laundries, factories, cafes, root beer stands, bakeries and as longshoremen. Copeland, from T. C. U., held three not related, and the college postmaster has a hard time keeping their mail separated. He has the same problem with the two Kathleen Buchanans of Dallas, also attending the college.

A board of 31 freshmen advisers is being instituted at S. M. U. this year, in order that every freshman student will have someone to whom he can talk and ask advice. Authorities thought that the personal contact between students and faculty members had been lost because of large classes, and they are using this system to get acquainted with the new-comers.

WHEN the Baylor band accompanies the Bears to T. C. U. for the annual Frog-Bear game, its members will be attired in new uniforms. The new Bruin raiment has already been ordered and will be delivered in time for the Fort Worth trip.

Texas Technological College, little sister to A. & M. and State, has grown remarkably in its four years of existence. The West Texas college has an enrollment of more than 1,500, and 700 freshmen entered the school this year.

jobs during the time—at NuGrape Bottling Works, Height's Bakery, and American Maid Flour Mill. The students met twice each week in a seminar group, at which time they were addressed by leaders of industry, labor union organizers and financiers, who gave them pointers on business. Among these speakers were: Dr. Slaughter, head of the department of economics and sociology at Rice Institute and chairman of the Social Service Committee of Houston, and Mr. McClennan, industrial secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. McClennan has made a study of the industrial situation in Houston for four years. He told the group some of the problems of the city.

Each student working on the project made a report on his experiences and impressions. These reports will be compiled and distributed among university students.

"Beauty Parlors Are the Bunk," So Jimmy Says

"Beauty parlors are the bunk," said Jimmy Grant, last year's baseball captain. "I've never been in one yet and look what I won." The what was a beautiful white gold wrist watch that was given Jimmy during the baseball tournament in Denver, Colorado, for being the ugliest man on the team.

Jimmy played center field on the Texon team of the Big Lake Oil Company, at Texon, Texas, this summer. He worked some and played ball a lot. His roommate there was Vivian "Possom" Clark, who was manager of the 1927 basketball team and a former football player.

Jimmy's team won over the other West Texas clubs and was sent to Denver, where they won the tournament.

While in Denver Jimmy stayed with Horace Wallin, captain-elect of basketball. He and Horace were in a bus coming down Lookout Mountain when the car skidded and crashed into the railing 3,000 feet up! After they finally managed to get safely on the road once more Jimmy said that he discovered he didn't need two sweaters and a coat after all.

While in Colorado Jimmy saw Mary Alexander, Jean Turner and George Merrill of T. C. U.

Meet The Freshmen

Ruth Sparkman is from Longview. In high school she was president of the Home Economics Club, president of the junior class, football sponsor, yell leader and salutatorian. She was "Miss Longview" at the East Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention this summer. She is a member of the T. C. U. pep squad and secretary and treasurer of the Frogtettes.

Helen Powell is from Henrietta. In high school she was president of the debating society, president of the junior class, accompanist for the glee club, orchestra and boys' quartet, president of the Latin and Spanish clubs, and belonged to the Home Economics Club and Tennis Club. In 1925 she was elected the most popular girl in high school. She is the niece of Miss Ethel Ellis who was graduated from T. C. U. in 1924.

Mary Frances Miller is a freshman from Belton. In high school she was a member of the dramatic, home economics, and Spanish clubs. She was society editor of the high school paper and secretary and treasurer of the junior class.

Nell Wolfe is from Asheville, N. C. She was a member of the literary club and vice president of the senior class. She is especially interested in athletics and in high school played basket ball, tennis and hockey. During the summer, she toured the east, visiting Washington, D. C., and New York.

Margaret Clements, who was a June graduate from Oak Cliff High School, Dallas, was one of the few lucky ones to be chosen for membership in the National Scholarship Society. To be a member of this society one must have no grades below 90 and must be taking an active part in the school activities. Margaret was president of the Glee Club and the Home Economics Club. She was a member of the "Pep Squad" and took the leading roles in several school plays and operettas. She also represented Oak Cliff High School in the city series tennis singles.

