Upperclassmen Welcome Frosh For New Term

Buck, Class Presidents Extend Greeting to New Students.

'COLLEGE IS WORTHWHILE' Curricula, Association Values of Higher Learning Are Pointed Out.

The student body president and the three presidents of the upperclasses at T. C. U. join in extending a welcome to the new freshman class. Stewart Hellman, senior president; Jimmie Miller, junior president, and Wendell Schuler of the sophomore class all had something to say to the new students.

Hugh Buck has written this message of welcome:

"I take this opportunity to express to the incoming members of our student body, freshmen, that it is our desire to make possible the fulfillment of those long time cherished visions of college life. We wish to avert, if possible, such disappointments as sometimes accompany freshmen's entrance into college. In fact, all that need be said, is that all will be well in time.

"You have no doubt already asked the question, 'Is college work harder than the work in high school?' Yes, indeed it is, but in saying this, consideration is given to the fact that you are now more capable of handling difficulties and greater responsibilities. Therefore, having increased in both 'wisdom and stature,' we take for granted that you will find college no more difficult now than high school was when you entered there.

"Promising Year Ahead." "There are two distinct values to be obtained from any institution of higher learning. The value to be acquired from curricula offered, and second, the value received from association. One amounts to nil without the other, in most instances.

"This year shows promise for our best year and we wish each freshman to immediately consider himself a part of T. C. U. Now, as a part of our institution, you have a part to play. Find out what it is and fall in line. We welcome you here with the greatest of joy and hope for you a happiness that you have never expressed before."

"Love Your Alma Mater." "Texas Christian University welcomes with open arms the freshman class of 1929," said Stewart Hellman. "This venerable institution can not help but be inspired to carry on with such an enthusiastic group in its midst.

"The senior class has nothing but good wishes for your future. If we, by grace of being seniors, were allowed to offer advice, we would say: 'Love and honor your Alma Mater.'"

Miller Speaks for Juniors. "T. C. U. has waited about 57 years for these freshmen," said Jimmie Miller of the junior class. "and now all eyes are turned toward them. We juniors are expecting great things of the class of '33 and of every individual. We welcome you to our campus and hope it will become home to you as it has to us. Take your humiliation with a smile. You won't always be a 'frosh.'"

Sophomores Extend Greeting. "In behalf of the class of '32 I wish to extend a cordial welcome to the members of the '33 class," said Wendell Schuler, sophomore president. "We will be constantly on the job to see that the first-year students are getting the right spirit and attitude. Up to the present, the freshman class seems to show signs of being another T. C. U. success."

Town Girls Provided With Lounge Parlor

Re-decorated and Re-furnished Room Is in Basement of Main Building.

Town girls of the university have been provided with a re-decorated lounge room in the basement of the main building. Butler S. Smiser had charge of the undertaking and chose the furniture and draperies. The crew of boys that worked on the campus this summer painted the walls a light green.

The floor is entirely covered with a rose taupe carpet. The draperies are of unglazed chintz in pastel shades. Two large divans and a long table form the central group of the room. Around it are placed numerous chairs, tables and lamps. The upholstery carries out the idea of light shades of green, rose and beige.

The small closet adjoining the room has been fitted up with a lavatory and dressing table.

Civic Leaders to Appear at Chapel

President Waits Plans Special Program For Friday.

Civic leaders of Fort Worth will be presented to the student body of Texas Christian University at the opening chapel exercises of the school at 10 o'clock next Friday morning, according to President E. M. Waits.

Those on the chapel program will include Mayor William Bryce; Jack Holt, secretary of the Association of Commerce; Ellison Harding, president of the Association of Commerce; Amen G. Carter, publisher of the Star-Telegram, and A. P. Barrett, president of the Texas Air Transport. Each of these will say a few words to the student body of T. C. U.

The invocation for the morning will be given by the Rev. L. D. Anderson, pastor of the First Christian Church. President Waits will preside. The T. C. U. Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Claude Sammis, will furnish music. All members of the board of trustees of T. C. U. have been invited to attend the opening chapel service.

T. C. U. Club in Each Town Is Alumni Plan

Groups Organized in 4 Cities; Homecoming Date to Be Set Soon.

The T. C. U. Alumni and Ex-Students' Association is fostering a movement to organize a T. C. U. Club in each town where there are several alumni. The purpose is to continue old friendships and keep in touch with the school. Clubs have already been organized in Amarillo, Abilene, Dallas and Fort Worth.

The Dallas Woman's Club has sent several girls to T. C. U. and will continue to do so. The Fort Worth Club is at present making plans for the annual homecoming. The date has not been set, however. Mrs. H. B. Beckman is president of the Fort Worth Club.

At the last meeting of the Alumni and Ex-Students' Association, June 3, at the University Club, all 1929 graduates were given membership cards for one year. Officers elected at that time are: William Massey, president; Raymond (Rags) Matthews, first vice-president; Mrs. C. C. Jones, second vice-president; Mrs. Beulah Belle Shanks, re-elected secretary-treasurer; Mary Madeline Miller, assistant secretary-treasurer, and Hazel Wales, re-elected acting secretary.

