Two Glee Clubs and Other Musicians In Chorus.

100 Rehearse

Mrs. Cahoon, Mrs. Hubbard and John Brigham Have Solo Parts.

Rollin Pease, nationally-known baritone and head of the voice department at the University of Arizona...

Pease will participate in the oratorio as one of a number of appearances he will make throughout the midwestern states during the Christmas holidays.

Other soloists will be: Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, soprano; Mrs. Fay Fulton Hubbard, contralto, and John Brigham, tenor.

Approximately 100 singers are being rehearsed for the presentation.

Contest May Have Only Two Prizes

Third Gough Award of $5 to Be Given if More Enter.

Unless more students report for the Gough Oratorical Contest the third prize will not be awarded...

"To date there has not been sufficient interest shown to justify a third prize," says Prof. Fallis.

The first prize is $25 cash and a medal of equal value. The second prize is $10, and should there be a sufficient number of entrants a third prize of $5 will be awarded.

Brite Students to Hold Revival

Patrick Henry, Jr., will hold a youth's revival at the Mount Olivet Christian Church in Dallas, from Nov. 26 to Dec. 2.

Ridings Stumps Austin Editor; He Talks Much and Tells Little

Prof. J. Willard Ridings, director of T. C. U. publicity, has theories about psychology, and last Friday in Austin when Ray E. Lee, managing editor of the Austin American, attempted to obtain from him some idea of the Frogs' attitude toward their tilt with the Longhorns...

"The boys are all in good health," he commented, "and ready to take a licking." "Then the Herr Professor calmed down a bit. He sat down on my desk and wanted to know what ailed the Longhorns."

Thanksgiving Program For Sunday Announced

The University Christian Church will have a special Thanksgiving program Sunday morning, the Rev. Perry Gresham, pastor, has announced.

"Tragic Gratitude" will be the subject of the morning sermon. The church choir, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, will sing an anthem at the morning hour.

The Rev. Mr. Gresham will read Dr. Clinton Lockhart's epic poem, "From Ur to Canaan" at the vesper services at 5 p. m. Miss Annabel Hall Bailey will give a vocal solo.

Two Receive Honors Professors Ballard and Hogan Made Science Fellows.

Prof. John W. Ballard and Prof. F. W. Hogan have been named fellows in the American Association for the Advancement of Science, according to a report from national headquarters.

Professors here who are already fellows in the organization are Prof. W. M. Winton, Dr. Newton Gaines, Dr. J. L. Whitman and Dr. Gayle Scott.

Football Is Most Popular Subject Of Skiff Scribes

What's news on the T. C. U. campus?

Files of The Skiff for this year show that most of the big front page stories, those that to a journalist carry a No. 1 or 1 1/2 headline, have to do with football or activities pertaining to football.

Besides the stories on the sports page, there are eight big front-page stories given to football, pep rallies, or special trains to games. Five of these stories have occupied the place of prominence in the left hand-column, and two have carried a No. 1 1/2 head (a two-column headline to you). The only other stories that have been given a two-column play are the stories of the Horned Frog popularity revue and Homecoming.

The Horned Frog Band, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. tie third place in Skiff news this fall. Both the band and the "Y" have two stories. There has also been another story on the popularity contest this year.

Stories about the student activity fee, the band sweetheart, the year-book plans, the discontinuance of debating, the Dramatic Club Christmas play, and the letters from T. C. U. students to Brisbane complete the important Skiff stories for the year so far.

Miss Justin and Clarence Crotty Have Play Leads

"Little Town of Bethlehem" to Be Presented Dec. 18.

18 Students in Cast

Dean Harrison and Misses Armstrong and Whittington Will Assist.

Miss Maurine Justin will play the feminine lead and Clarence Crotty will play the male lead in "The Little Town of Bethlehem," Christmas play, which will be presented Dec. 18 in the University Auditorium.

According to Miss Corinne Lewis, director of the production, others who have been selected for the cast are: Miss Frances Talbot, as the maiden; Miss Ruth Connor, Cordelia; Miss Elizabeth Cuthrell, inkeeper's wife; Ralph Spafford, Pompeius; S. A. Wall, Glauco; Miss Evelyn Franklin, Madonna; Waller Moody, master Jew; and Dick Wright, Olin Jones, Leo Lipshitz, Roy O'Brien, Frank Aguirre, Albert Jones, Keith Pickett and Marion Hagler; and Misses Nina Whittington, Madelyn Whitener and Maurine Corder.

Miss Bernice Armstrong is in charge of costumes and the stage, Miss Nina Whittington is in charge of properties, and Dean Harrison is in charge of sound effects.

T. C. U. Has Roach And Lyon, But No "Big, Bad Wolf"

Are the Smiths' keeping up with the Joneses? According to statistics from the registrar's office, the Smiths in the University this year number seven and the Joneses number five. But what about the Browns and the Johnsons? There are six Browns and seven Johnsons.

The Smiths are Albert, Don, James, Jessie, Ralph, Fred, and William; the Joneses are Albert, Eva, Jeanette, John and Olin; the Johnsons are Bernice, Frank, Clyde, Georgia, Mrs. Helen, Hellen L., and Henry; the Browns are Ernest, Janie, Joe, Lynn, Vernon and "Miss Vernon." Yes sir, Vernon Brown esquire is a freshman from San Antonio and Miss Vernon Brown is a co-ed from Fort Worth.

So-o- young men of the "court" don't get your Vernons mixed. But that's not all about names in T. C. U. For instance we have Brooks, Woods, Hills, Moss, and a Flood. There are two Picketts, a Potter, five Millers, and a Gardner enrolled, besides a Rock, a Rose, a Savage, and a Wise Mann.

Named on Committee Prof. R. A. Smith Appointed Member of National Group.

Prof. Raymond A. Smith, head of the School of Education was recently appointed a member of a national committee on education for a new America.

