1935-36 Catalog Now Obtainable

Hutton Asks Students to Select Courses This Spring.

The new 1935-36 catalog is now in the registrar's office and any student desiring a copy may call by the office and receive one, Registrar S. W. Hutton said today.

"We should like for the students to look through the new catalog and select their courses for next year. If the students who are sure that they will be in T. C. U. next fall will fill out their course cards now, it will save everyone valuable time and monotonous waiting next September when school opens," he said.

The new catalog contains the usual features such as faculty, history and organization, general definitions, entrance requirements, table of courses, rates and fees, class schedules and general information.

The name of Mrs. Jessie Deane Crenshaw Trulove appears as the only new member of the faculty for next year. Mrs. Trulove will be associate professor of piano, having recently graduated from Fontainebleau in France. David Scoular, J. W. Ballard and Raymond L. Welby will return to the University. Dr. Alpheus Marshall, by virtue of the resignation of Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, will become head of the economics department.

Some change has been made in entrance requirements which may be found on page 19 in the new book. Rates and fees remain the same as does the table of courses offered. Graduation requirements have also been modified and the new stipulations may be noted on page 24.

Freshman Story of Snatchings Is Revealed by Class Writer

By A FRESHMAN

George Wilhelm, sophomore president, attired in a freshly pressed suit, paid for with the kidnaper's last 20 cents, attended the sophomore class banquet Saturday night through the courtesy of the freshman class. His only decoration was a card bearing the numeral 38 and reading "This is the way gentleman treat 'em." Waller Moody's scantly clad entrance to the banquet a few minutes later was to illustrate freshman treatment at the hands of sophomore kidnappers.

According to Wilhelm, his treatment throughout this historic event, for as you all know, this was the first time in the history of Texas Christian University that the sophomore president has ever been kidnapped. Mrs. Cecil Morgan will be hostesses for the meeting.

Thursday afternoon, May 2, this dazzling idea came to a group of T. C. U.'s greener students and they set out for the Blackstone Hotel, where, according to a T. C. U. senior, Wilhelm was to appear to make final arrangements for the banquet. Arriving in time to find that the villain had already come to the hotel and departed about his business, the class of '38 explorers immediately set out for the Fair building where it was reported the soph leader labored for a living. En route Wilhelm was accosted, between Houston and Throckmorton streets on Seventh, and placed in a car, despite a few none too gentle protests, and taken to a farm near Birdville.

During his capture Wilhelm had pleaded that he would lose his job, so, determined to prevent any such calamity, the freshmen sent an envoy to his bosses, explaining the situation and expressing the hope that Wilhelm would not return to work until Monday. All the bosses did was laugh and say everything would be all right. The soph executive had also requested that his parents be notified. This was done by personal call, and books to study were brought Wilhelm.

Seniors to Hear Judge Wm. Pannill At Commencement

Dr. Roy Biser to Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon at 11 A. M. June 2.

91 to Get Diplomas

About 25 Students Will Receive Degrees at Summer Exercises Aug. 24.

Judge William Pannill of Fort Worth will deliver the commencement address at 7:30 p. m., June 3, and Dr. Roy Biser, pastor of the Central Christian Church of Sherman, will preach the baccalaureate sermon at 11 a. m., June 2, at the University Christian Church, President E. M. Waits has announced.

Ninety-one diplomas will be awarded at this year's graduation, President Waits said. He added that about 25 diplomas are scheduled to be presented at the summer class graduation exercises, Aug. 24.

Judge Pannill, former chief justice of the Eleventh District Court of Civil Appeals and an authority on judicial matters, has sent five daughters and two sons to the University. The daughters all received degrees. One son, Hastings, is now a member of the junior class. The other son, William, attended T. C. U. before going to Ohio to do graduate work.

Texas Poet to Judge In Bryson Contest

Lexie Robinson, Author of 'Red Heels,' to Help Select 3 Best Poems.

Mrs. Lexie Dean Robinson of Tyler, well-known Texas poet, author of "Red Heels," will be one of the judges of the Bryson Poetry Contest this year.

Contestants for the Bryson poetry prize may submit more than one poem, but the total number of lines must not be more than 200, it has been announced.

The annual contest is to be held in May, and poems must be submitted in triplicate by May 15. Three prizes are to be awarded this year, instead of one, as formerly.

Poetry Clubbers Eat, Drink, Then Elect Officers

The lampoons and satires shot into the air by T. C. U. poets Tuesday night probably made Pope turn over in his grave, all green with envy. The Poetry Society went rustic or pastoral or anyway they went to the woods way off down a nature trail in Rockwood Park and had a picnic.

