Former T. C. U. Student Dies of Blood Poison

Gordon "Skeet" Copeland, alumnus of T. C. U., died this summer at his home in Cleburne of blood poisoning. Copeland received his B. S. degree from T. C. U. in 1931. He was prominent in athletics on the campus.

Student President Greets Class of '36

In behalf of the student body, I have the pleasant duty of welcoming the freshmen to Texas Christian University, a school that every freshman will discover to be thoroughly democratic and in which all students work for solidarity and unity in student affairs. We are glad to have you and willing to help you in any way possible. We expect you to become a valuable part of our University and to strive for its betterment.

You sophs, juniors and seniors really need no greeting. To have been here one or more years and to have enjoyed the many pleasures of campus life should be adequate inducement for your return. You should have been convinced that you are always welcome.

The Student Body Association wishes to extend this invitation to all students. If you have any suggestions or plans for the improvement of some phase of student life, the student council is always willing to take your proposal under consideration and see it to a definite conclusion. Let us each and all, with feelings of loyalty and co-operation, work as a unity for the advancement of T. C. U., for, to a large extent, our school will be only so good and so successful as we make it.

MARION HICKS.

Dr. Waits Will Speak

Convocation Service to Be Held in University Chapel.

The University Christian Church will hold its convocation service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the University chapel. President E. M. Waits, pastor for the month of September, will speak on "Great Adventures in Learning and in Life."

Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon will sing "Love Never Fails," accompanied by Miss Adeline Boyd.

Last Sunday 52 young people enrolled in the Young People's Department of the church. Cecil A. Morgan teaches a class of 33 boys and Mrs. Cecil A. Morgan teaches 19 girls. Departmental officers and teachers will be elected Sunday.

Two Professors Receive Degrees

Faculty Members Make
Summer Profitable
Through Study.

Two faculty members received additional degrees during the summer, six others did graduate work and one taught. Institutions represented in this group are the University of Chicago, University of Missouri, Duke University, University of Texas, University of Pennsylvania, Union Theological Seminary, University of Southern California, Bush Conservatory and University of Dijon in France.

Dr. Rebecca Smith, associate professor of English and chairman of the department of English, had conferred upon her a Ph.D. degree at the end of the summer session at the University of Chicago.

Joseph B. Cowan, assistant professor in journalism, received his M.A. degree at the University of Missouri this summer. His thesis was the "Description and Significance of the International Press Exhibition in Cologne, Germany," which he attended in 1928.

Karl E. Ashburn, assistant professor in economics, has very little work to complete on his Ph.D. degree. This summer he spent most of his time working toward this degree at Duke University in Durham, N. C.

Mrs. Artemisia B. Bryson, assistant professor in English, attended the summer session of the University of Texas, where she took courses in Rhetoric and Literature and Restorative Drama.

Dr. Newton Galnes, associate professor of physics, spent the greater part of the summer studying at the University of Pennsylvania.

Prof. Emory C. Cameron of Brite College of the Bible is now on leave of absence from T. C. U., and is studying at the Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

Mrs. Helen Walker Murphy attended school this summer at the University of Southern California.

Miss Virginia Bales did graduate work in the University of Dijon in France.

Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, head of the department of voice, instructed some pupils at Bush Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

Play to Be Presented

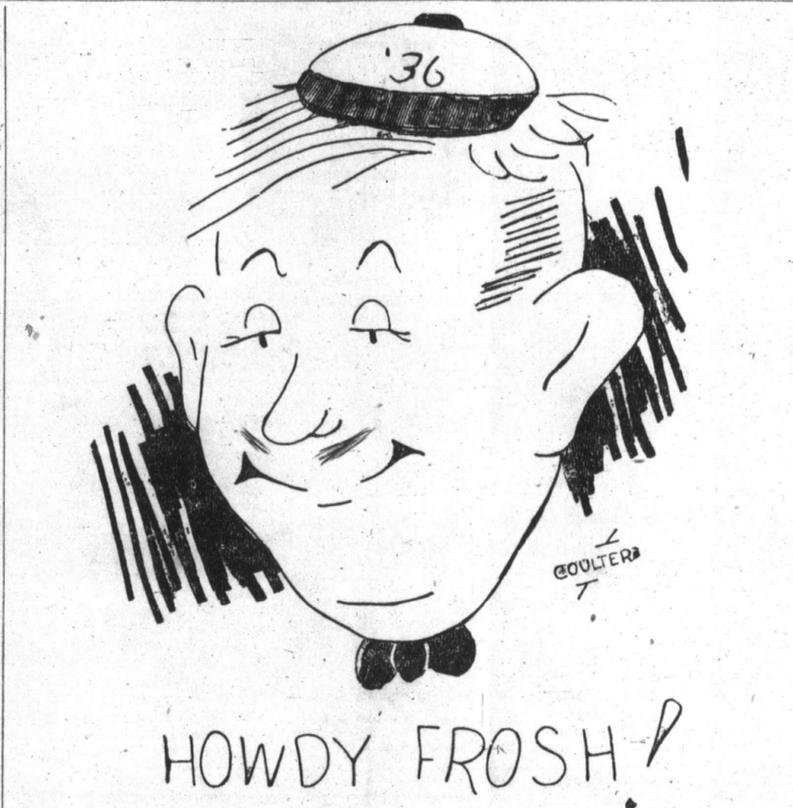

University Religious Fellowship
Holds Initial Meeting.

