

I See by This Week's Skiff—

Frogs Meet Bears on Clark Field, p. 4
Frogs to Be at Texas Relays, p. 4
Ohi Professor, Part II, p. 2
Campus Social Events, p. 3

THE SKIFF

I See by This Week's Skiff—

Passion Play to Be in Dallas, p. 3
Alford's "Most Popular" ad, p. 3
Sanger's "Sweetheart" ad, p. 2
Monnie's "Best All-Around" ad, p. 3

Theologian Will Lecture Tonight At 8:15 o'Clock

Gilkey, Dean of Chicago University Chapel, Is Speaker.

PILLSBURY IS HERE NEXT Noted Botanist to Use Motion Pictures of Growing Plants With Talk.

Dr. C. W. Gilkey, dean of the University of Chicago chapel, will address T. C. U. lecture series patrons tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the auditorium on the subject, "Jesus and Our Generation," according to Prof. C. R. Sherer, head of the committee.

Dr. Gilkey is a lecturer of note and has spoken in many of the larger universities of the East and West. He became a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago in 1919, and a member of the faculty in 1926 as professor of preaching in the Divinity School.

Play Cast Will Leave Tomorrow To Go to Arkansas and Enter Contest of Black Friars.

Tomorrow the members of the cast of the one-act play, "The Sponge," to be presented in the Black Friar contest at the University of Arkansas, will leave here and drive through Fayetteville, Ark. The contest will be held March 28-29.

Misses Leo Hubert, Josephine Patterson, Betty Berry and Albert McCleary and Clayton McCutcheon are the members of the cast. Prof. Lew D. Fallis, Miss Hazel Carter and Miss Katherine Moore, members of the department of public speaking, are the directors, and Lawrence Coulter is the business manager.

Three prizes will be given at the contest: A diction cup, the Black Friar cup and an individual medal to the best individual player.

Six Clubs Meet in Brite College Room

Majority of Student Organizations Meet in Homes of Members.

There are six organizations in T. C. U. that meet regularly in the Brite Club room on the second floor in Brite College.

These organizations and time of meetings are: Los Hialagos, 1 o'clock the second Thursday of every month; P.-T. A., 1 o'clock the second Friday of every month; Alpha Zeta Pi, 7:30 o'clock the second Wednesday of every month; W. W. C. A., arranged hours every Thursday; Pi Gamma Mu, 7:30 o'clock the second Monday and the fourth Tuesday; and the Parabola Club which meets the second Wednesday of every month at 7 o'clock.

The only necessary requirement to hold club meetings in the club room at Brite College is to see Miss Rebecca Smith, associate professor of English, who is chairman of the student societies.

According to Miss Helen Morro, president of the Sigma Tau Delta, all formal meetings such as initiations are held in the club room; otherwise, the regular meetings are held in the homes of the members of the club, due to the informality of the occasion.

The majority of the organizations in T. C. U. meet in private homes. Those which meet in the main building are: the music club, and the "Y" Association, according to Jo Brice Wilmet and Lester Brumblow, presidents of the organizations.

Next Skiff Will Be April 5

The next issue of the Skiff will appear Saturday morning, April 5. This holdover is due to the meeting of the Southwestern Journalism Congress which will be in session April 4 and 5.

Cy Leland Will Try Training on Sea in Summer

Cy Leland has run all over the land and now he is going to run over the sea.

Cy is sponsoring a Caribbean cruise, which will probably include a party of fifty, but he is going to keep in training during the entire voyage. He will run on certain hours every day and keep in shape.

The party will sail from New Orleans, June 21, on the liner, "Parismina," which is a member of the Great White Fleet. It will take sixteen and a half days to complete the tour.

The first stop will be Havana, where the party will stay three days. The Panama Canal will be the next stop. A railroad trip going from the Atlantic to the Pacific Oceans will be one of the features of the two-day stay at the canal.

The party will then sail for Guatemala and will land in Puerto Bueritos, and will stay there for a day.

On the return trip the party will go back to Havana for a short time, and then on to New Orleans.

The party includes about ten members, but arrangements for the tour will not be completed until June.

Freshman Revue Given Last Night

Initial Performance of Class Presented in Auditorium.

"Sunny Tennessee," was the opening number sung at the first Freshman Musical Revue held in the T. C. U. auditorium last night at 8:15 o'clock. Then the minstrel chorus sang the opening melody. The first act of the show consisted of a negro minstrel with nineteen men in the circle. Bill George acted as inter-locutor with Newsome Gay, Wilts Kirkin, Leslie Shultz, Joe Short, Marvin Austin, Jerry Blount, Hal Thompson and Delbert Sharbutt as the black faces. William Dickey, William Fellows, Ernest Brown, Martel Bowen, Otto Nielson, Gibson Randle, Ed Tyson, Jimmie Rooney, Kenneth Williams and J. R. Crump completed the circle.

Several jokes were told by the end men. Following them Joe Short sang "I Ain't Got Nobody" and Jerry Blount sang "Hello Sewanee." The minstrel chorus gave a rhythm presentation of the courses.

Wiltz Kirkin sang "Where the Cot Cot Cotton Grows" and followed his song with an original tap dance. Delbert Sharbutt gave a saxophone solo of "Turn on the Heat" and "St. Louise Blues."

"Waiting at the End of the Road" was sung by Martel Bowen. J. R. Crump sang "Rock Me to Sleep in Your Arms." The minstrel chorus joined them in the chorus of the songs and also with Newsome Gay's presentation of "Kansas City Kitty."

A duet was sung by Gibson Randle and Martel Bowen, "Mississippi Moon." The act ended with a flashlight speciality number with the chorus singing "Just a Song at Twilight."

The second act was introduced by a wooden soldier dance given by Billy Stewart. Then Miss Rowena Doss, the accompanist for the show, sang and played an original composition. Dorothy Chancy played a violin solo of "Kiss Me Again." A number was given by the orchestra and then another speciality number was given by Misses Vivian Peterson and Mary Bowers who tap danced a newsboys number.

Miss Edna Sewell sang "The Right Kind of a Man." "Tea for Two" was sung by Miss Marian Tyson and J. R. Crump. "Hallelujah" was sung by the entire cast of the show as the grand finale.

Miss Carolyn Crisp Is in Bowie Law Office

Miss Carolyn Crisp, who received her certificate of oratory in 1919, is now working in a law office in Bowie. She is not practicing law at present although she has passed a law examination.

Miss Aline Burgess is teaching in Bowie. She was graduated from T. C. U. last year.

Language Exams to Be in April

The comprehensive oral examinations for those majoring in modern languages will be given immediately following the Easter holidays, according to Dr. Josiah Combs, head of the modern language department. The examinations will be given April 22-25 inclusive, by the departmental staff.

University Christian Church

"The Church and Leadership" will be the subject of the Rev. A. Preston Gray at the University Christian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The subject of the 7:30 o'clock evening service will be "The Prayer That Gets Through."

April 3 Is Last Date For Mid-Term Exams

All mid-semester examinations must be completed by April 3, according to E. R. Tucker, registrar. The examinations may be given at any time between now and next Thursday, at any time the teacher desires.

"All grades must be in my office not later than April 10," Mr. Tucker said, for the benefit of faculty members.

"Y" Retreat Will Begin Saturday

Thirty Girls Will Be Allowed to Go on Jarvis Camp.

The Y.W.C.A. will hold a retreat at the Jarvis Camp on Lake Worth Saturday and Sunday, March 29 and 30, according to Miss Sarah Beth Boggs, president of the organization.

Only thirty girls will be allowed to go on this camp, and those wishing to go must see Miss Boggs, or Miss Mary Jean Knight, "Y" secretary, by tomorrow. A charge of $1.50 will be made for each member of the trip.

The purpose of the camp, according to Miss Boggs, is to make plans for the "Y" for next year and to enable the girls to become better acquainted.

Three representatives from the T. W. C. "Y" will attend the retreat, also, and offer suggestions for next year's plans.

The group of girls will leave for the lake Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. They will meet at the north end of Jarvis Hall.

The program for Saturday night is a discussion of the purposes and plans of the "Y." This discussion will be held around a campfire. Worship will be held Sunday morning and the camp will break late Sunday afternoon.

The three "Y" advisers will accompany the group to the camp. The advisers are Mrs. Charles R. Sherer, Miss Adelle Clark, and Miss Lyde Spragins.

Dr. Duncan Will Teach in China

Is Named on Princeton-Yenching Staff for Three Years.

Dr. Robert M. Duncan, assistant professor in government, will spend the next three years in Peiping, China, as professor of political science in Yenching University. Dr. Duncan will work through the Princeton-Yenching School of Public Affairs which is associated with the Princeton University School of Public and International Affairs.

