Roark Wins In Student Body President Election

English, Psychology Departments Will Have Changes Next Year According to 1931-32 Catalog

Revision in Faculty, Five Promotions, Seven Scholarships and Two Fellowships Announced for School Terms.

Changes in two departments of the University will be the chief differences in the curriculum of the school year 1931-32, according to the catalog issued this week. The philosophy and psychology departments will be under one division next year with Prof. E. W. McDiarmid as its head.

The other change will be in the English department, with Miss Rebecca Smith, who has been on leave of absence this year serving as chairman of the department. There will be no department head next year.

Faculty Will Number 77. Various changes in the faculty have been made. Where there are 82 members of the faculty this year, there will be 77 on the staff next year.

Miss Katherine McKee Bailey will be added to the piano department to teach during the leave of absence of Miss Elsie Willis for 1931-32. Allen True, instructor in the department of history, will be on leave of absence next year, as will Prof. E. S. Redford, who will take graduate work in Harvard.

Mrs. Mirth W. Sherer will instruct in the field of government instead of education next year. Miss Bessie Plummer Ellis, instructor in Latin and Spanish, will instruct full time in these two languages.

Promotions include the promotion of Dr. Edwin A. Elliott and Prof. J. Willard Ridings to full professors, the promotion of S. W. Hutton to assistant professor, the promotion of Dr. William J. Hammond to associate professor, and the promotion of Miss Lida Spragins to assistant dean of women.

Nine Student Awards Made. Nine scholarships and fellowships have been announced. They are: Miss Catherine Jackson, scholar in geology; Howard Carrell, scholar in geology; Ellsworth Chappel, scholar in government; LeRoy Clardy, fellow in chemistry; Gordon Copeland, scholar in geology; Elmer Davis, fellow in economics; Miss Mary Margaret House, scholar in biology; John McDiarmid, scholar in government, and Elmer Staude, scholar in economics.

The catalog issued this week contains more than 50 pages less than the old one. The instruction part of the bulletin is in smaller type and conforms more to the magazine style of catalogs. Only one change will be made in the business end of the University which will affect the students. The addition of the student body fee of 50 cents has been added to the student publication fee and will be collected through the business office.

Miss Jobe Takes Oratorical Prizes

Miss Lansdale's Speech Wins Second Place in Contest.

Miss Elizabeth Jobe, Simmons University, won first prize of $25 in the State Oratorical contest held in the T. C. U. auditorium last Friday evening. Miss Jobe's speech was on the "Folk Lore of the Southwest."

Miss Jacque Lansdale, T. C. U., won second prize of $15, and Miss Edna Irwin, Baylor College for Women, won third place of $5. Miss Lansdale's speech was on "The Beat-Path," and Miss Irwin spoke on "Constitutional Ideals."

Judges of the contest were N. L. Clark, Everett King and Earnest Garrett.

The State Women's Oratorical Association was disbanded at the business meeting held Friday at 3:45 o'clock in Jarvis Hall. This action was the result of the lack of interest shown by the various colleges in the organization. It was decided that the Pi Kappa Delta State meet was to take the place of the regular contest held by the State Women's Oratorical Association.

The officers of the organization for this year were: President, Miss Opal Gooden, T. C. U.; corresponding secretary, Miss Myrtle Davis, T. C. U.; recording secretary, Miss Pansy Gardner, Simmons University.

A supper at Kings Tea Room was given after the contest. Those attending were Misses Elizabeth Jobe of Simmons University, Pansy Gardner of Simmons University, Edna Irwin of Baylor College for Women, Lois Hickman, coach from Baylor College, Jacque Lansdale, Opal Gooden, Myrtle Davis and Katherine Moore, and Marion Hicks, Frederick Isely, Roy O'Brien and J. W. Sprinkle of T. C. U.

Class Hears Talk on Mexicans

G. A. Wall, head of the Presbyterian Mexican Mission, spoke to Prof. Paul Baker's class in social case work Wednesday on "The Mexican Situation in Fort Worth." Mr. Wall was graduated from T. C. U. in 1929.

T. C. U. Delegates Go to Christian Meet

Faculty Members and Students Attend Annual Church Convention.

Among those who will attend the Texas Christian Missionary Convention beginning Tuesday at Wichita Falls are: Dr. W. C. Morro, Prof. S. W. Hutton; Prof. F. E. Billington, Chester Crow, L. J. Leatherman, Newton Robison, Elmer Henson, Harvey Redford, Travis White, Perry Gresham, Thurman Morgan and Ed McWilliams. President E. M. Waits, Dean Colby D. Hall, Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon and Prof. Hutton will be on the program. Prof. J. Willard Ridings will write the publicity.

The convention is the forty-sixth annual meeting and will continue through Friday, May 15. More than 1000 members of the Christian Church in Texas are expected to attend. Among the prominent men who will make addresses are: Governor Ross S. Sterling, Attorney-General James V. Allred and Harry O. Prichard, secretary of the National Board of Education, Indianapolis.

Band to Go to W. T. C. C. Meet

Lubbock Is Convention Site - Trip Will Last Two Days.

Thirty-five members of the Horned Frog band, together with the T. C. U. Tumbling Trio, will leave early Thursday morning for Lubbock on the Chamber of Commerce trip to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. Prof. Claude Sammis will be in charge of the band.

The Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce has named the Horned Frog band as the official band on the trip which will last two days. The delegation of Fort Worth business men and the band will arrive from Lubbock early Saturday morning.

Plans were originally made to take the special train on to the Carlsbad Caverns and into the northern part of New Mexico.

Members of the band are preparing two 50-foot signs to be put on the sides of the band-car, under the direction of Murry Livingston, president of the band.

Special numbers have been prepared for the trip, according to Prof. Sammis. Parades will be staged at ten stops along the route to the convention.

Gray Will Talk on "Mother"

"Some Mothers of the Bible" will be the subject of the sermon Sunday morning by the Rev. A. Preston Gray, pastor of the University Christian Church.

700 Participants To Give Cantata Tomorrow Night

Chorus to Be Composed of T. W. C., Seminary Club, Singer

ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY

Pageant to Depict Struggle of Indians Against Americans.

Approximately 700 people will participate in the public presentation tomorrow night in the T. C. U. stadium of Charles Wakefield Cadman's operatic cantata, "The Sunset Trail," with the composer himself directing.

The chorus for the cantata is composed of singers from T. C. U., T. W. C., the Baptist Seminary, the Fort Worth High Schools, the Harmony Euterpean, Sylvan, Cecilian Music Study and Arion Clubs, Shrine Chanters, city choirs and individuals who have volunteered to sing. A large symphony orchestra will furnish the orchestral accompaniment.

The story of "The Sunset Trail" depicts the struggles of the American Indians against the edict of the United States Government restricting them to prescribed reservations. The council fire where the Indian warriors decide that they will fight the whites, the prayers in the mountains and the warriors going to battle are all depicted in the story. The pageant closes with the defeat of the warriors and their submission to their destiny.

The pageant of the cantata is being presented by boys and girls from the physical education department of T. C. U. under the direction of Mrs. Helen Murphy.

The identity of the girl who will be Wildflower, the Indian princess, will not be revealed until the night of the presentation. The girls who will take the part of the Indian maids to the princess are Misses Maurine Parnell, Ruby Jean Hilgers, Marvylene Bowe, Margie McKean, Marie Welder, Eloise Barksdale and Helen Whitley. The princess will be represented in the traditional love scene found in Indian lore.

Worth Andrews has been selected to play the part of Red Feather, the lover. He will be in the love scene with the Indian princess. The chief of the tribe will be depicted by Adolph Dietzel. Gray Wolf, the young warrior, will be acted by Roland Balch, and Charles Casper will be the medicine man.

The solo dances which will be given are as follows: Prayer woman, Miss Philo Mae Murphree; the young lover, Miss Dorothy Kelly; the young warrior, Miss Mary Elizabeth Turrentine; the scout, Miss Katherine Prather, and the runners, Misses Marjory Brown and Isabel Sharp. (Continued on Page 2)

T. C. U. Mother's Club To Present Program

Series of Living Pictures From Bible Will Be Feature of Evening.

