The Horned Frog band, under the direction of Prof. Claude Sammis, will furnish music for the affair which is being given in preparation for the T. C. U.-Denton Teachers' game tomorrow afternoon. "Everyone connected with the University is urged to attend this first meeting and get the year started off right. The Frogs deserve a lot of support this season," Pickett said.

Pickett announced that outside speakers would be secured to talk at the more important of subsequent meetings.

To Be Chapel Speaker

Dr. Vawter, Evangelist, Will Speak Wednesday.

Dr. Charlie R. Vawter, evangelist, will be the principal speaker at the regular chapel program next Wednesday. Dr. Vawter is at present holding a revival at the Morningstar Christian church. A former classmate of Dean Colby Hall and Dr. John Lord, Dr. Vawter has held many evangelistic meetings all over the country and at one time went to Australia.

"The Intellectuals in Religion" was the subject of an address delivered by the Rev. Perry Gresham at the chapel hour Wednesday. "Religion should be as necessary to us as the air we breathe," he declared.

At the end of his talk he offered student membership in the University Christian church to all students who desired to affiliate.

Studies Art at Yale.

Charles Clarkson, a sophomore at T. C. U. last year, has entered Yale University. Although Clarkson took a regular academic course here, his main interest is art and he won his entrance to Yale by sending some of art work there. While here he gave several exhibits of his work.

At the first meeting last Sunday morning in Brite College auditorium the speaker was E. G. Graves, secretary and manager of the Fort Worth Retail Merchants' Association. Graves discussed credit as a vital part of modern business. Students from Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Pennsylvania, Kansas and Texas were present at the meeting.

Four-Month-Old Girl Enrolls in Freshman Class

Page Mr. Ripley. There is a co-ed registered in T. C. U. who is only four months old. That is, if one can believe the information contained on an application blank turned in to the registrar's office during freshman week.

The co-ed in question gave as her birthdate, May 28, 1934. The average age of the members of the class of '38 is a little less than 18 years. Approximately 30 per cent of the freshmen approach this average. Thirty-four per cent of the frosh have seen 17 summers, while ten per cent of the group are 20; 13 per cent are 19 and eight per cent are 16. A mere two per cent of the green-capped students have reached the age of 21. The ages range from 15 to 27 years.

Allen Elected Glee Club Head

Marsh Pleased With Rehearsal Representation.

Weldon Allen was elected president of the Men's Glee Club at the first meeting held Wednesday night. Allen succeeds X. R. Campbell, who was elected president of the club last spring but did not return to the University this fall.

Other officers of the club are: Business manager, Pat Henry, Jr., and librarian, G. L. Messenger.

W. J. Marsh, acting director, announced that there was a good representation at the first meeting, but there is still a need for more voices.

"The different sections of the club are well balanced," he said, "but we still need several more voices in each section. I would like to urge that all men in the University who are interested in singing either see me personally or be present at the next meeting of the club."

The next rehearsal will be at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening in Room 301 of the Administration Building. Regular rehearsal periods will be on Wednesday and Friday nights at the same hour.

Plans are now being made for the glee club to make another extensive trip such as it has made for the past three years.

Last year the club made a 12-day tour which extended into five states other than Texas. With Kansas City as the farthestmost point of the trip the group traveled through Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana, appearing in nightly concerts in the principal cities visited. A three-day trip to Wichita Falls and surrounding towns was made earlier in the year.

In previous years trips have been made to South and East Texas.

Musical numbers and talks about the University will make up these programs, which propose to make the public more "T. C. U. conscious." Prof. Claude Sammis is acting as announcer.

Frosh Biology Class? Crowd We'd Call It

Thirty is a class, but 131 is a crowd.

One hundred and thirty-one freshmen, more than two-thirds of the students in the class of '38, were enrolled in the freshman biology class this term. More than a hundred frosh are enrolled in Dr. J. W. Hammond's class in social science.

Eighty-two students are registered for Dr. John Lord's class in American government, while an equal number are enrolled in Dr. W. C. Morro's class in New Testament history.

The enrollment in freshman geology is three times greater than it was last year.

"Y" Hears Elliott At First Meeting

Youth Commands Century Subject of Address Monday Night.

Dr. Edwin A. Elliott gave a talk to the members and prospective members of the Y. M. C. A. Monday night at the club's first meeting of the year. His subject was "Youth Commands a Century."

"The things that the youth of today think and do," Dr. Elliott said, "mold very definitely the thoughts and actions of the succeeding generations."

Elaborating on the central theme, Dr. Elliott pictured the economic and social situation as it exists today and then offered means and opportunity of remedying the situation.

