The Skiff Rates All-American in National Contest

Award Places School Paper in Upper 10 Per Cent.

FIRST HONORED IN 1931

Paper Placed in Second of Five Divisions Two Years Previous to 1931.

The Skiff has again been rated an "all-American" college weekly by the National Scholastic Press Association, according to word received this week by Prof. J. Willard Ridings.

Details of the contest have not been received, but the rating received means that The Skiff is among the best 10 per cent of the more than 1000 school newspapers which are members of the association.

The Skiff won the all-American rating for the first time last year. For two years previous to that it was placed in the second of five divisions by the association in grading the member papers.

A plaque will be awarded The Skiff by the association and it will be framed and placed on the office wall along with the other Skiff awards and recognitions.

U. R. F. Will Be on Education Topic

"Intelligence and Religion" will be the theme of the open forum to be conducted by the School of Education at the University Religious Fellowship service Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the University Auditorium. Prof. E. W. McDiarmid will lead the forum discussion. John Ruff, Emmie Dacus, Miss Lamoyne Lawrence, Miss Frances Griggs and Miss Elizabeth Ruff will participate in the round table discussion.

The program will be opened with piano prelude by Dan Packard, after which Prof. S. W. Hutton will lead the congregation in the singing of fellowship hymns. The devotional will be given by Prof. Raymond A. Smith.

Special music for the evening will consist of oratorio numbers by the choral Rantorem, which is composed of Misses La Verda Sessions, Evelyn Franklin, Hortenz Baker, Helen Clark, Dorothy East, Eva Keeling, Margot Shaw and Bita May Hall. Miss Adeline Boyd will be the accompanist.

The Fellowship program will be presented under the auspices of the student body the following Sunday evening.

Sophomores to Elect Officers Monday

Election of sophomore class officers for next year will be held after chapel Monday in the amphitheater. Ben Baxter will be in charge of the election. Nominations will be made on the floor for the offices of president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, business manager, class sponsor, class mother, and three positions on the student council.

Officers to Be Installed Tuesday

Senior Day Is Your Day

Next Tuesday the first annual Senior Day will be inaugurated. Those who have planned the day and the program are to be commended for planning a constructive program which will be enjoyed by all and not just the seniors.

The program will have as its highlight the dedication of the 1932 Horned Frog. No classes will be held that day so every student on the campus should be present at the ceremonies in honor of the seniors. Immediately after the dedication ceremonies, the annuals will be distributed.

The installation of new student body officers, new class officers and election of permanent officers of the Class of '32 will follow the dedication of the Horned Frog. The eight beauties who were chosen at the Beauty Revue will be presented with their yearbooks during the dedication.

The day is in honor of the seniors, and whether you are a member of the Class of '33, the Class of '34 or the Class of '35 attend the exercises Tuesday. Some day you will be in the class to be honored. The program will be well planned and will not be long and drawn out. It's your day as well as the seniors'.

Speakers Are Secured

Jesse Martin and Dr. R. T. Ellis Will Speak to Class.

Prof. Karl E. Ashburn has secured Jesse E. Martin, District Attorney, and Dr. R. T. Ellis, secretary of the Texas Teachers' Association, to be guest speakers at his Monday night class in Texas Industrial Problems.

Martin will discuss "The Problems of Law Enforcement in Texas" Monday evening, and Dr. Ellis will take up "The Problems in Public School Education in Texas," when he addresses the class Monday evening, May 23.

Prof. Ashburn's class meets in Room 209 in the Main Building at 7:30 o'clock, and all the students and faculty members of T. C. U. are invited to hear these two speakers.

Library Books Sought

Late Books Brought to Library This Week Carry No Fine.

Overdue books may be returned to the library next week without a fine being paid on them, according to Arthur Curry, librarian. In order to encourage students to return books that have been kept out so long the accumulated fines amount to more than the books are worth, a box with a slotted lid through which books may be dropped will be placed near the front doors of the library Monday and left there until Saturday night.

Sh! Froggie Will Get You if You Don't Watch Out

Bullier than ever!! Sharper than ever before!! And with eyes that will surprise those discreet persons on the campus who have done so much that no one knows anything about. Look out for the Frog's Horns in the 1932 Horned Frog.

Searching far into the night... looking into windows that are supposedly shaded... peeping into parked cars... eaves dropping from behind that thick dark hedge... listening with the greatest care from the booth just behind or just in front... inane questioning... being here, there and nowhere all at the same time... ah!! the Horned Frog's Horns. This year the Horned Frog will pierce with his horns everybody's secrets. He will respect the solitude of no one. Anything worth being withheld from the eyes and ears of the public will afford a wonderful target for the horns of the Frog.

Though it is far too late to make apologies and demands for secrecy, it might be well for those who have been so unfortunate to break into print in this sizzling section to begin making explanations and prayers.

Seniors to Give Piano Recitals

Miss Doss, Mrs. Adams, Clark Rhodes to Be Presented.