The T. C. U. Mothers' Club will present the program for the University Religious Fellowship Service Sunday night in celebration of Mothers' Day. A series of living pictures of mothers of the Bible will be the feature of the program.

Mrs. W. K. Rose, president of the club, will preside and will pay a tribute to living mothers. Mrs. J. J. Jarvis will respond to the tribute. Special music will be rendered by Misses Edith Armstrong and Anna Harriet Heyer, and Spence Mercey will sing "Little Mother of Mine."

Those posing for the picture will be: Sarah, Mrs. W. C. Wynne; Hannah, Mrs. George Hutchings; Samuel, Virginia Collin; Naomi, Miss Ruth Johnson; Ruth, Miss Betty Blankenship; Mary, Mrs. Bernard C. Williams, and Infant, Bernard C. Williams, Jr. Miss Pauline McCollum will be the reader.

Thirteen Theses Are Submitted

Ten Candidates Apply for M. A. Degree, Three on M. S.

Ten candidates for Master of Arts degrees and three candidates for Master of Science degrees have submitted theses for approval, according to the dean of the graduate school, Dr. John Lord.

A list of these subjects and their authors is as follows: "A Comparison and Evaluation of the Secondary School Systems of the United States and France," Miss Virginia Greer; "The Hero of the Spanish Romantic Drama," Miss Grace Jones; "A Study of the Work of the Fort Worth Branch of the Farm Labor Division of the United States Employment Service," W. J. Rogers, and "Development of the Railroad Industry in Texas," Ira B. Lee.

"Necessary Conditions for Certain Problems of the Calculus of Variations," Miss Elizabeth Shelburne; "The Woman in Galdos," Mrs. Loyd Ellis; "The International Regulation of Aircraft," Moseley Hurler; "How Summer Camps for Girls Serve the Purpose and Aims of Education," Miss Lucy Harding Adams; "Educational Value of the Little Theater," Mrs. H. Bradford; "International Law Principles Involved in the Enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment," C. C. Isbell; "The Stratigraphy Sedimentation and Paleontology of the Trinity Division Between the Brazos and Red Rivers," Howard Grubbs; "Foraminifera of the Taylor and Navarro Formations," John Peter Smith and "Marine Worms of the Texas Cretaceous," Brasher Stroud.

Saratoga Candidate Polls 472

Votes to Randle's 330 in Most Exciting Election Here in Years

Lebus, Terry to Be in Run-off for Head Yell Leader - Wright, Miss Ruff, Coulter Unopposed as 803 Cast Ballots.

By JAY WILLIAMS.

Alf Roark, Saratoga, was elected president of the Student Body Association for 1931-32 over his opponent, Gibson Randle of Fort Worth, it was made known this morning by A. T. Barrett, present leader of the student body, who conducted the balloting in last Friday's and Wednesday's chapel. Roark polled 472 votes to Randle's 330, carrying to victory by 142 votes in probably the most exciting student election in the history of the University.

Papers Reviewed At Press Meet

Skiff Praised by Prof. Jordan at Congress in Austin.

Criticising inaccuracy, speech reporting, lack of news sense, lack of sufficient interviews and lack of human interest stories, Prof. Lester Jordan of the department of journalism, Trinity University, reviewed in a general way various college newspapers at a meeting Saturday afternoon of the Southwestern Student's Press Club held in connection with the fifth annual Southwestern Journalism Congress at the University of Texas in Austin.

"News writing in college papers is, on the whole, much better than in city papers, especially in sports news," Professor Jordan stated. "Injure no man; bless all mankind" would be a good motto for college papers," added Prof. Jordan. The Skiff received the highest commendation of all the college newspapers discussed by Prof. Frank E. Burkhalter of the department of journalism, Baylor University. Little destructive criticism was offered on The Skiff.

Specific details, such as features, copy editing, headlines, proof reading, advertising, boxes, typography and general observations concerning each particular paper in consideration were discussed. The most frequent and general criticism applications to all college newspapers is the monotonous typography, the lack of subheads and poor proofreading, he said.

Miss Ruth James of the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, was elected vice-president, and Miss Virginia Beth Hendrix, of the University of Texas, was named secretary-treasurer of the club at the business session of the organization.

A motion was carried to the effect that the new president of the club will be elected by the members of that particular college where the convention will take place next year. Baylor College for Women at Belton has been selected as the meeting place for next year.

Johnnie Lebus, Electra, led the field of three in the race for head yell leader but failed to poll a two-thirds majority required by the constitution. Lebus, three times assistant cheer leader, drew 413 votes to 319 by Cy Terry, San Saba, and 71 by John Hopkins, Temple, his two opponents in the race. Barrett announced that a run-off would be held next week between Lebus and Terry. The next balloting will not require a two-thirds majority, he stated.

Wright, Ruff, Coulter Unopposed. Hal Wright, Fort Worth, unopposed candidate for the office of vice-president of the student body, was elected to serve in that capacity for next year. Miss Elizabeth Ruff, Brownsville, was elected secretary-treasurer of the student body, and Laurence Coulter, Fort Worth, was elected editor of The Skiff for 1931-32. Like Wright, Miss Ruff and Coulter were unopposed in the election.

Much Interest Is Shown. King Ballot reigned supreme on the University campus for two weeks prior to the final casting of votes in Wednesday's chapel. Old timers among the University expressed the opinion that not in many years, if ever, has the campus been so astir with student politics, which centered chiefly around the campaign for student body president. The ability and integrity of both candidates were adequately displayed by the fact that the winner's margin was comparatively slight. A general interest in the election was shown by the fact that more than 800 votes went into the ballot boxes.

Due to the fact that absolute secrecy concerning the election returns was resorted to until late this morning, it was impossible to get statements from any of the candidates.

Miss Lusk to Do Social Work

Miss Ruby Lusk, senior in the department of sociology, will do social service work at Lassiter Lodge, 1008 Penn Street, this summer. Lassiter Lodge is a home for working girls in Fort Worth.

JUNIORS TO ELECT

The junior class will elect officers for the 1931-32 school year next Friday morning immediately after chapel, it was announced this morning by Gibson Randle, president of the class. Randle has urged every member of the junior class to be present for the meeting.

Cadman Writes Love Songs for Others but Is Too Busy Being Entertained to Practice Using Them

By LILLIAN LUNDBERG. "I'm so busy getting other people married with my songs that I don't have time to marry myself," Charles Wakefield Cadman's explanation of his bachelorhood. But it is hard to understand how a person who is single could write the song, "At Dawning," which has become almost as necessary to the wedding ceremony as the pronouncement of the minister.

The slight, affable composer who has the vim, vigor and vitality of a small school boy, speaks with an unspeakable amount of enthusiasm. It is incomprehensible how a person who has been "tead, supped and dined" as much as he can keep going.

"I feel like a three-ring circus, and I need four bodies," he says. "My sense of humor keeps me from going crazy in this hectic life." "The production of 'The Sunset Trail' in Fort Worth is the greatest thing that has ever been done in America. It has never before been treated choreographically, and the co-operation of the town people and the unified school spirit in T. C. U. is the most remarkable thing I have ever encountered," Mr. Cadman comments.

Mr. Cadman showed a particular interest in the pageant feature of "The Sunset Trail."

"Mrs. Helen Murphy is a splendid stage and dance director, and she has worked out some beautiful dances for the performance," he says. "If more cities and schools would produce such enterprises as 'The Sunset Trail' production, there would be more interest in the traditions and the history of America. There is a gold mine of material in the traditions of the American people, and more people should be interested in it. I am glad that such a large number of Texas writers and composers are taking an interest in preserving the traditions and folklore of Texas soil."

The hospitality of T. C. U. and Fort Worth people, and the wildflowers have attracted Mr. Cadman's attention.

"I have never seen such a profusion of wildflowers," he says. "I am glad that I was able to come to Fort Worth when they were in bloom, particularly the bluebonnets."

Mr. Cadman's home is in California, so he is paying Texas a compliment.

Turning from a more serious vein of thought, Mr. Cadman related some of the queer things in the life of a composer. The letters he receives from "striving young artists" are, perhaps the source of his favorite line of humorous thought.

