T. C. U. Homecoming Activities Will Begin Tonight

Two Trains to Transport Frogs To Shreveport

Special Busses Will Carry Students to T. & P. Station.

Support Requested

Accommodations Include Price of Meals, Game, Fair and Conveyance.

The two official trains to carry the Frog supporters to Shreveport for the T. C. U. Centenary grid battle will leave the T. & P. Station at 6:30 o'clock Saturday morning and will arrive in Shreveport about 11 a. m. Railroad tickets may be purchased by the students for $2.50 each.

Arrangements are being made for special busses to transport the students to the station. The time the trains will leave Shreveport for the return trip to Fort Worth has not yet been determined.

"The students will not be disappointed in their reception in Shreveport," said Roy O'Brien, student body president. "We have every reason to believe that if the students will support this trip they can make it one of the biggest student-body trips in T. C. U. football history."

A list of accommodations that T. C. U. students will receive in Shreveport for 75 cents per student, includes a ticket to the game and to the Louisiana State Fair, a real "ole-style barbecue" at lunch, dinner free in any of the downtown restaurants, a big vaudeville show at the Fair grounds after the game, transportation to and from the game, and possibly admission into the downtown theatres for those who do not wish to go to the Fair.

Class officers are urging all students to make the trip. Frank Miller, senior class president, said, "The trip will be different. In previous years the student body has made a trip to Baylor and to Texas University and since this is the first official trip to Centenary every student should plan to go."

Lon Beavers, junior class president, said, "The juniors are behind the trip 100 per cent."

"If the team knows that the student body is behind them and is supporting them," said Capt. Jack Graves, "they can play a better game. The team would like to know that every student is in Shreveport Saturday."

Tom Pickett, head yell leader, in a request that all students make the trip, said, "If the students support this trip there is a possibility that the business men will send a special train to Austin and Waco."

The Rev. Werlein to Speak on "Toleration"

Woodwind Trio Will Furnish Special Music for Chapel Service.

The Rev. Hulsey Werlein, Jr., rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, will be the chief speaker at the Wednesday morning chapel hour. His subject will be "Toleration." The woodwind trio, composed of Charles Oswald, Walter Petta, and Weldon Allen, will furnish special music.

Dr. John Lord spoke at the chapel service last Wednesday. His subject was "Disarmament Up-to-Date."

Fred Miller to Be President of Y. M.

Fred Miller was elected president of the Y. M. C. A. for this year at a meeting of the association Monday afternoon.

Other officers elected are: Vice-president, Johnny LeBus; secretary, Joe Carpenter; treasurer, Arle Brooks; parliamentarian, Nat Wells. Prof. C. R. Shearer, sponsor of the association, addressed the meeting, discussing plans for the coming year.

Gab-a-Lot Club To Be Sponsored By Mrs. Tucker

Gossipers, gather round! Here's your heaven, and if you need it, your haven. This campus will now be able to support four or five "Revelations" columns.

Mrs. E. R. Tucker has announced the birth of a new campus club at about 4:30 o'clock last Saturday afternoon in the T. C. U. stadium. The club was christened the "Gab-a-Lot Club."

During a lull in the game Mrs. Tucker and a group of students became bored and started gossiping. Came an inspiration! The idea is to prevent good gossip from going to waste; all gossip should be gathered and divulged at a meeting. Acting on the spur of the moment, Mrs. Tucker invited this group of intelligentsia to hold the first meeting at her house Sunday evening.

This club frankly expresses its intention to gossip. So beware! they may hold your fate in their hands. The Gab-a-lots meet every Sunday evening from 8:30 to 10 o'clock at the homes of its members. They have no dues, no officers, no constitution, no anything except members and a sponsor. According to the confessions of members in good standing, it is a ritzy club; in fact a special invitation is necessary for an entree into this charmed circle.

Charter members of this club are: X. R. Campbell, Miss Maurine Justin, Billy Allen, Miss Ruth Cowan, Jimmy Tribble, and Miss Elizabeth Hudson. Mrs. Tucker is the sponsor.

Freshmen Meet, Monitors Speak

Johnny LeBus and Otto Neilson were speakers at a freshman class meeting Tuesday night in the Main Building. LeBus said that the freshmen were not to be made to do something, but should build the bonfire out of loyalty and spirit.