The appointment was made by Paul C. Stetson, president of the department of superintendence of the National Education Association, at the association headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Dean Hall and Hutton Officiate at Service

Registrar S. W. Hutton presided at the dedication of a pulpit Bible at the Morningside Christian Church last Sunday afternoon in honor of Homer Payne, former T. C. U. student who died in 1927.

The Rev. Mr. Payne was formerly pastor of the Morningside Church. Dean Colby D. Hall brought the message, "The Book of Life."

Prof. F. E. Billington and Miss Bettie Spreen also of T. C. U., were on the program.

Miss Nina Whittington In Automobile Wreck

Miss Nina Whittington was injured in an automobile accident near Burleson Saturday morning about 4 o'clock when the car in which she was riding struck loose gravel and went over a seven-foot embankment.

Miss Whittington and Miss Dimple Creed and Miss Creed's mother were en route to Austin for the Texas game. They were brought to Fort Worth in an ambulance. Miss Whittington suffered severe bruises, but no fractured or broken bones.

To Hold Departmental Meeting

The second English departmental meeting will be held Dec. 8 in Brite Clubroom, according to Dr. Rebecca Smith.

Holiday Dinners Ruin Face, Form, But Who Cares?

There will be no weeping, wailing or gnashing of teeth Wednesday afternoon when school is dismissed for the Thanksgiving holidays. Perhaps no other holiday is so appropriately named from a student's point of view.

Football games, dances, and vacations at home all come in for their share of attention, but none of these can outshine the feasts in store for most collegians. To be sure, feasts are hard on that school-girl complexion and that girlish figure, but complexions will soon return to normal, and Mae Westian figures are the order of the day anyway.

Thanksgiving holidays whet anticipation for the Christmas holidays by showing just how much fun it is to get away from studying for a few days—or away from one's conscience for not studying. The professors, too, have cause to enjoy the holidays. Think what a relief it must be to them to rest after strenuous days of trying to pound knowledge into the average student's cranium.

The Rev. E. B. King To Talk in Chapel

The Rev. E. B. King, pastor of the Hemphill Street Presbyterian Church, will be the chief speaker at the Thanksgiving chapel program next Wednesday morning.

Granville Walker will preside and the Brite College Quartet will furnish special music.

Will Employ Students Remodeled Majestic Theater to Reopen Dec. 6.

Several T. C. U. students will be employed at the Majestic Theater when it reopens Dec. 6, it has been announced.

Jake Atz, former manager of the Fort Worth Baseball Club, will be the new manager of the theater, which has been closed for the past three years.

Sherer Asks Students To Watch Chapel Cuts

Four unexcused chapel cuts mean the loss of one hour toward graduation, according to Prof. C. R. Sherer, who is in charge of chapel attendance.

The list of chapel absences is posted on the bulletin board in the front hall each week and students are urged to take note of their cuts. Prof. Sherer asked that excuse cards be sent in promptly and that any corrections in seating be made as soon as possible.

A record is kept in the registrar's office of the number of hours lost by chapel cuts and a note is made on the transcript when a student transfers to another college.

Nov. 30 to Dec. 4 Are Thanksgiving Holidays

Thanksgiving holidays for T. C. U. students, will begin at the close of school work Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 29, and will continue through Sunday, Dec. 3. All classes and laboratories will meet Wednesday afternoon.

Double cuts will be given for absences at the last meeting of each class before the holidays and the first meeting of classes after the holidays.

Mrs. Beckham to Go to Mexico

Mrs. Sadie Beckham will leave Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays on a sightseeing trip to Monterey, Mexico. Mrs. Beckham plans to go with Miss Lucy Smith and Miss Smith's brother. She will return Monday.

Giant Pep Rally Begins at 8:30 O'Clock Tonight at Texas Hotel; 45-Minute Program to Be on Air

Pickett Urges Students to Attend and Take Part in Meeting—Shirt-Tail Parade and Band Show Follow.

A giant Frog-Owl pep rally to be staged tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the crystal ballroom in the Texas Hotel will be broadcast over radio station KTAT, according to Tom Pickett, head yell leader.

Band Will Sponsor "All-College" Party

An "all-college" party at the Worth Theater will be sponsored by the Horned Frog Band tonight immediately after the pep meeting at the Texas Hotel, according to Robert Mitchell, band president.

Tickets are 25 cents each and may be obtained from bandmen in the halls this morning, or tonight at the pep meeting.

"To take advantage of this special admission price, tickets must be purchased from bandmen before they go to the Worth," said Mitchell. "Those who do not obtain this special ticket will have to pay regular prices," Mitchell said.

The picture is "My Weakness," with Lillian Harvey and Lew Ayres. Additional attractions will be a vaudeville show and several short subjects.

Noel Roberts Will Talk at "Y" Meeting

"A College Graduate's Philosophy of Life" Subject for Tuesday Night.

"A College Graduate's Philosophy of Life" will be discussed by Noel Roberts, graduate of T. C. U. in 1933, at a Y. M. C. A. meeting next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in Clark parlor, according to Fred Miller, president of the "Y."

Roberts was prominent in Y. M. C. A. work while attending T. C. U., and he is now a physical instructor at the downtown "Y." His lecture follows a series of three by Prof. E. W. McDiarmid on "A College Man's Philosophy of Life," which was concluded last Tuesday night.

Marriage Is Discussed Mrs. Mildred Morgan Speaks to Group in Auditorium.

Mrs. Mildred Morgan, noted lecturer and author, spoke to the student body this morning in the University Auditorium. Mrs. Morgan's subject was "Modern Marriage."

A men's quartet from I. M. Terrell High School sang negro spirituals. Brite chapel was dismissed so that the group could hear Mrs. Morgan's lecture.

Ach Got! Herman, De German Band De're Back Still

"Ach du Lieber Augustine, etc!" and the Little German Band of T. C. U. will blare forth for the first time this year at the football game tomorrow between the Owls and the Frogs.

"All the old numbers," says Roy Bacus, who will swing the rubber-capped baton, "will be played, including the theme song, 'Goofus,' 'Jetz Gets Los,' 'Bier Hier, Bier Hier!' and 'Hi Le, Hi Lo.'"

