Frog Alumni Are Invited To Homecoming

Blanding Will Open University Lecture Series

Will Make Address in Auditorium Monday at 8 P. M.

"HULA MOONS" IS TOPIC

Adventurer and Author Will Tell of Experiences in South Seas.

Don Blanding, vagabond adventurer and author, will open the T. C. U. Lecture Course in the University Auditorium Monday night at 8 o'clock, when he tells of his experiences in the South Seas in his lecture entitled "Hula Moons."

Blanding spent six years in Honolulu, where he worked on newspapers as an artist and a reporter. He wrote poems for the newspapers which were later put into book form. Blanding is a traveler.

Years of wandering through most of the lands of the earth have given Blanding the rich material which he has put into his books and poems, as well as the power of describing these adventures in a charmingly informal manner.

"Hula Moons," his prose book, and the subject of his lecture Monday night, is said to be the best book on Hawaii and its people since Mark Twain wrote about the islands.

Blanding was born in Oklahoma where two of his boyhood friends were the old Apache chief, Geronimo, and Al Jennings, the bandit. At the age of 15, he began his wanderings and has missed only a few of the interesting lands of the earth. He studied art and was graduated from the Art Institute, Chicago. For this season, he has planned to stay in the United States and will make a number of personal appearances.

Senior class members are in charge of ticket sales under the management of Laurence Coulter, business manager. Six lectures are on the course and a season ticket may be obtained until Monday night for $1.50.

Blanding is the only lecturer during the fall semester. The other five entertainers will lecture during the spring. Price of the individual lectures will be 50 cents, according to the lectures committee.

English Students To Lead Fellowship

Program of Assembled Numbers to Be Given Sunday Night.

A program of original work will be presented by the English department of the University at the Religious Fellowship Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the auditorium of the Main Building.

The prelude will be played by Morgan Knott. Following the foreword by Miss Mary Jean Knight, the congregation will be led in the singing of two hymns. A group of poems written by Miss Rebecca Smith of the English department will be read by Miss Lillian Anderson.

Miss Rowena Doss will sing an original song, playing her own accompaniment, after which Miss Thelma Breithaupt will read a group of poems of her own composition. Another group of original poems will be read by Miss Sidie Joe Johnson. Knott will play the evening's offertory.

Dr. M. D. Clubb of the English department will read the original of "Kublai Kahn" by Coleridge with the completion written by Al Nelson, a former student of T. C. U. This completion written by Nelson won the Bryson prize in 1924.

David Scouler will sing two songs, one of which was written by Miss Mabel Major, and the other of which was composed by Dr. Henry D. Guelick.

Last Sunday evening Los Hidalgos presented in picture and song "The Trail of the Padres," a work written and directed by Miss Eula Lee Carter, sponsor of the club. The chorus for the presentation was under the direction of Miss Janet Largent.

Tryouts for Debate Team to Be Tuesday

Dr. Elliott led the discussion on the question: "Resolved: That congress should enact legislation to provide for the centralized control of industry" at the last meeting of the Pi Kappa Delta Monday afternoon. This is the question which the Pi Kappa Delta will debate this year. The president, Marion Hicks, presided.

Tryouts for the debate team for the first debate of the year, which will be held in Winfield, Kan., will be held next Tuesday afternoon. Those interested should see Hicks for full particulars.

One Holiday

Only one holiday will be given for the Thanksgiving season this year, it was announced yesterday by E. R. Tucker, registrar. Thursday will be the only official holiday for Texas Christian students. Double cuts will be counted for all absences Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, according to the catalog ruling. Only one day was given because of the Homecoming program. Extra days are being added to the Christmas holidays this year.

Some of Alumni Are Married, Others Teaching and Coaching

Homecoming Day, football, luncheons, handshaking. Everyone wanting to know where some one else is, what they are doing, and whether or not they are married and have children. The answers to such questions will show that a number of the alumni are teaching or coaching, that some are following a business career, that some are doing graduate work, while many of the alumnae have changed their names.

Miss Fay Blessing, a popular member of the class of 1925 and a Horned Frog beauty in the same year, is now Mrs. Claxton Draper and lives near Amarillo. Charles Mohle, who received his B. A. degree in 1926, is pastor of one of the Christian churches in Houston and recently has become the parent of a little son, Jonathan. Durwood Pruden, who was editor of the Horned Frog in 1927 and received his A. B. degree the same year, is coaching athletics and teaching in the Arlington High School. His sister, Minta Lois, who was graduated in 1928, is teaching in Burleson.

Gidden in Honduras. Culver Gidden, who received his A. B. degree in 1929 and who was manager of the football team, is in the American Consular Service in the British Honduras.

"But where are the outstanding athletes?" some one will ask. Herman Clark, who received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1926, is assistant coach at Centre College in Danville, Ky. Hobo Carson is head coach at Harlandale High School in San Antonio and pitches for the San Antonio Indians during the summer. Bernard "Blackie" Williams, captain of the football team in 1927 and alumnus of 1929, is selling bonds for the Fort Worth National Company. Jake Williams, who succeeded him as captain in 1928, is playing professional football for the Chicago Cardinals. Orin E. Steadman, graduate in 1929 and captain of the basketball team in 1927, is residing in Amarillo.

Moore is Mineola Coach. Robert "Red" Moore, tackle on the team in 1929, is assistant coach in the Mineola High School. Lester Brumbelow, guard and captain of the first conference championship team in 1929, is line coach for the El Paso High School. Howard Grubbs, conceded to be the brainiest quarterback who ever wore a T. C. U. jersey, is coaching at Lufkin. Roy Eury, captain of the basketball team in 1929-30, is coaching at White Deer. Noble Atkins, captain of football in 1930 and of basketball in 1930-31 and unanimous choice for all-Southwest center, is coaching at the Borger High School. Leo Buckley of the class of 1931 is coaching at Holland. Sidney Latham, a 1929 graduate who was head cheer leader and one of the Horned Frog favorites, is principal of the Longview High School. Miss Grace Jones, another 1929 graduate, is professor of romance languages at T. W. C.

