Trial By Jury To Be Presented By Mixed Chorus

2nd Operetta on Campus Will Be Given in February.

Orchestra to Play

Miss Katherine Moore Will Direct Stage Play—W. J. Marsh in Charge of Music.

The second operetta ever to be given on the campus by students will be "Trial by Jury," a dramatic cantata by W. S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, to be presented by members of the T. C. U. Mixed Chorus during February, reports Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon, co-sponsor of the chorus with W. J. Marsh.

"Miss Katherine Moore will direct the stage play and Marsh the music of the operetta," Mrs. Cahoon said.

The University Orchestra will play some old English music in keeping with the time of Gilbert. Mrs. Helen Murphy will direct several Old English dances by members of her dancing class.

"Members of the legal profession of Fort Worth and their wives will be invited to come out and be patrons at the operetta," Mrs. Cahoon said. The setting for the cantata will be an ordinary court room.

"Hansel and Gretel" was the first operetta ever given by students on the campus. It was presented during the spring session of 1931, Mrs. Cahoon said.

Barbara Ann Arnold Is "Champeen" Knitter

Seven Suits in Every Color in One Year Is Record of Jarvis Hall Girl.

If you happen to need any knitting instructions, don't hesitate to call on Miss Barbara Ann Arnold. She might well be termed the "champeen" knitter of T. C. U., for she has knitted seven suits.

Don't delay because of the time either, since a certain young lady in Jarvis Hall aroused Barbara Ann at the late hour of 11:30 the other night to ask her how to go on with her sleeve.

She has many girls whom she helps, namely Misses Clemence Clark, Mable Jo Archer, Jo Ann Montgomery, Dorothy Candlin, Matty Passmore and Eda Fay Chaney.

She has been knitting but a year, and she attributes her speed of completing the seven suits to the fact that wherever she goes her knitting accompanies her (classes excepted, of course.)

She has knitted with all kinds of thread, and the colors of her various dresses are blue, brown, grey, pink, white, and green.

All boys interested might apply at the president's office, where she works.

To Have Open Forum

Forensic Society to Discuss New Debate Subject.

The Frog Forensic Fraternity will have an open forum on the new debate subject of the Pi Kappa Delta at the meeting of the club at 7 p. m. Monday in Room 204, reports Dr. C. Allen True, sponsor.

The subject is, "Resolved: That Congress by a two-thirds majority vote can declare any 5-4 decision of the United States Supreme Court declaring a law unconstitutional null and void."

David Scouler Singing in New York Church

David Scouler, former professor in T. C. U., now holds the position of first tenor in the Rutgers Presbyterian Church of New York City.

Scouler is also studying with Marshall Bartholomew, head of the voice department of Yale University.

Dictators Will Play

The Dictators will play for a dance from 9 until 1 o'clock tonight at the University Club.

Centenary Exes In TCU Will Back Frogs Saturday

T. C. U. may rest assured Saturday that it will have at least two wholehearted backers for the Frogs—namely Misses Mary Emma Neyland and Marjorie Lanier. These two senior girls will be revisiting the campus of their former Alma Mater, but have pledged themselves to support the T. C. U. gridsters to the best of their ability.

The girls are cousins and were roommates at Centenary. Their parents had always wanted them to graduate from a Texas University, and since they had heard so many nice things about T. C. U. they packed their bags and here they are.

"We like Centenary fine, but believe T. C. U. has a better team and KNOW it will win the Conference," they said.

Should there be any resentment on the part of the Gentlemen, the girls will merely reply, "We must support the team of the school we are attending."

Dramatic Club Will Broadcast

Members to Give Plays Over KFJZ 2 Tuesdays Monthly.

The Dramatic Club will sponsor a new radio feature over station KFJZ from 10 to 10:15 o'clock on two Tuesday evenings a month. The first program will be presented next Tuesday.

Tuesday's program will be a radio version of the winning freshman play, "We Met Last Year." Those who will participate are Miss Elizabeth Bryan, director, Miss Peggy Leland, Miss Hilda McKinley, Bill Scott and George Cassidy.

The next program will be the sophomore play, it has been announced.

Purple and White Uniforms Glisten

Band Frosh Bid Old Suits Adieu With Concert for Students.

The Aggies may have been dressed in uniforms, but they didn't even compare with those worn by the Frog Band members Saturday. New uniforms for band members mean several things. Initiation is repeated for the Frosh, the senior members get a chance to wear a new suit before graduation, and the officials of the band get a chance to say, "Lookie what we did."

In bidding the old uniforms adieu and the new ones welcome, the freshmen in the band donned the 1924 models and paraded on the campus. While giving a concert, in front of Goode Hall, one of the freshmen was asked to read something interesting out of The Skiff to a couple of upperclassmen. He started off reading something about the Freshman-Sophomore play contest and was quickly reminded that news about the freshmen wasn't of interest to the upperclassmen. Into Goode he was escorted and when he came out he was doing some tall reading about how good a team the Frog squad was.

'Swordman' Griffin Revives Days When Knighthood Was in Flower

There's a swashbuckling swordsman in T. C. U.—well, anyway, a swordsman. Travis Griffin, personable blue-eyed freshman, instructs classes in fencing in the boys' physical education department.

All this interest in fencing came about when Travis had to fight a duel. No, it wasn't an "affair of honor" with an insulted Frenchman, but a part in a high school play which required some knowledge of fencing.

