Horned Frog Band To Have Charge Of Fellowship

Instrumental Music To Be Played At Services.

SOLOS WILL BE OFFERED

Meeting Is to Be Held in Front of Mary Coats Burnett Library.

The T. C. U. Horned Frog Band will have charge of the Fellowship program next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in front of the Burnett Library. The program will consist entirely of instrumental music.

To Offer Varied Numbers.

After the prelude, "The Angelus" played by the entire band, Dr. E. A. Elliott will offer a short prayer. The band will then play a "Sacred Medley Overture" which will consist of old favorite hymns such as "Pressing On," "Showers of Blessings," "Come Holy Spirit," "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Stand Up For Jesus."

Don Gillis, trombonist, will play a solo "My Old Kentucky Home." A quartet, J. E. King, trumpet; James Watkins, trumpet; Sproesser Wynn, French horn; Don Gillis, trombone will give four numbers: "Prayer," "O, Come to Me," "A Morning Prayer," and "Contemplation." Following these numbers the band will play three pieces: A reverie, "Sabbath Chimes," "American Patrol," and a serenade, "Little Grey Church."

After the offering which will be in charge of Dean Leftwich, the band will conclude its program with a Medley March: "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and "In the Sweet By and By."

Columbus Day Is Theme.

A Columbus Day program was arranged by Dr. W. J. Hammond of the history department for last Sunday evening's Fellowship service. Dr. W. C. Smith of the sociology department and Dr. Hammond made talks, and the college quartet sang an Indian song. The Fellowship was held in the T. C. U. auditorium because of the rain.

Linesman, Two Backs Win Cups

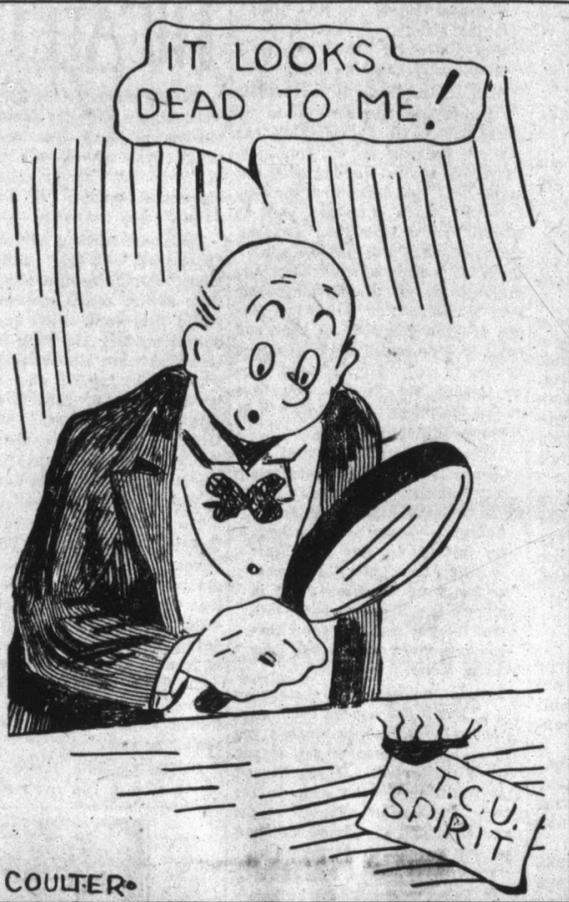

Paul Snow, diminutive Horned Frog, halfback, was awarded the Simon loving cup for playing the best game against the Austin College Kangaroos last Saturday. Snow started the game, and throughout the contest made a credible showing as quarterback, passer, ball-carrier and defensive back. Red Oliver, another red-headed back, was awarded the trophy following his excellent offensive and surprising defensive game against Tulsa, and Ben Boswell's educated toe, that raised the Frogs from a possible scoreless tie to a victory in the L. S. U. tilt won the award for him.

Pre-Med Students Will Meet to Start Club

All upper class pre-med students will meet in The Skiff office at 1 o'clock Saturday.

The purpose of the meeting is to reorganize the Pre-Med Club, according to Ben Baxter, who is reorganizing the club.

Shugart, Miss Johnson, Miss Barnes Win Prizes in First Limerick Contest

Reeder Shugart, Miss Siddle Joe Johnson and Miss Martha Anna Barnes were announced winners this morning in the Skiff-King Candy Limerick Contest for last week. Approximately 50 last lines were entered in the contest. Another contest will be held this week with three one pound boxes of King's New Rhythm Chocolates as prizes for the three best last lines. Don't delay in sending in your entries.

Shugart's last line was: "Now Sandy keeps King's Candy handy." The last line which won Miss Johnson one of the prizes was: "Of any she'd ever had handy." "Then—the rest of his plans worked out dandy," was Miss Barnes last line. Tickets which will be redeemable at the University Pharmacy were mailed yesterday to the winners.