Miss Grace Bucher, assistant in piano, was forced to miss several days of school last week on account of illness.

Ballard Reports Fewer Students Are Working Way

"The number of students who work their way through college is on the decline," says Prof. John W. Ballard, chairman of the student employment committee of T. C. U. Other members of the committee are Butler S. Smiser and L. C. Wright.

Professor Ballard gave as a reason for his statement the fact that formerly the general idea was that the "self-made" man must work his way through college whether his parents were able to send him or not. Now it is coming to be that the student who works is the one who really needs to, and Professor Ballard says that this is the way that it should be.

The student employment committee of the University seeks to furnish as many students with jobs as is possible. Around 2,000 letters were sent out this fall to business men asking help in placing students. More than 200 students at T. C. U. are doing part time work this year, and more than 1,000 have been assisted to find jobs in the four years that the committee has functioned.

Almost every business house in Fort Worth of any size and many of the stores on the hill have at least one T. C. U. student working for them. The working students are serving as cashiers, clerks, stenographers, elevator operators, ushers, freight haulers, draftsmen, soda "jerkers," waiters, cleaning and pressing agents, bell hops, manual laborers, insurance salesmen and other salesmen of all kinds, credit bureau workers and newspaper assistants.

"Fewer girls are working this year than formerly," says Professor Ballard. "I have had more calls for girls to stay in homes to help with household work and care for children for their board, room and carfare, than I have been able to supply."

"However, I still have several stenographers that want part time work," says Professor Ballard, "and I have three places for boys with experience in selling shoes." Ballard says that few boys who come out of high school have had any experience in this line, although dozens have had grocery store experience.

The committee has had six chances for boys to milk cows, but the work was too far out for the boys to get to school on time after doing the milking. There are many calls also for boys to do house-to-house canvassing but the boys do not seem to take to

Stresses Need of More Leaders for Student Clubs and Organizations

Monday's chapel lecture was given by John Lord, of the department of government, on the subject of "Extra-Curricular Activities."

In contrast to former sentiment, Dr. Lord stressed the need of more extra-curricular activities on the campus. By comparison with such activities in other schools, Dr. Lord found that T. C. U. ranked rather low in the scale along his line. The Horned Frog of 1928 showed that T. C. U. only 80 extra-curricular organizations, and something more than 300 students belonging to the organizations.

Dr. Lord believes that leadership is made in the organized groups, and therefore if we are to have more leaders, we should have more organizations to develop the leaders.

T. C. U. is coming more and more to develop such activities, however, and with the organizing of the intramural athletics last year, a big step was made toward more extra-curricular activities, according to Dr. Lord.

2 New English Courses

"Chaucer" and "English Drama" Taught by Dr. Howe.

"Chaucer" and the "English Drama" are two new courses offered by the English department this year. Dr. E. B. Howe presents these subjects.

The drama course is a survey of English drama, exclusive of Shakespeare, from the beginning to the close of the Nineteenth Century. An introduction to the life and writings of Chaucer and to medieval fiction is covered in the other course.

this type of work, according to Ballard.

Many students are employed on the T. C. U. campus in addition to those working outside and in town. An effort is being made to cut down on the amount of his school work whenever a student is working, says Professor Ballard. "It is better for one to take five years for his degree rather than to work himself down both in mind and body in order to get a degree in four years."

The following letter from Henry Shepherd, instructor in government last year and T. C. U. graduate of 1927, was received by a friend this week.

"First, I must inform you that Charles Proctor has returned to the state of his nativity—I mean the commonwealth, not the condition—for he has decided that he would do best to enter Texas University this school year.

B. B. A. Notations

Albert Acker, who received his B. B. A. last June, is coaching and teaching at Olney, Texas, this year.

Former B. B. A.'s who were visitors for the game with Daniel Baker were: R. B. Baker, Sweetwater; Morris Nicholson, "Joy" Holcomb, Fort Worth; Lowell Parrish, Estelline; John Washburn, Dallas; and Coach Herman Clark of Daniel Baker.

