1934 Indian

Miss Florence Fallis, student assistant in the physical education department, is giving a demonstration of the use of the bow and arrow.

What do you Think?

Each week several students, chosen at random, will be asked to express their views on questions pertaining to campus life and current events. Students are asked to submit questions on which they will express their opinion, to members of the Skiff staff.

Do you favor the collection of a 50-cent Student Body fee by the University?

Carsky Markawich—"No. It's the student council's job to collect the money. Let them do it."

Esther Marner—"Yes. Then it won't be any trouble for any one."

Robbie Joe Whitener—"Yes. I think the student body would come nearer getting it."

Ann Cauker—"I think it is better to pay it with the tuition and save the bother of having it collected during the year."

Gaines Sparks—"It hasn't proved successful for the Student Council to collect this fee. Probably the main reason is because not enough of the students know what it is or what it is used for. If it were given more publicity the Student Council might be able to collect it more easily."

Mary Kate Keller—"I think it is all right for the business office to collect it. It seems the collection would be rather difficult if it were done any other way."

Meliorist Club To Present Play

Fallis, Jones, Wall, Wilson, and Crotty to Have Leads.

Members of the Meliorist Club will present a play, "He Came Seeing," by Miss Mary Hamlin at 8:45 o'clock Sunday evening in the recreation room of the University Christian Church, according to Miss Opal Gooden, club director.

Prof. Lew D. Fallis is directing the play and the principal roles will be taken by Misses Dorothy Jones and Florence Fallis, and Clarence Crotty, S. A. Wall and Charles Wilson. Others who will take part include: Misses Ruth Campbell, Clemence Clark and Dorothy Lynn Taylor and Morton Kline.

Charles Harness has been appointed stage manager; properties are in charge of Miss Elizabeth Henry; costumes and make-up, Mrs. Ann Boswell, and programs and ushers, Arle Brooks. Special properties have been made by Leonard Kirkegaard.

The play will be given after a brief dedication of the stage, Miss Gooden said.

There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited, she announced.

Armes Heads Church Body

Woodson Armes of Slaton, ex-student of T. C. U., has been elected president of the Texas Baptist Student Union. He is now attending Baylor.

No School Work After 10 O'clock Homecoming Day

Full Holiday Granted Nov. 24 Because of Official Trip.

Students to Houston

Saturday Classes Will Meet Friday Morning, Nov. 23, Says Announcement.

A holiday, beginning at 10 a. m., has been granted by the Administration Saturday, Nov. 17, for the Homecoming Day activities.

All 8 and 9 o'clock classes will meet Saturday morning as usual, but no classes after 10 o'clock will be held.

On Nov. 24, a complete holiday has been granted for the official student body trip to Houston for the Rice-T. C. U. game.

Students will meet their regular Saturday classes on Friday mornings between 8 and 1 o'clock. No Friday morning classes will be held, although Friday afternoon classes and laboratories will meet as usual on Friday afternoon.

The shift has been made in order that the T. T. S. classes may not suffer unduly from the holidays at this time, the announcement read.

World Fellowship Club Has Election

Lee Pierce, Miss Candlin, Miss Evans Made Nominations Group Officers.

Lee Pierce, Miss Dorothy Candlin, and Miss Lou Ella Evans were elected president, secretary, and vice-president of the World Fellowship Club Friday night. The meeting was under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. McGuire, director, and Lemore Hill, ex-president.

The club is a young people's missionary organization whose object is to study foreign missionary problems and to sponsor fellowship between the young people of other nations.

Plans are under way for the work to be done this year and will be discussed at the next meeting of the club, Dec. 7. The club meets the

Lanham to Speak At Next Chapel

Congressman Fritz Lanham will be the chapel speaker next Wednesday. Lanham made a trip to Hawaii last summer and is going to speak to the students on "My Impressions of Hawaii."

Dr. W. J. Hammond addressed the chapel group Wednesday at the annual Armistice Day program. He gave his opinion of war, saying it is a needless waste of human life. "We should do all in our power to prevent war," he said, "so that the saying of the great Master may be fulfilled—'That we may have life more abundantly.'"

Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, scheduled to speak at this time, was not able to be present.

Hutton Has Message From David Scouler

"School Is Going Fine" Former Teacher Now Attending Yale Reports.

Word has been received by Registrar S. W. Hutton from David Scouler, who is on a leave of absence from the University and is attending Yale this year.

"School is going fine. I have some excellent classes and am very comfortably situated. The Yale Glee Club is really a chorus," he said.

Scouler, who was director of both the Men's and Women's Glee Club in the University, is a member of the Yale Glee Club.

He sends his regards to all his acquaintances and associates in T.C.U., Hutton said.

"I understand T. C. U. got off to a fine start and I'm glad. I hope it proves to be a fine year for everyone," Scouler said.

First Armistice Is Happy but Solemn Occasion at T. C. U.

The first Armistice Day at T.C.U.—how different it must have been from the seemingly endless preceding days when those boys who were enlisted in the Students' Army Training Corps were waiting their call and those whose friends and loved ones were already overseas or in service in the United States were anxiously awaiting any word of them.

On that first Armistice Day, T. C. U. had a holiday, one which outshone even the holiday following the Baylor game the Thanksgiving before—a holiday outstanding for its thanksgiving, activity and enthusiasm.

Word of the holiday, which had been announced by President E. M. Waits, came to a large group of students who had gathered to bid "good-by and good luck" to the 15 boys who had just left the campus en route to the Infantry Officers' Training Camp at MacArthur.

The entire student body gathered in the University Auditorium for a "serious meeting of thanksgiving." The boys stopped their drilling and all saluted during the rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner." Dr. Clinton Lockhart, Dr. E. R. Cockrell and Dean Colby D. Hall gave speeches which were "both thoughtful and inspiring in their sentiments."

It was amid rousing cheers that the group left the chapel to prepare for the parade that afternoon—a group happy with the realization that the "kaiser now has a brilliant career behind him."

After lunch final preparations were made for the parade and by 3:30 o'clock scarcely a person remained on the Hill. That evening after the parade special tribute was paid to the T. C. U. students who were enlisted in the service of the United States.

Miss Nell Andrews, librarian, prepared a list of those who were in service either in the United States or overseas. (It is probable that some of the names were omitted from the list, but on account of the difficulty of obtaining the official records it was impossible to make an absolute check.)

The list was as follows: Avis Alexander, Fred Adams, Douglas Allen, Karl T. Bradley, Victor Bonelli, Hugh Brewster, Raymond Buck, John Bradford, Herbert Bozeman, John L. Cassell, Aubrey Cooper, B. R. Cockrell, Horace Cagle, James Carey, Loraine Dutton, Giles Day, Sam Easley, Chris Elliott, Edwin A. Elliott, J. B. Frizzell, Earl X. Gough, David Holdberg, Clarence Gunter, O. D. Grisso, Jack Hammond, John B. Hawley, W. B. Higgins, Pierre Nash, Fred Horn, Will S. Horn, Hal Hunter, Hendon Hardwick, M. M. Knight, Lonnie L. Lively, Dean LeMaster, Gordon McFarland, Jim McFarland, Willis McGregor, Atwood McDonald, Jesse Martin, Joe J. Murray, J. C. McKean, J. T. Montgomery, John Nelson, George Nash, Joe Oliver, J. J. O'Reilly, Jeff Roberts, Gayle Scott, W. R. Scott, A. C. Stevens, Guy Shirey, Tom P. Sweeney, Scott Stanfield, J. O. Shelburne, Eugene Sewell, W. S. Tyson, W. E. Umbarger, Ed White, Nathap White and Karl Young.

Fifty to Attend Relations Forum

Denton Meeting Sunday to Be Conducted by Internationals.

The open forum in Denton, to be held Sunday by the International Relations Club, will begin at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon and will terminate with a buffet supper at 5:30 o'clock.

The meeting, which will be attended by all persons of both units of the club wishing to go, will be held at Mary Arden Lodge and will be sponsored by the Students' Christian Association of North Texas State Teachers' College.