The University Religious Fellowship will present a play, "Neighbors," in the University Auditorium Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock as the second program of the year. William Gonder and Dean L. L. Leftwich will direct the production.

The cast includes Mrs. Robert D. Gandy, Mrs. Patrick Henry, Mrs. Dwight Holmes, Mrs. S. H. Jenkins, Miss La Verne Brunson and Miss Mary Broadus.

Singing will be in charge of Prof. S. W. Hutton, accompanied by Dan Packard, and the devotional will be led by Miss Louise Glass.

The next meeting, Sunday, Oct. 2, will be presented by the delegates to the Y. M. C. A. conference held at Hollister, Mo., in June

Jarvis Hall Rules Enumerated by Dean

Dormitory Students Extended
Privileges According to Classification.

Good grades and good conduct will obtain for any Jarvis Hall resident practically all the privileges she desires, according to Mrs. Sadie T. Beckham, dean of women.

Young women of the dormitory are allowed a date with an out-of-town man any time in the week. With T. C. U. men freshman girls are limited to one date during the week and one Saturday night. However University activities are an exception to the above rule.

Sophomore girls may have an additional date Sunday night. Juniors and seniors are not restricted as to dates, providing their work and conduct are satisfactory. The same time limit applies to all dates. The young women must be in by 11 o'clock on week nights and by 12:15 o'clock on Saturday nights.

Each girl is allowed two afternoons a week for trips to town, with one afternoon preferably being Saturday. Each month one week-end out of town is allowed freshman and sophomore women. Other week-end privileges are governed by permission from home.

The staff which supervises the 80 Jarvis Hall girls is headed by Mrs. Beckham, who is assisted by Misses Lorraine Sherley and Elizabeth Shelburne and Mrs. Beulah Boggs.

Night Classes Will Begin Next Monday

Registration and Attendance to Begin at 7 P. M. in Main Building.

University night classes will begin at 7 p. m. Monday, Sept. 26, in the Main Building, Dean Colby D. Hall has announced. At the first meeting of the classes registration will be completed and the evening the class is to meet will be determined.

According to Dean Hall the classes are offered for business and professional people, teachers and all who can not attend during the regular daily class periods. For the convenience of teachers, classes on Saturday morning may be arranged. Regular college courses are offered, and all classes will meet one evening a week except those in languages, which will meet twice a week.

117 Men Living In Dormitories

Clark and Goode Halls
Are in Charge of Six Monitors.

There are 117 men living in the two dormitories this year, according to Dean L. L. Leftwich. The list of residents of the two halls shows that there are 62 men in Clark Hall and 55 in Goode Hall.

Monitors in Clark Hall are Fred Miller, Lynn Brown and David Scouler. Goode Hall monitors are Alf Roark, Hubert Dennis and Otto Nielsen.

Social committees for the two halls are yet to be appointed. However, gatherings are already being planned by the men for the near future.

Y. W. C. A. Plans Membership Drive

150 Girls Attend First Party—
Miss Rebecca Graves Is President.

Members of Y. W. C. A. are starting their plans for their annual membership drive which will begin probably the middle of next week, according to Miss Rebecca Graves, president of Y. W. C. A. Membership this year will take the form of "open bids" which will be issued to all who are eligible.

Approximately 150 students were present at the hike which was sponsored by this organization last Friday night at Forest Park. Many prospective members attended this get-together.

Officers in the Y. W. C. A. council were chosen in May of last year. Those composing the cabinet are: Miss Rebecca Graves, president; Miss Hannah Ann House, first vice-president; Elma Winton, second vice-president; with Miss Anna Byrd Harness as her assistant; Miss Eloise Washburn, third vice-president; Miss Faye Woodall, treasurer; Miss Sally Brunson, secretary; Misses Phyllis Burnam, Ruth Cowan, Marguerite Tandy and Jean Thompson, membership committee; Miss Louise Glass, chairman of finance; and Misses Elizabeth Henry and Leta Luyster, chairmen of the program committee.

Mr. Tucker Succumbs After Heart Attack

Was Closely Associated With Student Activities for Many Years.

Prof. E. R. Tucker, registrar at T. C. U. for the past eight years, died suddenly this summer, June 30, at his home in Fort Worth as a result of a heart attack.

Prof. Tucker, who had received both his A. B. and M. A. degrees from T. C. U. and who had taught in T. C. U. for about 12 years, was in his office until noon on June 29. He complained of feeling ill and went to a clinic for examination. He died at 8:30 o'clock the next morning.

Prof. Tucker was prominent in organizations of registrars. He was elected president of the Texas branch of the National Association of Collegiate Registrars in 1932.

Before being appointed registrar of T. C. U., Prof. Tucker was assistant professor of mathematics. At the time of his death he was associate professor of mathematics in conjunction with the position of registrar.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Hazel Tucker, who is instructor in psychology in T. C. U.

200 Freshman Students Report As Classes Convene at T. C. U. After Special Introductory Work

Opening Week Holds Spotlight in Campus Activities During Preliminary "Get-Acquainted" Program

Approximately two hundred freshmen have been registered in the University for the 1932-1933 term, S. W. Hutton, acting registrar, announced yesterday. Freshman registration and the Freshman Week program were begun Thursday, Sept. 15. A group of faculty counselors and senior helpers acted as advisors for the new students during the week, and will continue their duties as advisors throughout the year.