Plans were made to form a '37 Club which will perform at football games. There will be 51 members in the club. Plans were also made to have a party for the town and dormitory freshmen.

Y.M.C.A. Secretary on Campus

Harold W. Colvin, Y. M. C. A. secretary of the Rocky Mountain Region and part-time secretary of the Southwest Division of the Y.M.C.A., spoke yesterday morning to the economics 21 class of Dr. Edwin A. Elliott. He also addressed a group of men in the alcove in the lunch room at 1 o'clock. He is visiting on the T. C. U. campus yesterday and today.

Cadet Specials Will Arrive in City Tomorrow

Band Sweetheart Will Be First to Welcome Corps.

Aggies to Parade

Barbecue Will Be Served at Basketball Gym After Downtown Review.

The entire campus will be agog with excitement tomorrow when 1600 A. & M. cadets are guests of the T. C. U. student body. From the moment they alight from the M.-K.-T. specials to the time when they board their train for College Station, they will be royally entertained.

The first special bearing the cadets will arrive at the T. & P. Station at 10 o'clock. Three others follow, the last arriving at 10:30 o'clock. The specials will be met by Frog welcomers and the Horned Frog Band.

Miss Ackers Will Welcome

Miss Christine Ackers, band sweetheart, will officially welcome the Aggie student body to Fort Worth on behalf of the T. C. U. students, according to Roy O'Brien. Miss Ackers will be accompanied by Miss Mary Jarvis, senior representative; Miss Theo Smart, junior representative; Miss Lois Atkinson, sophomore representative, and Miss Florence Ackers, freshman representative.

On the campus Misses Mary Jarvis, Smart, Florence Ackers, Lollie Botts and Mary Seidel will assist the band sweetheart in acting as hostesses to the cadet corps.

Reviewing Stand at Texas. The cadet parade will form at the T. & P. Station and will proceed up Main Street and turn west on Fifth Street to Houston, and north on Houston to Weatherford, thence over to Commerce, where it will disband. The reviewing stand will be in front of the Texas Hotel. In the reviewing stand will be Dr. T. O. Walton, president of A. & M. College, President E. M. Waits, Judge L. J. Wardlaw of the A. & M. Board of Regents, and Ben Warden, president of the A. & M. Ex-Students' Association.

Five hundred cars, bearing "Hop-In" signs, will be available for transportation of the cadets to the T. C. U. campus when they disband at Commerce Street. The A. & M. Ex-Students' luncheon will be held at the Texas Hotel immediately after the parade, according to P. M. Geren, president of the local ex-students' organization.

Floor Show in Gym. After the parade, the cadets will be served with a barbecue at the basketball gymnasium. A floor show will entertain the cadets during and after the barbecue. The floor show is under the direction of Mrs. Helen Murphy and will consist of a series of skits depicting the reception of the A. & M. boys in 1927, 1929, 1931 and 1933, and stunts by freshman girls. Those appearing in the skits will be: Misses Judy Roberson, Iris Hays, LaVerne Brunson and Juanita Freeman.

At 3 o'clock the center of attraction shifts to the stadium, where an estimated crowd of 20,000 including the cadet corps and the homecomers, will witness the twenty-seventh gridiron clash between the two schools.

A request that T. C. U. students remain in the stands until the cadet corps has filed out has been made by O'Brien. "This will facilitate traffic and prevent congestion," said O'Brien.

Halls Are Headquarters

Headquarters for the A. & M. invaders will be in Clark Hall. Both Clark and Goode Halls will act as hosts to the cadet corps. The Texas Hotel and local theaters have announced half fares for the uniformed boys.

Post-game dances begin at 9 p. m. Three of the Aggie special trains leave at 11 p. m., while the fourth remains until 11 a. m. Sunday.

Plans Made for Guests

Goode Is Headquarters of Exes—Clark to Hold Aggies.

The men's dormitories were cleaned and vacant rooms were furnished this week for Homecoming visitors. All students who have extra sheets and blankets are requested to see Otto Neilson if they desire to help furnish the rooms.

Goode Hall will be headquarters for the ex-students. Clark Hall is to be the headquarters for the Aggies.