Juniors To Have Meeting Friday

The first meeting of the year of the Junior class will be held on Friday, Sept. 20, immediately after the chapel hour. Jimmie Miller, president of the class, requests all juniors to remain after chapel to discuss plans for the year.

Chorus to Meet Thursday

The University Chorus will begin practice at a meeting in the school auditorium on Thursday of this week.

And Here We Are Again

WELCOME, THRICE WELCOME!

By President E. M. Waits.

The president of the Texas Christian University in the name of our honorable Board of Trustees and distinguished faculty, bids you welcome, thrice welcome to the university campus.

"The university world lies bathed in a purple mist of sentiment, romance and youthful enjoyment." A thousand experiences contribute to the full development of the well rounded life and character of our modern youth. None who have ever entered this Arcadia can ever forget the experience, the visions and dreams, the tumult and the shouting, the overflow of sentiment, yea the disillusionments that may also come into the life of the college student.

You are a part of the great army of three quarters of a million young people who are assembling in our college and university halls for another year. What tremendous energies are involved! What latent potentialities are included in this group. What forces like electricity will be playing around these institutions during the next ten months!

You can not escape the complexities of our modern life and civilization but you can refuse to be crushed by its mechanism. If you take 10,000 men and women at random who have not had the privilege of college education, you will discover only one in 10,000 has risen to distinction. If you take 40 graduates of our colleges, one in 40 will achieve distinction. Will you be lost among the 10,000 or be found among the 40?

We have great faith in you. The present generation of college students is clean, intelligent, interesting and hopeful. It is a great game, this life on the college campus. Today the university calls you to her feet that she may teach you various lessons in many domains of human learning. She would make you free; she calls you to honor, truth and service and to the vision splendid of a more abundant life. Will you hear her voice and give her your heart?

'29 Class Refuses Stone Horned Frog

Misunderstanding Is Reason for Substitution Says Erisman.

"We do not intend to leave anything unsightly on the T. C. U. campus," said Fred Erisman, president of the 1929 senior class. "The class entered into a contract for a solid bronze horned frog but due to several misunderstandings and also due to unsatisfactory workmanship, a stone one was substituted. The frog was refused by the committee and the man who made it tried to remove it from the base. When that was impossible he tore it up. So the class has on hand 8,000 pounds of granite."

Fred left Sunday night for Brown University in Providence, R. I. On the way he will stop off in Chicago and Minneapolis to see eight companies that he has in mind about making the sort of frog that the class desires. If such a frog can not be made, then a replica of the class will have to be taken.

Wade Hawkins, Sidney Latham and Fred Erisman were the committee in charge of the gift.

Buck Announces Rally To Be Held

Pep Meeting Will Be Before Daniel Baker Game.

The first student body meeting of the year will be held in co-ordination with the first big pep rally, to be held a day or so before the game with Daniel Baker, according to Hugh Buck, student body president. The date will be announced later.

Attends Oklahoma College

Miss Elizabeth Walling, a junior here last year and editor of The Skiff humor column, is attending the Oklahoma College for Women at Chickasha, Okla., this year. Miss Walling also attended the summer session here the past summer.

Dallas Begins Work On T.C.U. Yearbook

Horned Frog Staff Will Be Announced Soon—All Contracts Let.

Work on the 1930 Horned Frog, T. C. U. yearbook, has already begun and all contracts signed, according to R. Z. Dallas, editor.

"The theme of the book has been decided upon," said Dallas, "and I will be ready to announce my staff soon." Bryant's Studio will do the photography for this year's annual, and the printing will be done by Stafford-Lowden. The Star-Telegram Engravers have the engraving contract. Bill Rogers is business manager of the Horned Frog.

Senior Meeting Is Announced

Stewart Hellman, president of the senior class, has announced a meeting for next Wednesday morning at the chapel hour in the amphitheatre. Plans for organization will be completed at this time.

Monitors who will check Freshman-Sophomore chapel on Monday and Wednesdays are the following: Dick Bailey, Misses C. G. Brockette, Eula Lee Carter, Hazel Carter, Bessie Ellis, Katherine Moore Patsy McCord, E. Shelburne, Lyde Spragins, Hazel Summers, Ruth Williamson, Elsie Williams, Grace Jones, Jeannette Kinch; Mmes. L. L. Leftwich, Hazel Tucker; L. W. Ramsey, Allen True, Joseph Cowan, B. A. Crouch, Robert Knight and Prof. M. W. Sherer.

Monitors for the Junior-Senior chapel on Fridays are: Prof. Paul G. Baker, Graham Estes, Mrs. A. B. Bryson, Miss Sadie Mahon, Dr. Gayle Scott, Prof. W. J. Hammond, Misses Lorraine Sherley and Lenora Williams.

Credit Is Given For Choral Work

Fine Arts Department Will Direct Work on Cantatas.