Honorable mention was given to Marion Hicks, Miss Velma Martin, Miss Mora Lou Washam, Miss Ruth Pruden, Gibson Randle, George Tinkle, Jr., Miss Margaret Berry, Charles Boatner, Miss Margaret Williams, J. W. Sprinkle and John McGaughy.

Only students of Texas Christian University except those whose families are employed by King Candy Company are eligible. Skiff staff members are ineligible. Only one last line may be sent in by each individual. Several students did not include their mailing address in last week's contest. This is essential to be eligible for prizes.

Address all last lines, which must rhyme with the first two lines of the limerick, to SKIFF-KING CANDY LIMERICK CONTEST. Last lines may be dropped into The Skiff Box until noon every Wednesday.

Officers Named For B-Law Court

Officers of the B-Law Court have been named for this year and the first trial of this year was held Thursday, according to Prof. J. W. Ballard.

The case that came before the court yesterday was the State vs one Paul Bradford on the charge of "conduct unbecoming to a gentleman and injurious to the good name of the B. B. A. department."

Officers appointed for the year are: Judge, Howard Walsh; sheriff, Harlos Green; bailiff, Lucy Phelps; marten, Miss Thelma Lavender, and foreman of jury, Fred Hammond.

Special Rate Is Given to Abilene

T. C. U. students who wish to see the T. C. U.-Simmons University football game to be played in Abilene next Friday night can go to Abilene, see the game, and return without missing any classes for $6.55, according to L. C. Wright, athletic director of T. C. U.

The Texas & Pacific Railroad offers students a special round-trip rate of $6.05, and the student admission fee will be 50 cents. The train will leave the Texas & Pacific depot at 1:55 p. m. Friday and will arrive in Abilene at 6:25 p. m.

Demonstration to Be in Fieldhouse At 7 o'Clock; Sidney Latham, Bear Wolf, Homer Tomlinson to Speak

Captain Harlos Green to Address Students—Alf Roark Welcomes A. & M. Guests—Aggies Will Arrive at 7:40 A. M.

Starting at 7 o'clock tonight in the Frog Fieldhouse, the largest pep rally of the year is expected to draw approximately 2,000 persons. Sidney Latham, head yell leader in 1928-29, wired last night that he would appear at the rally and would speak. According to Roland Balch, head yell leader, the mammoth rally will end in the business district with a shirt-tail parade assembling at Ninth and Houston Streets at 8:30 o'clock. All freshmen boys and upperclassmen will leave directly after the pep meeting in the Fieldhouse and the band will lead the parade starting at exactly 9 o'clock.

Students Assist In Departmental University Work

Ten Are Employed In Library—Biology Has Eight.

TWO ARE FOOTBALL MEN

More Girls Do Faculty Work Than Boys—Student Prexy Works in Lab.

Twenty-eight students are employed this year as assistants in various departments of the University.

The biology department employs Miss Catherine Jackson of Fort Worth, Miss Mary Margaret House also of this city and Howard Carrell of Godley, as student teachers. Vance Woolwine, C. H. Shull and Dave Elias, all of Fort Worth, and Miss Maxine Edwards of Oakwood and Alf Roark of Saragota are employed in the laboratory.

Two Assist in Chemistry. There are two assistants, Red Oliver and J. D. Van Zandt, both of Fort Worth, working in the chemistry department.

The English department employs Miss Thelma Breithaupt, of Fort Worth, who assists in grading papers. Ten students, under the direction of A. R. Curry, librarian, are assistants in the Mary Coats Burnett Library. They are Misses Evelyn Franklin, Leta B. Luyster, Ruth Pruden, Mary Louise Spinks, Mary Carter and Mrs. A. D. Carter, all of Fort Worth, and Miss Lou Blumberg and Ed Mace, both of Dallas, and Gordon Musgrove of Jacksonville.

Student assistant in the home economics department is Miss Vernola Mae Henry of this city.

Haling Assists Journalists. Elbert Haling of Fort Worth is student assistant in the journalism department. Roland Balch of this city is serving as assistant in the physical training department. In the physics department Brant Conway of Fort Worth is working as assistant.

In the School of Fine Arts Miss Rowena Doss of Weatherford and Miss Mozelle Bryant of Goliad assist in the piano department, while Paul Luper of Fort Worth is the assistant in violin. James Watkins also of this city serves as assistant director of the band.

Dean of Women Another Victim Of Hobby Idea

Dean Sadie Beckham has gone in for collections, too, but she has a novel idea in the matter.

She is making a collection of pictures of all T. C. U. grandchildren since the year of 1918. By grandchildren she means the children of any student who has attended the University since that date.

Dean Beckham has asked that the parents send her an unmounted picture of the children along with the name of the father and mother, the mother's name before her marriage, and the years in which the parents attended T. C. U.