Both halls will be decorated with signs and purple and white paper. The decorating will be in charge of R. J. Duckworth, chairman, Fred Smith and Will Wetzel. The committee on arrangements consists of Joe Carpenter, chairman, Randolph Watson and Arle Brooks. The committee on aid and information consist of Lynn Latham and Joe Reeder.

"The Wonder Hat" Is Winning Play

Aguirre, Miss Gregory Receive Individual Acting Honors.

"The Wonder Hat," presented by the freshman class and directed by Miss Bernice Armstrong, won the annual freshman-sophomore play contest held Tuesday night in the University Auditorium.

It is the first time in six yearly contests that the freshmen have won the loving cup, according to Clarence Crotty, president of the Dramatic Club.

Frank Aguirre of the freshman cast won individual acting honors for men and Miss Mary Elizabeth Gregory won the individual honors for girls.

The freshman cast included Walter Moody, Olin Jones, Aguirre and Misses Mary Corzine and Marjorie Sewall.

The sophomore cast, directed by Sid Lightfoot, included George Cheryrhomes and Misses Gregory, Merry Montrief and Virginia Morris.

Old Frog Yearbook Reveals That Times Have Changed Since 1897

Believe it or not—on Dec. 16, 1897, the students of T. C. U. in Waco were given a rare treat when the boys and girls were allowed to play tennis on the same court at the same time! Gosh, wouldn't those boys have been tickled had they been privileged to escort a girl to the library in the moonlight!

Non-believers may find the proof in the '97-'98 yearbook. And what a souvenir that yearbook was! In those days poetry was in vogue and they took it out on the annual. The book opens with a poem, it ends with a poem, the division pages bear poems and everybody that amounted to anything had a full page poem in the book. In fact the Horned Frog of that year looks like the first volume of a beginning poet.

A plausible reason for the fad of verse is that pictures which are lacking in the book cost plenty and poetry was to be had for the asking.

In those days T. C. U. was like the little red schoolhouse in that the whole "works" were taught in one building. When the yearbook editor began solving the problem of views he just photographed the building from the front, rear and side, thus having three pictures. Just a matter of being original. (In those days they couldn't get an airplane view.)

The yearly war waged by the Horned Frog editor to get students to be photographed brings to mind the fact that the classes in the '97 book were scarcely mentioned, and pictures were not even considered. Boy, what a load that would be off the yearbook head.

But the literary societies. They were thick and as clannish as the present day frat. At that time everyone belonged to a literary society. That was the social life.

Teaching Ended

Prof. Roberts Dies After Long Illness

A teaching career which has covered 54 years in all and 22 years at T. C. U. was ended with the death of Prof. Charles H. Roberts Saturday night after an illness of several weeks.

Dr. Elliott Speaks At Clark Meeting

Homecoming and a new T.C.U. spirit were discussed in a meeting of dormitory boys last night in the parlor of Clark Hall.

Dr. Edwin A. Elliott and Dean Colby D. Hall spoke. Prof. J. W. Ridings played the piano and G. L. Messinger sang. Dr. Newton Gaines sang cowboy songs. Jack Graves, Jack Langdon, Charlie Casper, Melvin Diggs and Hersel Kinzy spoke from the students' viewpoint.

Refreshments were furnished by S. & Q. Clothing Store.

Speaks to Advertising Class

James A. Foltz, national advertising manager of The Fort Worth Press, spoke to Prof. J. Willard Ridings' class in "Principles of Advertising" yesterday morning.

Frog-Farmer Game Tomorrow Will Climax Celebration; Banquet, Rally, Bonfire, Parade, Show This Evening

Holiday Declared for University Students Saturday—Entire A. & M. Corps Will Be On Campus.

By BEN SARGENT

Honoring T. C. U. alumni, ex-students and visitors and the Aggie student body, activities of the University's annual Homecoming, which will last for a night and day, will begin this evening.

Classes will be suspended tomorrow for the occasion.

Celebration will start at 6:30 o'clock this evening with a banquet by the T. C. U. Ex-Lettermen's Association in the University Cafeteria. The program and arrangements for the affair are in charge of Blackie Williams, president; John Anderson, first vice-president; Johnny Washmon, second vice-president; and Bear Wolf, secretary-treasurer. Frank Ogilvie, former Frog athlete, will preside at the banquet.