About 50 students are expected to attend, according to Miss Ann Stuckert, secretary of Unit 2. Students will furnish their own transportation.

"Subsequent open forums will be postponed until some time in the spring term," Dr. W. J. Hammond stated recently.

"It should be clearly understood," he said, "that the International Relations Club on the T. C. U. campus, although it may be sponsored by faculty members, is primarily a student organization."

"The administration of all the offices and the various functions is carried on by students, the sponsors acting only in an advisory capacity."

"The fact that Unit 2 was not organized until last year has to some extent caused it to suffer as far as publicity is concerned. Its sponsor, Mrs. Mirth W. Sherer, has been doing a great deal of work that she has received insufficient credit for."

"The status of the two clubs is identical, the only difference being that Unit 1 is for juniors and seniors and Unit 2 is for freshmen and sophomores. Both units are to participate as one in the open forums to be held in the spring."

A yearbook, including the best of the speeches made by students at these forums, with other items regarding the activities of the club for the year, will be printed in the spring forums by writing the International Relations Club over station KFJZ at 9 o'clock on Monday, nights.

Frosh Will Meet Monday

There will be a freshman class meeting at 10 o'clock Monday morning in the Auditorium to set the date for the Theater Party that has been added to the social calendar of the class.

New Church Rooms Will Be Dedicated

Service to Be Held Wednesday For Nursery, Parlor, Pastor's Study.

Dedication of several rooms of the University Christian Church and a housewarming will follow the monthly fellowship dinner at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

A brief program will follow the dinner, after which the banquet room and kitchen will be dedicated. The dedication of the pastor's study, nursery room and church parlor will come next on the program, and will be followed by the dedication of the University room. All of these rooms were completed recently.

Mrs. W. D. Ambrose, mezzo-soprano of the church, will sing several selections at the housewarming and dedication services.

The completion of these rooms was made possible through the gift of a friend of the church, who started the program with a donation of $250 to the Rev. Perry E. Gresham for his study. Next the benefactor gave $1500 to be used for the church parlor and University room.

He also gave $1000 for the completion of the remainder of the first floor of the church and later an additional $800 to be used on the banquet room and kitchen.

The benefactor made only one condition—that his name should not be revealed.

To Speak Here Friday

Weir McDiarmid to Address First English Meeting.

Dr. Weir McDiarmid, librarian at Baylor University, will be the guest speaker at the first English departmental meeting to be held at 4 o'clock next Friday afternoon in the parlors of Jarvis Hall. Dr. McDiarmid will be introduced by his father, Prof. E. W. McDiarmid.

The public is invited to attend the meeting and homecoming guests are especially welcome. English majors and minors are expected to be present. Dr. Rebecca Smith has announced.

Internationalists Hear True

Dr. True spoke at the regular meeting of Unit 1 of the International Relations Club Wednesday night. His topic was "The Air Menace." Mary Cogswell also spoke on "Munitions."

44 Have Names In The Skiff for First 4 Issues

Forty-four students in the University started this year's college activities by "breaking into print" in the first four issues of The Skiff, according to a survey made by the journalism department.

The survey was made in an effort to determine who the participants in campus activities are and who "get into the papers" the most.

Prof. J. Willard Ridings and Ben Sargent, Skiff editor, are making a special effort to see that every student in the University has his name appear in The Skiff at least one time during the year.

A total of 502 names broke into the four editions. The names of 196 on the student list during this period did not appear in any of the issues. A number of these are special students or members of night classes.

The largest number of names appeared in the first edition, which contained a total of 347. The second issue carried 222 names.

The number breaking into the third issue was smaller than any of the four, a total of 143 names appearing that week. One hundred and thirty-five broke into the fourth issue.