Following the plan of the large Eastern colleges, the fine arts department is offering credit for work in the University Chorus. In the past T. C. U. has had many different branches of choral work, but no credit has been given. This year issues in a new plan both in the number of clubs in the music department and in the type of programs to be offered by these clubs. The Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club will unite to form a large choral club.

William Balch, instructor in voice, will be the official director, and Miss Annabel Hall will be his assistant. According to Dr. H. D. Guelick, the plan being followed this year will give the student more experience in the presenting of operas. The heads of the school believe that a greater benefit will be gained by having only one club, since all the work will be under one head.

The first program of importance will be given on Thanksgiving. This program will be followed by a cantata, "The Star of the East," on Christmas. During the spring semester the club will offer "The Seven Words of Christ." This is an Easter cantata written by Dubois.

In May the chorus will work in conjunction with Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy's folk dancing classes. A light opera will be presented in which students of the dancing classes will take part during Music Week. The final program of the school year will be presented at the Commencement Exercises.

Two branches of the club will be organized. These branches include a Male Quartet, directed by Mr. Balch, and a Girls' Quartet, directed by Miss Hall. These two quartets will give several programs in chapel this year.

Band Practice Begins

Indications Promise 50-Piece Organization This Year.

The T. C. U. Band will be one of the largest in the history of the school this year. The first band practice was held in the band room, back of the main building, on Monday. The band will meet every day at 12 o'clock during the school year. Thirty members were present at the first meeting. Only a small number of upperclassmen were present, since few upperclassmen were at school. Present indications show that the band will contain over fifty pieces when this semester gets into full swing.

The plans for the band this year show several trips over the state. The band will be one of four to accompany the good will tour to El Paso this fall.

Professor Sammis is director of the band and Jo Brice Wilmet is bandmaster.

Freshman Week Introduces New Students to T.C.U.

Auto Tour Around Fort Worth for Girls a New Feature.

SPECIAL CHURCH SERVICE

Y.W.C.A. Active in Aiding New Students—Big Sister Plan Also Introduced.

In the early days of Texas Christian University no arrangement was made for the convenience of freshmen. They were just herded in with all classifications. This put the freshmen at a great disadvantage. Because of his timidity he was not as perfectly adjusted as he would have been had there been a certain time set for his matriculation.

Now three days of the fall semester are given over for freshmen. In this time they can become adjusted before the upperclassmen come with their misinformation.

15 Groups This Year.

This year the freshmen were divided into 15 groups, with two members of the faculty and one senior member in charge of the group. A schedule was given to each group and classes were attended. There were trips to the library, in order that the new student might become acquainted with the files, the methods of securing various books, the position of all classes of books and the manner in which they are arranged. Arthur R. Curry gave a talk in an assembly meeting about the library.

Friday was the first day of registration. After the morning routine, a buffet supper was served to the freshmen and friends. Several of the new student body officers were introduced. Hugh Buck, student body president, gave a welcome and warning. Tyler Dean, yell leader, led the group in some cheering.

Saturday afternoon all the freshman girls were the guests of the automobile dealers of Fort Worth. New cars were furnished for a drive over the city. An upperclassman girl was in each car as guide. Saturday evening the Young Women's Christian Association and the Brite College of the Bible Association sponsored a watermelon feast.

Special Church Service

Sunday morning a special church service was held for the freshman, their parents and friends. In the afternoon the Young Women's Christian Association entertained with a tea in Jarvis Hall, and from 2 to 5 o'clock T. C. U. students gave a special program.

Monday morning the freshmen assembled for the last time. Final instructions were given. Yesterday the regular class schedule began.

Many affairs are looming in the future, among them the Freshman Prom and the president's reception. T. C. U. has adopted a plan which is called the big and little sister movement. Every freshman girl is given an upperclassman girl as adviser. When the Prom comes the big sister will fill out the program and keep the girl entertained for the evening.

FIRST SKIFF MAKES ITS BOW.

We, the staff of the 1929-30 Skiff, hereby submit for your perusal, felicitation and approval the first number of volume 28 of The Skiff.

This issue is a special one and is not an index of what the average paper for the year will be. We have several new features to introduce to the student body which will enumerate next week. We want you to feel that this is your paper and that you have an interest in it. It is the desire of the staff that every student on the campus feel privileged to walk into the Skiff Office or the Journalism Office and ask to have a story put into the paper. We want to print the news that you want to read, so don't hesitate to give it to us.

The staff also takes occasion in this issue to welcome the freshman students to Frogland and to greet the old students upon their return. For all of you we wish and predict a successful year.

HERE'S CHALLENGE, FRESHMEN!

When the Horned Frog stellar grid team comes with noble stride upon the sod of old Clark Field for the first time this year on Sept. 28, to greet its foe, the Daniel Baker team, there will be no squad of 50 purple clad pep squad girls to cheer them on to victory. Those in charge of pep squad activities have deemed it wise to dissolve the band for this year. Some will regret the absence of that colorful, cheerful group, while others will be glad to hear that "those faded purple suits will not appear on the field again." The general attitude will probably be one of regret.