Miss Shaw Teaching. A number of the class of 1930 are teaching school. Miss Doris Shaw, senior beauty in 1930, is teaching school in Amarillo. Miss Mary Ruth Campbell is teaching in her home town, Alvarado. Two of the alumni are principals of schools, Bill Joekel being principal of the high school in Howe while C. C. Isbell is principal at Blooming Grove. Miss Sara Beth Boggess is with the Red Cross in Montgomery, Ala. Miss Roberta Dedmon has a piano studio in Fort Worth. Hugh Buck, student body president in 1930, is attending the School of Law at the University of Texas. William Judson Rogers, manager of the Horned Frog his senior year, has a fellowship to the University of California where he is working on his Ph. D. degree. Victor Robertson, B.B.A. student and captain of the golf team,

Official Matinee To Be Next Week

"Ambassador Bill," Will Roger's latest picture, is the feature film which has been secured for the official all-collegiate matinee this year, according to Billie Dickey, president of the junior class. The matinee will be given Friday night at the RKO Hollywood Theater after the burning of the bonfire for the S. M. U. game and is a part of the official Homecoming program of the alumni.

Tickets will be on sale next week and will be in charge of Milton Menl. "As this is a part of the official Homecoming," said Dickey, "there will be several hundred alumni who may attend the matinee. Students are urged to buy tickets early in order to be sure of seats in the theater."

Students Hold Debate On Inheritance Taxes

"Resolved: That Inheritance Taxes in the United States Should Be Abolished," was the subject of a debate in Prof. Karl E. Ashburn's public finance class last Tuesday. The negative side, upheld by Milton Mehl and Earl Bullington, was victorious two to one. Speakers for the affirmative were Sproesser Wynn and Laurence Coulter.

The judges were Hubert Dennis, Will Shaw and Leroy Gregory. Prof. Ashburn was time-keeper.

Special Rate to Waco Is Offered

Students who make the trip to Waco to the T. C. U.-Baylor game tomorrow will receive a reduced round-trip rate of $1.80 over the M. K. & T. lines, according to Pete Wright, athletic director. The tickets for the game will be $1.25. Students must present their athletic books here when they purchase tickets at the stadium and at the athletic field in Waco. Texas Christian students will be at the gates to check the tickets.

The Horned Frog Band will make the trip on the M. K. & T. train. No special will be run and tickets must be used on the regular scheduled trains. The train will leave the new T. & P. depot at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning and will arrive in Waco at 11:30 o'clock.

The return train will leave Waco at 7:40 p. m. and will arrive in Fort Worth at 10:30 p. m.

Music Club Will Give Fountain to University

Students who attend T. C. U. two years hence will not have to descend three flights of stairs to get a drink of water. Such was the decision of the Music Club members at a meeting last Wednesday. They resolved to do their bit for T. C. U. by installing a drinking fountain on the third floor within the next two years.

BALCH LEADS PROGRAM

Dormitory and Town Boys Combine to Gather Material for Blaze of Victory.

By PAUL MARTIN

Speaking on "The Game of Life," Coach Francis Schmidt addressed an assembly of the town and dormitory freshman students Monday night at a stag party given under the auspices of the Student Y. M. C. A. The party was in the form of a banquet and was given in the University cafeteria. Approximately 100 students were present.

Noel Roberts, president of the "Y," was in charge of the meeting. Short talks were given by Patrick Henry, freshman class president, and Fred Miller, president of the sophomore class. A freshman quartet, composed of P. K. Penn, H. D. Kendrick, Donald Smith and John Mason Mings, gave several selections.

Balch Takes Charge.

Roland Balch, head yell leader, took charge of the organization of the freshman boys preparatory to building the bonfire which will be burned before the S. M. U. game. Two groups were chosen from the town students and two from the dormitories; one of each to work on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, and the other of each section to work on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights.

A call for trucks was made since there is a great need of means to haul the boxes to the school. The student body will furnish gas, oil and a driver for every truck offered for use.

Athletes Will Banquet Friday Night in Dining Hall.

DR. ELLIOTT IN CHARGE

Complete Program for Saturday Will Offer Visitors Entertainment.

By LAURENCE COULTER

Opening with the "T" Association banquet at 6:30 o'clock next Friday night, Texas Christian will hold the greatest Homecoming in the history of the University.

The banquet will be followed by a gigantic bonfire in back of the University and a giant pep rally for the Texas Christian-Southern Methodist game. A shirt tail parade will follow downtown and will end at the RKO Hollywood where the junior class is sponsoring a theater party.

Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, the ex-students and alumni will assemble in the University chapel, and at 12 o'clock the Homecoming luncheon will be held in the T. C. U. Cafeteria. The Homecoming program will end with the football game which will start at 2:30 p. m. between the Frogs and the Ponies in Christian Stadium.

Dr. Elliott Urges Attendance

Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, president of the Ex-Students' and Alumni Association, urges every ex-student and alumnus to return to Texas Christian for the Homecoming program. Low railroad fares for the Thanksgiving holidays will be an incentive for many to return to their Alma Mater.

"Every member of the 'T' Association during the history of the organization is urged to be present at the banquet Friday night," said Hal Wright, president of the organization. "This is an attempt to start an annual reunion of lettermen of Texas Christian the night before Homecoming Day. Invitations have been sent to more than 150 athletes, but whether you receive an invitation or not you are wanted at the banquet." The program will consist of short talks by the coaches and stars of years past. Music will be furnished by members of the Horned Frog Band. The athletic council and the entire membership of the Association this year will be present.

Co-eds Choose to Make Dating an Individual Affair

By a CO-ED

How long will it be before there is a 50-50 Club organized at T. C. U.? When Joe College and Betty Co-ed at Rice Institute step out in the future, Betty will find herself footing half the bills.

This club began only a few weeks ago with a membership of 30 girls and boys. The male members organized this club in Houston because they are suffering so much from the depression.

Their motto is "pay half or stay at home." How would this plan meet with your approval, Co-eds of T. C. U.?

Under the new edict of the club, the girls must pay half of all date expenses but will be given the right to help decide where the money will be spent.

If a similar club is organized here at T. C. U., Co-eds, demand the right not to help decide, but decide for yourselves how the money shall be spent. Do not hesitate to stand up for all your rights.

Editor's note: The last statement was from the pen of a co-ed, so don't pay any attention to it.

We're Looking for You, Homecomers!

Next Friday night, when the "T" Association holds its banquet in the cafeteria, the greatest Homecoming in Texas Christian history will start. Immediately after the banquet, a giant pep rally will be staged, culminated by a bonfire and a parade downtown. Saturday will be set aside for all ex-students and alumni of Texas Christian University. We are looking for you, so don't fail to come back to your Alma Mater.