That was three years ago. Since then he has not only become skilled in the art of sword-play, but was captain of a fencing team at the

PIGSKIN PUNS

A. & M. Favorite Of T. C. U. Co-eds For Student Trip

From the past records it looks as if the co-eds on the campus do more voting in student body elections than the men do. Students in the University have been making official football trips since 1928, and the trip most frequently made has been to College Station.

The first trip, in 1928, was to College Station . . . then to Austin in 1929 . . . back to College Station in 1930 . . . Austin in 1931 . . . Shreveport in 1932 . . . College Station in 1933. . . Houston last year, and off for a big time to Shreveport on the official trip tomorrow.

Back in the good ole days it was with all the might and power of the Administration of the University that the holiday and trip were made possible. Now the democratic spirit of the 20th century prevails, and the students do the voting.

It is quite evident that the backing of the student body on these trips gets results. Out of the seven trips made by the students, the Frogs have won six of the ball games concerned.

Doris Commander To Play Over KTAT

Miss Doris Commander will give a violin recital on the T. C. U. program over station KTAT at 4 p. m. Sunday, reports Prof. Claude Sammis. Prof. Keith Mixson will be the piano accompanist. "Music Education" will be the subject of a talk by Victor B. Acers, Fort Worth voice teacher, on the program from 4:15 to 4:30 p. m.

105 Transfers Enroll in T. C. U.

Students Here From 49 Different Colleges and Universities.

T. C. U. can boast this year that it has lured 105 students from 49 other schools onto its campus. Not only have the students come from all over the United States, but also one student has come all the way from South America to claim T. C. U. for his Alma Mater.

N. T. A. C. has contributed 17 students to the University. It can say that more of its students are transfers to T. C. U. than from any other one school.

N. T. S. T. C. has nine of its exes in T. C. U., as does the University of Texas.

Six girls from C. I. A. have joined the ranks of T. C. U., discarding their red and white banner for a purple and white.

The University of Colorado and Baylor University have sent five students each to represent them in T. C. U.

T. W. C., E. T. S. T. C., and John Tarleton have each given T. C. U. three of their students.

Seven schools have sent two students each. They are Virginia Intermont and Incarnate Word, A. & M., Johnson Bible College, Centenary, W. T. S. T. C., Texas Tech, and Tyler Junior College.

Thirty-one schools are represented by one student only. They are Colegio De San Gabriel, South America, Baylor College, Amarillo Junior, Edinburg Junior, Weatherford Junior, San Angelo Junior, Hollins College, Tyler Commercial College, Ward-Belmont, El Paso Junior, Peabody, S. W. S. T. C., Rice Institute, Arkansas College, A. C. C., Southwestern University, Ranger Junior, Burleson Junior College, Randolph Junior, Springfield Bible College, Columbia University, T. S. T. C., Trinity University, Colorado Women's College, Oklahoma Central State Teachers College, Sul Ross State Teachers College, Westminster University, Wm. Woods, Stephen F. Austin Teachers College, Gonzaga University, and Hillsboro Junior College.

Miss Bailey Gives Recitals

Miss Katherine Bailey visited in Clarksville and Detroit, Tex., last week-end. Miss Bailey gave a recital at the homecoming of the New Century and-Shakespeare Club of Clarksville Saturday afternoon and a benefit recital for the Detroit Community Chrest Sunday.

Snooper Snoops Into Early Life Of Horned Frogs

What did all the big tough Frogs do when they were little boys? A little snooping revealed that:

Vic Montgomery played cowboy all the time and twirled a string in school.

Sam Baugh worshipped Tom Mix as his hero. Sam even went so far as to carry two wooden guns to school until he got to the eighth grade.

Darrell Lester played Indian and really could let out a war whoop.

Jimmy Jacks and Walter Roach grew up together. They climbed trees, played cowboy and went hunting. Marbles took up most of their time, however.

Solon Holt rode a stick horse until his early teens and then took up marbles.

Dutch Kline didn't like to fool around with foolish playing; he went hunting.

Charlie Needham liked to play, but had to work. In his spare time he hunted and fished a lot because he could rest at that.

Jimmy Lawrence played horse with his older brother. Jimmy was the horse most of the time.

Tiny Godwin had to (Aw, Tiny!) play dolls with his sisters. He said they were o'der and made him.

W. A. A. Girls Prefer Tennis So-o-o Overcrowded Courts

If you should want to play tennis sometime and you find that the courts are all filled with girls, don't become exasperated. Don't even be surprised. In fact, you will be lucky if you find an empty court at all this winter. Fifty-nine of the 123 W. A. A. members are going to play tennis at least 30 hours between now and spring.

By the use of a little simple arithmetic you will find that this all means that the courts will be occupied by W. A. A. girls 1,770 hours, which is practically 148 days. If you treat the fairer sex nicely perhaps they will be so kind as to let you play with them once in a while.

Here is something to gladden your heart, boys. Forty-two of the W. A. A. girls intend to hike 30 hours. At least, you can ask the girl friend to walk with a certain degree of safety. You can be fairly sure that she enjoys walking. If you believe in safety first you might hint around and find out if she signed up for hiking in the W. A. A.

Student Body Special Leaves T. & P. Station At 6:30 A. M. Tomorrow For Shreveport

Official Holiday Will Be Observed for Excursion to Centenary Game and Louisiana State Fair-Barbecue to Be Given.