The 44 students whose names appeared in all four issues are: Misses Florence Ackers, Helen Adams, Frances Ballenger, Ruth Bozman, Maurine Bush, Ruth Duncan, Kathryn Edwards, Florence Fallis, Anna Byrd Harness, Mary Beth Holmes, Marion Honea, Elizabeth Hudson, Mary Jarvis, Sara King, Dorothy Luyster, Grace Maloney, Flora Marshall, Helen Miellmier, Helen Moody, Loraine O'Gorman, Harriett Reed, Marjorie Sewalt, Dorothy Lynn Taylor and Imogene Townsley.

S. A. Wall sang several British ballads for the English literature classes of Misses Rebecca Smith and Mabel Major yesterday morning. The ballads were taken from a collection, "British Ballads in Texas," which has been compiled by Miss Major.

Revue Candidates To Be Nominated At Next Chapel

Students Will Vote on As Many Girls As They Wish.

Skiff to Give Count

Annual Presentation of Nominations Will Be In Auditorium Dec. 15.

"Nominations of girls to be voted on for the annual Horned Frog Popularity Revue will be made Wednesday morning in chapel. The revue will be presented Dec. 15," reports Miss Anna Byrd Harness, yearbook editor.

"Ballots with full instructions will be given to the students as they enter the auditorium. Students are to fill out the ballots and hand them to a staff member at the chapel door as they leave the auditorium. Students will nominate as many representatives as they choose but must list them as to name and class, and must sign the ballot," said Miss Harness.

Results of the nominations will be announced in The Skiff next Friday.

Tomorrow is absolutely the last date for freshmen and sophomores to have their pictures made for the annual, Miss Harness stated.

Juniors and seniors are requested to have their pictures made for the annual at Organ's Studio, 103 1/2 Sixth Street, this week. The price for senior pictures is $2.

Miss Kathryn Edwards has been appointed chairman of the stage decorations committee for the revue, with Miss Isabel Ackerman, Maurine Rice and Ruth Conner as assistants.

A Horned Frog staff meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. next Thursday, in Room 205 of the Administration Building, Miss Harness announced.

A Thought for Armistice Day

Next Sunday will mark the passing of the sixteenth year since the signing of the Armistice, an agreement that ended the worst conflict that has ever ravaged mankind.

On Nov. 11, 1918, Marshall Foch and Admiral Weyness met a group of German military and civil authorities at Rethondes and drew up a pact that called for a cessation of hostilities.

Each year since, the day has been officially celebrated throughout the world. On this day, especially, the glories of war were recalled to the peaceful people. The occasion called for marching soldiers, blaring bugles, beating drums, piping fifes and oft-repeated tales of heroism under fire.

An enlightened generation—a generation that is paying the cost of the last war—has sprung up in America, however. These enlightened people realize that "peace has its victories, no less renowned than war."

This generation, following the example of Richard Le Gallienne, is "snapping the fife and stilling the drum and showing the monster as she really is." The people now realize that there is no such thing, outside the realm of mythology, as a war to end war. They are dwelling, not on the war that was to make the world "safe for democracy," but on the war that cost the American people alone $40,000,000,000 in actual cash. They are thinking of the war that sent 65,000 of America's finest youth to the front never to return and an additional 200,000 to the front who were to return only partially—some blind, some without arms and legs and some shell-shocked.

Armistice Day is a good time to reflect on the outcome of the past war. Such a reflection will be an excellent argument for peace. The American people, as Senator William E. Borah points out, can never hope for permanent peace as long as they recognize the institution of war as legitimate and clothe it with glory.

Pick the Winners!

When you walk into chapel next Wednesday morning, you will be handed a mimeographed sheet with spaces to be filled in with your selection for the most popular girls in school. You may nominate as many as you like in this first balloting. Later your choice will be limited.

Hasty voting is never satisfactory. When you think of filling in certain girls' names, weigh your thoughts and see if you have really selected the most popular ones. For, after all, the contest is one of popularity, and not one concerned with featuring the best dancers, the best dressed persons, the most collegiate. It's a contest of the girls on the campus who not only have some of the already mentioned attributes, but who are the mostly widely trusted and admired.

We want the "Favorites" section of The Horned Frog to be one of the most representative sections contained in the book this year. For several years the same girls have been featured each time. In many cases, these girls won the page by mere precedence, that is, because they were honored the year before and so on.