We are making this year's Homecoming bigger than ever before. We are trying to build and work for great homecoming days in the future. Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, president of the Ex-Students' and Alumni Association, has worked hard and will be disappointed if the day is not a success. As the alumni grows, so grows the University. If the alumni is possessed of a spirit of love and loyalty to its Alma Mater, then the University will grow in accordance. The present student body is working for a bigger and better homecoming this year, because they know that some day they too will be alumni and will come back. The administration is looking forward to seeing old friends and classmates.

Ex-students and alumni, you are the ones who have built the school in years past. You are the ones who made it possible for the University to continue year after year. You are the ones who have built that spirit of loyalty and love so that the walls of Texas Christian hold the love of every one of its students, new and old. You have courted underneath its stately columns. You have studied behind the walls of good old Goode, Clark and Jarvis Halls. You have gone out from Texas Christian's halls with memories. Your days in Texas Christian must be sweet memories. Those memories will be urging you, calling you—so don't fail to come back.

When some University students reach the campus they leave their best manners behind them. They make paths on the campus, scatter test papers and Skiffs in the hallways, slam doors in co-ed's faces and draw pictures on the walls. At a formal party these same students may be found acting the perfect lady and gentleman. They are perfectly at ease in the best company and conduct themselves entirely different than when on the campus.

A common fault among the girls living in the dormitory is the abruptness in which they enter each other's room. Polite society demands that those wishing to enter another's quarters should offer some kind of a knock or salutation. Certainly a college student should show as much respect to her fellow student by a like request for entrance.

Chapel displays further rudeness on the part of those who leave their manners at home. Speakers and musicians have more than once complained that the audience has hindered their offerings through conversation and the rustling of papers and books. If every student could stand on the platform and be confronted with such actions from their fellows, they would certainly use more discretion next chapel period.

These are but a few of the complaints made against impoliteness on our part. Let us see if we cannot have a general polishing of our manners. If manners aren't learned in college where will they be learned?

Opinions Wanted

There has never been a meeting of a class here in T. C. U. but what someone wanted to express a certain view and through timidity or lack of time was unable to get his idea over. The Skiff conducts an Open Forum for this purpose. When you are in doubt about an issue, when you have a pet peeve or when you want to commend a certain Skiff feature, USE this medium. It is yours!

Please don't overlook giving credit where credit is due. If you think a certain Skiff writer would make a better paper hanger than a columnist, don't be afraid to write in and say so. A fictitious name may be published, but the person's name must be known to the editor of The Skiff. If the person so desires, his identity will be kept a secret by the editor. Letters from faculty and ex-students are especially appreciated. They show that others than the actual student body have a common interest in the University and its needs.

Start an argument about something through this manner. If you get some rebuttals then you will know that others are interested in the same project. Nothing makes a more interesting paper than controversial subjects, provided strangle holds are barred and parliamentary laws followed. Now, let's start something!

Get a Fresh Start

The mid-semester examinations are over and the grades have already been sent to the registrar. We are now in a position where we cannot afford to let down, but must either strive to continue the pace that we have already set, or to set a faster one for the remaining half of the semester. A low score at the half does not necessarily mean a low one at the end of the game. Neither does a high one assure you that you will maintain it when the final gun fires. The grade is a mere estimation of what your teacher thinks of your work, and in some cases he will find that he has either under or over-estimated you.

A good attitude aids materially in most teachers' grading. If you have not showed interest, show him that you are really interested in the course and are not taking it just because it is a requirement. Most professors have devoted their life's study to their particular course and think in terms of that course. They value it, and when a student lets it be known that he's in there just because he has to be, it is a slap in the instructor's face. Try as he may, it is hard to forget it when time for grades come around. Do your part and they'll do theirs.

Believe it or not, but there is some good in a depression. The town treasurer of Lanesboro, Mass., can't send out his tax bills because he hasn't the postage.—Louisville Times.

COULTER'S COLUMN

BOY, did everyone have a good time this last week? Even if we were beaten, we can come back and whip the very—what shall I say—off the Bears. Bears have very short tales.

This is going to be a diary of the week, so if I have seen you or heard about you during the week, your name might be mentioned. That's just a way of getting you to read this column.

FRIDAY night: Went to bed quite late after the Horned Frog staff meeting over at Jimmy Beal's home. L. O. Dallas and I took Natalie Collins and Theo Smart home about 8:30 p. m. just as John Hirstine was trying to get Louise Briscoe out of the dorm to come to staff meeting. After playing in the band down town at the Hollywood, we came back to staff meeting and discussed the style show. It really is going to be a big thing this year. Parson Brown and Hal Wright will be in charge of the arrangements—Hal is to plan the party afterwards.

SATURDAY: This was one of the biggest days of this school year and I really had a big time. At 6 o'clock that morning, I rolled out of bed and took a bath—really I did. After hunting around the house for about thirty minutes for my band tie, I headed for the station and got there just as the conductor was calling all aboard. On the way down, Henry Spencer, Gibson Randle and others played checkers. I was beaten as usual and decided that I didn't want to play any longer—which reminds me of a joke: When I sat down on the park bench she laughed; but when I began to play—!

When we arrived at the station in Austin, I saw Charles Patterson and heard Samuel Frankrich long before I saw him. Mary Jane Ridgway, Jacques Lansdale and some other Texas Christian ex-es were there too. Hugh Buck was there with belles all around him.

The band played over KUT (pronounced KUT) and then we disbanded to eat. After being passed up by two busses (cheap skate), six of us hired a cab and went out to the game. Wherewithal, it was played. The band paraded at the half and some one said it was good, but they couldn't tell what was formed when we played "The Eyes of Texas." I take this means to inform you that it was a star—points and all. Alto Tatum started in playing two measures behind me and I was already two measures behind—not including the two paces that I was behind Tom Fleming—which has nothing to do with it. Prof. Sammis looked in my direction and I just passed the look back to Tatum. When we finished, he was still around "till early in the morn."

The game was over, my throat was sore, I had a blister on my thumb from beating the drum—and last, I had to pay off a bet. It surely hurt me to have to buy that coke. While waiting for the dance to start, I went to the show and saw a good picture. It was John Barrymore in "The Mad Genius." David Stitt and Dick Houser sat right in front of me and I was too bashful to hold the girl friend's hand—I held both of them.