Charles Evans Hughes, Dwight Morrow, John U. Davis and Owen D. Young are among the members of the advisory committee of the latter school.

Dr. Duncan has been a member of the T.C.U. faculty for the past two years. He received his Ph.D. degree from Princeton University in 1928.

He and Mrs. Duncan plan to leave the United States about July 1, taking the southern route by way of France and Italy, across the Mediterranean Sea, through the Suez Canal and around the southern coast of India to China.

Robert Knight, economics instructor, will not return to T.C.U. next year. W. O. Suiter, assistant professor in economics, will teach next year in the University of Chicago.

Prof. Edwin A. Elliott, who has been on leave of absence this past year, will return to T.C.U. this summer to resume his work in the economics department.

Two Gifts of Books Given T. C. U. Library

The Mary Coats Burnett Library received two gifts of books last week. One was given by Mrs. F. H. Fry of Fort Worth and consisted of 30 volumes. These books deal with physics and engineering, with the exception of one set which is by the historian Latimer and concerns the history of different nations during the nineteenth century.

Mrs. F. M. Miller of Waco gave a volume on "What the World Believes" and another on "The History of the Protestant Reformation" by M. J. Spaulding.

Miss Major Will Talk On Marlowe Thursday

Miss Mabel Major, associate professor of English, will deliver the second of the series of lectures sponsored by the English department this year, at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, in the Brite Club Room.

Buck Is Elected Model League of Nations Official

Elected President and Chairman of Dallas Assembly.

S. M. U. SCENE OF MEET Representatives of 52 Nations to Attend Conferences Over United States.

Hugh Buck has been elected president and chairman of the Model League of Nations Assembly which is under the sponsorship of the World Fellowship Council of Dallas. The selection of Buck was made by the executives of the World Fellowship Council, and he will be officially installed when the assembly convenes March 28 and 29 at Southern Methodist University.

Largest of Several Conventions in correction of the first report of this students' League of Nations assembly, Stewart Hellman will be chairman of the British delegation and Bill Rogers and Homer Peoples the delegates. Weir McDiarmid is to be chairman of the delegation representing Haiti, consisting also of Sterling Brown and Gordon Voigt.

Several other model assemblies are to be held about the same time throughout the United States. Some twenty southwestern institutions, including the National University of Mexico, Mexico City, will represent the various nations holding membership in the League at the conference at S.M.U. The southwestern assembly will be one of the largest.

Actual Problems To Be Topics Following the procedure of the Geneva sessions, the same problems confronting the League of Nations, with special interest given to the armament question, will be topics for discussion. Enough representatives are expected to attend to give places in the assembly to each of the fifty-two countries holding membership in the League.

It was at first thought that the national convention of Pi Kappa Delta at Wichita, Kan., would hinder the attendance of Buck and Hellman, but a later announcement has revealed that these boys will be able to attend both conventions.

Buck and Hellman will necessarily be absent from classes at least ten days.

Alpha Zeta Pi to Have Outing

Alpha Zeta Pi is planning a picnic and box supper for some time this spring, according to an announcement by Lowell Bodiford, president.

Seniors to Give $1,000 Student Loan Fund Will Be Gift of 1930 Class to School.

The senior class will give a $1,000 student loan fund as the parting gift to the school. This gift won by a large majority at the meeting Friday.

PROGRAM

Southwestern Journalism Congress and Southwestern Student Press Club. (Editor's note:—This is a tentative program only, according to Prof. J. Willard Ridings, president of the congress. A printed detailed program will be available to all interested persons, at the journalism office on the day before the congress opens.)

9:00. Registration, T. C. U. Auditorium. 9:30. Roll Call; Reading of Minutes. 10:00. Junior-Senior Chapel; Introduction of Delegates. Address of Welcome, President E. M. Waits. Reply, Prof. Paul J. Thompson, University of Texas. Address, President Paul W. Horn of Texas Tech, "The Responsibility of Journalism to the Public."

11:00. Adjournment to Brite Auditorium. "What Schools of Journalism Should Contribute to the Ethics and Ideals of the Profession," Prof. Frank E. Burkhalter, Baylor University. "Stress Value, Not Obligation, in Selling College Medium," Prof. Delos Noe, College of Industrial Arts. Afternoon. 1:15. Session Southwestern Student Press Club. 2:30. "Modern Trends in Feature Story Writing," DeWitt C. Redick, University of Texas. "Liberty of the Press," Prof. A. F. Henning, Southern Methodist University. "The Associated Press," Fred Dye, Dallas, manager Texas Bureau, A. P. "Opportunities in the Country Field," Sam P. Harben, Dallas, secretary Texas Press Association. Prof. Marvin G. Osborn, Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, subject to be announced. "Journalism of the Future for Women," Miss Helen Zene Wortman, Baylor College. John Sorrells, editor Fort Worth Press, subject to be announced. Evening. 7:30. "If I Were Teaching Journalism," a series of short talks by laymen. "Costs Involved in News Collection," I. I. Ferrite, Dallas, manager Texas Bureau, U. P. "Reporting the World," a motion picture. Saturday, April 5. 9:00. Business sessions of both organizations. 10:00. Dr. H. H. Herbert, head of School of Journalism, University of Oklahoma, subject to be announced. "The Effects of Journalism on History," Prof. Charles E. Cayley, head of the department of history, Trinity University. "Our Changing World and Its Newspapers," Ward Mayborn, publisher Temple Telegram. "What's Right With the Tabloids," Prof. George E. Simmons, chairman department of journalism, Tulane University. "Interpretative Publicity Versus Propaganda," Curtis Vinson, director publicity, Texas A. & M. College. Afternoon. 1:15. Session Southwestern Student Press Club. 3:00. "The Newspaper of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," Marcellus Foster, editor Houston Press. "Why Be an Editor," Walter M. Harrison, managing editor Daily Oklahoman and Oklahoma City Times. Evening. 8:00. Banquet, T. C. U. Cafeteria. Program to be announced.

Students Now Graded On Deficient English

A column for reports on deficient English is now provided on the student report sheets on which grades are recorded in the registrar's office, according to Dr. Herbert L. Hughes, head of the department of English.

"I wish to urge all teachers to co-operate with the English department in checking the poor English," Dr. Hughes said.

Dana Press Club Names Delegates

Miss Bennett, Marshall to Represent T.C.U. at Congress.

Miss Leora Bennett, president of the Dana Press Club, and Clarence Marshall, secretary of the club, were elected official delegates from T. C. U. to the Southwestern Students' Press Club meeting April 4 and 5, at the meeting of the Dana Press Club in the journalism office Wednesday night.

A number of committees were appointed by Prof. J. Willard Ridings to help with the arrangements for the meeting. The reception committee will be composed of Miss Leora Bennett, chairman; Misses Madelon Flynn, Lillian Lindberg, Margaret Thorn and Laurence Coulter.

The registration committee consists of Miss Elizabeth Newsom, chairman, Misses Peggy Kipping, Jo Pearl Weatherby, and Dick Long and Clarence Marshall.

Miss Maxine Russell will be chairman of the committee to make arrangements for dormitory accommodations for the visiting girls. She will be assisted by Miss Virginia Lou Saunders. Cy Leland is chairman of a similar committee to make arrangements for visiting boys. He will be assisted by Jay Williams.

Miss Pauline Barnes and Samuel Frankrich will be in charge of an exhibit to be placed in the Brite Club Room.

Mineralogists Elect Prof. Gayle Scott

T. C. U. Man Is Made Secretary-Treasurer of National Group at Meet.

Prof. Gayle Scott of the biology and geology department returned Sunday from a convention at New Orleans of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and Economic Paleontologists which was held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. Prof. Scott was elected to the position of secretary and treasurer of the Society of Economic Paleontologists and Mineralogists.

According to Prof. Scott this appointment should aid in better establishing T. C. U. in the field of geology as all of the contributions to the society's journal will be received and mailed from the University.

"A paper," said Prof. Scott, "was read at the meeting by W. L. Moreman, former T. C. U. student and graduate of 1925, the title being 'The Most Primitive Foraminifera Known.' This paper was revolutionary in form and created much favorable comment from the assembly. Mr. Moreman is now working for a doctor's degree at the University of Kansas and will return to teach in the geology department here next year."

San Antonio was chosen as the meeting place for the group next year and Prof. Scott intends to attend.

Will Lead Conference

T. C. U. Graduate to Have Charge Fellowship Convention.

Mrs. Merle Williams Waldrop, who was graduated from T. C. U. two years ago, will have charge of some of the conferences at the World Fellowship Convention to be held April 4, 5 and 6 at the Magnolia Christian Church. "Witnessing for Christ" will be the general theme of the convention.