Led by the Horned Frog Band, the student body will board a special train at 6:30 a. m. tomorrow at the Texas and Pacific Station for its official trip to Shreveport, the T. C. U.-Centenary game and the Louisiana State Fair. The train will reach Shreveport at 12 o'clock.

An official holiday has been declared by the University for the trip. On reaching the Louisiana city the band will lead a parade downtown. After the parade a free barbecue will be served in front of the grandstand at the Louisiana State Fair grounds. Students will go to the fair grounds in street cars or taxis.

Band To Take 42 To Shreveport

To Feature Parade, New Drills, Formations Between Halves.

Texas Christian University will send a 42-piece Horned Frog band to Shreveport for the Centenary game tomorrow. The band will be accompanied by Director Claude Sammis, Asst. Director Don Gillis, Drum Major Weldon Allen and Miss Helen Moody, band sweetheart.

Under the direction of Allen, the band will parade through downtown Shreveport Saturday morning and will take the field between halves to present an entirely new drill. The band will first form "C C L," for Centenary College of Louisiana and will then march to the opposite side of the field where it will form "TCU." The band will play Kenneth Vaughn's new arrangement of "Dinah."

The instrumentation and personnel of the band will be:

Trumpets, Elton Beene, Wayne Dunlap, Ed Loe, James McBride, Field Baughman, Kenneth Vaughn, Randolph Wright, Herman Pittman, Clyde Hurley, Meggs King, Robert Ballenger and Walter Bradley. Clarinets, Pat Clifford, Don McLeland, Clyde Allen, James Petty, Walter Petta, Charles Oswald, David Hickey, George Cuthrell, Waltham Walton and P. L. Nichols.

Oboes, Ellis Mercer and Clay Dillon; piccolo, Herschel Gibbs; horns, Charles Wilson, Roger McLeland, Harrell Rea, Bob Belzner and Horace McDowell; trombones, Vincent Ziegler, Jack Wiggins, Bill De Vlaming and E. C. Carver.

Basses, Hays Bacus and Paul Ridings; drums, Charles Jefferies, Walter Moody, A. M. Ewing, Raymond Michero, Lee Pierce and Johnny Long.

Dr. Rebecca Smith to Speak

Dr. Rebecca Smith will speak on "The Significance of Stark Young" at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the City Presbyterian Church of Dallas. Dr. Smith is being presented by the City Temple Woman's Union at a tea. She is to be introduced by Mrs. Goldie Capers Smith.

The football game between the Horned Frogs and the Centenary Gentlemen will be staged in the Fair Park Stadium at 2:30 p. m. as a feature of the fair.

Railroad tickets and tickets to the game will be on sale at the stadium until 5 o'clock this afternoon. Tickets should be purchased before that time, although a limited number will be available on the train tomorrow morning. Students must present their athletic books when they buy their tickets.

Railroad tickets are $3.40. Admission to the game, including admission to the fair grounds, is 40 cents.

The special will leave Shreveport at 12:30 a. m. Sunday. Students may remain in Shreveport Sunday with special permission from home or from the dean of women. Railroad tickets may be used on the regular trains leaving for Fort Worth at 7:05 a. m. and at 2:40 p. m. Sunday.

Dormitory students will be served breakfast in the University Cafeteria in time to make the train tomorrow, Mrs. Georgia Harris has announced.

No information concerning a student dance in Shreveport had been obtained yesterday afternoon.

IRC to Give Program in Chapel on Nov. 6

Members Will Represent Political Leaders of 7 Countries.

Impressions of different political leaders of seven countries will be the chapel program for Nov. 6 under the direction of the International Relations Club. Granville Walker will act as chairman.

Those who will represent the leaders are: C. H. Richards, Laval of France; Richard Poll, Hitler of Germany; W. A. Welsh, Mussolini of Italy; J. B. Trimble, Anthony Eden of England; Truitt Kennedy, Roosevelt of the United States; Morton Klein, Stalin of Russia; and Joe Findley, Haile Selassie of Ethiopia.

Dr. W. J. Hammond led an open forum on "The United States' Attitude on the Ethiopian Question" at a meeting of the club Wednesday night.

Sargent to Work At Worth Theater

Ben Sargent, editor of the Skiff last year, was appointed assistant director of publicity for the Worth Theater by Charles Carden, director, early this week.

Sargent, a journalism major who graduated last June, takes his position immediately. While in T. C. U. Sargent was editor of the Skiff, a member of the Student Council, a member of the Horned Frog staff, business manager of his class during his freshman and sophomore years and a member of the Dana Press Club for three years.

Sargent and his brother, Joe, who was editor of the Skiff before Ben, and is now a member of the staff of the Fort Worth Press, worked their way through T. C. U. by operating their own print shop.

Dean Hall to Attend Meet

Dean Colby D. Hall will attend a district meeting on "Curriculum Building of State Education" Saturday in Cleburne. He is chairman of this district.

Dance Decoration Excuses Could Stop

Why aren't some permanent decorations worked out for the school dances? The students are continually hearing that the decorations at a certain dance are the best that there can be under the circumstances.

"The student council does not want to spend money for dance decorations now, as permanent decorations are to be worked out." This seems to be the excuse for the poorly decorated dances.

The success of a dance depends to some extent upon the decorations. Perhaps this shouldn't be true, but it is, nevertheless. Perhaps students should enjoy dancing just as much in a barn as in a decorated hall, but the fact remains that decorations play an important part in the success of a dance.

