AS WE SEE THINGS

THEY call him Mac because he is supposed to be Irish, but somehow I can't see the Irish part.

AND that's one reason that causes me to doubt his racial origin. But that isn't the story; Mac has a curio shop, and like most such shops, the walls are decorated with pretty Spanish shawls.

AND still that isn't the story, for just across from Mac's place is the ciudad plaza, with its sidewalks lined with vendors of fruits, candies and drinks.

BUT just across from the plaza, on the south, stands the pride of the city, an old cathedral, not a day under 300 years old.

ON the right of the cathedral is the federal government building, a dirty, ill kept, and probably worse manned house.

ONE night when I was wondering if the grey felt hat hanging on an ancient rack belonged to me or some one else, I looked over Tony's crowd.

PEDRO has several talents; besides being a good waiter and a good singer, he is a typical beggar.

AMERICAN women smoke at the bars much as do the men. They drink and seem to think nothing of it, but it makes you think a lot when you see some of the things going on over there so close to civilization.

Private Library Of M. M. Davis Given to T. C. U.

Wife of Former Pastor Dallas Church Is Donor.

770 VOLUMES IN GIFT Personal Notes and Sermons Included in Collection of Religious Books.

The private library of the late Rev. M. M. Davis, who was pastor of the Central Christian Church of Dallas, has been presented recently to the Mary Couts Burnett Library of T. C. U.

The books fall into seven natural divisions. These are: (1) Davis' personal preaching notes, comprising 14 volumes and two scrapbooks; (2) books on Christian character; (3) the history of Christianity; (4) the personal life of Christ; (5) studies of the disciples; (6) sermons; (7) miscellaneous or non-religious works.

In this last division are a 15-volume set of the works of Dickens; an eight-volume set of "Johnson's Universal Cyclopedia"; "The History of England," by MacCauley; and "Emerson's Essays," as well as many others.

The Rev. Mr. Davis was born and reared in Missouri. He went to Dallas in 1890 and took over the pastorate of the Central Christian Church. He was pastor of this church for 25 years, during which time he was one of the outstanding leaders in the Christian Church of Texas.

According to Dean Colby H. Hall, who was a personal friend of Mr. Davis, the latter was always interested in T. C. U. as a Christian school.

Regional Secretary Addresses Y.W.C.A.

Miss Hilda K. Howard Talks to Local Group on Problems of Their Organization.

Miss Hilda K. Howard, secretary of the Southwest Students' Y. W. C. A. Council, addressed a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. of T. C. U. in Jarvis Hall Wednesday evening.

Miss Howard talked on "What an Ideal Y. W. C. A. Could Mean on a Campus." After her talk, Miss Howard entertained the girls with her Simi monkey and talked informally with the girls on the problems of their organization.

Miss Sarah Beth Boggess, recently elected president of the T. C. U. organization, presided at this meeting.

Miss Howard held conferences with members of the new cabinet Thursday and definite plans for the work of the organization for next year were made.

To Be at Brother's Wedding

Miss Anna Lewis will be one of the bridesmaids in the wedding of her brother, Jack, to Miss Grace McNamara of Dallas, May 4. A number of affairs are being given Miss McNamara that Miss Lewis plans to attend. She went to a formal announcement party given by Miss McNamara's mother last Saturday.

AND MAY THE BEST MAN WIN

CAMPAIGN speeches for candidates for student body offices will be pretty short of "planks" if such men as Buck and Elliott are to make them, according to announcements from both of their campaign managers.

BOTH men are well known in the student body, and both are well equipped to fill the place, says Weir McDiarmid, president of the student body this year. McDiarmid is glad to see so much interest in the elections, he says.

President Gives Unofficial List

Student Body Candidates Number 10 This Year.

Dick Long has dropped out of the race for editor of The Skiff. This leaves Miss Pauline Barnes with no opponent.

An unofficial list of students who intend to be candidates for student body officers was announced by Weir McDiarmid president of the student body, Tuesday.

The students are as follows: for president, Hugh Buck, and Rainey Elliot; for vice-president, Chester Crow; for secretary-treasurer, Sarah Beth Boggess, and Elizabeth Ayers; for head yell leader, Tyler Dean, Johnny Lebus, Glen LaDue, William Joekel, and Curtis McHorse. Crow has no opponent.

The election for May 6 and 7 will be the general election. In the case of no one student having a majority for the office of head yell leader, there will be a run off, McDiarmid said.

Anderson Is Visitor Former Student Body "Prexy" Visits Miss Byrne.

Hubert ("Andy") Anderson of Paducah, A. B. '27, was a visitor on the campus last week. "Andy" was president of the student body in the 1926-27 term, and was a member of the T. C. U. golf team the last two years he was in school.

On graduating "Andy" went to Cuba to study the Spanish language. After remaining there for a time he returned to his home in Paducah.

He visited Miss Cecelia Byrne, who was recently injured in an accident at T. C. U.

Non-Juniors Miss Wisecracking of '30 Class Meetings

Those who aren't juniors have missed much in the way of class meetings, for example, Stewart Hellman's wisecracking and the Moran and Mack duet that he and Bill Rogers perform each time. Then there are Vera Turberville's urgent invitations to all girls who haven't dates to be sure and come to the party.

Monday someone asked what about us co-eds that didn't go at all, but there was no reply to that. When nominations are in order we are either flooded with names and withdrawals or one person is nominated and someone quickly moves that nominations cease, and one more good man is railroaded into office.

Junior-Senior Chapel Cut Short

Senior-Junior chapel was dismissed early last Friday due to an important meeting of the senior class to discuss plans for the senior gift, which came directly afterwards.

Hellman Places First at Simmons

To Represent State in Regional Meet to Be Set Later.

Stewart Hellman, president of the junior class and president-elect of the senior class, representing T. C. U., took first place in the district meet of the National Intercollegiate Contest held at Abilene, Saturday.

The winner in the regional meet will take part in the Fifth National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest on the Constitution, inaugurated and conducted by the Better America Federation of California, to be held in Los Angeles. Each regional winner is assured of a prize in the Los Angeles contest, prizes for which range from $350 to $1,500.

The title of Hellman's winning oration was, "The Constitution and Today."