When the N. R. A. was created, Dr. Elliott was called to Washington, then sent to Houston, where he served as labor compliance officer for the N. R. A. He is now serving as regional director of the National Relations Board in the Texas and Oklahoma districts with offices in Fort Worth.

Following an open forum discussion, a violin-clarinet duet was given by Misses Mary Ellen McDaniel and Ruth Duncan.

Students attending the meeting who expressed their intention of becoming members of the organization included Clayton Potter, Carter Boren, John Bailey, Thad Gregory, Charles Wilson, J. B. Tremble, Helman Taylor, Olin Jones, Jim Winton and Jimmy Parks.

Old members who attended were: Bobby Stow, Joe Burkett, Joe Reeder, John Knowles, Harley Patterson, Otto Nielsen, Elton Beene, Jack Langdon, Herman Pittman, Lester Rickman, George Cherrylones, Olin Harrison, Joe Findley, Danton Stallard, Pat Henry, Alden Bradford, Jack Roe, Gail Walley, Will Wetzler, Frank Valencia, Sam Baugh, G. L. Messenger, Hubert Steen, Gene Cox and Lemore Hill.

Dr. Elliott will speak on the Armistice Day chapel program at the University Nov. 7.

Former Students Get M. A.'s and A. B. at Texas U.

Two Master's degrees, a Bachelor of Arts and a fellowship were awarded to former T. C. U. students at the annual summer school graduation exercises of the University of Texas in August.

Weldon Yancey Lacy, '32, received his Master's in business administration, and John Allen Loftin, '23, received his M. A. with a major in education, government, and economics.

The fellowship was awarded to Guy Harold Fox, who received his A. B. from T. C. U. in 1923. Miss Alice Ledgerwood received her A. B. degree with honors.

716 Latest Figure For Registration

The latest figure of the student enrollment in the University is 716, including the registration Monday night of the night class, according to Registrar S. W. Hutton.

"This is about 90 more than we had enrolled at this time last year," Hutton said. "It is a 15 per cent increase."

Several more registrations not filed as yet will increase the total later, he said.

Re-elected

Miss Helen Moody, sophomore, was re-elected sweetheart of the Horned Frog Band this week. She is the first student in the history of the University to receive the honor twice.

Frosh Pictures Now Being Made

Members of Horned Frog Staff Will Be Appointed.

Freshman are urged to have their pictures made for the Horned Frog at Orgain's Studio, 103 1/2 Sixth Street, as soon as possible by Miss Anna Byrd Harness, editor. The price is $1.25.

"The pictures must be made within the next two weeks," Miss Harness said.

"The book this year is to cost several hundred dollars more than the book last year and the co-operation of the student body and the faculty is essential to the publishing of a bigger and better book," according to Jones Bacus, business manager.

The Horned Frog staff is to be appointed soon. Members of the staff will be notified. The first meeting of the staff will be held Thursday night. The first Thursday night of each month will be the regular meeting time of the annual staff, Miss Harness announced.

At the present time the Horned Frog does not have an office, but the members of the staff will be notified of the place, Bacus said.

Her re-election marks the second time Miss Moody has broken the precedent of the band. She was elected band sweetheart last year during her freshman year in the University, the first freshman ever to hold that honor. She served during most of the year, having been elected in November after the withdrawal from the University of Mrs. Christine Ackers Cagle, former sweetheart.

At a meeting held Monday afternoon, Raymond Michero, a junior in the University was elected president of the band. He succeeds Robert Mitchell, who graduated last year. Michero served as secretary-treasurer last year.

Where To?

T. C. U.'s initial home game tomorrow with the North Texas State Teachers' College brings to the students the realization that football season is really at hand and that the student body will soon be called upon to decide upon the destination of the official student body trip.

This season the Frog gridsters will play in Houston, College Station, Dallas, Tulsa, Shreveport and New Orleans.

The Christians journeyed to Shreveport on the official trip last year to witness the Frog-Gentlemen tilt. The railroad rate was comparatively low and the student body was well represented in the Louisiana city.

There are three conference schools on the Frogs' out-of-city schedule this season—A. & M., S. M. U. and Rice Institute. A trip to one of these schools would be most desirable because all are conference opponents and as a result the outcome of the games will be most important. Regardless of where the student body decides to make the official trip, a special train to College Station is fitted out each year by a group of Fort Worth business men.

A trip to New Orleans for the Loyola game would afford the student body an opportunity of viewing one of the most picturesque cities in the country, but the expense of making the trip would be so great that a representative group probably could not make the journey.