Frog Band Has First Practice

Eight Members Receive Scholarships for Achievement.

Thirty-nine bandmen reported at the bandhouse last week for intensive practices on a new arrangement of the T. C. U. War Song, composed originally by Prof. Claude Sammis, director, and arranged by Kenneth Vaughn, solo trumpeter. The War Song, and a T. C. U. March written by Sproesser Wynn, drum major, will be memorized and played at athletic contests and on the march.

Tryouts for band scholarships were held last Friday evening and awarded to: trumpets, Alto Tatum and George Magoffin; clarinets, Walter Petta and Ed Tom Fleming; trombone, Don Gillis; French horn, Wynn; tuba, Charles Caldwell and drums, Ronald Wheeler. Tatum and Gillis are also band assistants. The contests were judged by Cecil Meadows, Woods Moore and F. H. Gallant.

Members of the band are: trumpets, Tatum, Magoffin, Clyde Hurley, Frank White, Carol Gillis, Nance Bennett, Horace McDowell, William Strube, Fritz Vasquez, Sam Coffton and Bryant Collins; clarinets, Petta, Fleming, Weldon Allen, John McLaughy, Everett Gillis, Charles Oswald, Ed Warren and Delbert Shubert; piccolo, Reeder Shugart; trombone, Gillis, Billy Allen and Melvin Diggs; horns, Wynn, Robert Mitchell and Jack Panter; bass, Caldwell and Herman Pittman; baritone, Dale Smith; saxophones, Vernon Fenley, Raymond Lipscomb, Carl Braselton, Tom Magoffin, Roy Bacus, Carleton Curry and Roland Balch, and drums, Wheeler, Laurence Coulter and Raymond Michero.

A Freshman Convocation Service conducted by President E. M. Waits in the University Auditorium Sunday morning closed the week's program.

Dean L. L. Leftwich is chairman of the freshman counselors. Miss Lide Spragins is secretary, and Dean Colby D. Hall, Hutton and Dean Sadie Beckham comprise the freshman counselors' committee. The counselors are Dr. C. I. Alexander, Prof. Karl E. Ashburn, Miss Katherine McKee Bailey, Miss Virginia Bales, Prof. F. E. Billington, Mrs. Artemesia Bryson, Miss Eula Lee Carter, Miss Adelle Clark, Prof. Joseph B. Cowan, Prof. B. A. Crouch, Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, Mrs. Bessie Plummer Ellis.

Miss Bonnie Enlow, Dr. William J. Hammond, Mrs. Mary Casson Leftwich, John McDiarmid, Miss Katherine Moore, Prof. H. L. Pickering, Dr. Gayle Scott, Miss Elizabeth Shelburne, Mrs. Mirth W. Sherer, Miss Lorraine Sherley, Dr. W. C. Smith, Dr. Raymond L. Welty and Mrs. Connie Brockette.

Welcome, Freshmen

President Edward McShane
Waits.

This is a momentous moment in the history of Texas Christian University as we anxiously face the opening of our sixtieth year. You are a part of the great succession of fifteen generations of college students who have come and gone from our halls, and the impact of whose lives has been felt in the economic, social, and spiritual life of society to the ends of the earth.

Welcome to the fine traditions and sentiments and the imperishable inheritances of this good institution, inheritances that have a value beyond the wealth of the Indies.

No group of college students ever faced a more unsettled and topsy-turvy world. Most of its traditional standards are gone and there are no new ones to take their place. The call of the future is yours. Civilization is calling for abler, finer, nobler, and more effective leadership. Get ready! The shortest and surest road to your ambition lies through the Liberal Arts College. It awakens every talent and develops the whole man. It is a personality gymnasium. It gives broad vision and genuine wisdom. It is an observatory from which you may scan the blue distances of life's far horizons.

Welcome, freshmen! We are at your service.

Timothy Club to Meet in Brite Chapel Monday

The Timothy Club will hold a meeting Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock, in Brite College chapel. Dan Packard, president of the organization, has announced that the meeting will adjourn in time for the Freshman Prom.

Felicitations

With the Skiff making its debut to the 1931-32 student body in this issue, the staff of this year's publication wishes to extend its greetings to the University students and faculty.

The Skiff has ever since its creation been deemed a student publication, but this year's staff cannot uphold that tradition alone. So, students, we are asking your co-operation from the start.

And to you, Freshmen, we again say we are glad to have you in our midst. Although the sophs may at times make you feel lowly, they all know that a University can not continue without oncoming freshmen.

Be Yourself

How many times have you been tempted to do something that you knew was wrong; yet you did this thing "because the crowd did it?"

In this modern day, our center of morality is shifting day by day. Yesterday, our moral standards came from within.

How long can we go on with this outward center of morality? Once, this morality guided us in the right direction and condemned every action that we made in the wrong way.

It seems that to have a truly moral center in this day, we will have to once more think for ourselves. We must ask ourselves if the thing is right.

Our conscience does not guide us until we have done something that we should have done. Before we have committed no wrong, we have no conscience.

What we need today is free thinking; right thinking; individualism; fearlessness to do what one's mind tells one what is right, and the will power to do what is right no matter what the crowd yells or how much one is condemned for doing the right thing.

Those who think for themselves are respected in the long run!

In Memory of a Friend

With the passing away of Registrar Tucker in the midst of the summer school session, T. C. U. lost one of her oldest and best beloved friends.

