T.C.U. Alumni, Ex-students to Sponsor Reunion

Homecoming Luncheon Will Be Friday in Cafeteria.

Dr. Elliott in Charge

Pep Rally, Bonfire, Parade Will Furnish Activity for Visitors.

Plans are under way to make this year's homecoming celebration the largest that the University has had in many years, according to Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, president of the T. C. U. Ex-Students' Association.

Homecoming Day will be Friday, Nov. 11, the date of the Frog-Longhorn football game on Frog Field.

Homecoming festivities will begin Thursday night, Nov. 10, with a mammoth pep rally in the Frog basketball gym and the burning of the bonfire, materials for which are now being gathered. A shirt-tail parade through the downtown streets will end the activities for that night.

An alumni chapel program will be held in the University Auditorium under the direction of Dr. Elliott at 10 a. m. Friday. A luncheon in the University dining room will be held at 12 o'clock for the ex-students, and the football game in the afternoon will climax the day's activities.

Both Dr. Elliott and President E. M. Waits have invited all ex-students and friends of T. C. U. to attend and take part in the homecoming celebration.

Jarvis Hall Girls Will Direct Skits

Brite College of Bible Will Have Charge of Program Next Sunday.

Jarvis Hall girls will have charge of the University Religious Fellowship service Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the University Auditorium. "The Women of the Ages" will be the theme of the program.

"The Women of the Old Testament," a skit to be read by Miss Lorraine Shirley, will be presented. Members of the cast include Misses Lucy Brown, Margaret Hutcheson, Sarah Orth, Anna Ruth Denton, Hannah Ann House, Lollie Botts, Janelle Bush, Nina Whittington, Virginia Bradford and Kathleen Wisely.

"The Women of the Middle Ages," a second skit to be read by Miss Marjorie Davison, will be enacted by Misses Anna Ruth Denton and Lorraine O'Gorman.

A tableau, "The Children's Room of Hull House," will be directed by Miss Merle Snodgrass. Those appearing in the scene are Roger Clubb, Merrell Clubb, Will Clubb, Jimmie Whitman, Betty Gaines, Nina Elliott, Dickie Zeigler and Marion Honea.

Group music will be led by Misses Clyde Johnson, Mary Velma McCord, Pat O'Banion and Louise Briscoe.

Others on the program are Misses Katherine Ashford and Gladys Simpson.

Invites Frosh Gridders

Dean Hall to Discuss "Search for Bed-Rock" Sunday.

"This Generation Searches for Bed-Rock" will be the topic which Dean Colby D. Hall will discuss Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at services of the University Christian Church, in the auditorium.

Dean Hall has especially invited members of the freshman football squad to attend the service.

This service will mark the end of the October group of sermons presented by Dean Hall. Dr. W. C. Morrow has been selected as the pastor for the month of November.

To Talk on Taxation

R. L. Trimble and Joe George will present "An Ideal System of Taxation for the United States," next Saturday morning before Prof. Karl E. Ashburn's public finance class in Room 212. According to Prof. Ashburn, visitors are invited.

Cast Is Being Chosen

Men's and Girls' Glee Clubs to Aid in "Moonlight Mesa."

The Men's and Girls' Glee Clubs of T. C. U. will sponsor and aid in the staging of "Moonlight Mesa," an original musical comedy, written by Dr. Rebecca Smith of the English department and Dr. H. D. Guelick of the Fine Arts department.

The glee club plans to present the composition sometime during this semester in the T. C. U. Auditorium with an all Texas Christian cast. Try-outs are now being held for parts in the production under the direction of Dr. Guelick. The cast will be completed in the next week or two.

A moderate admission price will be charged by the glee clubs, the proceeds of which will be used for the purchase of music for the two organizations.

Roosevelt Wins Student Contest

Norman Thomas Close Second and Hoover Trails Third.

Franklin D. Roosevelt is the favorite among the presidential nominees as far as T. C. U. students are concerned, as was shown through a straw vote conducted by Paul Martin and Sam Cotton last week.

Roosevelt received a plurality of 283 votes from those polled in the two chapels. Norman Thomas was a close second with 206 votes and Herbert Hoover trailed with 71. Scattering votes gave William Z. Foster one vote, William Upshaw three votes, Jacob Coxe one vote and Andy Gump one vote.

Orville Bullington swept the governor's race with a majority of 417 votes. Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson received 99 votes. George Clifton Edwards received 28 votes. The scattering votes were Sterling, five; Hunter, five, and Armstrong one. One vote was also cast for Julius Caesar.

Texas receives 23 electoral votes in a national election. If this straw vote were the basis of the Texas electoral vote, the presidential candidates would rank approximately as follows: Roosevelt, 11 1/2 votes, Thomas 8 1/2 votes, and Hoover 3 votes.

There were 566 votes cast in the presidential race and 557 in the governor's race.

Candidates Hunter and Sterling were voted for on an independent ticket.

Stein Discovers Goode Hall Fire

Excitement prevailed for a few minutes in Goode Hall Tuesday afternoon when Cabot Stein noticed smoke emerging from the door of James Wiseley and Bryant Collin's room.

Stein secured help and several fire extinguishers, and after knocking the door down, finally extinguished the flaming bed and mattress and pillow and waste basket, which bore the brunt of the fire.

Little damage was done with the exception of ruining the mattress, pillow and waste basket. No definite cause was given as to the origin of the blaze but a carelessly misplaced cigarette was thought to be the cause.

This is the first fire in either of the men's halls this year. Last year several men were the victims of "unknown origination" fires which did much damage.

Dr. Alexander Gives Lecture on Mammals

Dr. C. I. Alexander, professor of Geology, gave an illustrated lecture Tuesday night in the Auditorium. His subject was "The Rise of Mammals."

The first part of the lecture dealt with the way bones are preserved and how the animals are reconstructed. The latter part was devoted to the evolution of mammals. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Bio-Geo Club.

Club to Transport Students to Game

Members of the Houston Club are sponsoring a movement to secure rides to the stadium for all T. C. U. students who attend the Frog-Owl game in Houston on Nov. 19.

This decision was made at meeting of the organization Wednesday evening in the parlors of Jarvis Hall. Plans were also discussed for Christmas work which the club will carry on.

Those attending the meeting were Misses Sarah Orth, Mary Rowan, Bernice Branum, Betty Davis, Morneil Talloferro, Mary Louise Wagley, Mary Seidel, Billie Dickie, Alf Roark, John Knowles and Jack Graves.

Goode Residents Add Japanese to List of Studies

"What's the word for this and what's the word for that, Sanko?" were some of the questions that were being shot at Sanken Sano, freshman student in T. C. U. from Japan, by various residents of Goode Hall Tuesday night as he sat listening to the radio in the parlor. Sanko was doing his best at teaching some of the "eager youngsters" some of the Japanese phrases and idioms.

