New Experiment To Have Different Writers Origin of Name Revealed A Bubble Bursts

Don't let the sight of the writer's name (Journalists call it a "By-line") on this column this week floor you. You're not going to have to look at a column written by the editor from now until school is out, so don't get excited.

Each week from now until the end of the semester a different student or faculty member will be called upon to write this column. The writer will not be assigned any certain topic, but will be allowed to write on any subject or subjects that he sees fit.

The purpose of the column will be to get the viewpoints of campus leaders on subjects of interest to our readers. We intend to set a high standard of interest for this portion of the paper by inviting writers who themselves are interested in campus happenings.

In rummaging through old files of The Skiff this week to see what had been done along the line of editorial columns in the past, I ran across an interesting history of The Skiff, published several years ago.

The Skiff was first published in September, 1902, when T. C. U. was located at Waco. Its editor and founder was Ed. S. McKinney, a student who had come to T. C. U. with $13 in his pocket and a determination to earn a college education.

McKinney was optimistic, however, and visualized the paper as "a dream boat which was to carry him toward his goal, a college diploma."

All of which is evidence that if a person has normal intelligence and a desire to attend college, there are always ways and means of his obtaining an education, provided he has the will and determination.

Timothy Club to Hear Two Students Monday

Sarah Jane Sings At Kiddies' Show And Makes Good

Do you need an entertainer for a party? Just in case you do, don't overlook T. C. U.'s latest find in the way of talent.

Although she has only been giving benefit shows since Saturday, she is well on her way to success.

It seems she slipped, unnoticed she thought, into the Parkway Birthday Show Saturday morning just to see what children did in such a show.

Quaking, she went gamely through the number, apparently going over well. On leaving the show however, one little boy turned to her and said, "Goody-bye punk singer."

Guest Speaker

Paul Weaver, professor of philosophy at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., will be a guest on the campus next Friday.

Y's to Present Guest Professor

Paul Weaver to Make 2 Addresses Here Feb. 14.

Paul Weaver, professor of philosophy at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., will be the guest of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. next Friday.

The "Y's" will sponsor an informal luncheon in his honor in the alcove of the Cafeteria.

Friday night he will discuss the University students and their friends on the subject, "Does Religion Have an Answer to Contemporary Confusion?"

Prof. Weaver is making a tour of universities and colleges in Texas. Miss Jones stated that all the T. C. U. meetings will be open and everyone is invited to attend.

President Waits Praises Students In Board Report

Comments Upon "Spirit of Co-operation" Displayed This Year.

Budget Is Approved Recognition Given T. C. U.'s High Scholastic Standing by New Educational Body.

"There has never been a finer spirit of co-operation on the part of the student body during our 20 years of service," President E. M. Waits told the Board of Trustees of T. C. U. at the annual meeting held on the campus yesterday.

President Waits, in his annual report to the board, complimented particularly the football team, the Horned Frog Band and the recognition gained by graduates who are doing advanced work in other institutions.

Faculty Is Unchanged A budget of more than three hundred thousand dollars was approved for the school year 1936-37.

President Waits enumerated numerous examples of recognition given the University's scholastic standing, one of the most important of which was as follows:

"Recently the Southern University Conference of Liberal Arts Colleges, which prepare for graduate study, was organized. In this group was included only such colleges of such recognized merit as do not need standardizing according to the usual 'rule of thumb'.

The work of the University Christian Church, the publicity department, the library, Brite College of Bible and the field representative were reviewed in considerable detail in President Waits' report.

Enrollment and Statistics Given. A report on enrollment showed a total of 868 students for the fall semester.

Brite College courses, 187; biology and geology, 364; business administration, 133; government, 198; chemistry, 111; education, 206; English, 573; economics, 133; history, 414; home economics, 33; journalism, 34; mathematics, 203; music, 228; modern languages, 338; philosophy and psychology, 205; public speaking, 156; sociology, 56; physical education, 476; and art, 31.

President Waits recommended to the board a plan of projects for future development of the University. These are to include the raising of special funds for (1) scholarships and fellowships, (2) the music department, (3) heating plant, (4) beautification of class rooms, (5) Brite College quadruplex, (6) Brite College deficit, (7) downtown extension work.

Van Zandt Jarvis, president of the Board of Trustees, presided over the annual meeting. About 20 members attended.

The next scheduled meeting of the board is Monday, June 1.