At 7:30 p. m. T. C. U. students, past and present, will convene at the Frog basketball gym, where a giant pep rally will be staged. Radio equipment, furnished by the T. C. U. Radio Laboratories, will be installed in the gymnasium in order that those present may hear a sketch of the history of the University which is being broadcast over radio station WSM.

Talks on Program. Other prominent features of the rally will be talks by prominent ex-students, introduction of the Frog football squad, music by the Horned Frog Band and yells and songs led by Tom Pickett, Bill Hudson, and Vic Montgomery, yell leaders.

Following the meeting in the gym, the scene of activities will shift to the gigantic and rather costly heap of boxes and barrels back of Jarvis Hall, where the bonfire will be burned.

After a snake dance around the conflagration, boys of the University will journey downtown, where they will stage a shirt-tail parade through the business district, headed by the Horned Frog Band.

The parade will end at 11 p. m. at the New Liberty Theater, where the junior class is sponsoring a midnight show.

Activities Start Early. Activities will start early tomorrow morning. Ex-members of the various campus organizations will register at booths in the halls of the Main Building. Among the organizations that will have booths in the halls are publications, administration, Dramatic Club, International Relations, and the Y. W. C. A.

An information booth in front of the Auditorium will direct the exes to rooms on the second and third floors which have been provided for the various classes. Refreshments will be served in the rooms from 10 to 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Sadie Beckham, Dean of Women, will serve coffee and sandwiches to the visitors in Jarvis Hall from 11 to 12 o'clock.

The A. & M. student body will arrive in Fort Worth at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, and after a parade downtown will be transported to the Frog gym, where a barbecue and floor show has been arranged for.

Regulations Added to Conference By-laws

"Regular" Football Players to Receive Only 2 Complimentary Tickets.

Only two complimentary tickets may be given to football "regulars" and all students playing on second teams or "B" squads are considered as participants in intercollegiate athletics, according to the two new regulations appearing in the constitution and by-laws of the Southwest Conference.

Article 21, section 3 of the by-laws states that "for any athletic contest no more complimentary tickets shall be given to players than three tickets to the captain of the team, two tickets to each letterman or player considered a "regular", and one ticket to each of the other members of the squad."

Article 25, section 1, paragraph 2, states that "competing in a contest on a "B" team (or any second team) against an institution that grants a standard degree shall be considered participating in intercollegiate athletics."

Daniel Penick, president of the conference, in a letter to authorities here also called attention to article 28, section 2, which states that "no student shall be eligible to participate in intercollegiate athletics if he has played on a summer baseball team which played more than three games a week while he was a member thereof."

Glad to See You, Ex and Aggie!

Welcome, Exes! Howdy, Farmers! It is good to see you again. Tonight and tomorrow some of the biggest events of the year will be taking place—Homecoming, the Aggie invasion, the giant pep rally, and the probable deciding football game of the year. The entire student body, University faculty and administration bid you welcome.

The feature of the day will be the Frog-Aggie game. It promises to be one of the hardest-fought battles of the season and may decide the conference champion.

Aggies, we hope your visit with us is pleasant. We have been looking forward to it and have planned to make it a memorable one.

Exes, the campus is much the same. The drinking fountain in the main hall has been fixed, the windows in the chemistry lab were washed last week, and the journalism office has been swept and dusted. But if you just glance around you probably won't notice these oddities and you will just be home again to all those things that were dear to you. You will be home and hear the bells ringing on the hour, and walk from Main to Brite and if it is raining complain because the sidewalk "holds water;" home again, and smell the fumes of cabbage drifting to the second floor, and hear the shouts in Clark and Goode when the boys are called to the phone, and watch the couples strolling to the drug store. Then you will shout to a friend and really be home again. Welcome!

The End of Hazing

In the early hours of the morning of Friday, Oct. 13, 20 T. C. U. men stood before the University discipline committee and solemnly pledged themselves to do all in their power to end hazing at the University. The men had just come to realize the seriousness with which T. C. U. authorities regard the tradition of hazing.

They had sat for an hour and a half in session with the committee and for three hours waiting, while the committee debated their case, as they had admitted shearing the heads of several freshmen. During this four-and-a-half hour period these men had plenty of time to think. They did think, and they talked among themselves. Before the discipline committee had decided their case, the men pledged to each other that if they were allowed to remain in school each would do all in his power to end hazing.