Band Will Play.

The Horned Frog Band will appear in novelty numbers at the Fieldhouse and will go directly to radio station KTAT and will broadcast from 8:30 o'clock until 9 o'clock. A freshmen tin-pan band will appear at the rally. A general shoe mix-up will be staged by the freshmen boys, according to Balch.

Pep Talks to Be Made.

Latham, who is now principal of the Longview High School, will arrive shortly before the meeting, according to Alf Roark, student body president. Capt. Harlos Green, Bear Wolf, Roark and Homer Tomlinson, a T. C. U. graduate, will also make speeches.

Feeling will be high tomorrow when the Aggies attempt to break the long string of defeats and ties handed them by T. C. U. since 1924. In 1925, the year the jinx started, Bear Wolf was on the Texas Christian team that played the whole game without a substitution. The score was 3 to 0 in favor of T. C. U. and was won by a field goal by "Three-Point" Johnny Washmon.

The Aggie train will arrive with approximately 1000 Fighting Farmers at 7:40 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Texas and Pacific depot. All students who have automobiles are urged to meet the train and bring the Aggies out to the campus.

Clark Hall Is Headquarters.

Roark announced that Clark Hall will be headquarters for the visiting A. & M. Cadets. The visitors may leave their baggage in the hall during the day and all the privileges that the hall offers will be at the Aggies' command.

"Speaking for the student body of Texas Christian University," Roark stated, "I wish to extend a most hospitable welcome to visiting A. & M. students and alumni. We hope you will find on our campus and in Fort Worth the same spirit of friendship and hospitality that we received as guests on your campus last year. May this feeling of good fellowship between the two schools intensify with the years."

Freshman President Addresses Chapel

Patrick Henry Relates Events of Youths' Conference at Toronto.

Patrick Henry, Jr., president of the freshman class, delivered the chapel address before the junior-senior assembly last Friday. A graphic narrative of the events transpiring at the International Youths' Convention held this year in Toronto, Canada, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. constituted the body of Henry's talk. Henry was one of two delegates to go to the convention from Texas.

After describing several of the open-forum meetings of the conference and his association with boys of other nations, Henry concluded his part of the program with the statement "Do you think I could take a gun in my hands and shoot one of those boys should our countries go to war? My duty to God comes before my duty to my country."

ARE YOU LOYAL?

Students of Texas Christian University, tomorrow you will be given an opportunity to redeem yourself. Tomorrow, the Aggies will be out at that football game yelling their very lungs out. Tomorrow, the Texas Christian Frogs will meet a foe that it must defeat to start its drive for a Southwest Conference title.

No one time this year has the student body as a whole showed that it had a spirit. Not one time this year has the student body backed up the team by yelling like they should. Last Saturday the rooting section from Austin College proved that some 40 girls could out-yell the Texas Christian student section combined with the band.

Come out of your shell, students! Tomorrow, show the team you are behind them, win or lose. Show the fans in the other stands that Texas Christian can out-yell the Aggies. Put every ounce of strength behind your rooting and follow your yell leaders.

WELCOME, AGGIES, WELCOME!

In spite of the decision of the Aggie officials to make corps trips to Shreveport and Houston this year instead of to Fort Worth, there will be several hundred uniformed cadets on hand tomorrow when the Maroon and Purple teams line up for the opening kick-off.

Exclusive of the undergraduates, there will be many alumni and ex-students on hand. Since 1924, loyal Aggie followers have been waiting in vain for a Farmer team to emerge victorious over a Purple eleven.

To the Aggies, the student body extends a welcome to make their corps trip to Texas Christian next year. Aggies, the campus is yours and every Frog welcomes you to make Texas Christian your home for the day.

GOODE MEN, BE CAREFUL OF YOUR LANGUAGE.

Many complaints have been going into the dean's office that unnecessarily loud, and even sometimes profane, language has been coming from the parlor and rooms of Goode Hall. If you have something to tell someone down the hall, or on the next floor, don't yell so loudly for them, and do not use so much profane language.

There is no dean or matron stationed in the hall to make you be quiet and orderly, but unless some change for the better is made in the matter, the dean and University officials may see fit to put one there.

So far the co-operative plan now in use in Goode Hall has been a success and there has been no need for a matron to watch over you and see that you behave yourselves as if you were a bunch of high school students and didn't know any better.

FRESHMAN LEADERSHIP.

If Patrick Henry could have been in the chapel assembly last Friday, he would have been proud of his namesake, Patrick Henry, freshman class president.

Patrick Henry told in an effective and sincere manner what the world Y. M. C. A. meeting accomplished in Toronto last summer. He told not only some of the amusing things of the conference but what the conference really accomplished in bringing about a world fellowship and feeling of friendliness among the nations.