If a bystander could have listened in closely, he could have heard Jack Langdon ask, "What cuss word do the Japanese use when they hit their finger or stump their toe?" or Roy O'Brien ask, "What would you call Carl Sain if you wanted to be complimentary?" Sanko, not hearing the question distinctly, replied, "bak," which after being interpreted into the English language means "fool." He misunderstood the question asked him about Sain and was sorry he made the mistake. However, the listeners all sided in with the first name he gave "our beloved student body vice-prexy."

After the men had asked all the questions they could think of, Sanko was then persuaded to write for them, in his own style of writing, some American phrases. Tony Vargas and Johnny Vaught asked him to write "I love you" on a piece of paper, so they could send it to their girls.

During this educational session, which seldom occurs in the parlor of Goode, Ben Baxter, T. C. U.'s head yell leader, walked in and announced that he was staging a pep rally down in the gym-in case any one was interested. In order that he not spoil Baxter's yell practice, Sanko announced he had to go study and the session came to close.

Y. W. Lecturer to Be Speaker Here

Mrs. Mildred N. Morgan, lecturer and teacher in the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. camp in Hollister, Mo., is to be guest speaker on the T. C. U. campus Friday, Nov. 4, according to Miss Rebecca Graves, president of the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Morgan will speak in the junior-senior chapel and will hold open forums for boys and girls Friday night. She is to be here under the auspices of the University Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A.

All students, whether members of either of these organizations or not, are welcome and urged to hear Mrs. Morgan, Miss Graves said.

Worth Will Feature Frog Band Tonight

German Band and Cheers Led by Yell Kings Part of Program.

Horned Frog Band night will be featured at the Worth Theater tonight at 8:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made by Ed Fleming, band president.

The German Band will be a specialty on the program, presenting a novelty number, "Horses." The yell leaders, Ben Baxter, Jimmie Pate and Kuyrk Palmer, will lead cheers from the stage. The picture will be "Faithless," starring Tallulah Bankhead and Robert Montgomery.

The Horned Frog Band, which will return today from a trip to Clifton as the West Texas Chamber of Commerce's official band, will lead a shirt tail parade to the theater. The band will play a short concert in front of the Worth before the show begins.

Fleming has requested that all those planning to attend the party buy tickets from band members, so that the band may receive the benefit of the sale. The prices are 35 and 50 cents.

Jones and O'Brien to Address Timothy Club

Albert Jones and Roy O'Brien will speak Monday night at a meeting of the Timothy Club in Brite College clubroom at 7:30 o'clock.

At the last meeting Joe Findley and Perry Gresham, assistant sponsor of the organization, addressed the group.

Mothers' Club of Texas Christian Helps Students

Meetings Held Twice Monthly to Raise Needed Funds.

Year's Work Planned

Educational Platform of Eight Parts Adopted by Women of Organization.

Four seniors were able to receive their degrees last year through the help of the T. C. U. Mothers' Club. The organization lends money to those students it thinks worthy of help with the promise of receiving the amount when the graduate has the means.

The members raise funds by dividing the club into groups of eight, which meet twice a month. Each gathering is in the form of a luncheon to which the mothers contribute a dish of food and 25 cents.

Subjects Planned Ahead. Adopting the seven objectives of education two years ago as their permanent platform, members of the club have had their subjects for the year planned ahead for seven seasons. The mothers take one of these educational aims and make a thorough study of it each year.

To date the parents have devoted their time to the subjects, "Sound Health" and "Worthy Home Membership." This year finds them interested in "Ethical Character." The other four objectives of education, which the organization has not gone into, are "The Wise Use of Tooled Techniques and Psychology of Learning," "Vocational Effectiveness," "Useful Citizenship," and "The Wise Use of Leisure."

Lectures Arranged.

Dr. W. C. Morrow, Dr. Clinton Lockhart, Miss Katherine Moore and Prof. John W. Ballard are members of the faculty who will lecture to the group. Dr. W. L. Allison, Superintendent W. M. Green and Dr. Albert Venting will also talk to the club.

Mrs. W. K. Rose is president of the Mothers' Club this year. The other officers are: Mrs. I. T. Ellis, first vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Brown, second vice-president; Mrs. E. C. Blankenship, third vice-president; Mrs. Emil Johnson, fourth vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Fourn, recording secretary; Mrs. J. A. Whitener, corresponding secretary, and Prof. Ballard, treasurer.

Registrars Will Hear Dean Hall

Dean Colby D. Hall will be the principal speaker at the banquet of the College Registrars' Association of Texas on Nov. 11 at the Texas Hotel, according to S. W. Hutton, acting registrar of T. C. U.

The banquet is a feature of the Association's annual convention, which will be held in Fort Worth Nov. 11 and 12. Members of the University fine arts department will furnish music at the affair.

T. C. U. Students Will Sell Banquet Tickets

The young people's world peace banquet, sponsored by the young people's organizations of Polytechnic, will be given in the Ann Waggoner Hall of the Texas Woman's College at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Nov. 8.

This is an international inter-nominal affair. A program will feature the banquet. Tickets will sell for 35 cents and will be handled by Don Gillis, Patrick Henry and Marion Hicks here at the University.

Geology Class Take Trip to Oklahoma

Seven students from an advanced class of geology spent the week-end on a field trip through the Arbuckle Mountains in southern Oklahoma.

According to authorities these mountains exhibit more formations than any other one place in the United States.

Dr. C. I. Alexander and Dr. W. L. Moreman were in charge of the group.

Committee Visits Waco

Three T. C. U. Students Extend Invitation to Baylor.

A committee consisting of Marion Hicks, Ben Baxter and Ben Boswell went to Waco Thursday night to welcome the Baylor University students to the T. C. U. campus.

Baylor University is making its annual field trip to Fort Worth this year. Approximately 400 students, the university band and 35 grid warriors will entrain at 7:30 a. m. Saturday on the Katy Special for Fort Worth.

The train will arrive in Fort Worth at 10:30 a. m. The students will make their headquarters at the Texas Hotel.

Casts for Plays Are Announced

31 Characters Chosen to Take Part in Productions.

Casts for "The Nut Farm" and "The Fool," forthcoming productions of the Dramatic Club, were announced last Thursday as a result of try-outs held the past two weeks.

"The Nut Farm," a light three-act comedy by Brownell, will be presented by a cast composed of Miss La Verne Brunson, Miss Corrine Lewis, Miss Mary Elizabeth Gregory, Miss Katherine Ashford, Laurence Coulter, Dean Harrison, X. R. Campbell, Gene Cagle, Joe Brown and James Tribble.

Rehearsal of this play will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock in Room 304 of the Administration Building.