This year the section should contain new faces. Students look forward to the dedication of the annual in order to find out who won the popularity pages. When the same pictures appear each year, the enthusiasm is somewhat quelled. The Horned Frog staff wants this enthusiasm to flourish. And your balloting Wednesday will go far in either crushing or stimulating that enthusiasm about next May.

Vote wisely and pick the winners.

A Recreation Room

The girls in Jarvis Hall are to have a recreation room. Work has already started on the project and not many weeks from now the room will be a reality.

Contributions are being received from the residents in order to defray the expense of laying hardwood flooring. These girls are, by contributing one plank, making the room possible and are donating a memorial to the new social policies taking form on our campus.

Such a room will provide extra curricular activity that the girls can not receive elsewhere on the campus. Games of all sorts will be played during their leisure hours; dancing from 5 until 7 o'clock on week nights will create many pleasant hours.

This room will become one of laughter and gaiety and consequently an integral part of the dormitory. It is necessary that each girl feel partly responsible for its existence and its life. Let's keep our recreation room what the administration desires it to be and by so doing enjoy many hours of good times which we have not been able to on our own campus in the years past.

Missing the Mrs.

"Names make news" we are told, but here's something else that names make—wrong names make very bad impressions.

One of the primary factors in good salesmanship is the ability to remember people by their correct names. A lady teacher who perhaps has children of high school age or older is not sold on the personal attributes of a student who persists in addressing her as "Miss," nor is an unmarried lady flattered by having herself dubbed "Mrs." At the same time, nothing could be much worse than depriving her of her title completely, and leaving her just plain "Smith" or "Brown."

Next, we'll be hearing about "Miss Winton, the biology teacher," and "Mrs. Sherley, the English teacher." Such errors could not possibly be more ludicrous than some that are heard every day.

Social Success??

Some youth has erroneously stated that one must abandon all hope of social success unless he has a car and a "line." The sooner this idea is confined to the ash heap the better. Those who require that you have a car to be on even terms with them are not worthy of your friendship and should soon learn that one true friend is worth any number of automobiles. Also, a person who bases his social success on a "line" will find that his success is only temporary and when he has been in the society of his would-be friends for some time, he is exposed since his sayings or "line" soon become trite and he finds himself shunned by those whose esteem he desired.

Too, a "line" robs one of all semblance of personality. There is something exhilarating in the thoughts of a person which finds expression in his own words, but when one memorizes a set of speeches to keep him from being at a loss for something to say among his friends he defeats his own purpose. The person who is so timid that he remains speechless is much more to be admired, for in this person you get a glimpse of character.

—Yellow Jacket.

WHAT'S WHERE

All eyes on the campus are turned toward the junior class's gala mid-night show at the Majestic Theater Friday night after the pep rally. The show comes on the eve of the Frog-Steer grid classic and the juniors are planning a big evening. They're raising money for the Junior-Senior banquet, you know. The show? "Student Tour," featuring Lanny Ross, Jimmie Durante and Joe Penner.

The Majestic will begin a new policy next week. Beginning Wednesday, a stage show will be presented in addition to a stellar screen attraction each week. The first stage show under this new deal will be Harry Clark's "Penthouse Follies." Tomorrow's attractions at the Tenth Street house will include "The Party's Over" and "Hat, Coat and Glove," with Ricardo Cortez.

Some of the finest stars of screen and radio join forces to present "Trans-Atlantic Merry-Go-Round," which begins at the Hollywood today. The cast includes Jack Benny, recently voted the best of the radio comedians; Nancy Carroll, Gene Raymond, Mitzi Green, Frank Parker and the Boswell sisters.

Remember "The Thin Man?" Well, the same stars, William Powell and Myrna Loy, will play in "Evelyn Prentice" at the Worth Theater tomorrow. That's enough recommen-

Out of The Past

By MARGARET BERRY

One Year Ago—
There were more injuries on the Horned Frog team than in any other year on record. According to Dr. Sewall, injuries run in cycles, broken hands being the favorite at this time.