Miss Rowena Doss, Mrs. Ola Adams and Clark Rhodes, seniors in the department of music, will be presented in senior piano recitals by the School of Fine Arts next Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings respectively at 8:15 o'clock in the University Auditorium.

The Texas Christian University Orchestra, conducted by Prof. Claude Sammis, will assist Miss Doss and Mrs. Adams in their recitals. Orchestral accompaniment will be played for the last program number of each recitalist. Rhodes will be assisted in his recital by Albert Luper, violinist.

Members of the orchestra are: Trumpets, Milner Sandifer and Alito Tatum; trombones, Don Gillis and Billy Allen; clarinets, Frank McMorris and Tom Fleming; flute, Reeder Shugart; sousaphone, Charles Caldwell; drums, Cody Sandifer and Raymond Michero; French horn, Sproesser Wynn; saxophones, Miss Natalie Collins and Arthur Curry; violins, Albert Luper, Vernon Pinday, and Misses Doris Nell Twitty, Marvylene Bove, Marjorie Scott, Mary Page Martin, Hortenz Baker, Louise Briscoe, and Mrs. Blanch Haesley; violin cello, Prof. Samuel T. Ziegler, and viola, Miss Mora Lou Washam.

Misses Louise Lester and Doss will usher for Mrs. Adams. James Watkins and Miss Doss for Rhodes, and Miss Martha Walde and Mrs. Adams for Miss Doss.

Ashburn Is Junior C. of C. Director

Prof. Karl E. Ashburn was elected one of the directors of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the organization recently.

Louis Mueller, an ex-student of T. C. U., and Claude Manning, a graduate of the University, were included among the other directors elected.

Dr. Allyn Foster to Speak Here Monday

Dr. Allyn King Foster, student secretary of the Education Board of the Northern Baptist Convention, will speak to several campus groups here Monday.

His schedule of addresses follows: At 9 o'clock he will speak to several classes on the subject, "Science and Religion." At 10 o'clock he will speak to the chapel group, and at 11 o'clock he will address another class group on "A Philosophy of Life."

At 1:15 o'clock, Dr. King will conduct the Y Forum meeting in the amphitheater. Dr. W. C. Smith, head of the sociology department, has charge of the arrangements.

"Mr. Versatility" Has Interview With Skiff "Vulture Vinchell"

"Do you drink, chew, or neck?" "Vulture Vinchell" inquired of "Mr. Versatility" in an exclusive interview this morning. "I have done all three," proudly replied "Versatility," with a satisfied grin on his ignoble countenance. "What is your favorite radio program?" we inquired, in imitation of the radio editor.

"William Gonder announcing phonograph records from KFJZ. I also like spinach," he added as an after thought rather irrelevant to the subject.

"Who will be the next president?" Mr. Do Lots was asked. "Herbert Hoover," came the reply like puffed rice is supposed to come from a cannon. "You might tell The Skiff audience that I'm working on a cellophane mattress to prevent burglars hiding under beds."

As this floored us, the interview terminated. We gained consciousness just as our "hero" dashed into see Dr. M. D. Clubb. It is a fact that "Versatility" took this professor's humor course for two years, merely because he "liked" it. With no reflection on the maestro of this course we agree with others that this week's victim needs several more years in this same class.

Official Holiday Granted for First Annual Senior Day Event Tuesday in Front of Mary Couts Burnett Library

Ceremonies to Start With Band Concert at 9 A. M. Will Include Horned Frog Dedication and Junior-Senior Banquet.

By PAUL MARTIN.

All students will be dismissed from classes to participate in the activities Senior Day, which will be held Tuesday. Beginning this year, Senior Day will be established as an annual occasion in the school calendar to take the place of the old Class Rush Day. The program will begin at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning with a band concert in front of the library. Singing of the Alma Mater will introduce the Senior Day activities, after which President Waits will offer the invocation.

University Acts On Advertising

Only Skiff, Annual and Program Group May Solicit Ads.

The Skiff, the Horned Frog and the publications at T. C. U. for which advertising may be solicited, according to action taken last week by the publications committee of the University.

The action was taken, according to committee members, so that advertisers would be called upon to support only those publications which are most essential to student life.

Letters have been mailed by Prof. J. Willard Ridings, secretary of the publications committee, to all advertisers, informing them of the ruling.

Washington Pageant Presented in Stadium

Combined Efforts of University and Fort Worth Make Event Successful.

One of the principal events in Fort Worth's celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of George Washington, a Washington Bicentennial Pageant, was presented on Frog Field May 7.

The pageant was presented through the combined efforts of 250 girls from the T. C. U. physical education department, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy; the Civic Chorus composed of 300 T. C. U. and Fort Worth singers, under the direction of Sam S. Losh; and the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra and other musicians, directed by Brooks Morris.

The pageant consisted of the singing of "Washington," a cantata by Edward C. Potter and R. Deane Shure, and "Song of Faith" by John Alden Carpenter by the chorus accompanied by the orchestra, while the physical education girls portrayed scenes from the life of Washington in pantomime form.

Miss Madalyn Whitener, T. C. U. freshman, enacted the part of "Miss Liberty," the principal feminine role of the pageant.