There will be no pep squad! Then it behooves each student to appoint himself as a committee of one to serve on a student body pep squad, to support that band of men, coached by Francis Schmidt, which will bring us victory after victory upon the field this year. We owe that to the boys and to our new coach.

The president of our student body, Hugh Buck sanctions another idea. It is customary for the freshmen to wear caps which distinguish them as freshmen. These caps when worn to a football game usually add color to the grandstand crowd. Then, there is the tradition that gives freshmen boys the privilege of carrying from the field our football men at the close of a game. Why shouldn't the freshmen sit in the extreme right section of the grandstand and become an unofficial pep squad, in which the rooting will be concentrated? The boys should be seated in a group to avoid confusion in leaving the stand to carry off the team. The freshmen girls should co-operate with the boys in doing their part.

Freshmen, you could do it! Why not start the year off right and show the rest of us that you have already acquired that good old T. C. U. spirit of loyalty to Alma Mater and team.

At least, think it over, freshmen.

Miss Lucille Gosney, who has entered T. C. U. as a freshman, was an honor graduate from Fort Worth Central High School last June and a student in the T. C. U. summer session. While in high school she was a member of the Penta math club and the recipient of a letter "C" for excellent work in mathematics department.

Miss Helen Fritz is to study in Southern Methodist University, Dallas.

Movement Sponsored by "Y. W." Members This Year.

TOWN GIRLS HAVE PART

Misses Boggess, Knight, Austin, Newsom, Have Charge of Arrangements.

The Y. W. C. A. of T. C. U. has sponsored a movement this year whereby all freshmen girls will be provided with big sisters, according to Sarah Beth Boggess, president of the organization. For many years it has been the custom for dormitory girls to have big sisters to help them over the rough places at the first of the school year, but this year town freshman will have big sisters, too.

The duties of a big sisters are to fill out the freshman's program, see that she understands the rules of the school, see that she attends certain social functions, introduce her to friends and just be as nice to her as possible so that the first of school will be as pleasant as can be.

Miss Mary Jean Knight of Eddy has been in charge of giving out dormitory freshmen. The fifty-six freshmen that are now in the dormitory all have big sisters.

During the summer the town girls held two meetings, one Aug. 2 and another Sept. 2. Letters were sent to 370 town girls to tell them of the project by a committee composed of Misses Marian Smith, Edith Hudson, Bernice Austin and Anna Lewis. Miss Bernice Austin has been in charge of an information table in the hall which was also sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and from which town little sisters have been assigned. Miss Elizabeth Newsom has been in charge of assigning little sisters to the town girls.

The dormitory upper class girls and their little sisters are: Frances Hill, Martha Wade; Elizabeth Ruff, May Housel and Juanita English; Dorothy Pope, Dorothy Collins; Relda Robbins, Mozelle Bryant; Marvylene Bowe, Eulalie Whitefield; Marjorie Scott, Doris Mossheart; Lora Lee Gowdy, La Rue Humphrey; Katherine Goss, Anna Mae Buey; Madeline Westbrook, Leonora

SOCIETY

Hail freshmen! Welcome to the campus of Texas Christian University. Freshmen week has included many functions of a scholastic and also a social nature. This has furnished a brief insight into the life which is typical of our university. The future holds many more affairs which delight the hearts of freshmen.

For freshman girls a new plan has been put into effect on a larger scale. It is called the big and little sister plan. For the benefit of the timid, inexperienced freshman girl a big sister who is an upper-classman is to take charge of her. The duties of the big sister are to familiarize the freshman with the routine through which she must go this year. She is to make her feel at home and welcome among all the students and make her feel that she, too, is a vital part of the school life. She is to help in the social activities especially the freshman prom. In all the big sister is to orientate her little sister.

This column is for the benefit of every student in the university. Use it and make it your very own.

PROM TO BE SEPTEMBER 24

Cabinet Members and Hugh Buck Make Arrangements for Event Saturday.

"The Y. W. C. A. of Texas Christian University has done more this year in assisting the freshmen in freshman week than any other year in the history of the school," said Mrs. Sadie Beckham, supervisor of women.

The "Y" began plans for the year when the upperclass town girls who were interested in the work of this organization and in helping the freshman girls held a meeting in Jarvis Hall Sept. 2 with Miss Sara Beth Boggess, president, in charge.

At this meeting committees were appointed to take charge of different phases of the work. Miss Dorothy Conklin was appointed chairman of a committee to meet all trains and bring the freshmen to the dormitory. The Webb-North Motor Company furnished Miss Boggess with a car and chauffeur to meet these freshmen.

Little Sisters Are Assigned. Miss Bernice Austin was appointed to be in charge of an information desk in the main hall of the administration building to assist freshmen and in assigning town girls their little sisters.

During freshmen week Misses Helen Jenkins, Jean Knight, Sara Beth Boggess and Maxine Russell assisted Mrs. Beckham in Jarvis Hall in adjusting freshmen to dormitory life.

On Thursday, Sept. 19, at 5 o'clock, the "Y" is sponsoring a picnic in Forest Park when the big sisters are entertaining their little sisters. Lunches for the picnic are being purchased through Mrs. Harris, stewardess in the cafeteria. Miss Vera Tuberville is chairman of the picnic committee.