Miss Mary Campbell, vice president of the United Christian Missionary Society, will be the principal speaker at the convention, which will be attended by delegates from Dallas, Mineral Wells, Cleburne and other Texas cities.

Prof. Ziegler Goes to Houston

Prof. Samuel P. Ziegler, head of the art department, will go to Houston today to serve on the jury for an exhibition of Houston paintings at the Museum of Fine Arts of Houston.

Principal Speaker

Walter M. Harrison, Oklahoma City, president of the American Association of Editors, who will be the principal speaker before the Southwestern Journalism Congress and the Southwestern Student Press Club, at T. C. U., April 4 and 5.

Press Secretary

Sam P. Harben, Dallas, secretary of the Texas Press Association, will speak Friday afternoon, April 4, on "Opportunities in the Country Field."

Journalists to Meet Here for Press Congress

Harrison to Head Two-Day Session Program, April 4-5.

9 STUDENTS TO ATTEND Foster, Mayborn, United Press and Associated Press Officials to Speak.

Walter M. Harrison, managing editor of the Daily Oklahoman and the Oklahoma City Times, and president of the American Association of Editors, will be the principal speaker before the third annual meeting of the Southwestern Journalism Congress, to be held at Texas Christian University April 4 and 5. Harrison will speak at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the subject, "Why Be An Editor?"

Harrison characterizes himself as a newspaper editor, the husband of one wife, the father of five children, and the possessor of forty years of age.

Forty years is not a very long time in which to accomplish as many things as Walter Harrison has accomplished, and to rise as high among real Americans.

The story of Harrison is a kind of Horatio Alger story. Starting in as a newsboy in Des Moines and a cub reporter in Sioux City, he has worked his way up through successive newspaper connections in Chicago, San Francisco, Winnipeg, Canada, and Oklahoma City.

Foster To Discuss Newspaper Another important speaker on the program will be Marcellus E. Foster, editor of the Houston Press. Foster, born in Kentucky, but reared in Huntsville, Texas, has also served in every department of newspaper work. His subject will be "The Newspaper of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

One of his most notable achievements has been in building up the prestige and character of the Houston Chronicle, which he founded in 1901, with a capital of $25,000, and which was sold in 1926 for $2,500,000.

Foster is a past president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association and the Texas Editorial Association.

Ward Mayborn, publisher of the Temple Telegram and president of the Texas Newspaper Publishers' Association, will speak on "Our Changing World and Its Newspapers." His subject will deal with the influence of inventions on newspaper making, the value of individuality in newspaper editing and the character of editing and writing to which the public is responding today.

Sam P. Harben of Dallas, publisher of Richardson News and secretary of the Texas Press Association, will discuss "Opportunities in the Country Field."

Horn To Speak in Chapel President Paul W. Horn of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, will speak on Friday morning, probably at 10 o'clock, in the junior-senior chapel. His subject will be, "The Responsibility of Journalism to the Public."

Journalists to Meet Here for Press Congress

Harrison to Head Two-Day Session Program, April 4-5.

9 STUDENTS TO ATTEND Foster, Mayborn, United Press and Associated Press Officials to Speak.

Walter M. Harrison, managing editor of the Daily Oklahoman and the Oklahoma City Times, and president of the American Association of Editors, will be the principal speaker before the third annual meeting of the Southwestern Journalism Congress, to be held at Texas Christian University April 4 and 5. Harrison will speak at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the subject, "Why Be An Editor?"

Harrison characterizes himself as a newspaper editor, the husband of one wife, the father of five children, and the possessor of forty years of age.

Forty years is not a very long time in which to accomplish as many things as Walter Harrison has accomplished, and to rise as high among real Americans.

The story of Harrison is a kind of Horatio Alger story. Starting in as a newsboy in Des Moines and a cub reporter in Sioux City, he has worked his way up through successive newspaper connections in Chicago, San Francisco, Winnipeg, Canada, and Oklahoma City.

Foster To Discuss Newspaper Another important speaker on the program will be Marcellus E. Foster, editor of the Houston Press. Foster, born in Kentucky, but reared in Huntsville, Texas, has also served in every department of newspaper work. His subject will be "The Newspaper of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

One of his most notable achievements has been in building up the prestige and character of the Houston Chronicle, which he founded in 1901, with a capital of $25,000, and which was sold in 1926 for $2,500,000.

Foster is a past president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association and the Texas Editorial Association.

Ward Mayborn, publisher of the Temple Telegram and president of the Texas Newspaper Publishers' Association, will speak on "Our Changing World and Its Newspapers." His subject will deal with the influence of inventions on newspaper making, the value of individuality in newspaper editing and the character of editing and writing to which the public is responding today.

Sam P. Harben of Dallas, publisher of Richardson News and secretary of the Texas Press Association, will discuss "Opportunities in the Country Field."

Horn To Speak in Chapel President Paul W. Horn of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, will speak on Friday morning, probably at 10 o'clock, in the junior-senior chapel. His subject will be, "The Responsibility of Journalism to the Public."

Speakers will be on the program from the three out-of-state schools that are participating in the congress meeting this year. These schools are the University of Oklahoma, Louisiana State University and Tulane University. Prof. George E. Simmons, head of the department of journalism at Tulane, has announced his subject at "What's Right With the Tabloids." The speakers from Oklahoma and Louisiana have not yet been definitely announced.

The work of gathering world-wide news will be discussed by representatives of the Associated Press and the United Press Associations. Fred Dye, head of the Texas A. P. bureau, will have for his subject, "The Associated Press." I. I. Ferrite, Texas manager of the U. P., will speak on "Costs Involved in News Collection." It is probable that a motion picture entitled, "Reporting the World," will be shown in connection with Mr. Ferrite's talk.

Laymen To Discuss Journalism A feature of the Friday evening program will be a syndicated discussion of the question, "If I Were Teaching Journalism." "The details of the feature are not yet ready to announce," says Prof. J. Willard Ridings, president of the congress, who is arranging the program. The question will be discussed by "outsiders," such as a minister, an educator, a lawyer and an editor.

"Our idea in planning the topic is that teachers are often too close to our subject to get an altogether perfect perspective on it. We are expecting these outsiders to offer comment, criticism and suggestion that will be most valuable and interesting."

The nine member schools of the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

THE SKIFF

Entered as second-class mailing matter at the postoffice in Fort Worth, Texas.

PAULINE BARNES Editor
SAMUEL FRANKRICH Business Manager
Jay Williams Managing Editor

Cy Leland Sports Editor
Clarence Marshall Literary Editor
Leora Bennett Society Editor
Virginia Lou Saunders Assistant Society Editor

Maxine Russell Features
Elizabeth Newsum Features
Marjorie Lee Robinson Club Editor
Laurence Coulter Cartoonist

EDITORIAL STAFF.
 Margaret Thorne, Raymond Copeland, Mildred True, Peggy Kipping, Richard Long, Jack Belzner, Madelon Flynt, Elbert Haling, Jo Pearl Weatherly and John Lowther.

Leora Bennett Issue Editor

CONVERSATION AND CHATTER

We, of the younger generation, are missing a lot in life. Our fun is had "on the go"—dates are entertained in a car, or at the cinema. "It isn't any fun to sit at home," and if such a sad state of affairs occur, another couple is pressed into service for a game of bridge. Dinner parties are "stiff and dull."

When newly-mets have exhausted the topic of "where are you from?"—oh, do you know so-and-so, they have reached the old friend stage and gossip about mutual acquaintances. Later they bring in their school, athletics, jokes and the last talkie; by this time the chatter is almost exhausted, so personalities are discussed and their views on marriage and love are profoundly pronounced.

Why are we going to school? Why do we travel? Isn't there some one thing we know enough about to intelligently discuss?—some book, some place, some observation of life or topic of public concern?

As a whole we have had the greatest cultural advantages of any age, yet we are helpless to express an idea if we had one.

Of course we can't all be original in thought, or great in the field of science, government, philanthropy, or literature, but we can be familiar with their work and have the thrill of conversation, which is a give and take of stimulating ideas.

—The Daily Lariat.

STUDENTS AND THE GOVERNMENT

Students who started their schooling before the law that requires the teaching of the Constitution may now go ahead and ignore that document in their education, if they choose. They won't need it to obtain their diplomas, as the Legislature has passed a clause to that effect.

The Dallas News makes this statement that will lighten the hearts of many students who are now worrying about how they will crowd these extra courses into their already overflowing number of "requireds."