Class Gift to Be Presented.

Alf Roark will make the introductory remarks to be followed by the presentation of members of the senior class. Gibson Randle, president of the senior class, will present the class gifts to officials of the University.

This will be followed by an installation program in which student body officers and class officers for the ensuing year will be presented. Dr. Edwin A. Elliott will direct this feature of the program. Miss Katherine Moore will have charge of the installation of permanent senior class officers.

The class prophecy will be read by Miss Janet Largent. The next event is the Junior-Senior ritual to be established as an annual affair. Milt Mehl, Randle and A. H. Montford compose the committee in charge of arranging this ritual.

Miss Eylers to Dedicate.

Miss Lillian Eylers and her staff will dedicate the 1932 edition of the Horned Frog, which will be followed by the symbolic book-burning by members of the senior class. This will conclude the activities for the morning.

The only event scheduled for the afternoon is the distribution of yearbooks from the Fieldhouse at 1 p. m. for members of the senior class. Members of other classes will receive their annuals beginning at 2 p. m.

Dickey Is Toastmaster.

The final event on the senior day program will be the Junior-Senior banquet to be held at the University Club at 7:30 p. m. Billie Dickey will serve as toastmaster.

Howard Walsh is in charge of the ticket sales. All tickets must be bought and reservations made by 1 o'clock Monday. All seniors are requested to sign the lists placed in the halls of Main Building and in the dormitories.

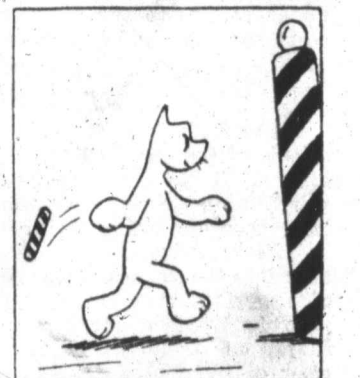

The program is in charge of the social committee composed of David Stitt, Miss Doris Sellers, Miss Dorothy Kelly, Miss Thelma Lavender, Miss Lennie Doris Roberson and Paul Stroud. J. R. Crump, Wayne Stokes, Miss Rose Sweet, Miss Mary Louise Wadley and Sproesser Wynn are in charge of the decorations.

Picture to Be Made.

In case of rain, the program will be held in the University Auditorium.

Seniors will receive their caps and gowns from The Skiff office Monday afternoon from 1 to 6 o'clock. All seniors will meet in front of the library at 8:30 Tuesday morning for a group picture in caps and gowns.

Why Kirby Page Shouldn't Speak

This week Sidney Williams, a Texas Christian freshman, took it upon himself to set the world and Baylor University right. He tried to tell us why Kirby Page shouldn't speak at Baylor graduation exercises. This editorial is not directed at any individual nor is it trying to force any ideas upon its readers.

In the first place, Kirby Page is not an atheist. An atheist does not believe in any God—an agnostic is one who says he doesn't know. Page is neither. It is true that he traveled under supervision of the Garland Fund one summer for the sum of $4500, but not under the atheistic division of the fund.

Another argument that this T. C. U. freshman set forth was the fact that Page was an associate of Norman Thomas and Sherwood Eddy and was an open socialist. If the country had more men like Norman Thomas and Sherwood Eddy, there would be much less chaos in the United States today.

You'll Enjoy This

You'll enjoy this editorial because there has never been one just exactly like it in The Skiff. The end will probably be the same as the end to any other editorial on the same subject, but the whole of the editorial will be different.

Beginning with the second paragraph, which is just twelve words back from here, this editorial will touch on many words, but will not carry much sense. The object is to keep you reading down to the end of the last sentence. Are you still reading?

Paragraph three and still the end is far, far away. The reason that two fars were put in the last sentence was to make the sentence just a little longer. The last sentence was put in to make the editorial just a little longer.

Well, before you get to the end of the last sentence in this paragraph you will find out what this editorial has been about. It has been about nothing up to the present, but in the next line you will get some idea. The Skiff takes great pleasure in calling to your attention the fact that the grass is getting greener day by day. Now the object of this editorial is to ask you to stay on the walks and to keep from making those teeny weeny trails that The Skiff has written so much about—this is just a reminder—don't make a trail. See how painless this editorial was?

Lighting Economy

How would you like to pay a monthly light bill in the neighborhood of $600? Of course you wouldn't have to, unless you operated a university or a vaudeville house. But the fathers of the University must dig into their jeans to this extent every month.

The administration has been able to economize in most every other way, but the light bill still continues to soar. Students and faculty alike are responsible for this condition. Carelessness on the part of both bodies is the cause of the situation. Lights are left burning in class rooms when classes are dismissed. Unless the conductor of that class is absolutely certain that another class is to use the room immediately, the lights should be switched off.

The University employs watchmen to make rounds thrice daily. Sometimes they are delayed in their rounds and the lights continue to burn. This is especially true of chapel presentations. On these occasions all the stage and dressing room lights are left burning hours after the performance is over and the hall is cleared. This flood of wasted illumination makes the light meter revolve to the merry tune of considerable kilowatts and costs somewhere close to one silver dollar per two hours.