Freshman Prom to Be Sept. 24. The cabinet members of the Y. W. C. A. are assisting Hugh Buck, student body president, with the freshmen prom to be held Sept. 24 at 8 o'clock on the campus.

Miss Helen Jenkins is in charge of the Y. W. C. A. wedding to be held on the campus in front of the honey-suckle arbor Oct. 1, when Mr. Old Girl will be married to Miss New Girl. Members of the wedding party will include both dormitory and town girls.

The first general meeting of the "Y" will be held Oct. 3 in the club room in Brite College. Plans will be made for the year and for a membership drive beginning Oct. 3 and lasting until Oct. 10.

In October at the Jarvis Camp on Lake Worth the Y. W. C. A. retreat will be held. After this interest groups will be formed. These groups will decide their own time of meeting.

"The spirit between the town girls and dormitory girls is better than it has ever been before," said Miss Sara Beth Boggess, "and we appreciate very much the assistance town girls have given us in helping the freshmen throughout freshman week."

Visits Relatives in Ohio

Miss Pope Was President of Dana Press Club.

Miss Phyllis Pope, who received an A. B. degree from T. C. U. last spring and who was in charge of the publicity for the University during the summer, left last week for a visit with relatives in Cleveland, Ohio. She will visit in Canada and make trips to points of interest in the North while there. She expects to be away three weeks.

Upon returning she plans to go into newspaper or advertising work. Miss Pope was president of the Dana Press Club in T. C. U. last year as well as a student assistant in the journalism department.

Dean L. L. Leftwich spent his summer in the University of Chicago completing work on his doctor's degree.

Balch Studies in California

William Balch, who will be an instructor in the voice department this year, spent most of this summer in California studying with John Claire Monteith and Charles Wakefield Cadman. While there he sang in the Huntington Park Methodist Church, the Temple Baptist Church and at the Fox Studios.

Balch had three of his own songs published this summer by the Theodore Presser Publishing Company in Philadelphia. They are "You," "Jenny Kiss Me," and "A Message."

Dr. H. D. Guelick and wife spent their vacation in the East, visiting Wisconsin and Michigan and returning through the Ozarks.

Miss Margareta Ascher, associate professor in German, spent the summer in Germany, France and Spain.

15 New Teachers Join Faculty of T.C.U. for 1929-30

Two Departments—Sociology and Voice—Have New Heads.

CAMPUS IS IMPROVED

Town Girls' Rest Room Added—Dormitories Are Repainted and Redecorated.

Students who did not attend Summer School found T. C. U. changed somewhat when they came back this week for the fall term. Many improvements have been made on the campus and in the buildings, and 15 new teachers have been added to the faculty. Campus gossip has it that T. C. U. has started one of its most successful years.

All dormitory rooms have been repainted and redecorated during the vacation period. All furniture has been revarnished. A town girls' rest room is listed among the improvements, together with improved tennis courts. Even the kitchen and cafeteria have been cleaned and painted.

Two New Department Heads

Among the new professors are two department heads. Miss Helen Fouts Cahoon heads the department of voice and W. C. Smith will head the sociology department.

William Balch has been added to the department of voice. Miss Hazel Carter is a new instructor in public speaking. The department of journalism has been increased by the addition of Joseph B. Cowan. Dr. William J. Hammond has been added to the history department. Samuel W. Hutton is new instructor in New Testament and Worship Ministries.

The department of economics has been increased by the addition of Robert Knight. Clois J. Sanders is acting professor of physics in place of Prof. Newton Gaines, who is on a leave of absence. Miss Patsy McCord is an addition to the department of French. Francis Schmidt is instructor in physical training and new coach. Walter Knox is also a new instructor in physical training.

The mathematics department has been increased by the addition of Miss Elizabeth Shelburne. W. O. Suter is a new addition to the economics department. Miss Ruth Williamson is a new instructor in commerce.

The convocation sermon is scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 22. The annual president's reception will be held at 8 p. m. on Friday, Sept. 27.

Vacation Periods
According to the calendar for the school year, mid-semester examinations close on Nov. 7. The Thank-

Freshman Prom Will Be Tuesday

Cards Are Available at Jarvis Information Desk Today.

The annual freshman prom, which is a general get-together of students, will be held on the campus at 8 o'clock next Tuesday night, according to an announcement by Hugh Buck, student body president.

From cards will be available at the information desk and at Jarvis Hall today. Big Sisters are expected to get prom cards and fill them out for their little sisters.

"There will be some changes this year that we hope will make the prom more interesting to all," Buck said. "First there will be fewer and longer proms. Since the prom is for the purpose of allowing freshmen to make acquaintances, this will give them a better opportunity to do so. It is expected that all freshmen girls will report to their big sisters after each prom. This of course will be over the protest of most of the boys, but remember that by staying out even one prom to make a good looking acquaintance a better and more secure one, you will at the same time lose the friendship of another."