"T" Association to Meet

Groseclose Urges All Members to Be Present Monday Noon.

An important meeting of the "T" Association will be held at 12:30 p.m. Monday in Room 211 of the Administration Building.

"Plans will be made for the 'T' initiation," to be held in May, and a stag party, the date for which has not been determined," Groseclose said.

Groseclose urged that all members of the "T" Association be present at this meeting, which was called because of poor representation at the meeting held Wednesday night.

Bussey Elected Vice-President

Fills Student Position Vacated by Simpson at Mid-Year. Ben Bussey, a member of the June graduating class, became vice-president of the study body this week.

Bussey, whose home is in Fort Worth, was the only candidate for the position. An election was to have been held in chapel Wednesday morning, but since Bussey was the only candidate, he automatically became the vice-president when the time for handing in petitions expired.

Bussey was formerly the senior class representative to the Student Council. Jones Bacus was elected to fill the vacancy on the council at a meeting of the senior class Wednesday morning.

Bussey, in addition to being vice-president of the student body, is also vice-president of the senior class and of Alpha Chi, scholarship society. He is also a member of the Horned Frog staff and the International Relations Club.

Begins At 10 o'Clock Lecturer Is Radio Feature, Author of "Art of Enjoying Music."

"The tune detective," Sigmund Spaeth, will speak at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the Auditorium.

He will talk from the piano, where he will play and tell the why's and wherefore's of popular tunes.

Dr. Spaeth is one of the most popular figures in the musical world today. He received his name of "The Tune detective" from his experiences in tracing the melodies to their source.

He has been featured on the radio, programs of the Wonder Bakers, Rheingold, Magazine of the Air, University of the Air and has made guest appearances with Jack Benny, Rudy Vallee and other orchestra leaders.

He is the author of a number of books on music in which he makes the enjoyment of music possible for everyone—not just the privileged few who have technical training in it.

Spaeth has made five short motion pictures for Fox, Paramount and Vitaphone.

Spaeth began his musical career as a critic on the New York Evening Mail. Later he wrote for The New York Times and The Boston Transcript. He has contributed articles to McCall's, Esquire, The New Yorker, Scribner's and The Saturday Evening Post.

It's Feminine to Be Masculine, Girls

Girls, do you have your mannish suit yet? If you do not, it must be because you do not read the advertising in your daily newspapers, else you would not dare venture out clad in such outmoded apparel as you may have on hand.

And your suit must be as near like your brother's new tailor-made model as possible. You may even sneak his second best and take it to your favorite dressmaker and have it remade to fit your own figure. If you are very large, take both pairs of pants, or trousers, if you prefer, to have the skirt made.

To be ultra-modern, the lapels of your coat must have a button hole, though heaven only knows what for, there being no buttons they could possibly be intended for. The fabric may vary from gaberdine to a rough English tweed, but be sure to know what kind you bought, for the men will surely ask you. If you cannot give the correct answer without even stuttering you will be frowned upon by the masculine element for your lack of sartorial information.

Coats are either single-breasted or double-breasted, with plain, belted, bl-swing or pleated backs.

For accessories you must have a carefully modeled feminized version of a shirt, with a tight fitting collar that must scratch your neck or else it will not be considered authentic. Sport shoes and a mannish felt hat add greatly to the costume.

To complete the ensemble of the correctly suited young woman you must by all means have a tie of the right fabric and color. But take a hint from one who knows and do not ask to borrow your brother's favorite, and by all means do not request his aid in helping you tie it.

He might lose that temper of his, which as yet he has not attempted to make effeminate.

Just What Is the Effect of Student Opinion?

Nearly every day The Skiff receives through the mail news dispatches and reports of national student gatherings, or other large student groups, which have expressed themselves as favoring or disfavoring certain vital issues of national or international importance.

In reading these dispatches, although they are often in the form of propaganda, one often finds items and opinions of great interest—opinions which give evidence of much thought on the part of the students. Oftentimes the principles advanced by the students are sound and could well be put into practice.

All of which leads one to wonder just what student opinion means and what effect, if any, it has on those persons in authority. Do they pay any attention to the students, or do they merely turn a cold shoulder to their opinions?

It is an accepted fact that persons in college, as a group, do more serious thinking on subjects of current importance than almost any other group in our society.

The collegians may be wrong sometimes, but the government leaders and "big shots" would probably profit by following some of the principles which are set up by student groups.