Harold Knopp of Baylor University took second place in the State contest.

To Teach at N.T.S.T.C.

Willis Hewatt Will Instruct in Biology in Summer Term.

Willis Hewatt, fellow in geology, will teach biology in the summer term of the North Texas State Teachers College, Denton. Besides teaching, he will prepare a representative collection of cretaceous fossils of North Texas.

Hewatt took his B. S. degree from T. C. U. in 1927. In June he will receive the M. S. degree, with a major in geology. Next year he plans to work toward his doctor's degree.

Band Has Various Activities Planned

To Make Trips With Association of Commerce and Play for Annual Music Week.

The Horned Frog Band of T. C. U. has several engagements and activities planned before school is out.

The band has recently been elected the official band of the trade extension department of the Association of Commerce and will be expected to make all trips. The first trip will be to Bryan on May 6 to the East Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention.

The band turned down a concert engagement on May 6 on account of the trade trip. On May 7 the band will give a concert on the campus as its first participation in the Music Week activities. On Sunday, May 12, the band will play in a massed band concert in town as the final event of the Music Week celebration.

On Saturday night, May 11, the band will furnish the music for the Greek pageant to be given in the T. C. U. Stadium. The band is working hard on the music for this pageant, and, according to Prof. Claude Sammis, director, the music is some of the most difficult ever attempted by the organization.

To Be Presented In May Recitals

Seven Students in Public Speaking to Give Programs.

Seven students in the public speaking department of T. C. U. will be presented in recitals during the month of May, according to an announcement by Dr. Lew D. Fallis, head of the department. The first recital will be given by Miss Anna Marie Bennett, who will read "Outward Bound," by Suttan Vane, on May 2. She will be assisted by Vess Taylor.

All of the recitals will be given at 8 o'clock on the evening for which they are scheduled in the T. C. U. auditorium.

The second recital will be given on May 9 by Miss Gyneva Adams, who will read "Madam Butterfly," by John Luther Long and David Belasco. She will be assisted by William Barclay.

"Cyano de Bergerac," by Rostand, will be given by Miss Dorothy Luckner on May 14. She will be assisted by Miss Alice Louise Trammell. Theodore McElroy will give "Pharaoh's Daughter," by Allison Gaw and Ethel-lean Tyson Gaw, on May 15.

Miss Margaret Moore will read "The Fool," by Channing Pollock, on May 15. Miss Grace Bucher will assist her. "The Great Divide," by William Vaughan Moody, will be given by Miss De Rue Armstrong in her recital on May 21.

The final recital will be given on May 23 by Miss Maurine Lovette who will read, "The Dawn of Tomorrow," by Mary Hodson. Mrs. Grace Ward Lanford will assist her.

Miss Maurine Moore To Tour in Europe

Ten Countries Will Be Seen—Brother, Jerome, to Study in Paris.

Miss Maurine Moore, senior in T. C. U., will sail June 6 from New York City for Europe, in company with her mother, her brother, Jerome, and his wife.

The party will tour ten countries; among them, France, England, Switzerland, Italy, Germany, Spain and Belgium. They will make their headquarters in Paris, where Jerome Moore, M. A. '26, will study at Sorbonne University.

Miss Moore will receive a Bachelor of Education degree from T. C. U. in June, with a major in secondary education. She has served two years on the Girls' Pep Squad and is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, national social science fraternity.

Greek Gods and Goddesses Will Visit T.C.U. May 11

Stadium to Be Transformed Into Scene for Festival.

PRESIDENT WAITS IN CAST

"Royal Garden of the Gods" to Be Setting for Pageant by Girls' P.T. Classes.

A throne for Jupiter, Minerva, and the Royal Court, green mounds for the lesser deities, chariots, and Grecian urns will aid in transforming the T. C. U. Stadium into a fitting background for the Grecian Festival which will be presented by the girls' physical education department of the University on May 11.

A collaboration of the familiar old Grecian myths form the theme of the pageant, according to Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy, author and director of the fete.

The scenes will be laid in the "Royal Garden of the Gods" and the festival will be given in honor of Jupiter and Minerva and the other members of the court. President E. M. Waits will take the part of Jupiter and the identity of Minerva, the queen chosen by the student body, will remain secret until the night of the fete.

Six princesses also chosen by the student body will be seated on the throne with Jupiter and Minerva. The pageant will open when Jack Murphy, son of the director, as the "Royal Bugler," heralds the coming of the queen. The seasons will open the gates for the members of the Royal Court to enter and the queen will be crowned by President Waits.

The members of the Girls' Pep Squad will serve as "Royal Guards." The first dress rehearsals for the pageant were held in the gym classes last week at the regular class periods. Authentic Grecian costumes are being used by all characters to carry out the story of the myths, which centers around the story of Diana and Apollo. The different classes in the department will take the parts of nymphs, dryads, shepherdesses and guards.

Miss Louise Shepherd has the part of Diana and Bryce Ryan will be Apollo. Five graduate students in the science department took their two-hour comprehensive examinations Friday. These examinations, given to candidates for the Master's degree, are the first to be given this year. Other departments will hold their final comprehensive examinations during May.

Willis Hewatt, Miss Anne Brooks and Fred McConnell, candidates for the M. S. with a major in biology; and Jerome Smiser and Miss Lenora May Williams, candidates for the M. S. with a major in geology, are the five who took their examinations.

5 Graduates Examined

Comprehensive Tests to Qualify M. S. Candidates Given

Willis Hewatt, Miss Anne Brooks and Fred McConnell, candidates for the M. S. with a major in biology; and Jerome Smiser and Miss Lenora May Williams, candidates for the M. S. with a major in geology, are the five who took their examinations.

19 Students Travel Total of About 17,500 Miles to T. C. U.

Nineteen students at T. C. U. traveled a total of approximately 17,500 miles, averaging around 921 miles each, in order to attend T. C. U., according to figures compiled recently at the university, which revealed that the extreme points of the United States have representatives in the Fort Worth institution.