The freshman class is to be congratulated on choosing such a splendid leader and the senior-junior-chapel committee in employing home talent. Who knows but what Pat's speech will not set a precedent for more home talent speeches on our chapel programs?

Slides to Be Shown

At Bio-Geo Meeting

The Bio-Geo Club will hold its first meeting of the year Monday night, according to Howard Carrell, retiring president. Officers will be elected. Those students who are taking biology and geology are eligible for membership.

Slides taken by Prof. W. M. Winton while he was in the national parks will be shown.

Flanagan is Resting

Well After Operation

Louis Flanagan, freshman, is reported resting well after his operation last Saturday at his home in Palestine. Flanagan was stricken last Friday morning, but wished to have the operation performed in Palestine.

COULTER'S COLUMN

I HAVE no way of knowing how many people read this column. I do not know your reactions when you read it and I don't know whether you had rather have a bunch of jokes(?) or a serious effort.

STUDENTS, I have been in Texas Christian a little more than three years. Before I started to school here, I came out to the pep meetings and watched the football games. Sometimes I couldn't get in the stadium, but nevertheless I was out there yelling for those Fighting Purple Devils out on that football field.

THIS student body is the deadiest bunch that has ever flown the colors of T. C. U. Do you think that you can honestly go out from this University without looking back and saying that you didn't give the best that you had? Can you look at yourself years from now and say that you never had the ole spirit?

We are being laughed at by those who went out to that game last Saturday. We couldn't out-yell the small bunch from Austin College. Tomorrow, students, try just try to give your heart to your Alma Mater. You'll never feel finer tomorrow night in all your life, if you go home with that thought and that spirit that you have given your best to your Alma Mater.

It makes no difference whether we win or lose if you haven't that spirit. It makes no difference whether you will be at the game or not, if you haven't that spirit. If you haven't that spirit, then don't come to the game. Don't show yourself on the campus. Don't let the others know that you haven't given your all.

TONIGHT, in the Frog Field-house, when Sidney Latham speaks, he'll get up there and have to wait a minute before he can say anything. He'll have a frog as big as his fist in his throat. He'll be choking back. He'll have a tear in his eye. Why? Because he has that old T. C. U. spirit. It's something to be proud of. It's something that you, and you and you haven't got.

When ole Sid speaks tonight, every senior in the University will have a lump in his throat. Sid was our yell leader when we were freshmen. He lived for his Alma Mater and has set before us an example of a student who was loyal, true and proud that T. C. U. was his school. Today, Sid still has that ole spirit that never says die. If anyone in the world can put that ole fire in you that reaches down and pulls the strings on your heart, it is Sidney Latham. Come out to the pep meeting tonight.

ONLY one more word need be said. When that sun sets tomorrow night, let it not set on a T. C. U. defeat. Let it not set upon a student body who does not have a spirit that does things to you in a way no other feeling can. Let it not set upon an Aggie victory. Let it set upon the most glorious team that has ever trod the gridiron under the Purple and White. Let it set upon you, and you, and you with a feeling that your Alma Mater is the only Alma Mater on earth. Let it set upon a spirit that flames, a spirit that carries on and on and on.

THEATERS ON THE AIR

Starting tomorrow the RKO Hollywood brings back the famous combination of Jack Holt and Ralph Graves, who scored such a success in "Dirigible." The new flicker is a mystery-comedy, "A Dangerous Affair."

With ELBERT HALING
Scarcely Audible: Tocha Seidel, noted violinist, is a mountain climbing enthusiast.—Abe Lyman is a song-writer as well as a maestro, for he has produced many hits, such as, "Mary Lou," and "Nora."

These wise-cracking adventurers of "Submarine," "Flight" and "Hell's Island" emerge as light comedians in their newest screen venture. As a police lieutenant, Holt unravels a murder mystery (far from the gangster idea) while Graves appears as a wise-cracking reporter who unwittingly starts it all.

"Expensive Women," and aren't they all! The show starts Thursday. This is her first appearance since she married John Barrymore and went into domestic retirement.

The Palace will bring in William Powell's "The Road to Singapore" Sunday for four days. The spell of the tropics—that indefinable dry rot that wrecks the hopes and careers of white men who live there is brought out in the film. The basis of the film is founded upon the inability of the white race to master the climatic conditions.

Paul Lukas moves in with "The Beloved Bachelor" to the Worth tomorrow. Charlie Ruggles and Dorothy Jordan are additions to the cast.

Dolores Costello returns to the screen after a two year's absence in Buster Keaton moves into the Worth Wednesday in "The Sidewalks of New York." Buster plays the part of a millionaire's son who tries to teach the tough yeggs in the tenement districts how to be big brothers. It ought to be a pretty fair comedy with Anita Page and Cliff Edwards in the cast. There's a wrestling scene that's worth the price of the ticket alone.

