

THE SKIFF

Read The Skiff Story

(Page 2)

Read The Skiff Story

(Page 2)

T. C. U. Boys Will Go to League of Nations Assembly

Brown, Peeples, Rogers to Represent Haiti At Conference.

MEET TO BE AT S. M. U. 20 Institutions to Take Part in Model Geneva Session

Sterling Brown, Homer Peeples, and Bill Rogers will represent Haiti at the miniature League of Nations conference...

Actual Problems To Be Topic Following the procedure of the Geneva sessions, actual problems confronting the League of Nations will be topics for discussion...

Invitations have been extended to presidents of the leading colleges and universities of the country...

British Delegates Withdraw Dr. John Lord appointed Hugh Buck, Stewart Hellman, and William Rogers to represent Great Britain...

Prof. Gayle Scott Goes to Convention

To Read Paper on "Ammonites of Caddo Creek" at New Orleans.

Prof. Gayle Scott of the biology and geology department, is leaving tonight by train for New Orleans where he will spend three days at the convention of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and Society of Economic Paleontologists and Mineralogists.

He will read a paper entitled "Ammonites of Caddo Creek" before the paleontological section of the meeting.

Dean Breece Guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leftwich

Dean George E. Breece, Dean of Cotner University, Lincoln, Neb., is the guest of Dean and Mrs. L. L. Leftwich this week.

C. C. Paxton Will Give Annual

C. C. Paxton of the Paxton Printing Company located at 1302 Throckmorton has one copy of the 1928 T. C. U. Horned Frog. Mr. Paxton will give this annual to anyone who will want it.

Kid Goat Band Mascot Introduced in Chapel

Bill Rogers presented the band members with a kid goat at the meeting of the Monday chapel group. "Samuel," as the goat is called in honor of the band director, Professor Sammis, sucked contentedly on Bill's finger as the presentation speech was made and seemed quite at home here at T. C. U.

"S. J. J.'s" Write Short Stories in Sunday Editions

Two T. C. U. students, who were enrolled in Dr. Herbert L. Hughes' short story course last term, are authors of short stories, which were published in recent issues of the Star-Telegram Sunday Feature Section.

Miss Jarrott's story, "Sisters Out of Law," published under the pen-name of "K. Bard," appeared in the March 2 issue of the Star-Telegram.

Henry McLellan, special art student in the University, is drawing the illustrations for all of the Sunday Star-Telegram short stories.

Play Cast Will Leave March 27

T. C. U. Group Entered in Arkansas Black Friar Contest.

The members of the cast of characters of the one-act play "The Sponger," to be presented at the Black Friar contest at the University of Arkansas, will leave here March 27 and will drive through to Fayetteville, Ark. The contests will be held March 28-29.

The play has a cast of five characters including Albert McCleery, Clayton McCutcheon, Misses Josephine Patterson, Betty Berry and Lee Hubert. Lawrence Coulter is business manager of the play and the members of the faculty of the public speaking department, Prof. Lew D. Farris, Misses Katherine Moore and Hazel Carter are the directors.

Skiff Prize Goes To Miss Johnson

Alpha Zeta Pi Story Wins First Place This Week.

Miss Ruth Johnson is again the winner of the weekly $2 prize offered by The Skiff for the best piece of copy submitted by a non-journalism student. Miss Johnson wrote an account of an Alpha Zeta Pi meeting.

The contest will continue until the close of school. Copy must not exceed 300 words and must be turned in by Saturday noon to count in the contest for the issue of The Skiff appearing the following Wednesday.

Delta chapter of Alpha Zeta Pi, honorary romance language fraternity, had a French program at its meeting last Wednesday night.

A short business meeting was presided over by the president, Lowell Bodiford, Miss Helen Heath, chairman of the program committee, then introduced Mrs. Roy H. Gough, who has just returned from Paris, where she attended Sorbonne, a part of the University of Paris, with Miss Mary Virginia Colgan.

Dr. Combs, keeping the interest of his hearers by his witticisms and tales of adventure, gave word pictures of his travels on a bicycle through the beautiful chateaux country on the Loire River in France.

Miss Beta Mae Hall directed the singing of some French songs.

T. C. U. Girls' Circle to Attend Group Meeting

The University Christian Church Girls' Circle will take part in a meeting to be held at the Magnolia Christian Church the last week-end in March. Representatives from the Girls' Circles of Dallas, Fort Worth, Mineral Wells and other cities and towns of this district will make-up this meeting.

Miss Beta Mae Hall is president of the University Church Circle.

Dr. Smith Talks at S. M. U. Dr. William C. Smith, head of the sociology department, visited S. M. U., Monday, where he talked to three sociology classes on "The Ecology of the City of Honolulu."

Walter Harrison Is Speaker For Press Congress

Is Leader of American Society of Newspaper Editors.

APRIL 4-5 DATE OF MEET Foster, Mayborn, Simmons, Harben, and Others to Speak on Journalism.

Walter M. Harrison, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, will be one of the principal speakers at the annual meeting of the Southwestern Journalism Congress at T. C. U., April 4 and 5.

Other speakers will include Marcellus E. Foster, editor of the Houston Press, on "The Newspaper of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow"; Ward Mayborn, publisher the Temple Telegram, on "Our changing World and Its Newspapers"; Sam P. Harben, Dallas, secretary Texas Press Association, on "Opportunities in the Country Field"; Prof. George E. Simmons, head Department of Journalism, Tulane University, New Orleans, on "What's Right With the Tabloids?" and some 20 other prominent Southwestern newspaper men and women and journalism educators.

Morning, afternoon and evening sessions will be held two days, Friday and Saturday, April 4 and 5, at T. C. U. Meeting jointly with the congress will be the Southwestern Student Press Club.

C. W. Gilkey To Speak March 26

Next Lecturer Is Dean of Chicago University Chapel.

Dr. C. W. Gilkey, dean of the University of Chicago Chapel, and Dr. A. C. Pillsbury, nationally known naturalist, are the two remaining speakers of the T. C. U. lecture series, according to Prof. C. R. Shearer, head of the committee.

Dr. Gilkey's address, "Jesus and Our Generation," will be given in the T. C. U. auditorium on March 26. The address of Dr. Pillsbury will be illustrated with films taken by the director of the subject of the lecture being "Miracles in Nature."

Dr. Gilkey has served as university preacher at many of the men and women's colleges in the East, and has given lectures at nearly all of the state universities of the central and farther west.

He has received the honorary degree of D.D. from Williams and Hillsdale in 1925; Yale in 1927; Brown in 1928; and Harvard in 1929.

Voight, Frog Photographer, Tells About Experiences With Freak Hat

His real name is Gordon Voight, but most students know the 1930 Horned Frog photographer by the name of "Billy Frank." Voight acquired that name last season while making action pictures at football games.

Voight took pictures of every football game played by T. C. U. last year except the one against Texas Tech. He wore his freak hat to every contest, but does not attribute T. C. U.'s winning the Southwest Conference championship to that fact.

Pen Sketch of Fighting Frogs' Stadium

The new stadium that will rise in the near future will be one of the most complete structures of its kind. The dotted lines represent the part that will be constructed as the need for greater seating capacity grows. The stadium will seat approximately 60,000 when completed. The open end will face the south.

Freshman Revue Date Is Changed

Minstrel and All-Girl Acts Scheduled for Show, March 25.