Went to the dance at the big gym—and it's really a big gym. Saw Camille Moore, Throup Watkins, Leta Ray, Melvin Beaver, Doris Sellers, Mel Summers, Ethleen Craddock, Margaret Harrison, Elizabeth Alexander, Dorothy Scott and several others. Got stuck with a good-looking girl from Houston—and the tough part about it was that she danced like a Mack Truck. I felt like a truck driver. I felt as if I was stepping on the brakes every time I stepped on her feet.

AFTER the dance, Sproesser Wynn and I bowled five games to work off the surplus energy. The cheering section was composed of Spencer, Cody Sandifer, Watkins and others. Went down to the station and had to wait for the train. Loaded my bass drum and the girl friend and waited for the lights to go out. The conductor saw to it that the switch board was locked with the lights on—so I went to sleep. Shucks! The lights finally went out and after the train was stopped five times by playful cord pullers, we switched trains, at Waco, and pulled into Fort Worth about 8:30 a. m. Sunday. I walked back through the train once while the lights were out and everyone told me that they would see to it that I was tried in Kangaroo Court in the band if I said anything—so the only person that I saw on the whole trip was Paul Packard.

ALL MY LITTLE SINS
All my little sins come back
To mock and laugh at me;
And though I try to stare them down.

Their leery eyes
Grow green and round,
And send quick shivers up my spine.

Then, if I hide my face
In deadly fears,
They dance around and pull my ears.

They dance and race
At head-long speed,
'Til all the place
Joins in the reel,
And I lose sight of stable things,
And close my eyes in blank despair.
I think along for days it seems,

Then, if I dare, I peek a bit,
To see if they are there,
And, sure enough,
Those gloating sins
Sit on the floor by twos
And grin and stare.

ASSUMED WISDOM
Why should I call this lovely—
This sunset's golden glow?
Or these fragrant, wind-swept fields
Beauty now full-grown?
Or feel the ecstacy of silvery drops
of rain?
Why should I call these beautiful?
I who cannot tell you what beauty is
Nor give a single reason that I know
There is something lovely in a sky.

"Suicide Fleet," "Possessed" and "Blonde Crazy" Are New Pictures

Movie fans will really get a treat this coming week. Joan Crawford, Ginger Rogers, James Cagney, Bill Boyd, James Gleason, Clark Gable and Skeets Gallagher take things over at the local shows.

Sir Philip Ben Greet, famous Shakespearean actor and producer, will bring his English players to the Central High School auditorium Wednesday for the only legitimate stage production of the week.

RKO HOLLYWOOD.
"Suicide Fleet" takes the screen at the RKO Hollywood starting tomorrow. The story deals with the war adventures of pals who leave their Coney Island concessions to enlist in the Navy. They all love the same girl but friendship wins over romance rivalry in the final scenes. Bill Boyd, Robert Armstrong, James Gleason, Ginger Rogers and about half of the U. S. Navy take part in the production. Ginger is a Fort Worth girl.

Whole divisions of Navy destroyers and submarines are used in the sensational sea battles in which two clipper ships are actually sunk by real shells from the submarines. The story contains plenty of action and plenty of wisecracks. Next Friday night, the junior class will sponsor a theater party at the Hollywood with Will Rogers' "Ambassador Bill" as the feature attraction.

WORTH.
The Worth's Thanksgiving offering will be in the form of a surprise feature at a midnight show Wednesday night at 11:30 o'clock. The picture will not be announced until it appears on the screen.

Joan Crawford and Clark Gable wrestle in "Possessed," which starts tomorrow for four days. The story concerns an ambitious girl who works in a box factory at the beginning and finally ends up amid riches and romance.

ANN GORA'S CAT NIPS
My, what I saw on the train on the way back from Austin. There was A. D. Weatherly looking for his seat when he was already sitting on it.

Cody Sandifer and Natalie Collins were riding merrily along the way in the dark—both of them were.

Heard some good information on Mrs. Beckham while in Austin. Mrs. Beckham, how did you like that French gentleman that was traveling with you and the others on the boat last summer. Rumor has it that he was quite nice. And did you taste any of the beverages that were offered in the many stores along the way?

L. O. Dallas and Alice McAnnelly were certainly wrapped up in their work on the way home, according to A. H. Montford, Junior.

Dorothy Scott was seen at the start of the dance, but never again during the whole evening.

Wonder if Louise Briscoe has learned much typewriting under the direction of John Hirstine in the Horned Frog office? They are in there most of the time that they are not somewhere else that has no typewriter.

Weren't those cute sashes that the yell leaders had on down at Memorial Stadium? What did you do with them at the half?

One girl in Jarvis Hall lost ten pounds at the game. She was yelling all right—but the hard part about it was that the pounds happened to be candy.

Margaret Reeder, your smile is nice. Who's it for? Alf?

Ex-Students, Here Is Review Of Fighting T. C. U. Horned Frogs

For the convenience of the alumni who are seeing the Frogs in action for the first time on Homecoming Day next Saturday, The Skiff sports editor will give the 1931 Frogs a brief introduction.

What the pitcher is to a baseball team, the quarterback is to the football eleven. For this reason the field generals will be introduced first. In the starting role will be No. 17, Grassy Hinton, a 175-pound lad from Cleburne who will be ending three years of brilliant play against the Ponies. He is a triple threat artist, and executes his three-fold duty well. Brannon First Substitute.

Probably the first substitute sent for Hinton will be Buster Brannon, the former Athens star. Brannon is playing his second year, and like Hinton, is a triple threat of merit, and noted over the conference for his high spirals sent up from his left foot. Vance Woolwine, a passer de luxe and excellent field general and punter will also see service at the field general job. He hails from North Side and will be playing his last game in a Horned Frog uniform. Otha Tiner, the midjet blonde from Paul Tyson's Waco Tigers, may also see service. Too light for regular duty, he has resorted to his two specialties, passing and place kicking. In both these departments, he is the best on the squad.

At left halfback will be Hubert Dennis, the Memphis menace. Dennis, like his running mate at the position, Red Oliver, is a hard runner, and exceptionally good on off-tackle plants. Oliver is the Polytechnic red-head who ran through the Mustangs on the opening kickoff last year and paved the way for the Christians' 13-to-0 victory. Paul Snow, another senior, also plays this position. He started the Texas game and is a valuable reserve.