Our Changing Spirit

The Daily Nebraskan is worried because there seems to be a lack of the so-called "school spirit" in the University of Nebraska. It has been attempting to revive the good old rah, rah, spirit, while at the same time various clubs and organizations have been discussing the problem.

Perhaps it would be possible to carry some of this enthusiasm over into the studies and the quest of knowledge, or the juggling of important questions of philosophy, or the attempt to solve important economic and government problems of the day. Of course one would not want to eliminate the pretty co-eds, the color of the football games, and the moonlight nights, but injection of a little of the school spirit into class work and study at the library might lend novelty to the situation.

COULTER'S COLUMN

MONDAY NIGHT after I got home from Prof. Ashburn's picnic, Murry Livingston and myself began talking about what Dr. Elliott would like most. We decided that he would be in his seventh heaven in the Senate with a free hand and a healthy non-tiring voice.

We kinda figured that he would tell the fat boys a few things that would cause them to write home to the wife about. Well, this gave me a thought about this week's column. Now, what would different people on the campus do to be in seventh heaven? Here's a few that might be right and then again they might be wrong:

GIBSON RANDLE would probably be in seventh heaven with a class full of silent students so that he could ask about 50 questions of the professor. Now the professor that would be in seventh heaven telling Gibson to look up the answers himself would be Prof. Ashburn.

Billie Dickey would be in his seventh heaven with a cute girl that he courts in Houston. How's this for his seventh heaven—A moon shining across Lake Worth, a gentle breeze blowing little ringlets of hair across "her" hair, a love song coming in over the radio in a goodlooking car and—but why go on?

PARSON BROWN would probably be in heaven with a girl in his arms from Waco—the Baylor band sweetheart. But of course, he'd have to have the other six or seven standing in line waiting their turn with the Great Brown. And then there'd have to be an audience to listen to four new jokes.

Mr. Tucker would probably be in seventh heaven by just convincing seven freshmen that they should take math. President Waits would be in his heaven with a good cigar, his feet resting on a footstool, his head resting on a good soft pillow and with a good book of poetry to memorize.

DR. GAINES would impress one as being in heaven with a room full of scientific equipment with nothing to do for a year except to experiment. Dr. Ascher would be in seventh heaven with a good German novel, a quiet evening, a good cold bottle of Coca Cola and her police dog sitting beside her with his head lying in her lap.

Margaret Reeder would be in her seventh heaven with a new evening gown, a place to dance and to top everything off she would have acquired an accent—such as, ovah theah. Yes, I kneecow that is propah, but it can't be death.

Alf Roark would probably be pitching a no-hit, five run an inning game—walking the men in. No fooling, he'll be in seventh heaven next week when he gets his "T."

CHARLIE HANNA would be in seventh heaven with five persons to listen to his new ideas every day in the week. Elbert Haling would probably be a radio operator broadcasting a daily newspaper in his heaven.

Vance Woolwine would be in seventh heaven with a two-base hit with two men on base. He'll never be in his seventh heaven, Dutch Myers tells us.

A BIG murder has just happened. There is only one person within two miles of the spot and that person is a reporter on the Chicago Tribune. Boy, what a story—no motive, no clues, no nothing.

The reporter gets the scoop and then starts working on the case. Ah, at last he finds a clue—a piece of string tied around the dead man's finger. (It was probably there to remind him of, something, but it is taken for a clue.)

The reporter solves the mystery and brings the biggest banker in town to a showdown and proves that he has been cheating innocent widows of life's saving besides killing people on the side. It is the biggest story that the country has had since the Lindbergh kidnapping.

The reporter gets a job as a Washington correspondent. He goes home to tell his beautiful wife (who can cook, by the way), the glad news that they can have a new Ford. He tells her that they can have a beautiful home overlooking the Potomac. A home with wild honeysuckle growing alongside the house.

Ah, dear readers (or do I flatter myself), that, yes, that is my seventh heaven. Gosh, can anybody lend me a nickel till next Tuesday.

Casino Park Has Formal Opening—Letty Lynton to Be Shown at Worth

The formal opening of the Casino was held last night with several thousands viewing the display of fireworks and the music by Al Sky's orchestra.

This is the second engagement that his orchestra has played at the Casino this season. Several new members have been added to the orchestra and a complete reorganization of the dance band has been made, according to Manager George Smith.

The Casino will be open day and night until the close of the season from last night with all boardwalk attractions open and dance music every evening.

The Worth will bring in a new Fanchon and Marco Idea, Gay Vienna, over the week-end. The picture will be The Broken Wing.

Lupe Valez takes the starring role in this film of the border lands. Romance is promised in this production with Leo Carrillio taking the part of a border bandit.

The Worth will bring one of the brightest pictures of the month to its screen Tuesday. Robert Montgomery and Joan Crawford will be co-starred in Letty Lynton. Beautiful photography and excellent direction feature this film. Lewis Stone appears in the role of the District Attorney and Nils Asther also takes a major part in the film.