"The heavy, bushy beards, the shining uniforms and the medals will all be in full evidence as the German musicians go about their work," says Bacus.

Ronald Wheeler, square-headed German, will render a vocal solo as a feature of the program to be given during the "time-outs" the last half. Others who will be in the band are C. E. Beene, Charles Oswald, Hays Bacus, Clyde Hurley, Walter Petta, Kenneth Vaughn, Ed Warren and Don Gillis.

8 Will Attend Austin Meeting

Two From T. C. U. Will Be on State Teachers' Program.

Several members of the T. C. U. faculty will attend the fifty-fifth annual convention of the Texas State Teachers' Association in Austin next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Dr. J. L. Whitman is chairman of the chemistry section of the association. He will read a paper, "Alchemists, Old and New," before the assembly Friday.

Prof. Walter S. Knox will speak at a luncheon given by the physical education section Friday at noon. Knox is vice-president of the group.

Miss Mabel Major, Dr. Rebecca Smith and Mrs. Artemisia Bryson will attend a meeting of the Conference of College English Teachers of Texas in Austin Friday.

Dean Colby D. Hall will leave for Austin Wednesday to take part in a meeting of the Commission on Coordination. The purpose of the commission is to develop a series of tests, similar to the nation-wide achievement tests, that can be given throughout the high schools and colleges of Texas. He will remain in Austin for the meeting of the Teachers' Association.

Prof. S. W. Hutton, Prof. Raymond A. Smith will also attend the convention.

The meeting, which will be held on the campus of the University of Texas, will stress the responsibility, the reorganization and the needs of the schools in the recovery of the nation, according to Prof. Smith.

B. Sargent Elected to Council

Ben Sargent was elected student council member from the junior class at a meeting last Friday in the auditorium. The election was necessitated because of the withdrawal from school of Mrs. Christine Ackers Cagle, former member.

T. C. U. 30; Texas 0!

Hail, all hail! T. C. U. Congratulations and praise are in order for the showing of the Horned Frogs in Austin Saturday. The Purple and White flag was raised to an even higher position of esteem and respect than it has been for years.

Saturday no one anticipated such an outburst of devastating football as the T. C. U. team exhibited. In the main, the game was expected to determine which of the two teams was the weaker.

The name of T. C. U. was broadcast through the United States as one of the leading teams of the day. On a nationwide hookup of the N. B. C. the T. C. U. Victory March was played with the songs of leading schools in the country.

And so we say congratulations to Coaches Schmidt and Wolf and every player on the team for winning such honors for the University.

The Library Quiet Rule

During the past week attempts have been made by library officials to eliminate all talking in the library, both at night and in the day time.

It is true that a great amount of unnecessary talking takes place within the walls of the Mary Coats Burnett building. On the other hand some of this unnecessary talking might turn out to be necessary.

There are two classes of students who talk in the library. Some hold conversations regarding school work and some talk of things far removed from books. After taking these two different classes into consideration, the library officials should look twice before calling some student down for talking.

There is a limit to all things and there should be a limit to the conversations carried on in the library, but there are times when these limits should be broadened.

As Sure As Fate

In a college man's life there are many deadlines. The athlete knows the significance of this statement by the sureness with which the most dreaded games approach. The student who has taken his academic work rather lightly shudders as he feels the inevitable examinations approach—each day going by with no power on earth to stop it.

Has the student developed his will power along the course of deadlines? Does he view the approaching situation with the calmness of a martyr, the courage of a Cossack?

"Be prepared" is truly the motto of the wise but it means much more than just that. It means that he who goes through the crisis with a steady hand has foreseen the event, has carefully made ready for the day.

The wise student does not trick himself into forgetting the examination because it is several weeks away, neither does the athlete who strives for victory seek relief by forgetting the crucial game. Both lay the foundation of success day by day with whatever equipment is needed, thereby experiencing sureness and confidence, instead of fear and hysteria.

For the Conference to Decide

A University of Arkansas football player who participated in games against T. C. U., Baylor and Rice has been declared ineligible by Arkansas officials because he played on the University of Nebraska team last year.

Daily newspaper reports have commented on the position T. C. U., Baylor, Rice and other conference schools should take on the question of whether or not Arkansas should forfeit the three games in which the ineligible man participated. Arkansas officials have naturally refused to forfeit the games voluntarily.

It is not the place, however, of T. C. U., Baylor, Rice or any other individual school to express any opinion as to what Arkansas should do. Conference officials will meet Dec. 9, and the conference is the body which should make decisions in the case. The only action the schools should take is to urge the conference to lay down a clear, cut decision, whether it be in favor of or against forfeiture.

Let's Name the Stadium!

For the last three years The Skiff has been behind a "name-the-stadium" movement, which has failed to materialize, mostly due to the fact that the students have read the editorials and comments, talked the situation over and said that such a movement was a great thing, and then turned right around and let the matter drop without doing anything about the matter.

The T. C. U. stadium is one of the few such places in the Southwest without a name. Texas University boasts of its huge Memorial Stadium, S. M. U. has its Ownby Bowl, Carroll Field is sometimes used before the name of the school, down at Baylor University. The Texas Aggies rave about the one and only Kyle Field.

Do You Know Your Councilmen?

The Student Council is a body which represents the student body and makes decisions for the entire group. Members of the council are supposed to conform to the will of the student body on questions which are brought before it, but few, if any, students ever tell a councilman their opinions on student-body matters.

Do you know who the council representatives of your class are? The council is made up of the following members: Student-body officers, Rex O'Brien, president; Lynn Brown, vice-president, and Miss Mary Jarvis, secretary-treasurer.

Get acquainted with these councilmen. Tell them your ideas on student-body questions.

Jersey Numerals Were Worn First By Frogs in 1927

Squadmen Are Proud to Bear Numbers of Former Stars.

25 Graves' Number

Jimmy Lawrence Wears No. 8 Which Once Belonged to Howard Grubbs.