"It is funny," he says, "how many people think that they can write poetry. They are always sending me letters." These letters are funny to Mr. Cad-man because he has taken the trouble to memorize two of them—or perhaps he didn't have to memorize them. Anyway, here is something of what a famous composer has to put up with—after the formal "Der Sir:

"I unnerstan you rite songs. I have lots of poems. As subjects I have comic, national and current events. If my poems appeal to you, please met me at above address any day except week-ends."

The "sweet sixteens" even write him letters. Here's one of them: "I am 16 years old, and I am crazy about your music. I could play and sing Cadman songs until my teeth and hair fall out."

Well, such is the life of a song writer! The letters from his audience, though, as well as his beautiful home in Lamesa, Calif., and his work forms a vital part of his life, and he finds enjoyment in them.

MOTHER'S DAY.

Sunday, throughout a nation, men and women, boys and girls, will pay public and silent homage to mother. To these mothers who are gone, the tribute will be silent, reverent. To those mothers who are here, the tribute will be public, joyous.

In setting aside a special day for the expression of love and sympathy to the mothers of our country, the former President Woodrow Wilson said, "The service rendered the United States by the American mother is the greatest source of the country's strength and inspiration; we honor ourselves and the mothers of America when we do anything to give emphasis to the home as the fountain head of the State; and the American mother is doing so much for the home, the moral uplift, and religion, hence so much for good government and for humanity."

To pay tribute to those cherished individuals we call mother, college students should join in wholeheartedly. The wearing of the red or the white flower, the gifts, the public expression of love to Mother will all put into words the silent tribute that is carried in the hearts of every student throughout the year . . .

"No love half so sweet,
No heart half so fine,
As the love and the heart
Of Mother of Mine."

Judge Landis, baseball's high commissioner, seems to be about the only monarch that has any success in keeping on the throne.

"THE SUNSET TRAIL."

In the T. C. U. stadium tomorrow night, the people of Fort Worth and out of Fort Worth will witness the public presentation of the operatic cantata, "The Sunset Trail," by Charles Wakefield Cadman.

The fact that Cadman himself is directing the presentation of the composition should be a drawing card in itself. The immensity of the project should draw the attention of a large and interested audience.

The various reasons that college students cannot witness cultural projects such as "The Sunset Trail" are all eliminated from this presentation. The cantata is being given as a part of the National Music Week program.

The fact that T. C. U. has a part in "The Sunset Trail," the fact that it is being given in T. C. U.'s own stadium and the fact that it affords the students in T. C. U. a chance to see something truly cultural and worthwhile, should bring a large audience from T. C. U.

Avail yourself of the opportunity offered and go to "The Sunset Trail."

The present legislature of Oklahoma is attempting to make it unlawful for girls to smoke in cigarette advertisements, along the highways. That's right, girls shouldn't smoke on billboards.

BIRTH OF A NEW MOVEMENT.

Students who look upon pre-junior tests are merely another "hurdle" system in an eventual educational program are ignorant of the real purpose back of those tests. This University has recently completed its third year of such testing, with each year bringing us closer and closer to the ultimate aim of pre-junior examinations.

It is not merely to prophecy to say that this new step in modern education will in time change the whole face of the educational system. Modernity in education will find a heavy emphasis placed on an "accomplishment" basis in the work of a student, rather than on specified periods of residence work, on required credit courses, and the like.

In the near future, colleges and universities will divide their student bodies into two divisions—a lower division for freshman and sophomore students, and an upper division for juniors and seniors. This will displace the present four-year classification of students. New methods of evaluating a student's work will mean the almost complete abandonment of credits and grades and the elimination of the time element in completing college courses.

In the lower division, or the first two years of college, students will be drilled in intellectual orientation and general culture. In the upper division, the student's time will be largely occupied by intensive study in the field of his or her specialization. That plan will mean that those students who are especially adapted to fast and efficient work in covering subject matter, will not be held back by slower members of a class. It will mean that a student who so desires may be able to finish four years of work in three years. It will mean benefit to the student in the form of more freedom of study, more individual initiative, less dependence on hours, tests and credits.

The process is slowly but surely making headway. The system has already been adopted by some colleges and universities over the nation. Our own University is keeping step with this promising change by instituting the pre-junior test system into its curricula.

COULTER'S COLUMN

Wednesday afternoon, I took some high school news down to the Star-Telegram and the city editor told me to get a good story and he would run a banner headline on it. The only drawback was getting a story worth a headline. Of course, he was only joking.

About 9:30 o'clock, I went home and was sitting near the window studying my English lessons, when I heard the approach of an airplane. The motor was hitting perfectly, and as it drew closer I could tell that it must be a big tri-motored affair. Just as the it was over the house, the plane sounded as if it was zooming toward the earth in a power dive, so I decided to go outside and look at it.

Boy howdy! It was a big passenger plane, and the thing was cutting capers like nobody's business. First, it would drive straight for the earth and then zoom upward again. I thought that the pilot must be crazy to do stunts like that in a big plane full of passengers. All at once, as the plane zoomed toward the earth a wing seemed to loosen and the plane dived straight into the earth. The whole thing seemed to fall apart, but no flames appeared after the crash. Boy! What a story!

I ran to the phone and got hold of the city editor and told him to get a photographer and someone to cover the story, since I knew the first thing a cub reporter should do was to get someone who really knew something about covering a big story on the job. I just served as the tip.

Two minutes later, I was at the scene of the disaster and as my mind is good, I was able to start asking questions. Five ladies were sitting on the ground looking not so worse for their experience. One lady was convincing the others that they should get no publicity out of the wreck. Not a name would they divulge. Then I brought some stage experience into play and pleaded that it was the first story I ever had a chance to get, and being just a boy, they took pity on me and gave me their names. Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Norma Talmadge, Lucy Stone, Babe Ruth, Will Rogers, Miss Amelia Earhart, and William Randolph Hearst. Boy! And I was going to get a scoop. They promised not to give anyone else their names, so I had an exclusive story.

No? No!! It couldn't be. What! Lindbergh was the pilot. Say, would I get headlines all over the country? Am I asking you? I found Lindbergh and found that the plane was a Fokker of the type that the government condemned last week in the use of carrying passengers. What a story! LINDBERGH WRECKS FOKKER WITH $—I imagined the headline. Nobody was hurt except Will Rogers and he couldn't talk for some reason or other. Another headline. I ran back to the house and phoned for the city editor. The operator popped the phone in my ear—and I woke up.

There I sat with my English book in my hand. And dad was slapping at a mosquito. And I'm still just a cub reporter.

Open Forum

Dear Editor:
If the old saying that "Fool's names like fool's faces are always seen in public places" is true, then some of the prospective seniors who are running for the student body offices belong in the class with the fools. Their names are certainly seen in public places. An unnecessary requirement for a position of dignity, I should think.

An interest in the student election is something that is worthwhile. But enthusiastic campaigners who plaster the names of their candidates on the windows of all the campus stores, on the blackboards, on the ash cans and on the columns of the main building are acting like first-term freshmen who usually do not know any better than to do these things. (All due respect to the freshmen, of course.)

Advertising the candidates and arousing some interest in the campaign is fine—and more power to you. But acting like amateurs—well, not so good.

The dignity of the school should at least be kept up, and it certainly doesn't help any to have the buildings cluttered up with political advertising. —IVA GROUCH.

Official Bulletin

Final rehearsal for "The Sunset Trail" will be held tonight at 7 o'clock. All dancers and singers are requested to be at the stadium by 7 o'clock sharp.

SATISFACTION.

I want to dress you
In saffron and green,
Saffron satin to reflect
The pale gold glow of your skin,
Emeralds of deep sea green
For your eyes.

I want to see you sliken,
Glistening, confident, sublime,
Feel your luxuriant shiver
Of delight. And then—
I will twist the green glass
Around your golden throat
Until I see
Its pallor stained with red,
And watch the green
Transparent pools
Fill with too-long-hidden lies,
Hear your voice gasp,
"At last—you know!"

And say, flinging the broken
Beads aside, "Little gold fool,
I knew it all the time!"
—Leta Ray.

LOVE.