Until the last, Registrar Tucker was giving his every thought and effort to the University, with which he had been connected since 1920. He remained at his office until noon, June 29, when he spoke of feeling ill.

Mr. Tucker was one of the organizers of the Texas Branch of the National Association of Collegiate Registrars. He was at the time of his death president of that body.

Why Not Name It?

Last year The Skiff started an editorial campaign to name the new T. C. U. stadium. Today the new T. C. U. stadium is just that—the new T. C. U. stadium. Why not give the stadium a name?

The Skiff is not advocating the naming of the stadium just for the sake of a name. There is a thought behind the suggestion that a name be found.

The Skiff is in favor of naming the stadium immediately. If Frog Field is not suitable, another name should be found. This name was suggested because it is easy to remember; it is short; it is representative and characteristic of Texas Christian University.

Allen True, who is on his leave of absence from the history department, passed the qualifying examination for his PH.D. degree in the University of California, where he is doing his work in Spanish American History.

Could It Be Verse?

THE END.

Is the time come—are they nearly ready? A moment more and it will be over. I wonder if it will hurt—if I shall remember When it is over.

Could it have been I? Is it I who is sitting here waiting to die? It happened so quick. A pull of the trigger

And the old man fell, blood spurting from his forehead. The police, the trial, the prison, the warden's kind wife.

The straps are pinching my wrists. The appeal and failure, The anxious waiting, the death cell next to old Tony's.

Poor old Tony; he goes next week. The helmet on my head is wet and cold. The electrode on my leg is hard and cold.

Oh, well, it won't hurt long. It will soon be over. Yes, everything will be over.

My God, the guards have finished. They're ready. I don't want to die! I don't want to die! I don't want

Chas. E. J. Hanna.

RATIONALIZATION

A Sonnet.

Why should I weep and waste myself away, Refuse to eat and wish that I were dead,

Spend restless nights in tossing on my bed, Because some pretty woman said me nay?

Is she not, like me, merely common clay, Does she not live, like me, on drink and bread?

And if she loves another one instead And wishes I were gone, why should I stay?

Come, come, my heart, we'll leave her with a jest And start tomorrow on another quest.

The world's our hunting ground, women our game; If some escape the snare, there lies the zest.

To weep a woman lost were to my shame, But still—I want to do it just the same.

—Chas. E. J. Hanna.

'Life Begins' Starts at Worth Saturday for Four-Day Run

'Life Begins,' a Warner Bros. production starring Loretta Young and Eric Linden, which opens at the Worth Saturday for a run of four days, gives one a glimpse of stark reality.

The scene of the play is laid in a maternity ward in a large hospital. Here are a number of women who are awaiting the birth of their babies.

Among this group is one who has been released from prison until her child is born, after which time she must return to serve a twenty years to life sentence for murder.

Every player is a protagonist of his own individual comedy or drama. Others in the cast include Aline Macdonald, Preston Foster, Glenda Farrell, Frank McHugh, Gloria Shea, Walter Walker and Vivienne Osborne.

Never try to drown your troubles in drink. They will swim out and be stronger than ever.

FISH FINS

By HINDU VAN ZANDT.

Fish are a little green in college but some of them in the University this year were distinguished seniors in high school. This week we are introducing a number of prominent ones that hail from Central and Stripling Hi's.

Hugh Kelley was the smart one—valedictorian at Stripling Hi in '28. "The gamest player in high school football" as described by sports scribes is Howard Pulliam, former Central backfield ace.

Student publications have their place in high school glory. Some outstanding members of Central's Pantherette staff of '32 were Felicia Seigel, Manda Marie Hosey, Martha Pressley, Tom Armstrong, Myrtle Nell Taliaferro and W. A. Tunstall.

Class presidents held their own and T. C. U. got Hugh Wallace of Central and Ed Lawrence of Stripling. Both are honor students.

Mary Elizabeth Gregory was the leading lady in Central's district winning contest play. Along with her comes Bobby Stow and James Newkirk, other members of the cast.

The air-minded fish are Jane Sloan, Lydia Burgess and John Ward Hareison.

Marshall Gammon of Stripling was all-city halfback last season.

University Telephone Operator Tells Whys and Wherefores

Students using T. C. U. telephones to any extent may recall that rich, sonorous, mezzo-soprano voice that says, "T. C. U.—Thank you." If so, said students may have been talking to Miss Rebecca Graves, sophomore from McKinney, and P.B.X. (pretty but exclusive) operator of the University.

It was to this young lady that Old Skiff Reporter went to learn the whys and wherefores of telephone operating so that through him Old Reading Public might know the whys and wherefores of telephone operating.

Miss Graves denied knowing anything of interest for The Skiff and then proceeded to give about a column of good material.

"You can always tell by the tone of his voice when a boy is calling Jarvis for a date. There is a certain quiver in the voice as if he is afraid he won't get it," said Miss Graves.

"But," she added, "when the girls call the boys they sound as if they were going to get what they are after. Goode Hall gets more calls from girls than does Clark."

"Who in T. C. U. has the nicest voice over the phone?" she was asked.

Miss Graves didn't hesitate. "Prof. Lew D. Fallis and Dr. H. D. Guelick have the nicest voices," she said.

She thinks the most impolite thing is to jiggle the receiver hook in the operator's ear. The most exasperating thing is to promise to hold the wire until the called phone is idle, and then to hang up." The reporter remembered the time when he called in on four outside lines and promised to hold the line.