The date of the Freshman Musical Revue has been changed from March 18 to March 25. The revue, featuring songs, dances, jokes and specialty numbers, will be held in the T. C. U. auditorium at 8:15 p. m. Miss Hazel Carter and Newsome Gay are the directors of the show.

The first act will be a negro minstrel with Bill George, president of the freshman class, as interlocutor. Joe Short, Leslie Shultz, Wiltz Kirklin, Delbert Sharbutt, Leonard Ducaze, Jerry Blount will be some of the black-face actors in the first act.

Miss Dorothy Chancy has charge of the girls' orchestra which will entertain in the second act of the show. Misses Mary Bowers and Vivian Peterson will give a clog dance as a special number. Other girls in the all-girl act will be Misses Rowena Doas, Marian Tyson, Edna Sewell and others.

Mrs. E. R. Tucker Recovering

Mrs. Hazel Tucker, psychology instructor, who underwent an operation last week at Harris Clinic-Hospital, is getting along nicely. Registrar E. R. Tucker said Monday.

Scout Classes Meet

Local Council, T. C. U., Sponsors of Leadership Course. First classes in "The University of the Unusual," sponsored by the Fort Worth area council of the Boy Scouts of America, in co-operation with T. C. U., were held Monday night at the University. Dean Colby D. Hall is a member of the training committee of the Fort Worth council.

Two courses in Boy Scout leadership are being offered each Monday night until May 12. These are "Elements of Scoutmastership" and "Principles of Scoutmastership." The local Boy Scout council and T. C. U. are offering these courses primarily for the benefit of institutions, such as churches, parent-teachers' associations and service clubs, having boys to train.

Freshmen Hold Debate

English Students Discuss Abolishment of Final Exams. "Resolved, that final semester examinations should be abolished," was the question of the debate held Friday morning between Miss Mabel Major's freshman English students and a group of freshmen from Miss Rebecca Smith's classes.

The victorious debaters were Delbert Sharbutt, John Scott, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Alexander. Homer Peeples, Marion Hicks and Miss Doris Sellers composed Miss Smith's team. Judges were Dr. Herbert L. Hughes, Dr. William J. Hammond and Hugh Buck.

Pres. Waits Visits Two Conventions in Chicago

President E. M. Waits is in Chicago this week, where he is attending a convention with officials of more than 20 other liberal-art colleges. The convention met for the purpose of discussing the problem of financing colleges offering four years of work. While in Chicago, President Waits will also visit the convention of the North Central Association of Colleges, which is in session there now.

Students Tell How They Would Spend Last 24 Hours of Life

If you had only twenty-four hours to live, what would you do? This is a hard question to answer, but several T. C. U. students attempted to answer it. "I'd go home to mother," said Miss Mota Maye Shaw. "I'd spend all my money," Jack Belzner said. "I think I would commit suicide," answered Weir McDiarmid.

Scout Classes Meet

Local Council, T. C. U., Sponsors of Leadership Course.

First classes in "The University of the Unusual," sponsored by the Fort Worth area council of the Boy Scouts of America, in co-operation with T. C. U., were held Monday night at the University.

Freshmen Hold Debate

English Students Discuss Abolishment of Final Exams.

"Resolved, that final semester examinations should be abolished," was the question of the debate held Friday morning between Miss Mabel Major's freshman English students and a group of freshmen from Miss Rebecca Smith's classes.

Pres. Waits Visits Two Conventions in Chicago

President E. M. Waits is in Chicago this week, where he is attending a convention with officials of more than 20 other liberal-art colleges.

Students Tell How They Would Spend Last 24 Hours of Life

"I'd see one more movie and read a good detective mystery," Jo Brice Wilmet said. "I would reconcile myself with my fellow man," is the way Lee Emory answered the question. "You would be surprised," laughed Miss Margaret Winter. "I think I would deliver an oration," Sterling Brown said.

Scout Classes Meet

Local Council, T. C. U., Sponsors of Leadership Course.

First classes in "The University of the Unusual," sponsored by the Fort Worth area council of the Boy Scouts of America, in co-operation with T. C. U., were held Monday night at the University.

Freshmen Hold Debate

English Students Discuss Abolishment of Final Exams.

"Resolved, that final semester examinations should be abolished," was the question of the debate held Friday morning between Miss Mabel Major's freshman English students and a group of freshmen from Miss Rebecca Smith's classes.

Pres. Waits Visits Two Conventions in Chicago

President E. M. Waits is in Chicago this week, where he is attending a convention with officials of more than 20 other liberal-art colleges.

Los Hidalgos to Give Progressive Dinner March 20

To Celebrate First Anniversary in Homes of Members.

GAMES WILL BE PLAYED

Favors to Be Given—Hostesses Will Be Misses Rice, Ellis, Conkling, Morrill. Los Hidalgos will celebrate its first anniversary with a progressive dinner Thursday night from 7 to 9 o'clock. Games and the courses of the dinner will be in the homes of Misses Elizabeth Rice, Dorothy Conkling, Phyllis and Betty Morrill.

Organized in March, 1929. Los Hidalgos was organized in March, 1929, under the direction of Miss Eula Lee Carter.

The purpose of the club is not primarily social, but it is to promote an interest in Spanish. According to Miss Carter, from the first meeting the task of the club has been one of direction of interest, rather than its creation, for it was discovered there already existed a desire to understand the speech and thought of the countrymen of Columbus and Quixote.

The membership is limited to fifty and the members are chosen from the Spanish classes. The club meets the first and third Thursday of each month and is entertained by a program by the members.

Plans Are Made for Year. The plans for the year are: banquet, March 20; motion picture show, on Easter customs of Spain, April 3; all "C" program at the clubroom, April 17, and the final meeting and picnic at Lake Worth in May.

The officers of the club are: Kenneth Martin, president; Miss Phyllis Ellis, vice president; Miss Ruth Burman, secretary; Miss Frances Carmichael, treasurer; Miss Vera Bell Stephenson, chairman of the program committee; Miss Frances Hill, chairman of the social committee; Miss Elizabeth Huchingson, pianist; Miss Edith Armstrong, orchestra director; Miss Annettee Leatherman, song director; Bob Gray, publicity manager; Miss Eula Lee Carter, faculty sponsor.

Members Are Listed. The members of Los Hidalgos are: Misses Alene Allen, Edith Armstrong, Eugenia Baskin, Ruth Burman, Frances Carmichael, Phyllis Ellis, Zilpha Haskins, Frances Hill, Clotilda Houle, Marian Howrey, Lena Agnes Johnson.

Annette Leatherman, Valerie McLamore, Marjorie Miller, Elizabeth Rice, Frances Scher, Vera Bell Stephenson, Mildred Woodlee, Marshalee Stowe, Virginia Baty, Elizabeth Huchingson, Thelma Lawrence, Geneva Coleman, Dorothy Conkling, Angelina Dubbs, Madelon Flynt, Laura Fretwell, Janet Largent, Maurice McClinton, Betty Morrill, Bennie Sue Ratliff, Mildred Rhodes.

Stewart Hellman Has New Class Ring Order

Another order of T. C. U. senior class rings arrived March 12. Those who received rings in this shipment are: Misses Opal Gooden, Eleanor Mastry, Lois DeWees, Aline English, Mildred Rhodes, Frances Hill, Vera Bell Stephenson, and Evangeline Farmer; J. L. Thompson, Frank Hughes and Clemons Sterling.