Joan Bennett in The Trial of Vivienne Ware takes the screen at the Palace Sunday. This is a murder mystery with the major part of the picture filmed in a courtroom.

"Our Pome"

LONESOME SONG FROM AN INLAND SPRING.

Brown earth
And changing meadow,
Quickening hedge
And gull shadow;
Earth all sweet
From the plow gone over;
Thorn-hedge young
In the new leaves' cover.
This is the way
The spring comes down,
By the shore of the sea,
In a southern town.
And what have I
To think or say
Of a later spring
Long miles away?
All I have
Is a brown bulb. (Set
With its thin green spikes
In a bowl of jet.
And the promise that, maybe,
Some nearby hour,
The spikes will turn
To a lily-flower).
Who might have had,
In the salt night air,
A huisache tree
With a moon in its hair—
Who might have had,
This windy weather,
A pomegranate leaf
And a heron feather!

furnish the humor in the film as broadcasting announcers in the courtroom.

The Palace will also have short subjects and a talkartoon on the program along with the news reel. Some good films are on the schedule of the Palace for the coming few weeks.

Grand Hotel will receive a showing at the Palace in the near future and will be held for a whole week.

The last two performance of Ap-ron Strings, comedy by Dorothy Davis, will be given at the Little Theater tonight and tomorrow night. This is the last production of the year.

The comedy started off slow with the opening night Monday, but the cast has polished up the weak spots and a creditable performance was given last night at the West Tucker Street Playhouse.

The story concerns a young man who would be an angel if he followed his mother's wishes which are shown through a group of letters she leaves to govern his life.

ANN GORA'S CAT NIPS

DORIS HIGGINS says she reads Ann Gora first every week. We wonder if that could be because she is afraid something will be in this column that she doesn't want mother to know about.

Charles Hanna wants to know if he can get in the 23rd weekly election of a business manager of the 1933 Horned Frog.

Mary Davis enjoyed the picnic that Prof. Ashburn gave his class last Monday night. No wonder, she wasn't with Parson Brown.

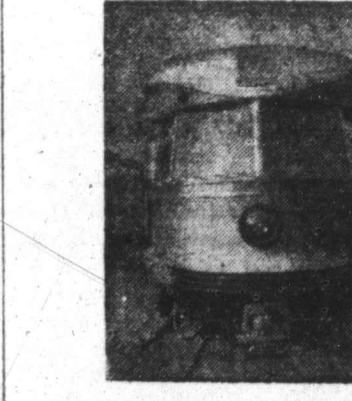

John Hirstine says that when bigger and better baseballs are made he will hit them harder and harder. Says John!

When Camille Moore and Billie Dickey came into the camp Monday night at the picnic, everyone looked wildeyed and wanted to know what Gibson Randle would have thought about Camille. Her hair was in need of brushing and there was no powder on her nose. It was later found that this was all caused by the motor boat ride that part of the crowd enjoyed.

Mary Louise Wadley went down to Maypearl last week. Monday she wrote two letters — one to Maypearl and one to Palestine. Now how did Ann find out?

"ELECTRIC BULLETS"

THE result of exhaustive wind-tunnel tests of conventional trolley car models revealed that at speeds of 70 and 80 miles per hour, 70 per cent of the total power was consumed in overcoming air resistance. Streamlining saves approximately 20 per cent of the power.

When the Philadelphia and Western Railway Company decided to replace its cars with faster and more efficient equipment, it chose "electric bullets"—new streamlined cars—each powered by 4 G-E 100-hp. motors. The cars, constructed of aluminum alloy, with tapered noses and tails, are much lighter in weight and capable of greater operating efficiency.

In developing transportation apparatus, college-trained General Electric engineers have conducted extensive tests to improve operating conditions. On land, on sea, and in the air, to-day's equipment is safer, swifter, more dependable, and more comfortable.

Frogs Win Over Mustangs in Dual Track Meet Here

Casper Stars in First Conference Victory of Year.

OLIVER IS NOT ENTERED Squad of 13 Men in Houston Today and Tomorrow for Final Meet.

Led by Charlie Casper who scored 17 1/2 points, the Horned Frogs won their first conference track victory of the year last Saturday by defeating the Mustangs 69 1/2 to 66 1/2 on the old Clark Field track.

Casper won two firsts, two seconds and was a member of the winning sprint relay team. His first places were won in both the hurdle races, his seconds in the century and the broad-jump.

Chappell Has 10 Points. Chappell scored 10 points by winning the mile and the half-mile. Bud Taylor won a blue ribbon in the high jump.

It was their superiority in the hurdles and the jumping events that won for the Frogs. The Mustangs won the shot, discus, javelin and the pole vault.

It appeared for a while that the outcome of the mile relay would decide the winner of the meet, but Casper came through on his last jump at the broadjumping pit to take second, finishing the meet. S. M. U. won the mile relay.