Five Years Ago—
The Owl backers invaded Frogland 350 strong but the T. C. U. Froggies managed to send them back to Houston on the very little end of a 24 to 0 score. The Skiff put out a football extra for this game, giving a play-by-play account of the game.

Ten Years Ago—
Although the team was weak, the spirit of the students was strong. Inspiring and well attended pep rallies were held even though defeat followed on the gridiron.

Fifteen Years Ago—

JAMES S. MacVICKAR '35—PSYCHOLOGY.
He says: "I think there's a great field for psychology—so I try to hit the books for all I'm worth. When I'm listless or 'low,' smoking a Camel gives me a quick upturn in energy. Physical and mental fatigue drop away! The enjoyment one gets from Camel's fine flavor is an important psychological factor in maintaining poise."

How to get back vim and energy when "played out": Thousands of smokers can verify from their own experience the popular suggestion "get a lift with a Camel." When tired, Camels will make you feel refreshed—as good as new. And science adds confirmation of this "energizing effect." Camels aren't flat or "sweetish," either. You can smoke Camels steadily. ### Familiar Faces to Be In Evidence Homecoming

By KATHRYN EDWARDS

"Wait a second, folks, I think I see someone I used to know. Now is that Ann? Well, it sure looks like her. Why, yes it is she! Hello there, Ann! Gee, you're looking swell. What are you doing these days? And who's precious child? Yours! Good night I didn't even know you were married. What's your name now? Gee, it's been so long since I've seen you?—Three years! Why, I can't realize it. Remember the time..."

Salutations, greeting and conversations such as this one are due to be overheard next week-end when hundreds of alumni and exes will trek back to their alma mater to enjoy the campus life and all its excitement during another historical Homecoming.

Since the Administration has been so kind as to dismiss all classes after 10 o'clock Saturday morning, you'll have plenty of time to welcome all the exes and Texas students that you want welcomed. And of course we want to welcome everyone, but our degree of welcome will be somewhat quelled about 2:30 o'clock next Saturday afternoon 'cause these Longhorns are going to be most impolite when they get on the football field against our Frogs. Remember four years ago when the cocky victors of a 7-to-0 game, led by their dancing and prancing drum major, Allen Steere, paraded after the game over our entire campus, playing the "Eyes of Texas?"

Well, this year they're likely to do fancier things should they win the battle. So do you're welcoming early and be prepared for the Steer sneers, should there be cause for any afterwards. We're not meaning to be skeptical about the game 'cause we know what the Frogs can do by their play last Saturday against Baylor. But just in case there's a slipup!

It's needless to go into the matter of the dance on account of all youse girls and boys know what an event that one will be with lots of old studds back, to make things merrier for everyone. So let's get these unwelcome visitors otherwise known as "mid-terms" out of the way this week and be full of the old Frog spirit to welcome our visitors next Saturday.

Loyola Wolves Frog Opposition For Tomorrow

Contest to Be Initial Meeting Between Two Teams.

25 Men Make Trip

Truelson Will Be at Right Tackle—McCall at Left Half.

By PAUL DONOVAN

Well-armed for battle, the Horned Frog squad, led by Coaches Dutch Meyer and Bear Wolf, boarded a train yesterday afternoon headed for New Orleans, where they will face Loyola University tomorrow.

This will be the first time that these two teams have ever faced one another, so there are no past records by which to judge the relative strength of either. Earlier in the season the Rice Owls defeated Loyola 12 to 0. For the past few years the Wolves of Loyola have ranked high in southern football circles, so a hard game is expected.

Frogs in Good Physical Shape

The Frogs left for the game in good physical shape, and in a determined frame of mind. Last week's victory over Baylor was encouraging to players and coaches alike. They feel that they have rounded into form now, and are prepared for the important games remaining on their schedule. On successive weeks the Frogs will play Loyola, Texas, Rice, S. M. U. and Santa Clara.

The most serious casualty of the Baylor game was a deep cut on the face sustained by Wilson Groseclose, stellar tackle. The wound is not expected to keep the big Abilene product out of the lineup.