The two students in the university whose homes are the farthest from T. C. U. are Miss Annabel Hall, junior, from Oregon City, Ore., and Ralph Ross Bailey, freshman special student from Stamford, Conn., each having come almost 2000 miles in order to attend T. C. U. William Henry Gonder, freshman from Sheridan, Wyo., takes next honors as a "long-distance student," giving his home as 1400 miles from T. C. U., while Miss June Way, senior, is next, having come around 1100 miles from her home in Canton, Ill.

Miss Hall, whose home is fourteen miles from Portland, Ore., an orphan who wanted to go away to school chose T. C. U. because her brother, A. B. McReynolds, new on the road as evangelist for T. C. U. and a graduate of the university, was then in school here, and believed that the environment at T. C. U. would be good for younger sister, according to Miss Hall. She has remained at T. C. U. for three years, studying voice and working on a Bachelor of Music degree which she expects to receive in June, 1930. She has done evangelistic singing during the summer months and plans to enter that field of work when she graduates from the university.

Mr. Bailey, mature student, decided to come South in order to be able to enter a university without having completed all the necessary high school credits, made possible by a clause in the catalogs of many colleges which admits mature persons as special students to complete their secondary work.

"It was a choice between University of Texas and T. C. U.," says Mr. Bailey, "and since my wife has attended Christian College in Missouri, we picked T. C. U. as the logical school." Mr. Bailey is taking a liberal arts course with plans of finishing his education in order to be able to teach social science subjects.

Mr. Gonder, who is taking a ministerial course, was encouraged to come to T. C. U. by his pastor in Wyoming. "T. C. U. is most favorably known where I came from," says Gonder, "and I had heard that the public speaking department was good, so I

T. C. U. Sends 28 on Science Field Trip

Junior and Senior Geologists Required to Go to Camp Near Davis, Okla.

The fourth spring meeting of the Oklahoma Academy of Science, to which T. C. U. will have a delegation from the science department, will be held May 10-11 at the Baptist Camp, Falls Creek, near Davis, Okla.

This meeting is held annually by the Oklahoma Academy of Science for instructors and advanced students in southwestern colleges and universities. Instructors will be professors from Oklahoma A. & M. and Oklahoma University. C. N. Gould, head of the Oklahoma Geological Survey, will be director of the camp.

The annual trip is required of the juniors and seniors in geology at T. C. U. Because the trip comes so late in the season this year, several biology students are also going.

Each morning and afternoon field trips will be made by different members of the assembly to collect fossils and plants, snakes and insects. Both mornings at 5 o'clock everyone may join in a "bird walk," the object of which is to collect and observe bird specimens.

T. C. U. delegates will leave Friday morning and reach camp about noon the same day. Sunday morning after breakfast they will start home and will arrive in Fort Worth that afternoon.

This is the last one of the senior field trips at T. C. U. The others were the Central Texas Cretaceous and the Pennsylvanian trip.

Those members of the science faculty who are going are: Prof. and Mrs. W. M. Winton, Dr. Frank Carney, Dr. Gayle Scott and Miss Mahon.

Students who are to go are: Charlott Anderson, James Atchison, Catherine Atkinson, Beulah Bates, W. L. Carrell, Anne Coopersmith, Maxwell Cox, Jimmie Grant, Gordon Griffith, Howard Grubbs, Elizabeth Harris, Leo Hendrix, Edwin Hooks, Monroe Jackson, Lucille Jackson, Cecil Morgan, Bud Norman, Ralph Sanders, Pauline Smith, Peter Smith, Maurine Woolwine, Bill McCart, and Lenora May Williams.

Mrs. Cahoon to Return to T.C.U.

Former Voice Teacher Will Again Instruct Here.

Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon will return to T. C. U. next September to take up her former position as teacher of voice. It was announced by President E. M. Waits this week. At present she is in Chicago and is connected with Bush Conservatory there. She is also head of the voice department at Ferrey Hall, a girls' school. In addition to this she has a private class and does concert work.

Mrs. Cahoon was instructor in voice in T. C. U. from 1915 to 1919. She was head of the fine arts department during 1918-19.

Exchange

It has long been the pet theory of the women that, though men might style themselves "the lords of creation," the women have more natural mental ability. The result of the recent survey made by Dean Allen of psychological tests given at Baylor University has thrown a bomb into this fond contention of the so-called weaker sex. According to Dean Allen, women are divided into two classes—those of high mental capacity and those of low mental capacity. There is no intermediate stage, judging by the results of the tests.

Rice Institute and Southern Methodist University are the latest Texas schools to find the honor system unhandy in taking examinations.

Teacher—"Johnny, how many days are there in each month?"
 Johnny—"Thirty days hath September, All the rest I can't remember. The calendar hangs on the wall, Why bother me with it at all?"
 Weatherford College Coyote.

Freshman edition of college newspapers are beginning to make their appearance these days. First-year editions of the Baylor Lariat and the Abilene Optimist are two of the latest. Both of these freshman editions were printed with green ink.

The Crusher, joke edition of The Thresher, was issued April 12 at Rice Institute. It bore the following headline: WAR IS OVER.

"The most homely appearing woman turn out to be the best writers in the newspaper field," said L. W. Bailey, managing editor of the Dallas Dispatch, in a recent address to the S. M. U. press club. According to Bailey, to succeed in journalism, one must not possess a lazy disposition. He said the three elements essential to an interesting present-day news story are love, money and combat.

Baylor University has a new baseball score board. A Waco sporting goods firm asked permission to give the board to the school. The authorities accepted it, but when they saw the large advertisement painted over the score sign, they decided that the gift broke the no-advertising policy of the university. Rather than tear the board down, Baylor bought it from the Waco firm and repainted it to read: "Home of the Baylor Bears."

During the recent student elections at S. M. U., one candidate for 1930 yell leader promised to get a live Mustang colt as a mascot for the athletic teams. That's one way of putting a kick in athletics.

Annabel Hall Wins Euterpean Scholarship

Will Have Chice of Attending One of Five Schools for Musical Study.

Miss Annabel Hall, student assistant in the T. C. U. voice department and director of the Girls' Glee Club, won first place in the scholarship section of the annual Euterpean Club music contest which was held last Saturday night. Miss Hall has the choice of five scholarships, two of which are for schools in Los Angeles, for the coming term. One scholarship is from the Chicago Musical College for next year.