Roy O'Brien, president of the student body, sat in as a member of the discipline committee. O'Brien placed before the committee a plan whereby the twenty men would organize themselves for a determined fight against the institution of hazing and be allowed to remain in the University under suspended sentences instead of being suspended. O'Brien's plan was finally adopted by the committee unanimously. Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, chairman of the committee, presented the plan to the men, and they accepted it wholeheartedly. They pledged themselves to do their part to end hazing, and they meant what they said.

Now the twenty men are under suspended sentences. If any hazing is done in T. C. U. some of these men will suffer for it, as the discipline committee made it clear to them that they would be suspended from the University if their names were linked in any way with hazing in the future. None of the twenty men who pledged themselves to stop hazing will do any themselves, but circumstantial evidence may cause some of them to be suspected. So the men are asking for the co-operation of the entire student body in ending hazing in T. C. U. for all time.

They have organized a club—the Honorary Club—and have elected Hersel "Slim" Kinzy as their president. With the co-operation of the student body as a whole they can end the out-of-date and unoriginal institution of hazing at T. C. U.

On to Centenary!

For the first time in the history of the school, the entire T. C. U. student body will make a massed trip to Shreveport, La., where they will witness the T.C.U.-Centenary football game and attend the Louisiana State Fair.

It wouldn't be a bad idea for each student to start saving all his nickels and dimes now, and at the same time adopt a slogan which would read like this, "On to Centenary Oct. 28." In previous years such trips have been made to College Station, Austin and Houston, but never before have we, as students, been offered a trip which would compare with this one.

The railroad company and the fair officials have offered the students a plan whereby every student should be able to make the trip. The railroad has offered to send a special train to Shreveport if as many as 300 will sign up for $2.50 for the round trip. The Louisiana State Fair authorities have offered a plan whereby each student will be admitted to the ball game, all the attractions of the fair and two meals while there for the amazingly small sum of 75 cents. Summed up, it will cost each student $3.25 to make the trip.

Students, the football team needs your support on that date. All Louisiana is looking forward to your being in Shreveport. Let's make this the biggest and best trip ever taken by a T.C.U. student body. Start talking, "ON TO CENTENARY."

The Last Round-Up

The passing of Prof. Charles H. Roberts takes from the University a man whose entire career has been devoted to the cause of education, and who has been a patriotic citizen of T.C.U. since the moving of the school to Fort Worth from Waco 24 years ago.

For 54 years Prof. Roberts taught students of all ages, from grammar school pupils who find learning a task to university students who are eager in their search for understanding. At all times did Professor Roberts exhibit the same patience, the same friendliness, doing his best to aid any student who seemed to need extra instruction in order to make the grade.

So, half mast to a friend who is gone, to one who had the true spirit and to one who lived an exemplary life, always steering straight by his ideal, that of educating mankind to a broader, fuller, and better life.

them. Clark Hall has been designated as the official headquarters for the cadets, and a special committee has been appointed in the hall to greet them.

The University Auditorium will be the scene of a special "spontaneous combustion" meeting at 10:30 o'clock. John Bateman, 1911 graduate; Harvey Redford, vice president of the Ex-Students and Alumni Association; and Dr. Edwin A. Elliott will be the main speakers.

At the gathering former Frog cheer leaders will lead the group in a series of yells and songs. Extemporaneous "pep" talks from the floor will be given. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Horned Frog Band, under the direction of Prof. Claude Sammis.

The T. C. U. Echo, official organ of the Ex-Students Association, will be dedicated at 11 a. m. Dr. Clinton Lockhart will preside at the dedication, and Dr. W. J. Hammond will be announced as editor of the publication. The Echo Song, musical number, will be rendered by members of the Fine Arts Department.

Luncheon at 12 o'clock. An Ex-students luncheon will be held in the University Cafeteria at 12 o'clock with Sidney Latham, state representative and ex-cheer leader, as the principal speaker. Greetings from the University will be delivered by President E. M. Waits and Dean Colby D. Hall. The faculty will be represented by Prof. E. W. McDiarmid and the Board of Trustees by Van Zandt Jarvis. Roy O'Brien will extend greetings from the present T. C. U. students. Presidents of various alumni clubs in the state will be introduced at the luncheon.