"There are certain teachers who when they start to call forget whom they wished to call—oh golly, I rang Mr. Wright's phone too long."

In explanation of the last part of the statement, the interviewer explained that "you barely tap the of-

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so

Freshman Prom to Be Held Monday Evening, 8 o'Clock

The annual freshman prom at T. C. U. will be held Monday evening in front of the library at 8 o'clock. The freshman girls and their "prom dates" will assemble near the honeysuckle arbor before the first musical number to have their pictures taken. Milner Sandifer and his orchestra will provide music.

From arrangements are in charge of Marion Hicks, student body president, and the committees, which he has appointed. The committees are as follows: Head committee, Marion Hicks, Carl Gain and Miss Doris Sellers; refreshments committee, Howard Walsh, Miss Ethleen Craddock and Miss Louise Glass, and decoration committee, Miss Margaret Reeder, Roy Bacus and Miss Natalie Collins.

The Y. W. C. A. has charge of the Big Sister activity under the direction of Miss Rebecca Graves. A complete list of the town students and their little sisters are:

Misses Martha Ann Barnes, Mary Louise Hall; Dorothy Deffebach, Helen Stanley; Anna Lynn Dorsey, Martha Pressley; Anna Byrd Harness, Millie Ferris and Florine Turner; Marjorie Irvin, Dorothy Ragan; Margaret Day Trigg, Mary Louise Veatch; Marjorie Vautrin, Bess Crawford; Madelyn Whitner, Alice Quigley; Marguerite Tandy, Doris Zweifel and Elizabeth Cox; Mary Elva Dillingham, Mary Elizabeth Gregory; Gladys Hagemeyer, Drew Evans.

Virginia Cox, Constance Wyatt; Doris Higgins, Pauline Draper; Cora Lyle Ellis, Margaret Hadley; Ann Mattox, Margaret Combest; Dorothy Henderson, Mary Alice Jenkins; Mary Jarvis, Louise Boswell; Mrs. Jane Schroeder, Mary Frances Umberhour; Dale Davis, Ruth Beard and Minnie Cohen; Mora Lou Washam, Cecil Yoder; Margaret Stuart, Helen Shelburne; Blanche Lawrence, Loretta Lawrence; Frances Johnson, Lydia Burgess and Jane Sloan; Betty Spreen, Mary Lillian Hickman; Ethel Morris, Mary Eleanor Ward; Juanita Freeman, Eugenia Cantrell; Florene Fallis, Catherine Donaldson; Marvolene Bows, Willie C. Austin; Elizabeth Stagg, Lucille Rock; Leta Luyster, Celia Swiley; Dorothy Luyster, Jane Weir; Floy Edmondson, Freda Taliaferro; La Verne Brunson, Janie Brown; Evalyn Clary, Monda Marie Hosen; Fay Maebrier, Louise Lowery; Kay Prather, Marian Meaders; Margaret Lindsey, Elaine Meaders; Mary Marjorie Lewis, Rose Ellen Earl; Ruth Crowe, Mary Jo Herman; Dorothy Ezzell, Mildred Reese.

Dean Sadie T. Beckham, chairman of the Social Calendar Committee, has requested that club and student body officers apply at her office within the next two weeks to fill out application blanks for all fall semester activities. The committee, which held its first meeting last Tuesday, consists of Mrs. Beckham, chairman, and Prof. John W. Ballard, Dean L. L. Leftwich, Miss Lide Spragins, Miss Lorraine Sherley and Mrs. Mirth Sherer. Mrs. Beckham also stressed the fact that officers are required to fill out blanks for the registration of club events at least four or five days before the events take place. After the event, evaluation blanks are written. The committee believes the evaluation blanks will prove helpful to club officers, because they record past mistakes and give valuable suggestions for the avoidance of such errors in future events.

Student Marriages Decline This Year

Among the students and faculty members on the T. C. U. campus the quotation on the marriage market suffered more than a 50 per cent decline this summer as compared to the summer of '31. The depression is blamed for everything else so the decrease may be accounted for. During the summer the following students, alumni and faculty members were married: Miss Mozelle Bryant and A. D. Weatherly; Miss Sally Thompson and Othol Martin; Miss Violet Mikeka and Wills Cox; Miss Sarah Bess Bennett and Bill Rogers; Miss Mary Elizabeth Kingsberry and Foster Howell; Miss Billie Mae Potts and Leo Butter; Miss Margaret Trippett, instructor in psychology, and John Mitchell, now assistant dean of men at A. & M. College and Miss Veda Esther and Dr. W. C. Smith, professor of sociology.

Los Hidalgos Seek New Members

Los Hidalgos will hold its first meeting of the fall term at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, Oct. 6, in Brite College clubroom, according to Miss Eula Lee Carter. All Spanish students interested are invited to attend and put in an application for membership. Refreshments will be served following the program. The new officers of the club are: President, Paul Donovan; vice-president, Miss Louise Cauker; secretary, Miss Ethleen Craddock; treasurer, to be elected; publicity chairman, to be elected; social chairman, Miss Florence Fallis; program chairman, Miss Maurine Justin, and sponsor, Miss Carter.