Sandifer's Orchestra will play for the occasion and booths will be arranged to insure easy changes between proms.

giving holiday is scheduled for Nov. 28, and Christmas holidays will extend from Friday, Dec. 20 to Jan. 2. Final examinations for the fall semester will be held from Jan. 24 to 30. Enrollment for the spring semester will be held from Jan. 27 to 30, with classes organizing on Jan. 31.

The Easter vacation period will include April 11, 12, 13 and 14. Mid-semester examinations for the spring term will close April 3.

The commencement season for 1930 will be held from May 31 to June 2. Saturday, May 31, will be Class Day, and the baccalaureate sermon will be preached the following Sunday.

Commencement exercises will be held at 7 p. m. on Monday, June 2. The T. C. U. Ex-Students' reunion is also scheduled for June 2.

Frogs Begin Eighth Training Day Under Schmidt

Two-Hour Drill Daily Since Lift Of Practice Ban

12 Lettermen, 11 Other Last Year Regulars Report.

MORE THAN 40 TURN OUT

14 Meyer Graduates to Try For Varsity—Line Is Weak Spot.

By JAY WILLIAMS

"This year's Frogs are certainly going to be a fighting team and a strong conference contender," says our new head coach, Francis Schmidt.

"We will have a well balanced team with a strong offense and, I hope some defense. The team's only weak point will be in the reserves and with a little added weight, some of the sophs should furnish the needed reserve strength."

Coach Schmidt also said that he expects to see several all-conference berths filled by T. C. U. men.

T. C. U.'s 1929 edition of the famed Fightin' Frogs, under the guidance for the first time of Head Coach Francis A. Schmidt, former Nebraska star and for seven years head coach at the University of Arkansas, today began their eighth day of training in preparation for the opening of the gridiron season against Daniel Baker on Sept. 28.

Since the lifting of the ban on training on Sept. 10, which prohibited Southwest Conference members from beginning official and intensive practice before that date, the Frogs have been run through a two-hour drill session twice daily. Beginning today and continuing on through the long training grind there will only be one workout each day. It will come in the afternoon.

Not in years has a T. C. U. coach been greeted with a peppier or more enthusiastic group of athletes than the squad of 40-odd men who have this year turned out to help make T. C. U. a most serious contender for the coveted Southwest Conference title that so far has eluded all the efforts of the Purple and White.

Included in the list of athletes are 12 lettermen and 11 men who served on the squad last year. The others are graduates from Dutch Myer's freshman team, a large number of whom will be counted heavily on to round out a powerful offense—the thing that Schmidt is stressing in every practice. Chief among these are "Football" Moore, 140-pound midget half, whose brilliant broken field running last fall stamped him as one of the coming sensation of Southwest Conference football; "Grassy" Hinton, 170-pound triple-threat quarterback from Cleburne; Harlow Green, former line-backing fullback of North Side High, and Vance Woolwine, one of the best prospects ever to appear at T. C. U. Woolwine is also a triple-threat man and is a quarterback, though it is likely that he will be used at half.

The other sophomores who are fighting for regular berths are Hubert Dennis, Paul Snow, Hal Wright, backfield men; Ray McCullough, Gordon McMahon, Standard Lambert, Aubrey Elkins, Ralph Ridgway, A. W. Weatherly and Carpenter, linemen.

Football Tickets Are Making Record Sales

Wright Expects All Books to Be Taken by First Game, September 28.

Season football books, good for the five games which the Horned Frogs will play on the local Clark Field, are selling faster this year than they have ever been sold in years past, according to Director of Athletics L. C. Wright, who has charge of the sale.

As yet there has been no actual count on those that have been sold, but Mr. Wright says that he expects all books to be sold by the time the Frogs play their first game against Daniel Baker here on Sept. 28.

Moore, Howard Grubbs and Cy Leland.

The holdover squadmen are Virgil Roberts, Gordon Copeland, Ed Sain, Everett Wells, John Hirstine, Robert George, Aaron Hays, Leo Buckley, Roy Eury and Leo Butler.

Schmidt's biggest problem will be in the line, where such men as Jake Williams, captain and All-Southwest tackle; Ivor Reid, Fain Reynolds and Bob Alexander will have to be replaced. Of these the positions left by Williams and Reynolds will be the hardest to fill. Williams was one of the greatest tackles the conference ever saw, and Matty Bell said of Fain Reynolds: "He is one of the greatest guards I've ever seen, despite the fact that he lacked weight. For his weight he is unquestionably All-American."

However, Schmidt's guard positions are better off than his tackles. Capt. Brumbelow and Phil Handler, both lettermen, will probably be the starting regulars, but will be ably assisted by Lambert, Butler, McMahon, Hays, Ridgway and Weatherly. Brumbelow was mentioned for All-Conference honors last year, and is the equal of any in the conference on offense or defense. Handler, the 210-pound "human tank" of the team, is taking his football seriously for the first time since he entered school, and if he keeps the pace he has set in practice the past week he will be a most valuable asset to Schmidt's style of play.