B. B. A.'s are making plans for their Anniversary Day program. According to the catalogue, it is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 11. The students plan to celebrate on Monday, Nov. 12.

Elementary accounting students are slowly recovering from the first quiz.

Jack Williams recently treated the business law class to gum, so did H. L. Agree. Preston Taylor helped the accountants' class.

Jim Steadman has been elected judge of the business law class and "Poovee" Lee sheriff.

Jim Peterson acknowledges his ability to drive with one hand—others vouch for it.

Milred Austin, Miss B. B. A. last year, was employed during the summer by the Northern Texas Traction Company. From all reports they want her back when she graduates.

Hazel Kinney spent the summer in California. "Just crazy about it," she says; "Jolly" Paul saw her there, he says; and he knows plenty.

Chris Hyder, business manager of the Horned Frog this year, is a B. B. A. His sister, Cecilia, is taking a B. B. A. course this year as well.

Geoff Moore, a former student and now employed in the city, is taking the course in advanced accounting this year.

W. C. Pratt from Dallas is a new B. B. A. student. He was formerly with Western Union. No, he did not deliver telegrams.

Caroline Hays is back after a lay-off of one year. Spent that time with an oil company.

Waja Milton and Jack Ball are together much of the time of late.

Some new B. B. A. students this year are: Ben Carrin, Burca Bucus, Earl Blackburn, Leo Butler, Charles Cartwright (Bill's brother), Mary grounds, or rather sidewalk, I would just as lief go to a business school, or maybe later, as Benny Potts expresses himself.

"The Princeton, as you know, is a noble place. It is an institution, among other things, for I can and do walk miles on end daily without a morsel that feels muzzling of protest. Physically, I don't see how any school could be any more impressive, or more beautiful, or more ideal for study than this. I'm very much pleased with my choice of schools—and hope the feeling may be mutual before the year is over.

"And now, it being midnight, I will retire, but first I'll walk into the village and get an apple and a few choice whiffs of New Jersey atmosphere which so far has been very balmy indeed."

Continuing Writes for a Japanese Magazine

"Life and Customs of American Colleges" Is Central Theme in Series.

Tadashi Tomimaga, Tokyo, Japan, a ministerial student in T. C. U., is writing a series of articles on the "Life and Customs of American Colleges" for the "Shimui" or "New World," a magazine published at Tokyo.

Among the articles already written is one concerning the loyalty of students to their school, the bonfire and pep meetings which precede a football game, and the prevalent spirit of good sportsmanship at these games.

He mentioned a game played in a gym which greatly interested him, described the large pep meeting and bonfire which took place before the game, and also the spirit of loyalty to team and good sportsmanship which students displayed when the game was lost.

Mr. Tomimaga has recently written articles on the "Freshman Prom" and "Freshman Week" at T. C. U.

In writing of the difference in methods of teaching in the American colleges and those of Japan, he points out that while the courses in Japanese colleges are taught by the lecture method and the student does not have to make much preparation for the class, in America, the student's study assignments and many books to read. The classes in Japan are much larger than they are here. He also says that there are no co-educational colleges in Japan.

Mr. Tomimaga has also written on the friendly atmosphere at T. C. U., where he feels quite at home.

Peter Bortolucci in England.

Peter Bortolucci, a familiar figure on the T. C. U. campus last year, is now traveling in England, according to word received from him this week.

Coaches and Some of Frogs Who Will Battle A. & M.

Club From Sherman Loses to Frogs

Austin College Showed Defense to Hold Bellmen.

The win over Austin College proves that the Frogs have a good offensive club. The Kangaroos put up the stiffest defense of the four non-conference clubs encountered by the Purple this fall.

All through the first half of it was the "Frogs" game, but not so in the last half. The Griggen came back with blood in their eyes but the Frogs came back with a streak of confidence and a feeling that the game was already won. At any rate the Bellmen proved in the opening periods that they could battle and battle to win.