Music Club to Meet Today

The Music Club will meet this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Room 301, according to Miss Mary Elizabeth Bacon, vice-president of the organization.

Miss Cardona's Father Is Dead. Miss Provita Cardona, who is here attending T. C. U., was notified by cablegram last week, of the death of her father, Juan P. Cardona in Ponce, Porto Rico.

T. C. U. Discovers Her Absent-Minded-Prof.

The combination of "absent-minded-professor" and son-in-law was too much for Prof. C. B. Sherer the other day and a prolonged visit by his mother-in-law resulted! Prof. Sherer was entrusted with the usual job for husbands of taking the baggage of Mrs. Walker, his wife's mother, to the station. The trip to town was made without incident, farewells were said, and Mrs. Walker was safely put on the train. As the train was pulling out a sharp exclamation from Prof. Sherer revealed the fact that the luggage was securely arranged and ready for delivery—at home! A hurried trip back to the station, a "lecture" from the other part of the house, and a delayed trip were the results.

THE SKIFF

Entered as second-class mailing matter at the postoffice in Fort Worth, Texas.

|                       |                          |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|
| PAULINE BARNES        | Editor                   |
| SAMUEL FRANKRICH      | Business Manager         |
| Jay Williams          | Managing Editor          |
| Cy Leland             | Sports Editor            |
| Clarence Marshall     | Literary Editor          |
| Leora Bennett         | Society Editor           |
| Virginia Lou Saunders | Assistant Society Editor |
| Maxine Russell        | Features Editor          |
| Elizabeth Newsom      | Features Editor          |
| Marjorie Lee Robison  | Club Editor              |
| Laurence Coulter      | Cartoonist               |

EDITORIAL STAFF:

Margaret Thorne, Raymond Copeland, Mildred True, Peggy Kipping, Richard Long, Jack Belzner, Madelon Flynn, Elbert Haling, Jo Pearl Weatherby and John Lowther.

Maxine Russell Issue Editor

WHY MAKE CONFETTI OUT OF SKIFFS?

Look at our halls or classrooms any Wednesday about 11:30 a. m., and note the large number of Skiffs scattered around, like so much trash.

Overlooking the slight on The Skiff, any paper thrown around promiscuously causes an unsightly appearance. A stranger, say from S. M. U. or some other sister institution, would have a poor, if not worse, opinion of T. C. U. if he visited here on Wednesday morning after the distribution of The Skiff. And why not?

Since no better method of distribution has been devised, it is necessary to place The Skiffs in the hall of the main building. You who revel in better literature grab them, read them, and in haste to get to other business, throw them on the floor. If a lighted match were thrown on the floor at this moment, T. C. U. would suffer a sure and rapid demise.

When you have read The Skiff, fold it up and put it in your book or pocket, file it away with your other treasures, or take it home to the kiddies, but please resist the temptation to throw it on the floor.

Even a university must keep up appearances.

Headlines and Bylines

BY CLARENCE MARSHALL

FREDERICK THE GREAT, by Margaret Goldsmith; Charles Boni Paper Books Company, New York.

From a delicate flute-playing youth one day to an overbearing military king the next is the transition made by Frederick the Great of Prussia, and explained by Margaret Goldsmith in her biography of him.

Miss Goldsmith, who understands political affairs in general and the German mind in particular, spent some time at an important post in the Berlin embassy. While there she had access to all documents pertaining to Frederick, so that her book may be taken as authentic. Her journalistic training on the New York Evening Post has given her style that is simple and dramatic. Sinclair Lewis has written a short article on Miss Goldsmith which is included in this volume.

Miss Goldsmith follows the modern trend in portraying historical heroes as they really were, not as the ages have glorified them. She does not hedge when she is telling of Frederick's father's numerous mistresses. Nor does she fail to mention Frederick's amorous adventures at the court of Augustus. Only at this period of Frederick's adolescence was he ever in his whole life interested in women.

Frederick's true nature shows him to have been a lover of books, music and a quiet life with his learned friends. Miss Goldsmith touches on his friendship with Voltaire, but she does not accord it the importance that other biographers have.

One feels sorry for Frederick because of his ill-treatment as a child when he was forced to live strictly by the stern Prussian rule. His father continually thwarted his son's longing for intellectual expression, and it was only through a kind tutor that he read any books outside his lessons. After a cruel beating by the king, Frederick resolved to run away. His one friend, Katte, was to help him. But a letter from Frederick to Katte fell into the king's hands and Frederick was forced to watch his friend's execution. From then on the Frederick that the world knew was not the real Frederick but a deceitful creature who even fawned upon his hated father. To gain his father's approval he pretended to have affairs with women.

The remainder of Frederick's life seems to have this quotation from one of his letters behind it, "One must love nothing too much." His ruthlessness in his Silesian wars and in the Seven Years' War will bear this out. Frederick himself says that his life was the result of a frightful childhood. Miss Goldsmith has succeeded in explaining his acts to us, in addition to narrating the "inside" details of his life. After reading this book one does not fear the man whose only ambition was to earn the title of "The Great;" one pities him.

—ELIZABETH NEWSOM.

Wharf-Side Cafe.

Against the low-pitched crying on the shore

Of beating waves and rain, against the dim

Without and heavy slamming of the door

And scraping heel and clattering cups within.

The chords of a guitar strum ceaselessly.

As ceaselessly her thin brown body bends

And away with each new note . . .

This is the sea;

This is the ribald song that never ends.

And always through the heavy, smoke-dimmed light

Slow eyes move with the dance, till again

The creaking of the door lets in the night

And weary intonation of the rain. . .

Night after night the dancer and the gloom

And strange brown sailors filling the brown, strange room.

—Lena Agness Johnson.

At the Majestic.

"Hallelujah," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production now running at the Majestic, is a striking photoplay, but is at times slow moving.

Sensitively directed by King Vidor and spontaneously acted by the all-negro cast, this epic of the negro was selected as one of the six best photoplays of October, the month it was released.

The two stars, Nina Mae McKinney and David L. Haynes are excellent, and the Dixie Jubilee Singers are another feature of the picture that is unusual.

The entire vaudeville is unusually good, especially the headliners—the Lovejoy Dancers.

—Arlene Grant.

Fort Worth Poultry & Egg Company

LISTEN IN
 Grantland Rice - Famous Sports Champions - Coca-Cola Orchestra - Wednesday 10:30 to 11 p. m. E. S. T. - Coast to Coast NBC Network

Oh! Professor

By Arthur and Cathryn Hackett

"Let's have a drink first," suggested Jane—"a cigarette please, Peter."

"Professor Hurst, do you really think that this theme should be marked down just because it is four hours late? Truthfully I did intend to bring it to class, but I—uh—forgot it."

Prof. Peter Llewellyn Hurst shifted uncomfortably. His mind was in a turmoil. He knew quite well that Jacques had not written that theme until after class. In fact, he knew that she had not written it at all, because he had heard her ask his one star pupil to write it for her as they were leaving class. Besides, if there was anything that he detested, it was the way pretty girls talked the faculty members—especially the older, bald-headed ones—into good grades.

This was his first year to teach and he felt that he was sufficiently hardened to resist the wiles of the cleverest of them—but he had overlooked the prettiest.