The cast of the Christmas play, "The Fool," by Channing Pollock, consists of Miss Elizabeth Cuthrell, Miss Elizabeth Tate, John Eubanks, George Cherrymoes, Miss Vera Connell, Gene Cagle, Otto Nielsen, Marjorie Davison, Roy O'Brien, Sid Lightfoot, William Gonder, Charles Hanna, Dean Harrison, William Gilliland, Ben Boswell, Clarence Crotty, Robert Mainard, Miss Francis Talbot, Miss Maxine Edwards, Miss Millie Fearis, and Miss Corrine Lewis.

Misses Corrine Lewis and Maurine Justin, members of the Dramatic Club, are to present "Western Reunion," a skit, before The Shakespeare Club this evening at The Woman's Club.

Fowler to Speak at Forum Monday Night

S. H. Fowler, secretary of the colored Y. M. C. A., will speak at the student "Y" Forum Monday night on Racial Relations.

Robert Anderson, negro representative to the international conference in Toronto last year, will also appear on the program.

Fowler is well known for his work in the field of Negro education and social work, and will give some of his experiences in this work. All boys interested in the Forum may attend. The meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Brite Club Room.

John Crews Operated Or for Appendicitis

After being taken ill Friday, John Crews, freshman from Dallas, was taken that night to a Dallas hospital, where he underwent an appendicitis operation Saturday morning.

According to a letter from his father, Crews is doing nicely. He is a member of the Glee Club and one of the stars of the frosh intramural team. Wednesday night Johnny Knowles, Bob Mainard and Hindu Van Zandt visited him. Other callers have been Dan Harston and Judy Truelson.

Prof. Ashburn Speaks From Station KTAT

Prof. Karl E. Ashburn of the economics department talked last Monday night over radio station KTAT on "Good Government in Texas."

Prof. Ashburn explained the functions of the government and the purposes of political parties. He also stressed the importance of voting and of the use of discretion in the coming November elections.

Talks, Yells and Songs Feature Rally Tonight

Prof. Ashburn to Speak at Pep Meeting in Fieldhouse.

Parade Will Follow

Horned Frog Band and Student Body to March Through Business District.

A pep rally with a program consisting of songs, yells and talks will be held tonight, beginning at 7 o'clock, in the Frog Fieldhouse and will be culminated by a shirt-tail parade through the downtown district, according to Jimmie Pate, assistant yell leader.

The principal speaker of the evening will be Prof. Karl E. Ashburn, who was formerly head yell leader in T. C. U. There will be other short impromptu talks by fans present at the meeting, Pate said.

Following the festivities in the Fieldhouse, the students will proceed to the city, where a parade will be formed at Ninth and Houston Streets. The Horned Frog band will lead the shirt-tail procession through the business district.

The yell leaders, Ben Baxter, Pate and Kuyrk Palmer are stressing the need of more support from the town students at the pep meetings.

"Tonight's meeting will be the largest yet held this year," Pate said, "and with the help of the town students we can make it one that will not be forgotten. The football team needs all the backing we can give them; so we want everyone to come out tonight and do his part to help 'Beat those Bears.'"

Transportation will be provided for students from the Fieldhouse to the parade downtown, Pate said.

21 Persons Make Trip to Sterrett

International Relations Club Holds Lecture Forum on Socialism.

Fifteen members of the International Relations Club and six visitors traveled to Sterrett last Friday evening to hold a lecture forum on socialism before a group of about 200.

Dr. W. J. Hammond, sponsor, made the introductory speech on the present political situation and its religious basis. Gene Cagle, president, and Marion Hicks gave short talks on communism and socialism respectively. Dr. Hammond conducted the open forum, referring questions to members of the club present. Paul Martin, vice-president, made the concluding speech.

The University trio composed of Misses Margot Shaw, Marian Miller and Helen Clark, sang several numbers accompanied on the piano by Miss Clyde Johnson.

Members of the club who made the trip were Dr. Hammond and Prof. Karl E. Ashburn and Misses Ada Assmann, Louise Cauker, Ruth Cowan, Hannah Ann House and Louise Glass, and Hicks, Martin, Cagle, Fred Miller, R. L. Trimble, Arturo Marcias, Nat Wells and Sankin Sano. Visitors who made the trip were Misses Shaw, Miller, Clark, Johnson, Evelyn Clary and Theo Smart.

The next meeting of the club will be Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in Brite College clubroom. The five new members voted in last week were Misses Assmann and Cowan, and Marcias, Sano and Miller.

According to Dr. Hammond the International Relations Club will make other trips to Sterrett for the discussions of such international topics as Japan and China, war debts in Europe and the Hitler movement in Germany.

Newspaper Boys Will Talk

Newspaper boys of the Star-Telegram will be the guest speakers of the credit and collections class Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. These boys collect the money for the papers at the end of the month. Each boy will relate his experiences.

Consider the University Student

I am an operator on the T. C. U. line. I noticed you pick up three of my prospective passengers at Princeton and University Drive on the afternoon of Oct. 15. I have a good job and want to hold it and hope that you will co-operate with me and the other employees of the company in this matter.

This, students, is the substance of a form letter which the Northern Texas Traction Company is mailing to citizens in the T. C. U. residential district whom the bus drivers observe picking up students.

In this The-Skiff feels that the Traction Company shows a poor understanding of the situation at T. C. U. There are many students attending the University this year who are hardly able to be in school. In many cases the Traction Company is not losing actual customers, for the students cannot afford to go to town unless they do get rides.

In other cases it means that if the student gets a ride to town, he can apply this saving in his limited income on some necessity which he might not otherwise be able to afford. The Traction Company also seems to overlook the fact that the student usually has to pay his fare back to T. C. U. The company will make more money from the return fares of passengers who get rides to town than it will by discouraging citizens to give students rides and consequently cutting down on the number from T. C. U. who go to town. Students will make fewer and fewer trips to town and will ask others to do their errands for them. It may also result in a curtailment of business that the students do with downtown stores.

In this The Skiff desires to suggest that there is another side to the matter from that which the Traction Company gives in its letter. The T. C. U. student body spends $13,000 annually with the company. That does not include faculty expenditure and returns from special games and shows. The Skiff does not want something for nothing. It does not want to be niggardly. The Skiff stands for fair play.

Experiments in Education

Although the vast majority of courses offered at T. C. U. conform to the usual lecture-examination or recitation-examination type, there are at least two specific ventures here into the "experiment in commonsense education" which President Hamilton Holt of Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla., has sponsored of late.

The mathematics department offers a model trigonometry course to students of special talent. Here students are left more or less to their own initiative. They progress according to their desire and talent. The English department, likewise, is offering a new course this year for those freshmen who during high school have made high grades and have exhibited inclinations toward special writing courses.