A conservative game was staged by the home boys, they were not putting out anything for the scouts to take back to A. & M.

Game after game some frog player stamps himself as a star by stellar work on the defense or offense. This time it was Noble Atkins who took off the "hatting honors" of the fracas. He played a heads up game during the time he was allowed to play, and it was his efforts on the defense that paved the way for one of the three scores. He deflected a Kangaroo pass into Watkins arms, who raced to the twenty-yard line. Three plays put the ball over.

Ody Thompson, playing his third year on the varsity, proved that he will be hard to push off the starting eleven. On several occasions he drove the ball through the red jerseyed crew for neat gains.

Not all the glory goes to the above mentioned men, for a big boy from Stamford, who goes by the name of Clifton Bruce, showed that he is a bull dogging cowboy from West Texas by his defensive play. On one occasion he grabbed a Kangaroo about the neck and went to the ground with him in a bulldog fashion.

Frog fans who witnessed the game and who were thinking of the on coming game of next week could not help but be a little down-hearted, because of the inexperience of the Purple ends. Those that know the Aggie tactics will recall their smashing off-tackle plays that go straight at the ends. And those that have seen the Farmers in action report that their famous off-tackle plays are more powerful this year than ever.

Austin College exhibited what is known as "sixty minutes of football." A team that plays from whistle to whistle deserves a victory.

At any rate the Frogs won the game, however, they did not startle the world in doing so, and now it is the Aggies next.

Abilene Trip Is Full Of Sights

T. C. U. Student Tells About the Color of the Trip.

Notes from the diary of one who went to the Breckenridge game Saturday. Automobiles on the pike gaily adorned in stickers and streamers in the purple and white of T. C. U., passing through miles of cedar-covered hills and mountains, comparable to Colorado, and to the Arkansas Ozark country . . . farther into the West, mesquite trees, high bluffs of solid rock . . . oil derricks . . . here and there a white cross beside the road marking the death place of some autoist.

These were the first impressions on the way to Breckenridge for the T. C. U.-Simmons football game Saturday. Cars thronged in from other neighboring Western towns, too, as the hottest October sun in many years beamed down its unrelenting rays.

T. C. U. band paraded in Mineral Wells . . . Then the game on Buckaroo Field, Breckenridge High School's new football stadium. Football, opening strains of T. C. U. Alma Mater as the crowd rose to its feet with uncovered heads in respectful silence and tribute, all except the opponents' rooters who gave a yell for their team "Horned Frogs, We Are All For You," thrilling the Fighting Frogs on to victory. The Simmons girls' pep squad in striking cowgirl attire with ten-gallon hats and boots, a flash of purple and gold . . . did a clever drill and the cowboy stomp. The famous cowboy band . . . badges with "Dehorn the Frogs" worn by Simmons supporters . . . pennants and arm bands lending more color to the scene as the purple and gold blended with the purple and white.

Seats of the T. C. U. rooters were rather scattered allowing no chance for the usual organized yelling. T. C. U. band and Bell Hop pep squad greeted by bursts of applause as the mass of purple and white took the field at the half . . . Word between the halves that Army beat S. M. U. 14 to 13 and that A. & M. was trimming Sewanee at the Dallas Fair . . . Breckenridge furnishes many Frog supporters.

And then the final shot by the umpire and another football game is over! Another game won for the Horned Frogs! The Purple's triumphant shirt tail downtown after the game, celebrating its 19 to 3 victory over the Cowboys from the West.

Band and girls' pep squad of T. C. U. were guest of Milton Daniels at dinner served by ladies of Breckenridge First Christian Church . . . Milton Daniels also furnished room at the Burch Hotel for pep squad girls. Thank you! The dance after the game, sh-h!

Who attends, and how— Sign across the street reads, "Dance Tonight Top of Burch, Visitors Welcome." Mistaken at a distance by one for "Dance Tonight, Top of Church—!" Slight error.