The student body should begin thinking now about which they think would be most suited for the official trip.

Freshman Notebook
By GROVER C. LEE

Such crust! A sarcastic upper-classman asks, "Are there any brilliant freshmen?" Among the high honor freshmen in attendance at T. C. U. are C. H. Richards, valedictorian, and Richard Poll, salutatorian, of Stripling High School; W. A. Welsh and G. A. Bergman, salutatorians of Central High School, and Woodrow Pierson of Dawson High.

It's too bad that sophomores don't erase their books before selling them. For instance, one fresh found this note plainly inscribed on the cover of a book formerly the property of Miss R. C., now a sophomore: "Who should I see in the hall but L. D. M. and he asked me where I was going. 'Rehearsing,' says I, and says he, 'Let's us rehearse.' I answered, 'We never did need practice,' and then he walked off to join some boys that were waiting, saying, 'No, my love, you're the type for the real thing, not the practice.'" Ain't love grand?

Catherine Tuscany says she wishes she could tell Paul Ridings, former senior class president of Central High School, around her finger, but it looks as if Martha Rudmose has other things to say in the matter.

William Barney, Mary Beth Holmes, and Maurine Bush, all freshmen, have been appointed on the staff of the 1935 Horned Frog.

And for believe-it-or-nots, how's this? Byron Buckeridge, selected by W. A. Welsh as his campaign manager for the presidency of the freshman class, defeated his own candidate by the overwhelming majority vote of 69 to 39. Buckeridge is a most capable young gentleman and for that matter so is Welsh, who, by the way, was one of the best high school debaters in Texas last year.

Speaking of the election, it wasn't Bob Harrell's football record that made him vice-president of the '38ers. Rather and most peculiarly at that, it was a torn pair of pants and a bashful, good-natured "I can take it" air.

"Puss" Erwin has certainly been strutting his stuff on the Wog gridiron, and, according to those who have seen the Luffkin backfield ace in action, it looks as if "Puss" will turn out to be one of the classiest backs in the conference.

NEZ HALLET—Nex, you asked me to put your name in this column. There 'tis! How does it look?

There are many things we can do without these days. One of them is Alice Virginia Martin's joke about the hot dogs.

Out of the Past
By Margaret Berry

One Year Ago Today—
Chapel programs were changed from three a week, two for freshmen and sophomores, and one for juniors and seniors, to one a week for everybody.

The freshmen had their annual prom and last year when they said prom they meant PROM, believe you me! And—

Five Years Ago Today—
The Y. W. C. A. inaugurated the Big Friend-Little Friend movement which until this year was only for girls.

Francis Schmidt, new coach, was introduced to the student body at a big pep rally preceding the Daniel Baker game.

Miss Helen Jackson was elected sweetheart of the Horned Frog band, but—

Ten Years Ago—
The Mary Coats Burnett Library and the stadium behind the new library were dedicated.

The literary societies of Add-Ran, Clark, Shirley, and Walton were abolished because they were accused of tearing down the democratic spirit of the University. Now—

Fifteen Years Ago—
Headline reading "University Weathers Storm" concerned a trial for hazing the freshmen in which the whole student body was involved and the student body president dismissed but later re-instated as everything was settled amicably. Shades of last year!

manities curriculum may bring with them to final examinations any texts, notebooks, or reference material they choose.

Irvine Warburton, University of Southern California's all-American grid star, has been rejected for a roll in a football picture because he "didn't look like" a football player.

A survey of 156 colleges and universities show that the scholarship averages of fraternity men in the majority of these institutions are higher than those of non-fraternity men.

WHAT'S WHERE

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street," the screen version of one of the most famous love affairs in history—that between the poet, Robert Browning and the poetess, Elizabeth Barrett—will begin a six-day run at the Worth Theater tomorrow. Fredric March is cast as the ardent Browning while Norma Shearer enacts the role of the invalid Elizabeth. Charles Laughton appears in the grim role of the elder Barrett, who opposes the romance.

An old favorite returns to the Hollywood screen today after an absence of more than a year. He is the bespectacled Harold Lloyd, who is appearing in "The Cat's Paw." Complications arise when Lloyd, son of a missionary returned to America, is put up for public office. He is assisted in this picture by Una Merkel.

Charlie Chan is at it again. Warner Orland, playing the part of the famous Chinese detective appears this time in "Charlie Chan in London." This will start tomorrow at the Palace.

The Majestic, continuing its double feature policy, offers the winsome Loretta Young in "Born to Be Bad" and Myrna Loy, who scored such a success in "Thin Man" and George Brent in "Stamboul Quest."