At the tackle positions only Barr and "Red" Moore are the old men back with Elkins and Everett Wells to support them. If necessary Brumbe-

Adds New Laurels

Charles Ewell Defeats Champs In Waco and Houston.

Charles Ewell No. 2 man on the T. C. U. varsity tennis team, has added a few more laurels to his list this summer.

At Houston he defeated city champion Longcope in the state municipal tournament. In the same tournament at Waco he won over Jerry Sasa, city champion and captain of the Dartmouth team.

Jerald Huff, Dallas city champ, was also downed by Ewell with a score of 6-3, 6-1.

Smith and Ewell went to the finals in the state municipal doubles to be defeated by Huff and Beckenbaugh.

low may be shifted out as a tackle, or possibly Lambert may be converted into a tackle. Barr and Moore form a fine pair of tackles, but they will need help during the rough ten-game schedule that lies ahead.

At the ends Schmidt has three lettermen, Robertson, Walker and Baxter, all of whom will be much-improved wingmen. They are finding plenty of needed competition in McCullough, Eury, Buckley and Carpenter. Othol Martin, who last year won his letter at end in the first conference game at A. & M., has been converted into a guard and reserve center.

Noble Adkins, 200-pound sensation of last year, will again be back at center. Hirstine and George, last year's reserves, and Martin, are also bidding for the pivot position.

Howard Grubbs, outstanding quarterback of the conference last year, and winner of the Dan Rogers Trophy as the most valuable Frog player, is certain to run the team at quarter again. Sain, Hinton, Copeland and Woolwine are experienced at calling signals and will see some action at that post as well as at the halfback positions. Other halves are Leland, "Football" Moore, Snow, Dennis and Wright.

For the fullback position Schmidt has Griffith, Virgil Roberts, Hammond and Green. Of these Griffith is the only letterman, although Roberts, former John Tarlton flash, would undoubtedly have lettered had he not broken his ankle early in the season. He has fully recovered from the in-

Frog Flashes

The time for the "sport of all sports" has come again. Once more seven Southwest Conference teams are preparing for a war on the southwestern front, and Saturday week the big push will begin—each of the seven teams will dig in for the ten weeks siege on the emblem of Southwestern gridiron supremacy. Six of the seven are going to be disappointed.

This fall finds four conference members with new men at their helm, and finds the conference beginning a most promising season of football, with any one of the teams as potentially strong as its sister members. At Rice we find Jack Meagher replacing Rothberg as head coach of a team that will be very much in the running. Down at the Aggie school we find Matty Bell, who led our own athletes for six years, filling the vacancy left by Dana X. Bible now coach at Nebraska. At Arkansas Fred Thomsen has stepped up from the position of assistant to fill Francis Schmidt's shoes.

The fourth change is one that is the most vital to us, and the one in which are the most interested. It finds Francis Schmidt, exponent of smashing, offensive football and the "mirajury and is again "ready."

The above array of backfield material is perhaps the most promising that a Horned Frog coach has ever been confronted with, and is the ideal type for the Schmidt style of play. What it lacks in sheer weight and "beef" is more than made up in speed, power and in the ability of almost every man to punt and pass.

Officers of W.A.A. to Hold First Meeting

The officers of the Woman's Athletic Association will meet for the first time this year tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the home of its sponsor, Mrs. Helen Murphy, at 2825 Farmer Street.

Plans for the year will be discussed and an outing for freshmen pledges to be held at Jarvis Camp on Lake Worth will be made, according to Pauline Barnes, president.

cle man" of basket ball, here at T. C. U. He comes to us from Arkansas to fill the place left open when Matty Bell departed to A. & M., and we feel that T. C. U. is more than lucky to get him.

So to Coach Francis Schmidt, and to his capable assistant, T. C. U.'s own Bear Wolf, this column extends in behalf of the sports department of The Skiff, its heartiest and sincerest welcome and its best wishes for the athletic championships which so far have been denied our school.

We feel certain that T. C. U. student, alumni, and fans over the Southwest are proud of our new coaching staff; and we feel that all concerned are going to do their bit to help make Schmidt and Wolf feel that they are welcome and that the whole school is behind them in their efforts to produce winners on Clark Field and on our basket ball courts. Students, if you haven't yet had the pleasure of meeting Coach Schmidt, don't delay any longer. Go down to the gym, introduce yourself shake his hand, and tell him that he is welcome and that you are behind him. And freshmen, those of you who are not acquainted with "Bear" Wolf, and who do not know what he has done for and what he means to T. C. U., go see him. It will mean quite a lot to you, and it will greatly encourage "Bear."

Here's Winfield Killam, University of Texas, all set for a hop between classes. His extra hours for flying come from doing his school work quickly and easily via Parker Duofold.

Elliot, Colman, Louisiana State University, feels fortified against adverse flying conditions when in his Command-air plane. Likewise, he feels fortified against the stiffest exams when he grasps his trusty Parker Duofold Pen.

Here are Bill Banker, Tulane's All-American "Dead End" player, and his brother, Tulane's former captain of University of Texas' football team—all set for a hop in a Command-air plane. When it comes to speedy writing, both are Parker Duofold fellows.