Faculty Friends Are Worth While

Every student should have at least one friend who is a member of the faculty. If he does not, where does the trouble lie? Surely, it does not speak well for either the professor or the student that they can be thrown in close contact with each other for a year and still acquire no feeling of friendship and confidence in one another.

Some students deliberately avoid becoming friends with any of their teachers for fear of being accused of trying to get a "pull" and a good grade. Others simply dismiss the matter, saying that all teachers are "old fogies" in whom they could not possibly be interested. And, besides, the teachers only pretend to care what becomes of their students. They assume that superior air when students ask questions and act as if they think one is terribly dumb if he does not know the answers.

That is not true. There are many teachers in the University who are vitally interested in the problems of their students. Some members of the faculty even feel that their success as teachers can be judged only by the way in which their pupils meet life and its problems. They had rather meet their students on the grounds of a well-rounded friendship than as classroom acquaintances.

T. C. U. professors are willing to meet their students half way on the road to friendship. The students must do their part, and if they do neither the members of the faculty nor the students will regret it, but in later years will regard that friendship as a priceless treasure.

Public Opinion Against College Students

There were many automobile accidents yesterday. There will be some today and tomorrow, too. All the campaigns for safe and sane driving have not prevented a steadily rising number of accidents. And there is no reason for college students to believe they are immune. Accidents happen to them the same as anyone else.

Students should use every precaution to avoid accidents, for public sentiment is against them in case of accidents. The average person will condemn a college student for "wild, reckless driving" before he even learns the circumstances under which the accident occurred.

ALONG SHOW ROW

By RAYMOND MICHERO

For the first time in who knows how long, the Palace will present a stage show along with its feature picture this week. Reb Russell, all-American football star at Northwestern in 1930 and present actor in western movies, will make personal appearances at each performance from tomorrow until Wednesday. Russell has a role in "Drift Fence," feature picture on the same bill, along with Katherine De Mille, Tom Keene and Benny Baker. This show will be replaced Wednesday by "Navy Wife," the screen version of Katherine Norris' latest novel. Claire Trevor, Ralph Bellamy, Jane Darwell and Ben Lyon have the leads.

Eddie Cantor again surrounds himself with a host of chorus girls in "Strike Me Pink," starting a week's run at the Worth tomorrow. In addition to all of the pulchritudinous beauties, Eddie will be assisted by a supporting cast headed by Ethel Merman, Sally Eilers and Parkyakarkas, the comic woe on the Cantor radio hour. We're told that Rita Rio, little brunette dancer, does a dance in the picture that'll make the boys sit up and take notice. "Rose Marie," with Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, will be the midnight show offering tomorrow night.

The Majestic, in addition to having a tip-top line-up of shows this week, also has new carpets on the floors throughout its building, assistant manager Clarence Richardson would have us know. The feature attraction starting tomorrow will be "The Frisco Kid," with James Cagney, Margaret Lindsay and George E. Stone. The screen version of the famous Eugene O'Neill stage play "Ah, Wilderness," with Wallace Beery, Lionel Barrymore and Aline MacMahon, will be Tuesday's attraction. It will be replaced Thursday by "The Red Salute," with Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Young. "Dodsworth," stage play starring Walter Huston, is definitely booked for Feb. 25 at the Majestic.

The Parkway will show one of the season's best short subjects in connection with its feature picture next Thursday. It is "Star Days at Lido," with Henry Busse and his orchestra and scores of Hollywood's movie greats. The feature tomorrow, for one day only, will be "The Gay Deception," with Frances Dee and Francis Lederer. "A Night at the Opera," with the Mad Marx Brothers, will start Sunday. "I Found Stella Parrish," with Kay Francis, will run Tuesday and Wednesday, to be replaced Thursday by "She Couldn't Take It," with George Raft and Joan Bennett, plus the short.

7 Clubs Submit Plans to Social Committee

Mrs. Beckham Urges Organizations to Complete Calendars Soon.

To date only seven social calendars of clubs on the campus have been submitted to the social calendar committee. Dean Sadie Beckham, chairman, requested that they be submitted not later than Feb. 1.

The seven clubs which have complied with Mrs. Beckham's request are: Sigma Tau Delta, Dana Press, Home Economics, Poetry Club, B. C. B., Anglia and Timothy Club.

"The committee cannot meet until all the calendars have been completed," Mrs. Beckham said. "It is therefore a great inconvenience to the committee as well as the clubs who have complied with my request for the other clubs to delay no longer. Please submit your calendars immediately."