It must be admitted that the Basketball Gymnasium is large and difficult to decorate. Do not forget that other schools have just as difficult buildings to decorate. They have succeeded where T. C. U. has failed.

Up to the present there has been only talk about permanent dance decorations. Why not have some action?

Select Popularity Candidates On Their Own Merits

Soon the T. C. U. student body must select the girls who will be presented in the Popularity Review, sponsored annually by the Horned Frog. The winners, two from each class, will be honored with pages in the yearbook.

The winning of a popularity page is a distinct honor, and the girl who receives one may feel justly proud.

In selecting these girls the student body should take several factors into consideration. First, is the girl truly representative of T. C. U.? Second, is she known and liked by town and dormitory students? Third, does she take part in campus activities? And fourth, would you be proud for the girl to represent T. C. U. on other campuses?

Then, too, it might be well to consider whether or not the girl has won a page before. There are, of course, two sides to the question. Some believe that no girl is entitled to a page more than one year, saying that once she has established herself as a popularity page winner, she will remain so in the eyes of students throughout her college career. Others contend that a girl should have as many as four pages if she receives enough votes to win them. They say also that if after winning a page once the girl were eliminated, then soon the girls who were selected would not actually be the most popular in T. C. U.

The Horned Frog leaves the question entirely up to you. Think the matter over and begin to make your choices now. Do not wait until the day of election and vote for a girl simply because the person next to you in chapel did.

Choose wisely, for much of T. C. U.'s reputation depends upon the winners of the Horned Frog Popularity Review.

It's the Official Trip. Let's All Make It!

Last week members of the student body by an overwhelming majority selected Shreveport for their official trip. Now many students are planning not to make the trip, saying either that they had rather go to Austin or that they have other plans for the week-end. Many of those students voted to go to Shreveport—and should make the trip if they possibly can. It seems unfair for those who had no intention of making the trip either to Austin or Shreveport to vote, because their votes might have changed the results entirely. The selection should be left to those who are at least planning to go to one of the games.

Shreveport is planning a big time for the T. C. U. students again. Seldom has a town so exerted itself to make a trip pleasant as did the Louisiana city when T. C. U. students journeyed there two years ago. A free barbecue and admission to the Louisiana State Fair, which is in progress there, are among the features of the entertainment—and tickets to the football game cost only 40 cents, which is an unusually low price.

The game against the Centenary Gentleman will be a hard one and the Horned Frogs will need your support. Make the delegation to Shreveport representative of the T. C. U. student body.

Fault of the Children Or of the Mothers?

Raising children is evidently an easy task in the opinion of many mothers in the surrounding vicinity of T. C. U. They have assumed the fact that if they turn their kids loose someone else will take care of them and they will be relieved of the responsibility. This is a mistaken idea on their part, a distinct hardship upon the children, and produces an element commonly known to students of the University as "Rats."

Cruel? Yes. But emphatically true. The result is not only a disadvantage to the students of the University, but a liability to the University itself. The children, because of improper discipline, acquire the characteristic of destruction for sheer delight. Windows are broken out, property of the students and the University is stolen, the dormitories and Administration Building are frequented by these kids and damage in general is the result. They are thus ushered in on a road of life that often ends disastrously. Must the campus be patrolled in order to do away with the nuisance?

ALONG SHOW ROW

By RAYMOND MICHERO

"Come out here, Elviry, and say hello to the folks!"

"I ain't a'gonter do it. I said I wasn't a'gonter, and I ain't!"

Yep, you guessed it. They're in again. It's the Weaver Brothers, Abner and Cicero, and their sister, Elviry, the famous "Arkansaw Travelers," who'll open a four-day engagement on the Worth stage tomorrow.

It's their farewell tour, so the press reports say.

They'll be supported in an all-laugh stage and screen menu by Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, who will appear in the screen portion of the bill-of-fare in "The Rainmakers."

"I Live My Life," starring Joan Crawford, will be the Worth's midnight show offering tomorrow night. "Dr.ocrates," with Paul Muni, will open a three-day engagement starting Wednesday.

Clark Gable, Jean Harlow and Wallace Beery shoot the works in their display of acting ability to make "China Seas," the Majestic's movie offering starting tomorrow, one of the best movies of the current season.

"Bright Lights," with Joe E. Brown, Patricia Ellis and Ann Dvorak will be ushered in Wednesday.

The Palace will offer a Zane Grey western, "Thunder Mountain," with George O'Brien, starting tomorrow.

The redheads get a break in this theater's movie offering starting Wednesday. It's "Redheads On Parade," with John Boles and Dixie Lee (Mrs. Bing Crosby). Forty-eight redheads, one from each state in the union, have parts in the picture.

Ben Sargent, former editor of The Skiff, who pounded out this column last year, is editor of the Worth's new tabloid news-sheet, "The Worthian," which made its appearance this week.

Charlie Carden, Worth publicist, says the new journalistic offering is "very cute."

We suggest a vote of thanks for Richard Cole and his orchestra for the open house at the Blackstone Sunday afternoon.

Longhorns, Owls To Play No. 1 Tilt

Baylor—A. and M. Game to Be Only Other Conference Fray Scheduled.

Tomorrow Austin will not only be the capital of Texas but also the football capital of the Southwest Conference. There the Rice Owls will fight the Longhorns for a place in the conference race.

The game is by long odds the outstanding tilt of the week, and any dopster who thinks well of his reputation for forecasting would do well to wait until next Saturday night to pick a winner here.