Manager George Smith of the Lake Worth Casino is expecting a big crowd for the Cab Calloway hop Oct. 6.

Nat Wells is going to Columbia University to study law.

ODE TO A CATERPILLAR
(The Fuzzy Kind)

O wooly worm, so plump, so soft,
Ah, noble, furry drawn-out bug,
You crawl upon the ground much like
A walking piece of Persian rug!

Sir fuzzy, wuzzy wooly worm,
Of countenance so fine and grave,
You're neatly dressed in a dainty brown
But yet you plainly need a shave!

Sweet dark brown worm, dear wooly thing,
For wonderment I heave a sigh,
To think, with neither cream nor churn
You swiftly make the butter fly!

—Everett Gillis.

"Class Contact" Committee Names

"Key Men" to Be Named From Each Class Since University's Founding.

In a serious effort to fulfill long felt need for a more intimate and personal association among the alumni, Mrs. Charles A. Stephens, president of the Texas Christian University Alumni Association, recently appointed a "Class Contact" committee.

"This committee, which is already at work compiling a list of all graduates of the school, has its main purpose the selection of "Key-Men" from each class that has graduated from the institution since it was founded. The duties of these "key-men," who will receive the full co-operation of the contact committee, will be the preparation of brief news items about the members of their particular class for publication in the "Echo." These news items are to include not only such statistical information as births, deaths and marriages, but also any and all information concerning an ex-student about which his class-mates will be glad to read," Mrs. Stephens said.

The Meliorist Club

The University Christian Church has progressed during the past year to the satisfaction of those most concerned and has become an integral part of the campus and student life at T. C. U.

But the Church is not content to stand idle, now that it has obtained its foothold in the trend of things. It is always looking toward bigger and better ways of making the church a center of worthy activities and a place that interests everyone.

Last Sunday evening, after the services, students and friends met in the recreation room of the church and organized the Meliorist Club.

Throughout the year similar programs will be held by the club. Programs of fellowship, discussion of current events and singings will be under the direction of Miss Opal Gooden who is a graduate of the University and who knows and understands the needs of the students because of her association with students for many years.

The Skiff offers a toast to Miss Gooden and the success of the Meliorist Club. May it flourish and grow into an organization that influences and guides the lives of all who seek the better things.

"That Fighting Spirit"

Editorials and more editorials have been written urging the student body to show the "ole fight" and the "ole Frog Spirit."

Since tomorrow ushers in the 1934 football season, it is again time to offer a brief pep talk through this column. There are many ways in showing the fighting spirit besides taking your place in the east stands and with the kick-off starting your vocal cords to ringing. You'll probably leave the game avowing that the "fighting spirit" is not worth the agony of a sore throat. Any one who has this conception of school spirit is laboring under misapprehensions.

Spirit is a display, of course, of life, ardor and energy. But let's direct the energy and animation toward the better outlets of expression.

The boys are on the field 60 minutes. They're in your classrooms, clubs, and you contact them in some way almost every day. A word of praise and appreciation could be given them at such a time. Whether you are personally acquainted with them or not, tell them how well they did their part in the game. You'll be showing some of that "ole spirit."

What's In a Name?

William Shakespeare once said, "What's in a name?" That which we call a rose, by any other name would smell as sweet.

Perhaps Shakespeare was right. As long as you have a thing, what does it matter what appellation you attach to that thing?

That, however, is but one way of looking at the matter. A name sometimes means a great deal when it has a whole body of tradition behind it.

The name "Freshman Prom" has been an institution at the University for years.

So zealous were the councilmen in doing away with the last vestiges of the institution, they thought it wise to drop the name of the affair. The recollection of the "Prom" as it was conducted in previous years, is not the most pleasant memory in the world, it is true.

"In many American colleges, a dance or ball given by a class." This is one of the definitions Mr. Webster gives to the word "prom." The word need not necessarily connote an aimless stroll.

Change is a great thing—as long as it is for the better. As long as everyone in the University calls the affair the "Freshman Prom" anyway, why not make it the official name?

Collectors

Are you a collector?

The hobby of collecting has advanced by great strides during the past few years in the United States. Some people enjoy collecting stamps while others are fascinated by foreign coins. The fields for collections are legion.

There are collectors in all walks of life, but there is one type of collector peculiar to college campuses. This collector is, in one sense of the word, an art fancier. He collects his "art" from library books and magazines.

Any book that contains a piece of art that strikes this collector's fancy is in dire danger. Any picture, map or diagram contained in a library book that happens to appeal to this collector is likely to end up on the walls of his room.