Between cracking and crunching potato chips and guzzling coca cola, A. L. Crouch managed to read all the dirty digs. Everybody got even with everybody else in poems about people. Each member wrote a poem about someone whose name he had drawn. Laugh at their "pomes" will yuh? Just wait till these poets wax sarcastic about you. Why Byron, himself, wouldn't have a chance with A. L.'s "Hall of Fame," and somebody said that Everett Gillis had better knit than try to write poetry.

No hard feelings, though. Many of the poems were very complimentary. For instance that rhyme about "if you looked on an ocean linah, you'd never find anything finah, than Ninah, not even Dinah."

All the poets and their guests gathered in a very poetic circle around an exceedingly artistic fire, inhaled smoke, slapped mosquitoes and "a lovely time was had by all" cheered by that so-called muse of poesy.

Officers elected for next year were: A. L. Crouch, president; George Cherryholmes, vice-president, and Miss Genevieve Papineau, secretary.

Every Day Is Mothers' Day For All of Us.

Mothers' Day! According to calculations figured by those who designate holidays on our calendar, Sunday, May 12 appears in red letters; meaning that on that date we are to honor the truest and best friend we ever had or have, as the case may be.

Sunday we shall all wear either the white or the red flower in honor of her who cared for us when we could not care for ourselves, cuddled and loved and nursed us through the years, and who schemed and planned that we might enjoy a happier life. Those of us who will wear the white rose are perhaps richer in memory of the beautiful deeds which SHE did for us while she could. We know what it is to appreciate her now . . . now that she is no longer here to guide and teach us her simple philosophy. Our white rose lives as a symbol of her pure love which she bestowed on us so lavishly. She really is not dead; she's only waiting to welcome us.

Those of us who will wear the red rose will be a cheerier lot, for we know how fortunate we are to have the blessings which only a living Mother can give. Some of us, perhaps, do not realize our prize. We sometimes are forgetful, other times we hurt by neglect and many times by disrespect. But her love is never shaken. She stands by us to the end.

To set aside one day in the year in honor of our mothers seems somewhat superficial, for every day is Mothers' Day whether we are conscious of it or not. We should honor her all year, not merely next Sunday.

But since tradition plays one of the leading roles in our lives today, we should observe next Sunday to the fullest degree. Numerous activities will be given on the campus, beginning tomorrow night when the physical education department presents the annual pageant in honor of our mothers. Sunday morning the dormitory students' mothers will be honored guests at a breakfast in the University Cafeteria, after which special services will be held in the University Church. Dormitory students will again honor their mothers when they hold open house and tea in Jarvis Hall Sunday afternoon.

Let's make this Mothers' Day the kind Mother would enjoy whether she be here, at home or at rest. She'll be your guest just the same.

Grades Should Be Awarded On Different Basis.

Abolish the letter markings of the traditional grading system of the colleges and substitute a more simple, a more easily and fairly applied system—such is the basis for a move under consideration on the campus of Syracuse University back East.

Backed by students and faculty, the move aims at the abolition of "angling for marks." It substitutes a three-grade marking system of "passing with honor," "passing," or "failing," instead of the cumbersome letter arrangement. It points toward the answer for the working-for-grades criticism of modern education and the substitution of a pure desire for knowledge.

This proposed three-grade scheme escapes the criticism directed at either the "plus-minus" or the letter markings. It grants two passing grades instead of one—one for the scholar with Phi Beta Kappa leanings and one for the student on the lookout for general knowledge. It gets away from the high-schoolish attitude that a student must be prodded and hounded by a multi-farious system of grades.

Stanford students, after all, pay directly for their university education. If a Rough wants to spend a life of ease for a quarter on the Farm, he applies to the registrar for that privilege. The university, however, can refuse his company for another quarter merely by flunking him. The proposed system provides for that.

After all, who wants the present unfair grading system besides the Phi Betes?

Band Gives Concert To Empty Seats.

If you think it's any fun giving a concert to an auditorium full of empty seats, help yourself to another guess, because you are wrong, as any member of the Horned Frog Band will testify.

A program as carefully-prepared as the concert given by the organization in the Auditorium Wednesday evening merited much better support than it received from the student body. The program was diversified enough to suit any taste, the band having run the gamut from the classics to the ever-popular "Tiger Rag."

Of the mere handful of those present at the concert, not more than half were students, and that is a bad sign.

Students have one more chance this year of showing their willingness to support the more worthwhile projects of the University. The Men's Glee Club, just back from a highly-successful tour of West Texas, will give its annual home concert at Central High School May 17.

This is an organization of proven worth, so co-operate in making the home appearance a success.