This—this is like a strong wave
Born at full sea,
I am watching on the shore
As it comes to me,
Holding out my hands to catch
Every bubble of its foam.
Suddenly it rises—high,
Threatening, it rushes on,
But I can not cry;
It dashes, strikes, recedes again . . .
Quiet on the shore, and then
Stretching out my hand
I find only broken
Bubbles on the sand.
—Leta Ray.

Books

MULATTO JOHNNY, by Alin Laubreaux; E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc., New York.

"Mulatto Johnny" is a half-breed son of a French sailor and a Kanaka woman. He is a fighter and has a temper like the savage Kanakas. He kills Olivier, an insulting sportsman, and, as a result, is forced into a hapless exile among the cannibals of Mallicolo, who feed him human flesh and provide him with popines, native women, so that they can eat his offspring.

The French strain in him rebels and he escapes, only to be sold into slavery in Australia. There he meets Sir Thomas T. Johnston, Esquire, who thinks he has discovered in the Mulatto a new champion prize-fighter. The eyes of the sporting world in Australia are on him, but they are interested only in the physical combat. They cannot see the two strains of blood which flow in his dark veins, the French and the native Kanaka. Which will triumph—tribal instinct or French cunning?

Laubreaux attempts to give us a psychological insight into the mind of this strange half-breed who labors under the struggle of two races, one winning, then the other. His theme problem is unusual and accounts for the two printings the book had in January immediately following the translation from the French by Coley Taylor. —O. B.

THE WATERS UNDER THE EARTH, by Martha Ostenso; Dodd, Mead and Company, New York.

There are fathers who are narrow minded and self-centered to the extent that they wreck the lives of their children. Matt Welland, in "The Waters Under the Earth," by Martha Ostenso, is a father who is narrowly religious and saps the ambition from his children. He rules his children with a strange driving force.

"The Waters Under the Earth" is a depressing book. No one finds happiness because the father has a firm grip on the characters and compels them to give up that which they most desire in the world. They must give up their own life and ambitions in order to harmonize with his beliefs.

Over the Air

By ELBERT HALING
"I think my wife was the only one who heard my speech," was the comment made by Dr. Herbert L. Hughes, when questioned regarding his talk given over the T. C. U.-WBAP College of the Air, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Dr. Hughes will be surprised when the letters of radio fans begin coming in regarding his talk. We feel sure that this response will be in the nature of appreciation as other dubious faculty members who have used the Air College were surprised with the replies they merited.

Miss Helen Jenkins, pianist, and Dean Hall will give Lectures in Louisiana

Dean Colby D. Hall will deliver a series of lectures at the convention of the Christian churches of Louisiana at Natchitoches, La., June 8-11. The subjects of the lectures are: "Incompleted Reformation," "Rediscovery of the Jesus Way" and "Forward to Christ."

Dr. Clinton Lockhart is Absent

Dr. Clinton Lockhart has been confined to his home for the past week with influenza. Dr. W. C. Morro and Prof. E. C. Cameron have met his classes.

Albert Luper, violinist, appeared in radio recital over WBAP Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This young man, Luper, is said by Dr. Guelick, to be a talented musician. Miss Jenkins is a well known pianist, herself, and these two artists have a right to expect much fan mail from their recent program.

"Personality Adjustment of Children" is the subject of an address to be given over the T. C. U.-WBAP Air College, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Prof. Raymond A. Smith.

Music Program Given By S. W. Hutton's Class

"Enriching Life Through Music" was the theme of the program presented at Brito Chapel, Wednesday by Prof. S. W. Hutton's class in leadership of sacred music. The program was presented in recognition of music week.

There are six members of the class and all took part on the program. Chester Crow presided; Miss Gladys Wilkinson acted as pianist, and Miss Angeline Jones led the singing of hymns. Sterling Brown gave a talk on the theme of the program, Wallace Jones offered the prayer and Miss Marian Porter sang "Lord Make Me Strong" by Eville.

THIS WEEK IN T.C.U. HISTORY

By ELBERT HALING
One Year Ago
Final plans were made for the opera, "Chimes of Normandy," which was to be given Saturday evening.

One hundred and seventy-four votes had been cast in The Skiff's prohibition poll. Up to this time, 76 were for enforcement, 61 for repeal, while 37 were for modification.

Five Years Ago
Dr. Gayle Scott spoke as a member of the T. C. U. lecture series on the subject, "University—Life in France."

The T. C. U. debaters closed a successful season with nine victories and no defeats to their credit. Members of the teams were: Leslie Chambers, Charles Proctor, Fred Erisman, Henry Shepherd and others.

Ten Years Ago
"Dutch" Meyer, popular hero of the athletic field, was elected president of the Students' Association.

Work on the campus lighting system of 150 lights was begun.

Back Stage In the News

By Madelon Flynt

Headline states that "Free Motion Pictures Begin at the Parks Tonight." An ideal place for college boys to take their dates.

The first television wedding was performed in New York last week. And the bride will be "telling it" to the groom from now on.

A Spanish paper is on file in the library. For an "Educated atmosphere" to impress visitors, I suppose.

The speed of planets has been reported as 1,000,000 miles a minute by California scientists. Is that some more of California "shop talk" or are airplanes really such old Dobbins?

A Chicago professor has invented a means whereby fish will begin eating on the flash of a red light, and refrain from eating when the green light comes on. Now all he needs is an amber light which will direct PEOPLE to food in time of business depression.

Another from Chicago: They are pegging down the sidewalks in that city in preparation of a subway, as they say. More than likely they want to have SOMETHING left when the gangsters get through.

A Georgia man won first prize in a fancy quilt show. Just another case of a "bridge widower" who is keeping the home fires burning.

More About 'Sunset Trail'

Opera to Close Music Week
All of the authentic details of Indian life will be carried out in the presentation of the story and in the costumes of the characters.

"The Sunset Trail" was first given from the manuscript in Denver, Colo., by the Denver Municipal Chorus in 1925. It was given 29 times by the American Opera Company, and has had 15 other performances. It has never been given before with as many people taking part as will take part in the presentation Saturday night.

The production will be the closing event of Fort Worth's observance of National Music Week.

Mrs. W. F. Arledge was the guest of her daughter, Miss Jo Beth Arledge, in Jarvis Hall last week.

WORTH

Then SAT.—SUN.—MON.—TUES.

The Public has made him their new idol!

ROBERT MONTGOMERY in "SHIPMATES" with ERNEST TORRENCE, DOROTHY JORDAN, CLIFF EDWARDS

AT THE THEATERS

WEEK'S CALENDAR
"SHIPMATES"—With Robert Montgomery, Dorothy Jordan, and Ernest Torrence, Saturday through Tuesday. "Ladies' Man," with William Powell and Kay Francis, Wednesday through Friday. At the Worth.

"THE PUBLIC ENEMY"—With James Gagney, Sunday through Wednesday. At the Palace.

"ILLICIT"—With Barbara Stanwyck, James Rennie and Charles Butterworth, Sunday through Tuesday. At the Tivoli.

NOTES
SHIPMATES, Worth, is a picture about the navy. This is the first starring flicker that Montgomery has made. Dorothy Jordan used to be a Fort Worth girl. All the 1200 men on board one of the ships on which the picture was filmed were anxious to be at her service. Be careful after seeing this picture and don't go join the navy, because it's really an exciting story.

LADIES' MAN, Worth, is a Rupert Hughes story. Powell takes the part of a society man who subsists upon money gained by selling gifts showered upon him by admiring young ladies. Kay Francis will make an added attraction to the film.

THE PUBLIC ENEMY, Palace, is more than a story of crime and its leaders. It strips the criminal of all glamour. It paints him as he is—the monster in human form who appears in many disguises—but always with the mania for money. Even the name suggests a picture of a hate of humanity.

ILLICIT, Tivoli, is a daring treatment of whether marriage should be a matter of ironbound ceremony or a more flexible arrangement. Barbara Stanwyck is gifted with a wonderful personality. See the picture and maybe you'll learn the secret.

Miss Mozelle Bryant of Jarvis Hall was the week-end guest of Miss Eloise Barksdale of Magnolia Avenue.