Miss Hall won first place also this year in the Fort Worth district of the Atwater-Kent radio contest.

Bailey Diffie Is Last Student To Attend Madrid U. Classes

Bailey Diffie of Detroit, Texas, a graduate and former instructor in end classes at the University of Madrid, Spain, before it was closed by the Spanish dictator about the middle of March.

The students at the University of Madrid "got all up in the air about something they knew nothing about," writes Diffie. "But in general the strike was due to dissatisfaction among students at recent actions of the government affecting education. The engineering and technical students objected to the order permitting students from the disbanded artillery school at Segovia to enter other universities with full credits and without loss of scholastic standing."

The other students said it was unfair. Law students objected to the government order permitting two Catholic universities run by the Jesuits and Augustinian fathers to issue degrees in law, claiming that the curriculum did not coincide with the state universities.

The strike reached its climax on March 13. On that night milling crowds gathered in the streets of Madrid after a day of rioting by the striking students, during which the police fired into the demonstrators, wounding one student fatally, and several others less seriously.

The dictator put the students in jail by the hordes and ended by closing the university for a year and a half.

"Feature that—in a country which has just begun to emerge from the Dark Ages—they think up the cracks so that nothing in the way of education can possibly seep in for such a length of time! And a few days later, the dictator came out with a decree to the effect that women were incapable of being educated and will henceforth and forever be barred from universities in Spain."

During all of this riot Bailey Diffie continued attending his classes daily in hopes that it would all "blow over." As it did not "blow over" Bailey, in spite of his efforts, will lose his work there. He went to Spain and entered the university in the fall of 1927 and would have received his doctor's degree there this summer. Bailey is specializing in Latin American history and went to Spain to gain a background for that study.

He attended T. C. U. from 1919 to 1921 and then went to Southeastern Oklahoma State Teachers College, at Durant, where he received his A. B. degree in 1924.

He came back to T. C. U. and received his M. A. in 1926 and the following year he was an instructor in the history department at T. C. U.

While in T. C. U. Bailey was a member of the Bryson Club and was yell leader in 1926 and '27.

Native of Ireland Talks on Country

Speaks on Economic Conditions in Free State Before Prof. Elliott's Class.

"It costs about $1,000 a year to go to college in Ireland and $500 to go to high school," said John O'Grady, three months from Balinglass, Ireland, speaking to Prof. Edwin A. Elliott's class in general economics, recently. O'Grady told of educational, social and economic conditions in the Irish Free State.

"There are 26 states in the Irish Free State and six Irish states still under English rule," O'Grady said. "It costs more to get an education in the Irish Free State than in that part of Ireland under England. The Irish college course consists of four years of work. The first three years are for learning and the fourth year is spent in preparing for the final examination."

"Agriculture is the only industry in Ireland," O'Grady said, concerning economic conditions. "Each farmer owns his own land and there are few large landholders, as in America. Few farmers make more than a scant living. Professional men in Ireland are poorly paid. Many doctors make less than $15 a week."

According to O'Grady, when Gene Tunney visited Ireland he met with cool reception. The Irish favored Dempsey because he was the underdog. When O'Grady left Ireland early this year, talking movies were just being introduced in Dublin.

O'Grady plans to make his home in the United States and declared rather emphatically that he would never live in Ireland again. He was introduced to the economics class by Ralph Caldwell, who graduated from T. C. U. last year.

Upperettes at Home to Faculty and Students

The Upperettes held open house Sunday afternoon from 3:30 until 5 o'clock in Jarvis Hall for members of the faculty and all students.

Those in the receiving line were Mrs. Sadie Beckham, Mrs. Gayle Scott, faculty adviser of the Upperettes, and the Upperette officers, who are Misses Maxine Russell, Aleen Scott, Jennie Louise Copeland and Texora Pierce.

The drawing room was decorated in pink roses. Pink and green sherbet was served.

153 Attend Annual Junior-Senior Banquet

One hundred and fifty-three juniors, seniors and faculty members were present at the annual banquet given last Thursday night by the juniors of T. C. U. for the seniors, at Anna Shelton Hall of the Woman's Club.

Stewart Hellman, president of the class of '30, acted as toastmaster.

The banquet tables were arranged to form a "T" and a "U" and the decorations were purple and white pennants, favor programs, table streamers and table flowers.

A four-course dinner was served, during which music was furnished by an orchestra directed by Perry Sandifer. The program was composed of a violin solo by Vess Taylor, accompanied by Miss Roberta Dedmon; dance, Miss Boots Parmeter, accompanied by Miss Adeline Boyd; readings, Miss Jennie V. King; piano solo, Miss Dedmon; vocal numbers, Misses Elizabeth Strayhorn and Elizabeth Hutchison, followed by singing of the Alma Mater Hymn.

Seated at the speakers' table were the following: President E. M. Waits, Dean and Mrs. L. L. Leftwich, Mrs. Sadie Beckham, Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Woolwine, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barker, Prof. and Mrs. John W. Ballard, Dr. and Mrs. John Lord, Stewart Hellman, Miss Vera Turbeville, Fred Erisman and Miss Robbie Lee Polk.

Margaret Roberts Entertains Guests

Miss Margaret Roberts entertained at a dinner in the home economics rooms last Tuesday evening with Mrs. W. P. Lane, Prof. Claude Sammis, Prof. and Mrs. E. R. Tucker, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Glaze and Fred Erisman as guests. Miss Ruth Mahlen acted as maid. The color scheme was red and green.

Music Club Has First Banquet

Miss Helen Boren was toastmaster at the first annual banquet of the T. C. U. Music Club, held Monday evening at the Woman's Club at which members of the club, their friends and members of the faculty were present.

Guests at the banquet attended the annual junior recital of the music department of the School of Fine Arts of T. C. U. which was held following the banquet in Shelton Hall, sponsored by the Music Club.

Those who appeared on the program of the junior recital were Misses Mary Elizabeth Bacon, Edna Gibbard, Maxine Garrett, Allah Reeves and Doris Shaw as pianists, Edith Armstrong, violinist, and Annabel Hall, soprano.