His office was unusually pleasant. The windows were open, a warm spring sun was shining in and the perennial old maid who is a tradition in all good English departments, had placed a low green bowl of peach blossoms on his desk. Perhaps it was because he had eaten a good lunch, perhaps because of the peach blossoms, or it might have even been Jacques's appealing eyes. At any rate, he astonished himself by saying, "Thank you, Miss Carlton, I understand how it is when one is carrying a stiff course. Only last year I was a student myself, but for my Master's Degree, you know."

"Yes, Professor Hurst, and I appreciate it so much. I mean, I really do." And she was gone.

Books were not for him—the remainder of that afternoon, so he slammed on his hat and left, feeling oddly excited about something. He thought he would go see Jane. There was usually a crowd at her apartment for tea.

This afternoon Jane was alone. Her black and wine colored apartment that had always pleased him, somehow felt oppressive today. Jane's highly intelligent conversation seemed too wise and cynical.

Peter shook himself mentally. Was he crazy? He felt no desire to kiss Jane. Besides, kissing Jane was too much of an intellectual affair. One kissed between discussions of the Einstein theory, as it were.

After an hour with Jane and a number of cocktails, Peter felt more like himself. He knew that next time Jacques would not be successful and he was determined to flunk her if he could conscientiously do so.

Peter found that his dislike of Jacques increased with each meeting of the class. She irritated him in every possible way. She was late to class and absent from tests—and crowning insult—she went to sleep in class!

"Miss Carlton, you may leave the class. If you care to explain your conduct, you may talk to me when you are awake."

Students of English 24-B spent the rest of the hour speculating on the outcome of that interview. Several went so far as to bet cokes on Jacques.

Peter was disturbed. He dismissed class and went to lunch. But lunch tasted flat, so he went to his office to meditate upon the devious way of the co-ed.

Finally, he fell asleep, with his feet propped up on his desk, and one shoe awakened by a tickling sensation in his foot. Had someone had the unlimited nerve to tickle him? Peter's

COYOTERS' INN.

ND we want to know if the juries were made up of umpires this winter, because of so many rotten decisions. It's a good thing that no ball players were tried for murder. Many of the umpires have been going to college this winter. Probably to study the methods used by the sophomores on the freshmen.

When you are telling a joke, and the fellow begins to grin, don't flatter yourself. He's probably thought up one to tell you.

One thing that can be said about the talkies is that it certainly has old ideas to be so young.

Another affliction that our friends won't tell us about is swellhead.

Recently an ad appeared in the paper advertising furniture. The main heading offered—A DINING ROOM SET. Probably advertising radios.

Correct this sentence: "I had rather eat in the cafeteria than at home," said one of the college students.

In this day and time a boy thinks more of where he is going to spend dignity was injured. And there stood Jacques, composed, not even smiling, but a dangerously devilish glint in her eyes.

"Pardon me, Professor Hurst. I wouldn't disturb your slumber for anything—go right on. I'll come back later. I know how it is when one is out late the night before."

Hang that girl—she would catch me like this, thought Hurst. Now what can I say? If I am nice, she will think I feel guilty and am trying to buy her silence. If I am brusque, she'll think I'm unfair. But why should I care what she thinks? If she does at all!

"Miss Carlton, I merely wished to tell you that your grade in my course is exceedingly low. You have shirked this term and you know it. You belong to the type of girl who thinks nothing of developing her intellect. Your brain is so taken up with those petty boys here that you can't be expected to spend any time on such drivel as school work."

Isn't he adorable? thought Jacques. When he gets mad like that, who could help but love him? I think he's ever so much nicer than Hugh or any of the boys. When we are married, I shall love to have little spats with him. But she said, "Just let me tell you something, Professor Hurst. You seem to think that you are endowed with powers that make you difficult to understand. Quite the contrary, dear professor. You are anything but an enigma to me. I know that you like red ties, Ruth Chatterton, gin fizzes, and H. L. Mencken. I know that you dislike anything collegiate but at the same time you follow college fashions. You think you're a good teacher, but without a doubt, you are the worst I've ever had or ever hope to have. As for passing your course—I'm sorry I ever heard of it or you. Good-bye!"

(To Be Continued.)

his nights than of his last days. A kiss at the end of a wedding ceremony is like two boxers shaking hands before the battle begins.

Bridge: Four women sitting around a table talking.

It is reported that girls have started to sew again. They had to do something with their hands now that skirts are so much longer that they don't have to fool with them.

Style leaders say that men know little or nothing about women's clothes. From observation, he seems to know all that there is to know.

The old saying "like sixty," has come to pass since grandpa has started to try to outrun the motorcycle cops.

SCHENECKER PRODUCE CO.

Mexico

Let's open our eyes to our opportunities next door

MEXICO is one of the greatest storehouses of undeveloped natural resources on the face of the earth. In addition to that it is a land of charm for the tourist. The people not only are as hospitable and courteous as any—their hospitality and courtesy is developed against a background of 400 years of Caucasian civilization and culture.

Basic soundness of Mexican institutions has been demonstrated in the remarkable way our Sister Republic has survived turmoil and trouble since 1910. There is no visible evidence today in any quarter of the years of strife. On the other hand, wherever one goes, there will be found happy, prosperous, contented, aggressive, patriotic, home-loving and God-fearing men and women who welcome the stranger within their gates.

Mexicans realize they need and must have outside assistance in their development. They are prepared to welcome and reward such assistance in every legitimate way, and the citizens of our country visiting Mexico will be repaid in many ways.

Few realize how easily and comfortably, quickly and economically a visit to Mexico can be accomplished. Excellent train service, that compares favorably with that throughout the United States, enables anyone now to visit Mexico City, for instance, on through trains from St. Louis in less time that it takes to go from St. Louis to Los Angeles.

Mexican railroads are marvels of engineering efficiency and their equipment and service compare favorably with any in the United States.

Recognizing all these things, the Missouri Pacific Lines, in addition to endeavoring to help develop the territory directly served by these properties, also acknowledges a responsibility to assist in every possible way in the proper development of our great Sister Republic of the South.

Any Missouri Pacific Man will gladly provide anyone interested with any and as much additional information as may be desired.

I solicit your co-operation and assistance.

MISSOURI PACIFIC LINES

"A Service Institution"

There's a Silver Lining

in the Pause that refreshes

So many unhappy things can happen to increase that old inferiority complex. Deans and Doctors, Mid-years and Finals, all dedicated to the cause of making life a burden. Coca-Cola was made for times like these. Here's a drink that will quickly invest you with some of its life and sparkle. Give you exceeding joy in its tingling, delicious taste. And leave you with that cool after-sense of refreshment in which a righteous megalomania may wax fat and prosper.

Drink Coca-Cola
 Delicious and Refreshing

LISTEN IN
 Grantland Rice - Famous Sports Champions - Coca-Cola Orchestra - Wednesday 10:30 to 11 p. m. E. S. T. - Coast to Coast NBC Network

The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga.

9 MILLION A DAY—IT HAD TO BE GOOD TO GET WHERE IT IS

SOCIETY

Los Hidaigos of Texas Christian University will celebrate its second anniversary on Thursday at 7 p. m. The celebration will be in the form of a dinner at the Magic Tea Room.

The regular meeting of the Timothy Club will be at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the chapel of Brite College.

Miss Sue Rehbock Married March 5

Miss Sue Rehbock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Rehbock, of Denver, Colo., was married Wednesday, March 5, in Denver, to Clarence Welch, Mrs. Welch, who attended T. C. U. in 1926-27, was a major in music.