A second conference contest will be played at College Station, between the Aggies and Baylor. Most fans seem to feel the Farmers will dump the Bears from the undefeated class.

S. M. U. and Arkansas have rest-periods coming up on their schedules. The Methodists will journey to neutral territory—Wichita Falls—to meet the Cowboy eleven of Hardin-Simmons. While the latter play good football, they are not conceded much against the strong 1935 Mustangs.

Arkansas takes on the College of the Ozarks in Fayetteville, probably using the game to perfect their offense for A. & M. the following week in Little Rock.

Centenary Gents Are 1-Up on TCU In 6-Game Series

The Centenary Gentlemen are 1-up on the T. C. U. Horned Frogs in the football series between the two schools, to be renewed in Shreveport tomorrow afternoon.

The Gentlemen have won three games, the Frogs two, and one was a scoreless tie.

The series started back in 1923 when Bo McMillan was at the helm for Centenary. Bo's crimson-jerseyed eleven came to Fort Worth that year and crushed a lighter Frog team 23 to 0.

The Christians made it 1-all in 1926, when the Gentlemen again came to Fort Worth for the second game between the two schools. The score this time was 26 to 14 in favor of T. C. U.

The last four games have all been played in Shreveport, the contests having been made a feature of the Louisiana State Fair.

Centenary won in 1927 by a score of 7 to 3. In 1929 T. C. U.'s first championship outfit swamped the Gentlemen 28 to 0. The scoreless tie came in 1933. Then last year the Gentlemen came out on top by a 13-to-0 count.

"Significance, Triviality" Sermon for This Sunday

"Significance and Triviality" will be the subject of the Rev. Perry Gresham's sermon at 11 a. m. Sunday at the University Christian Church. The message of the vesper service will be "Worship and Life." The Junior chorus of the University Church will sing at the service, which is at 5:30 p. m.

Moving pictures taken of the people as they left the church two weeks ago will be shown at a fellowship dinner which is to be given at the church Wednesday evening.

Dr. Main of Australia Speaks in Brite Chapel

Dr. A. R. Main, president of Glen Iris Bible College, Melbourne, Australia, spoke at Brite College Chapel today.

Dr. Main is visiting on the campus, following the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ at San Antonio. Last August he attended the world convention in Leicester, England.

A college professor said of late that the I.Q. of most chorus girls was above that of the average college girl . . . what do you think about that, co-eds? . . . Maybe you haven't been reading enough Chaucer, Beowulf and Popeye.

Now if you don't like the content of this column don't ask the Skiff editor, because he won't tell you . . . You see there is such a thing as an editor writing a few lines for the paper himself once in a while.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The opinions expressed in this column are the personal views of the writers and are not necessarily the policy of The Skiff. Students are invited to write to the Open Forum. Letters of more than 250 words are not accepted. Anonymous letters will not be published, but a writer's name will be withheld from publication if so desired.

Dear Editor: There comes a time in everyone's life when there is an urge to write the student body a letter and cast rocks and posies.

The awakening of the old Fighting Frog spirit in the student body has been the chief aim of the yell leaders this year. For so long a time the pep has lain dormant that it is quite a task to bring back the activity that is so necessary for a championship or a winning ball club.

The freshmen—Lord love them—have co-operated in every way that they could, BUT Saturday when the Aggies started their goal line march the majority of the students would yell half-heartedly, but then there was a let up. It isn't the organized yell that makes touches; it's the CHATTER. Please understand that there is a link between the team and the students and that link is the steady hum of encouragement, the rumble of approval.

That's what makes a fighting outfit, that's the reason a team won't give up. A football game may not be worth the sacrifice that is given by the team—by the yell leaders—by the student body, but a winning team should have more spirit than our student body is giving them.

Students, let's get behind our Frogs and pull them in, lodged firmly in first place. Try just a little harder to make CHATTER at the games. It doesn't matter whether you say "Come on, Froggies," or "Fight 'em," it all sums up to mean that you are behind, in spirit and in voice, those who wear the Purple and White of T. C. U.

Thanks, OLIN JONES.

Dear Editor: What does the Alma Mater mean to you? When the Aggie team came on the field Saturday the Farmer band struck up their alma mater. Our band was silent. Everyone stood up and took their hats off. After they had finished playing their college song they continued with several other tunes, and the Horned Frog Band was forced to refrain from playing the Frog Alma Mater when the Horned Frogs came on the field.

Was this thoughtlessness or just plain rudeness on the part of the Aggie Band? You had a swell team, Aggies, and a great band, but if that is your idea of sportsmanship you had better find out what the word means.

'34 Skiff Files Show Popularity Of W.A.A. Girls

Two things were occupying the limelight at this time last year. The first steps were being taken to reorganize a T. C. U. Debating Club.

W. A. A. was the envy of the campus because of its dance and its sudden popularity, due partly to the desirability to be asked as a date or stag.

In 1933 the first student trip to Shreveport was made. It was decided also to ban the annual Homecoming bonfire because of the expense and damage to property.

The Men's and Girls' Glee Clubs decided to sponsor and aid in the staging of "Moonlight Mesa," an original musical comedy written by Dr. Rebecca Smith and Dr. H. D. Guelick of the fine arts department three years ago.

In 1931 the journalism department was moved to new headquarters in the gymnasium. At this time there were 52 students in the department. This was during the fifth year that journalism courses were being offered.