"Outcasts" Choose Officers for '29-'30

"The Outcasts" chose officers for next year at their regular meeting, last Monday at 1 o'clock. The following officers were elected: President, Grace Jennings; vice president, Sidde Joe Johnson; secretary, Thelma Breithaupt; treasurer, Osie Blackwell; press reporter, Josephine Smith.

Mrs. Virgil Garrett, who has completed work on her A. B. degree from Vassar, with the exception of her thesis, which she is working on now, spoke upon the work of the National Association of College Women. This organization recognizes graduates of those colleges and universities which come up to certain requirements of scholarship, an endowment, and certain features of faculty organization. T. C. U. is unable to become a member until it has a dean of women, separate from all other departments. Mrs. Garrett was introduced by Miss Janie Miles Monroe, hostess for the meeting. Miss Osie Blackwell was appointed hostess for the next meeting.

Miss Carter Hostess To Bridge Club

Miss Elizabeth Carter entertained the Tau-Chi Upsilon Bridge Club at her home, 2244 Mistfete Avenue, Saturday afternoon.

In bridge high score was won by Miss Virginia Jameson and the cut prize went to Miss Ruth Ward.

Others present were: Misses Margaret Cook, Virginia Baty, Madelon Flynt, Lillian Turner and Martha Anderson.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Miss Lillian Turner.

Impromptu Program At Goode Hall

An impromptu program featuring Robert Qualls in the reading "Laska," a cowboy love tragedy, was carried out at the open house of Goode Hall last Friday evening. A quartet composed of Wayne Sherley, Lester Brom-below, Ody Thompson and Austin Griffith gave various popular selections. Miss Margaret Clemens also sang popular numbers.

A two-reel comedy, "Her Boy Friend," was the picture of the evening.

Miss Frances Veale sang "Muddy Waters."

Several classical numbers were played by Miss Doris Shaw on the piano.

LaFayette Fall and Fred McConnell served as a committee on preparations for the occasion, and Fall was the master of ceremonies during the evening.

Among the supervisors in attendance were Dean and Mrs. L. L. Leftwich, Mrs. Sadie Beckham, Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Harmon.

The Upperettes will give a guest party on Tuesday, May 7 in Jarvis Hall. Each girl is to invite one town girl to spend the night in the dormitory.

"Los Hidalgos" New Spanish Club Name

"Los Hidalgos" was the name chosen for the Spanish Club Thursday night when the names were presented to the members of the club by Miss Pauline Renwick, chairman of the name committee. The name was chosen at the regular meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in Room 304 in the Administration Building, according to Miss Eula Carter, sponsor.

The hostesses were: Misses Rita Langston, Elberta Sturm, Ruth Mahlen, Helen Dees, Ina Gardener, Virginia Rawlins, Eugenia Baskin, Annie Hodge and Mrs. A. J. Maxey.

The program, which was in charge of the sophomores, was as follows: Piano solo, "Juanita," by Miss Elizabeth Rice; song, "El Rosario," by Miss Vera Bell Stephenson, accompanied by Misses Valeria McLemore, pianist, and Marjorie Miller, violin; talk on Mexico, by Frank Hughes; play, "La Broma," presented by Misses Pauline Renwick and Laura Lee Barclay, Bob Gray and Oscar Hawkins; conversation; piano solo, "Serenata," by Miss Valeria McLemore; round, "Do, Re, Mi, Fa, Sol," by the sophomore members, and a group of songs by the entire membership.

Refreshments of Hershey bars were served to the 50 members who were present. The next meeting will be the second Thursday night in May, with Juniors in charge.

Christian Endeavorers Have Picnic Breakfast

The Christian Endeavor group of the University Christian Church had Sunday morning breakfast in Forest Park. After the breakfast the party joined in a discussion of the Sunday school lesson.

Those who went were: Misses Thelma Reed, Dora Macy, Elizabeth McKissick, Madeline Westbrook, Vera Belle Stephenson, Doris Ward, Marjorie Miller, Virginia Bryson, Evelyn Van Kouren, Messrs. Kenneth Martin, Wendel Schuler, Egils Burns, Wayne Caldrum, Gordon Voight, T. W. Carpenter, Lloyd Motley, Dean and Mrs. L. L. Leftwich and Prof. H. L. Pickrell.

Course Gives 6 Hours Credit and A New Wardrobe

Imagine taking a course and having besides six hours credit and increased knowledge, three or four new dresses, a new pair of pajamas, and a dress or rompers for little sister or brother when you get through.

Well, that is just what happens to the girls taking the first year course in clothing which is labeled in the catalogue as "11. Clothing: Fundamental Principles of Sewing and Elementary Dressmaking."

"The Elementary Dressmaking" has been explained. The "Fundamental Principles of Sewing" are learned in lectures that come once a week and that discuss all the fibers, weaves, spinning machines, looms, sewing machines, how to cut and how not to cut patterns, and how to make one seem slender when one is not exactly slender, or how to make one seem to have a few curves when one is mostly angles.

Miss Charlotte Housel, senior, teaches the course. Her students are: Misses Bessie Albright, Sophia Belle Clark, Sinah Mae Clarkson, Gladys Dowling, Mary Jo Higgs, Maurine Moore, Bernice Kelly, and Mildred Tomlinson.

Fine Arts News

Saturday's radio program over WBAP will be broadcast at 6:30 by Miss Adeline Boyd, pianist; and Miss Annabel Hall, soprano.

Dr. H. D. Guelick is general music chairman of the local committee on Boys' and Girls' Week. The contest for orchestra and choruses will be held tonight at Junior High School auditorium. Claude Sammis is a judge for the orchestra and band contests and Paul T. Klingstedt is a judge for the chorus contests.

On next Friday evening at Central High School auditorium contests will be held for all soloists. The judges for this part of the contests will include Miss Elsie Willis and Mrs. Marie Balch Estes, both of the piano department of the school of fine arts of T. C. U.

The regular Wednesday afternoon recital held in the studio of Dr. Guelick will be given today at 1:30 by the following seniors who will receive their degrees in June: Miss Helen Kent Boren, Miss Adeline Boyd, Miss Ruth Clark and Miss Hazel Yarbrough.