T. C. U. Horned Frog football players have not always worn numbers on their backs in football games. In the early days the fans only knew the players as they recognized them on the field. Now that people have become more and more interested in football and the large stadiums have come into existence where the fans have to sit so far off that they can not recognize the players, the players have to be identified by the numbers which appear on the back of their jerseys.

T. C. U. did not employ this method until the fall of 1927. Before that time the fans had to depend upon recognizing the players from the sidelines.

Jake Williams Wore No. 1.

Many great players have worn numbers in T. C. U. that the present squadmen are proud to be wearing. The No. 1 jersey worn by Richard Allison was first worn by Capt. Jake Williams, retiring leader of the '25 Horned Frogs. Barney Adams, soph in '31 who failed to return to school, next used the initial numeral, and then it was passed to Allison. Allison is a tackle just as Williams was. Williams is still playing football with the Chicago Bears, a pro team.

Howard Pulliam's No. 2 first saw light on the back of Buzz Morgan, next on Paul Snow, then on Pulliam. No. 3 was first flashed by the great Herman Clark, then by Red Eddie-man, Lee Bassinger, and now Judy Truelson is carrying it on through the battles. Only two men have worn the jersey bearing No. 4, Ivar Reid and Possum Clark.

Casper Has Leland's Number.

Charlie Casper's No. 5 first came into prominence through the efforts of Slim Steadman. Cy Leland was next and Casper followed Cy. Albert Flynn and Jewell Wallace are the job wearers of No. 6, as are Clyde Robinson and Rex Clark of No. 7. Howard Grubb's No. 8 was laid aside until Jimmie Lawrence came along and now the Harington flash is making history, again with the once famous number.

Henry Taylor, Howell Hopkins, Ad Dietzel and Slim Kinzy almost wore out the No. 9 sweater before Tracy Kellow came along. Jay Williams and Jack Shackelford first wore Willis Cannon's No. 10. Blackie Williams, and Foster-Howell both made grid history wearing the Purple and White No. 11 jersey, now worn by Wilson Grosselose. Melvin Digg's present No. 12 was at different times worn by J. C. Boyd and Ernest Brown.

Bear Wolf was the first owner of the Jinx No. 13. Since then Buck Barr and Ad Dietzel have made history under its influence. This number was saved for Dietzel but he did not return to school and the number is not being used this year. No. 14 was issued to Woodson Arnes this season but he, too, failed to return to school. Virgil Roberts first wore the number.

Lynn Brown's No. 15 was used by Clifton Bruce and Standard Lambert. Leo Butler has been the sole wearer of No. 16. Otis Thompson and Grassy Hinton struggled along in Jimmie Jack's No. 17. Paul Hill wore No. 18, which was worn by Ben Boswell. Otis Still used to have Elmer Seybold's No. 19. The late Sket Copeland used Joe Coleman's No. 20. Bobby Snow is wearing Pap Pruitt's old No. 21 jersey. Pruitt wore 22 one year but traded it off to Dietzel.

Meyer Wore Pair of Deuces.

Dutch Meyer used the pair of deuces (22) first and then Dan Salkeld wore it. Darrell Lester is using this number.

ber this year. Buster Walker and Hubert Dennis used No. 23. Tiny Godwin is wearing No. 24, which was worn by Lon Evans. Roy Eury first owned Capt. Jack Graves' No. 25. Ed Hays and Motsey Handler have been the sole pair to wear No. 26. James Simpson is wearing No. 27, which was made famous by Noble Atkins and J. W. Townsend. George Kline is wearing Buster Brannon's old No. 28.

BY THE SEA

O let me live a while beside the sea, Where I may watch its steady ebb and flow, And look beyond as far as sight can go

To see the blue meet blue in harmony, While at my feet the wavelets merrily, Like children playing, scamper to and fro;

The wind's caress will give my face a glow And wake a song within the heart of me.

There with my cheek against the soft cool sand I can forget the weary haunts of men; There I can feel that God is close at hand.

That he and I and nature are akin, O let me linger there beside the sea And know the joy that comes of being free.

ber this year. Buster Walker and Hubert Dennis used No. 23. Tiny Godwin is wearing No. 24, which was worn by Lon Evans. Roy Eury first owned Capt. Jack Graves' No. 25. Ed Hays and Motsey Handler have been the sole pair to wear No. 26. James Simpson is wearing No. 27, which was made famous by Noble Atkins and J. W. Townsend. George Kline is wearing Buster Brannon's old No. 28.

Dan Harston wears the No. 29, which was first used by John Hammond. Bob Alexander and Harlos Green were the early wearers of Jack Langdon's No. 30. Rags Matthews' No. 31 has never been issued to a Horned Frog player since Rags' departure. Bob Curran, Vance Woolwine and Lucy Phelps wore No. 32. Ed Wells, John Washmon, and Red Oliver used to wear Taldon Mantou's No. 33. Red is still wearing that number out on the West Coast.

Otha Tiner at one time wore Harold Fullenwider's No. 34. Merlin Toier, Kenneth Moore, and Newsome Gay used to wear No. 35, which is now being used by Flash Walker. B. W. Spearman and Red Stanton have been wearers of No. 36. Red Moore and Doc Summer used to wear No. 37. Leo Swafford wore No. 38 before Bud Taylor came along. Wallace Myers owns the No. 39, which was at one time worn by Abe Martin.

Perkins Bears No. 40. Cy Perkins is wearing the No. 40 which Norman Welsh handed down. John Hirstine and T. W. Carpenter at one time wore Heard Floore's No. 41. Lee Bassinger is wearing James O'Brien's old No. 42. No. 42 was worn by Baldy Baxter and Wesley Green. Mike Brumelow and Johnny Vaught were the sole owners of No. 44. John Kitchen is wearing Austin Griffith's old No. 45.