Dean Beckham Calls For Club Calendars

Installation of the 1932-33 officers will take place at the initial meeting of the T. C. U. Dramatic Club to be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Mary Lillian Anderson, retiring president, on 1200 Fairmount Avenue. The new officers that will be installed at this time are: President, Miss Lucy Mae Merritt; vice-president, William Gonder; secretary-treasurer, Miss La Verne Brunson, and business manager, Gene Cagle. Dr. Lew D. Fallis and Miss Catherine Moore are sponsors of the organization. Plans for the freshman-sophomore play contest and the buying of stage scenery for the University Auditorium will be discussed during the business session of the meeting. This year the Dramatic Club is undertaking at least two major productions and a number of one-act plays.

Goode Hall Lets Out Ghost When Door Is Opened

Spooks and ghosts. Goode Hall is surely haunted. With the close of the long term last June the inmates of the senior dormitory moved out, some going home, others to new abodes in Clark Hall. A heavy black padlock was placed on the side door of Goode so that no human foot might enter to disturb the play of the ghosts of Mike Brumelow, Noble Atkins and Howard Grubbs. Queer things began to happen. Those who passed across the campus after sundown noticed a light burning on the third floor. When the dawn came, the light was extinguished. Occasionally a ghostly footstep could be heard. There was no other sound. Goode Hall was haunted. Timid co-eds shunned it. Even the night watchman shivered as he passed it with hastening steps. But when the dormitory was opened for the fall session, the mystery was solved. The "ghost" was none other than Fred Strandburg, known on the campus as Mister Fred. He had refused to move from his room there, preferring to carry a key to the padlock and spend his nights with the ghosts of Brumelow, Atkins and Grubbs. A whale said to be similar to the one which swallowed Jonah has been captured in Florida. But the proof of the pudding will be in the swallowing.—The Manchester Union.

B. C. B. Entertains New Members

A get-acquainted party for officers and new members of the B. C. B. was held by the club Tuesday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. H. L. Pickrell, sponsors of the club, on University Drive.

Those who attended were Carter Boren, George Cherryholmes, S. W. Cissna, Joseph Findley, Robert Mainord, Lester Rickman, Roy O'Brien, Dean Harrison, Otto Nielsen and Dan Packard, and Misses Reba Jo Curd, Louise Glass, Elizabeth Henry and Ilo Gaalera, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Campbell and Prof. and Mrs. Pickrell.

What They're Doin'

Miss Camille Moore, a student in the University last year, is in California, where she is taking a dramatic arts course from the University of Southern California.

Miss Gertrude Bergin, a sophomore in T. C. U. last year, is now enrolled at the University of Texas.

Miss Velma Smith, a graduate of the University last June, is attending Columbia University in New York.

Miss Ethel Ferguson, a student here last year, is attending Southwestern University in Georgetown.

Misses Polly Durie, Mary Katherine Moore and Beryl Jean Dawson, all students in T. C. U. last year, are enrolled at Baylor University.

Miss Lillian Church, a former student, is now in Randolph Junior College at Cisco.

Miss Madge Hall, a student here last year, is attending the University of Colorado at Boulder, Colo.

Miss Isabel Wofford, a T. C. U. sophomore in 1931-32, is attending the University of Texas this year.

"Parson" Brown, who received his degree at T. C. U. several years ago, will return soon to resume his study at the University of Chicago.

Miss Bita Mae Hall, who received her B. A. degree from T. C. U. in June '31, left the latter part of this summer for Europe. She will study this winter at the Sorbonne in Paris, France.

Miss Jo Beth Arledge, a student in T. C. U. for the past two years, now is attending C. I. A. in Denton.

Four boys who were students last year in T. C. U. are in Austin enrolled in the University of Texas. Those students are John Steel, Reagan Sayers, Milton Mehl and John Morrison.

Elmer Staude, a graduate student who received his degree in '31 has resumed his graduate work at the University of Texas.

Miss Frances Veale of Breckenridge, a graduate in '31, is doing graduate work in Austin at the University.

Fred Whitaker, a junior in T. C. U. last year, is attending Cumberland Law School, where he expects to receive his law degree at the end of the year.

Misses Betty Lou Lillard, Gladys Simpson and Georgia Fritz, who attended T. C. U. last year, are now enrolled at the University of Texas.

Miss Marjorie Scott, who attended T. C. U. last year, is now teaching kindergarten in Victoria, Texas.

Why Not Labor Legislation for Poor Working College Students?

One often hears of college students being overworked and of those who have nervous breakdowns because of too much studying. This is hardly the case at T. C. U. because students go to school only a little more than half the time. The percentage is a little higher than 55 per cent. Of the 36 weeks of school only 208 days are spent in actual class periods. Of this number some 20 days are allotted for examinations, leaving the students only 188 days of actual class work (though the examinations are sometimes equivalent to several recitation periods). That leaves 159 days of vacation, which are spread out through the entire year, the longest period coming during the summer months. The other vacation days come at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, with a day or two for some of the students at examination time when they complete their exams in the first day or two, and between semesters. Comparing the lot of the collegian with that of the ordinary worker who has to spend on the average of six days per week working at the average of 8 hours per day, or 48 hours per week, with only two weeks at the most for vacation, and of course Christmas, New Year's, and the Fourth of July, the collegian has the easier time. The average college or university student takes 15 hours of class work per week and is supposed to spend at least 30 hours per week on the outside. This is out of proportion to the actual amount that is spent on studies. If 15 hours per week were spent in studying, this would make a total of 30 hours per week, or 18 hours less than the ordinary laborer. But still there are those who drop out of school to work and take it easy because they are overworked or are on the verge of a nervous breakdown on account of too much studying.