A formal reception and tea was given in the parlor of Jarvis Hall last Sunday afternoon to several members of the faculty, students and residents on University Hill. A musical program was furnished by Misses Annabel Hall, Elizabeth Strayhorn, Mota Mae Shaw, Betty Self, Edith Kelsey, Messrs. William Balch and Thompson Shannon. All are students of Prof. Paul T. Klingstedt, head of the voice department. Miss Adeline Boyd appeared as accompanist for the singers.

Speaks On Christianity

"When our Christian ideals interfere with our good times and when we fear being called queer or prudish, we turn away with the rich young ruler," said Miss Lamar Griffing at Brite Chapel last Wednesday in an interpretation, talk on the picture, "Christ and the Rich Young Ruler," by Johann Hofman. Thompson Shannon played a solo based on "Rock of Ages." Miss Angeline Jones sang "Take My Life and Let It Be."

Student Bemoans Roommate's Fondness for "Blue Heaven"

"If my room-mate could forget 'Blue Heaven' we'd get along fine." That is how one junior girl at T. C. U. answered the question: "What's wrong with your room-mate?"

No matter how well some room-mates get along together, they all have annoying habits which irritate their room sharers. When asked to enumerate their room-mates' faults students here refused to talk until they found no names would be used. Then they told their pet grievances.

"My room-mate snores, and when she brushes her teeth she makes a queer noise," said one Jarvis Hall girl. "Besides reading all my letters, she has no other annoying habits."

Other faults listed by girls against their room-mates were selfishness, carelessness, untidiness, and covering the dresser with boys' photographs.

Another fault is talking about love affairs to uninterested room-mates. "Life with my room-mate is one continual dramatic monolog," said one girl. "I know all her secrets and she wants to know all of mine. And I never have a minute to think when she's in the room."

Boys have their troubles with room-mates also. Wearing room-mates' ties, borrowing clean socks and returning them dirty, and staying up until midnight are among the most common grievances with boys. One Clark Hall boy is a bookworm, to the great disgust of his room-mate.

"My room-mate does an Al Jolson every time he shaves," said one boy. "He makes more noise than a portable phonograph."

Tomahawk, Other Antiques Given T. C. U. Library

An Indian canoe paddle and a tomahawk covered with intricate hand-carved designs are among a collection of antiques recently presented to T. C. U. by William H. Shannon, business man of Fort Worth.

Other objects in the collection are a lock of hair of Uzal Knapp, who was a member of George Washington's bodyguard, and an original copy of the Ulster County Gazette, which gives an account of the funeral of Washington.

The paper is dated Jan. 4, 1800, showing that it is 129 years old. Yet the print is clear and can be easily read. Both the tomahawk and the canoe paddle are more than 120 years old and the tomahawk was used in the Mexican War.

Mr. Shannon read the story a few weeks ago which told of the many curios in the T. C. U. library, and said that although his antiques were wanted at the University of Pennsylvania, he desired to add them to the T. C. U. collection.

Seniors Vote Gates As Class of '29 Gift

Type and Builder Yet to Be Decided—Cost Will Be Approximately $2,000.

Gates at the north of the campus on University Drive will be given by the senior class of '29 as their class gift. This was definitely decided Monday morning in a senior class meeting.

The gates and a student loan fund have been discussed for the past few weeks by the class but the loan fund was eliminated by a vote of 43 to 14. The loan fund was investigated by several students. After talking to various business men and lawyers over the week-end, they found the fund to be impracticable.

As to the type of gates and who will build them, nothing has been definitely decided. It is believed, however, that they can be built for less than $2,000, which will amount to about $10 or $12 for each senior. There are some 190 who will graduate either in June or August.

Brown Breaks Bone in Foot

Sterling Brown, a member of the track squad broke a bone in his foot last week and has been on crutches since the accident. A discus hit his foot while he was running and broke a bone.

Canfield a Visitor

Composer of Alma Mater Song Studying in Chicago.

Glen Canfield, a graduate of T. C. U. who has just completed his first year at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Chicago, returned to his home here at 2519 Carter Street and visited friends on the campus last Wednesday.

Mr. Canfield, who was a ministerial student in T. C. U. until he finished in 1928, wrote the Alma Mater song which T. C. U. now uses.

At the seminary he is majoring in the philosophy of religion. He is the only person from T. C. U. to ever attend this institution.

"The training I received at T. C. U.," said Mr. Canfield, "especially from Professors McDiarmid and Morro, has been of the greatest help to me in the field of theology."

Six Are in Style Show

T. C. U. Students Model for Jack Uberman and at Hotel.

T. C. U. was well represented at the style show which was given Monday night, April 23, at Jack Uberman's Clothing Store, Main Street.

The T. C. U. students who took part in the program were Miss Kathryn Williams, Edwin and John Stewart, Louis Howland, Roy Hutchins and Clyde Robertson.

The models entered the room by twos, each couple making four appearances. After modeling at Uberman's Clothing Store, the style show was presented at the Texas Hotel.

All types of collegiate styles were presented, including T. C. U. blazers, street and sport suits, sweaters and pajamas.

ELECTRICITY

the modern prospector

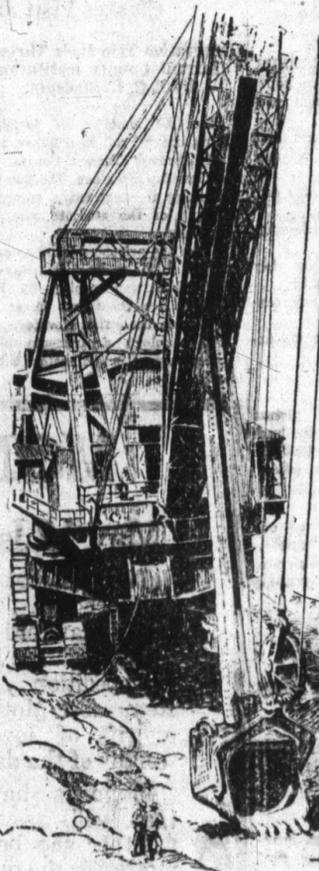

A STOUT heart; a burro laden with pick, shovel, and the bare necessities of life; and the prospector was ready for the gold rush—Sutter's Mill, the Pike's Peak country, Cripple Creek, Klondyke. A scattered trail of half-worked claims marked his sacrifices.