On the eve of departure, Coach Meyer was not entirely certain about his starters for tomorrow's contest. The line-up that takes the field against the Wolves will consist largely of the "regulars," but one tackle, the guards and the left half position are uncertain.

McCall to Be in Line-up

The probable line-up was announced as Walls, lc; Godwin, lt; Ellis, lg; Lester, c; Holt, rg; Truelson, rt; Roach, re; Capt. Coleman, q; McCall, lb; Lawrence, rh; Manton, f.

This will be the first time McCall, a sophomore, has taken the field at the opening of a game. His showing in the fourth quarter of the Baylor game last week was such that he will be given an opportunity against Loyola to continue that good work.

Truelson, who has been appearing at left tackle in recent weeks, will start at the right-side position to relieve Groseclose, who will probably be held out because of injuries. Truelson has played tackle on both sides of the line in the same game and knows the duties of either position.

Reserves to Be Used

Many of the T. C. U. reserves are sure to be called into service during the game. The Frogs' reserve squad has shown strength in every game played to date, and the line-up will be changed frequently. The effort to keep the Purple attack also against. The Frog coaches are anxious to keep down the number of injuries by frequent substitution.

The following men made the trip to New Orleans: Ends, Walls, Roach, L. D. Meyer and Bobby Stow; tackles, Godwin, Groseclose, Hill and Judy Truelson; guards, Harrison, Kellow, Solon Holt and Drew Ellis; centers, Lester and Heard Floore; backs, Capt. Coleman, Lawrence, Kline, Manton, Sam Baugh, Glen Roberts, Bob Jordan, Vic Montgomery, Scott McCall, Harold McClure and Vernon Brown.

Donovan's DOPE

By PAUL DONOVAN

When the air was finally cleared off all those Baylor passes Saturday and the Frogs walked off the field with a 34-to-12 victory, the wires sent out reports that Dutch's boys are still a threat in this conference. Before the game they were on the books as a long shot or dark horse, but now the odds have dropped considerably.

No matter how large the odds may be, we have learned from the races at Arlington that the long shots do come in. And what a payoff there is when they do win! It's what keeps the bettors going back and the first guessers wringing their hands.

While speaking of the horse races, it was proved Saturday just how popular the sport of kings is with the people of Fort Worth. Ordinarily that football game would have drawn close to 10,000 people. It was the type of game that people enjoy seeing. Saturday there were hardly half that number in the stands. The radio announcer in the press box was telling his listeners that "one of the largest crowds of the season is on hand for the spectacle," but he was quickly reminded that he was at the football game and not at Arlington Downs.

I doubt if football officials ever did have to work any harder than they did Saturday. That referee stepped off those penalties with such regularity that it looked as though he were drilling. He carried the ball more yards than any man on the field, and made more first downs. From the press box you could see that the officials were right in their decisions. Unfortunate though it was, it became amusing to watch those Frog linemen jump offside so often. It looked as if some of the Baylor linemen were using some trick to pull the Frogs offside, some deceptive move before the ball was actually snapped. This may not be, but there must be some reason for the number of times they repeated the offense.

Another weakness the Frogs showed Saturday was in rushing the Baylor passer. Pearce was accurate with nearly every toss, but this was largely because he had plenty of time to find his man, take aim and throw. Often the guards and tackles were blocked completely out of the play, leaving one end to go after the passer. No team should gain as much on passes against T. C. U. as Baylor did.

Dutch is proving this year that it is not always best to play your games as you come to them, without looking ahead. That has been the theory of many successful coaches, to prepare for this week's game and forget about next week's until next week. Regardless of all this, Dutch was more interested in beating Baylor than Centenary, and it worked out as he planned. If he had thrown all his forces against Centenary, he probably would not have had so much strength on hand Saturday. He will likely do the same thing this week. Loyola is bound to be strong, and a Frog win would be helpful, but a herd of wild steers will be turned loose here the following Saturday. Dutch won't forget that.