Miss Lowry Gives Formal Dinner

Miss Ruth Lowry entertained with a five-course dinner Thursday evening in the dining room of the home economics department.

The list of guests included Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Sherer, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ballard, Miss Sadie Mahon, L. W. Ramsey, and Robert Knight.

Mrs. Bryson Gives Outcasts Supper

Mrs. Artemesia Bryson entertained the Outcast Club with a buffet supper at her home on Princeton Street Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Those present were: Misses Thelma Brethaupt, Geneva Coleman, Phyllis Ellis, Douthitt Norman, Francis Caldwell, Leta Luyster, Lois Gray, Ina Bramblett, Virginia Bryson, and Harriet Griffin.

Music Department Will Give Recital

The department of music of the School of Fine Arts, under the direction of Dr. H. D. Guelick will present a recital next Monday night.

The following students will take part: Misses Wilma Simmons, Dierdre Dyche, Charlemagne Ross, Pauline Rogers, Frances Jones, Rita Mae Hart, Dorothy Gossett, Dorothy Reitor, Hazel Yarbrough, Doris Dulany, Mozelle Bryant, Juanita Baskin, Hortenz Baker, Hester Leavell, Marvylene Bowe, Angeline Jones, Josephine Collins, Marian Tyson.

Repertoire Class To Meet Friday

The repertoire class of the voice department will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon's studio.

Not only are voice students expected at these meetings but all parents and friends are welcome, said Mrs. Cahoon. "Advanced students as well as beginners appear on these programs."

Six New Girls Make Jarvis Reservations

Six new students have turned in their reservations to Mrs. Sadie Beckham, dean of women, for rooms in Jarvis Hall next fall.

Among the new girls who have made their reservations are Miss Jonelle Bush of McKinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bush, who were both students of T. C. U. when the school was located in Waco.

Miss Jennie Marie Wilson of McKinney, editor of the Lion Roar, the high school publication, will also be a new student in the fall.

Other new students who have made reservations in Jarvis Hall are Miss Laura Bell Hill of Ennis, sister of Miss Frances Hill, student of T. C. U.; Lillie Botts of Houston; Betty Lee Ligon of Dallas, and Dorothy Rogers, niece of Dan Rogers.

Miss Mary Grace Cheatham visited at her home in Palestine last week-end.

Miss Frances Hutchins went to Dallas the past week-end and attended the basketball game between T. C. U. and S. M. U.

Austin Griffith spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Dorothy Darby visited in Troup last week-end.

Miss Jewell Hammond has been visiting at the home of Miss Elva Jane Flicker, 2831 Princeton, during the absence of her parents.

Miss Valerie McLamore has returned from Shreveport where she attended the funeral of her uncle.

Miss Blanche Hall was ill on Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Eds and Coeds Say 22 Is Ideal Age to Marry, 'With Exceptions'

What is the ideal age for a girl to marry? When asked this question, the eds and co-eds on the campus had varied opinions.

"I think a girl should marry when she falls in love," was the naive opinion of one ed. "But if selecting a certain age give me the 18-year-old girl for my wife."

"I think a girl should never marry until she feels capable of supporting her husband," said a clairvoyant co-ed, "and I don't think 25 is a day too old."

"If a girl does not go to college, I think she should travel, or do something to broaden herself before she marries," said another girl, "but taking everything into consideration I believe 22 is the ideal age for a girl to marry."

"I believe 21 is the ideal age," said another co-ed.

"The height of absurdness to marry before coming to college," said another girl. "Just suppose after marrying one would meet a cute college boy, and find that one was only fascinated with one's husband."

"Oh goodness," wailed another co-ed, "I don't know about the ideal age to marry, but I think a girl should be separated from her fiancé a long time before marrying him."

When asked why she thought this, she replied: "So she can long for him!"

"I believe 22 is the right age for a girl to marry," answered an ed when asked. "Of course there are exceptions," he added as an afterthought.

"A girl does not have sense enough to know what she is doing to marry before she is 24, and 25 is not too old," said another co-ed.

"When a girl meets a man that she thinks can take care of her, I believe she should marry him," said a boy, "but about 22 is the ideal age."

"I think 22 is the ideal age, too," said another boy.

"It depends on the individual," said another, "anywhere from 15 to 40 suits me."

When asked, others agreed that 22 years old is about the right age to marry, however, most of them added, "but of course, there are always exceptions!"

SNOOPY SUE

Ho hum! Snoopy would know that spring is here without even looking at the calendar, because there are so many new couples on the campus.

Among those more in evidence are Al Flynn and Hildegard Haynes, and Frances Hutchins and "Boss" Clark.

And even Lillie Mae Dinkins has a new admirer. She says that he is a secret one, and he surprised her with a six-pound box of candy! Snoopy thinks she would have added a name to that box.

Spring affects everyone; Rustie Veale can hardly wait to go to old English class now. And have you noticed Clyde Robertson? Snoopy has. He has a smile from ear to ear, and he and Louise seem to be going marvelously again. Why, it's spring!

But spring has not affected one person. Girlie Dane continues to say that she is only a good friend to Don Stegall, but Snoopy thinks that they must be very good friends because they are together so much. Ho hum!

And even Mrs. Beckham is ringing the bell every evening. This is a sure sign of spring. Ho hum!

Spring too, has brought practice teaching to those who are taking "Education 41." Mildred Meggs said that she had all the dumb ones to teach. Seventy, in fact. Snoopy offers sympathy, Mildred.

Snoopy almost forgot to mention Lillian Eylers and "Whataman" Hinton. It seems as though there are prospects for another spring romance on the campus. And Packards are excellent substitutes for "it."

Spring has even affected Cy LeLand's heart. He is driving Packards exclusively now. Ho hum! Snoopy's taking spring fever. 'em back to Cy, let's draw a moral.

Moral: Spring makes 'em all flop sooner or later! Ho hum!

Chorus Will Entertain Dallas Soloists to Be in Palm Sunday Vesper Services.

The Choral Club Easter program is scheduled for 4:30 Palm Sunday afternoon, April 13, according to Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, head of the voice department.

The chorus will assist the Rev. A. Preston Grey, University Church pastor, with this vesper service program which will take the place of the evening services.

Travis Johnson of Dallas, a pupil of Mrs. Cahoon's, and Mrs. Lora Coston Bridges, also of Dallas, will give solos. The program will open with the chorus singing "The Heavens Are Telling" from "The Creation," by Haydn. Mrs. Cahoon will be assisted by the chorus in "Inflammatus" from Stabat Mater, by Rossini. The chorus will also do "Listen to the Lambs," by Dett. Miss Annabel Hall will sing also.

Press Club Will Meet

Miss Clara Manning who attended Louisiana State University last semester has entered T. C. U.

Miss Lucy Mae Merritt had as her guest for the week-end, her sister from De Leon.

Miss Berbanette Jackson had as her guest for the week-end, Miss Marguerite Walker of Stamford.

Miss Elizabeth Holman of Dallas visited the campus last Wednesday as the guest of Marrene Britton.

Miss Doris Shaw is ill at her home in Memphis.

Miss Thelma Brethaupt had as her guests last week-end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brethaupt of Mexico.

Miss Harriet Griffin had as her guest-last week her mother, Mrs. M. C. Griffin of Aledo.