The Rollins plan of education is, as Dr. Holt has said, "a return to Socrates and putting him on an eight-hour day." At Rollins, classroom periods have been lengthened to two hours in an effort to double the time of contact between the teachers and the pupils. In some courses assignments for the year's work are made at the opening of college and a student progresses as rapidly as his inclinations and ability permit. If he completes the standard course before the end of the year, he is free to quit the class, either to apply himself to other courses in which he has not made such satisfactory progress, or to undertake advanced work. If the student is unable to pass his examinations after a reasonable period of study, he, of course, fails.

The Rollins plan has proved satisfactory. The experimental classes at T. C. U., while not wholly like those at Rollins, have been most successful. Why give the freshmen all the new benefits? The upperclassmen would like some more freedom too. Why not plan more courses at T. C. U. on the plan of accomplishing so much work instead of passing so much time by lectures and quizzes?

This Smoking Problem

More than once the administration of T. C. U. has complained about the many cigarette and cigar stubs that litter the entrances to the Administration Building. It will be admitted by everyone who views it, even the men themselves, that it is an unpleasant sight. But where else are the men to smoke?

The University men enjoy a cigarette between classes, and the common gathering place for this purpose is the front steps of the Administration Building. They do not have time to go to the drug store or to one of the men's dormitories. Even if they did, the average human being would not walk that far to have a smoke. Instead, the men are going to stop at the first convenient place and light a cigarette. However, if there were a smoking room for them somewhere in the Administration Building, they would gladly go there to smoke and would willingly comply with any rule that might be made concerning smoking elsewhere around the building.

The girls have a lounge where they may loiter between classes, but the boys—they must drape themselves around the columns out in front or sit on the side steps. Why not give the men a smoking lounge?

For Thieves Only

Last week in this column appeared an editorial, "Let's Disclose the Names." The writer of the article, together with the majority of upperclassmen in Jarvis Hall, had the impression that the vigilance committee was for the purpose of reporting misdemeanors of the residents in the dormitory. However, since the appearance of our last issue, The Skiff has been informed by authorities that the committee is solely for the purpose of turning in thieves discovered in the hall.

Nancy Carroll in "Hot Saturday" Opens at Palace Theater Thursday

Nancy Carroll, taking the part of a popular young lady who exerts much effort to keep the local swains in their place, has the lead role in "Hot Saturday," which comes to the Palace Theater Thursday. The action of the picture centers around the scandal connected with a Saturday night date from which Miss Carroll walks home and which almost cost her entire happiness.

Two others that are outstanding in the cast are Cary Grant and Randolph Scott.

At the Worth Theater.

Bing Crosby; Kate Smith, Arthur Tracy (The Street Singer), Burns and Allen, Vincent Lopez—All these noted radio stars appear in "The Big Broadcast," the great Paramount production opening at The Worth Saturday.

Stars of the screen who appear in this picture include Stuart Erwin, Leila Hyams and Sharon Lynne.

OPEN FORUM

Since in previous issues of the Skiff there have appeared articles advocating the Republican and Socialist candidates for president, I wish to discuss the presidential candidate of the Democratic Party, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Roosevelt is a fourth cousin of Theodore Roosevelt, a man who is considered one of the greatest presidents the U. S. has ever known. There is no proof that Franklin D. Roosevelt will be as great. However, the relationship will undoubtedly have some bearing. Roosevelt is now governor of New York. This should insure us that he is capable of assuming heavy burdens. Roosevelt has by his leadership placed New York first in providing unemployment relief. He sponsored legislation limiting the issuing of injunctions in labor disputes, old age pensions and shorter work days. He strengthened the workmen's compensation law. He served fairly and efficiently in the office of Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

There seems to have been some doubt as to the physical ability of Roosevelt, but I believe that that doubt has been dispelled since the campaign has been in progress. Even though Roosevelt had a difficult case in the New York mayor affair, he ruled forcefully against the mayor, who had been accused of misusing the office.

Hoover, the Republican president, has refused to take the initiative in combating the depression. Why not put in a man that will do something to help us pull out of the depression? Hoover, on Oct. 2, 1930, said: "The depression is but a temporary halt in the prosperity of a great business. The income of a large part of our people has not been reduced."

Yet in that year unemployment reached the enormous figure of 4,500,000. On Dec. 2, 1930, President Hoover again said: "There are factors which give encouragement. We have already weathered the worst of the storm."

In this, his third year, there were 866 more bank failures, involving $748,331,900. Hoover opposed the bill drafted by the American Federation of Labor calling for an expenditure of $5,000,000,000, which would have put many men to work. Why did he oppose this bill? He opposed this bill because it was introduced by Wagner, a Democrat. Do we want a man who makes such a decision to hold the highest office in our land?

I feel that if the Democratic party is voted into office in the November election, the people will see a progress made toward removing the most drastic depression that America has ever witnessed.

JUSTA SPLASH 'O' DIRT

Reading over a late issue of the Longhorn-Ranger, University of Texas humor magazine, the dirt editor found these excerpts of interest on this campus. MAXINE PRICE, former T. C. U. student now at Texas, (trying to find her way about the campus): "Don't you feel just too mountain goatish for words." E. D. FYKE and NORMAN WELSH were found on the Texas campus early one morning for a visit.

President Waits to Entertain Members of Faculty Sunday

By LUCILLE HATHEWAY

An entertainment for the faculty members is the outstanding social event on the campus this week-end. President E. M. Waits is honoring the T. C. U. professors and their wives with a tea and open house at his home, 2929 Princeton Avenue, Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Invitations to the affair have also been sent to the members of the board of trustees, the student body officers and the heads of the various organizations.

A fall color scheme of orange and brown will be carried out in the house decorations. Mrs. Colby D. Hall will serve.

Mrs. W. C. Smith Visits Campus

Mrs. W. C. Smith, wife of Dr. Smith of the sociology department, was honored with an informal dinner followed by a social during her visit on the campus last week-end. Mrs. Smith teaches in Brighton, Mo.

The dinner held last Saturday evening in the alcove of the cafeteria, was given by the group who made the trip to Hollister with Dr. Smith last summer. The reading of an original poem by Dr. Smith was the feature of the program. Immediately following the dinner Dr. and Mrs. Smith were entertained by Dean and Mrs. L. L. Leftwich at their home on Princeton Street with an informal gathering of faculty members and friends.

Those attending the dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Paul Martin, Lynn Brown, Bud Taylor, Fred Miller, Marion Hicks, Arle Brooks and George Williams, and Misses Theo Smart, Lucy Brown, Lollie Botts, Bernice Braum, Louise Glass and Ruth Cowan.

White Robed Figures Initate Hidalgo

On bended knee and solemnly taking the oath of Hidalgo before the reigning king, Paul Donovan, president, 21 new members were initiated into Los Hidalgos, Spanish society, last week.