Highlights of Saturday's game:

Lawrence breaking loose for the first score . . . Manton's interference for Lawrence for the second touchdown . . . Roach knitting through the interference for several clean tackles . . . Both Baylor's touchdown passes, and a few others . . . Montgomery's falling catch of a pass over the goal line . . . Kellow's hard blocking as Baugh intercepted a pass . . . That Baylor lineman trying to get out of the way of a pass from his own man . . . Manton's place kicking . . . Dutch Meyer encouraging little Carl Maxwell at the close of the game . . . McCall's running.

"The Forge Of Love" To Be Sermon Topic

"The Forge Of Love" will be the topic of the Rev. Perry E. Gresham's sermon at the morning hour of worship Sunday at the University Christian Church. Sunday evening the Rev. Mr. Gresham will continue his series of sermons on the religion of famous men with a sermon on the "Religion of Micah."

Frogs Defeat Baylor Bears

34-12 Victory Places Team Third in Conference Race.

Scoring touchdowns in every quarter except the third, the Horned Frogs trounced the Baylor Bears 34 to 12 Saturday at the T. C. U. Stadium. The victory placed the Mayermen in third place in the conference race, just a step behind the Rice Owls and Arkansas Razorbacks.

Frogs Take Early Lead

The Frogs took the lead in the first few minutes of play and were never in danger from that point. They added two more touchdowns in the second quarter and two in the fourth. The two Baylor touchdowns came in the first and last periods.

T. C. U. kicked off to Baylor to open the game. Two running plays failed to gain and the Bears punted to their 42-yard line. Taking the ball at that spot, the Frogs marched across the goal line in five plays. The drive was culminated by a 15-yard run by Jimmy Lawrence, who was the biggest ground gainer for the Mayermen all afternoon. Taldon Monton converted after the touchdown.

The Bears retaliated with a sustained passing attack that produced a touchdown before the period ended. Pearce, Baylor quarterback, tossed one pass after another, to keep the Frogs on the defense. The touchdown pass was a long one to Wray, end, who took the aerial on the goal line and fell across.

Frogs Take Advantage of Wind

In the second quarter the Frogs took full advantage of a strong headwind to add two more touchdowns to their score. Sam Baugh, Purple sharpshooter, opened up with a passing attack that carried the Frogs to the Baylor four-yard line. Lawrence again carried the ball over for a touchdown, and Manton again kicked the extra point.

The next touchdown came in the same period on a pass from Baugh to Vic Montgomery, who made a nice catch on the play. Montgomery missed the try for extra point.

Again in the third quarter the Frogs had the wind at their backs, but this time their offense failed to

Y. M. C. A. to Meet Monday

"The Problem of Race and Racial Relations" will be the topic to be discussed at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. to be held in the "Y" room at 7:30 p. m. next Monday.

This discussion will be in preparation for the talk to be given by Channing Tobias.

Class Games Won By Juniors, Sophs

Wheeler, Paty, Trainer Outstanding in Tag Football.

The Juniors and Sophomores still hold a deadlock on first place in the intramural tag football race, each having won their contests this week. The Sophomores defeated the Freshmen by an overwhelming score of 45 to 12. The Juniors were 38-to-12 victors over the Seniors.

The Junior-Senior game was a better game than the score indicates. The Seniors put up a hard fight and dealt the Juniors much misery.

Ronald Wheeler was outstanding for the Juniors, although he did not get to play the entire game. Wheeler, Orville Pa, Horace McDowell and Louie Trainer were the main power behind the Junior attack. John Durrett, Jinx Powell and Leonard Wallace played good games for the Seniors.

Ray Wester, lanky Sophomore backfield man, was the mainstay of the Soph attack on the Freshmen. Frank Floyd, Waller Moody and Linon Blackmon also contributed a great deal to the Soph victory. Gilbert Bowden, Jim Young and Lawrence King played outstanding games for the Frosh.

The standings in the race are as follows:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Sophomores	5	1	.833
Juniors	5	1	.833
Freshmen	2	4	.333
Seniors	0	6	.000