WORTH

We wonder if Dorothy DeFoe is trying to rate a senior or is trying to vamp some of the freshmen. Here's a chance for some sophomore or a junior to rate a freshman girl.

Sproesser Wyna went over to the Austin College pep squad and brought back a girl last Saturday. She happened to be married but she said that it was all right. It was until the husband came over and took her back. Jack Bates and Lon Beavers had the best collegiate phords on campus. Here boys, keep the phords off the campus and on the street.

And Prof. E. C. Cameron—who would ever think that he would break the law. After teaching the principals of obeying and doing the right thing all week as a Bible professor, he goes out on the streets of Fort Worth and gets tickets for running stop signs. Well, that's the way of all flesh. Wonder if Dean Hall's wife ever got after him for dropping ashes on the parlor carpet?

Famous couples on the campus: John Hopkins running around after Camille Moore; A. H. Monford running around after one of his jokes; Jack Shackleford and Janet Largent; Mozelle Bryant and A. D. Weatherly—supposedly; Murry Livingston and Rowena Doss—he hopes; Parsen Brown and Irene McComas, and others; James Dacus and Lillian Muse; Cody Sandifer and whoever he can rate—he's usually by himself.

College-trained engineers revisit the athletic field

ON more than a hundred floodlighted fields, football is being played and practiced in the evening hours, before larger audiences than ever before—with fewer injuries and in better conformity with classroom duties.

This constructive revolution in athletics is largely the work of college-trained engineers— young men personally familiar with the needs of college and school. They are dedicating the technical experience gained in the General Electric Test Department to the practical service of undergraduate athletics— designing and installing floodlighting equipment for virtually every sport—football, baseball, hockey, tennis, and track.

Other college men in the General Electric organization have specialized in street-

Night photograph of Temple Stadium, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, floodlighted with G-E projectors

lighting and floodlighting projects, or in the electrical equipment of industries and mines or of immense power stations; some are designing and applying electric apparatus to propel ocean liners and locomotives. All are engaged in the planning, production, or distribution of G-E products and so are performing a work of national betterment and creating for themselves recognized spheres of personal influence.

Wearing an evening gown of white satin, Miss Mozelle Bryant, Goliad, will represent T. C. U. tonight in the eighth annual All-Collegiate Circus Revue at the Dallas State Fair. A. D. Weatherly, a senior from the Panhandle, has been selected by Miss Bryant as her escort.

At 12 o'clock tonight the various school representatives with their escorts will be presented, while their respective school song is being played, to the assembly at the ball to be given in the Hotel Adolphus after the formal dinner.

The girl winning the title of all-college queen will have the honor of occupying a box with Governor Ross Sterling at the Texas-Oklahoma game in the Fair Park Stadium. The princess of Texas and the princess of Oklahoma will also be guests in the box. All three of these girls will be honor guests to the Sunday afternoon performance of "Three Little Girls" at the State Fair Auditorium.

University of Texas, Oklahoma University, Rice Institute, University of Arkansas, C. I. A. and T. C. U. have already selected their representatives to this all-collegiate fiesta.

As the following telegram, "Please appoint girl to represent Texas Christian University at Texas State Fair all-college fiesta sponsored by Dallas Junior League to be held Hotel Adolphus Oct. 16. Send name and photograph of girl at earliest opportunity in order that we may use for publicity," was received on such short notice, it was found necessary for the student council to pick the T. C. U. representative.

Several names were submitted and voted on by the council members, with Miss Bryant receiving the honor. Miss Bryant, a junior, was selected last year as one of the sophomore Horned Frog beauties.

Miss Eloise Barksdale and Sterling Brown, escort, represented T. C. U. at the State Fair last year.

Seniors to Barbecue At Jarvis Farm Oct. 23

The senior class barbecue, the first social event of the season, will be held at the Jarvis Farm at 5:30 o'clock Friday, Oct. 23. All those who do not know the road to the farm will meet at the arch at 5 o'clock.

This is to be strictly a Dutch treat affair. Seniors may invite escorts who are not in the class. Baseball and other out-of-door sports will be features of the picnic.

All those who do not have a way may see any one of the transportation committee composed of Norman Reed, chairman, Bill Harris, Laurence Coulter, John Hirstine, Miss Lillian Eylers and Ray McCulloch.

Reservations must be made by Wednesday to Jimmie Beal, Miss Janet Largent, Miss Lamoyne Laurence, Miss Jeanette Holmes and Gibson Randle.

Miss Spragins Entertains Juniors

As an honor for the transfer Juniors, Miss Lide Spragins, sponsor, entertained the members of the junior class with a party in Jarvis Hall parlors Monday night.

Tables were set for progressive games, and Miss Margaret Reeder and Paul Martin were awarded the high score prizes.