The climax of the celebration will come at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow when the Christians meet a powerful Aggie team on Frog Field.

Dances honoring the visitors will be held at the Woman's Club, the Texas Hotel, the Blackstone Hotel, and the University Club.

Every T. C. U. graduating class since 1900 will be represented at the celebration except the classes of 1928, 1901 and 1910. The representatives are: Billie Dickey, '33, Houston; Gibson Randle, '32, Ennis; Jim Gaddy Norris, '31, Fort Worth; Stewart Hellman, '30, Fort Worth; Fred Erisman, '29, Longview; Henry La Shepherd, '27, Fort Worth; Frank Stangl, '26, San Angelo; Homer Adams, '25, Fort Worth; Ray Mack, '24, Winters; Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, '23, Fort Worth; Harry G. Prinzing, '22, Waco; J. Forrest McCutcheon, '21,

OPEN FORUM

NOTE: The opinions expressed in this column are the personal opinions of the writers and are not necessarily the policy of The Skiff. Letters over 250 words in length cannot be accepted. Anonymous letters will not be published, but a writer's name will be withheld from publication if he so desires.

These few words are written in appreciation of the life and service of Prof. Charles H. Roberts, teacher, adviser, and leader. Fifty-four years of teaching, 54 years of service, are great contributions to humanity when done with the honesty and sincerity of purpose which motivated Prof. Roberts in his work. He was firm in his convictions, kindly and generous in his actions. He was a man who formed his opinions after due deliberation, and, once formed, no reward could deter him from what he thought was just and equitable. He was fearless in his actions, unselfish in his thoughts.

For 22 years "Dad" Roberts, as he was affectionately known, sat in his office at T. C. U. daily, always willing to talk to his students, advising them in their problems and giving to them lavishly of his time. Hundreds of letters filed in his desk from his students are evidence of their appreciation and confidence in his judgment. In class he thought far beyond the immediate facts of the course and attempted to teach a way of life. He saw in history a guide to citizenship, to life, and, above all, an appreciation of the contributions of past generations to culture and happiness of the present generation.

Personally, through 17 years of association with Prof. Roberts, my admiration for him as a teacher and associate continually grew until I know of no one in whom I had greater confidence. I appreciate greatly the time he gave to me in my studies and the guidance he accorded me in my teaching work. I am only one of hundreds of students who revered him as a man and loved him as a friend.

Homecoming Activities Occupy Social Spotlight for Week-End

By LOUISE CAUKER

Tomorrow when there's an Aggie for half the leaves on every campus tree and exes for all the other leaves, social activity will whirl till students and visitors are dizzy with excitement and fun.

Burr-Head's SPORT GOSSIP

By CHARLIE CASPER

TOMORROW is Homecoming Day here on the campus and the Aggies are coming up to take part in it (in case youse guys and galls hadn't realized the fact). It's up to the students to show the Aggies a good time while they are here, and it's up to eleven fighting Horned Frogs to show them a thing or two about football. Homecoming is a big day of the year for everyone that was ever connected with T. C. U. Those ole exes'll all be back here by this afternoon or early in the morning. Students, let's make this one more grand and glorious coming-back for 'em.

About two bells tomorrow Jack Graves will lead eleven of the out-fightingest bunch of Frogs you ever saw on a rampage against the Aggies which I hope is successful. For nine years those Aggies have been either tied or beaten. Fans and sports scribes claim that this is Matty's year, but I'm telling you that he's picking a tough spot to start out. Those Frogs are ready. Nothing has been left undone in preparing for this game and Coach and Bear won't be satisfied with anything short of a victory tomorrow evening, when the sun bids the world goodbye and shadows lengthen over that famous Frog Stadium.

It's true that Arkansas beat us. But it's not necessarily true that the Aggies are going to beat us here tomorrow afternoon. 'Tis a true fact that some think the game is won on paper but if you had been down there to watch those boys labor and toil this week, you would have told yourself that it will take more than a victory on paper to whip those Frogs.