This collector has other characteristics too. He is not often imbued with an overabundance of energy. If he has to write a theme he does not bother to take notes from a reference book—he merely tears the pages from the book and takes the information with him.

There are one or more of these collectors on every campus.

Told you so! You had a good time? Sure you did, didn't we all? Didn't everyone look pretty? Some of the "formals" were typical of premiere showings of the latest fashions from "Paree" or Fifth Avenue. # Live Dogs Too Easy to Find; Edythe Collects Toy Canines

"Edythe and her dogs." Everybody says that. And when a friend of Edythe Black's sees a dog, he or she says, "That reminds me of Edythe."

Because, you see, Edythe has a hobby, and the hobby is collecting dogs. Not live ones—anybody can find live dogs. But glass ones and material ones. And are they hard to find sometimes! Edythe buys a dog in every town she visits. The hardest time she ever had finding one was in Longview last summer. There was one dog in the whole town, one little black and white glass bird dog. Edythe finally found him.

This Dallasite has been practicing her particular hobby for the last five years. She got started one Christmas when somebody gave her a darling little dog, and as she looked at it the idea just came to her. So now she has about 135 dogs. And they're all over her room at home. In size they range all the way from a half inch to two and one half feet.

Edythe has six families of dogs, with three or four in each family. And there are four sets of twins, two sets of which are named Peat and Repeat and Max and Climax. She generally doesn't name 'em though, 'cause there are too many.

There's one 'litle good luck "purp." He's homely as can be. He's about four inches tall, is made out of chalk, and has goggle eyes and a terrible looking nose. "Purp" always goes with Edythe on her trips.

And then there's a little fuzzy-woozy dog that barks. He's named "Dammit." How "Dammit" got his name is Jarvis Hall history. You see, Edythe and Bobbie Sue Whitten used to room together, and whenever anyone entered the room, Bobbie Sue would throw the little dog at her, and practically always the person thrown at would say "dammit." So there you are and there is Edythe with her dog named. That's one way of doing it, anyhow.

All her friends send Edythe dogs, and she always gets a lot for Christmas. She has dogs in the form of cigarette holders, pin-cushions, salt and pepper shakers and lemon squeezers. And there's one smoking a cigarette and one sucking a bottle.

Even Joe Can Pass Prof. Mc's Ethics Course

The line forms on the right, and don't push! A Skiff representative has found the ne plus ultra of snap courses.

The course—Ethics. The teacher—Prof. E. W. McDiarmid. The evidence—"You can't fail this course," Prof. Mac told his students the first time the class met.

And then, just to drive home his point: "Joe," pointing to Capt. Joe Coleman of the football team, "even you will pass the course!"

Miss Major to Olney

Miss Mabel Major will go to Olney Saturday afternoon to speak to the literary club there on "Poetry of the Southwest." Arrangements are being made by Mrs. Blainard Spearman, the former Kay Prather.

Members of English Faculty Travel Far

Faculty members of the English department traveled hither, thither and yon last summer gathering material for courses, studying and "recreating."

Miss Lorraine Sherley attended Harvard summer school where she took a course in Chaucer and 16th century literature, exclusive of the drama. While there she met a former T. C. U. grad, Luther Mansfield, working in the Widener library on his Melville thesis. Mansfield took his A. B. and M. A. degrees both from T. C. U.

Miss Rebecca Smith and Miss Mabel Major spent three weeks in New Mexico gathering material for the course known as "Literature of the Southwest." They also attended the Indian ceremonial at Gallup and the Fiesta at Santa Fe.

Dr. Clubb who for the past year taught at Leland-Stanford spent most of the summer along the Pacific coast.

Miss Dorothy Perry visited her parents in Alington last week-end.

AFTER "LAB"...

GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

RICHARD WHITNEY, '35—Majoring in chemistry. "A Camel tastes simply swell," he says, "and what is more important, it refreshes my energy."

A PLEASURE that drives away fatigue and listlessness!

"I'm specializing in chemistry, which means a large amount of 'lab' work," says Richard Whitney, '35. "It's interesting—but a tough grind. After a long, hard session, a Camel tastes simply swell—and what is more important, it refreshes my energy and I feel 'fit as a fiddle' in short order. I've smoked a lot of Camels and never yet have they ruffled my nerves."

Everyone is subject to strain—whether physical, mental, or emotional. So it's important to know that Camels do release your stored-up energy.

The findings of a famous scientific laboratory have confirmed Camel's "energizing effect." So begin today to enjoy Camels. Enjoy their wholesome and delightful "lift." Enjoy their mildness and rich, good taste. Enjoy them often! Camel pays millions more for finer, more expensive tobaccos, and the costlier tobaccos in Camels—never jangle the nerves.