Fain Reynolds, Hal Wright, Dan Peyton and Ellis Taylor used to wear No. 46. Ed Sain and Lucy Phelps once wore No. 47. Harry Aker's No. 48 has never been worn since his departure. Harvey Thomas wore No. 50 one season. One season Cy Perkins wore No. 53. Jack Langdon used No. 55 and Speedy Allison wore No. 54. The numbers have never been higher than 54. Such numbers as 1, 5, 6, 14, 25, 39, 38, 39, 40, 43 and 45, will be handed down this year. ... wonder who'll get 'em.

Mr. Arthur Brisbane, %Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Dear Sir:

Your despair concerning the peaceful attitude of two hundred Columbia students was noted with interest by a number of students in Texas Christian University. We agree with you that youth of this spirit are detrimental to any type of patriotism based on social prejudice.

It is an easy matter to acquire the philosophy that militarism is the best American international policy. We are not surprised that you have never considered the value of pacifism seriously. But in the light of these facts—that the movement does not enjoy popularity, that it does not have the support of "big business" and that its demands are for a system that would be a complete revision of our economic order—we see no reason why you think it a cowardly movement. These youths are anxious in the most rational sense of the word to see real peace perpetuated among the nations. Fortunately they are a growing group and they realize the modern army has become such an effective instrument that it will have to be completely outgrown if civilization is to survive. You will find that those who stand firm in the struggle for peace and no war will have to keep the courage that will enable them to endure the severest of social opposition.

It is not the spirit of irreverence toward those who have made the supreme sacrifice that youthful pacifism has arisen. It is just a case where there are youths who deliberately believe we can best profit by the heroism of the American soldier by making future wars "taboo" and by furturing the ambition to build a society that has outgrown the illusions which are the cause for all war.

Yours respectfully, Joe Findley, T. C. U. Student.

REVELATIONS

BILL WISE grabbed a fire extinguisher and pursued a victim of his wrath down the halls of an Austin Hotel last week.

JOHN HARRISON, otherwise known as "High School," listened to the war song over the radio and turning to J. FRANK NORRIS asked, "Is that T. C. U.'s song?"

A good example of an optimist is GEORGE COX. He bet $10 that T. C. U. would win the Texas game 40 to 0. Howsomever, he didn't miss it much.

And since ineligibility seems to be the thing these days, HOMER PEELER was declared ineligible—not to play football—but just ineligible. It seems he subs for E. M. Daggett Junior High. JUDY TRUELSON says he owns the football there.

Movies! Jazz bands! Football games! Vaudeville shows! Concerts! The entertainment season is getting away in full dress and last Saturday's football massacre at Austin and the picture "Bombshell" will go down in history as two real entertainments. The football game was no faster than Lee Tracy and Jean Harlow both talking at the same time.

Before tomorrow's entertainment is mentioned the pep meeting tonight and the Horned Frog band show, "My Weakness," at the Worth must be spoken of. The pep meeting will give everyone a chance to be heard over the radio merely by out-yelling everyone else. Now is that not entertainment? Also, the Lew Ayres-Lillian Harvey picture sponsored by the Horned Frog "Thimble Theater" is a wow! Ooo-h that Lillian Harvey!

Tomorrow introduces Constance Bennett in "After Tonight" a story of a spy in war-crazed Vienna. Romance throbs (they say). This picture will be at the Worth. Also the Worth has an unusually good musical offering. "Hell and High Water" begins at the Hollywood with Richard Arlen and Judith Allen. Special entertainment is being offered at the Palace in "Little Women" with Jean Parker, Katherine Hepburn, Frances Dee and Joan Bennett. November 29 the author of the story will be 101 years old.

The Majestic, yes, the Majestic opens tomorrow and will present Bing Crosby's "Too Much Harmony" with singing and gorgeous girls. "Torch Singer" with Claudette Colbert comes to the Majestic Monday and Tuesday.

Co-eds Have Said Enough-- Now Collegiate Men Speak

By ROY BACUS.

Enough! Yes, enough has been said about the clothes which the fair co-eds wear on the college campus—the blues, the browns, etc., etc. What about the men?

Since much space has been devoted to what the co-ed wears, let us announce the styles for the up-to-date collegian. First he must have a pair of corduroy pants.

That is an absolutely necessary accessory. The freshman's corduroys should be perfectly clean and only as old as his college career. The sophomores' pants may be slightly soiled and bear the marks of a year's usage, while the junior's trousers should have that well-worn look. The senior's corduroys must be of such an age that when he takes them off they will stand alone.

As for colors in the corduroys, they may be ultra-marine blue, tortoise yellow, or communist red, but they must be of a distinctive color, or else they will be out of style. For those who do not prefer the louder colors, a robin's egg blue is permissible. The cuff on the trousers may be two inches thick, one inch thick, or there may be no cuff at all. This depends upon whether the mail order house sent them two inches too long, one inch too long or just the right length without a cuff.

To go with the corduroys, a pair of flexible suspenders is the thing. They must be flexible so that they will stand the test when some co-ed comes up and tries the elastic. (The same principle which applies to the testing of the wet paint which is advertised with a sign.)

Socks should never be worn with the corduroys—unless the student has received a half dozen pairs from home instead of a check with which to purchase them. The shoes should be of the "Thom McFlorsheim" variety, but other brands are tolerable. House slippers are the thing when the student is late to class and only has time to slip into them.

For a cloak (top coat, overcoat, vest and all) the suede jacket settles the problem. It should be worn seven days a week and only discarded when the weather is too warm. A sweat shirt or a home-town letter sweater is a substitute for the jacket.

As for head gear, the student should in this respect be a nudist. No hat should be worn unless it is five years old and bears the ear-marks of having been cut, chewed, and mutilated in general.

Things which the student may affect if he belongs to the elite, are a tie and a shoe shine. The tie may be of any color as long as it is in direct contrast to the color of the corduroys.

And that, ladies and gentlemen, is what the well-dressed T. C. U. man wears every day!

New Members Give Club Program

Miss Mary Elizabeth Roark conducted the freshman program presented by new members of Los Hidaigos at a meeting of the organization last week in Brite clubroom.