After the initiation service the new Hidalgos, still blindfolded, were led in lockstep across the campus and into the Coffee-Shop, where, before they could have refreshments themselves, they had to service ice cream and cakes to the old members.

The new members initiated were Miss Janelle Bush, Natalie Gorin, Margaret Hutcheson, Mary Margery Lewis, Ada McGill, Grace Maloney, Ann Mattox, Mary Merkt, Jewel Roberson, Elizabeth Sayles, Helen Vestch, Madalyn Whitner and Faye Woodall, and John Kitchen, A. L. Crouch, Ed Fritz, Billy Purrington, Byron Samson, Bob Stewart, John Edgar Wallace and Leonard Wallace.

Los Hidalgos will hold its annual banquet next Thursday evening. Arrangements are in charge of Miss Florence Fallis, refreshments chairman.

Outcasts Entertain At Camp Jarvis

Outstanding on the social calendar last week was the annual week-end party of the Outcast Club at Camp Jarvis on Lake Worth. This organization is composed of a group of out-of-town girls who do not reside in the dormitory.

Pausing for a moment in their hiking, swimming and boat-riding, the members selected their leaders for the current school year. Miss Leta Luyster was re-elected president by acclamation. Miss Katherine Davis was chosen vice-president and Miss Louise Cozzens, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Artemisia Bryson and Miss Luyster were given a rising vote of thanks for their splendid work in the club.

Those attending the camp were Misses Carolyn Slay, Selma Harris, Catherine Brown, Cozzens, Elizabeth Stagg, Luyster, Ruth Pruden, Helen Shelbourne, Kathryn Swiley, Celia Swiley, Davis, Catherine Morro, Virginia Bryson, Dorothy Luyster and Mrs. Bryson.

Miss Pannill Hostess To Bryson Club

Miss Helen Pannill was hostess to the members of the Bryson Club at her home last Thursday evening.

As the old constitution of the organization has been lost, Billie Dickey, president, appointed a committee composed of Miss Mary Jarvis, Miss Helen Pannill and Marion Hicks to draw up a new constitution.

New members who are to be taken into the club this year were decided upon during the business session. Their names are to be announced later.

Those present at this meeting were Misses Jarvis, Margaret Reeder, Doris Sellers and Pannill, and Dickey, Fred Hammond, Hicks, Frank Miller and Alf Roark.

The meeting of the club in November will be held at the home of Miss Jarvis.

Y. W. C. A. Camp Will Be Held Next Week

The Y. W. C. A. camp will be held Saturday, Nov. 5, at the Y. W. C. A. camp on Lake Worth, according to Miss Rebecca Graves, president.

Each girl planning to go must register in the library on the Y. W. C. A. bulletin board in the Administration Building, or in Jarvis Hall by noon Thursday, Nov. 3. Each girl must also pay a fee of 25 cents to Miss Faye Woodall, treasurer, stated Miss Graves.

Girls who are going on the camp are requested to meet in the girls' lounge at 2 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 5. Transportation will be furnished, but each one must bring heavy bedding. Mrs. C. R. Sherer, sponsor, will chaperon the group.

Former Student To Be Married

A marriage of interest to T. C. U. students will take place Nov. 3, when Miss Merlee Brice, Dallas, becomes the bride of the Rev. Edward S. Mace.

The engagement was announced at a tea given recently by Miss Pansy Teagarden, ex-student of T. C. U., at her home, 5455 Richard Avenue, Dallas. The wedding will take place at the South Dallas Christian Church.

Mace, a graduate of T. C. U., is now pastor of the First Christian Church in Cameron.

Texas Poet Talks at English Meeting

Patrick Moreland, Texas poet and minister of the Methodist Church at Kaufman, was the speaker at the first departmental meeting of the English department yesterday afternoon in Jarvis Hall.

Mr. Moreland read several selections from a collection of his poems. English majors were required to attend this meeting. Students minoring in English were present as well as faculty members and guests.

Misses Bowe and Baker Entertain

Misses Marvylene Bowe and Hortenz Baker entertained Friday night with a slumber party. Bridge was played during the evening and refreshments were served.

Those present were Misses Floy Edmondson, Lennie Roberson, Dorothy Pope and Mrs. J. Frank Norris, Jr.

Recital to Be Given By Voice Students

A studio recital will be given this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by students of the voice department in Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon's studio.

Mrs. Cahoon will give a lecture with demonstrations on "How to Study a Song." Others who will take part in the program are Miss Margot Sraw, Miss Della Collins, Miss Mary Louise Gilliam, Miss Marian Porter, Mrs. Annabel Hall Bailey and David Scouler.

Miss Adeline Boyd will act as accompanist. Hostesses for the recital will be Mrs. Harold Hubbard, Miss Margaret Hamblin and Miss Mary Jenkins. Friends are invited to attend.

'Big Sisters' Honored Friday in Jarvis

Honoring their "big sisters," the Frogettes of Jarvis Hall entertained with a party in the Jarvis Parlors Friday evening.

The program consisted of a violin solo by Miss Mary Velma McCord, a piano number by Miss Loretta Newton, a toe dance by Miss Winnie Powell and a talk on "Friendship" by Miss Lorraine Sherley, sponsor of the organization.

Group singing concluded the program.

B. C. B. Students Hold Halloween Party

Approximately sixty members and guests of the B. C. B. attended a Halloween party last night at the Y. M. C. A. camp in Lake Worth.

Those who had charge of the arrangements are Miss Elizabeth Henry, general chairman; Jim Parrot, refreshments; Miss Evelyn Green and Lester Rickman, decorations; Miss Marian Porter and Wilber Mix, entertainment, and Dan Packard, publicity.

Alpha Zeta Pi Host To S.M.U. Society

A joint initiation service in Brite College clubroom followed by a French banquet at the Virginia Lodge was held Wednesday evening by the T. C. U. Delta chapter and the S. M. U. Eta chapter of Alpha Zeta Pi, national honorary roman language fraternity.

Miss Mary Louise Mobley, president of the T. C. U. chapter, presided at both the initiation service and the banquet. John Hammond, program chairman, had charge of arrangements for the banquet.

The pledges initiated by the Delta chapter were Misses Louise Cauker, Helen Hall, Annie Phares, Maurine Justin, Florence Fallis, Louise Briscoe and Martha Laura Rowland, and Arturo Marcias, Alice Ledgerwood.

Present at the evening's activities besides the eight pledges, Hammond and Miss Mobley, were Misses Annabel Goldthwaite and Virginia Bales, secretary-treasurer and sponsor respectively of the T. C. U. chapter, several ex-members of the T. C. U. chapter and 18 members of the S. M. U. chapter, Dr. J. H. Combs, Mrs. Consuelo Brockette, Miss Adelle Clark, Miss Eula Lee Carter, Miss Bessie P. Ellis.