New Vice-Prexy Promises Coeds Leap Year Hop; Whence All Power?

The dance Saturday night was a WOW in more ways than one. ANNELLE GARDNER must have liked the fellow she had a date with or SOMETHIN', cause she surely was having a swell time. POTSYS de VLAMING and BILL TOLAND were also having a BIG TIME. aw shucks; it must have been the weather???. Then, too, MRS. CAHOON seemed to enjoy the presence of PROFESSOR McDIARMID. Here's the way we heard it. MRS. MAC leaves town telling MRS. CAHOON to take care of her husband while she is away. Mrs. CAHOON calls Mr. Mac—tells him it is LEAP YEAR and that she wants a date to the dance—as chaperone. Well, why not? So MRS. CAHOON, MR. MAC and PROFESSOR MIXSON surely did make a CUTE TRIANGLE perched on the sidelines at the dance.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE DICTATORS... the music was fine Saturday night, men.

You know, it's funny, but some people like to make this column and some don't. Take MILLI FEARIS for example. Miss FEARIS approached a certain party the other day suggesting that a certain item of what she thought would be CHOICE DIRT be put in this column. Well, at least your name got in the column, MILLI. Have you heard the one about HARRY ROBERTS? Yeah—Roberts was taking an economics exam last week and became royally disgusted. so... he gives vent to his emotions by uttering a certain word and then getting red in the face. har! har! gotta watch your language in class, Roberts. Then there is a guy by the name of ELLIOT who lives in Goode Hall... he asked how a guy could get his name in the paper, but since it is agin the rules we can't put your name in the paper, ELLIOT. Polliwog Cagers Victors Over Cubs

Wogs' Average .500, With First Start Lost to S. M. U.

The Polliwog cagers came up from behind in the last few minutes of play last Saturday night to defeat the Baylor Cubs by a score of 27 to 25. The victory brought the Wogs' average up to .500, as they had lost their first start to the S. M. U. Colts.

The Freshmen were slow in getting started and trailed the Cubs by six points at the half. The Cubs held the lead until the last quarter, when the Wogs warmed up and began hitting the bucket from all angles. With about five minutes to go the T. C. U. Frosh passed the Cubs and held a meager lead to the end of the game. The Wog starters were: forwards, Roy and Max Snodgrass; center, Russell Hensch; and guards, Ki Aldrich and Carroll Adair. L. B. Hale and Coleman Sullivan were the only substitutes used.

Coach Howard Grubbs' charges faced their third opponents of the year last night in Hillsboro, the Hillsboro Junior College Five. The results were not available for this issue of The Skiff.

OPEN FORUM

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The opinions expressed in this column are the personal views of the writers and are not necessarily the policy of The Skiff. Students are invited to write to the Open Forum. Letters of more than 250 words are not accepted. Anonymous letters will not be published, but a writer's name will be withheld from publication if he so desires.)

Dear Editor: In response to an editorial in last week's Skiff, I'd like to offer an opinion.

The writer seems to believe that most students are not broadminded in musical appreciation—that they either like popular music and that alone, or that they like strictly the classical and look with disfavor to any who recommend anything popular or semi-classical.

I wonder if this writer realizes that a good percentage of college students are interested in and listen to the fine concerts of the radio each week and are not ashamed to admit it. They listen to these programs, because they thoroughly enjoy them. These same people listen regularly to the better known dance orchestras.

The person who really and truly appreciates music, and most people do to some extent, can find some entertaining feature about all music. And if the writer thinks T. C. U. students do not like better music, please take note of the great number of Civic Music tickets that are used and enjoyed. Even the rugged outdoor sportsmen can enjoy opera, because I have heard them talk of it.

Dear Editor: There have been several expressions recently of a desire for better sportsmanship in athletics. I think there is also room for improved sportsmanship in our use of the Library.

The Library is for the students' use, and this means all of the students. Unfortunately, there are some who don't seem to realize this. They take the attitude that the Library is for their own use, and they may as well get all out of it they can and needn't concern themselves about others. They take no heed of the damage and inconvenience they cause.

Some students take books out and don't sign for them. This might be an accident, and it doesn't apply to those cases. I do refer to those that just deliberately get a book and don't intend to bring it back.