Harkey Gibbons Thornton, a student in Oklahoma A. & M., Stillwater, visited with William Joekel and attended the Fat Stock Show last week.

Prof. J. Willard Ridings, president of the Southwestern Journalism Congress, will disclose the plans for the Congress tonight at 7:30 at the meeting of the Dana Press Club in the journalism office.

Miss Pauline Barnes, president of the Southwestern Student Press Club, will give the plans of the student organization.

All members are invited to hear the plans of the Congress which will convene at T. C. U. on April 4 and 5.

Harkey Gibbons Thornton, a student in Oklahoma A. & M., Stillwater, visited with William Joekel and attended the Fat Stock Show last week.

Personals

Miss Gladys Wilkinson spent the week-end in Dallas with her family.

Misses Frances Anderson and Nell Russell visited Miss Marjorie Scott in Ennis last week-end.

Miss Mary Childress underwent an operation for appendicitis Thursday at the San Angelo Hospital.

Miss Lesbia Ward went to Dallas Tuesday evening to attend the opera, "Lucia di Lammermoor."

Miss Frances Carmichael of Jarvis Hall, who has been suffering from the effects of an appendix operation, was taken to Cook's Memorial Hospital Friday morning.

Mrs. Lucille Richhart of the art department will be in charge of the current exhibit of Texas Artists, Tuesday evening at the Fat Stock Show.

Miss Hildagard Haynes spent Sunday in Wichita Falls visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Bennett.

Prof. and Mrs. J. Willard Ridings attended the opera, "Tannhauser," in Dallas Thursday night.

Miss Dixie Weatherby of Dallas was the guest of Miss Julia Maxwell of Jarvis Hall last week-end.

Mrs. Ethel Lansdale and Miss Lura Ward of Oakwood are visiting Miss Jacque Lansdale.

Miss Ann Shotwell spent last week-end at her home in Lufkin.

Miss Clara Manning who attended Louisiana State University last semester has entered T. C. U.

Miss Lucy Mae Merritt had as her guest for the week-end, her sister from De Leon.

Miss Berbanette Jackson had as her guest for the week-end, Miss Marguerite Walker of Stamford.

Miss Elizabeth Holman of Dallas visited the campus last Wednesday as the guest of Marrene Britton.

Miss Doris Shaw is ill at her home in Memphis.

Miss Thelma Brethaupt had as her guests last week-end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brethaupt of Mexico.

Miss Harriet Griffin had as her guest-last week her mother, Mrs. M. C. Griffin of Aledo.

502-04 Houston St. STEWART'S 502-04 Houston St.

A Wealth of Style Detail Is Embodied in This Timely Event! Fashions Galore—Superb Models!

NEW Spring Frocks

Chiffons!
Crepes!
Flowered Nets!
Buckles!
Pleats!
Frills!

$15

Pastel Shades!
Attractive Prints
Charming Fashions

Certainly—there is reason for enthusiasm ... for it isn't often that fashion-right frocks so fine ... so lovely ... are available at a mere $15.

Predominating Fashions

SPRING SUITS

Cape Effects ... High Ties ...
Ripple Tail Coats

COATS

$15

The Cape Coat, high tie waist line, Fashion's latest models!
New Spring Colors.
Sizes: 12 to 40

$25

You will need a Suit this spring to prove that you are "in the know" about fashion! These suits are made of basket weaves ... covert ... twills ... and tweeds! All the newest shades!

Sale for the T. C. U. Girls!

Every Item at a Special Price

With Easter just around the corner, and all that it implies in the way of new accessories ... with toiletrie supplies running low, perhaps ... these things that you need can be bought for lower prices at Stripling's for One Week Only. And some of the little things you have been wanting are now priced low enough that you can easily afford to own them. Ask for these special prices.

One Week Only!

One Week Only!

Check the Toiletries You Need

- $2 Denny Cleansing Cream.....$1.50
- $1 Denny Cleansing Cream.....75c
- $1 Coty's Perfume.....69c
- 65c Pond's Cold Cream.....39c
- 50c Pond's Cleansing Tissue.....3 for $1
- All 35c Cutex Preparations.....24c
- 25c Mavis Talcum Powder.....2 for 25c
- 35c Djer Kiss Talcum Powder.....19c
- 50c Nadinola Cream.....29c
- 50c Luxor Face Powder and Soap.....3 for $1

Djer Kiss Perfume
First Time at This Price

$1.19 oz.

A delicate, enchanting fragrance—Djer Kiss, a time honored inimitable favorite. Imported from France. Offered at this low price for the first time through special arrangement with the manufacturer.

Little Things That Determine Smartness

Of Interest to W. A. A. Girls
New Slip Over Sweaters

$2.69

Were exceptional values at $2.95.

W. A. A. Girls! Did you know you could buy a gay new sweater to complete your hiking, tennis, skating or golf costume at a very special price for One Week Only? Every new style is included, crew necks, V-necks, jaunty collars, novelty weaves, stripes, solid or combination colors. We have been complimented on them at $2.95. At $2.69 they are "bargains." Sizes 34 to 42. One Week Only.

Stripling's Second Floor

answering the demands for a garment to wear under the molded-line frocks

Silhouette Slips

$2.69

Worth even more than the original $2.95

Understudying the new silhouette for spring means that slips must change their lines, too. Whether you prefer yours tailored or daintily laced trimmed, it is to be found in this comprehensive collection priced special for this short period.

A large selection of all sizes and colors, including the charming pastels, of course. Embroidery touches, hemstitching, lace. Ask for the special prices.
Second Floor.

this suit will attract favorable attention at the smartest of pajama parties

Silk Pajamas
2-Piece Tuck-ins
Special

$3.95

Regularly Priced $4.95

A durable spun silk fashions these "newest of the new" pajamas. The blouse is a boyish tuck-in affair with trousers that are jauntily cut wide at the bottoms. Clever little pockets on the trousers, bows, and solid facings trim colorful prints and polka dot patterns.

Some with solid trousers, others all print. Washable, in all kinds of lovely colors. And at no other time can you buy them at a reduction of $1 except for One Week Only. Ask for the special price.

Stripling's Second Floor.

W. & C. Stripling Co

3-Strand Pearls $1.00

A beautiful quality of French pearls in the latest popular triple strand style. Now marked $1.25, special $1.

A triple strand pearl and crystal combination, $1.95 value. special $1.50

Slip On Gloves $1.50

Regularly $1.75, of finest Imperial cloth chamoisette, new length, with one pearl button. Over seamed or pique sewn. Washable. In colors of Arab, doe skin, light beige or white.

$2.95 Hand Bags $2.50

Light weight, soft leathers, tapes, silk bags and other fabrics. Every spring color and black. Choice of all our $2.95 purses at this price.

$2 Chiffon Hose $1.75

Choice of any $2 silk chiffon hose, including all our standard brands (whose names we are not permitted to mention). Full fashioned, all spring shades.
Main Floor.

SPORT WAVES

By CY LELAND

CONSIDERING everything, the Southwestern Exposition meet was run off remarkably well last Saturday. The original plans were to hold the meet at Louis J. Wortham field, but due to the condition of the track out here, R. D. Evans decided to shift the scene to the T. C. U. stadium. He has had a standing offer for several years to make use of the Horned Frog plant, but this is the first time that he has taken advantage of it.