K. K. K. Is New Club Of T. C. U. Girls

K. K. K., newly organized club of T. C. U. girls, met for the first time at the home of Miss Millie Fearnis on Friday, Oct. 21.

Officers elected at this time were: President, Miss Maurine Justin; vice-president, Miss Mary Pierce; secretary-treasurer, Miss Dorothy George; reporter, Miss Millie Fearnis.

Other members of the club are Miss Helen Dees, Edna Dees, Betty Richardson, Dorothy Ezell, Iris Hayes and Ruth Justin.

The club was organized for social purposes. Many activities have been planned the first of which is to be a tea.

Luther Henderson Van Zandt Is Full Name of Frosh 'Hindu'

The author of the late freshman column, "Fish Fins," is not a native of India as the first name of his by-line, Hindu Van Zandt, indicates. The appellation is a successor of the nickname "Chicken" given him some eight years ago in the lower grades. His real name, through no fault of his own, is Luther Henderson Van Zandt.

The hobbies of freshman Van Zandt are as varied, romantic and colorful as the career he intends to pursue in life—that of journalism. In athletic lines, he favors tennis and the lighter sports, for his diminutive size prevents a high degree of excellence in the heavier games. His latest fad is a Ford "Wreck!" The vehicle has two perfectly good lights and a spare tire which almost lifts it out of the "Whoopie" class but a coat of red paint and some wise cracking signs remedy these defects. For sound effects he has three horns and an interurban bell.

His most absorbing interest is clothes—brilliantly colored clothes. His stock of shirts include reds, oranges, black and white checks, and cream and black stripes. The wousers keep pace with the shirts. He just ordered a pair of one and one-half-inch red, brown and white checked golf knickers. The cut of the knickers will be the latest in pocket and pleat design. They will not be of the high waist style for such pants interfere with his breathing. He wears ties of every color and color combination. His socks, particularly golf socks, are so loud as to be almost auditory. In the sweater line, he is fond of yellows.

He must have anticipated the current style of freshman hair cut for his hair was razed this summer. In a recent consultation with his barber, he was told that the hair could be parted in about three more months. "Hindu" feels that he is working under difficulty in T. C. U. because his sister and many cousins have preceded him and set a high standard. At present he is one of three cousins attending the University.

Is Major and Assistant Miss Katherine Lipscomb Only Home Economics Senior

Miss Katherine Lipscomb is the student assistant and the only senior in the home economics department this year, according to Miss Bonne Enlow, head of the department.

Of the sixteen other students in the department, eight are majors. They are Misses Mary Helen Sims, Elizabeth Schell, Mary Louise Hall, Mary Ruth Clark, Helen Estes, Grace Nichols, Ann Mattox and Margaret Lindsay.

Other members of the department are Misses Dorothy Lee, Frances Johnston, Virginia Bradford, Christine Ackers, Ada Denmar, Theo Smart, Hilma Sandegard and Mrs. Ruby Huddleston.

Miss Enlow lectured on "Adequate Diets" Wednesday at the cooking school and manufacturers' exhibit, which is being sponsored every afternoon this week from 2 till 4 o'clock by the Girls' Service League.

Miss Enlow, assisted by Misses Bradford, Mattox, Sims and Lipscomb, prepared a Thanksgiving dinner last week.

Miss Elizabeth Cuthrell joined her family in Dallas last week-end and attended the State Fair.

Miss Judith Witherspoon visited at her home in Chatfield Saturday.

4 YEARS of opportunity

SO MUCH can be gained from these undergraduate years. Campus leadership. Classroom scholarship. Lifelong friendships. Energy and health are important assets for the man who would get the most from these years.

Too often constipation is permitted to sap health and undermine vitality. It can become a serious handicap.

A delicious cereal will overcome this condition. Two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will promote regular habits. ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk," vitamin B and iron. Ask that it be served at your fraternity house or campus restaurant.

The most popular ready-to-eat cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include Kellogg's Corn Flakes, PEP Bran Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee—real coffee that lets you sleep.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

"What on earth are you up to now?"

FINDING things out, smarty! I thought I'd examine the tobacco in a cigarette. "Look here...this is Chesterfield tobacco. Notice its lighter color...you don't see any dark heavy types, do you? I guess that's why Chesterfields are milder. "I'm told that uniformly lighter color is due to cross-blending. It sort of welds all the tobaccos into one. "And here's something else. Notice that these long shreds are all cut the same width. It stands to reason they burn smoother and cooler. "I don't pretend to be an expert but it looks to me as if they make Chesterfields right. "Here, light one. That's the best test after all. They Satisfy."

All-Senior Eleven May Start Against Baylor Bears Tomorrow

Frogs Ready for Annual Grid Tilt With Baylorites

Coach Schmidt Expects Hard Game From Bruins.

Summer at Fullback

Bassinger May Begin in Place of Injured Evans—Oliver in Line-up.

By BEN BOSWELL. All preliminary work has been completed and the Horned Frogs are primed for their annual battle tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Bruins of Baylor University. The Frogs will take only a light workout this afternoon before retiring to their rooms to await tomorrow's crucial battle.

Dope Means Nothing. Dope has it that this game will be an easy one for the Christians, but the players and coaches know that this is not the case. Dope means nothing when the Bears play in Fort Worth, for not on a single occasion since T. C. U. entered the conference have the Bruins lost a game to the Frogs in Fort Worth. In 1930 the Frogs were swept from the field and a championship by a hard-fighting Baylor aggregation.

It is true that Arkansas defeated Baylor after the Schmidtmans trounced the Forkers soundly. It is also true that the Bears held the Aggies to a scoreless tie, the same team that the Purple whipped 17 to 0. These figures are weak proof in saying that the Christians will win. They do mean, however, that Texas Christian is capable of defeating Baylor.

If the Purple eleven play hard all of the game, they will win, but one let-up may spell defeat for them.

Frogs Have Heavier Team.

The Bear line averages a little better than 190 pounds. The Christians will outweigh them on an average of eight or ten pounds per man in the line. In the backfield, the four starters for Coach Schmidt will outweigh Coach Jennings' men. Jennings will depend upon his fleet backs and passes for victory.

Lon Evans may not see much service in tomorrow's game because of an injury he received in dummy scrimmage when he and Captain Vaught ran together. Vaught escaped the impact unhurt, but Evans came out with a laceration on his forehead and a badly bruised leg.

Granting that Evans will start, the beginners should be eleven seniors. At the ends will be Salkeld and Pruitt, at tackles, Howell and Boswell, at guards, Vaught and Evans and Townsend at center. In the backfield Oliver and Spearman will start, at halfbacks, Sumner at full and Dennis at quarter.

Evans May Not Start.

If Evans does not start, then his place will be filled by either Bassinger or Taylor, both juniors. Coach Schmidt may decide to start Brannon at quarter or Perkins in the place of Boswell. John Kitchen is out with a badly infected elbow.