There is another kind who, after finding the material he wants in a book, just proceeds to tear out those pages dealing with that subject. The value of the book or the difficulty of replacement doesn't deter him in the slightest. Sometimes valuable issues of magazines are torn out of a bound volume. This not only destroys that copy but also means that the replacement will have to be for that whole volume.

We all want a well equipped, up-to-date library, but some don't seem to realize that they are doing their part towards making this impossible. Let's all try to stop this all too common practice.—T. A.

Seniors, Outlaws Lead in Basketball

Diggs, Lawrence, Jacks Share Scoring Honors in Intramural.

"A" League Standings: Seniors 3 0 1.000, Sophomores 2 1 .666, Freshmen 1 2 .333, Juniors 0 3 .000

"B" League Standings: Outlaws 2 0 1.000, Freshmen 1 2 .333, Sophomores 1 2 .333, Juniors 0 3 .000

The leaders in both intramural basketball leagues kept their records clean in this week's play. In the "A" League, the Seniors defeated the Freshmen 27 to 15 to stay at the top, and the Outlaws won from the Frosh 36 to 14 to keep their position in the "B" League. This week marked the end of the first half of the schedule.

Jimmy Lawrence and Melvin Diggs shared the honor of being high scorer, with eight points each in the "A" League game. Bill Ewell, Frosh, was second with six tallies. Allan House and Jimmy Jacks, the Outlaws' two high scorers, led their mates in their victory over the Frosh with 11 and 12 points respectively. Ward Wilkinson and John Hall played nice games for the Freshmen.

In the other "B" League game, the Sophomores defeated the Go-Getters, formerly the Seniors, by 24 to 22 in an overtime game. Charles Oswald, Go-Getter, and Bill Dingleline, Soph, led in the scoring with nine and eight points respectively. This was the first victory for the Sophomores and put them in a three-way tie for second place.

The "A" League Juniors lost their third straight game, to the Sophomores, 23 to 18. Elliot Phares was high-point man with 15. Ray Wester was second with nine. The victory put the Sophomores in second place.

Miss Margaret Hall, student here last semester and a candidate in the Popularity Revue from the sophomore class, is now attending N. T. A. C.

Dear Editor: It seems by the time students have reached the college age that they would be a little more discreet in their snowball throwing.

Many accidents have occurred in Fort Worth during the last few days of snow as a result of pranking students.

Having the windshield of a car broken by a snowball would not be so funny if you were on the receiving end, nor would it be so mirth-provoking if you were hurt by one.

Let's all have our fun in the snow, but be careful not to carry it to the extreme. I. T.

SHORTY SPORTS PLANTS

By CARL MAXWELL

T. C. U.'s brother acts have been increased by the enrollment of Bull Rogers' little brother. Three sets of athletic brothers are now on the school's rolls — the Kellows, the Lines, and the Rogers.

Good guards seem to come in pairs. All and Tracy stood out this past year, and now their little brothers — fifth guards — have come to carry the family name. The Rogers family will have two men on the varsity in 1937 if nothing happens.

The ineligibility toll has been counted, and four faces are missing from next year's varsity. Lacy McClanahan, brilliant prospect to replace Manton or Lawrence, was the only varsity man to drop by the way-side.

The others were three freshmen, Edwin Sontag, Earl White and George Schmidt. None of these were key men on the first-year eleven, but might have developed into valuable Frogs.

Through all the gloom of ineligibility comes a few welcome lights. Slim Mabray, gigantic freshman, will become available for football and basketball next year. And in spite of McClanahan's loss, there will be someone in there to play fullback. Then there will be men about four deep for every position next year.

Basketball lost another man last week. J. O. Toler, lanky junior college transfer, had to drop practice, as he is an assistant in the history department and didn't have time to keep going out. Toler was a bright prospect and had played a lot of the Frogs' three games before the Baylor tilt.

"I sure did hate to give it up because I only lacked about five minutes of lettering in the first three games," said Toler, "but I have to stay in school and my job comes first."

The scorers got a little mixed up down at Waco last Saturday night. Not to the extent that it made any difference in the final outcome, but Byrum Saam made 11 points instead of the nine he was credited with. The only difference it makes is that Saam will be higher in the conference scoring race—and we need all we can get in the basketball chase.

Spring football was slated to start Feb. 1, but freezing weather and rain kept everybody indoors. Which brings up a question: Is spring football beneficial?

A few years ago when the freshman team used only the basic plays and formations, spring training was really of some use to the varsity. The new men learned most of the varsity plays, and by the time fall rolled around, everybody knew what to do. No time was lost in drilling on maneuvers.