Team in Houston Today. Much credit should go to J. W. Townsend for the victory that the Clarkmen scored in the sprint relay. He took the baton four or five yards behind his Pony enemy, but pulled up to pass him in the last five yards of the race.

The team left last night en route to Houston where it will participate in the conference meet. Although both Capt. Houser and Oliver are injured they are making the trip. Inasmuch as Houser hasn't run in three weeks, he may be able to take a place, but Oliver will do more than is expected in the even places in his events.

However, without either of the star stars, the 1932 aggregation is the strongest that has ever represented Texas Christian in a conference meet. Pre-meet dope points out that Rice will win the meet and Texas and A. & M. will finish ahead of the Christians.

14 Make Trip. With Oliver on the hospital list, Casper will probably be the Frogs' high point man. He has made the best time in both hurdle races, is a member of the crack sprint relay team and is an excellent broad jumper. Chappell, distance star, should be close on Casper's heels when the points are totaled.

Coach Clark will take the following team: Casper, Oliver, Lucy Phelps, Houser, Wirth McCoy, Townsend, Tiner, Jinx Powell, Ray McCulloch, B. W. Spearman, Dan Salkeld, Mel Wallace and Don Evans, manager.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By CHARLIE CASPER. The championship swimming meet has been postponed until Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., because of pre-junior events. The meet will consist of the 100-yard free-style, 40-yard freestyle, 40-yard backstroke, 880-yard relay, and fancy diving.

Each man will be allowed to enter one event and the relay. The fancy diving will consist of three required dives: the plain front dive, the plain back dive, and the front jack-knife dive. There will also be three optional dives which will be selected by Walter Knox during the meet.

Only a few more events remain on the intramural schedule for the men. They are for points for the individual participation contest. At the present time Marion Hicks is leading with 290 points, Tom Carter is second with 270 points, Howard Walsh third with 240 points, water fourth with 235, Orville fifth with 220 and Clyde Alexander sixth with 200.

The baseball schedule comes to a close this week and if the juniors win the game from the seniors they will win the pennant. A defeat by the seniors would spoil the clean slate of the juniors and call for a play-off.

The golf tournament has reached the semi-final round of play with Hinton and William Coard as the favorites to enter the final round. Last week Hinton defeated A. M. Sanders while Coard was downing Hinton. The semi-final rounds must be played off by May 12 and the finals will be played the following week.

By STANDARD LAMBERT.

WITH the exception of the customary singing and benediction that will be held down Austin way tonight, the curtain has dropped on the 1932 baseball campaign. After a brief absence of a year, the championship again returns to its old home where it has made its abode peacefully for 18 out of the past 20 years. It took a vacation in 1923 due to the masterful hurling of Teddy Lyons and spent a year in Baylor and last year it visited Aggieland. Texas should celebrate with a big homecoming for it tonight.

Coach Disch has an enviable record as a baseball coach at Texas, but he is not due as much credit this year for winning a title with the material that he had as the Dutchman is for placing second with his crop of baseballers.

COMPARE the two coaches: Uncle Billy is at a school with a national baseball reputation. Texas has won more baseball championships than any other school in the United States and has sent 10 times more players to the big leagues than any other school in the Southwest. High school stars with big league ambitions want to play under Billy Disch because most anybody that he recommends will get a big league contract. Then after one of them signifies his intentions to enter Texas, Coach Disch can always find a job for them that will pay their expenses.

Coach Meyer is at a school that has never won a championship. The baseball team is composed of the "leave-overs" from football and basketball. No baseball star with big league ambitions would deliberately choose to come to T. C. U. Then on the other hand the school does not offer jobs for baseball players. The last two freshman classes have had good southpaw pitchers in their midsts that had to drop out of school because of financial conditions. One of these cast his

'T' Association to Conduct Initiation

The "T" Association will hold its annual spring initiation Monday. The athletes will have charge of a portion of the freshman-sophomore chapel and will carry the activities to the little gym Monday night.

Vance Woolwine, senior, will have charge of the group all day and through the co-operation of his committee is working up an ordeal for the athletes that promises to be more amusing and better than in former years.

The new members will be: Elbert Walker, Hersel Kinzy, Alf Roark, Paul Donovan, Jinx Powell, Wirth McCoy, Charlie Casper, Bud Taylor, Jewell Wallace and Freddie Miller.

lot with the Aggies and won some ball games for them this year.

WE ARE not blaming the school authorities for not giving jobs to baseball players. They have an excellent argument. It is a much better business proposition to give jobs to athletes who participate in sports that pay their way than to give them to "specialists" who play a money-losing sport. Nevertheless, this does not alter the fact that Uncle Billy has a distinct advantage over the Dutchman.

Since it is all over, nobody is very badly disappointed. We did not have a team of championship caliber. Most of its strength lay in the right arm and fingers of Slim Kinzy. Texas has a better all-around outfit and it does not hurt so keenly when one knows that he lost to a better man. Defeat is hardest to swallow when you know one far below your class whipped you and made you like it—but why bring up basketball again?