SPORTSWOMAN PILOT. Mrs. Cecil Kenyon, of Waban, Mass., says: "Speaking of cigarettes, Camels are the mildest cigarette I know. Morning, noon, and night I can smoke them steadily—without a touch of upset nerves."

Baugh Outstanding

Hill, Truelson and Kellow Return to Lineup for Tomorrow's Fracas.

By PAUL DONOVAN. The 1934 edition of the Purple and White eleven will make its first appearance of the year in Fort Worth tomorrow at 3 p. m., when the Frogs meet the North Texas State Teachers College on the T. C. U. field.

Coaches Dutch Meyer and Bear Wolf expressed satisfaction with the showing made by the Frogs last Friday night against Daniel Baker in Brownwood. Followers of the Purple shared this approval and pleasure as the Meyerers piled up a 33-to-7 score against the Hill Billies. In spite of the fact that several outstanding and valuable players were on the injured list, the Frogs passed, ran and blocked their way to victory in a decisive manner.

Especially in the aerial department did the Purple display power. It was by this route that most of the scores were made. With Sam Baugh, Joe Coleman, and Dutch Kline tossing them and Melvin Diggs, Walter Roach, Willie Walls and Jimmy Lawrence receiving them, the Frogs uncovered a passing attack that gained steadily throughout the contest.

Diggs Is Injured.

One major casualty occurred in the Daniel Baker game. Early in the first quarter Diggs snatched a pass behind the goal line for a touchdown, but received a fractured ankle when downed by several Hill Billies. The injury will probably keep the blond wingman out of the game for several weeks.

The Frogs have spent this week rehearsing plays for the Teachers fray tomorrow and also correcting weaknesses that were apparent to the coaches in the Brownwood game. Coach Meyer has spent much time drilling the Frogs in running plays as well as polishing up the aerial guns. A well-balanced attack is the aim of the head coach as the opening of conference play draws near.

In the line Coach Wolf will have added strength on hand with the return of Paul Hill, Judy Truelson and Tracy Kellow to active duty. All three linemen have been nursing injuries but are now ready to return to the lineup. Truelson is due to start tomorrow's game at left tackle, while Kellow will return to his position at right guard. Hill will see action in the tackle position.

Meyer, Walls to Alternate.

Another change in the forward wall tomorrow will be the replacing of the injured Diggs at left end. L. D. Meyer and Willie Walls are due to divide time at the wing post. Roach will start at the other end. Darrell Lester, who starred in the opening games, will start at center tomorrow. Cotton Harrison and Kellow are the starting guards, with Truelson and Wilson Groseclose at the tackles.

Several different backfield combinations showed to advantage Friday night, but it is likely that Coach Meyer will open the game tomorrow with Capt. Joe Coleman at quarter, Lawrence and Kline at halves and Taldon Manton at full. Each of these boys showed power, speed and deception in the opening contest.

Baugh Will See Action.

Baugh, sophomore quarterback from Sweetwater, was the real standout in the Purple victory Friday. His accurate passing and deceptive running accounted for most of the Frogs' scores. He will again be called on tomorrow to aid Capt. Coleman in leading the Frogs. Other backs scheduled to see action during the game are Scott McCall, just recovered from a troublesome knee injury. Vernon Brown, Vic Montgomery, Glen Roberts and others.

The North Texas team comes here from Denton tomorrow smarting under a 33-to-0 defeat received at the hands of the S. M. U. Mustangs last Saturday. They are certain to be in better condition when

Donovan's DOPE

By PAUL DONOVAN

VIRTUALLY everyone who saw the Frogs whip Daniel Baker last Friday night brought back enthusiastic reports of the manner in which the Purple filled the air with passes. These tales have only added to the interest in Dutch and his boys. Tomorrow will probably see the largest opening day crowd in T. C. U. history flock to the Stadium for the North Texas Teachers game.

Each year in the past four or five the Frogs have opened up a little more on the offense, and this year fans should see more passes than ever before. And, conversely, the passes should see more fans in the stands than in any previous year. Two facts are responsible for the more daring type of play to be seen this fall. First of all, Dutch has enough good passers on the squad, so that several can be in the game at all times. Secondly, the rule changes permit more passing with less fear of penalty or loss of the ball.

The latter fact seems to be largely for the benefit of spectators, who are constantly clamoring for more open and spectacular plays. The quarterbacks and coaches in the grandstands will now have a larger repertoire of plays from which to choose their attacks. Not only the fans, but the game of football itself should benefit from the revisions in the rules.