To-day mining is a business, with electricity replacing wasteful brawn in mine and mill.

The deep mine, with electric lights, hoists, and locomotives; the surface mine with huge electric shovels scooping up tons of ore in a single bite; the concentrating mill with its batteries of electrically driven machines; the steel mill with its constant electric heat—here are but a few of electricity's contributions to the mineral industries.

So in every industry, electricity increases production and cuts costs. It is the modern prospector, leading the way into wider fields and tapping undeveloped resources—that we may enjoy a finer civilization and a richer, fuller life.

You will find this monogram on powerful motors that drive heavy mining machinery and on tiny motors that drive sewing machines. Both in industry and in the home it is the mark of an organization that is dedicated to electrical progress.

Frog Flashes

By WADE HAWKINS.
DENTON.—Coach Harve Light's thinly clad showed up better against the Denton Teachers here Saturday than they have before this season. The Eagles have a strong team, too; they beat Simmons University and the Cowboys beat us.

Cy Leland ran the 100-yard dash in his sweat clothes and at that time was 9.8 seconds. He also ran the 220 in his sweat clothes and against a strong wind—the time was 22.9.

Capt. Bud Norman had a good day in the field events, making a total of 18 1/2 points. He took first in the javelin throw and the shot-put, and tied for first in the high jump, and took second in the pole vault and the discus throw.

Joe Ward, track coach of the Austin College, Sherman, team, was starter of the meet. Those who know of him have probably heard that he is a former Texas University athlete and while in school was an outstanding man in football, basket ball, track and baseball. He lettered in football, basket ball and baseball, and when it came to track he threw the discus against Rice in a dual meet and broke the conference record. In other meets he won his share of points and places, yet Coach Clyde Littlefield refused to give him a letter in track, saying that there had never been a four-letter man at Texas and that he thought that Ward should not be awarded his track letter. Therefore there are no four-letter men at Texas University in theory, but according to fact there is one—Joe Ward. He made the letter but it was not awarded to him.

The Frog baseball team is firmly entrenched in fourth place in the conference, following a successful South Texas road trip. Out of the four games played, the Frogs took three of them. Taking one from A. & M. and losing one, and taking a pair of games from Rice.

T. C. U. seems to be Rice's jinx—in football the Frogs won a hard fought game by a score of 7-0; in basket ball the Frogs took two games from the Owls, the score of the first contest was 19-18, the Frogs won in the last 30 seconds to play, and then in baseball the home nine have taken three out of four games from the Houston club.

The buildings and grounds here at the Teachers College are beautiful and attractive. The administration building and auditorium is especially attractive. The other buildings are attractive too.

The College of Industrial Arts and the Teachers College practically make Denton. Other than the two schools there is little to the town.

A. & M. was dropped from the Southwest Conference race Saturday by virtue of a loss to the S. M. U. Mustangs. The Aggies had a chance prior to the fatal contest with the Methodists, but Pitcher Lyle's slants proved too much for the Farmers.

McGuire, Shackelford Win Swimming Honors

Intramural Medals Awarded to First-Place Men, Emblems to Second Place.

The intramural swimming meet was completed last week under the supervision of Prof. Graham Estes. Intramural medals were given the winners of first place and emblems to the second place men. Prof. Estes expects more interest to be shown in this event next year as this is the first year swimming has been on the intramural program.

Norwood McGuire and M. J. Shackelford won high honors of the meet, each winning one first place and two seconds. Shackelford won first in the 20-yard tow and second place in the plunge for distance and the 40-yard backstroke. McGuire won the 40-yard breast stroke and second in the 40 and 20-yard tow events.

The other first places were evenly divided. Norman won the 40-yard tow, Hanover, the plunge for distance, Cassidy, the 100-yard free style, Smart, the 40-yard free style, and Carter, the 40-yard backstroke.

Wroe won second in the 40-yard breast stroke and 100-yard free style events. Cassidy placed second in the 40-yard free style.

Baseball Team Has Total of 72 Runs on 87 Hits

Buckley Leads Hitters for Average of .267 in 12 Games.

CARRELL MAKES 13 RUNS Sain and Flynn Each Walk 8 Times—Latters Makes 4 Sacrifice Hits.

By JAY WILLIAMS.

After 12 games of conference play, during which time they have amassed a total of 72 runs on 87 hits, the Horned Frogs of the diamond have hung up a team batting average of .214.

Leo Buckley, outfielder de luxe, heads the team's sluggers with a .267 average, closely followed by Ed Sain with .263. Buckley also leads in total hits, with 12 chalked up to his credit. Hal Wright comes second in the total hits column with 11. Several have hit safely 10 times.

Howard Carrell leads in runs scored with 13. Flynn leads in sacrifice hits with four, and is tied with Sain in the number of bases on balls, each having eight.

It will be noticed that two players have batting averages that exceed Buckley's, but neither has been at bat enough to warrant his recognition as the leading batter. Chappell is hitting .400 and Cox .300. Both are pitchers.

Composite box score for games up to and including Rice games of April 22 and 23:

A. K. Scott—What's that string around your finger for?
Peggy Kipping—Maxine tied it there to remind me to mail her letter.
A. K.—Did you mail it?
Peggy—No; she forgot to give it to me.

Did you hear about Don Nugent falling BACKWARD for Vera Bell Stephenson the other day?

Louise Lester—Do you know why some people shake a salt shaker and some tap it?
Elizabeth Moore—No, why?
L. Lester—To get the salt out?

Elizabeth Hutchingson—I think musicians are all rather insipid looking, don't you?
Elizabeth Strahorn—Yes, and you are a musician.

Intramural Baseball Starts Early in May

To Be 1 Team From Each Class and 1 Faculty—To Play 5 Games Each.

According to Graham Estes, intramural baseball will start the first week in May. There will be at least one team from each class and one faculty team. Each team will play about five games and the winning team will receive intramural medals. The seniors and freshmen have already organized with Weir McDiarmid manager of the former and Bill George manager of the latter.

Frog Golfers Drop Tilt With Longhorns

Texas Team Plays Sensational Games to Down T. C. U. by 6-to-0 Score.

By W. H.