OPEN FORUM

NOTE: The opinions expressed in this column are the personal views of the writers and are not necessarily the policy of THE SKIFF. Letters over 250 words in length cannot be accepted. Anonymous letters will not be published, but a writer's name will be withheld from publication if he so desires.—Editor.

Editor, The Skiff:

To the Student Body:
Realizing the need for a literary magazine of quality on this campus, a group of interested students organized plans for such a publication. These plans were announced with generous publicity through Skiff columns, and the staff named the new-born publication "Cumtux" the date for the first issue being set for March 15th.

"Cumtux" was to be a magazine of the highest in quality, and it was for that reason, near the middle of March, it had not yet made its appearance. The material received up to that time was not up to standard desired by the staff; therefore, it was decided that the publication of this new literary creation should be prolonged until such material as was specified could be secured.

This date finds our needs satisfied. We have worked hard to secure what we thought the best, and we firmly believe when "Cumtux" appears on May 23, it will be a credit to Texas Christian University.

And so, even though beset with problems of finance and material, we are proud to announce that T. C. U.'s literary journal is to appear on the afore mentioned date.

The sincere thanks of the entire staff are in order to Prof. J. Willard Ridings, chairman; Prof. Rebecca Smith; and the Publications Committee; Editor Ben Sargent and Miss Kathryn Edwards of The Skiff staff; and all who have manifested an interest in this effort to give T. C. U. something worthwhile in a literary publication.

We hope you will enjoy "Cumtux." Cordially,
Grover C. Lee.

May 20 Will Terminate 'Lull Before the Storm'

BY KATHRYN EDWARDS.

Most of us are just biding our time these days, waiting for dates in the near future that loom as days of lots of fun and excitement for us. Although many picnics, banquets and camp parties are scheduled for next week, this period is perhaps the lull before the storm (we hope not dust) which is due to blow in around the twentieth. Surely that date is firmly fixed in your mind, for it is that Monday evening that you witness the debut of your 1935 Horned Frog. We'll tell you more about this ceremony later.

The ball will start rolling then 'tho' for all picnics, dances, banquets, teas, receptions and social events must be over by May 23... the official date which opens Dead Week for underclassmen. Senior Week and Dead Week will be one and the same this year regardless of how unfair it might seem to some of you. While you underprivileged are busily thumbing notebooks, texts and musty old volumes, the highbrow seniors will get on the band wagon and live and breathe good times for a week to be climaxed on June 3 in front of the fragrant honeysuckle at the North end of our lovely green campus. It's not time yet though to give our valedictories, so we'll just sign off for the present, since we've a deadline on our toes at this very moment. Lots of gossip next week for sure!

Sigma Tau Deltas Feature Contests
An interscholastic league meet was the theme of the annual Sigma Tau Delta banquet held Wednesday night at Virginia Lodge. Informal, extemporaneous contests furnished entertainment for the affair. The events were story-writing, debate, declamation, poetry, extemporaneous speaking, and dramatics. Winners in the contests were awarded ribbons and gold buttons.
Decorations carried out the interscholastic meet idea, miniature loving cups filled with candy being used as favors, and silver loving cups filled with spring flowers centering the tables. A miniature track meet formed the centerpiece, in which tiny hurdles, high jump and tennis court were used.
Mrs. Jane Schroeder presided, and Everett Gillis gave a toast to Dr. Rebecca W. Smith, sponsor, who was the honor guest.
Attending the banquet were Dr. Smith, Miss Mable Major, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Earline Walker, Misses Mary Kate Keller, Mary Elizabeth Hardy, Alma Bailey, Irene Cassidy, Billie Weed, Dorothy Henderson, Mary Louise Nash, Mary Elizabeth Roark, Mildred Mattison, Frances Martin and Gladys Simonson, and Ben Bussey, George Cherrymores, Leslie Yates, Billy Baker, Walter Hogg, Granville Walker and Gillis.

Curtain to Drop On 1935 Season At 3 P. M. Today

Frog Baseballers Will Oppose Baylor Bears.

Hoskins to Pitch

Wolfmen Need Victory to Remain in Running With Aggies for Second Place.

Coming from behind in the last two innings, the Baylor Bears eked out a 4-to-2 victory over the Christians in a 10-inning game played yesterday afternoon on the Purple diamond. Bill Hudson will hurl for the Frogs in this afternoon's contest.

By PAUL DONOVAN

The 1935 baseball season will be brought to a close this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Purple diamond when the Frogs face the Baylor Bears in the second of their two-game series.

With second place in the conference race still undecided, the Frogs will need a victory in today's fray to remain in the running with the A. & M. Aggies who tangle with the champion Texas Longhorns. Both the Frogs and the Cadets went into their final series tied for the runner-up position.