At the other halfback will be B. W. Spearman, the daring little safety who returned a 65-yard punt against the Owls and gave his team the winning touchdown. He is an excellent ball-lugger and heads-up defensive star. Alternating with Spearman will be Doc Summer, the other Athens lad who is more noted for his feats on the basketball court than on the gridiron. Although not as fast as Spearman, he fills the position without loss of much strength, and has proved invaluable as a reserve.

Green Is Captain. As in other conference contests, Capt. Harlos Green will probably play the entire game at fullback. He too, will be playing his last game in a Christian uniform. Green first came to football prominence in his sophomore year, 1929, when Austin Griffith was injured. He filled the injured Griffith's shoes in grand style and kicked the goals that kept the Frogs in the running against Texas and S. M. U. He is a great leader, an excellent line-backer and a superb blocker. Should he be injured, he will be replaced by J. G. Kitchen, the Okmulgee, Okla., sophomore.

In the center of the Horned Frog forward wall will be J. W. Townsend, a junior from Lufkin. As an understudy to Noble Atkins last year, Townsend did not see much service, but he has filled the vacancy this year in a manner that has eliminated much worry from Coach Schmidt. He and Decambre, the Mustang pivot star, will be fighting it out in the final game for all-conference honors. Should he retire from the game Harvey Thomas, a 210-pound sophomore from Mineral Wells will replace him.

Flanking Townsend on the right will be Johnny Vaught, who was elected to fill Capt. Brumbelow's shoes last year. Vaught was mentioned by Grantland Rice earlier in the season as a possible all-American, and will be almost unanimous for all-Southwest. In the past two years, Vaught has been one of the iron men who plays most of the game without injury, but should he retire from the field, he will be replaced by Lynn Brown, 190-pound sophomore from San Antonio, who is the most improved linesman on the squad.

Lambert At Guard. At the other guard will be Standard Lambert, a three-letter senior from Temple. After Boswell's injury, Evans was shifted from left guard to left tackle and then Lambert took over the left guard position permanently. Lee Bassinger, a 170-pound sophomore from Central is Lambert's relief man. He is an excellent offensive blocker and although a bit light on the defense, he outsmarts his heavier opponents.

Foster Howell will probably start at right tackle. Howell received a serious knee injury in the A. & M. game that kept him out of the lineup until the Rice tilt when he played a few minutes. He started the Texas game and should be back at his prime against the Mustangs. During his absence, he was replaced by Jack Shackelford a junior from Abilene, rally to be held in Christian Stadium, if weather permits. Roland Balch, Howard Walsh and Ralph Brown will have charge of the program. Speakers from the alumni and the student body will be on the program.

From Christian Stadium, those at the rally will go to the field in back of Jarvis Hall to the gigantic bonfire now being prepared. Fireworks are being planned by Alf Roark, president of the student body, but final plans have not been made. Leading a snake dance, the Horned Frog Band will parade around the bonfire and then will lead the dance in the downtown business district.

Billie Dickey, president of the junior class, has extended an invitation for all ex-students and alumni to attend the RKO Hollywood where the class will sponsor a theater party at the end of the downtown parade beginning shortly after 9 o'clock. Will Rogers' latest film, "Ambassador Bill," will be the feature.

Assembly to Be at 11 o'clock.

After the assembly in the University chapel at 11 o'clock, the group will convene to the cafeteria. Dean Colby D. Hall will give the invocation at the luncheon. "This is the first time in a great many years that the luncheon has been held on the campus," said Dr. Elliott. "It is the aim of the Association in the future to hold these luncheons annually on the University campus. The second objective of the Association is to petition the Board of Trustees for representation on the Board. The third objective is to make a revolving loan fund available to T. C. U. students. Last year more than 50 students had to drop out of school because of lack of funds. It is our aim to provide a fund which will allow the student to pay the loans back at a low rate of interest after he has finished his college education."

The Woman's Branch of the Fort Worth organization of ex-students and alumni has already contributed a large sum to the fund. The discussion of this fund will be the only business to be brought up at the luncheon. Edgar Bush of McKinney and Roy Tomlinson of Fort Worth are the vice-presidents of the Association this year. Reservations for the banquet should

According to Miss Hall, secretary, booths will be placed in the Main Building for the various classes. She also announced that all contributions to the loan fund would be considered as dues of the State Alumni Association and would carry with it a year's subscription to The Skiff.

President E. M. Waits, Roark and a representative from the S. M. U. Alumni Association will extend welcomes to the Homecomers at the banquet. Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon will sing and Dr. Clinton Lockhart, former president of the University, will speak. Both Dan Rogers of Dallas and Jesse Martin of Fort Worth will have quartets to entertain at the luncheon.

Miss Violet Mikeska spent the week-end at her home in Taylor.

Freshman Sees Self as Others Sees All Frosh

Another scalp was added to Darwin's belt Tuesday night when a freshman frightened himself as he looked into a mirror and thought he saw a monkey.

Circumstances leading up to the incident occurred when Wilbyrd Irving, Dick Murray, Bob Bradford and Joe Sargent were downtown Tuesday night gathering material for the bonfire.

The quartet had been looking at the monkeys in the show window of Leonard Brothers' Store and had sauntered around through an alley in search of boxes and crates.

Irving, peering into a darkened doorway, was confronted with a mirror mounted on the door and jumped back, exclaiming, "There's a monkey in here, too."

After discovering the mistake (if it could be called a mistake), the boys continued their search for bonfire material, taking precautions before looking into dark doorways.

Miss Maurine Shadle spent the week-end at her home in Weatherford.

By ELBERT HALING

"The depression is almost over," Ben Bernie informs the world . . . "If it isn't," the Old Maestro continued, "Mahatma Gandhi will be the world's best dressed man."

A business trip taken by their father was the prime factor in starting the Boswells on their radio careers. If Boswell had not left New Orleans for Florida on an extended trip six years ago, the Boswell sisters might be playing stately minuets and sedate classical selections on violin, cello and piano. But the train had hardly left the station, carrying with it their musical mentor, when the three volatile girls—Connie Martha, and Vet—laid aside the classics. With Connie playing the sax, Vet the banjo, and Martha the piano, the "St. Louis Blues" replaced the melodies of Brahms. Later, as you may know, they took up singing.

Pep Leaders Hold Rallies for Game

The Frog yell leaders, Roland Balch, Howard Walsh and Ralph Brown, conducted two pep rallies this week in preparation for tomorrow's football game with the Baylor Bears at Waco. The rallies were held Tuesday night and last night in the Frog Fieldhouse.