Foster Howell should have a big day. The Bears have a style of attack that is suited to his type of play. Howell is a hard charger and will be invaluable in rushing the Bear passers. He is aiming at an all-conference tackle berth and his play Saturday will be a determining factor.

In the starting line-up for the Bruins will be James and Petty at ends, Weatherby and Clark at tackles, Norton and Clemm at guards and Edwards at center. At the half posts will be Pierce and Reeves, at full Jones and at quarter will be Kroner.

Frog Harriers to Run With Decatur

Coach Clark's cross-country team will compete against Decatur Baptist here tomorrow afternoon. The entire squad will run.

Members of the squad are: Jinx Powell, Bill Anderson, Wirth McCoy, Ralph Brown, Captain Bob Chappell, Bill Barnes, Paul Donovan and Henry Spencer.

The race will start about the same time the second quarter of the football game begins, and will finish in the stadium during the half.

This is the only meet so far. However Coach Clark is still working for meets with Rice and S. M. U.

Mrs. Elta Rose Franklin spent the week-end at her home in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. B. N. Wiseley of Stamford visited her daughter, Miss Katherine Wiseley, in Jarvis Hall last week-end.

BEN'S BARQUE

By BEN BOSWELL. Tomorrow afternoon the Frogs will be meeting the Bears under the same condition that they did in 1930 when the Bruins scattered Horned Frogs all over the turf of the new stadium.

You see, the big, powerful Christian eleven, boasting the biggest team in the conference, was the favorite and the team took the prediction to heart.

Before the half had ended, the fighting Bears had crossed the Christian goal line three times and had kicked goal. Every new man that went into the game for the Frogs was a signal for the Bruins to make another touchdown.

At the half the Horned Frogs reorganized and took the field again. Immediately the Bears scored two more touchdowns and kicked goal. By this time the "powerful" Frogs had rubbed their eyes and realized that game was being played.

As the fates would have it, the Frogs got lucky in the closing minutes of the melee to score twice.

This year the same big, powerful Frog team will take the field as the favorite. Now that the Christians are bigger, older and more powerful, the Bears should win by about 40 points—unless.

When the season is ended and all-conference teams are being picked, it is likely that one Lon Evans of T. C. U. will be left from the roll of the mythical stars. He is in the same fix as was Buck Barr and Phil Handler who were members of the championship team of 1929.

These two fellows were got the outstanding type as was Brumbelow. Not many critics noticed their work.

Evans

But ask one of the men who played with them! Get Grubbs to tell you how good old Buck was on the defense and how powerful Handler was on the offense. Ask him why the Frogs beat Texas.

Lon weighs 215 pounds and is a little more than six feet tall. In addition to this he is exceptionally fast for a man his size. Lon had a hard time getting started as a freshman. He was only 16 years old. As a soph he had better luck. Just as he got going good, the injury jinx hit him. In his junior year, the same thing happened just as he was getting started.

Right now he is playing the best football he has ever played. When he is going his best, I doubt whether or not there is a man in the conference who can move him. He charges hard on the defense and slices through into the enemy backfield. And when Oliver or Spearman or Dennis or Brannon or Sumner or Kitchen smash over tackle for a gain, bear in mind that old Lon or Johnnie, or some lineman or back was in front.

It appears that Centenary is to get into the Southwest Conference. Her football team has said: "We are going to get into the Southwest Conference if we have to defeat every present member." Obviously, the team was not joking. They have beaten Texas and S. M. U. and will meet the Aggies tomorrow in Shreveport. Unless the Gents collapse to a man, they should wham the Farmers hard.

It made those who really see football feel good to read the article that Flem Hall wrote in the Star-Telegram about Harrison Stafford of Texas. Bohn Hillard is a great running back, but he could NOT shine as he does without some brilliant player like Stafford helping him. Stafford is an EXCELLENT runner himself. Hillard can't block. So Stafford must do the dirty work while Hillard follows him. Stafford was all-conference before the Southwest ever heard of Hillard. It is unfortunate for Stafford that Hillard can not block.

Ray Morrison has promised to beat Texas tomorrow. It is not because a "weak" Baylor team whipped a "powerful" Horned Frog team a few years ago.

Frogs Smother Austin College Christians Roll Up 68 Points Against Weak Kangaroos.

Virtually turning a football game into a track meet, the Horned Frogs administered a 68-0 walloping to the Austin College Kangaroos from Sherman Saturday on Frog Field.

The Kangaroos displayed a weak team, which made only one first down, and that on a pass in the last quarter, and the Frogs gave them the beating without having the entire first team on the field at any time.

For the first few minutes of the game fumbles, two of them near the Kangaroo 20-yard line, kept the Frogs from scoring. Then Buster Brannon went over the goal on a double-lateral play, and the Frog scoring march was on. The Purple team made three touchdowns in each of the first two quarters and two in each of the last two quarters. Points were made after all the touchdowns except the two in the third quarter.

Besides Brannon, Red Oliver, Charlie Casper, Joe Coleman, Rex Clark, Biarard Spearman and Jack Langdon all made touchdowns for the Frogs. Brannon made three touchdowns in all, one in each of the first three quarters, and Oliver, who was in the game for two plays, made two touchdowns. One of these was made on an 80-yard kickoff return in the first quarter and the other was made in the second quarter. Each of the others named made one touchdown.

Hubert Dennis made four points after touchdown. Otho Tiner made two, and Doc Sumner and Ben Boswell made one each.

Horned Frog Back Takes Scoring Lead

Oliver Replaces Koy of Texas by Scoring 12 Points Against Austin.

Richard "Red" Oliver, fiery-topped Horned Frog halfback, replaced Ernest Koy, University of Texas fullback, as king of the Southwest Conference's scoring parade last Saturday when he galloped through the Austin College defense to score two markers.

Koy scored one tally against Rice to drop in to second place. Oliver was injured in the T. C. U.-A. & M. game and was not expected to play but entered the fray for two plays and scored as many touchdowns. Oliver has scored eight touchdowns for a grand total of 48 points, while Koy has scored seven markers and two extra-pointers for 44 points. Oliver is the first Frog gridster to be in the scoring race since 1930, when Cy Leland scored some 60 points to win the honors for that year.

The Conference leading scorers follow: Oliver, T.C.U., HB 48 Koy, Texas, FB 44 Dominique, A&M QB 34 Hilliard, Texas, HB 31 Spearman, T.C.U., HB 30 Stafford, Texas, HB 30 Brannon, T.C.U., HB 25 Wallace, Rice, HB 25

Continuing, Dacus says, "Of course, I attend Sunday school and church regularly. The rest of the time I spend killing and catching bugs, spiders, wasps, mice and flies, which seem to resent my having moved into these rooms. Incidentally, catching snakes is getting to be my hobby. I caught one a few weeks ago in the reception room. After examining it, I found it had a perfect picture of a woman's head on the back of its head. I have it pickled and keep it in a bottle on my study desk to make the room more attractive."