Miss Lucy Mae Merritt, a senior, has been given a role in "Shannon's of Broadway," a three-act comedy by James Gleason, which is to be presented at The Little Theatre soon. Miss Merritt is president of the University Dramatic Club this year.

Frogs Journey To Baton Rouge For Night Game

Will Meet L. S. U. Tigers in Nation's First Major Tilt

27 MEN TO MAKE TRIP

Brannon and Boswell Probably Will Replace Dennis and Perkins.

By CHARLIE CASPER.

Coach Francis A. Schmidt and 27 Horned Frog grid warriors boarded a train here Thursday night bound for Baton Rouge, La., where they will meet the L. S. U. Tigers tomorrow night in the nation's first major football game of the season.

About the same team that started against Denton Teachers will face the Bengal machine Saturday night, with the exception perhaps of Brannon for Dennis and Boswell for Perkins. With the exception of Grassy Hinton, Standard Lambert, Paul Snow, Vance Woolwine and Harlos Green, the same Frogs who defeated the Louisiana eleven here last year will make a desperate attempt to make the score two straight wins for T. C. U. Last year Ben Boswell, all-conference tackle in 1930, kicked a field goal in the third quarter to send the Tigers home on the small end of a 3-to-0 score.

Jones Is New Coach.

Biff Jones, former West Point mentor, is the new professor of grid tactics at the Louisiana institution, and is widely known for his ability to turn out winning teams. Coaches Schmidt and Wolfe have been drilling the Purple forward wall for the power plays which have made Jones so successful during his career as a teacher of football. The Tiger eleven boasts of many 200-pound star backs as well as large linemen to open holes for these pounding ball carriers.

With the exception of Doc Sumner, all of the men who took part in last Saturday's game are in good physical condition. Sumner came out of the game with a bad shoulder but it is expected to be healed by tomorrow night.

Frogs Work Out Under Lights.

The Christian eleven took a light work-out Wednesday night under the lights at the Fort Worth baseball field to get the catch of handling the ball under the klieg lights at night. They will take another work-out tonight on the L. S. U. field, which will consist of signal running and limbering-up exercises.

The squad will arrive in Addis, La., this afternoon about 1:55 o'clock and will journey to Baton Rouge via taxi. While in Baton Rouge the team will stop at the Heidelberg Hotel. The Frogs will depart for home Saturday night about 1:20 o'clock and will arrive in Fort Worth Sunday afternoon about 1:55 o'clock.

The following men will make the trip: Captain Vaught, co-captain Spearman, Townsend, Evans, Howell, Boswell, Salkeld, Pruitt, Oliver, Dennis, Brannon, Kitchen, Sumner, Bassinger, Armes, Brown, Coleman, Graves, Langdon, Meyers, Perkins, Phelps, Shackelford, Bud Taylor and Wallace.

Three Frogs Are On Injured List

Madison "Pap" Pruitt may not start against the L. S. U. Tigers in Baton Rouge Saturday night because of a leg injury sustained in practice Tuesday afternoon. At first, physicians thought the large bone in his ankle to be broken but X-ray pictures revealed that no bones were broken.

Jack Langdon, letterman end of 1931, will probably take Pruitt's place in the starting lineup for the Frogs Saturday night. Pruitt is the third man on the Horned Frog eleven to receive an injury so far this season. Slim Kinzy was the first to receive a costly blow. Doc Sumner was second with an injured shoulder. All three men are expected to be fully recovered by the time the Southwest Conference games start.

BEN'S BARQUE

By BEN BOSWELL.

Before getting down to the business of following and reporting the destinies of Texas Christian, I want to pay my respects to Standard Lambert, sports editor of The Skiff last year.

I remember and admire Standard for the accuracy of his writing and for the manner in which he presented it. He has been called the "Personal Pronoun I" of T. C. U. Some called him this in fun; others meant it. Used as a monicker, the name is as good as any, but used as a true measurement of his aim in writing, it is absurd and unjust. He had his failings. But he should be remembered for this trait. He wrote his true feelings into his copy.

When the Horned Frogs meet the Tigers of Louisiana State University tomorrow night in Baton Rouge, the majority of the Purple squad will be playing the first big game of what will be their last year of intercollegiate competition. The change and confusion of college life has left much bitterness in the make-up of many of the players. This must be forgotten on the gridiron. The Frog team is capable of winning the Tiger battle and a defeat will mean that they were not right mentally. Every man that starts the game, with the exception of perhaps one or two, has had plenty of experience in the game to know that dissension among the players and coaches will cause a team to fall down.

One of the greatest teams of all time was humbled by a weaker opponent simply because of some inconsistency.

Take the famous Centre College team of a few years ago for an example. The first big jump they made on the road to fame was a victory over a powerful West Virginia team that was doped to win overwhelmingly. The West Virginia machine was headed by the all-American "Bull" Rogers. The following three years saw the little Kentucky College acclaimed champions of the United States with a victory over Harvard.

Then came the tragedy of the whole thing. A game was scheduled against the Texas Aggies in Dallas. The Colonels went to Dallas to have a good time, but it was the Aggies who had all of the fun. The end of the game found the score 22 to 14 in favor of the Aggies. Even the most ardent Aggie followers will admit that the Kentucky boys, headed by Bo McMillin, Red Roberts and others, were the stronger.