Ann Cauker Attends North Texas "Y" Council

Miss Ann Cauker, North Texas Area chairman for the Y. W. C. A., attended an area council meeting of the "Y's" at S. M. U. Tuesday. She was accompanied by Misses Fern Babcock and Helen Morton.

Plans were made for an inter-collegiate conference of the North Texas Area to be held in Marshall Nov. 14, 15 and 16 at which T. C. U. will be represented.

Last year Bishkin, who weighs 320 pounds, gave military science department officials headaches trying to get uniforms large enough to fit him, and this year it was decided that he needn't do his bit for national defense.

Uniforms Too Small

Freshmen and sophomores at the University of Oklahoma resort to many ruses to avoid taking military science, but Harold Bishkin, El Campo, Texas, was excused without asking.

SHORTY SPORTS PLANTS

By CARL MAXWELL

Does anyone know where Coach Meyer can get a good all-steel, one-ton left tackle? The Frogs' opponents have been cracking down on the poor left tackles like "G" men at a public enemy convention.

The trouble started this season when Paul Hill, gigantic footballer, decided not to re-enter school. Drew Ellis was changed from guard to tackle to take Hill's place and was injured in the first game. Tiny Godwin, the usual starter, borrowed Ellis' crutches up to a couple of days before the A. & M. game. And Aubrey Linne, the Frogs' only healthy left tackle, was taken from the game on the first play last Saturday with torn ligaments in one knee. To top it all, Lincoln Walker, who was supposed to replace Linne if he needed it, threw his hip out of joint and could hardly walk before the game.

When Linne was taken from the game, Godwin limped in to replace him, and when Tiny got tired, Drew Ellis staggered into the fray on his one good leg and held out against the Aggies for 45 long minutes. Ellis turned back everything the Cadets offered him the first half, and did as well or better than anyone else the last half against an inspired Aggie team. Ellis had been in uniform only two or three days and was not expected to go until tomorrow's game at least.

Jimmy Lawrence was "flies in the Aggie's soup" Saturday. His 62-yard jaunt, the Frogs' second play from scrimmage, was more than instrumental in downing A. & M. It takes the pepper out of a team to have one play gain back all the yardage for their opponents that a march has netted them. Lawrence's brilliant run did just that. When he was finally brought down, the pigskin rested just eight yards from pay dirt. Kline took it over on the next play. Jimmy was the Frogs' main offensive threat, lugging the ball for several more long gains. He starred on the defense, too, intercepting two or three Aggie passes.

Those Aggies were really tough. Jack Tittle, sophomore center, came out after his turn with a broken rib; Dutch Kline was knocked out; Linne hurt his knee so badly that he'll be out for two or three weeks, and Tiny Godwin reinjured his leg. DeWare, Aggie center, was knocked out and removed from the game early in the second quarter.

Rex Clark made two beautiful catches last Saturday. You really have to be fast to get as far back of the defensive half-back as Clark did. We'd have been in a heap of a shape if Rex had missed either of those passes, with the game turning out like it did. Sam Baugh's heaves were exactly in the right spot, too—just the right amount of lead—so good that Rex would have had to turn in his uniform if he'd missed either of them.

While T. C. U. was holding her 19-point lead, things were happening over Dallas way. The nation's ranking grid machine, the Southwest Conference Champions, were being shelled to the tune of 10 to 0 by an unbeatable Mustang eleven. Newspaper recognition seems to be a bad thing in this conference. It must make the other teams mad to see one guy getting all the "goodie." For the last few years S. M. U. has been famous nationally for her "Aerial Circus," while back at home they were being knocked off right and left by teams that smother them with forward passes.

Tomorrow the Frogs take on the tough Centenary Gentlemen of Shreveport. The Gents take unholy pleasure in taking the measure of Southwest Conference teams because they have been refused admittance to this circuit. Every year they take on

Frogs Will Play 3 P. M. Tomorrow In Shreveport

Entire Purple Squad Will Make Trip To Louisiana.

Linne Not to Play

Game to Be Seen by 500 Students and Fans From Fort Worth.

The Horned Frogs meet the Centenary Gentlemen at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The T. C. U. team will have as its supporters some 500 home students and fans, who will follow the team to Shreveport early tomorrow morning.

The entire Frog squad will be in Shreveport waiting for the opening whistle. Twenty-five men left this morning and the rest will go on the student special tomorrow.

Last year the Gentlemen outplayed the Frogs at Shreveport and came out winner, 13 to 0. In 1933 the Frogs managed to get a 0-to-0 tie against a stronger team. The two teams have played four more games—each winning two. The series started in 1923.

T. C. U. Favored to Win. T. C. U. will enter the game with Centenary rated as a slight favorite because of victories over Arkansas, A. & M. and Tulsa.

Centenary had a tough time defeating the Aggies 7 to 6 two weeks ago, while the Frogs were impressive in their first half of the Frog-Aggie tilt, running up a 19-point lead. If the Frogs play as they played against the Cadets, they are expected to emerge winners over a team that has been a tough nut from Southwest Conference eleven to crack for several years.

Texas U. turned the trick last week, defeating the Gents 19 to 13, and Texas was one of Centenary's victims last year also. From comparative scores it looks as if the Centenary team is weaker than in former seasons.

Several Frogs On Injured List. The Frogs will enter the game crippled at left half and left tackle positions. Kline and Clark, halfbacks, were injured in the Aggie tussle and will not be used any more than necessary. Linne is definitely out of this game; and Godwin and Ellis have not fully recovered from their injuries, although they played against A. & M.