SOCIETY

BY VIRGINIA LOU SAUNDERS

T. C. U. has had the honor of having Charles Wakefield Cadman as a visitor on the campus this week. He is in Fort Worth for the first time and is here to personally direct the cantata, "The Sunset Trail." The costumes promise to be one of the features of the performance. The pageant depicting the life in an Indian village will be colorful and entertaining.

S. A. E. Fraternity Entertains Frogs

The championship frog basketball team and Coach Francis Schmidt were guests at the monthly meeting of members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at the Texas Tuesday.

Browning's Birthday Honored by Clubs

A Robert Browning program, sponsored by the Dramatic Club and Sigma Tau Delta, was given in Jarvis Hall last night in honor of Robert Browning's birthday.

Misses Opal Gooden and Lillian Anderson, and Gordon Musgrove of the Dramatic Club and Misses Helen Crews, Emily Garnett and Siddle Joe Johnson of Sigma Tau Delta were in charge of arrangements for the following program: Miss Mabel Major talked on "Browning's Life"; Miss Johnson talked on "The Characteristics of Browning's Poetry"; Miss Louise Bridges spoke on "Browning and Dramatic Monologues"; Dr. W. J. Hammond, Dr. Leslie Chambers, Dr. Edwin A. Elliott and Leo Meyer, and L. C. Wright, Francis Schmidt, Dr. M. D. Clubb, Prof. W. M. Winton, Prof. John Ballard, and President E. M. Waits.

Prof. McDiarmid was presented with a book from the guests by Dean L. L. Leif.

Miss Miller will give piano recital.

The School of Fine Arts will present Miss Lura Fay Miller in senior piano recital in the University auditorium Friday night, May 15, at 8:15 o'clock.

Miss Miller completed her work in February. Her home is in Cleburne.

Etching exhibit is held in art studio.

A group of etchings, which are the work of the members of the Etching Club, are on exhibit in the art studio of the third floor of the Administration Building.

Included in this exhibit are a series of etchings of South America by Mrs. Graces Liddle, who spent six years in Venezuela.

Mrs. Lucille Richhart has a series of West Texas etchings in the exhibit. She collected the material for these during her stay in the art colony at Taos, New Mexico.

The exhibit also contains etchings of Misses Mary Cecilia Gaudin, Sarah Smith and Lottie Martin, and a few block prints by Mrs. Liddle.

Athletic officials to have luncheon.

The faculty representatives, coaches and directors of the Southwestern Conference will be the guests of T. C. U. at a luncheon to be given Saturday in the home economics dining room.

The luncheon is to be served through the courtesy of the home economics department.

A banquet will be given Saturday evening at 7:30 in the T. C. U. cafeteria for the faculty representatives, coaches and directors of the Southwestern Conference and the contestants in the track meet.

Miss Moore gives tea for seniors.

Miss Katherine Moore, sponsor of the senior class, honored the class with a spring tea given in Jarvis Hall Sunday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Wesley Ammerman presided over the tea table, which was decorated with pink tapers in silver candle holders and a center piece of pink roses and sweet peas in pastel shades.

The living room and hall of Jarvis were a profusion of wild flowers, blue bonnets predominating.

The members of the house party were Misses Frances Veale, Virginia Rawlins, Louise Bridges, Jacques Lansdale, Marvella Bove and Anna Beth Baker, and A. T. Barrett, James Dacus, James Miller, Harmon Hodges, Bob McDaniel and Louis Holland.

Misses Marjorie Scott and Anna Harriet Heyer, and David Ashley furnished music for the occasion.

Approximately 125 seniors attended.

Officers of Bryson Club Are Chosen

A. D. Weatherly was elected president, Miss Marjorie Scott, vice-president, and Miss Virginia Bryson, secretary-treasurer of the Bryson Club for the coming year at a meeting held Tuesday night at the home of Miss Marian Smith.

Miss Bryson was joint hostess with Miss Smith.

The Pulitzer Prize awards were discussed during the evening and refreshments served to the following: Misses Frances Anderson, Helen Morro, Frances Griggs, Adeline Panmill, Marie Roberts, Marjorie Scott and Constance Temple, and Alec Alexander, Karl Ashburn, James Dacus, Elbert Lavender, Alf Roark, B. W. Spearman, Mel Summers, James Wolfenden and Weatherly and the hostesses.

B. C. B. to hold annual banquet.

The Brite College of the Bible Association will hold its annual banquet at the Blackstone Hotel Monday night, May 11.

Those serving on the program committee are Otto Nielsen, chairman, Elizabeth Henry, Zada Fowler and Mary Lois Yarbrough. Miss Myrtle Davis has charge of the reservations. Between forty and fifty members of the association are expected to attend.

Miss Cook weds Howard E. Kunz.

Miss Margaret Cook, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook, of Fifth Avenue, became the bride of Howard Edward Kunz, son of Dr. E. C. Kunz of McGregor, May 5. Mr. and Mrs. Kunz were married in Durant, Okla.

Mrs. Kunz was graduated from T. C. U. last June. Mr. Kunz is a graduate of Texas A. & M. They will be at home to their friends after May 20 at 1407 Hurley Street.

Pi Gamma Mu will have party Tuesday.

Miss Virginia Greer will entertain members of Pi Gamma Mu with a party at her home, 1617 Carlton Street, Tuesday evening.

Plans for a banquet will be made at the party.

Mrs. Smith speaks to Sigma Tau Delta.

Mrs. Goldie Capers Smith, Texas poetess from Dallas, was guest speaker at the formal dinner of Chi Alpha chapter of Sigma Tau Delta which was given in the Red Room at the Blackstone Hotel, Monday evening.

Miss Marjorie Lee Robison, retiring president of the chapter, presided at the affair and Miss Siddle Joe Johnson, president-elect, introduced Mrs. Smith. Miss Carolyn Lewis gave a toast to the old officers and a toast to the new officers was given by Miss Helen Morro. Miss Thelma Breithaupt gave a toast to Dr. Herbert L. Hughes, sponsor of the organization.

The fraternity colors, red and black, were carried out in the color scheme. The table which was centered with red gladiolas in a black bowl, was lighted by tall red tapers in black holders. Miniature red ladies and black men each carrying a "fortune" marked each place and black silhouettes were used as place cards.

Covers were laid for Misses Robison, Johnson, Lewis, Morro, Breithaupt, Una Winters and Jean Knight, Mrs. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mel Summers and Barter Freddy of Dallas.

Miss Knight was general chairman of arrangements for the dinner. She was assisted by Miss Gladys Dowling and Miss Winters.

Junior Colleges to Hold Meet Monday

T. C. U. Will Be Host to Trackmen From 10 Schools—Schmidt Referee.

The Texas Junior College Athletic Association Track Meet, with the ten outstanding junior colleges of the state participating, will be held on the Clark Field cinders Monday starting at 10 o'clock. Coach Schmidt has been named as referee, and Track Coach "Boss" Clark will be official starter.

The preliminaries will start at 10 o'clock and run until after 11 o'clock. Hostilities will be resumed at 1:30 o'clock and the schedule calls for them to finish about 3:30 o'clock.

Coach Schmidt has arranged for Herved Frog and freshman athletes to serve in the capacity of clerks, timers, announcers, inspectors and scorers.

Eight Are Enrolled In Landscaping Class

Students Will Make Study of Natural Scenery Near Fort Worth.

A class in landscaping, which began Thursday, April 9, under the supervision of Prof. S. P. Ziegler, is working in the valleys, along the river and about Fort Worth drawing or painting directly from nature.

This class will continue through the semester, meeting each Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 1 to 4 o'clock when the weather is fair. At the end of the season there will be an exhibition of the sketches.

According to Prof. Ziegler, those who have expressed an intention of entering the class are Misses Sarah Smith, Elva Koeppel, Lucille Richhart, Martha Davis, Marie Friedman, Mary Gaudin, Marie Hamlett and Lottie Martin.

Public Hears Operetta

"Royal Romance" Is Given for Music, Woman's Club.

Misses Annabel Hall and Mota Maye Shaw had the leading roles in "A Royal Romance," one-act operetta by Misses Anna Harriet Heyer and Madeleine Wilson and Dr. H. D. Guellick, which was presented in the auditorium Wednesday night.