At Tuesday night's meeting the leaders conducted a yell practice, stressing the importance of speed in rendering the yells. Balch, head yell leader, made the only talk at the rally. "We want the Frogs to be mean and be tough in Saturday's game," he said, "and we want them to avenge last year's defeat at the hands of the Bears."

Prof. Karl E. Ashburn and Sterling Brown, graduate student, were the principal speakers at last night's rally.

Presidents Will Direct Programs

Freshman, Sophomore Officers in Charge of Chapels.

The representatives from the Student Council, the presidents of the various classes and the president of the student body appeared before President E. M. Waitt last Friday with the request that the presidents of the freshman and sophomore classes be allowed to take charge of one chapel program each month. This, they think, will develop the initiative of the respective classes and give them a share in participating in the programs of the chapel assemblies.

President Waitt, after conferring with Dean Colby D. Hall and the members of the chapel committee, has granted this request with the understanding that "these programs will be conducted with the same reverence and high regard for the development of the spiritual and social life of the students as the traditions of the University have required through the many years of its existence."

The programs, like those of the junior-senior chapel, must be submitted to the chapel committee for approval a week in advance.

The freshman will have charge of the programs Dec. 16, Jan. 27, Feb. 24, March 23, April 20, and May 18. The sophomore programs will be presented Dec. 2, Jan. 13, Feb. 10, March 9, April 6 and May 4.

The sophomore committee is composed of Roy O'Brien, Atys Gardner, Sam Sayers and Miss Louise Briscoe. The freshmen on the committee are Don Gillis, Ernest Chilton and Francis Barnes.

Brown and Chappel to Run in S. M. U. Meet

Coach "Boss" Clark announced that Ernest Brown and Robert Chappel will represent T. C. U. in the conference cross-country meet to be held at Southern Methodist University tomorrow afternoon.

T. C. U. will not compete for the team championship as it takes five men to vie for this honor. Brown and Chappel have been making excellent time in tryouts the past week and are expected to finish high among the individual leaders. The course to be covered is approximately four miles long.

Coach Schmidt Speaks At Y.M.C.A. Open Forum

Coach Francis Schmidt led the M. C. A. open-forum group yesterday afternoon in a discussion "Amateurism in Athletics." Mr. Roberts introduced the speaker and opened the student discussion.

Suggestions were offered pending the sending of a petition to the senators and representatives from the district to the national legislature declaring the "Y" organization of T. C. U. to be in favor of disarmament. The article was voted on a few weeks ago but was brought up again following the talk made last week by Capt. Samuon.

Frogland will be host to hundreds of alumni, ex-students and visitors which the annual University Homecoming and the Horned Frog-Mustang game will attract to this campus next week-end. Although the official Homecoming Day is not until next Saturday, the Ex-Students and Alumni Association, with the help of the student body, has planned an immense program for next week as well as for that day.

The "T" Association banquet for the T. C. U. ex-lettermen to be held in the University cafeteria next Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock will be the opening affair on the program. The outstanding event for the alumni and ex-students is the Homecoming luncheon in the University cafeteria preceding the game Saturday. Although members of the class of 1927 have heretofore held their luncheon separate from the rest of the classes, this year the group will meet with the others at this luncheon.

T. C. U. Girls to Usher For Symphony Concert

The Cetum Club, of which twelve T. C. U. girls are members, will usher for the first Symphony Orchestra concert Tuesday at 8:15 p. m. at Central High School.

With the girls calling for their dates at Clark and Goode Halls and escorting them to Jarvis Hall where they were received by the club president, Miss Sarah Stroud, the Frogettes held their first social event of the year last evening in the form of a backward party.

Following an opening prom, games furnished the entertainment for the evening. After refreshments were served to the guests, the girls escorted the boys home.

The social committee in charge of arrangements for the affair was composed of Misses Nina Whittington, Janie Hudgins and Lou Blumberg.

Houston Club Has Tamale Supper

Members of the Houston Club held a hot tamale supper Wednesday evening at Inspiration Point on Lake Worth.

Pre-Junior Tests Will Be Offered Week of Dec. 7-11

Dean Hall Urges Upperclassmen to Take Examinations.

SENIORS MUST REPORT Committee to Notify Students of Their Conditioned Subjects.

Dean Colby D. Hall has announced that the pre-junior tests for this semester will be offered the week of Dec. 7-11. These examinations are open to all sophomores who have not satisfied requirements in some subjects. The next set of pre-juniors will not be given until late in the spring.

Seniors Are Summoned. Seniors who have some subjects yet unsatisfied will find this about the last chance to take the test. Each of these should report without fail, according to Dean Hall.

Juniors who have any subjects unsatisfied, should report, for these are "conditions" against their records. Those who have more than two subjects unsatisfied are still held out of junior classes, and should by all means remove the conditions before the next semester.

All juniors and seniors who have any "conditions" will receive a letter reporting these, and enclosing an application for the tests in December. It is important that each student shall turn in these applications so the committee may be prepared for the proper subjects and number of students.

Exceptional Sophomores Eligible. Sophomores are not as a rule expected to take these tests. Theirs should come at the close of the sophomore year. If a sophomore considers himself ready for some one or two of these subjects, he should bear in mind two things. First, he is expected to complete all six tests within 14 months from the date of the first one taken; second, his teacher must recommend that he is ready—if he takes the test sooner than the spring of his sophomore year.

Catalog Explains Plan. "This is a good time for every one to re-read the explanation of the

Texas Students Use Wits to Get By Gate Keeper

In addition to possessing a good football team, the students of the University of Texas must be given credit for considerable craft and ingenuity. It appears that not all of them have bought season tickets to the athletic games, so their wits are called into service when they desire to attend a game.

At the T. C. U.-Texas game one student was observed to enter the gate, showing his pass to be perfectly in order. Once in, he bought a football program, put something in it and said to the boy who was selling them:

"Son if you'll take this program outside, that fellow in the dark suit will give you a quarter for it."

The transaction was completed, and repeated twice. Their party completed, the ticketless students proceeded to the stadium to watch the game.

As one party of five approached the gate, one of its number fell over, apparently in a faint. His companions picked him up, and hurriedly showing their passes, cried:

"Hurry! Get him up here where there's some water!"

Once behind the stadium pillars, the afflicted one apparently made a complete recovery. The football game was enjoyed by all.