T. C. U.'s probable starting line-up will be: Ends, Walls and Roach; tackles, Groseclose and Ellis; guards, Kellow and Harrison; center, Lester; quarterback, Baugh; halfbacks, McCall and Lawrence; and fullback, Manton.

For Centenary: Ends, Hooper and Horak; tackles, Baker and Binion; guards, Hohmann and Robinson; center, Stokes; quarterback, Weidman; halfbacks, Webb and Crowther; and fullback, Cohan.

several of its teams, and more times than not they emerge winner.

In 1933 T. C. U. managed to eke out a 0-to-0 tie with them, but the Gentlemen had one touchdown run by "Shorty" Oslin ruled out because of a holding penalty. Last year they beat the Frogs 13 to 0. The Aggies have already succumbed to the Gents' skill. However, Texas defeated them 19 to 13 last Saturday. Nothing would please the Shreveport fans more than to gain revenge by taking the Frogs into camp.

If the Frogs do happen to slip up and go down, it won't be because of lack of support. The trainload of students and fans who make the trip on the special will make as much noise as all western Louisiana.

Random shots of the Aggie game... "Squarehead" Lawrence getting away for that long run... That Aggie's desperate dive to snag Lawrence... Dutch Kline sprawling as he was about to receive a kick-off... "Chink" Manning catching passes and running back punts... Some Aggie putting a peach of a block on Kline while running interference for Manning... Press box silence when Linne was hurt on the first play...

Power in the Horned Frog Line

Here are the three men who make that Horned Frog line a rock wall. Capt. Darrell Lester, all-American center, is a pivot man second to none in the conference. At his right is Tracy Kellow, two-letter guard and a senior. At his left is Cotton Harrison, a junior letterman. Coach Bear Wolf says these two will hold their own with any guards in the conference.

Wogs To Face Cubs Tuesday

Baylor Frosh Already Have One Victory to Their Credit.

Coach Howard Grubbs' Freshmen will be facing one of their strongest opponents of the year Tuesday when they play the Baylor University freshman team here at 2:30 p. m. The Cubs decisively defeated Allen Academy in their first game Tuesday.

Although Grubbs has not announced the starters it appears that Bob Jordan, Albany, and Charlie Williams, Hillsboro, both 175-pounders, will start at ends. Tackles will be I. B. Hale, Dallas, 210 pounds, and Russell Hynch, Houston, 190 pounds. Allie White will be at one guard and either Parris Wheatley or Clifford Kellow at the other. Ki Aldrich, all-state player from Temple, will be at center. White weighs more than 200 pounds. Wheatley, Kellow and Aldrich weigh around 175.

Dave O'Brien, Dallas, will start at quarter, and Pat Clifford, San Antonio, will open at one half. The other two men who will make up the backfield will probably be Horace Carswell, 165-pounder from North Side, and Leo Crockett, McKinney.

Frogs Victorious In 2nd Main Tilt

Texas Aggies Defeated 19-14—T. C. U. Gains Early Lead.

The Frogs ran up a 19-point lead in the first half of last Saturday's game and defended it against a vicious Aggie attack in the last half to score their second conference victory, 19 to 14, and extend the Aggies' fruitless efforts against them to 11 years.

Except for a few brief moments in the first half when A. & M. started a determined march toward T. C. U.'s goal line, the first two periods looked like an overwhelming Frog victory. The Aggies received the ball on the first kick-off and were never headed until they reached the 28-yard line, where they lost the ball.

Jimmy Lawrence gained about five yards through his left tackle and on the next play went through the same hole on a reverse and raced 62 yards through the entire Aggie team before he was pulled down some eight yards from the goal line. "Dutch" Kline took the ball over on another reverse one play later.

Frogs Gain Yardage at Will. Throughout the half, the Frogs gained almost at will through a passive Aggie defense. Two more touchdowns were scored by the aerial route—both long passes—from Sam Baugh to Rex Clark. Clark managed to get behind the right defensive half-back both times to gather the ball in and run over the line untouched. One of the passes was good for 39 yards and the other 35.

The Frogs were on the verge of another touchdown late in the second when a fumble on the 1-yard line was recovered behind the line by the Aggies. T. C. U. did not threaten any more during the game.

T. C. U.'s hopes were dimmed on the first play of the game when Aubrey Linne, the only able-bodied left tackle, was taken from the game with an injured knee. "Tiny" Godwin, who was expecting a day of rest, relieved him. Later Drew Ellis replaced Godwin and played most of the game at that post. Both Godwin and Ellis had not fully recovered from recent injuries.

The Aggies came back to fight the Frogs off their feet the second half. They rolled up 18 of their 23 first downs during the last two periods. They received the kick-off and marched straight down the field for 75 yards and a touchdown at the start of the third quarter. A. & M. was in possession of the ball a good three-fourths of the last half and kept threatening all that time. They scored again in the last quarter on a short pass, Pither to Wilkins. The game ended with T. C. U. in possession of the ball on her own 35-yard line.

Pitner Outstanding Man. The outstanding man of the game was Pitner, Aggie quarterback. He gained more yardage than any other man and was the spearhead of their attack. He also did a neat job of punting and threw all of their forward passes—29—and completed 13 of them for 158 yards.

Sam Baugh and Jimmy Lawrence ran Pitner a close race. Lawrence's 62-yard run early in the game took a lot of the starch out of the Aggies; and Baugh's quarterbacking, defensive play, passing and punting were second to none.