Work on the T. C. U. track was not being pushed until Wednesday. At 2 o'clock on the afternoon of that day, Coach Schmidt, who had been appointed chief referee of the meet, learned that it was to be held out there. Thirty minutes later he was on the field with a corps of workers, sometimes giving orders but most of the time wielding a pick or shovel himself. He is that way. He believes that the best way to get a thing done is to do it yourself, and he certainly had the track and pits in better shape than they have ever been before. Two new pits were made—one for vaulting and the other for broad jumping. Due to the rain the runway for the latter could not be used, and this is one thing that kept the broad jumpers on the field until after 6:30 o'clock.

If there had been no rain the night before the meet, it is safe to say that it would have been run off on schedule, which would have been the first time in its history. It is no discredit to the officials that an event of this kind is delayed. It is a difficult problem to keep an ordinary college meet functioning smoothly, but when hundreds of juniors, colleges and high school boys are participating, it is next to impossible to run things on time.

Take Howard Grubb's word for it. He was assisting the starting clerk "read-up" the boys for the start of each race. In the high school category, which had close to a hundred entrants, his troubles were greatest. "I would get three boys in a certain heat together, but when I came back with the other four in that heat, the first three would be gone," he said, after it was all over Saturday.

T. C. U. officials hope that the Recreation Department of Fort Worth will decide to hold the Exposition Meet annually in our stadium. With all due credit to Wortham Field, we are much better equipped to conduct a meet of this kind out here. There is a larger seating capacity and the track itself is much better. If the new stadium includes a track (and I think it will be a big mistake if it does not) it will have a 220-yard straight-away which will be the only one of its kind out here. The holding of this meet at T. C. U. every year would mean much to the school. There certainly would be some good results from the annual visits of four or five hundred high school athletes to our campus.

The baseball field every afternoon is the scene of many wisecracks and witticisms. Not that Dutch will stand for any great amount of horse-play, but the boys know just how far they can go. One of the boys, who has a nickname that is an anagram for impulsive, pulled a good one during a practice game the other day. He was at bat and a certain left-handed first baseman was the runner on first. This runner seemed to be taking a particularly long lead and twice was almost caught off the bag. The batter, evidently exasperated by the pitcher's throws to first, lowered his bat and called to the runner. "Just sit down out there. Horse and I'll knock the rind off of you in a minute." True to his word, although he is not noted for his fence-busting habits, he lined the next ball to right field and advanced the runner.

Leo Buckley has disclosed a remarkable formula for those aspiring to become good baseball players. He says that it is very simple. All you have to be is a good fielder, a sure hitter, and run the bases like Ty Cobb and the result is a big league contract. The formula, as Graham Estes would work it out, would look something like this: TC plus BR plus KC equals LD. The legend is TC-Ty Cobb, BR-Babe Ruth, KC-Kiki Cuyler, The LD stands for Lotsa Dough.

Prof. S. P. Ziegler Will Talk to Brushes Club

Prof. S. P. Ziegler will be the principal speaker Friday evening at the meeting of the Brushes at the home of Miss Vera Turbeville, 1600 Westmoreland Place.

Clubs Must Close Calendars

All organizations and classes that are planning activities for the remainder of the semester must turn in their schedules to Mrs. Sadie Beckham this week.

Leland Defeats Bracey Twice in Featured Dashes

Frog Star Shows Heels to "Dixie Flyer" in Two Sprints.

AGGIE TEAM IS WINNER "Flying Frog" Ties World Mark in Centruy—Sets Meet Record in 220.

By JAY WILLIAMS.

Fears that a rough season on the gridiron had served to encumber the speed of Cy Leland, T. C. U.'s contribution to the world's speed kings, were quelled beyond all doubt Saturday afternoon during the running of the eighth annual Southwestern Exposition Track and Field Meet at T. C. U. Stadium. Leland electrified the 2,000 spectators with two marvelous exhibitions in which he led to the tape Claude Bracey, Rice's "Dixie Flyer," in both the 100 and the 220-yard dashes.

On the cinder track which encircles the turf which he helped make famous by his brilliant ball-carrying in the 1929 football campaign, the Flying Frog tied the recognized world's record for the century with a 9.6 performance to come back shortly afterward to set a meet record in the furlong by being clocked at 21.5 seconds, leading the flying Bracey by a full three yards.

Leland Leads To Finish

Bracey and Leland won their respective heats in the morning preliminaries on a track made heavy by rains of Friday night. Both were timed at 10 seconds in the century. The track, though not in perfect condition, was much faster when time for the finals arrived Saturday afternoon. In the 100, Leland got away to a beautiful start and led to the finish, though Bracey was closing in fast as the tape and was trailing a scant two feet at the finish line. It was the most spectacular event of the entire meet, and Leland's exhibition in tying the world's record is made even more brilliant by the fact that the track was not in perfect condition and the runners bucked a slight breeze which was blowing from the south.

In the 220, Leland showed a marked superiority by running away from the Rice speed merchant entirely. Starting on the turn on the northeast side of the stadium, Leland and Bracey ran abreast for the first 50 yards or so, but the former gradually forged to the front and was leading some 10 feet at the finish. Emmons, Texas Aggie, was third in the 220, with Don Nugent, Leland's running mate, finishing fourth. Leland's victory over Bracey in the century was the first of his career, though he won over the Dixie Flyer in the 220 last year in the conference meet.

Other Brilliant Performances

Although the Leland-Bracey feud was the outstanding attraction of the meet, there were a number of brilliant performances in the other university, college, junior college and high school events. A number of new records were set in both the track and field events. The Texas Aggies carried off team honors in the university division with 46 points, followed by Baylor with 23½, Rice with 22, Oklahoma Aggies with 21½, T.C.U. with 19, and S.M.U. last with 16 points. Abilene Christian College won the college division with 49½ points, with Daniel Baker second with 42. John Tarleton won out over Wesley College of Greenville in the junior college division, amassing 42½ points to the latter's 38. San Angelo tied with Maud, Okla., for honors in the

Mrs. Murphy's Office Is Scene of Toyland

Clowns, elephants, Chinamen, red wagons and tigers combine to make the girls' gym look like a toy work shop, when in fact, it is only the handicraft and general playground work class learning how to entertain. The buzz of saws and the scratch of sandpaper, mixed with the plea of a tired voice for a saw or some other tool, are heard three times a week in Mrs. Helen Murphy's office.

At all hours of the day a look into this office will reveal some girl diligently at work trying to complete something which "has to be finished by today." One girl was overheard to remark, "I think I'll give this wagon to Mr.—'s children and maybe I'll get a raise in pay!"

Miss Lewis Giving Lectures at Brite

Member of Christian Publication Board Speaking on Program Making.

Miss Hazel A. Lewis, of the Christian Board of Publication, St. Louis, is giving three lectures in the Brite College of the Bible chapel Monday, today, and next Friday.

Miss Lewis is lecturing on "Program Making for the Church School." She is the elementary editor of the Christian Board of Publication, the publishing house for the Christian Church. She has charge of the creation of material for all the children's departments of the church. She toured Europe last summer visiting the art galleries for the purpose of securing the best paintings possible for reproduction in the church school's lesson books.

Her lectures, provided by the Christian Board of Publication, are being sponsored by Brite-College of the Bible, according to Prof. H. L. Pickering of the Brite College faculty. The public is invited to attend the lecture Friday and all ministerial students will be excused from the regular chapel services.

high school division, both teams finishing with 12½ points.