But now the freshmen use practically the same offense as the varsity — not so many plays, but quite a few — and if the time isn't wasted drilling on these plays, it is not so effective as it once was.

This year may prove beneficial in looking for a new fullback to take Tilly Manton's place. Candidates have been announced as Jew Needham, Ki Aldrich, Donkey Roberts and Horace Carswell.

When spring football does start in a few days, some of the participants are going to be plenty busy. Sam Baugh, L. D. Meyer, and Willie Walls are regulars on the varsity football, basketball, and baseball teams. They'll have a full afternoon if they keep up with all of them.

Almost all of the baseball players also go out for spring football, so everybody will be pretty busy.

The gold footballs awarded by the Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans to the football squad for playing in the Sugar Bowl classic came through the mails Monday. The balls have a design of the Sugar Bowl on one side and the individual's name engraved on the other.

The Frog basketball team meets the Texas U. quint tomorrow night in Austin. Texas has one of the strongest teams in the conference and is stronger than ever after several stars became eligible at the start of the new semester. The only thing the Frogs have over the Steers is that T. C. U. took a close game from S. M. U. while these same Mustangs up and defeated the Steers. So the comparative score dope favors the Frogs.

Frogs Will Battle Steers in Austin Tomorrow Night

Texas Cagers, Hogs Tied for Top Position in Southwest

The Frog cagers will run up against the league-leading Steers tomorrow night in Austin. Texas shares the top place in the conference basketball standings with Arkansas, with three victories and one defeat. Although the conference race is only one fourth over, several surprising upsets have been scored already. Every team has suffered at least one loss.

Game May Be Up-Set

Comparative scores conflict when the strength of T. C. U. and Texas is considered. The Frogs defeated the S. M. U. Mustangs in the first game of the season, and a few days later S. M. U. took the measure of the strong Texas quint. But Texas barely eeked out a victory over the Baylor Bears, while the Bruins had an easy time with the Frogs last week.

One indication of the Steers' strength is that they defeated the Hunt Oilers last Saturday night. This semi-pro outfit is one of the strongest teams in Texas. It is composed of ex-college stars who play together regularly, and it is somewhat of an accomplishment to beat them. The Steers triumphed by a score of 50 to 46.

Several Steers Return

The Steer line-up has been bolstered by the return of several eligibles at the start of the new semester. Jerry Clifton and Joe Roach are two of the new men.

Coach Meyer started a revamped line-up against Baylor last Saturday night which functioned well until Saam went out on fouls. Saam led the Frog scorers with 11 points. Sam Baugh will be tried at a for-

Frosh Footballers Enroll for Spring

Two Guards, One Tackle Make Plans to Play Football Next Year

Three future Frog footballers have enrolled for the spring semester and will play on the freshman team next fall. They are Fuller Rogers and Vernon Cearley, both guards, and Andrew Chilton, tackle.

Fuller is a brother of Bull Rogers and, like him, played two years for Decatur Baptist College. He was all-conference last year. He weighs 175 pounds. Cearley weighs 180 pounds and comes from Post. He plays baseball and football. Chilton played football at Paschal High School and at N. T. A. C. last year. He tips the beams near 200 pounds.

Olin Cobb of Athens, who was reported enrolled here for the new semester has left the University.

Spring Football To Begin Monday, Meyer Announces

All Varsity Candidates Are Expected Out, Says Coach

Nine Regulars Lost

Fullback Post Most Difficult to Fill, With McClanahan Declared Ineligible

"Spring football will start Monday afternoon," announced Coach Meyer Wednesday afternoon.

"And please put it in the paper in big, black letters."

Practice will last until March 1. Everyone intending to go out for the varsity next fall is expected to report.

The Frog mentors are faced with the problem of replacing nine members of the regular team. The backfield presents the greatest problem with George Kline, Rex Clark, Jimmy Lawrence and Taldon Manton graduating.

While there are veteran halfbacks to fill the shoes of Lawrence and Kline, the brightest prospect for the fullback hole, Lacy McClanahan was lost to the team through scholastic difficulties.

"Spring football this year will be a period of experimentation," said Meyer. "We'll try Charley Needham, and Ki Aldrich at the fullback post. And we still have Roberts, a letterman, and Carswell, up from the freshman team, to take Manton's place."