A BADLY crippled track team is in Houston today for the conference track meet. Without Houser and Oliver, the team can hardly be expected to place higher than fourth when the points are totaled. Casper is due to win both hurdle races and place in the broad jump, and Chappell will more than likely make several points in the distance races. The relay teams should be good for a few points and outside of those, the Clarkmen's chances will be null and void.

Wolfmen Finish Baseball Season

Lose to Decatur 4-3 — Win Six, Lose Five For 545.

Coach Bear Wolf's Polliwog baseballers ended the 1932 season here last Thursday with a 4-to-0 defeat at the hands of a strong independent nine. Jimmy Jacks allowed only 7 hits and struckout 8 batters, but inability of his mates to hit cost the ball game. This made the Wolfmen's fifth defeat in 11 starts.

The season's batting average is as follows:

	G.	AB	R.	H.	Pct.
Hartman	2	6	2	4	.667
Henry	3	5	0	3	.600
Gordon	2	1	1	1	.500

Golfers Go to Austin

Weatherly, Jenkins and Floyd Will Play—S. M. U. Expected to Win.

Five Frog golfers departed Wednesday morning for Austin where they will compete against entrants from five other Southwest Conference schools, May 12, 13, and 14 for the championship of the conference.

Those making the trip were Jim Bailey, Ray McCulloch, Capt. A. D. Weatherly, Mack Jenkins and Lawrence Floyd. Of T. C. U.'s entries, Floyd is conceded the best chance to win. S. M. U., the defending champion, is expected to qualify four or five men, as is Texas. Rice showed unexpected power last week by defeating S. M. U. 4-2.

Frogs Will Play Longhorns Today

Christians Lose Game to Baylor Bears by 11 to 8.

The Horned Frogs were handed an 11-to-8 defeat yesterday by the Baylor Bears in Waco. This automatically clinches the title for the University of Texas Longhorns this year.

Roark and Hoskins pitched yesterday's tilt. Slim Kinzy will get the call today when the Frogs tangle with the Steers in Austin. Hinton hit a homer for the Frogs in Waco.

Hopes that the Frogs might win their first flag in baseball were dashed away last Monday when the Rice Owls gave the Christians a 10-to-3 trouncing on Frog Field. Kinzy and "Smokey" Klaerner pitched on about even terms until the fourth inning when the Owls put across six runs. In the third the Frogs had scored three runs on a sacrifice, an error, and a single by Graves.

Kinzy did not have his normal control. He walked four men, one of them being forced across the plate. In addition to his weakness, the four errors committed by his mates were costly. He was relieved by Roark in the ninth inning who retired the side in short order.

Graves led the Frogs at the bat, getting two out of the seven hits allowed by Klaerner.

The Meyermen will meet the University of Texas Longhorns this afternoon in the final conference game of the season. Coach Meyer has announced that Kinzy will take the mound for the Christians.

SOCIETY

By ERNESTINE SCOTT

At last, after four years of continuous college work, the graduating seniors have reached the end of the trail and the culmination of many of their dreams. These students, who are soon to be presented with a sheepskin, are in the limelight of the University social world and will continue to hold this supremacy on the campus until the evening of May 30.

Entertainments galore have been planned for their pleasure. However, the day of days for them looms over the horizon next Tuesday, when the whole day will be devoted to the class day exercises. All students from the lowly freshman to the noble senior will be dismissed from classes in their honor, and the seniors will wear their caps and gowns in recognition of their standing. It will truly be Senior Day!

Brite Students Have Annual Banquet

Approximately 65 members of the Brite College of the Bible Association attended the annual banquet of the organization in the banquet hall of the Magnolia Avenue Christian Church Wednesday evening.

At this time the officers for 1932-33 were installed with Dean Colby D. Hall presiding over the service. The officers for next year are: President, Roy O'Brien; vice-president, Dan Packard; secretary-treasurer, Louise Glass; parliamentarian, Dean Harrison; program chairman, Otto Nielsen; social chairman, James Parrott, and faculty sponsor, Prof. E. C. Cameron.

Ed Mace gave the invocation. Prof. Cameron acted as master of ceremonies for the affair, while Dr. Edwin A. Elliott was the speaker of the evening. Recognition of the graduating seniors in the club was made by Miss Elizabeth Henry and Miss Glass.

Other features of the program were vocal numbers by David Scoular and several selections by the B. C. B. quartet, which is composed of James Duvall, Perry Gresham, Nielsen and Parrott. Benediction was pronounced by Pat Sullivan.

Mrs. Jarvis to Give Picnic for Sophs

The sophomore class will be entertained with a picnic at the home of the class mother, Mrs. Van Zandt Jarvis, Friday evening, May 20, according to Fred Miller, class president.

This affair will close the sophomore social calendar for the spring semester. The picnic will be the fifth social function to be staged by the class during the year. A wiener roast, a skating party, a class minstrel, and the annual banquet have made up the social calendar for the 1931-32 session.

Gene Cagle Elected To Head Club

Officers for 1932-33 were elected at the final meeting of the year held by the International Relations Club last Friday night in Brite College.