Welcome home, exes. May this be the greatest Homecoming you have ever attended. May the Frogs not disappoint you in their attempt to uphold what you old fellows worked so hard to build up. This may be Matty's year down there, but the fans said the same things when you-all were wearers of the Purple and White. Exes, make yourself at home and don't feel out of place because some green fresh fails to say "howdy." We extend our hand of fellowship to you and promise that we are at your service throughout your visit. Remember that tomorrow we are one for all and all for T. C. U."

I've wanted to say a lot in me colymun this week but me mind drifts off to pigskin and moleskins with red and white colors on 'em. Tomorrow is the last go-round for twelve of us guys at them Ags. Sometimes during that last quarter ol' Capt'n Jack Graves will get his last Aggie tackle as will Jack Langdon and Wallace Myers. Boy, there are three ends who in the last three years have dealt those Farmers more misery than a car-load of boll weevils. For the last time Bud Taylor, Lee Bassinger and Lynn Brown will pull out from a guard hole and lead interference into the Aggie's defense. Speedy Allison and Cy Perkins will throw a side body-block into one of them cadets for the last time, opening a hole for one of the Frog backs.

In the backfield Jewell Wallace, John Kitchen and Flash Walker will bid the Bellmen adieu with a touchdown—I hope. And then, too, your correspondent will get his last chance during that last quarter to try to damage that Aggie defense, again—I hope. It's the last time for these 12 men against the Ags and they have yet to see the Purple and White go down under a barrage of Red and White from College Station. Sops and juniors, do your bit toward helping these men make their senior year a success by drubbing the Ags tomorrow.

Jimmie Jacks won't be with us tomorrow. We'll miss you, Jimmie, and wish that you were with us. Jimmy received a back injury in practice Tuesday and will be out for at least four weeks. May a speedy recovery be in store for you, wrong-hander.

Members of the Discipline Committee, may I take this time and space to express the thanks and appreciation of the 20 men who appeared before you last Thursday night for the kindness extended us.

Horned Frogs and Aggies in Homecoming Battle Tomorrow

Ending of T. C. U. 'Jinx' Is Farmers' Principal Object

Locals Handicapped by Injuries of Four Major Men.

Plays Are Perfected

Domingue, Spencer, Fowler and Stringfellow Will Lead Against Christians.

BY CHARLIE CASPER.

Tomorrow at 3 p. m., Captain Jack Graves, untiring end and leader of the 1933 Horned Frogs, will lead eleven fighting gridders into battle against the strong Texas Aggies, in what promises to be the greatest football game played by the teams since they began their grid relationships back in 1897.

Tomorrow will mark the second meeting of the Frogs and Aggies on the Christians' new home field. The first tilt ended with the Purple and White on the long end of a 6 to 0 score. The Christians have either beaten or tied the Cadets ever since T. C. U. entered the conference in 1924. The outcome of this battle will no doubt cast the spotlight on the probable Southwest Conference delegation in past years.

Coach Madison "Matty" Bell, Aggie mentor, who deserted T. C. U. in 1929 to accept the head coach's position in Aggieland, will bring his strongest Cadet team here for tomorrow's contest with high hopes of overcoming the so-called "jinx" which T. C. U. teams have held over his delegation in past year.

Domingue Heads Aggie Attack
Headed by the ever-flashing Frenchy Domingue (pronounced Domain). The Aggie mentor has developed an offense which he thinks will push back the Frog forward wall. This has never been done by the Farmers. Domingue is the leading scorer of the conference at the present time and is the spark-plug of the Red and White offense. He is aided in the backfield by Ted Spencer, plunging fullback who is rated as all-conference material this season, Odell Fowler, southpaw passer and punter, and Stringfellow, star rabbit back.

The Aggie forward wall is composed of both weight and speed and is headed by Captain Cummins, who shifts from guard to tackle when the occasion demands. Jordan and Cummins will probably get the call at tackles, while Stach, flashy soph center, Roberson and Murray, ends, and other beefy giants round out the strong starting line.

Coaches Schmidt and Wolf have no stones unturned this week in preparing for the Aggie tilt. Stiff scrimmage sessions were held Monday and Tuesday, with the Frogs on the offense the greater part of the time, ironing out the wrinkles in their running attack. Wednesday the Purple mentors drilled their charges on a defense which they are hoping will not only check but stop the Aggie running and aerial attack.