The fact that the Legislature has passed this law, does not mean that this information should not be obtained by all students who graduate from college. So few students have any definite information as to the processes of the government, the conduct of the foreign relations, the promotion of individual welfare by the federal and state governments that they are often faced with the necessity to challenge their worth.

When one is faced by a group of forty or so youngsters who want to know how a law happened to be passed, or why the electoral college system of election is used in the United States and how it works, the teacher is faced by a real problem that cannot be dodged.

If the general mass of the people are ever to become informed on statecraft, and governmental solutions for humanitarian problems, they must have the basic instruction themselves. That is just the price the teacher must pay to hold her position in the educational system.—The C. I. A. Lasso.

Headlines and Bylines

BY CLARENCE MARSHALL

THE WOMAN OF ANDROS, by Thornton Wilder; Albert and Charles Boni, New York.

It seems next to impossible for a writer to follow one success with another of equal caliber, but the author of "The Brigs of San Luis Rey," Thornton Wilder, almost succeeds in doing this with his latest work, "The Woman of Andros." However, the present novel does not succeed in portraying life as well as his former book, which met with such phenomenal success two years ago.

Written in a limpid, dignified style, the present work conveys a picture of Grecian civilization without wordiness or tedium. Wilder gets his effects by using well-chosen impressionistic words, rather than by using long descriptions and dramatic situations.

"The Woman of Andros" is the story of Chrysis, one of the hetairai, who entertains the young men of the island of Brynos with banquets at her home, and stimulates their intellect by reading the great Greek classics to them; of Glycerium, Chrysis' young sister, who is carefully protected by Chrysis; of young Pamphilus, who visits Chrysis' home and later falls in love with Glycerium; of Simo, the kind and philosophical father of Pamphilus.

When Chrysis dies, Pamphilus feels that it is his duty to marry Glycerium, but he must have the consent of his father, Simo, who knows that it is against Greek custom for his son to marry a foreign girl. It is the implications of this Greek philosophy, or custom, that makes the book and a tragedy.

"The Woman of Andros" is universal in appeal. Translated into other languages, the book would lose none of its clarity and classic beauty. Although the book is a tragedy, it leaves the reader with a feeling that, after all, the world is a good place to live in.

Whether "The Woman of Andros" will meet with the popular success of "The Brigs of San Luis Rey" would be hard to predict. But one thing is certain: Thornton Wilder will lose none of his popularity with this quiet, seemingly leisurely-written novel. —C.E.M.

AT THE MAJESTIC
 The vaudeville bill at the Majestic this week overshadows the picture as far as the entertainment goes.

Headed by Don Santo and Exie Butler, who carry their own orchestras, the vaudeville is above the Majestic average. Don Santo has a pleasing personality, and entertains a la Ted Lewis, while Miss Butler yodels and sings the blues in popular fashion.

Rose Perfect offers a singing act, which was well received Friday. Other acts include a comedy skit by McKay and Ardine and a dog act, with Maxine and Bobbie. Plastic surgery has a good deal to do in "Such Men are Dangerous," the picture in which an ugly man is transformed into a handsome gentleman with "IT." Even his wife doesn't know him when he returns with a new face. Warner Baxter is good as the husband, but others in the cast are guilty of overacting. And the climax, when the husband tells the wife who he is, falls flat. —C.E.M.

Ostentation.
 I like to hear young men sneeze, Hear old men sup soup as if they enjoyed it. See little children laugh at a Chaplin movie, See fat women reduce As if their very life depended on it. I like ostentation.

April 18-22 Are Dates For Easter Vacation

Although there were some typographical errors in the catalog, the Easter vacation will begin on April 18 and continue to April 22. This four-day vacation has become a permanent fixture in the T. C. U. calendar.

Edgar Bradford, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman spent last week-end in Fort Worth. He visited on the campus and attended the track meet.

Oh! Professor

By Arthur and Cathryn Hackett

(Part II)
 Peter glanced at his watch nervously. Nine o'clock, it said. He was so late, how would he explain to Jane? Dear Jane—she was so sweet, she wouldn't care how late they were to Buddy's party. What could he explain, anyway? For fully an hour he had sat there, thinking about that impertinent Jacque. Jacque, with her terrible themes and her absurd recitations in class. And to think that she had the nerve to tell him he was not a good teacher. He must try to get her out of his class; his patience couldn't hold out much longer.

Well, the party must be on its first leg by this time. Jane was ready. Peter kissed her with a pre-occupied air. "Peter, darling, what's the matter? Don't you love me any more?" "Why, of course, Jane. Don't be silly. I've just had a hard day at the University. You know, those kids are hard to teach. I hate to say this, but I'm afraid the girls—well, you know—they think I ought to ask them for dates. Ridiculous, isn't it?"

"Well, forget it, professor," said Jane soothingly. "I hope you would not consider going with any of those flighty co-eds. Let's go to the party." Jacque, meanwhile, was waiting for her date. He was not one of the college lads, but a graduate who was old enough to know better, but didn't. He had promised to take her to a party tonight. That would be a good way to keep her mind away from Peter. Why couldn't it have been Peter instead of Hugh who was taking her to the party?

Lights were low, spirits high, and music loud at Buddy's apartment. Jacque knew but few of the people. She liked them, though. It was nice to be around different people for a change.

"Glad you came with Hugh," said Buddy. "I've tried to get him to bring you over before, but he said he didn't think you'd enjoy it."

"It was sweet of you to ask us," Buddy. Really, I didn't think I'd care for your friends, but I do. Is everybody here?"

"No, Jane's supposed to come. You know her, don't you? That Mallory girl who finished here a couple of years ago. Sort of a literary bug."

Did she know her! That high-tan egg—with her scientific books and literary stuff. Her professor's friend.

"Oh, yes," said Jacque, casually.

"I've met her, I believe. Who's she coming with?" "I don't know the bird, but I think he teaches at the University. Must be pretty much of a sap."

"Oh, so he'll be here? Yes, he is a sap. I can't imagine any girl liking such a conceited ass. And he thinks all the girls are nuts about him."

Buddy jumped up. "Here they are now."

Yes, there they were—Peter and Jane, Jane and Peter—what a pair! Wouldn't he be surprised to find one of his insignificant students here?

"Don't look so disgusted, Jacque. Let's dance," Hugh suggested.

"Sure, old friend, old pal, old buddy. Let's get into the spirit of things."

She looked at her partner closely. "Hugh! Did you kill a whole quart at a time? I wish you'd go slower when you're with me. You're half tight, already."

"Aw, Jacque, I just had a wee cocktail. Say, who's the couple that just came in? The girl looks interesting."

"Be patient, lad," said Jacque. "When this two-step's over, we'll manage an introduction for you and you can even dance with her. That is, if she'll leave old Hurst long enough for that."

When the dance was over, Jacque kept her word. She and Hugh found Peter and Jane in the other room, mixing cocktails.

When Peter saw Jacque, he forgot himself for a moment and looked pleased. Then he remembered how she tormented him, and immediately assumed his professional dignity.

"How do you do, Miss Carlton," he said. "I didn't expect to see you here."

"Oh, hello," said Jacque. "How are you?" Peter turned to Jane. "Have you met Miss Carlton?"

"How do you do, Miss Carlton." "Oh, I've met you several times, Miss Mallory," said Jacque in a sweet way. "Don't you remember me?" Jane looked doubtful, but Jacque presented Hugh before she had a chance to speak.

Hugh started his line immediately. "The minute I saw you come in the door, Miss Mallory, I told Jacque I just had to meet that girl. What do you say we dance?"

"Let's have a drink first," suggested Jane. "A cigarette, please, Peter." "Oh, yes," said Jacque, casually.

(To Be Continued)

Mrs. Cahoon Will Sing
 Will Present Ballads, Lyrics in Junior-Senior Chapel.

Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon will present a number of songs in the Junior-Senior chapel Friday which will show the development of ballads and lyrics from the earliest times to the present day. Mrs. Artemisa Bryson will make a short talk. Miss Jane Gilliam will play the flute obligato for the song, "Lo, Here the Gentle Lark."

Mrs. Cahoon will sing an old English ballad, a lyric, an old English song and Shakespearean poem.

The English classes have been studying the development of these songs and this program will serve to illustrate the course of study.

Ziegler on Methodist Hospital Jury of Art
 Prof. Samuel P. Ziegler, head of the department of art, has been appointed a permanent member of a jury of art to pass on all art connected with the new Methodist Hospital, 1800 West Cannon Street.

A committee of qualified persons has been appointed to act on the art coming into the hospital, and to decide on plans of decoration to be carried out through the years.

Miss Lillian Westcott of Houston was the guest of Miss Peggy Kipping of Jarvis Hall over the week-end.