Curry Chosen Officer Of Texas Library Unit

Arthur R. Curry, the University librarian, was re-elected to the office of treasurer of the Texas Library Association at the association's recent convention held in San Antonio. Curry has held the office of treasurer for the past two years, and will continue to act in that capacity for the next two years.

pre-junior plan in the catalog pages 51-54," said Dean Hall.

The pre-junior records are in charge of Mrs. Mirth W. Sherer, the secretary of the committee. She will be glad to give students information. Dean Hall also has the records available and would be glad to have personal conferences with students about the tests.

Church Board to Build Plans for Erection of University Christian Are Approved.

The Building Committee of the Church Board was authorized at a meeting of the congregation Tuesday night to advertise at the earliest possible date for bids to continue construction of the University Christian Church.

Plans for building operations were passed by the Church Board at its meeting last Friday night. They were then jointly presented before the general group by the promotion and building committees at the meeting Tuesday night and were ratified.

Assets now on hand as given out in a report by the committees on promotion and building are as follows: Lot, $16,000; church foundation, $9000; parsonage, $8900, and cash in bank, $20,061.96. This makes a total of $51,961.96 now available for use. The estimate of funds available by next June is $39,000.

These plans provide only for the erection of the building to the state of occupancy, without completing it.

Brite Students Form Seminar

Seniors and graduates of the Brite College of the Bible met in the alcove of the University cafeteria Tuesday night to organize a seminar.

Dean Colby D. Hall spoke to the group. He pointed out the fact that this seminar group would encourage the graduate to get another degree other than the one he has, so that he may be more fully prepared for his religious education work.

Elmer Henson spoke on the fellowship in the group, and Perry Gresham talked on the subject of consolidating the different churches served by these students. The purpose of the seminar is to allow the students an opportunity to discuss questions of interest which they are unable to take up in class.

Wilford P. Harmon is chairman of the seminar.

Miss Lillian Muse spent the week-end at her home in Dallas.

SPORTORIALS

By STANDARD LAMBERT

WELL, I guess that all of us have to "take it on the chin" someday, and Saturday happened to be our day. There is an old adage in the sport circles that has been worn to a frazzle, but seems to still hold good. It says that every team, no matter how poor it may be, has one good game in its system. If Texas has but one, it was last Saturday. If Baylor has but one, theirs too, was last Saturday, because they held the powerful Mustangs to a single touchdown. I can also truthfully say that we haven't had ours yet. I don't know whether we're saving ourselves for S. M. U. or the senior dance, but when we do cut loose we be to the Mustangs or the Frogs' dancing partners whichever the case may be.

The ones who witness the Frog-Bear clash in Waco tomorrow will probably see one of the most "loosey-goosey" football games ever played in Waco. Neither team will be tight. Both will have all to win and nothing to lose. Neither has a chance for the championship, and the Frogs will be taking desperate chances in order to meet S. M. U. next Saturday with a chance to tie for the championship crown.

If you remember correctly, at the first of the season I predicted that Baylor would top over one of the big four—S. M. U., T. C. U., Texas or Rice. They have played Texas and S. M. U. and haven't beaten either of them and here's hoping they don't take it out on us to make my prediction come true. Maybe their holding S. M. U. to one touchdown last week was the fulfillment. Maybe they'll beat Rice in the final game of the season. Anyway I'd rather my prophecy would go unfulfilled than to have us to be the goat.

BACK to the Texas game, I think I found about three all-conference men in Texas uniforms. You might guess that I'm referring to Ernie Koy, Harrison Stafford and "Cheesy" Cook. It is certain that Koy will receive the honor. Stafford was all-conference Saturday, and Johnny Vaught assured me that Cook was the best guard that he'd met this year. That in itself is quite a recommendation.

Although we haven't met Baylor or S. M. U. yet, there are several men in mind who have been outstanding at their respective positions. They are: Ends, Malone (A. & M.), Pruitt and Graves (T. C. U.); tackles, Magrill and Moulden (A. & M.), Lauterbach (Rice), and Moody (Texas); guards, Christian (A. & M.), Cook (Texas), Secret (Ark.), and Vaught (T. C. U.); centers, Howle (Texas), and Townsend (T. C. U.); backs, Koy and Stafford (Texas), Domingue (A. & M.), Thrasher (Rice) and Spearman (T. C. U.).

Of course S. M. U. has Mason, Hammond, Sprague, Delcambre and several others who have excellent chances to land on the mythical eleven. Sport writers of the city papers say that Mason, Hammond and Delcambre at quarterback, tackle and center, respectively, are sure shots. Personally Delcambre is going to have a pretty hard job of convincing me that he's a better snapper-back than my roommate. Townsend has come through in grand style this year and has unselfishly sacrificed stardom for the good of his team. Much of the time he has been in the center of the line playing either a five or seven-man line, and hasn't had a chance to be spectacular. The average sport writer sees only the spectacular, and intercepting passes is the most spectacular play a center can make. The man playing by his warm side in the line realizes his value to the team, and Townsend is due much credit for the success that the forward wall has enjoyed this season.

Brant Conway Speaks To Psychology Class

Brant Conway, assistant in the physics department, revealed to students of Miss Margaret Trippet's psychology classes Tuesday that there is as much darkness present in a neon tube as there is light. Nearly all laymen believe that a continuous stream of electricity passes through the neon tube, he said, but an alternating current is used which leaves a period of darkness, which, however, is so short that it cannot be perceived by the human eye.

Frogs En Route To Meet Baylor Bears at Waco

27 Men Leave Early This Morning for Tilt Saturday.

RESERVES WILL FOLLOW With Exception of Boswell Entire Squad Is Ready for Contest.

By CHARLIE CASPER
Coach Francis A. Schmidt and a band of 27 Horned Frog warriors boarded a Katy train here this morning at 8:50 o'clock bound for Waco where they will encounter the Baylor Bears in their fifth conference battle of the season. They will arrive in Waco around noon, and take a light final workout on Carroll Field. The remainder of the squad will follow Saturday morning on the special train with the students.

Coming out of the Texas tilt without serious injuries, the Horned Frogs will once again be at their full strength against Baylor, with the exception of Ben Boswell, who will be out the remainder of the season. Red Oliver, who was kept on the sidelines at Austin because of a hip injury received in the Rice game, will be back to strengthen the Frog backfield. Hubert Dennis will probably start but Oliver and Snow will be ready for relief work.