In order to introduce themselves to the other members of the class, the transfers lined up and just before trying to walk a straight line while looking through the reverse end of a pair of opera glasses, they gave their name, their home town and the place from which they were transferred. Sam Cotton, a transfer from Paris Junior College, was the winner of the prize in this contest.

The climax of the entertainment was reached with the transfers being dressed in the T. C. U. colors of purple and white. The prize went to Miss Kate Farmer, a transfer from Texas Woman's College. Billie Dickey was the designer of this costume.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served the guests, after which Hallowe'en souvenirs were given the transfers.

Alpha Zeta Pi Holds Violet Party

Alpha Zeta Pi met Wednesday night at the home of Miss Dorothy Conkling on University Drive for the purpose of introducing the new members. The club flower is the violet, and this meeting was the annual violet party.

The officers of the organization are president, Miss Conkling; vice-president, Miss Marion Howrey; recording secretary, Miss Mary Louise Mobley; corresponding secretary, Miss Nancy Gately, and program chairman, Miss Clotilda Houle.

Pop Boone to Speak To Dana Press Club

The Dana Press Club will hold its initial meeting next Wednesday night, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Mary Lloyd Garnett, 2508 Wabash Avenue, at which time a secretary will be elected. "Pop" Boone, sports writer for the Fort Worth Press, will be the speaker of the evening.

All students who are enrolled in journalism courses in the University are eligible for membership, and those who wish to become members of the club are asked to be present at the meeting.

Prof. J. Willard Ridings is sponsor of the club and Mrs. Ridings is the club mother.

Houston Club Is to Have Weiner Roast

The Houston Club will have a weiner roast next Wednesday night at Boaz Park.

Members of the club will meet at Jarvis Hall at 5:30 o'clock to go in cars to the park. Miss Peggy Trippe, sponsor, will chaperon the crowd.

Arrangements are in charge of a committee composed of Leo Poye, chairman, Miss Mary Louise Wadley and Miss Mary Seidel.

Rajah Club Plans Bridge Luncheon

The Rajah Club, an organization of town girls, met at the home of Miss Mary Lloyd Garnett, 2508 Wabash Avenue, Tuesday afternoon to plan a bridge luncheon to be given at King's Tea Room this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in honor of their "little sisters."

A salad course was served to the following members: Misses Eloise Barksdale, Floy Edmondson, Thelma Lavender, Mary Lucile Hatheway, Ruth Sullivan, Lennie Roberson, Annabel Goldthwaite, Jerry Brown and Mrs. W. M. Franklin and the hostess.

The "little sisters" who will be guests of honor are: Misses Alice McAnally, Mary Frances Roberts, Mary Seidel, Lorene Ramsey, Mary Carter and Ruth Morgan.

Bryson Club Gets 15 New Members

The Bryson Club met Tuesday night at the home of Miss Marjorie Scott, 2715 Cockrell Street, for the purpose of introducing the following new members: Misses Mozelle Bryant, Margaret Reeder, Philo Mae Murphree, Eloise Barksdale, Mary Louise Wadley, Marvylene Bowe, Leta Luyster and Helen Pannill, and Vance Woolwine, Gibson Randle, "Doc" Sumner, Joseph Cowan, Bill Flood, Fred Hammond and Elbert Haling.

It was decided that the club would meet on alternate Tuesdays and that the program for the year would include the study of biographers instead of authors. Among the biographers to be studied are Dwight Morrow, Joseph Pulitzer, Thomas A. Edison and the Roosevelt family.

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday at the home of Miss Bowe, 2917 West Cantey Street.

Mrs. Sherer Is Y. W. C. A. Sponsor

Members of the Y. W. C. A. were presented to the club sponsor, Mrs. Mirth Sherer, by Miss Lamoyne Lawrence, president, at the regular meeting of the organization last Thursday afternoon in the Brite College clubroom. Mrs. Sherer spoke to the members on the disarmament problem.

Harry Bone, the secretary of the national Y. M. C. A. made a short talk.

Noel Roberts, president of the campus Y. M. C. A. extended an invitation to the Y. W. C. A. to a weiner roast to be given by the Y. M. C. A. Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Trinity Park.

Noel Roberts attended a Y. M. C. A. conference in Oklahoma City over the week-end.

Death of Canine Geology Scholar Saddens Campus

Cricket, one of the canine students in the University, was killed by an automobile Monday afternoon. He belonged to Prof. and Mrs. Winton, but will be missed by almost everyone on the campus.

Cricket had been working on his degree in the geology department, of which Prof. Winton is the head, for almost 14 years. He went on all the field trips and was as interested in the fossils as his owner. In fact, Cricket worked so hard carrying rocks that all his teeth were worn down.

This geology scholar took his meals in the University cafeteria. He was luckier than most students for if he had to wait too long in the dining room for his meals he would go to the back door where he would be served immediately.