Coach Bear Wolf has named Boaz Hoskins as the starting pitcher this afternoon. Hoskins, senior member of the staff, has pitched consistent ball on every start in recent games, and Coach Wolf is confident that he will repeat against the Bears. It will be the final game of Hoskins' athletic career.

Three other members of the Frog nine will close their careers in today's contest. Capt. Jimmy Jacks, first-baseman; Dan Harston, left-fielder, and Frank Lozo, right-fielder, are the other seniors on the line. Lozo may be kept out of the game with a leg injury received in practice this week.

Forty-seven girls are playing in the W. A. A. tennis tournament which began this week. The girls who win the single matches and those who win the double matches will be given the rating of varsity, Miss Virginia Schell, manager, has announced.

Those participating in the tournament are Misses Mabel Joe Archer, Willie C. Austin, Ruth Campbell, Dot Candlin, Ruth Ramsay, Clemence Clark, Mary Corzine, Don Davis, Lu Ellen Evans, Florence Fallis, Milli Farris, Anna Louise Garrison, Gay Goldthwaite, Elizabeth Hendricks, Marian Hones, Elizabeth Hudson, Sarah Jane Hurley, Helen Miellmier, Dot Jones, Ann Jarvis, Marguerite Jordan, Bernice Johnson, Evelyn Lowe, Martha Rudmose, Eugenia Chappell, Elberta Peach, Esther Marner, Grace Martin, Grace Matthews, Gwen McSweeney, Helen Moody, Kathryn Pipkin.

Walkup In Golf Meet

Championship Will Be Decided on Houston Links Tomorrow.

Capt. Jimmy Walkup, the Horned Frogs' lone hope in the conference golf tournament, left Wednesday for Houston where the meet will be played today and tomorrow over the Braeburn links. He played a practice round yesterday to acquaint himself with the course.

Qualifying rounds will be played today and the medal play will open tomorrow morning.

Donovan's DOPE

By PAUL DONOVAN.

After this week-end all will be quiet on the campus as far as sports are concerned. Every conference sport on the calendar is scheduled to wind up tomorrow, leaving championships and honors for some and just memories for others. So after tomorrow a new play, "Sport Takes a Holiday" will open in every school of the conference.

The various Horned Frog teams, as we all know, are rank outsiders in every sport, and there is little chance of anything resembling a championship coming to the University. The baseball race, our strongest hope, has already been cinched by Texas, and in all other sports the Frogs are far below par in strength.

Track Coach Poss Clark has entered only six men in the conference track meet at College Station. With this limited squad it would be impossible to make a showing against full squads from other schools. Texas appears to have the inside track in the conference meet, and according to advance showings should not even be pushed hard for high point honors.

In the conference tennis meet in Austin the Purple will be better fortified, but the odds are great against their finishing very high. Judy Truelson, Mark Hart, Ronald Wheeler, Atys Gardner and Don McLeland are teamed up to give the Frogs a formidable squad, but the competition is plenty stiff this year. Texas and Rice are expected to fight it out for team honors.

If Judy Truelson is in top form he will give somebody a hot match or two before he is eliminated. This will be Judy's athletic swan song, so he will be fighting harder than ever to add a successful finish to a highly successful career in sports. For three years he has been a member of the football, basketball and tennis teams, and has even been on the track team two years to become the busiest athlete on the campus.

Young Don McLeland is the only other Frog conceded any chance to keep the Frog netmen in the running. Playing his first year on the varsity team he has come along fast to establish himself as a threat. With more experience in conference play he should become one of the ranking netmen of the Southwest.

The conference golf tournament is being held in Houston today and tomorrow, and it is here that T. C. U. really has a chance to win. All the hopes rest on one man, Jimmy Walkup, but he has shown enough in previous matches to mark him as one of the favorites. The championship this year will be decided by medal play over 72 holes. Walkup is capable of turning in a low enough score to win or at least put him near the front. He too will be closing his athletic career, and nothing could be more fitting than to walk off with the tournament and the cup.

There are four senior members of the baseball team who will be playing their final game today. They are Capt. Jimmy Jacks, Dan

Rain Halts Game And Frogs Lose

Aggies Leading 7 to 2 When Contest Is Called Off.

Rain halted the Horned Frog-Aggie baseball game Saturday in College Station after five innings had been played and when the Cadets were leading 7 to 2.

The two teams were scheduled to play a double-header on the A. & M. diamond, but since the second game had no bearing on the championship, it was cancelled. The single victory in the short contest placed the Aggies in a tie with the Frogs for second place in the conference standings.