Participation in a program is the third and last degree of initiation for a new member of the club. The program last week opened with a group-singing of the club song, "Cielito Lindo." Lee Gonzales acted as leader, and Miss Maurine Justin accompanied at the piano.

Two skits, "Who Cut Down the Cherry Tree?" and "The Spectacles," were presented by David Nicol and Weyman Roberson, and by Miss Phyllis Burnam, Miss Marjorie Sewalt and Paul Ornelas. A tap dance by Randolph Wright and a reading, "No Pumpkin Pies for Reckless Guys," by Miss Ruth Justin concluded the new member presentations.

Guest artists were Miss Evelyn Golightly, pianist, who played "Carmela," and Miss Doris Nell Twitty, violinist, who played "Estrellita." Miss Eula Lee Carter, sponsor, exhibited a rare old manuscript of the Mexican play, "La Pastorela." Miss Iris Hays served refreshments to 48 people.

Miss Doris Herndon has returned to school after a week's illness.

International Group Admits Three

Miss Elizabeth Hudson, Eugene Cox and Hubert Stern were voted membership in the International Relations Club, Unit I, at a business meeting Wednesday evening in Brite clubroom.

The fourth in a series of open forum programs presented by the club at various towns and churches will be at the Vaughan Boulevard Christian Church, Sunday, Dec. 3, according to Nat Wells, president. The topic will be world peace.

A regular meeting Wednesday evening, Dec. 6, in Brite clubroom will be held, and the following Thursday evening a program will be presented in Decatur on Roosevelt's foreign policy. In January the group will conduct a program at the First Methodist Church in Kaufman.

Natural Science Club Is Organized

The Natural Science Club is the name of a new organization which has taken the place of the Bio-Geo Club, according to Miss Mary Bowden, president of the new group.

"This change," says Miss Bowden, "was made in order to include more than just those students who study biology and geology. It now includes students of physics and chemistry."

The name was selected by a committee composed of Jack Sigmon, O. B. Jackson and LeRoy Clardy. Sigmon acted as chairman.

Bill Flood is vice-president of the organization and Miss Kathryn Jackson is secretary-treasurer.

Miss Pat O'Banion, who attended T. C. U. last year and is now attending Texas University, will be a visitor on the campus this week-end.

Miss Emma Louise Flake spent the week-end at her home in Cleburne.

Alpha Zeta Pi Groups Meet in Dallas

Eighteen members of the local chapter of Alpha Zeta Pi, national Romanic fraternity, travelled to Dallas Tuesday evening to hold a joint initiation service with the S. M. U. chapter.

Four neophytes of each chapter were initiated at the services, held in the Kirby Hall parlor on the S. M. U. campus. Lee Gonzales, Miss Marjorie Lewis, Tony Vargas and Miss Mary Louise Scott were initiated into the T. C. U. Delta Chapter.

After the services, the combined 36 members of the two chapters attended a Mexican banquet at The Chapultepec. Dr. Josiah Combs, sponsor of the local group, and Miss Louise Calker, president, extended an invitation to the S. M. U. group to attend the national convention in Fort Worth Jan. 1.

Members and ex-members of the T. C. U. fraternity who made the trip were: Misses Martha Laura Rowland, Lewis, Scott, Cauker, Helen Veatch, Maurine Justin, Myrtle Belle Carroll, Louise Ott, Dorothy Henderson, Natalie Gorin, Rita Mae Hall, Dorothy Conkling, Louise Ericson and Frances Schoeber, and Vargas, Gonzales, X. R. Campbell and Dr. Combs.

Ziegler to Speak at Music Club Monday

Prof. Samuel P. Ziegler, head of the art department, and G. L. Messenger, will be the speakers at the next Music Club meeting Monday, Dec. 4, in Room 304 of the Administration Building.

Prof. Ziegler's talk on "The Cello" is the second in a series on various musical instruments. Messenger will demonstrate the bass viol before the members of the club.

Misses Theo Smart and Florence Ackers spent the week-end at the home of the latter in Abilene.

Faculty Attends Mexican Dinner

The bi-monthly social meeting of the T. C. U. faculty was held in the form of a Mexican supper Tuesday night at the home of President E. M. Waits.

The meeting was held in connection with the meeting of the T. C. U. Faculty Woman's Club. Officers of the student body and the four classes were guests.

Arrangements for the supper were in charge of Miss Eula Lee Carter, Mrs. Gayle Scott, Mrs. F. A. Schmidt, Mrs. Georgia Harris, and Miss Mable Major.

A Mexican orchestra furnished music as a background for the dinner. Miss Esther and Frank Reyero danced the national folk dance "El Jarabe," and Nolan Havens sang a group of Mexican songs.

Miss Lide Spragins, Mrs. J. W. Ballard, Mrs. L. R. Meyers, Mrs. E. W. McDiarmid and Mrs. Raymond Wolf assisted in serving the supper.

29 Jarvis Girls Attend Game

Twenty-nine Jarvis Hall girls attended the T. C. U.-Texas game in Austin Saturday.

Those who made the trip are: Misses Lollie Botts, Mary Siedel, Gemma Nunley, Helen Adams, Ruth Bozmar, Helen Woods, Frances Ballenger, Mary Corzine, Mozelle Duckworth, Helen McKissick, Mary Jo Merkt, Bobbie Sue Whitten.

Misses Clyde Johnson, Mary Jarvis, Ruth Campbell, Evelyn Melton, Lois Atkinson, Georgia Johnson, Mary Virginia Wieser, Laura Shelton, Evelyn Golightly, Phyllis Burnam, Judith Witherspoon, Elizabeth Sayles, Grace Maloney, Louise Watson, Evelyn Franklin and Faye Woodall.

George Kline visited his parents in Gregory following the Texas game last week-end.

S. H. Fowler Speaks To Relations Club

S. H. Fowler, secretary of the Fort Worth Negro Y. M. C. A., spoke to the International Relations Club, Group 2, at a meeting in Brite clubroom Wednesday night. "Inter-racial Relations" was the subject of the talk and of the open forum discussion which followed.