Although Cricket lived only a few blocks from the campus and was only a day student, he made frequent visits to Clark and Goode Halls, where he was welcome to share any of the boys' rooms.

Prof. and Mrs. Winton owned two generations of the family before Cricket.

Miss Will Marie Allen, who attended T. C. U. last year, is now enrolled in the University of Texas.

Miss Mary Lois Yarbrough, a student in the University last year, is in California, where she is taking work from the University of California.

"Aggie, Do You Take This Co-ed" Has Often Been Result of Game

It may be Texas Christian University, or again it may be A. & M. that emerges victorious from the Horned Frog-Aggie football game tomorrow. But in the game of matrimony, as it has been played by students in the two schools, the honors seem to be about even.

It is a tradition that after a Frog-Aggie game the mail deliveries at both College Station and Jarvis Hall increase greatly. T. C. U. co-eds always display an amazing array of military pins and emblems after a corps trip to Fort Worth or a student body jaunt to College Station.

Many an affair has been started after the game when trim, khaki-clad Aggie was introduced to dainty Horned Frog co-ed.

Merely glancing around, the following are among a large group of T. C. U.-A. & M. matches that have resulted in wedding bells:

Maurine Moore and Russell Babcock; Elizabeth Nabors and Cooper Robbins; Edith Funkhouser and Vivion Boswell; Frances Coker and Ed Jennings; Mary Helen Payne and Victor LeMay; Elizabeth Newsom and O. G. Carlson; Rosa Lee Wells and W. H. Greenstreet; Margaret Cook and Howard Edward Kunz; Elizabeth Webb and Archer Waymon; Maxine Garrett and Henry Bigham; Alliene Hambrick and Stanley Baker; Jeirienne Long and William Cobb Bars; Frances Rourk and William C.

Rogers, and Mary Evelyn Cook and Roy Turbeville.

It looks as if T. C. U. scored a first down when a daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Boswell, for it seems certain that the A. & M. freshman class of about '40 will not number this young lady among its members.

It remains to be decided, however, whether the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Babcock, now of St. Louis, Mo., will be sent to play in the band at A. & M., as did his father, or to T. C. U., the alma mater of his mother.

Powerful Aggie Team Invades Frogland Tomorrow

Red Oliver Will Be Featured in Christian Offense, While Defense Centers on Boswell and Howell

Farmers Will Attempt to Break Frog Jinx—Maroon Squad Has Not Beaten Christians Since 1924.

By STANDARD LAMBERT

The Texas Christian Horned Frogs will blast the lid off of their conference schedule tomorrow afternoon when Matty Bell and his band of Texas Aggies invade the stadium gridiron for the 25th annual Frog-Aggie grid tussle. The Aggies have not beaten the Frogs since 1924. The kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

Dominique is Aggie Star.
Coach Bell is bringing a formidable club to Fort Worth that features off-tackle strength, and general power plays. In Dominique (pronounced "Domain") he has one of the outstanding triple-threat backs in the conference today. Dominique is supported on the half-back positions by Graves, a good running back, and McFadden, who is probably the best punter in the Southwest. Aston, the Aggie fullback, is the best passer on the squad and can be counted on to give the Frogs much trouble with his air attack.

The excellent backfield is behind a hard charging forward wall, that is almost as heavy as that of the Frogs. Nolan, the regular center, is reported injured, but he will be replaced by Rudder, a sophomore of unusual ability. The guard holes are very strong with Christian and Hornsby in the starting line-up. Capt. Moulden and Magrill, Farmer tackles, rate with the best in the Southwest. Bell and Malone, Aggie ends are also excellent gridders. Malone is especially effective with his 194 pounds distributed over six feet, three inches of brawn.

Oliver To Start.

Coach Schmidt plans to start the same team that has been in the initial line-up in all the important games thus far, with the exception of Oliver replacing Dennis in the backfield. The entire squad came out of the Austin College tilt in fine physical trim, and the Christian mentor will have his full strength available for the first conference invaders.

Much of the game's outcome will depend on the outcome of the two tackles and Oliver. The Aggie offense is a tower of strength on off-tackle thrusts, and has a threatening passing attack. If Howell and Boswell are able to outfight the excellent Farmer blockers when they swing off tackle, and to rush the passers with enough speed to cover up any possible weakness in the Frog pass defense, the Christians should win. Much of the Schmidt attack is built around Oliver's speed and power. Nothing short of a giant red-head in the backfield going his best can make the plays click with the rhythm that their designers planned.

Light Play Rehearsal Today.

A light play rehearsal this afternoon will put the finishing touches on the most earnest week's practice since preparations were being made to meet the Mustangs last November. Everything will be in readiness and a great battle is in prospect.