Boaz Hoskins, Purple pitcher, received ragged support from his mates to permit the Farmers to pile up a comfortable lead. Only two hits were made off Hoskins in the first four innings, but, coupled with the Purple errors, gave the Cadets enough runs to win the game.

The two Frog tallies came in the third inning on two hits and a base on balls. The Aggies counted one in the first, one in the third, two in the fourth and three in the fifth to take command.

Capt. Jimmy Jacks, hard hitting first sacker, led the Frog offense with two hits in three trips. Hutto of the winners led the Aggies with two safeties.

Boeck Talks to League

Dr. A. L. Boeck talked to the Peoples' Progressive League at the Westbrook Hotel Monday on "The Economic and Social Implications of the Holding Company." Dr. W. J. Hammond introduced him.

Harston, Frank Lozo and Boaz Hoskins, all lettermen. The failure of the Frog nine to win the championship was a disappointment to all concerned, but to these four especially. At the first of the season it looked like the Frogs had a nine that could breeze right through all competition, and high hopes were built up. However, the other teams were stronger than expected, so our hopes were wrecked by those Texas Longhorns.

Whether or not any of these senior ball players will be signed by professional teams is not known as yet. They have been watched by scouts this year, but nothing will be disclosed until the close of the season.

Ace Trackster

Dutch Kline will be the Christians' biggest hope in the annual conference track meet, being held in A. & M. this week-end. Coach Mack Clark took four other thisty-clad performers to Aggie land. Kline recently ran the 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds.

Tennis Team in Austin

5 Men Participating in Southwest Conference Meet.

Five members of the varsity tennis squad left for Austin Wednesday afternoon to participate in the Southwest Conference-Tennis Tournament which began yesterday. Judy Truelson, Mark Hart, Atys Gardner and Don McLeland will enter the singles tournament.

Two doubles teams will be entered. Truelson will team with Hart for one combination while Ronald Wheeler will play with McLeland.

Band Will Attend C. of C. Convention

30 Members to Leave Monday Night for Plainview for Two-Day Meeting.

Thirty members of the Horned Frog Band will leave at 10 o'clock Monday night on the Chamber of Commerce special for Plainview, where they will play for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. They will return to Fort Worth Wednesday night. The band played at Moslaß Temple last night for the monthly Shrine meeting. They played a short program yesterday afternoon in the University auditorium for students of Central High School who were visitors on the campus making an inspection tour of the science laboratories.

Clark Takes Six Men To Conference Meet

Sprint Relay Team Is Frogs' Hope - Five Events to Be Entered.

A six-man track team, led by Coach Mack Clark, is representing the University in the Southwest Conference track meet at College Station today and tomorrow.

A sprint relay team composed of Capt. George Kline, Mitchell McGraw, Herman Pittman and Bob Harrell is the Frogs' strongest hope for points. Capt. Kline will also run the dashes, and Harrell has entered the 440-yard dash. Other Purple entrants are Tony Vargas in the two-mile run and Buck Roberson in the hurdles.

Qualifying heats will be run today, with the finals in all events scheduled for tomorrow.

Wednesday Date Of "T" Initiation

"Next Wednesday has been selected as the date of the spring initiation of new "T" Association members," Mark Hart, secretary, has announced.

New lettermen in track, basketball, tennis, and golf are eligible for membership in the association: Byrum Saam, Vernon Brown, Don McLeland and several members of the track team are expected to be initiated.

Cumtux Scheduled To Appear May 23

Cumtux, T. C. U.'s new literary journal, will be ready May twenty-third. Originally scheduled to appear during March, the publication of the magazine was postponed because of lack of material.

"At the very outset, it was our aim to put out a magazine of the highest quality as to content, and we feel that our delay has been for the best," says Grover C. Lee, managing editor.

"Cumtux will include the choicest literary work of T. C. U. students. We feel that this first edition will be well received, too."

Only a limited number of copies will be obtainable. The magazine will cost 25 cents a copy, Lee said.

Frog Forensic Team Winner of Decision

T. C. U. Debaters Annex Debate With Texas Wesleyan College Pair.

The Frog Forensic Fraternity debate team, J. B. Trimble and W. A. Welch, upholding the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved that New Deal policies should be continued," Tuesday won the decision over Texas Wesleyan College debaters. The debate was given before the Women's Good Government League at the Texas Hotel, reports Dr. Allen True, sponsor. Cy Record and Truitt Kennedy took the negative side of the debate.

"Using methods like this to educate women to become better acquainted with civic and state political affairs, thereby developing a better educated woman's public, is one of the many modern methods for this purpose and is a good one," Dr. True said.