If the Frogs don't win the championship this year it surely won't be the captains' fault. Joe Coleman is putting everything he has into the job of leading his mates. If you think the term "Captain" is just an honorary title given to a favorite player you watch and hear Joe going about his duties. All summer long he tried to keep a watchful eye on all the boys, keeping them in condition and working them up to the proper frame of mind to play winning football. In addition to this Joe is setting an example for the players by his industry and determination.

Tomorrow's game will give the dopsters a chance to compare the Frogs with the favorite Mustangs. Last Saturday S. M. U. walloped North Texas 33 to 0. This sort of early season comparison is interesting, but that is about the only merit it has. The Teachers will be an improved team tomorrow, and should put up a stiffer battle against the Frogs. And both S. M. U. and T. C. U. will be different teams when they meet than they are right now. Therefore, not much faith can be placed in comparative scores this early in the season.

Speaking of the Mustangs, their famed coach, Ray Morrison, has been chosen on the All-American Coach staff published in the current issue of Liberty. Morrison was picked as the passing coach on the staff of eight members. He is named along with such great mentors as Howard Jones, Harry Kipke, Herbert Crisler, Bernie Bierman and others. Jones of Southern California was chosen head coach of the group. They were selected by a vote of 297 coaches.

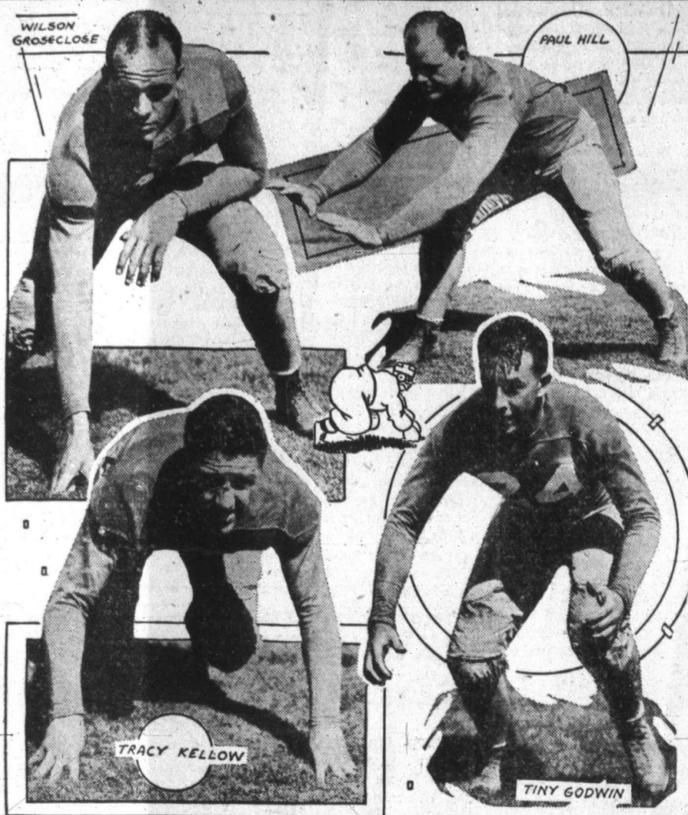

The subject of coaches naturally leads up to Coach Schmidt and his doings at Ohio State. His team has not played a game yet. I believe the first one is Oct. 6 with Indiana. However, Schmidt's personality alone has made him a favorite with the Ohioans. If he has any material at all we will hear much from him and his team this fall.

And will the old basketball gym ever be the same after last night? Pretty good at that wasn't it? Might as well have a picnic on the football field now, or a lawn social on the baseball diamond.

they face the Frogs, so the latter are prepared for a battle. A large crowd is expected to see the Meyerers open their home schedule.

Starting line-up for the Teachers, according to the latest word from Denton, will be about as follows: Boar: (88) l. c., Nichols (93) l. t., Sheppard (81) t. g., Knowles (86) c., Sutton (90) r. g., Taylor (82) r. t., Daniels (66), r. e., J. Stovall (5) q., Pilgram (56) r. h., Capt. Cox (54) l. h., P. B. Stovall (80) f.

These Juniors Bolster Frog Forward Wall

These four juniors are almost sure to see action in the Christian-Denton Teachers game tomorrow afternoon. Wilson Groseclose, 198-pound tackle, played a bang-up game against Daniel Baker last week. Tiny Godwin, tackle, weighing 220 pounds, saw plenty of service in the Hill Billy fracas. He is slated to start tomorrow. Tracy Kellow, 173-pound guard, has been out of the Frog line-up on account of injuries but will see action tomorrow. Big Paul Hill, who carries 255 pounds on a 6-foot, 3-inch frame, is back in uniform after recovering from a rib injury.