The probable starting line-ups for the Aggie game will be:

T. C. U.	A. & M.
Pruitt LE	Bell
Boswell LT	Magrill
Evans LG	Hornsby
Townsend C	Rudder
Vaught RG	Christian
Howell RT	Moulden
Salkeld RE	Malone
Hinton QB	Rees
Oliver HB	McFadden
Spearman HB	Barfield
Green FB	Aston

Coach and Commerce Teacher Is Wanted

Did someone say that there were no jobs to be had? Well, listen to this.

Prof. J. W. Ballard of the B. B. A. department received a letter recently asking him if he had someone who could fill the position of coach and teacher of commerce. And no one could be found to fill the place.

Since the place to be filled was somewhere down in Louisiana, Prof. Ballard said that he supposed that those people down there after witnessing the L. S. U. game here, figured that they wanted some of these T. C. U. fellows.

Prof. Karl E. Ashburn made a business trip to Howe and Sherman last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Seidel of Brenham were the week-end guests of their daughter, Miss Mary Seidel.

By STANDARD LAMBERT

The Aggies are coming! Tomorrow afternoon a few moments prior to 2:30, the best football talent that can be assembled from the respective student bodies of Texas Christian University and Texas A. & M. will line up to start the 25th battle of a gridiron war that has been in progress over a quarter of a century.

The pupils of Matty Bell will be fighting to overcome a jinx that has hung over their heads since 1924, the last time that they administered a defeat to a T. C. U. eleven. The Frogs will be fighting with equal fervor to add another year to the jinx.

The Aggies have been christened "The Fighting Farmers of Aggieiland." It is common among the sports writers to refer to the pupils of Francis Schmidt as "The Fighting Purple Devils of T. C. U." Tomorrow the two schools in the Southwest that are most noted for their flaming spirit and fighting hearts will cross lances not only for gridiron supremacy, but also to prove to the other that he is more worthy of his monicker.

To date the Frogs have been the favorites in every contest. Tomorrow the tables will be turned. The Christians will be fighting with their backs to the wall determined not to give an inch of ground without the most stubborn resistance, and to fight tooth and nail to gain those precious yards through that Maroon line.

When the shadows cover the playing field tomorrow afternoon, it will not only mark the close of another day, but also the sunset of five seniors' play against their feared and respected enemies—the Texas Aggies.

During that last quarter "Grassy" Hinton will call his last play against the Aggies. Some will remember that it was the Texas Aggie game in 1929 that "Grassy" Hinton was "found." It was that day that he was raised from a substitute to a regular. It would be most fitting for the former Cleburne star to play the best game of his career tomorrow against the team that "made" him as a sophomore.

Vance Woolwine will also be making his last appearance against the Aggies. Capt. Harlos Green will plunge through for his last time against that Maroon line; will make his last tackle against the Farmers.

"Pete" Snow, who will be remembered by every senior on the Aggie squad as "One-Play" Snow, was sent in the game in the closing minutes of the '29 contest to knock down an enemy pass and nip a threatening rally in the bud. No longer is he "One-Play" Snow. Today he plays his share of the halfback positions. Tomorrow, he will be playing his last game against the Farmers. Tomorrow he may break their hearts in an offensive way just as he did defensively in '29.

This writer will also get his last chance to play against his school's arch-enemy. Sometime during that last quarter, I will tackle my last Aggie or pull out of the line, and block off my last would-be Aggie tackler from a ball carrier.

Tomorrow it's one for all and all for T. C. U. We're a unit fighting a common enemy. Let's show the wise boys who pick the Aggies to win how far from right they can be.

America's Fastest Pigskin-Toter

Red Oliver, Texas Christian's candidate for the fastest football player in the nation, is expected to bear the brunt of the Horned Frog attack against Matty Bell's Aggies tomorrow. The 185-pound Frog halfback sprints the century in 9.6 seconds in a track uniform, and is the hardest running athlete that has ever donned the purple.

Miss Janelle Bush of Jarvis Hall spent the week-end at her home at McKinney. Miss Lollie Botts of Jarvis Hall attended the Rice-Texas game at Austin last week-end.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By BEN BOSWELL

Walter S. Knox has announced that a hand-book, giving the details of the intramural activities, has been printed for the benefit of students who are interested in this department.

On the first page of this booklet is the code of sportsmanship which every athlete is taught and urged to be governed by in his playing.

There is much valuable information contained in this pamphlet for the student as well as for the athlete. Rules of intramural sports as well as stating the requirements for the earning of a varsity letter appear. These are many of the points about which the average student is not at all familiar. There is also a brief history of intramural activities since its organization given in the handbook.

Because of the rain, some of the contests scheduled for last Tuesday had to be postponed. The cross-country meet, scheduled for that date has been postponed for one week. Two games, which were to be played between the seniors and juniors, and the sophs and frosh in tag football were postponed.

John Mings spent the week-end at his home in Big Sandy.

George Kline returned Monday from his home in Gregory after a visit with his parents.