Other solo parts in the presentation were taken by Misses Bita May Hall, Madeleine Wilson and Elizabeth Strayhorn. Thirteen girls from the School of Fine Arts appeared in the chorus. The T. C. U. orchestra, with Prof. Claude Sammis as musical director, furnished the orchestral accompaniment.

The program was sponsored by the Music Club and the T. C. U. Woman's Club.

X-ray Expert to Speak

George Townsend to Illustrate Lecture to Bio-Geo Club.

George F. Townsend, pioneer X-ray expert of Texas, will speak at the Bio-Geo meeting Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the physics laboratory. His lecture will be illustrated with a series of demonstrations of practical interest to science students.

A test in which food will be eaten and the digestive processes watched will be one of the main experiments which Townsend will perform.

Townsend is credited with having had the first X-ray tube in this part of the country and is of national prominence in his field.

Dr. Waits to Deliver Address

Dr. E. M. Waits will deliver the commencement address at the Noco High School, May 19.

Barrett Calls for Robe Orders

All orders for senior caps and gowns may be given to A. T. Barrett before 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Miss Baker to Give Reading May 14

Miss Anna Beth Baker will read an arrangement of "The Prince Club," by Edward Peple, in her senior recital Thursday evening, May 14, in the University auditorium.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Turrentine will assist Miss Baker with a few ballet numbers between acts.

Misses Clara Castleberry, Ruth Tarpley and Alice Glenn Young will act as ushers. Miss Katherine Moore will be faculty sponsor.

Supper Is Given by McLean Sisters

Misses Virginia and Anne McLean entertained with a buffet supper at the country home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McLean, Wednesday evening of last week.

The lawn was lighted with gaily colored Japanese lanterns, while the spring motif was carried out with bluebonnets and dimly glowing tapers in the home. A negro orchestra furnished music.

The guests were Misses Doris Hanon, Ann Thompson, Jean Harrell, Dorothy McLean, Eugenia Cantrell, Elizabeth Alexander, Gladys Simons, Juanita Freeman, Jeanne Horeley, Helen Cone, Gladys Simpson, Pauline McCollum, Evelyn Cahill, Eloise Barksdale, and Carolyn Lewis, and Granville Allen, Charles Collins, Laurence Coulter, Bill Rogers, Sterling Brown, Burton Mallicote, Fred Whitaker, Emery Evans, W. B. Mahaney, George Massie, Edward Hanon, Bill Cantrell, Sproesser Wynn, Elbert Lavender, Bill McLean, R. A. Gregory and Harlan McLean.

The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by their parents and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bullock, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam McLean.

GOLD DUST TWINS

We Get the Dirt

The time is short for the preparation of term themes and courting on the T. C. U. campus. The junior-senior banquet, bringing the realization that the school year is nearly over, was the first cousin to a style show. Rustie Veale looked like a piece of Dresden in her quaint organdy dress. Helen Jenkins was the only girl fortunate enough to be wearing a corsage that night.

Does anybody know where Marie Hollas and C. C. Isbell were going Sunday afternoon?

For the next presidential election of the United States it would be well for some of the campaign managers to confer with Jim Gaddy Norris and Laurence Coulter for ideas. This election has furnished the most excitement T. C. U. has had since last class rush day. It was indeed a revelation—we did not know that the students had so much energy and loyalty.

Has anybody found out why a certain ministerial student by the name of Loyd Douglas had to help a girl over the stadium fence after one of the track meets?

Georgia Shappard will never grow. She was seen getting a spanking the other day.

It will be worth one's time to visit on the hill this summer and see Dean Beckham in overalls painting the fence. An opportunity like this does not present itself often.

PERSONALS

Misses Doris Sellers and Mae Housel of Jarvis Hall spent the week-end at the home of the former in Hico.

Jack Langdon spent last Friday with his parents in Glen Rose.

Richard Houser, Dan Salkeld and Bob Preston, members of T. C. U. track team, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Dallas visiting friends.

Frank Miller, resident of Clark Hall, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Zandt Jarvis of Fort Worth.

Miss Angelina Jones has returned to school after a week's illness at her home in Dallas.

Miss Majorie Miller spent the week-end at her home in Lancaster.

Standard Lambert visited his home in Temple last week-end.

Miss Ruth Jenkins spent the week-end with her brother, Lieut. Dan Jenkins, in Galveston.

Miss Mary Lee Poindexter was the guest of Miss Marian Tyson in Jarvis Hall Sunday night.

Miss Sarah Fitzgerald, C. I. A., was the guest of Miss Janelle Bush in Jarvis Hall last week-end.

Miss Ethelene Craddock spent the week-end visiting friends in Dallas.

Miss Lollie Botts spent the week-end in the home of Miss Elizabeth Alexander in Fort Worth.

Miss Ruby Chestnutt of Jarvis Hall spent last week-end at her home in Nocoona.

Miss Anna Mae Bucy of Texas Woman's College, was the guest of Miss Bennie Sue Ratliff in Jarvis Hall last week-end.

Miss Fanna Mae Flowers visited in Arlington last week.

W. A. A. Banquet to Be Monday Evening

Miss Lawrence Will Serve as Toastmaster and Will Present Officers.

Two blankets, 11 sweaters, 10 pins and approximately 75 letters will be awarded to members of the Woman's Athletic Association at the annual spring banquet at the Woman's Club Monday evening.

The new officers and managers for next year will be presented by the outgoing president, Miss Thelma Lawrence. Miss Lawrence will also act as toastmaster. The Louise Burgess School of Dancing will present a program during the evening. Miss Philo Mae Murphree and Miss Marian Miller will lead the group in singing the University and W. A. A. songs.

Honor guests for the banquet will be Dean Sadie Beckham, Miss Eula Lee Carter, Francis Schmidt, Prof. E. W. McDiarmid, Butler Smiser and Dean L. L. Leifwich.

The committee in charge of nominating new officers is Misses Evelyn Stobaugh, Harriet Griffin, Laura Lee Barclay, Thelma Lawrence and Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy.

Baker and Smith Speak Sociologists Address Convention of Social Workers.

"The Biology and Psychology of the Delinquent Child," was the subject of a talk given by Prof. Paul Baker at the conference of social work in Dallas April 23-25.

Dr. W. C. Smith also spoke to the group on "Interpretation of Social Work From the Point of View of a Layman."

Students who attended the conference were: Misses Myrtle Davis, Ruby Lusk, Vera Bell Stephenson, Elva Jane Flickwir, Elizabeth Male and Angelina Jones and Mrs. M. F. Barrett and Glenn La Due.

Miss Margaret Benchoff spent the week-end in the home of Miss Jessie McMurray of Fort Worth.

SPORT WAVES

By JACK BELZNER.

The Southwest Conference sports calendar will close next week-end when the loop tennis tournament is held at the University of Texas on Penick Courts. The baseball schedule will be completed next week also with the two remaining games being played. The track season will be finished with the conference meet which will be held today and tomorrow on Clark Field.

The close of the baseball season calls for the selection of all-conference teams. Instead of picking the all-conference team this year, I have chosen a man who is more capable than myself and who knows every ball player throughout the loop. He won't have to rely on averages and hearsay as much as I would so he will give you a real all-conference lineup in next week's issue of The Skiff.

The man who will do the choosing is Howard Carrell, stellar Frog second baseman. Carrell has been unanimous choice by sports scribes throughout the Southwest Conference for the past two years. But this year it is doubtful if he will receive many votes. The breaks all went against him. At the start of the season, he has a serious leg injury which handicapped him in the early games. This injury is still handicapping the play of one of the greatest infielders ever turned out by "Dutch" Meyer. There is not an infielder in the conference who can hit the ball or field the second base territory with the accuracy of Howard Carrell when he is in form, but he hasn't a chance this year because he is with a losing ball club and is slowed down by injuries. But, we'll bet a telephone penny that he picks the best all-conference team of the season.

Don't forget that track meet today and tomorrow. That is one event that doesn't happen but once a year and T. C. U. is only host to the meet once in seven years. More than 100 of the outstanding track and field men in this section of the country will vie for honors on the field during these two days. Some of these men will be heard from all during the summer at the different intercollegiate, A. A. U. and invitational meets. A few will be representing the United States at the 1932 Olympiad in Los Angeles.