The journey home. Busses filled with T. C. U. students, cars carrying the crowds back to Cowtown, homeward bound and happy with the flush of victory. The end of a perfect day. . . And so ended T. C. U.'s first trip into the West. . . And out of the West she came, victorious!

514 Girls Enroll In P. T. Classes

No Excuse Accepted—Corrective Group Is Formed.

For the last two years there has been a large increase in the Girls' Physical Education department of Texas Christian University. The total enrollment this year is 514. The enrollment last year was 421. Classes two years ago averaged 30 pupils last year 40 to 50 pupils and this year the average enrollment in freshman classes is between 70 and 80. The largest class has an enrollment of 97. The increase is due in part to the strict enforcement of the rule that all girls who graduate from T. C. U. must finish two years of physical education; excuses are not accepted. Girls who have doctor's certificates that they are unable to take the usual class work are put in corrective classes and given exercises and special training recommended by their doctors.

Because the classes are so large this year, Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy, physical director, has adopted the squad leader method of checking the roll. Classes will be divided into groups of sixteen and two leaders will be placed over each group. The leaders will call the roll at each meeting and are responsible to Mrs. Murphy for their group. Squad leaders will be awarded 25 points toward membership in the Woman's Athletic Association of the university.

According to Mrs. Murphy, almost all floor work will be done to the accompaniment of music this year. The teaching of correct posture will be stressed through the rhythmic exercises which also tend to strengthen the ankle and leg muscles and correct fallen arches.

The fundamentals of the different sports are taught in first-year classes so that the girls may choose one or two sports to work in for their second-year work. The department offers one second-year course which deals only with swimming instruction.

A course in "Recreational Leadership" and one in "Methods of Teaching Physical Education" are offered to girls who expect to receive certificates in physical education. These are credit courses. Students in these classes give three hours time each week assisting Mrs. Murphy in the regular gymnasium classes. The following students are enrolled in these classes: Dorothy Stowe, Maurine Rankin, Dorothy Louise West, Agnes Wayman and Gladys Van Horn.

small group of rooters to Breckenridge on last Saturday was well received there. The band arrived in Breckenridge at 11 o'clock and staged a parade, then went to the station and played during the arrival of the Simmons U. special. The T. C. U. Band was disappointed that the regular Cowboy Band was unable to attend the game. This band was in San Antonio playing for the American Legion Convention. However, a 32-piece band made up of "subs and extras" pepped up the Simmons delegation.

Ministerial Students of TCU-SMU to Meet

Joint Session at Top-o-Hill Terrace Scheduled for Oct. 25.

Ministerial students of Texas Christian University and Southern Methodist University will have a joint meeting at Top-O-the-Hill Terrace, near Fort Worth, on the evening of Oct. 23.

Rothe Hilger, president of the student body of Brite College of the Bible, T. C. U., will talk on fellowship between the two student bodies. Joseph B. Love of S. M. U. will talk on the inter-seminary movement. Songs, games and refreshments will follow the program hour.

Last year three meetings of this type were held by the two ministerial student bodies of Fort Worth and Dallas.

"These meetings are highly successful in creating a spirit of co-operation between the ministerial students of the two schools," Mr. Hilger says.

Are Guests of Kiwanis

Varsity Football Team Attends Luncheon at Texas.

The T. C. U. varsity football team was the honor guest at the regular Monday luncheon of the Kiwanis Club in the Crystal Ballroom of the Texas Hotel. After lunch had been served Bob Miller, president of Kiwanis, turned the meeting over to Kiwanian Butler Smiser.

Mr. Smiser introduced Coaches Kubale and Bell and Prof. E. W. McDiarmid. L. C. "Pete" Wright, athletic director of T. C. U., was also introduced to the Kiwanians.

The principal speakers of the luncheon were President E. M. Waits and Marvin Brown, a strong Frog supporter. President Waits spoke of the importance of running a large special to College Station next Saturday and further cementing the friendship between the two schools, and Marvin Brown closed the meeting with a stirring talk on sportsmanship.