Parabola to Hold Banquet Tuesday

Parabola will entertain Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock with a banquet at Steve's Place on Camp Bowie Boulevard. Members who plan to attend are asked to see Prof. C. R. Sherer.

There will be no meeting Thursday evening as scheduled.

Frog-Owl Battle Will Be Fought Here Tomorrow

Rice Boasts of Victory Over League-Leading Razorbacks.

Purples Work Hard

Schmidtmen Must Win to Stay in Race for Conference Championship.

With a conference championship at stake, the Horned Frogs will meet the Rice Owls here tomorrow afternoon in their annual grid tilt. A victory for the Frogs will place them one game nearer a second consecutive Southwest Conference championship—something never before attained by any team.

The Feathered Tribe is more or less out of the championship running, but that doesn't signify that they are by any means a weak ball club. Two weeks ago the Owls upset the league-leading Arkansas Razorbacks. They invaded Fort Worth early this morning, with high hopes of avenging the defeats handed them by the Purple and White during the past five years.

Coaches Schmidt and Wolf settled down to hard work Monday afternoon drilling their charges on a defense and an offense which they hope will leave the Frogs with a victory tomorrow afternoon when the referee sounds his gun, marking the end of another historic T. C. U.-Rice grid battle.

Owls Tough Last Year.

In Houston last year the Owls came within inches of knocking the Frogs from their championship throne. Fresh from decisive victories over Baylor and Texas, the Frogs journeyed to the Bayou City thinking the Owls to be a set-up. Instead of meeting a lowly tribe of Birds, the '32 champions came in contact with one of the hardest-charging football teams in the conference. In the early minutes of play Red Oliver grabbed a fuke pass from Hubert Dennis and galloped across the goal line for a touchdown. This by no means dimmed the fighting spirit of the Feathered Tribe, and before the game was any too old the Owls had scored a touchdown and were well on their way to another when Jack Langdon intercepted one of their passes. They outplayed the Frogs in every department throughout the greater part of the game.

The Owls have never defeated the Frogs in Fort Worth, and during the last five years have failed to score a victory over a Schmidt-coached eleven.

Frogs at Full Strength.

The Frogs emerged from the Texas tilt without any serious injuries and will be at full strength tomorrow, with the exception of Jimmy Jacks and Paul Hill, who have turned in their suits because of serious injuries. Tuesday afternoon Coaches Schmidt and Wolf called their cohorts into a huddle and explained to them the situation of the conference today, stressing the point of what a victory would mean to the Frogs tomorrow.

"The Owls were at their best last year when we met them, and the same will be true Saturday," the Purple mentors said. "Just because you beat Texas, don't think that those Owls will be as easy to overcome.

Owls Are Due to Kick.

"They have been tossed around by most of their opponents this year and are about to get tired of it. They will be set for us just as we were for Texas. Fight overconfidence and think of nothing but beating those Owls Saturday," the coaches said as they closed the huddle.

Burr-Head's SPORT GOSSIP

By CHARLIE CASPER

A GAIN the "impossible" was accomplished in Austin Saturday when the Frogs beat a Longhorn eleven. That was a great feat but here's a feat that is even greater. . . if the Frogs can lick the Owls and Mustangs there is a chance of their repeating as champions of the Southwest Conference, something which has never been done before by any school. The assignment is a tough one, but if the Purples can keep the ole fight and spirit which they maintained in the Texas game. . . well, I've just got a hunch that they'll come through. "A team is only good when it's going its best" is the belief of Coach and Bear, and when the Frogs are going their best it's going to take a good ball club to beat them. It's true that we beat Texas but lest you forget we've got Rice and S. M. U. to play yet. . . and I mean they are tough.

Congratulations, students, for the fine spirit which you have shown during the last few days. Those signs which have been placed up over the campus mean a lot to the ball club and they will be doing all that is within their power to make you proud of them. We go on the air with a pep meeting tonight and with the co-operation of the entire student body it can be a success. Through the efforts of Foster-Howell, veteran Frog grid warrior who has turned to radio announcing, a giant pep rally is going to be put on a chain hook-up tonight over KTAT. Students, let's make it a big one.

A lot of people have asked me during the week who the faculty member was who brought friends to a pep meeting that I was talking about last week in my column. The faculty member was Albert Smith ("call me Al and give me a chew of climax") trainer of all Frog athletic teams. Few people around the campus ever come in contact with Smitty and for that reason I wish to bestow some honors on him that haven't been bestowed before. He may and may not be classed as a faculty member but he is under the same jurisdictions; therefore he is, in my opinion, a faculty member.

The times are few when Smitty gets to come up on the campus and visit. The work of taking care of the injured athletes and seeing that their equipment is in the best of condition, takes up most of his time down at the stadium. When one of the boys receives an injury, the first person he thinks of is Smitty. On some of the trips this year the school has failed to send him with the team and I mean to tell you the boys as a whole have raised plenty of Cain. He takes care of the boys during the week and then when he isn't around to tape them up at a game. . . well Hades tears loose. Smitty is to the Frog ball team what a doctor is to a new-born babe. He takes care of the players just as though they were a bunch of kids. Sometimes he gets sore and fusses about something but he soon forgets the anger and is smiling again in less than no time. With what that guy has to put up with, you can't blame him for fussing at times.

The ball club wants to thank those concerned for sending Smitty with the ball team on some trips this year. He's more help than a person realizes. The point I'm now getting at is that he should make all the trips with the team, for they need him more than you can realize. No matter where you look you'll find only one Smitty.

Flashes what are hot: Graves tried to tell me that he was from South Texas. . . A polite co-ed complimenting the column for fear I would tell somebody about her waiting for Lynn Brown the other night in front of Goode. . .

Frog Gridders Smother Texas Steers 30 to 0

Charlie Casper Races 105 Yards to First Touchdown.

Ground Plays Click

Schmidtmen Travel From Own 20-Yard Line to Score in Seven Tries.