Frogs Win Track Meet With Ponies

Houser Takes First In 100- and 220-Yard Dash Events.

The Horned Frog track and field team annexed their second victory over conference squads in a dual meet with S. M. U. on the latter's field last Saturday by a 67 1/2-to-54 1/2 score.

Houser, Frog dash star, won both the 100-yard and 220-yard dash events. Brown, Christian distance man, won both the mile and two mile races. Dallas took the 440-yard dash, Preston the pole vault and Williams the broad jump for other Horned Frog first places. Phelps, Tiner, McCulloch, Spearman and Salkeld all added second places to the Christian goal.

The Frogs won both the 440 and mile relay events. The first was won in 43.4 seconds and the second was won by default.

Frog Golf Team Loses

S. M. U. Defeats T. C. U. in Single and Double Matches.

The S. M. U. divot diggers made a clean sweep of their six matches with T. C. U. here Monday. This marked the second Horned Frog's loss to the Mustang golfers.

The results: Singles: Jim Gaddy Norris lost to O'Hara Watts, 5 and 4. Leon Taylor lost to John Faulkner, 7 and 6. A. D. Westerly lost to Dale Lindsey, 3 and 2. Ray McCulloch lost to Becker, 8 and 7.

Doubles: Taylor and Norris lost to Faulkner and Lindsey, 7 and 6. McCulloch and Westerly lost to Becker and Watts, 7 and 5.

Miss Betty Lacewell of Jarvis Hall entertained with a house party at her home in Cleburne last week-end. Six guests, Misses Elizabeth Joutt, Jewel Dean Tinnin, Ruth Cowan, Mamie Mears, Betty Lillard, Janelle Bush and Lurene Rice, were present and attended a picnic at Glen Rose.

For the first time since 1926, Texas Christian University's historic Clark Field will furnish the setting for the Southwest Conference Track and Field Meet. With the eleventh hour entrance of the University of Arkansas, all members of the Southwest athletic body will be represented. One hundred and ten athletes have been entered. Rice, with 26 contestants, leads the field and Texas is a close second with 22. A.&M. has entered 21, T. C. U. 14, S. M. U. 14, Baylor 8 and Arkansas 5. Texas A.&M., Rice Institute and the University of Texas are due to stage a three-cornered battle for the greatest number of points when the totals are compiled, and if the results of the dual and triangular meets serve as a true indicator, T. C. U., S. M. U., Arkansas and Baylor will trail in the order named.

The Owls have a great team, but the excellent work of Sprague of S. M. U. Creighton of Arkansas and Salkeld of T. C. U. in the weights; Houser of T.C.U., Emmons of A.&M. and Goddard of Baylor in dashes, and Strickland of Baylor in the high jump discuss, hurdles and shot put should overshadow the performance of the Rice team as a whole. The Aggie delegation, with a well-rounded team, is picked to take the meet with the Owls in the runner-up position. Texas is almost certain to take third.

T. C. U. Has Several "Specialists" Coach Mack Clark of T. C. U. has some specialty men who are destined to cop several points. Dick Houser, sensational sophomore dash star, will be one of the outstanding dashmen of the meet. Dan Salkeld should take a second in the discus; the relay team composed of Houser, Nugent, Dallas and Snow has made the best time in the 440-yard relay, while Ernest Brown is a good bet in the distance races.

Arkansas is bringing a five-man team that is featuring an excellent discus and shot star in Creighton. He will be the Razorback chief point-gatherer.

S. M. U. has an almost certain first place in the discus with "Buddy" Sprague on the throwing end of the disc. Walstead is a dangerous threat in both hurdles.

Baylor's chances for a few points lie in Strickland who will be entered in the hurdles and practically all of the field events and Goddard an excellent dash man. Although an excellent all-around trackster, Strickland is surpassed by a specialty man from the other schools in every event.

Spirited Completion in Dashes. Because of the absence of the two former premier dash stars of the Southwest—Cy Leland and Claude Bracey—some of the color will be missing in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, but Dick Houser of T. C. U., Emmons of the Aggies, Goddard of Baylor, and Holloway of Rice will furnish spirited competition. Houser and Emmons have the better pre-meet records.

In the 440-yard dash, Westerfelt of Texas has been setting the pace in dual and triangular meets. Although he is the top heavy favorite to be first to reach the tape, Chambers, Jamerson, and May of Rice and Dallas and Tiner of T. C. U. will be rushing him.

In the half-mile Schiller of Texas seems to be a first place winner with Copeland of T. C. U., Harbour and Kaplan of Rice and Mims of A.&M. fighting for the other places.

In the distance races—mile and two-mile—there will be plenty of spirited rivalry. Winders and Nance of A.&M., Brown of T. C. U. and Harbour of Rice seem to have the edge of the rest of the field. Blankeney of Texas seems to be the better two-miler, but Brown of T. C. U. has an excellent chance to nose out the Texas star.

T. C. U. and Rice Vie in Relays. The Horned Frog 440-yard relay team composed of Houser, Nugent, Snow and Dallas have an excellent chance to place first in the spirit baton. The Rice combination of Holloway, Driscoll, Coffee and Jamerson is an excellent team. The Texas combination of Schiller, Stafford, Elkins and Craig, will be a threat to the above named favorites. The mile relay team of the Aggies—Lord, Mims, Addicks and Emmons—should

Intramural Sports

Seventeen entries have been received in the intramural golf tournament, and play is to start immediately. The first match will be between John Jarrott and Tommy Macklin, with Lawrence Floyd playing the winner. The other entries drew byes.

The following have been paired by to play in the first matches: Orville Paty and Hays Barker, Ted Lacey and Howard Walsh, David Stitt and Warren Logan, Scott Daly and Blakney Saunders, Cy Terry and Jerry Long, Charley Williams and Howard Sandidge, and Marion Hicks and Al Hubbard.

All matches are to be 18 holes, with the first rounds being played by May 10, the second by May 14, the third by May 16 and the final by May 19.

One half the regular playing fee has been obtained for this tournament, providing the matches are played on week days.

An intramural swimming meet will be held at the gym pool Tuesday, May 19, at 2 o'clock, according to Walter S. Knox, head of intramural athletics. All those wishing to participate should sign up at the gym as soon as possible.

There will be four events. The first will be a 40-yard free style race, and the second will be a 40-yard back stroke swim. The third event will be a relay race and the fourth will be a fancy diving contest.

Play in the second round of the double round-robin schedule in intramural baseball got under way Tuesday in a game that was postponed from April 29, with the seniors and soph "A" jumping into the lead by defeating the frosh and soph "B" teams respectively. The seniors downed the frosh 8 to 5, while the soph "A" bunch took their classmates, the soph "B" team, to a 11-to-5 cleaning.

Wednesday the soph "A" team defeated the juniors, winners of the first round play, 8 to 7. The juniors avenged this defeat however, by taking the seniors to a cleaning by the score of 23 to 12.

In two important games yesterday afternoon, the Soph "A" nine defeated the seniors 12 to 4, while the Soph "B" team marched to a 13-to-8 victory over the freshman club.

McDiarmid Leads Frogs to Victory

Christian Tennis Team Wins 4 to 2 Over Mustangs.

Captain John McDiarmid led his Christian tennis team to a 4-to-2 victory over the S. M. U. net squad on the Horned Frog courts last Saturday. McDiarmid turned back Boothman 7-5, 6-3 in the number one singles match. Jack Smith, number two ranking Frog player, returned to his early season form and downed Boyer, 7-5, 6-2.

Noel Roberts decidedly was off form and lost to Newton 3-6, 3-6. Walsh, Frog number four player, was hard pushed to annex a victory off Wesson, 4-6, 10-8, 6-3.

McDiarmid and Smith teamed together to win a hard fought match from Boothman and Boyer, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3. The Pony number two doubles team, Newton and Wesson, downed Walsh and Roberts, 7-5, 6-3, in the final play of the day.

place first with the Texas quartet—Westerfelt, Meyer, Edgar, Schiller a close second.