In the T. C. U. line, Ellis, Groseclose, Holt, Kellow, Harrison and Lester turned in stellar games.

Whattaman Les Gives 'Em Misery From The Bench

Darrell Lester is truly an all-American. Imagine giving a team plenty of trouble without even playing against them. That is what Darrell Lester did, at least according to a Shreveport radio sports commentator.

This man, who at the end of the program did not give his name, sent out over the ether Wednesday night reports of the "misery" Lester dealt the Gents last year. Not that it matters, but Heard Floore played the entire game. Lester was good on the bench, what will he be on the field?

Conway Baker, star Centenary tackle appearing on the program, also commented on the Frogs. He said that Donkey Roberts was not very good and hoped that he would play the entire sixty minutes. He also termed Frog injury reports ballyhoo and said that Linn (meaning Linne) was the only man he picked. To climax the program he picked Centenary to take T. C. U. and reminded listeners that he picked S. M. U. over Rice.

Rain Causes Intramural Games to Be Called Off

The intramural tag football games scheduled for Wednesday were called off on account of rain. The same games, the Seniors vs. the Juniors and the Sophomores vs. the Freshmen, will be played next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Prouse has asked all those who are interested in a boxing class to sign the bulletin board in the Administration Building. Ben Dyeas, sophomore student, will be instructor of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rose visited their daughter, Marguerite, on the campus Saturday.

"Wow! That clock must be wrong—it's pitch dark outside." This is what a lot of you will be saying when the old alarm clock breaks in on your snores and you realize that it is THE day. Yes, sir, it will be the day all right, but don't spend too much time seeing what the world looks like in the wee, small hours of the morning, or you will miss that 6:30 a. m. special train for Shreveport.

Get those grains of sleeping powder out of your eyes or you will repeat the experience two students had last year of going to the wrong station, finally chasing the right train out of the station and having to be hauled aboard the observation car.

Shreveport is always grand to us when we make a student trip to play their "Gentlemen," so that you may be sure that a good time is really in store for you. A barbecue has been planned, and you can snoop around the fair grounds to your heart's content. Then, after the game, dancing will furnish the evening's entertainment at the Washington-Youree Hotel. Puleeze don't walk off with the silver or any of the furniture.

Some have wondered just why it is that the Centenary football squad is known as the "Gentlemen." The one version which I have heard is that early in the football history of the school they earned the reputation of playing the most elite and squarest football of any team in those parts. They were rarely penalized for roughness and came to be known, jeeringly at first, as the "Gents." Their conduct bore out this observation and the name of "Gentlemen" has stuck.

So much for the "Gentlemen." We have a pretty square bunch of football players ourselves who are known as the "Fighting Frogs." So let's all join in the spirit of this trip and support the Frogs and make this the most representative student trip on the records.

Set that alarm clock, rise and shine tomorrow morning, and prepare to have the best time you have ever

Free Cigars, Tobacco Smoke Up Bandhouse

Bandmen Fined 25 cents for Absence, 10 for Being Late to Smoker.

The smoke was thick in the bandhouse on the night of Oct. 17, but there was no fire, at least not for the fire department. Only free cigars and pipe tobacco for the members of the Horned Frog band at their much awaited smoker.

Free cigars and pipe filler to a college crew give as a natural result thick smoke. On this night even non-smokers permitted nicotine to soil lips hitherto devoted only to band instruments. Prof. Don Gillis, director, one of those who weakened, very meekly gave this statement to the press, "The cigar or the candy, one, made me sick."

In addition to smokes, ice cream, cake and candy were served to band members.

Bandmen were fined 25 cents for being absent or 10 cents for being late to the meeting.

Miss Evelyn Sears of Houston was a visitor on the campus Saturday.

Disgust With Charlatans Led Dr. Morehouse to Research

Physics is the hobby of Dr. W. D. Morehouse, who gave an illustrated lecture on astronomy in the auditorium recently.

"I don't believe I have a hobby unless it is physics. That's one of my shortcomings," he said with a charming, dignified smile.

"The greatest achievement of the human mind is the development of physics and astronomy," Dr. Morehouse declared confidently a few minutes before his lecture.

The scholarly-looking, white-haired president of Drake University has been interested in research and study of astronomy since he was quite young. Disgust with charlatans and their pseudo-scientific astrology led him to make accurate research in the subject.

Dr. Morehouse has made observations at a number of the large observatories of the United States, including Wilson, Lake and Yerkes. While at Yerkes, in the summer of 1909, he discovered the comet named for him.

"How do we discover comets?" he repeated in an amused tone. "Why we observers are eternally on the watch, and it's just a lucky accident when we see a comet—but they are magnificent sights," he added enthusiastically.

March 25, Dr. Morehouse watched the glass being poured for the new telescope in California. These lenses will be the most powerful ever made. He expects much more work with the stars will be possible. "Planets are studied by mathematics, stars by observation," he explained.

When asked how he liked Texas he declared that he "loved the Texas plains and their short, wind-swept trees. The great expanse of territory reminds me of the Dakota plains where I grew up."

Besides his duties as president of Drake, Dr. Morehouse conducts classes in physics and astronomy there. He is also interested in the church. His views of theology constitute an effort to reconcile religion and science. He looks at religion through scientific eyes.

After his lecture, he went to San Antonio where he presided over the International Convention of Christian Churches.