Southwestern Season Opens

Five of Seven Teams in First Games of 1934.

Five of the seven Southwest Conference football teams made their debuts the past week-end, and all emerged with impressive victories, thus forecasting a closely matched campaign for the championship.

The two outstanding games Saturday found the Texas Longhorns pitted against the strong Texas Tech eleven and the Rice Owls facing Loyola University. In both of these contests the conference entries were picked to lose. However, the Steers nosed out Tech by a 12-to-6 score—while the Owls gained a 12-to-0 victory over the New Orleans eleven. Both Texas and Rice outplayed their opponents to gain the victories.

Hilliard Stars for Texas.

Old stars of the Southwest flashed across the field in the two games. For the Longhorns, Bohn Hilliard turned in many brilliant runs, outstanding among which was a 90-yard touchdown jaunt. Two Rice backs shared individual honors in the Owl win. It was the well-known combination of Wallace and McCauley which stood out in the Rice offense. Both of these boys have returned to the lineup after a year's absence.

In the other games Saturday, A. & M. whipped Sam Houston 28 to 0, and S. M. U. downed North Texas Teachers 33 to 0, both games running true to form. The Mustangs uncovered a surprisingly powerful running attack against the Teachers, while their passing fell short of expectations. The Aggies displayed both power and speed in their comparatively easy victory.

Frogs Take to Air.

The Horned Frogs had previously opened the football calendar on Friday night by overwhelming Daniel Baker 33 to 7 in Brownwood. Momentarily stopped on the ground, the Meyerers took to the air early in the encounter and completed pass after pass to subdue the Hill Billies.

Both Baylor and Arkansas were idle last week but will see action tomorrow along with the other conference members. Baylor will meet St. Edwards at Waco, while the Razorbacks will engage the College of Ozarks at Fayetteville. The Frogs will test their strength against North Texas Teachers. A. & M. faces another light opponent in Texas A. & L., while the Owls are in for another tough battle with Louisiana State University at Houston. The Longhorns are slated to scrimmage with the Texas freshmen in the final game.

New Intramural Managers Wanted

Will Serve as Officials in Class Competition.

Thomas Prouse, new director of physical education in the University, has issued a special call for boys in all classes of the University who are interested in becoming managers of class teams in the coming series of intramural sports. Students wishing to become managers will make their intentions known to Mr. Prouse, and the managers of the teams will be chosen later by members of the class.

There will be two managers from each class, a class manager and an intramural manager. The class manager will have direct charge of their teams on the field. The intramural managers will have charge of arranging games and schedules and will serve as officials at the games.

The tag football tournament, the first intramural tournament of the year, will open at 3:15 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon when the Freshmen meet the Sophomores. The freshmen and the juniors will meet in a game Wednesday afternoon. Other contests will be announced on the intramural bulletin board.

The all-campus tennis tournament will begin Thursday afternoon. Those wishing to enter are asked to place their names on the entry blanks posted on the bulletin boards posted in the dormitories or in the little gym.

Frogs Always Victors Against Denton Eagles

The Eagles of Denton Teachers College have never tasted victory on the gridiron over the Frogs. The two schools have met seven times, beginning back in 1918, and each time the Frogs have come off on the long end of the score.

In 1919 the Teachers held T. C. U. to a 14-to-6 score, which is the closest game in the record. In four of the seven tilts the Frogs have shut out their opponents.

Year	T. C. U.	Denton
1919	14	6
1929	25	0
1931	33	6

Relations Units Hear Lecture By Bergeson

"Tug-of-War" Won From Frosh by Sophomores

The first inter-class sports event of the year, the "Tug-of-War" between the freshmen and the sophomores Tuesday afternoon, ended in defeat for the frosh when the sophs "pulled a fast one," and enlisted the services of a couple of upperclassmen.

Losing the first "pull," the sophomores, led by Bruce Scrafford and Jimmy Young, with the aid of the "dark horses," came back with new vigor and won the next two "pulls."

a good cigarette gives you a lot of pleasure

... just about every cigarette smoker knows that—but here are some other facts to keep in mind ...

For a cigarette to be milder and taste better it must be made of mild, ripe Turkish and home-grown tobaccos.

We wish you could go into the factories and see Chesterfield made. The mild ripe tobacco is cut in long even threads—then packed into the cigarette so as to make Chesterfield draw right and burn evenly.

A good cigarette can give you a lot of pleasure, and we would like for you to try Chesterfield.