T. C. U.'s Horned Frogs ran rough-shod over the Texas University Longhorns in Austin Saturday to hand them a 30-to-0 defeat, the worst ever suffered by Texas in a conference grid game.

Charlie Casper, fleet senior Frog half, furnished the greatest thrill of the game and took the starch out of the Longhorn defense by running back the opening kickoff of the battle 105 yards for a touchdown.

Casper received the ball five yards behind his own goal. With Jimmy Lawrence running interference, he ran about 30 yards down the center of the field. Aided by excellent blocking by his teammates, he cut through a swarm of Orange-clad warriors to the sideline on his right and scampered down the sideline to midfield. Then he broke toward the center of the field into the clear and sprinted to the goal line untouched.

Coleman Kicks Goal.

Joe Coleman, quarter, was run into the game, and he kicked goal for the extra point.

Near the end of the first quarter, Dan Harston, Lawrence and Rex Clark advanced the ball to the Texas 11-yard line on a series of line plays. The ball was here when the quarter ended.

As the second period opened, Casper went through the line for four yards. From this position, Jewell Wallace, halfback, place-kicked a field goal to add three more points to the Frogs' score. No more scoring was done in the first half, and it ended with T. C. U. leading 10 to 0.

Running Attack Unleashed.

The Longhorns staged an offensive burst at the beginning of the third quarter, but it wilted in a short time. Johnson punted over T. C. U.'s goal to give the Frogs the ball on their own 20-yard marker. Then the Schmidtmen unleashed a running attack that left the Steers wondering what was happening.

From their own 20-yard line, the Horned Frogs marched up the field to a touchdown in seven plays. On the first play Lawrence lost two yards. Casper went around end for five yards. Then Lawrence broke through tackle and away to the Texas 49-yard line. On the next play Johnny Kitchen broke away and went to the Steers' 28-yard line.

Kitchen made four yards, Lawrence carried the ball to the 12-yard line and Casper went over for a touchdown standing up. Coleman missed the try for point.

Passes Intercepted.

The Frogs' last two markers came as a result of intercepted passes. The first one was intercepted by Darrell Lester, center, on the Texas 38-yard line and returned by him to the 21-yard line. Casper and Kitchen carried the ball to the five-yard line, and Lawrence went over for a touchdown standing up. Coleman converted.

Near the end of the quarter, Lawrence intercepted a pass on his own 41-yard line and returned to the Texas 27-yard line. On a couple of plays the ball was advanced four yards; then Clark broke away and was finally downed on the Texas nine-yard line. Harston went through to the six-inch line as the quarter ended.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Dutch Kline went through the center of the line for a touchdown. Coleman kicked goal to end the scoring for the day.

Surprises Steers

JIMMIE LAWRENCE
Jimmie Lawrence of Harlingen, sophomore Frog halfback, caused the Texas Longhorns and their supporters to gasp with surprise and wonder what had happened to their line Saturday in Austin. Time after time the powerful, ramming soph ploughed his way through the Steer forward wall for long gains. Lawrence also played a great defensive game and was a big factor in the Frog's 30-to-0 victory over the Austin crew.

Frog Quintet to Work Out Dec. 6

"Hogcaller" Myers Is Captain of Purple Cage Team.

"We have a great chance of having a championship team this year in basketball," Coach Francis A. Schmidt said this week.

The Frog cagers will take their initial workout Wednesday, Dec. 6, according to Coach Schmidt. Although the loss of Sumner, Brannon and Dietzel will weaken the team, there will be plenty of new strength to use in their places.

Wallace Myers will lead the team as captain. Those who will return this year are: Myers, Richard Allison, Hersel Kinzy, Flash Walker, Robert Chappell, Cy Perkins, Judy Truelson and Dan Harston. Darrell Lester, Willis Cannon, Ronald Wheeler, Wilson Groseclose and Vic Montgomery will come up from the Frosh team.

The T. C. U. conference schedule is as follows:

- Jan. 6, Texas at Austin.
- Jan. 12, Arkansas at Fayetteville.
- Jan. 13, Arkansas at Fayetteville.
- Jan. 20, S. M. U. at Fort Worth.
- Feb. 3, A. & M. at Fort Worth.
- Feb. 6, Baylor at Waco.
- Feb. 10, A. & M. at College Station.
- Feb. 12, Rice at Houston.
- Feb. 17, S. M. U. at Dallas.
- Feb. 20, Baylor at Fort Worth.
- Feb. 23, Texas at Fort Worth.
- Feb. 26, Rice at Fort Worth.

Sophomores Win Intramural Race

Champs Will Receive Silver Footballs as Awards.

Final Intramural Standings.	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Sophs	6	0	0	1.000
Frosh	4	2	0	.666
Juniors	1	4	1	.375
Seniors	0	5	1	.125

With a 13-to-7 victory over the Freshmen Wednesday, the Sophomores became the champions of the intramural football race. The Sophs went through the season undefeated. The Frosh were second in the race.

Members of the sophomore team will receive silver footballs for winning the championship. Those who will get the awards are: Vic Montgomery, R. J. Duckworth, Tom Pickett, Ronald Wheeler, Dave Hickey, J. B. Donnelly, Charles Needham, Paul Ornelas, Johnny Knowles and Charles Oswalt.

The Juniors won from the Seniors by a forfeit.

Intramural basketball will not start until after Christmas, according to W. S. Knox, director of intramural athletics.

Vic Montgomery of the championship Sophomore team was leader in the individual scoring in the intramural race. Montgomery scored 63 points.

The first seven scorers are:

Name	Team	Points
Montgomery	Soph	63
Robertson	Frosh	49
Duckworth	Soph	39
Pickett	Soph	36
Kinzy	Senior	27
Patterson	Junior	24
McGraw	Frosh	22

Miss Virginia Bradford spent the week-end at her home in Mansfield.

Casper in Lead In Point Chase

Charlie Casper, Horned Frog halfback, took the lead in the Southwest Conference individual scoring race by making two touchdowns against the Texas Longhorns in Austin Saturday. Casper has scored 48 points this season.