THIS WEEK IN T.C.U. HISTORY
 25 YEARS AGO

By ELBERT HALING.
 One Year Ago.

The physics laboratory was in possession of a microphone which is said to be the one former President Harding used in an address delivered in June, 1923 from St. Louis. The "mike" was loaned to the department by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Five Years Ago.
 Jarvis Hall girls, led by their president, Miss Ruby Stoker, raised $100 for the T. C. U. Book Fund which was being made to stock the new library.

Ten Years Ago.
 T. C. U. was taking an active part in the $800,000 Y. W. C. A. campaign which was being carried on to provide better living conditions for the force of 25,000 young working women of Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Clifford McElhannon, a student of the University of Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

COYTER'S

Correct this sentence: "I never drive my car over the speed limit," said a student, "when I think I'm going to be late to class."

A news item states that a prehistoric skeleton was found buried with the feet sticking up. It shows that desks were invented quite a long while ago.

One thing accomplished by long skirts. A girl has to take better care of her face.

You can always find a parking space on the straight and narrow path.

Twenty thousand cars passed a given point in Fort Worth recently. No doubt they were all on the way to church.

Amusement is that feeling which a prominent student has when a certain other prominent student hasn't time to talk to him.

The only difference between breathing and driving an automobile is that in one case you die if you stop and in the other you die if you don't.

The Scotchman who always listened to the sermon over the radio has another mark of credit coming to him. He now borrows the neighbor's baby to make it seem more realistic.

Suggestions for Statues
 To the man who attended to his own business.

To the professor who told a joke in class and didn't expect everyone to laugh.

To the girl who didn't powder her nose every time she stopped to talk to some one.

To the person who didn't throw his Skiff in the front hall.

To the lover who didn't try to write poetry.

To the man who investigates what he drinks before he drinks it.

No one needs a clock on the instrument board for after all it's the gasoline gauge that tells us when to go home.

It is reported that a certain T. C. U. professor is very encouraging. He has printed on all his personal

Smith Has Large Pens

One Is a Nine-Inch Waterman—Other Is Oversized Parker.

Prof. Raymond A. Smith, head of the T. C. U. School of Education, has two of the largest fountain pens in captivity. The pens have No. 20 barrels and No. 10 points and have a combined length of over 17 inches. One of these pens—a Waterman—is nine inches long and has been in Mr. Smith's possession for 17 years, in constant use. Prof. Smith fills this pen by using an eye-dropper with an extra large bulb. The contents of the dropper are emptied into the barrel five times before the pen is filled to capacity. The other pen is an oversized Parker.

Miss Virginia Hallam was able to return to school Thursday after an illness of several days.

checks: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

A doctor says that love is a disease, but a disease can't be cured by getting too much of it.

Things that are gone forever: The good old-fashioned radio programs without advertising.

In Japan blackened teeth are a sign that the woman is married. In America a black eye is usually a sign.

Want-Ad: "Two women to take orders." It's very doubtful if that many are found.

Frank McMorris plays the piano, saxophone, clarinet, and other instruments. We wonder if his versatility has anything to do with inheritance. Maybe his father owns a drug store.

"This is no way to go through college," said a man to a big husky looking fellow. "You're big enough to play football and work your way through."

One thing about prohibition is that at the present rate of deaths caused by it, there will soon be nobody left to debate the question either way. All evils tend to cure themselves.

If people couldn't be fooled somebody would have to go to work.

The only way that a pedestrian can get the right of way is to buy a car.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

Miss Joyce Cole visited on the campus Saturday.
 Miss Charlotte Pattillo spent the week-end in Dallas.

SCHENECKER PRODUCE CO.

SANGER BROS.

WE GIVE AND REDEEM SURETY COUPONS

Fort Worth, Texas Telephone 2-6151

T.C.U.'s BAND SWEETHEART

Miss Helen Jenkins
T. C. U.'s Band Sweetheart

Nominated as Texas Christian University's
Most Popular Girl

Says: It's Sanger's for Me When I Need A New Frock

And Miss Jenkins would like to tell all the girls at T. C. U. about the clever new PRINTS that are being shown at Sanger's now... New waistline frocks... Sleeveless and short sleeved fashions... You'll just adore them and they will only cost you

$14.95

Fort Worth National Bank

WORTH

STARTING SATURDAY
 Another western Outdoor All TALKING Romance of a cowboy's love for a beautiful girl!

Joan Crawford

IN
 "Montana Moon"
 WITH
 John Mack Brown—Benny Rubin—Dorothy Sebastian—Ricardo Cortez—Chiff Edwards—Karl Dane and Ukke Ilke

SOCIETY

Interesting social events are being planned for the Southwestern Journalism Congress, as well as business meetings. The Congress will convene in Brite Chapel on April 4 and 5 with Texas Christian University and Dana Press Club as hosts.

The T. C. U. Woman's Club and Dana Press Club will entertain the guests with a tea Saturday from 5 to 6 p. m. in the parlors of Jarvis Hall. The officers of both clubs will be in the receiving line.

The final session of the Congress will be held in the form of a banquet at 8 p. m. Saturday. All of the delegates, speakers, faculty members, students and other interested persons will attend the dinner.

Pajama Party for Town Students

The girls of Jarvis Hall will entertain tomorrow night with a pajama party in honor of the town girls who are students of T. C. U. Each girl in the dormitory will be entitled to one guest.

The social will begin at the dinner hour Thursday, at which time the boys of Clark and Goode Hall will co-operate with the girls of Jarvis by making dinner dates with the guests.

Dean Sadie Beckham will be hostess at a 10 o'clock tea which will be held in the parlor of Jarvis Hall in honor of the guests. The officers of the Uppettes and the Frogettes will assist with the tea.

The guests will be: Misses Mary Elizabeth Bacon, Ernestine Davis, Helen Jenkins, Susan Callaway, Clara Manning, Elizabeth Alexander, Ruth Williamson, Hazel Wales, Bernice Austin, Lillie Mae Dinkins, Helen Pannill, Jeannette McLean, Sarah Smith, Dorothy McLean, Emma Nell Handly, Kathryn Williams, Gwendolyn Montgomery, Bill Shults, Marian Tyson, Leta Currie, Eloise Barksdale, Ruby Williams, Mary Jane Ridgway, Marynetta Lyle, Wilma Simmons, Beulah Griffin, Anna Lewis, Artie Ray Brooks, Beanie Wilburn, Marian Smith, Margaret Martin, Bita Mae Hall, Virginia Wyatt, Helen Boren, Elizabeth McKissick, Mary Lloyd Garnet, Evalyne Connelley, Mary Bowers, Elizabeth Newsom, Julia Tomlinson, Floy Edmondson, Jerry Brown, Grace Garrett, Louise Lester, Vinita Green, Marshalee Stowe.

The dormitory girls who will entertain are: Misses Ann McLean, Jeanne Horsley, Margaret Johnson, Peggy Kipping, Anna Mae Buey, Louise Sarver, Elizabeth Sinclair, Jessie Outlaw, Doris Sellers, Ethleen Craddock, Dorothy Elliott, Lena Smedley, Mary Grace Cheatham, Mamie Hair, Nell Russell, Zilpha Haskin, Dorothy Collins, Bettie Ellis, Virginia Baskin, La Velle Stubblefield, Vera Bell Stevenson, Bessie Sue Rattlin, Dorothy Rattlin, Marian Graves, Mozelle Bryant, Hortense Baker, Hester Leavell, Dorothy Chancy, Texora Pierce, Ethel Green, Reida Robbins, Doris Dulaney, Margaret Knowles, Maxine Edwards, Ouida Pentecost, Wilmeda Clutter, Eugenia Sharp, Julia Maxwell, Dorothy Key, Mary Jean Knight, Virginia Lou Saunders and Loyse Price.

Will Honor Gilkey With Formal Dinner

Charles W. Gilkey, who will speak at 8:15 o'clock tonight on "Jesus and Our Generation," will be the honor guest at a formal dinner given by President E. M. Waits at 6 o'clock in the cafeteria annex. Brite faculty members and their wives, the administrative officers and their wives, and Prof. and Mrs. C. R. Sherer will attend the dinner.

Decorations will be in maroon and white, the colors of the University of Chicago, of which Mr. Gilkey is dean of the Chapel.

Gilkey is staying with Dean L. L. Leftwich. He has been at the University of Texas the past week.

Los Hidalgos Have Progressive Dinner

Los Hidalgos were entertained with a progressive dinner Thursday evening, March 20.

The first course, fruit cocktail, was at the home of Miss Elizabeth Rice, 2550 Rodgers Street; the second course, salad, was at the home of Miss Dorothy Conklin, 3033 Lubbock Street; the dinner course was at the home of Miss Phyllis Ellis, 704 West Second Street; the last course was at the home of Miss Betty Morrill, 2541 Greene Street.