It is just an example of how flat a SENIOR team can fall.

Back to the veteran Frog team. Of course, they have no hopes or chance to be what that famous team was, but they must bear in mind the fact that a good start against the Bengals will determine a lot as to how near to a Southwest Conference championship they will be when the current season is ended and when most of the lettermen will have played their final game.

Every T. C. U. student and athlete who knew him will always respect the memory of Gordon "Skeet" Copeland of Cleburne, whose untimely death during the summer was a shock to all who knew him. Those who knew him in the classroom will remember his work as a student. His athlete friends will remember his sportsmanship and courage. He never lettered in football—his small build prevented it—but he made a better man of the fellow who did letter in his place.

From Somewhere, Skeet will be watching the destinies of his alma mater and wishing her success.

Frogs Win First Game of Season

Texas Christian Scores 14-2 Over Denton Teachers.

In a game slowed by excessive heat, the Horned Frog grid team opened its 1932 season with a 14-2 victory over the North Texas Teachers in the Purple Stadium Sept. 17.

Both teams did their scoring in the first half of the game, the sun apparently removing their goal-line punch in the second half. The Teachers were the first to score, making a safety early in the first quarter when the Frogs fumbled and recovered behind their own goal line.

T. C. U.'s 14 points were all made in the second quarter. The first touchdown of the game was made by Red Oliver, who went four yards through tackle and over the goal following a 32-yard run by Doc Sumner. Sumner kicked goal for the extra point. Buster Brannon carried the ball over the line for the Frogs' other touchdown, after receiving a backward pass from Blannard Spearman. Ellis Taylor kicked the extra point.

Penalties were costly to the Purple team, two for 15 yards and two for 5 yards being imposed. The 15-yard penalties were both made when the Frogs were within easy striking distance of the goal. The Teachers were penalized once for 5 yards.

Co-captain

SPEARMAN
Co-captain Blannard Spearman will be in the starting lineup against the L. S. U. Tigers tomorrow.

Frosh Gridders Report to Meyer

Frog Track Men Win in Summer

Casper, Spearman and Oliver Compete in Try-Outs.

Three members of the 1932 Horned Frog track team continued to win laurels in their respective events during the summer. One of the three went to the semi-final Olympic try-outs in Chicago and the other two made the qualifying times in their events, but financial conditions prevented all three men from competing in the final try-outs.

Charlie Casper and Blannard Spearman took first prizes in the Southern Olympic try-outs at Houston, Spearman winning first place in the broad jump and second in the hop-step-and-jump and Casper taking first in the 110-meter hurdles and second in the broad jump. Red Oliver, the third member of the trio, made his qualifying time at the Drake Relays, but pulled a muscle in his leg and was forced to rest until the National Guard track and field meet, which was held in Mineral Wells.

T. C. U. sent Spearman to the semi-final try-outs in Chicago, but he failed to place in world-record jumping. At the Guard meet Oliver and Casper, running as privates from Troop B, 124th Cavalry, ran nine or ten races, did both jumps and entered the pole vault to win the meet for their troop. Oliver entered the swimming meet but was forced to withdraw because of an injury after leading by several yards. Casper entered the boxing tournament and came through with a victory in his division. Oliver later tried boxing and won five straight victories.

Huge Ammonites Donated T. C. U. Geology Museum

Two of the largest ammonites ever found in North America, the imprint of a dinosaur's pedal extremity, a star fish fossil 20 millions years old and the only one of its kind, are a few of the interesting things to be seen in the biology and geology museum.

The dinosaur's track, which was presented to the museum by Mr. McMahon of Glen Rose, was found embedded in a river bed near Glen Rose. It took its finder an entire night to excavate it, and it is said that dinosaurs, such as the one whose imprint is in the museum, could have stood on the sidewalks before the administration building and without undue stretching have looked into the music rooms of the third floor. The star fish fossil was found in the Sycamore Creek district where members of the biology department dug it up.

One of the most recent additions to the museum is a collection of bones which show the evolution of the horse. The first horse was said to be the eocene horse, which was a small animal resembling a dog, having a small head and four toes. The exhibit shows the development through various stages of the modern-day horse. There is also an exhibit showing the evolution of the skull of man.

One of the best collections of fossils and type specimens is found in this museum. The Fielding Bohart collection of minerals and rocks, which was added last summer, is one of the most valuable to be found in the museum.

There is also a plaster cast of one of the most famous and most important fossils ever found, the Archaeopteryx, which is a link connecting the true modern birds with reptilian ancestry, and is intermediate between birds and reptiles.

That every student in Texas Christian spends money. We know that money is spent with Skiff advertisers—but the advertisers won't believe us.

Students, today—or everyday—that you spend your money with our advertisers, just mention to the clerk that you saw their ad in the Skiff.

It helps us convince the advertiser—it helps the advertiser—it helps you—because advertising makes a newspaper—a better newspaper—help us—help yourself.

Sincerely,

THE SKIFF

There were all kinds of smoking tobaccos

... tobaccos made for cigarettes and pipes; granulated tobaccos. But there was plenty of room for a tobacco made solely for pipes. If you look, you will find that a great many tobacco packages say "for pipe and cigarettes." But the Granger package says:

GRANGER ROUGH CUT Pipe Tobacco

Granger is made by Wellman's Method and cut right for pipes—rough cut. Burns slower and cooler. Just try it!