Powerful Tackle

Pictured above is Foster Howell, who is a power in the Horned Frog forward wall. Few yards have been made by opponents over this 205-pound scrapper. He received an injured wrist in the Aggie game that kept him out for a week, but he is back in shape and should give Baylor plenty of trouble.

Dacus Is Dean, Teacher, Janitor And Bug Catcher

Teacher, janitor, lecturer, bug catcher and dean of men are only some of the duties of James Dacus, 1932 June graduate of T. C. U. and now a member of the faculty of Randolph Junior College, Cisco.

"I enjoy my work immensely, except the pay. However, we do better than T. C. U. since the teachers here at least receive a few squaky old hens, a lean old sow and a mule."

According to Dacus, T. C. U. students should not complain about chapel. "We have it four times a week. I gave a lecture yesterday on some material Dr. Elliott gave me and it went over big."

"I had a hard time cleaning out the chicken feathers in my rooms. The French chefs, a farmer and his wife, used my rooms for a chicken coop last year and it took a little lye, soap and hard scrubbing to make my quarters livable."

Dacus is awakened in the morning by a barnyard chorus, followed immediately by musical chimes (the farmer beating on a railroad railing which is hung by the kitchen door). "At the sound of the last musical note, one should be seated at the breakfast table if one desires nourishment. The coffee is black with all the grounds, so that one may get the full benefit. The toast is well cooked. We have our big meal at noon, which is a feast fit for a college prof. Usually we have salt pork and corn bread. At night we have what is left from the noon meal plus dessert."

Continuing, Dacus says, "Of course, I attend Sunday school and church regularly. The rest of the time I spend killing and catching bugs, spiders, wasps, mice and flies, which seem to resent my having moved into these rooms. Incidentally, catching snakes is getting to be my hobby. I caught one a few weeks ago in the reception room. After examining it, I found it had a perfect picture of a woman's head on the back of its head. Meyer Praises Wogs In First Encounter

Blocking, Interference Running Are Features of Tilt With Coyotes.

The frosh showed to an advantage in their first encounter of the season, against the Weatherford Junior College Coyotes, according to Coach Leo R. Meyer.

On the line the play of Wilson Groseclose and Paul Hill at tackle was very steady. Jimmie Simpson, at center, played good defensive ball and his passing back was good. "Tiny" Godwin was a pillar of strength in the center of the line. Dave Hickey did some fine work on interference running. The end play, however, was mediocre, as they allowed several gains for first downs.

In the backfield R. J. Duckworth made the first marker of the season for the frosh. Jimmie Lawrence showed to an advantage in his ball carrying and pass intercepting. Vic Montgomery proved to be a classy runner and passer. Howard Pulliam, at quarter, showed the best judgment that any frosh field general has shown in his first game.

The all-around feature of the game was the fine blocking and interference running of the entire team.

The next frosh game will be played either Nov. 10 or 12. The present date is the 10, but Coach Meyer is trying to change it. The game will be with the strong John Tarleton Plowboys.

Intramural Play Stopped by Rain

All intramural football games were rained out Tuesday and will be played next Tuesday, according to Walter S. Knox, head of intramural athletics.

This change simply lengthens the football schedule one week as all remaining games will be moved up one week to correspond with the change made in the postponed games.

The juniors will play the sophomores in the first game Tuesday, with the seniors meeting the frosh in the second contest.

The intramural tennis singles tournament entered the second round of play this week. As yet no favorite has been established. In the first round matches B. W. Spearman beat C. Q. Smith 6-2, 6-1; William Glen Walker downed Bryant Collins, 6-3, 6-4; Alf Roark defeated Nat Wells 6-2, 6-4; Jimmie Walkup won from Wirth McCoy 7-5, 6-3; Paul Snow conquered Hindu Van Zandt 6-0, 6-2.

In the second round the feature matches find Roark meeting Elbert Walker, William Glen Walker facing Bob Preston, Paul Snow taking on Paul Donovan and Warren Logan scheduled to meet Paul Wassenich.

Richard "Red" Oliver, genial sorrell-topped, fleet footed Frog halfback, is a true disciple of notriety. Red has his fans here and there, but the ones whom he regards most are those of outstanding qualities.

During the Rice-T.C.U. game in 1930 a collection of fire chiefs, police chiefs, mayors and senators were seated near the Christian bench and almost ran Coach Schmidt ragged because he would not send Oliver into the game. Near the end of the fourth quarter the Purple mentor was obliged to give in to the monotonous begging and sent the "speed demon" into the game. On the first play Red failed to carry out his assignment, and the Coach went wild. However, this failed to put a damper on the ragging fans of the mighty Oliver.

Recently during a track meet at a national guard camp, Red was going through his most unique warming up process and Jacob Wolters, brigade general of the 56th Brigade, yelled to him, "Red, don't you fail to come through with a victory because I used to go to T. C. U. myself." This was the first time many of the enlisted men had ever witnessed the general talking to a buck-private-in-the-rear-ranks.

During one of Red's resting periods at the Billy-Horned Frog game this season another of his most ardent admirers, just another fan to Richard, the Rev. Billy Sunday, world noted traveling evangelist, asked Red to pose for a picture with him. Red says, "Sure, bud, anything for a pal."

Huey Long, ex-governor of the State of Louisiana and the big "Kingfish" of the South, expressed that

Oliver was the greatest man he had ever watched perform on a football field. The "Kingfish" took great pride in telling Red what a famous gridiron hero he was.

During Oliver's visit to Louisiana he came in contact with one of the Barnum brothers of the noted Barnum and Bailey circus. This famous person was more or less tough, as referred to by Lon Evans, but came down off of his perch long enough to explain to some L.S.U. students just how mean that ball club was from Texas and that they had a Red Oliver who ran with a football like Ma Ferguson ran for governor during the final election down in the Lone Star State.

Red is more or less conscientious about his fans, his ability and his publicity. Just because the announcer called him another man in the 100-yard dash finals at the Drake Relays last year, he stepped out and showed his heels to the entire field of white men but is still wondering where that negro came from that passed him.

He tells the men who are trying out for a quarterback position on the Frog football team that the only way to be a smart signal caller is to let him run with the ball everytime. Some think he is joking and pay no heed to his lingo. Yet the men with football brains, Buster Brannon for instance, know that Oliver is sincere and give him the ball three-fourths of the time.

The flaming Red Head believes in himself, and nobody, not even Coach Schmidt, can change his mind. He is far from being conceited or stuck-up. He believes he knows the right thing and is generally 100 per cent right.