The favors were Mexican pottery filled with candy. At the home of Miss Elizabeth Rice a tin spoon was given each member to keep during the dinner. Games were played and the club members were told their fortunes.

Each member of the club had part in making the dinner a success, according to Miss Eula Lee Carter, club faculty sponsor.

Mrs. Irbey Is Guest Of Mrs. Cahoon

Mrs. Alfred Irbey, a graduate of T. C. U. when it was known as Add-Ram College, was the guest of Mrs. Helen Fonta Cahoon for the week-end. Mrs. Irbey is teaching English in Cisco at the present time. She received her M. A. degree from T. C. U. about five years ago.

Dean and Mrs. Colby D. Hall entertained with a dinner Saturday night honoring Mrs. Irbey and Mrs. Cahoon.

Dinner Given for Miss Betsy Garrard

Miss Janet Largent entertained Miss Betsy Garrard with a birthday dinner at the Blackstone Hotel Monday evening.

The guests were George Rozelle, E. L. Agee and Miss Betsy Garrard.

Formal Dinner Has St. Patrick Motif

Those present at the formal dinner Wednesday night, March 19, were Misses Frances Morgan, Sarah Beth Boggess, Vera Bell Stephenson, Lammie Griffing, Alice Robinson, and LeVelle Stubblefield, and Gibson Randle, Martel Bowen, Bill Rogers, Paul Howle, Roy L. Oliver, and Bill Joekel. The faculty members present were Mrs. Artemisia Bryson, Dean and Mrs. L. L. Leftwich, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Smiser, Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Meyer, Pete Wright, Miss Mabel Major, and Dean Sadie Beckham.

Music for the evening was furnished by Misses Pauline Rogers, Marjorie Miller, and Hester Leavell. The color scheme was carried out in green and white in keeping with St. Patrick's Day.

The five seniors present at the dinner, Misses Sarah Beth Boggess, Lavelle Stubblefield, and Bill Rogers, Bill Joekel, and Paul Howle, were called upon to make short discussions of their future plans. According to Miss Boggess, she will sail for New York, during the summer, where she will continue her studies in social service work; Miss Stubblefield is going into social service work in San Antonio; Bill Rogers plans to gain a diplomatic appointment with the government; Paul Howle will enter an Eastern school in the fall, and Bill Joekel says that he will announce to the world that he is educated.

And Leora Bennett will visit in San Antonio Easter. Sol Snoopy wishes to say now that she, for one, knows for certain that the Alamo is not the attraction.

Othol Martin is noticeably absent from the alcove in the library at night. Last term he discovered, after three years in T. C. U., that he could study there better than any other place. Still, it may be that his incentive has gone home to Jacksboro.

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

SNOOPY SUE

Snoopy thinks that Brum is a wonder. He has the would-be sheik, Jack Shackelford, thrown for a ninety yard loss when it comes to courting a dozen girls at once—and getting by with it. Snoopy only thinks that Brum will strike a snag some day but until then she envies him. At least, he must have a marvelous memory!

Snoopy rises to remark that Bob Knight is the ideal professor. He conducts class in what Snoopy thinks is the perfect method to make sleepy students sit up and take notice. And above all, he does NOT lecture in a monotone.

Lena Dougherty is certainly the swanky young soul with her A&M track medal. Those Aggies, like Brum, have a way with the women.

And Leora Bennett will visit in San Antonio Easter. Sol Snoopy wishes to say now that she, for one, knows for certain that the Alamo is not the attraction.

Othol Martin is noticeably absent from the alcove in the library at night. Last term he discovered, after three years in T. C. U., that he could study there better than any other place. Still, it may be that his incentive has gone home to Jacksboro.

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Marion Miller and Red Moore have been neglecting their rented corner in the main building. Snoopy wonders if they could have come to the party of the ways.

But Mamie Hair and Carson Walls carry on just the same. Nothing seems to daunt them. It really must be love!

Hidagarde Haynes and Ab Flynn are a precious couple, Snoopy thinks. They never are seen in a dark corner, or in the auditorium—after chapel is over—so Snoopy wishes to commend them for that.

Journalists to—

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) congress will each furnish one speaker for the program, according to Prof. Ridings, who will be T.C.U.'s speaker in his annual "President's Report."

"What Schools of Journalism Should Contribute to the Ethics and Ideals of the Profession" is the title of a talk to be made by Prof. Frank E. Burkhalter, chairman of the department of journalism of Baylor University.

Miss Helen Zene Wortman, head of the department at Baylor College for Women, will discuss "Journalism of the Future for Women."

Trinity University will send as its speaker, Prof. Charles E. Cayley, head of the history department, who will speak on "The Effects of Journalism on History."

Reddick to Discuss Features DeWitt C. Reddick, instructor in journalism at the University of Texas, will represent his school on the program with a talk on "Modern Trends in Feature Story Writing."

"Stress Value, No Obligation, in Selling College Medium," will be the subject of a discussion in the field of advertising by Prof. Delos Noce, acting director of the department of journalism at the College of Industrial Arts.

"Liberty of the Press" will be the subject of an address by Prof. A. F. Hemming, head of the department of journalism at Southern Methodist University.

Curtis Vinson, director of publicity for Texas A.&M. College, will speak on "Interpretative Publicity Versus Propaganda."

President Paul W. Horn, as related previously, is to be the speaker from Texas Tech.

Local Journalists to Speak "Several speakers have been scheduled from the Fort Worth newspapers," Prof. Ridings reports, "but these arrangements are somewhat tentative at the present time, and we are not ready to announce the details."

Meeting in conjunction with the Southwestern Journalism Congress will be the Southwestern Student Press Club, of which Miss Pauline Barnes, senior in journalism, is president.

"Indications are that there will be at least fifty student delegates to the meeting," Miss Barnes says. "Each school sends two official delegates, and as many visitors as care to come. Many of these will be quartered in the dormitories during their two-day stay on our campus. Others will stay with friends and relatives out in the city."

Several social features have been arranged in connection with the meeting of the two associations, chief among which are an automobile tour of Fort Worth, a tea in Jarvis Hall, and a banquet in the school cafeteria.

All program sessions of the congress and the press club will be held in the auditorium of Brite College of the Bible building. Morning sessions will begin at 9 o'clock, afternoon sessions at 1:15 o'clock and evening sessions at 7:30 o'clock.

"All of these sessions will be open to all faculty members, to the student body and to the general public," Prof. Ridings states. "We will be disappointed if a great many on the campus do not take advantage of this exceptional program to hear at least some of the talks."

Miss Margaret Weddell of San Angelo who attended T. C. U. last year was a visitor on the campus Wednesday.

Miss Frances Carmichael withdrew from T. C. U. last Wednesday, and returned to her home in Little Rock, Ark. She plans to come back for the summer term.

The Slipper Shop

505 Houston St.

Investigate Our Hosiery Savings Account Regular $1.95 Value $1.55 All Silk Chiffon Full Fashioned

Beige Claire Kid High or Cuban Heels

"Anita"

Beige Claire Kid High or Cuban Heels

Alford's accessories are smarter

Miss Frances Veale, T. C. U. junior from Breckenridge, was voted one of T. C. U.'s most popular girls in the Horned Frog popularity contest. She is also president of the Uppettes this year.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

Miss Veale chooses her gloves, costume and other accessories from Alford's.

MONNIG'S

Houston at Fifth 2-5181 March 26, 1930.

Monnig's for Easter Wear

Says--

Miss Vera Turbeville, voted one of T. C. U.'s Best All Around Girls in the recent Horned Frog contest. Miss Turbeville was Band Sweetheart at T. C. U. in 1927-28. She is a senior this year.

Many other T. C. U. girls, who demand fashionable clothes are choosing their Easter frocks, hats, shoes and accessories at Monnig's.

Expert sales persons will be glad to help you select a smart and harmonizing costume to wear for Easter.

MONNIG'S

Queen Quality Footwear

No more need be said, for this name insures style, fit and quality.

Black Satin and Patents $6.00

White Satin, Black and Colored Kids $6.75

An excellent fitting one-strap pattern in Black Dull Kid, also Beige Clair Kid $6.75

Young "T. C. U.'s" Invited Charge Accounts Invited

Meacham's

If You Are Going to the Journalism Congress

You'll Want Adorable Clothes for the Occasion

Formal Frocks for the Tea or Banquet

$14.95 UP

Bouffant taffetas, exquisite powder pastel chiffons or crepes. Whatever your choice, you will find an adorable frock at Meacham's.

Priced $14.95 up.