Leland and Farmer, of Texas A&M, both won two first places to tie for individual high scoring honors in the university division with 10 points each.

The Flying Frog's time of 9.6 seconds for the century, which equals the accepted world's record, stamps him as an outstanding bidder for the world's sprinting crown. George Simpson ran the 100 in 9.4 last year for a new record, but his time was not recognized by the A.A.U. because he used starting blocks. Leland did not use blocks Saturday.

The approved record of 9.6 is held jointly by Charles Bowman, (1927); Charles Faddock, (1921); F. J. Kelly, (1906); H. P. Brew, (1914); and Cyril Chafee, (1922). The world's record for the 220-yard dash is 20.8 seconds.

Dr. Clubb Reads Paper on Humor

T. C. U. Professor Delivers Fifth Address in Series.

"There are two kinds of jokers, the dry joker and the wet joker," said Dr. Merrel D. Clubb of the English department, speaking on "The Philosophy of Humor" in the auditorium Friday night, when he gave the fifth address in the T. C. U. lecture series. "The dry joker, who never cracks a smile, is likely to be a wit, while the wet one is almost sure to be a humorist."

"A good laugh is a delight in itself irrespective of the quality of humor that produces it," Dr. Clubb said. "And a man's ability to laugh is dependent upon three things—his ability to sense the ridiculous, his power to recognize incongruities and his willingness to let himself be moved by the emotion of surprise."

Dr. Clubb said there are two kinds of humor; active humor, made up of conscious tricks, and passive humor, made up of unconscious mistakes. "Any sort of practical joke or pun will serve to illustrate the first type," he said. "The absent mindedness of any professor will furnish plenty of examples of unconscious humor."

"Laughter arises from the sudden transformation of a strained expectation into nothing. Humor is almost wholly dependent for its very existence upon the mood of the persons who are confronted with a humorous situation. Many things appeal to our sense of humor."

"We joke about religion, diseases, marriage, mothers-in-law, and sex. Some say that laughter is below the dignity of an intelligent person, but I think humor has its place in any scheme of society. From Chaucer's time, slang has tended to be the accepted dialect of humor. And a joke is good only as long as the slang is new."

Dr. Clubb, who came to T. C. U. last September, was introduced by Dr. Herbert L. Hughes, head of the English department. The next address in the T.C.U. lecture series will be delivered by Charles W. Gilkey, dean of the chapel at Chicago University, on March 26.

Handball Singles to Be Concluded Today

The intramural doubles handball tournament will get under way this afternoon with eight teams entered in the tournament. All first round matches must be played off by March 27, all semi-final matches by March 29 and the finals will be played on the March 29. Medals will be awarded the winners of first and second places in the tournament.

The intramural singles handball tournament will come to a close this afternoon with Duane Smith and A. K. Scott meeting in the finals. Smith and Scott are the only contestants left of the 18 starters.

Schmidt Is Re-elected To Fraternity Office

Coach Francis A. Schmidt was re-elected treasurer and recorder of the Theta province of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, national fraternity, at a convention he attended in Baton Rouge, La., March 1.

John A. Moseley, of the University of Oklahoma, was renamed province president. Judge A. B. Flannery, Dallas, was elected vice-president. The office of alumni secretary was filled by Bertrin Nixon of Oklahoma City.

Church Team Cinches League Championship

Trinity Methodist sextet forfeited a game to the University Church team last Thursday. The University team now has cinched the championship of the church league.

The last game on the University schedule will be played next Tuesday night with Central Methodist at the T. C. U. gym.

Freshmen to Play for Positions on Net Team

Ralph Carpenter, Frank Walsh, Lamax, and Vernon Slocumb are the survivors of the tournament held last week for the selection of the players for the freshman tennis squad.

Twelve men entered the tournament and all freshmen will be allowed to play the squad men for a position on the team. Carpenter, Walsh, Lamax and Slocumb will play a round robin schedule for ranking on the team.

Bible Students Hear McDiarmid in Chapel

Prof. E. M. McDiarmid addressed the Bible College of the Bible students in their chapel services Wednesday morning. His subject was "The Challenge of Humanism."

Dean Colby D. Hall was chairman of the services and led the responsive reading.

William Balch Back From Northern Tour

William Balch, who resigned as voice instructor in T. C. U. this past fall, returned to Fort Worth for a short visit with his family this week. Balch has been on a tour of the Northern and Eastern states with the Tiffany Male Quartet.

Balch will leave for Europe the latter part of the summer to spend 18 months there studying.

Dick Long Wins Box of Pangburn's Chocolates

President E. M. Waits presented Dick Long with a five-pound box of Pangburn's Ragtime Chocolates in chapel last Wednesday, as the prize for the winning title to a cartoon which will appear with the Pangburn ad in the Horned Frog.

"Ho-hum, and they told me I'd have to make a noise like a cash register to get over with you girls," is the title that the judges chose from among twenty entries submitted in the contest.

Mrs. Helen Cahoon to Go on Concert Tour

Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon will give several concerts during the next three months, in different parts of the state and one outside of Texas.

The schedule for her concert is as follows: Cleburne, March 29; Breckenridge, April 4; Denver, Colo., April 20 to 22; Abilene, May 3; and Austin, May 6, where she will sing at the state convention of Christian Churches.

Members Enlisted for "Y" Meet

Claude Nelson of the Southwestern Conference Y.M.C.A., spent last week in Clark Hall enlisting members for the Hollister, Mo., convention to be held next summer.

Missionary Will Talk At Fellowship Meeting

A Young People's World Fellowship Meet will be held in Fort Worth April 4, 5 and 6. All the meetings will be held at the Magnolia Avenue Christian Church.

Miss Mary Campbell, returned missionary from India and now vice president of the United Christian Missionary Society, will be the chief speaker of the conference. The program will begin with a banquet on Friday evening.

Miss Frances Fry, who is attending the University of Texas, spent the week-end at home.

Miss Betty Garrard spent the week-end at her home in Dallas.

Special Charter a Bus For your Spring Picnics Attractive Low rates for every Occasion You will enjoy your outing if the whole crowd goes together Courteous Drivers Call 2-9271

NORTHERN TEXAS TRACTION CO.

Fort Worth National Bank

MONNIG'S

A New Hat Fashion—

Ribbon Hats

Chic—Sophisticated—

$5

On the campus... for street or sports wear the new ribbon hats fills the need for an ultra smart every occasion hat.

Millinery—Third Floor

Have your Club Banquets, Luncheons and Dinners at

Kings TEA ROOM

Now under the management of Mrs. Nell C. MacIntyre, formerly manager of Peabody Hotel Tea Room in Memphis, Tenn., and thoroughly experienced in fine home cooked foods and catering.

HERE you can get the best food in the city at reasonable prices. In the evening you can engage the entire mezzanine floor for your parties. Special attention to T. C. U. students.

When planning your next party phone Mrs. MacIntyre at 2-4144 and you will be given personal service.

DROP in for luncheon, dinner or fountain service when you are downtown.

810 Main St.

CANDIES, SODA and FINE FOOD

best values under the sun

COLLEGE CLOTHES

As you like them— are now ready for Spring wear—

Nearly every member of T. C. U.'s Foot Ball Team wears an S&Q Suit—a good indication of worthiness in smart style and good value.

$22.50 to $65

S&Q Clothiers

Scheinberg Quicksilver Co., Inc.

807 Main St.