Two Regular Guards Out
Coach Wolf has been working under a handicap this week in that he is minus two of his regular guards because of serious injuries. Treatments have failed to bring Bud Taylor and Lee Bassinger around into shape in time for them to start against the Farmers, although there is a possibility of their playing part of the game. George Kline, star soph back who stood out in the Simmons game, received a lick on his ankle Tuesday but will be ready when needed tomorrow. Kline may be inserted in the starting line-up if his ankle comes around okay.

Injuries took another toll Tuesday when Jimmie Jacks, pass-snagging end de luxe, received a blow in the mid-section of his back. X-ray pictures revealed that a bone was out of place and that calls for about four weeks rest. Jack's relief work has been outstanding in the games played thus far. Rex Clark's sore feet are about healed and he will be ready for service also.

Twelve Play Last Aggie Game
Twelve T. C. U. seniors will play their last game against the Aggies tomorrow. These twelve men have never suffered defeat at the hands of the Cadets. Allison, Bassinger, Brown, Casper, Captain Graves, Kitchen, Langdon, Myers, Perkins, Taylor, Walker and Wallace will get their last chance tomorrow to send the Aggies home on the short end of the final score.

Sophomore, Junior, Senior, Will See Action

JIMMIE LAWRENCE

JOE COLEMAN

CHARLIE CASPER

Representatives of all three classes eligible for varsity competition will probably see action in the Frog backfield tomorrow when the Schmidtmens tackle the Aggies in the Homecoming game. These three backs—Jimmie Lawrence, sophomore; Joe Coleman, junior, and Charlie Casper, senior, have showed up well in games to date this season.

Miss Lillian Muse, former T. C. U. student who is attending the Teachers College at Durant, Okla., will be on the campus for Homecoming Saturday.

Jimmie Jacks Out With Injured Back

Injuries took another man from the Frog football squad Wednesday.

JACKS

Tuesday it gave him such pain that the Frog coaches sent him to the hospital to investigate the case further. X-ray showed that the vertebrae was cracked, which means that the former Poly end will be on the sidelines for about four weeks and perhaps the rest of the season.

With Jacks on the injured list, Coaches Schmidt and Wolf now have only four wingmen. Captain Jack Graves, Jack Langdon, Wallace Myers and Melvin Diggs.

Seniors and Frosh Win Football Games

Christians Win From Cowboys

Simmons Whipped 20-0 by Brilliant Passing Contest.

Exhibiting a brilliant air attack, the Horned Frog gridders defeated the Simmons University Cowboys 20 to 0 on Frog Field Saturday in their first home game of the season.

Dan Harston, Flash Walker and Howard Pulliam starred on the heaving end of the passing attack, and Jack Kline and Jack Langdon did most of the receiving.

Before the Frogs took to the air the game was a little slow. The Schmidtmens kept the ball in the Cowboys' territory, but apparently lacked the punch to overpower the determined goal-line stand of the Abilene lads and cross the goal via line plays.

Casper Goes to 10-Yard Line
The first score came after about 10 minutes of play. Joe Coleman returned a punt to the Cowboy 21-yard marker, and Casper carried the ball to the 10-yard line. Casper lost 5 yards on an attempted end run, and the Frogs decided to take to the ether.

Harston passed to Casper on the 3-inch line. After Casper had failed to go over on two line plays, Pulliam passed to Graves over the goal for the marker. Pulliam converted.

During the second and third quarters the game was a see-saw affair, with neither team scoring. However, Simmons made a serious scoring threat in the third. Carl Pee completed a 17-yard pass to Odell Winters on the T. C. U. 29-yard line. Hill carried the ball to the 17-yard marker and Pee advanced it to the 10. However, the Frog line held for the next three plays to nip the threat.

Langdon Blocks Punt
In the fourth quarter the Frogs crossed the Simmons goal twice. Heustis of Simmons attempted a quick-kick from his 18-yard line. Langdon blocked the kick and Harston recovered it over the goal for a touchdown. The try for point was missed.

Near the end of the fray, Walker completed a pass from his own 42-yard line to Kline, who carried it to the Cowboy 24-yard marker. After a couple of line plays another pass from Walker to Kline carried the pigskin to the 2-yard line. Two running plays failed to take the ball over, and Walker passed to Langdon for a touchdown. Jewell Wallace converted.