Clever Sports Frocks for the Business Session

You'll simple adore these Knitted Suits or Tweed Jacket Costumes for the business session or for school wear. Priced $19.50 up.

Second Floor

SPORT WAVES

By CY LELAND.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL Texas Relays in Austin Friday bid fair to be the most successful in the half dozen years of their existence. Large teams from prominent universities all over the country are entered. Most of these teams will also take part in the S. M. U. Relays the next day in Dallas. Nebraska is coming down with a team of twenty-seven men; Indiana has entered eighteen; Kansas twenty-one; Northwestern eleven; and of course, most of the schools of any size in Texas will be represented. Among those entered at Austin are: Bradley Polytechnic Institute of Peoria, Ill.; University of Missouri; Arkansas Polytechnic College of Russellville, Iowa State; University of Iowa; University of Chicago; Butler University, and the Kansas State Teachers College. Illinois U. will also be back with some of their record-breakers of last year.

The Frogs will open their baseball season Friday with the first of a two-game series with the Baylor Bears. Coach Jennings is bringing a revamped team this year. Bobby Koch is being used part of the time behind the plate and part in the outfield. Built very much like Babe Ruth, although shorter, he takes a cut at the ball that is not unlike that of the Bambino's. His forte last year was the ability to hit home runs, and he seems to be up to his old tricks. Bobby is being used as a starting pitcher, but he will probably choose from Larson, Rannels or Jake Wilson. First base will be taken care of by the veteran Joe Potter. In a practice game last week with St. Edwards, Potter came to bat in the seventh inning with the bases full, two out, and the Bruins three runs behind. It was a perfect Casey at the bat setting, but unlike Casey, Joe parked the ball over the fence and the Saints came out on the small end of an 8-to-7 score. The rest of the Baylor lineup will probably be: Wells, second; Bean, third; Stone, short; Harris, left; Keirsky, center; Owens, right.

Leo Buckley may be seen behind the plate in one of the games with the Bears. His regular position will probably be right field, but he will be held in reserve as a receiver. Leo is a good catcher, but his hitting will be more effective if he is left in the outfield. If he keeps up his early season pace, he will certainly lead the conference in hitting. In the practice and intersquad games through last week he had made 27 hits out of 33 times at bat for a .818 batting average. He gives another simple rule; this one on how to be a good batter. "Just grab a bat, step up to the plate and knock the rod off of it." It seems very simple. At least if that is his secret, it would be well for the rest of Dutch's squad to follow it. Buckley is not the only one who is "hitting the apple." Most of all the regulars seem to have found their batting eyes and my prediction is that the games with Baylor will be slugfest affairs, with the Frogs doing most of the slugging.

I visited Ed Sain at St. Joseph's the other day and he is getting along fine after his operation for appendicitis, but he will not be able to play any more baseball this season. He hopes to see the Frogs open the conference season Friday, but it is doubtful that this will be possible.

The annual Schmidt-Bible coaching school will be held at T. C. U. from July 14 to 26. Bible, whose Nebraska Cornhuskers won the Big Six grid title last year, will have charge of instruction in football, while Schmittie will give courses in basketball and treatment of injuries. There will be two or three hours of lecturing in the morning, and the afternoon will be spent with first-hand lessons on the basketball floor and the gridiron. Coach Schmidt will conduct several other schools of this kind, but definite dates have not been set.

Back to Buckley again. He was particularly "right" Saturday in a game with the Yankins. Out of five times at the plate he hit one homer, three triples, and one single. Not bad for an afternoon's work. The homer was well

Horned Frogs to Play Bears Here Friday, Saturday

Opening Game Will See Baseball Nine in Good Shape.

WILL PLAY S. M. U. NEXT Practice to Consist of Batting and Fielding Drills This Week.

With the official opening of the Southwest Conference baseball race scheduled for Friday afternoon, there will be no let-down in the afternoon workouts of Coach Leo "Dutch" Meyer's Horned Frogs of the diamond, who encounter the Baylor Bears here on Clark Field Friday and Saturday in the initial series of the 1930 campaign. While the Frogs and Bears do battle here, the Texas Aggies and the Rice Owls will tangle in Houston in the only other games on this week's card. Texas University and S.M.U. will blast the conference lid in two games next week in Dallas.

It is expected that Dutch Meyer will send the strongest nine that he has yet coached at T.C.U. against the Bears Friday, and the team that is slated to be the most determined one a Purple team has ever made for Southwest Conference honors. The team is in excellent shape. It has shown strength in every department of play, with the only question mark being the usual one relating to the pitching staff.

Team on Fine Edge For Opener. Few exhibition and practice tilts have been played by the Frogs, but the team has taken advantage of the unusually pleasant weather encountered during most of the seven weeks of training. The team is on fine edge for the opening, and today's and tomorrow's workout will consist mostly of long batting and fielding drills. There will be no need of any final polishing or brushing up.

With two full teams available, the Christian mentor has put his men under fire by matching them each afternoon in games of from five to nine innings. Two full-time tilts were played last week, the Yankins winning the first, 6 to 5, and the regulars copping the second, 7 to 3.

Good Schedule This Year. It will be remembered that last season the Frogs started the season at a distinct disadvantage in having to meet the champion Texas Longhorn team in Austin. The Longhorns won both games and the Christians started off in a rut from which they never recovered. This year's schedule is needed a break for the Meyer-men and should prove a great boon to their title hopes. Following the Baylor series, the Frogs go to S. M. U. for two games, on the next week-end to Waco, and then return home for eight games before having to go on the road again.

Capt. Buster Walker, Frog ace for the past two years, will take the mound Friday in an effort to put the Frogs out in front in the race. Cox will probably take the hill Saturday, with Al Flynn, George Roselle, Ellisworth Chappell and a number of others ready for the relief role. With Ed Sain lost to the team because of an appendicitis operation, Jay Williams will likely do the receiving, though Meyer may send Leo Buckley behind the plate. Buckley has been working out with the mitt the past week, but is regular right fielder. The infield will consist of Hirstine or Wallin at first; Carrell, second base; Grubbs, third base; and Hunter Hill, shortstop. In the outfield will be Griffin, left field; Wright, center field; and Buckley, right field. If Buckley catches, either Hinton or Clyde Roberson will patrol right.

over the centerfield fence—a mighty wallop even if it was helped by a slight breeze.

The Shireless Sox play the Texas Longhorns tomorrow in Austin. The Longhorns were defeated 4 to 1 recently by the New York Giants, but the four runs were made in the first two innings. Mike De La Fuente, right hander from down Del Rio way, held the big leaguers scoreless the last seven innings. Even though the Texans lost several good men last year, they are ranking favorites to annex another title.

Try This One!

In answer to a challenge from Dr. Child to Dr. Shover, the effect that mathematics could never contain anything even bordering on humor, Prof. Shover has started a column called "Try This One." This will give interesting and humorous mathematical facts. The column will be edited by Miss Ina Bramlett, a mathematic student.

A rabbit is 50 feet ahead of a dog. If the dog can run 15 feet while the rabbit runs only 10 feet, the dog can never catch the rabbit.

Frogs Drop Opener As Cats Win 10 to 1

Cox Checks Texas Leaguers in Final Stages After Relieving Walker.

Getting to Capt. Buster Walker for eight hits and nine runs in the first four innings, Frank Snyder's Fort Worth Cats defeated the Horned Frogs Monday 10 to 1, in the first of a two-game series scheduled at La Grave Field. Cox relieved Walker for the Frogs at the beginning of the fifth and held the Texas Leaguers to a couple of hits and a single run the rest of the way.

Most of the runs scored off Walker were questionable, with the Cats counting a number of runs before the Frog infield settled down. From the T. C. U. standpoint, the twirling of Cox was the outstanding feature. The big righthander showed the professionals plenty of stuff and fanned four men. The Frogs were out-hit 10 to 5.

University Sextet Wins Championship

T. C. U. Girls Top Y. W. C. A. Group With 7 Victories, 1 Tie in 8 Games.

The University Church sextet won the Y. W. C. A. championship last week with seven victories and one tie to its credit.

By defeating the Central Methodist team 13-10, the T. C. U. sextet ended the season without a single loss.

Miss Ruth Williamson won high point honors with 112 points, followed by Miss Lucyle McCray of the First Christian team with 94 points. Miss Marian Miller placed third with 75 points.

Mrs. Helen Murphy, the coach, said that every member of the team played excellent throughout the season. Special mention goes to Misses Williamson, Guhl, Housel, Reynolds, Robbins, Ruff, Murphree, Miller, and Merritt, each of whom played consistent ball throughout.