Coach Schmidt has been drilling his men all week on a special defense to stop the Alford-to-Harris passing combination that has puzzled A. & M., Texas and S. M. U.

Both teams will be playing anything but a tight game as both have all to win and nothing to lose. The Green and Gold will be out to bring in a victory for the big homecoming crowd while the Frogs will be fighting for a possible mathematical tie with S. M. U. for the championship. The two lines will average about the same while the Christians will have more weight in the backfield. The Baptists have won only one conference game this season, that being from Arkansas. Last year the Bruins defeated the Horned Frogs 35-to-14 in a thrilling game that knocked T. C. U. out of a second successive conference championship.

Five Basketball Lettermen Return

Captain Sumner, Dietzel and Green Nucleus of 1931-32 Team.

With virtually every member of his championship cage squad, as well as every member of last year's freshman group, on the football roster this year, Coach Schmidt will be unable to give his cage aspirants any early season training until the Horned Frogs find up their present football campaign with the Southern Methodist Mustangs.

Members of the championship team who will return this year include Capt. Doc Sumner, third high scorer in the conference last year, and unanimous selection for all-conference honors at forward, as well as being voted the most polished player in the league. Next comes "Too Tall" Dietzel, center, and another unanimous selection for all-conference honors. Besides being the high scorer in the conference and setting a new high point record, Dietzel received mention for all-American honors. His high-point record was 167.

Other lettermen who will return include: Harlos Green, Buster Brannon and Johnny Vaught, guards.

Ray McCulloch, forward and captain elect, may be eligible for play in the second semester.

Clyde Roberson and Ellis worth Chappell, forwards, and Noble Atkins, guard, are the only lettermen lost to this year's squad.

Members of last year's freshman group who are expected to add strength to the varsity this year include: Elbert "Flash" Walker, Jack Graves, Slim Kinzy and Chappell, forwards; Wallace Myers, Jewell Wallace, Cy Perkins, Jack Langdon, Lynn Brown and Joe Carpenter, guards; with Richard Allison and Kinzy alternating at forward and center. Blanford Spearman, manager of the championship squad last year, is also expected to be out this year.

Coach Schmidt announces that there will be a "Bull Frog" squad this year. This group is composed of members of the varsity squad who are not classed on the first string. This group will compete in the city league, and as members improve in their play they will be given a chance on the regular varsity team.

Capt. Green Wins Silver Loving Cup

For his outstanding offensive and defensive work in the Texas-T. C. U. game, played in Austin last week, Capt. Harlos Green will be awarded the silver loving cup, presented weekly by Simon's Jewelry Store. Green's work on defense was more than valuable to the Frogs, for each time the thundering Koy tore at the Purple line Green was there to stop whoever came through the line. This is Green's last year as a member of the Horned Frogs and his performance in each game proves to T. C. U. just how much he is going to be missed. Green also tore through the strong Texas line for many neat gains.

T. C. U. Group to Hear Bank Credit Manager

"Operation of the Credit Department of a Bank," will be the subject of a talk to be given by Wallace Duke before the class in "Credit and Collection" Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Duke is credit manager of the Fort Worth National Bank.

Music Department to Give Recital Sunday

Mrs. Cahoon and Miss Bailey to Feature in First Twilight Musical.

A joint recital, sponsored by the department of music, will be given by Miss Katherine McKee Bailey, associate professor of piano, and Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon of the voice department in the T. C. U. auditorium Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is the first of a series of monthly programs that will be given at T. C. U.

This is the first public appearance of Miss Bailey, who became a member of the faculty of the music department in September. She is well known as a concert pianist and a teacher in the Southwest and in the North. She will alternate with Mrs. Cahoon, playing three groups of numbers.

Mrs. Cahoon's selections will also be divided into three groups.

Miss Polly Durie spent the week-end at her home in Waco.

Steers Defeat Frogs 10 to 0 Christians Must Win Rest of Games for Conference Tie.

The Horned Frogs' hopes for a second conference championship were dimmed considerably when the powerful University of Texas Longhorns took them to a 10-to-0 cleaning in Austin Saturday for the first conference loss of the season for the Frogs. The Frogs have a chance to tie for the championship with the Southern Methodist Mustangs by defeating the Baylor Bears and the Ponies.

With plays clicking for the first time in conference competition this season the Steers gained an early lead over the Frogs when Weaver kicked a field goal, after Koy, powerful Steer fullback, had made a beautiful run to place the ball in scoring position.

The half ended with a score 3 to 0 in favor of the Longhorns. In the third quarter the Steers made a successful march toward the goal and on an attempted strong side play, Koy dashed around the weak side of the line for a touchdown. Blanton kicked goal making the score 10 to 0.

The brilliant play of Blanford Spearman, Frog halfback, was the feature of the Christians' attack, with Captain Harlos Green and "Pap" Pruitt doing their share on the defense in breaking up the Steers' plays. Time after time Green met the Longhorn backs at the line of scrimmage and stopped them for no gain, and on attempted end plays, Pruitt showed uncanny ability in breaking up the Steer plays.

Koy and Stafford, Longhorn backfield aces, were outstanding in the Steers' march to victory, while Howle, center, and Stafford were the outstanding men for the Texans on the defense.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By CHARLIE CASPER

The sophomores trounced the seniors by a 22-to-6 score and the 1931 intramural football season came to a close with the juniors winning the championship. The second year men came back strong to defeat the seniors and win second place in the race. The sophomore offense was featured by the brilliant play of Paul Donovan. His flashy running, accurate passing, and punting kept the last year men guessing throughout the tilt.

The final standing of the 1931 intramural pennant race is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	Points
Juniors	4	0	2	58
Sophomores	4	2	1	48
Seniors	3	3	1	38

Joe Brown, sophomore ace, led the scoring honors with 43 points. He was closely followed by Shackelford of the seniors with 38 points; Orville Paty, junior, 36; Walter Morning, seniors, 30; and Stilt, juniors, 26.

With the exception of tennis, which will be played some time this week, no intramural sports will be held until the first of December, at which time handball and basketball will start.

The following sophomores will receive silver medals as their reward as second place winners: Robert Chappell, Joe Brown, Roland Balch, Paul Donovan, Nat Wells, Joe Carpenter, Boaz Haskins, Joe Sargent and Clyde Alexander.

Misses Georgia Johnson and Sarah Steele spent the week-end in Greenville.