The T. C. U. golf team lost a spirited contest to the University of Texas team at Austin Saturday. The Texas boys played sensational golf to down the T. C. U. team. Par meant nothing to the Austin team, many of the holes being made under par.

Roberson lost to Burnett by one match, as did Simon to Goodwin. Rogers was defeated by Downing by one point, Garnett lost to Clements by a lone score. In the foursome Simon and Garnett lost to Gordon and Clements, as did Robertson and Rogers to Burnett and Downing. The score of the entire match was 6-0 in favor of the Longhorns.

The next match for the Frog team will be a return match with S. M. U. here Monday, at the River Crest Country Club.

Frosh Lose at Tennis

Central High Defeats First-Year Net Men 5 to 1.

The T. C. U. Freshman tennis team was defeated by the Central High School team here last Friday. The score was 5 to 1. Noel Roberts, captain and No. 1 man, was the only freshman to emerge victorious. He defeated Smith of Central in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4. Connelly of Central defeated Isbell of T. C. U. 6-1, 6-3. Welch of Central defeated Boren of T. C. U. 6-4, 6-3. Alexander of Central defeated Roe of T. C. U. 4-6, 6-4, 7-5.

In doubles Smith and Connelly of Central defeated Roberts and Isbell of T. C. U. 6-2, 7-5. Welch and Alexander of Central won over Boren and Roe of T. C. U., 6-3, 6-3.

50 From Sociology Classes Visit Jail

Observation Trip Made Through Tarrant County Institution by T. C. U. Students.

About 50 members of sociology classes, under Prof. Paul Baker, took a trip through Tarrant County jail last Thursday afternoon. The trip was interesting and instructive, according to many of the students who had never been in a jail before.

One of the prisoners asked some of the girls in the party if this was the group that was coming to Fort Worth to see their first street car and ride on their first elevator.

The sociology departments plans another observation trip before school is out.

Frog Netters 5-to-1 Victors Over Baylor

S. M. U. Comes Here Saturday for Next Match for T. C. U. Tennis Squad.

By W. H.

The Horned Frog net team turned back the Baylor Bears, 5 to 1, on the home courts Saturday. John McDiarmid outsmarted Powers in the No. 1 match and won, 3-6, 6-3, 8-6.

Charles Ewell, playing No. 2, played a steady game of tennis to defeat Guithard, winning in straight sets 6-2, 6-4. Capt. Weir McDiarmid won an easy match in No. 3 position from Pool, by a score of 6-3, 6-1. Guy Fox was the only Frog man to go down in defeat. He lost to Bishop by a count of 63, 3-6, 6-1.

In the doubles, Ewell and J. McDiarmid turned back the strong combination of Powers and Guithard. Fox and Capt. McDiarmid defeated Pool and Bishop.

By defeating the Bears, the Horned Frogs ran their total of conference victories to two in the same week. A. & M. was the other victim, falling before the Frog quartet by a 4-2 count.

Baseball Briefs

By JAY WILLIAMS

Gean Turner and Howard Carroll are the "hard luck" members of the Frog baseball team. Both have been hitting the ball hard all season, only to have opposing infielders and outfielders make sensational catches out of most of their drives.

Gean got mad down at Baylor, yanked at his belt a couple of times, and slammed two of "Fuzzy" Douglas' pitches out of the park. Only one of them counted, however, for the game was called before the inning in which he hit the last one was finished.

Four home runs were hit in that two-game series, all four by right-hand batters and each one cleared the rather short right field wall.

Buckley's homer in the second game enabled the Frogs to win their first conference tilt. Buckley, Sain, Wright and Carroll have been the only consistent hitters for the Frogs to date. Wright has turned out to be one of the fastest center fielders the Frogs have ever had.

He was shortstop on "Hobo" Carson's freshman team last year. Texas A. & M. has an all-sophomore infield. Vernon Pempell, former T. C. U. freshman from Poly Hi is their regular second baseman.

It is rumored that "Lefty" Deuse, former Central Hi athlete, will enter T. C. U. next fall. And Dutch Meyer is surely in need of a good southpaw.

The longest hit of the season so far was made by Frank Higgins, Longhorn outfielder. It came in the

Frog Track Squad Shows Improvement

Last Dual Meet of Season Is Scheduled With S. M. U. at Dallas Saturday.

By WADE HAWKINS.

DENTON.—The Frog track team showed up better in the meet here with the North Texas State Teachers than they have shown in previous meets. The score was 80 1/2 to 50 1/2 in favor of the Eagles.

Even though the Denton team won the meet, the Frogs gave a good account of themselves as well as showing a marked improvement over previous meets.

First places were won by Cy Leland in the 100 and 220-yard dashes; Capt. Bud Norman in the javelin throw and the shot put; he also tied for first in the high jump, and John Hammond in the broad jump. Norman, Isely, Simpson, Nugent and Buck won seconds and thirds in various events.

On the whole the meet was a slow affair as far as time was concerned, the track being exceedingly slow. No records were broken, or even tied.

The Frogs' next and last dual meet of the current season, before the conference meet at S. M. U., will be with the Mustangs in Dallas Saturday.

The Methodists have a strong team, but the Frogs will be counted on to take at least four or five first places, and as many second places.

Capt. Bud Norman was high-point man of the meet, with a total score of 18 1/2 points. He won the javelin throw and the shot put, and tied for first in the high jump, and he took second in the pole vault and the discus throw.

second T. C. U.-Texas game at Austin and cleared the far-away left field fence. Only one other college player has ever duplicated Higgins' feat. "Petsy" Allen, Longhorn catcher of last year, drove one over the same fence last spring.

Ellsworth Chappell and Horace Wallin are running a close race in the matter of writing letters while on baseball trips. Chappell holds a slight edge by reason of a letter to "Catherine" written in Temple, just four hours after the team left Fort Worth for Austin. He and Wallin hunt the postoffice while the rest of the gang hunt a place to eat.

Strawberry short cake and pie a la mode are the most popular dishes with Frog players. Except in Roy Eury's case. Eury begins every meal with post bran and bananas with double cream.

Down at Austin a certain Frog infielder drew the dirtiest laugh of the year by asking a waiter for pie a la mode "with ice cream on it." Yes, he was really serious about it. Sad but true!