Track Meet Will Be April 4

The T. C. U. intramural track and field meet will be held Friday, April 4, at 2 o'clock at the T. C. U. stadium.

Frog Track Men To Enter Relays To Run at Texas Meet Friday, at S. M. U. Saturday.

Coach Mack Clark and a squad of six track men will leave Thursday night for Austin, where they will compete in the sixth annual Texas Relays Friday. In addition to Cy Leland in the special 100-yard dash, Coach Clark will enter two relay teams. Don Nugent, Chester Crow, Red Oliver and Leland will run the 440 relay. Nugent, J. C. Boyd, Paul Snow and Oliver will run the 880 relay.

The above men will compete in the same events Saturday afternoon at the S. M. U. Relays. The Frog track men will have a full schedule from now until the Conference Meet in May, as they will have a track meet every week-end. The schedule follows: March 28—Texas Relays at Austin. March 29—S. M. U. Relays at Dallas. April 5—Race at Houston. April 12—Simmons at Fort Worth. April 19—Baylor at Fort Worth. April 26—North Texas Teachers at Fort Worth. May 3—S. M. U. at Fort Worth. May 10—Southwest Conference Meet at College Station.

Free Throw Meet Tomorrow

The intramural free throw tournament will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and night at 7:30 o'clock. All men are eligible for the tournament except varsity and freshman squad men.

Miss Reed Is Out of Hospital

Miss Thelma Reed who has been in Cook Memorial Hospital on account of an appendicitis operation is now at Gibson Cottage. Miss Reed's mother is with her.

Texas Relays to Be on March 28 1,000 Tracksters Are Expected to Take Part in Meet.

AUSTIN, March 25.—What is expected to prove the largest athletic event ever conducted in the Lone Star state will be held at the University of Texas March 28 with the running of the sixth annual Texas relays. Plans for the meet are rapidly nearing completion.

Twelve relay races and 15 individual events are on the schedule. Three classes, university, college and high school, will participate. In the university class the following relay events will be run off: Quarter mile, half mile, one, two and four-mile and the medley, while in the college class the medley, half mile and mile relay will be run. Only two relay events will be run in the high school division, the medley and the mile relay.

Nine special events will be held in the university and college class. They are the 100-yard dash, 120-yard high hurdles, shot put, discus throw, javelin throw, high jump, pole vault and 3,000 meters run.

Four special events will be run for high school entries, the 100-yard dash, 120-yard high hurdles, shot put and high jump. The 100-yard dash and 120-yard high hurdles will be held for academics and junior colleges.

The number of athletes taking part in the meet is expected to total 1,000. At the 1929 relays there were 800 participants out of 1,000 entries and officials of the meet expect that number to be raised by at least 200. Harry F. Schulte, track coach at the University of Nebraska, has been chosen to referee the relays. Schulte has been coach at the Nebraska school since 1919 and in the last eight years the Cornhuskers have won six track titles in the Missouri and Big Six conferences.

LOST—Black leather notebook containing English, sociology and journalism notes. Finder please return to the book store, or to Miss Maxine Russell.

To Represent T. C. U. At Fraternity Meet

Prof. Fallis to Accompany Buck, Hellman, Martin, Scott to Wichita, Kan.

The T.C.U. chapter of the Pi Kappa Delta will be represented at the national convention at Wichita, Kan., March 31 to April 4 by Hugh Buck, Stewart Hellman, John Scott and Paul Martin.

Stewart Hellman will represent the University in oratory and Hugh Buck in extemporaneous speaking. The debaters are John Scott and Paul Martin and Buck will also be the alternate debater.

Prof. Lew D. Fallis, head of the department of public speaking, and a member of the national debating fraternity, will accompany the representatives on the trip.

According to Prof. Plbaum, the convention chairman in charge of the general arrangements, there will be about 600 to attend the convention. Kansas has ninety-four delegates to date with Texas next with forty-eight. Twenty-eight states will be represented and eighty-eight colleges. According to the secretary-treasurer additional registrations will come in before time for the convention.

Passion Play at Dallas Will Be Presented Eight Times at Fair Park Auditorium.

The Freiburg "Passion Play," which originated in 1264 in Freiburg, Baden, Germany, will be presented at the Fair Park Auditorium for six nights, and two matinees, beginning Monday, March 31, with its hereditary players, the Fasnacht family, taking the leading roles.

Adolf Fasnacht as the Christus, inherited his part from his forefathers back seven generations. His wife, Elsa, appears in the role of Mary the Mother, and his daughter, Amalie, who represents the eighth generation, portrays Mary Magdalene.

Tickets for all performances may be obtained at Mrs. Lyons' concert office at Fakes and Company.

Horace Bacus Wins $2 for Best Skiff Story

Horace Bacus won the $2 prize for the best story submitted in The Skiff contest this week. Mr. Bacus wrote the story about Dr. Robert M. Duncan's leaving.

Additions were made to the story, but the new tip was given The Skiff and the value of a story is taken into consideration as well as the presentation of the material itself.

MILLIONS RELEASED

FOR OTHER INVESTMENT USE

AS RESULT OF IMPROVED RAILROAD SERVICE

IMPROVED railroad transportation is enabling manufacturers in the state of Illinois alone, to successfully carry on their business with reduced inventories that total $420,000,000 annually. On the basis of a total value of approximately $3 billions of dollars—the estimated annual value of all manufactures in the United States—this means that improved railroad service is saving American business at least the equivalent of the interest charges on five billion dollars. The reduced inventories in Illinois were effected out of a total annual volume of business that is slightly less than six billion dollars.

Not only have the interest charges been saved. The amounts not needed in inventories at both the originating and receiving ends of the line and in transit, are released for constructive investment. Without a doubt, this has been an important factor in our sustained prosperity. It is one of the most important reasons the country did not suffer from panic conditions following the readjustment of security values last winter. Very few if any businesses were caught with large stores of materials or stocks of goods on hand; consequently it was not necessary to "write off" huge losses as formerly happened. It will be remembered that there was virtually no readjustment of commodity prices to accompany the lowered security values.

So-called "hand-to-mouth" methods of doing business now are vital factors in our entire industrial and economic scheme of things. The entire system is dependent on exceptional value of all manufactures in the United States in daily use that does not reflect the combined services of a great many people and few realize how much of that service is performed by the railroads and what a small portion of the consumer's dollar ever goes to the railroads for their services.

A case in point is the consumer's dollar spent for bread. Some interesting figures have just been compiled showing that the producer gets 28.1 cents of the dollar. Transportation of the wheat represents 2.6 cents. The elevator margin is 2.8 cents. The flour manufacturer gets 3 cents. The transportation of the flour represents 4.4 cents. The bread manufacturer gets 12.3 cents. The selling cost is 16.4 cents, the "overhead" charges to those engaged in manufacture of bread is 5.7 cents. The operating cost to the retailer is 15.7 cents and the profit margin to the retailer is 2.9 cents.

Super-service on the part of the railroads is an essential necessity today. The Missouri Pacific Lines appreciate this and will continue to exert their best efforts to this end that the public may have the reliable, dependable railroad transportation that it needs and must have.

I solicit your co-operation and suggestions.

W. A. Rorer
President

MISSOURI PACIFIC LINES

"A Service Institution"

Try Renfro's first

Whether you want perfume, powder, shaving cream, tooth paste, drugs or a box of candy for mother, try Renfro's first—they can serve you. Nationally advertised drugs and toiletries are sold at Renfro's drug stores at cut rate prices. Soda fountains at all stores are ready to serve you tasty sandwiches and refreshing drinks.

Two Stores to Serve T. C. U.

T. C. U. Corner 9th and Houston No. 18 2200 Forest Park Blvd.

RENFRO'S

The largest drug chain in Texas

Your good deed for today

the Pause that refreshes

No matter how busy you are—how hard you work or play—don't forget you owe yourself that refreshing pause with Coca-Cola. You can always find a minute, here and there, and you don't have to look far or wait long for Coca-Cola. A pure drink of natural flavors—always ready for you—ice-cold—around the corner from anywhere. Along with millions of people every day, you'll find in Coca-Cola's wholesome refreshment a delightful way to well-being.

LISTEN IN
Graceland Place - Famous Sports Championships - Coca-Cola Orchestra - Wednesday 10:30 to 11 p. m. E. S. T. - Coast to Coast NBC Network

The Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga.

9 MILLION A DAY—IT HAD TO BE GOOD TO GET WHERE IT IS

Walk-Over

TO 705 HOUSTON
"Fort Worth's Largest Shoe Store"

The man who enjoys wearing "something different" will appreciate this smart model with its long shield shaped wing tip. The leather is Scope Call with trimmings of Java Brown.

$10

Charge Accounts Invited