To prove Parker Duofold is a pen of lifelong perfection, we offer to make good any defect, provided complete pen is sent by the owner direct to the factory with 10c for return postage and insurance.

Christened "Parker Duofold" by Amelia Earhart, the first trans-Atlantic woman flyer, this 5-Passenger Fairchild monoplane has, in the past 9 months, given flights to 6,200 Parker dealers and college students. This fall it will continue its tour among the colleges of America.

Now numbers of colleges have their flying clubs and landing fields—but the thing that students like best to pilot through their studies is the light-flying Parker Duofold Pen that leaps to its work like a dart and writes with Pressureless Touch.

Pressureless Touch is Geo. S. Parker's 47th Improvement, combining capillary attraction with gravity feed.

A census of pens in 13 technical schools disclosed that Parker leads in popularity 2 to 1. It was voted the favorite by students in 55 colleges. And a nation-wide poll conducted by the Library Bureau proved Parker the preference by 25% above the second pen, and 48% above the third.

Introducing Captain Lester Brumbelow, 190-pound guard from Jacksboro, who will lead the Fighting Frogs this fall in their march toward the Southwest Conference football championship. There are few players and fans the conference over who do not well remember the smashing line play of our own number "44." The "Fightin' Irishman," who last year was given honorable mention for All-Southwest guard, is one of the most popular and most inspiring leaders ever to head the Purple; and fans this year will see him at his best. This is Brumbelow's final year.

Dramatists Will Meet

New President to Be Elected Monday Night at 7 o'Clock.

The Dramatic Club will hold its first meeting on next Monday night at 7 o'clock in Room 304 of the Main Building. A new president will be elected, as Lloyd Armstrong, president-elect for the coming year, will not be in school this fall.

A committee will be appointed to study and make plans for plays that will be given during the year. Several workshop plays will be presented this year for the club's entertainment.

The club intends to present at least one major production a semester.

An announcement concerning the freshman-sophomore play contest will be made in the near future. Anyone interested in dramatics will get in touch with Miss Hazel Carter, sponsor, or Laurence Coulter, vice-president.

Purple Football Squad Spends Summer at Hard, Hard Labor

Life has been no bed of roses for the majority of the members of this year's Purple squad of football men who scattered out over Texas and the surrounding states after school was out in June, in pursuit of the kind of work that toughens and harden the muscles.

Such work as laying pipe lines, building rigs, climbing telephone poles, laying pavement and bridge-gang and "sniping" on railroads has claimed its share of the men who will this fall make another bid for Southwest Conference honors on the gridiron.

Lester Brumbelow, the Frogs' fightin' Irish captain, kept that football complexion by wrestling 20-inch gas mains down near Bowie. Another pipe liner during the summer was "Skeet" Copeland.

"Grassy" Hinton, Standard Lambert and Leo Butler slept in work train bunks on sidings and worked with bridge gangs. Hinton was in Kansas, Lambert traveled over a division on the Santa Fe and Butler was with the Bell Company.

"Red" Moore, tackle from Graham, and Carpenter, from Waco, served their time laying and climbing telephone poles, while Noble Atkins, regular center from Crystal Falls, spent the vacation months working with a railroad section gang.

Othol Martin, center and guard from Jacksboro, and Ray McCullough, end from Bryan, have been building rigs in the oil fields.

Buster Walker, end from Cleburne; Howard Grubbs, quarter from Kemp, and Ed Sain, quarter from Granbury, have been working and playing baseball in West Texas oil fields. Leo Buckley, end from Holland, and Paul Snow, halfback from Willsboro, have been playing baseball in their home town.

Austin Griffith, fullback from Oak Cliff, has been working on the high line down below San Antonio. Virgil Roberts, fullback from Stephenville, has been working on a paving job. Harlos Green, fullback from North Side High, has kept in shape by sling-ing cases of milk for Boswell dairies.

Vance Woolwine, quarter from North Side, has been working for a building contractor; John Hirstine, center from North Side, worked for Armour Packing Co.; Aaron Hays, guard from Fort Worth, spent the summer on a sheep ranch, and Hal Wright, half from Poly, has worked in a freight office.

"Buck" Barry, powerful tackle from Kaufman, is the only member who has employed the "Grange method" of toting ice. He has worked in Fort Worth. Clyde Roberson, end from Duke, Okla., has been playing baseball in the city leagues here and working for the traction company.

Howard Baxter, end from Dallas, was a truck driver; Aubrey Elkins, tackle from Waco, worked with a surveying party, and Everett Wells, tackle from San Saba, spent the summer working on the campus.

Cy Leland spent most of the summer in track meets in Chicago and Denver, returning and working at school. Roy Eury, end from Poly, did electric welding in the city; A. D. Weatherly worked in the harvest fields, and Ralph Ridgway spent the summer traveling in New York.

Robert George, center from Van Alstyne, and Hubert Dennis, halfback from Memphis, attended summer school at T. C. U.