The new officers are: President, Gene Cagle; vice-president, Paul Logan Martin; secretary-treasurer, Miss Hannah Ann House, and faculty sponsor, Dr. W. J. Hammond. Two short talks were made. Dr. Hammond outlined plans for the organization for next year, and Prof. James A. Gathings said a few words to the new members.

The six new members present included Glen McKenzie, Billie Dickey, Howard Walsh, Miss Louise Cauker, Miss Louise Glass, Miss Cora Lyle Ellis and Laurence Coulter.

Others present at this meeting were: Miss Maybeth Ellis and Marion Hicks, Don Evans, John Hopkins, Hal Wright, John Ruff and Gibson, Randle.

P-K Club Picnics at Camp Jarvis Today

The P-K Club will have a picnic at Camp Jarvis this afternoon. Members of the club and guests are expected to meet in front of Jarvis Hall at 5 o'clock, according to Nat Wells.

This picnic takes the place of the banquet which was formerly scheduled for this date. Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Gathings will chaperone the picnic.

Jarvis Hall Notes

By RUTH MORGAN.

Beaming faces and a "meet my mother" seemed to be passwords in Jarvis last week-end. There were only a few sad onlookers and most of them went home before the week-end passed.

The following girls had their mothers as guests: Misses Evelyn Franklin, Violet Mikeka, Sarah Stroud, Nina Whittington, Mary Rowan, Mary Elizabeth Campbell, Isabel Wofford, Harriet Griffin, Ernestine Scott, Louise Glass, Ruth Cowan, Judith Witherspoon, Anniel Phares, Lillian Shertzer, Christine Ackers, Janette Holmes, Rebecca Graves, Lillian Muse, Sarah Steele, Eloise Washburn, Louise Briscoe, Jessie Hawkins, Natalie Collins.

Mmes. J. M. Mings, E. D. Salkeld, and A. D. Harrison visited their sons and remained in Jarvis Saturday night.

Other guests were Mrs. J. K. O'Heeron, and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who were here with the Rev. O'Heeron for the services Sunday.

Miss Leoro Shead from Greenville was the guest of Miss Sarah Steele. Mrs. M. King of Dallas also visited Miss Muse.

Dana Press Club To Eat Chop Suey

The members of the Dana Press Club will hold their final meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in the form of a chop suey party at the Seibold Cafe. The menu will consist of orange pekoe, eggs foyoung, chow mein and chop suey and is to be served with chop sticks.

After the party the officers of the club will be elected and installed. Laurence Coulter and Miss Harriet Griffin are on the nominating committee.

Miss Helen Puckett, Miss Griffin and Paul Martin are in charge of arrangements.

Twenty-Four Will Attend W. A. A. Camp

Horseback riding, archery, baseball, rowing and hiking will be features of the annual W. A. A. camp to be held this week-end at Camp Jarvis for the pledges of the organization.

The girls who have signed to go are: Misses Lola Beasley, Lucy Mae Merritt, Katie Ruth Anderson, Lucille Kennedy, Elizabeth Stagg, Mary Alice Wilke, Lorena Livvix, Dorothy Scott, Marian Pace, Lucy Brown, Lillian Shertzer, Madalyn Whitener, Ella Stratman, La Verne Brunson, Marian Miller, Philo Mae Murphree, Kay Prather, Juanita Freeman, Loretta Gohl, Frances Griggs, Marian Smith, Gertrude Bergin, Evelyn Stobaugh and Mary Cecilia Gaudin.

B.B.A. Department Will Hold Picnic

Members of the business administration department of the University will hold their annual picnic Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Forest Park.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the affair is composed of Howard Walsh, Billie Dickey, Miss Blanche Hall, Douglas Mitchell, Steve Cook, Richard Newkirk, Henry Beal and Miss Thelma Lavender.

The following ball teams have been named with their respective captains: B-Law, Dickey, accountants, David Stitt; business English, Lynn Brown, and seminar, Earl Bullington.

Umpires for the ball games will be Dutch Meyer, Pete Wright, Butler Smiser and Coach Francis Schmidt.

Miss Sessions Will Sing at Woman's Club

Miss La Verda Sessions and Mrs. Annabel Hall Bailey with Misses Eudasia Bradford and Sannie Andrews O'Connor of Dallas will sing the song cycle, "Flower Wreath," composed by William J. Marsh, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Woman's Club. Marsh will also be the accompanist.

Ashburn Class Has Picnic at Lake

More than 50 persons attended the annual picnic held Monday evening at the Y. W. C. A. Camp at Lake Worth by members of Prof. Karl E. Ashburn's class in Texas Industrial Problems.

Honor guests at the outing were Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Elliott, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Danforth, Prof. and Mrs. James A. Gathings, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Boswell, Prof. Ashburn and Joseph B. Cowan.

DO YOU INHALE?

Why are other cigarettes silent on this vital question?

Do you inhale? Seven out of ten people know they do. The other three inhale without realizing it. Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

Do you inhale? Remember—more than 20,000 physicians, after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

Do you inhale? Of course you do! So be careful. Safeguard your delicate membranes!