While lunch was being served the Kiwanians and their guests were entertained by Miss Adeline Boyd at the piano, Miss Edith Armstrong, violin, and James Watson, trumpet.

Coach Makes a Goal

Ed Kubale scored a goal at Breckenridge last Saturday when he and Zeke Handler, of the Fort Worth Press sports department, managed to down an elevator in the town's big hotel.

Kubale was demonstrating how to enter an elevator in the proper manner when the lift lost its balance and dropped he and Zeke to the bottom and up a little. Kubale said that the whole thing could have been avoided had he thought fast enough.

Wm. Parkinson to Speak at T. C. U.

Secretary of Student Volunteers Here Tomorrow.

William Parkinson, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, will visit the campus Thursday of this week. While here he will be available for private conferences to students, and will speak at a meeting open to all the students at Brite Chapel, 6:45 o'clock Thursday evening.

The work of Mr. Parkinson is part of the educational program of the movement. Regular visits are made to all the larger colleges and universities, throughout the United States and Canada, twice each year. The movement is a distinctively student Christian fellowship in administration and spirit. It is inter-denominational, and seeks to interpret to students Christian missions and attitudes toward other lands.

William W. Parkinson is a graduate of the University of Virginia, B. A. 1923, and Louisville Theological Seminary, Th.B. 1927.

His associations with the S. V. M. as a state officer and as a traveling secretary enable him to interpret to others the vital relationship of this movement to missions.

With the purpose to enter some form of Christian service abroad, he has made a study of world conditions and needs especially as they are evident in the light of the meeting at Jerusalem of the International Missionary Council. Thus, he is qualified to challenge his fellow students to find their relationship to the Christian world enterprise.

Mr. Parkinson will remain in Fort Worth over the week-end and will take part on the program of the council of the North Texas Union of the Volunteer Movement. The council is to be at Texas Woman's College Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Morro of Brite College faculty is also to speak to the council.

The entire student body is invited to attend the skating party, but it will be necessary to limit the other activities to members of the class only. The next meeting will be held Friday, Oct. 19th in the "Big Gym," at 10 o'clock, further plans will be discussed.

Two More Days for Freshman Pictures

Horned Frog Editor Asks Cooperation in Making Pictures for Annual.

This afternoon and Friday afternoon are the last days in which freshman pictures will be made for the Horned Frog, according to Miss Louise Shepherd, editor.

The annual is a record of the year's activities, and every student's picture should appear in the yearbook, Miss Shepherd points out.

"The goal has been set at 1,200 pictures for the 1929 annual," she says, "and it is necessary that every student co-operate in order that this goal be realized."

The Reid Studio for the making of Horned Frog pictures is on the right-hand side of the stage in the chapel, from 1 to 4 p. m. on Wednesday and from 2 to 4 p. m. on Friday.

Call For Plays Issued by Club to T. C. U. Students

Would-be playwrights, attention! The dramatic department of the Junior Woman's Club is desirous of putting on some workshop plays.

Mrs. Leslie Delf, president of the Fort Worth Junior Woman's Club, has asked Dr. Herbert L. Hughes to invite the drama classes to act as playwrights. The best plays written by the students will be presented by the girls of the dramatic department.

One-act plays are especially asked for. Mrs. Delf hopes that there will be a prize available, but up to the present the honor of having the play produced will have to suffice. Anyone interested in this venture may consult with Dr. Hughes.

Violin Champion Of South Texas Student at T. C. U.

Miss Healer Leavell, champion violinist of South Texas, is a freshman student in T. C. U. this fall.

Last April Miss Leavell competed against 20 of the best violinists from the high schools of South Texas at Kingsville, and won first place. She was also first violinist with the McAllen High School orchestra, which won first place in the orchestra division of the same contest during the past two years.

Miss Leavell, a graduate of McAllen High School last June, was secretary-treasurer of her class during her junior and senior years, and secretary-treasurer of the student council during her senior year. She was also chosen as queen of the 1926 May fete of the McAllen High School.