In the hurdles, Harlan and Slocomb of the Aggies and Krochel of Rice hold a monopoly, but Strickland of the Bears and Harbour of the Owls are excellent hurdlers. In the highs, Harlan seems to be a winner with Krochel a close second.

Sprague Is Weight Star. Sprague of S. M. U., Creighton of Arkansas, Salkeld of T. C. U., McClune of A. & M. and Burke of Rice are the outstanding weight stars of the loop, but Sprague and Salkeld have the better records thus far.

Hodges of Texas, Klaerner of Rice and Hermann of S. M. U. are the outstanding javelin tossers.

Although Stiteler of A.&M. holds the conference record in the pole vault, he was nosed out in a recent triangular meet by Baldry of Rice. Craig and Perkins of Texas, Spearman of T. C. U. and Hale of Rice have excellent record in the broad jump. Perkins of Texas is the premier high jumper of the conference. Strickland of Baylor and Holsonbake and Aston of A.&M. are also in line for places.

E. S. "Mule" Frasier, veteran track starter and former Baylor University star has been assigned the starter's job.

Frogs Lose Two Baseball Games

Texas and A. & M. Win From Christians on Clark Field.

The University of Texas Longhorns downed the Horned Frogs 8 to 6 last Friday afternoon and the Texas Aggie baseballers came along the following day to hand Coach Meyer's squad a 16-to-3 defeat. Both games were played on Clark Field. It was Ernie Koy's home run in the ninth inning that gave the Texas team the decision over the Christians. It was one of the longest hits of the year on the T. C. U. field and White was on base at the time.

Stell Is Hitting Star. One of the features of the day was Alf Roark's hurling. He pitched four innings after relieving Chappell, but had to retire in the final frame when he became wild. Stell, Frog outfielder, was the hitting star of the day, collecting a double and two singles. Koy was the only Longhorn player able to collect two hits off the hurling of Chappell, Roark and Townsend.

The game was close all of the way and the Frogs held an advantage most of the time. The Frogs were able to collect a total of 11 hits off the slants of Peeples and De La Fuente, Steer mounded aces.

Aggie Pitcher Hits Homer. In the Texas Aggie game the Frogs did not get started. Pitcher Atkins walked the first man at bat and the next three men pounded out singles, scoring two runs. Hawes, the Aggie twirler, rapped out a four-base hit in the second inning with two mates aboard to bring the Farmer total to five for the first two frames.

The T. C. U. team was able to collect only seven hits off the Cadet hurler while the Farmers were rapping out 15 bingles off the three Frog pitchers, Atkins, Roark and Chappell. The Frogs made five errors to add to the onslaught of the Aggie hitters.

Painting Shows Theme

"Christ and the Fisherman" Is Unveiled at Service.

"Christ and the Fishermen," a painting by Zimmerman, was unveiled at the Religious Fellowship service given by the University Christian Church Sunday School Sunday. "The Call of the Master" was the theme of the service and was interpreted in story, picture and song.

Sterling Brown, superintendent of the Young People's Department, presided. George Graham played the prelude and postlude accompanied by Miss Gladys Wilkinson. Prof. S. W. Hutton led the congregation in singing songs of the sea assisted by the other members of the male quartet, Prof. J. Willard Ridings, Dr. W. C. Smith and Dr. J. L. Whitman.

Prof. Hutton gave an interpretation of the painting as it was unveiled. Miss Marian Porter sang a solo, "Sweet Galilee," and Miss Jessie Hawkins and George Graham sang a duet, "Prayer of the Quest."

Miss Bradford Wins Tennis Championship

Miss Virginia Bradford won the girls' tennis championship in singles Tuesday afternoon when she defeated Miss Thelma Lawrence on the T. C. U. courts, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4.

Approximately 30 girls played in the tournament, 24 of the number receiving letters, according to the manager of tennis, Miss Inez Reynolds.

Frogs Drop Game To Ponies 4 to 7

S.M.U. Takes Final Tilt to Leave T.C.U. in Cellar Position.

Diffey, slow ball pitcher for the Mustangs, held the Frogs to eight hits while his mates pounded out 13 hits and a 7-to-4 victory off the offerings of Chappell and Atkins yesterday afternoon on the Horned Frog diamond to put the Meyer men in the cellar of the final conference standings.

The Christians jumped into an early lead when Wright scored on an error and Carroll's two-base hit drove in Hirstine in the opening stanza. The other two T. C. U. countesses came in the eighth when Atkinson, Pony receiver, threw wild to first and Hinton and Hirstine scored.

The Mustangs made a hit in every inning of the game except the second. The two teams were tied until the opening of the seventh when R. Williams, Pony outfielder, came through for a tally in that chapter to unknit the score. Timely hitting and uncertain fielding in the eighth and ninth innings produced two runs in each for the Mustangs. The first man to face Noble Atkins when he relieved Chappell after eight and two-thirds innings, greeted him with a two-base wallop.

Schmidt Attends Cage Conference

Few Changes Made By Rules Committee in New York.

Coach Schmidt returned from New York Tuesday afternoon where he attended the National Basketball Rules Committee meeting and reports only minor changes in the rules.

"It is against the policy of the committee to make radical changes in the rules," the Horned Frog coach said. "We merely passed a few rules that would make the game more interesting from the spectator's standpoint and others to speed up the game or make it easier on the officials."

In brief the principal changes are: Each team is to be allowed three one-minute time outs instead of three two-minute time outs. If a player consumes more than 10 seconds at the free throw mark or enters the free throw lane, the jump ball is to be at center instead of the free throw mark. On a free throw following a technical or double foul, players shall not line up on the free throw lanes. On a missed free throw, which his neither hoop nor blackboard, ball is given to an opponent out of bounds on the side. The Timer may blow his whistle for substitution whenever the ball is dead. It is suggested that players be numbered on both front and back, and that a player fouled in the act of shooting, where no attempt is made to guard the shot, as where the opponent dives into him with the intention of knocking him out of bounds, may be classes as unnecessary roughing and a disqualifying foul.

Miss Lurene Rice of Plano, a student in the University the first semester, visited on the campus Sunday afternoon.

Dormitory Boys Prefer Radio And Bridge for Entertainment

What do you prefer for amusement—bridge, dominoes, forty-two, poker, solitaire or casino—or maybe you like ping pong? If you have followed the evolution of games played in Goode and Clarke Halls, you will have noticed that during the last four years there has been a change in the form of entertainment.

Four years ago a bridge player was a rare specimen among the boys of the dormitories. Today it is one of the favorite pastimes. Poker has always found its place among the favorite games, and usually fills in the gaps left while a new game is just coming into vogue.

Casino and the other gambling games have diminished (?) through the last year, more or less because of the depression.

At first, bridge was as much a puzzle to the boys as is mah jong to most of us today. It is almost a certainty that most of the boys learned because they were embarrassed when the girl friend had accepted an invitation to play bridge somewhere without knowing whether the boy played or not.

Dominoes and forty-two are always popular when cards are not present. The old favorite of checkers has not made its appearance on the campus in several years, but many play at the barber shop and the warehouse until the squares are obliterated.

Radio has caused the decline in card playing in Goode Hall. Bridge occupies first place today. The latest addition is the playing of ping pong by radio. Try it some day if you have a set.

T. C. U. Netters Win From Ponies

McDiarmid, Smith and Walsh Victorious in Singles.

The Horned Frog netters won over the Mustang team from S. M. U., 4-2 Saturday afternoon on the Christian's courts. Capt. John McDiarmid, Jack Smith and Howard Walsh won their singles matches, and McDiarmid and Smith, No. 1 doubles team, defeated Boyer and Bootman in the first doubles, and Walsh and Roberts lost to Newton and Wesson.

In the No. 1 singles, McDiarmid won over Bootman 7-5, 6-3, while Jack Smith was winning from Boyer, 7-5, 6-2. Noel Roberts lost the No. 3 singles to Newton, 3-6, 3-6. Howard Walsh won over Wesson, 5-7, 10-8, 6-2.

In the doubles, McDiarmid and Smith defeated Bootman and Boyer, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3, while Roberts and Walsh lost to Newton and Wesson, 2-6, 6-8.