The spring session will be devoted to the fundamentals of football, blocking and tackling and to polishing up the plays. There will probably be an intrasquad game on the last day of practice.

Lula Dell Willoughby spent the week-end at her home in Mineral Wells.

A LIGHT SMOKE offers something to each smoker!

Luckies are less acid

Recent chemical tests show that other popular brands have excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 10 to 100%.

All kinds of people choose Luckies, each for reasons of his own. But everyone agrees that Luckies are A Light Smoke of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco. It is a rather surprising fact that the leaves of the same tobacco plant may vary far more than the leaves from plants of quite different types. Chemical analysis shows that the top leaves contain excess alkalis which tend to give a harsh, alkaline taste. The bottom leaves tend to acidity in the smoke. It is only the center leaves which approach in Nature the most palatable, acid-alkaline balance. In Lucky Strike Cigarettes, the center leaves are used.

"Leap Year and Bowery Dances Being Planned," Says Society Editor

BY ROSEMARY COLLYER

Just what is a society editor supposed to write about when there isn't anything to write about? That is a civil enough question, but no answers seem to be forthcoming. There isn't even anything to gossip about this week, which certainly makes things difficult for the ladies.

Little birds have a way of letting things get out, and as secrets are much too good to keep I shall in turn impart to you what cannot be kept any longer. There is going to be a dance tomorrow night, and it will be sponsored by the Student Council. Oh, yes! when all else fails, then the good old council comes to the rescue and decides to give a dance for its despondent sons and daughters.

It will be given—you mustn't miss this—in the well ventilated, not to say draughty, Basketball Gymnasium, and the music will be wafted frostily from the Dictators. The dance, as you may have heard, was a bit chilly last Saturday. One freshman remarked that it was a wonder that every one didn't leave minus a right ear.

Now if you have the patience of Job or the philosophy of a Pollyanna, then you may say that this will only make the dances, when the weather turns warm, all the more pleasant. But if you should vouch this information aloud, then it would be best to be sure that you are among friends when you do. Some of the people who have frozen all winter may not appreciate your sense of humor.

Although it has not been officially announced, there is going to be a leap year dance that is really going to be done up in style, if I may use the vernacular. There are going to be special decorations and everything. The date is in the very near future.

Here is something else that I probably shouldn't let out of the bag, but here it is. The seniors have been considering having a bowery dance soon. That sounds like a corking idea to me. What seems to be the matter with the rest of the classes lately? There hasn't been any class activity to speak of on the campus this entire year. To whom this may concern, the campus activities are at present at a standstill, due to the failure of some of the clubs to turn in their social calendars. Pul-leeze do so at once.

Members Accepted For Ampersand

Recommendations for new members to Ampersand were accepted by the club at a meeting Monday night in the dean of women's office.

Plans for a tea to be held in April are being made by Misses Dorothy Jones and Grace Maloney. At that time Ampersand will entertain the junior women, faculty women, the S. M. U. Mortar Board members and the Ampersand alumni.

A meeting date was set from 4 to 6 p. m. on the first and third Mondays in the month.

Bears Outscore Frogs 41 to 24

Third Loss in Row Puts T. C. U. Cagers in Fifth Place.

The Horned Frogs extended their losing streak to three games last week against the Baylor Bears at Waco. The tall Bears outscored the Frogs, 41 to 24.

The game was fairly even until Byrum Saam went out on fouls about mid-way in the second half. Saam led the T. C. U. scorers with 11 points.

Baylor gained a notch in conference standings by the victory, while T. C. U. was pushed down to fifth place.

Coach Meyer started a revamped line-up against the Bears, trying to get more scoring punch. Willie Walls and Vernon Brown, forwards; Clifford Cowan, center; and Saam and Sam Baugh, guards, opened against Baylor.

The sharp-shooting of Theo Alford, lanky Bear forward, proved too much for the Frogs. Alford scored five field goals, and five free throws to take high point honors for the night, with 15 points.

Here's one cigarette that writes its own advertising..

It's like this—
You see I'm reading a Chesterfield advertisement and I'm smoking a Chesterfield cigarette, and all of you are smoking Chesterfields.

Now listen—Chesterfields are mild (not strong, not harsh). That's true isn't it?
Then you read "and yet they satisfy, please your taste, give you what you want in a cigarette." That says it, doesn't it?

Wait a minute—
It says now that Chesterfields have plenty of aroma and flavor. One of you go out of the room and come back. That will tell you how pleasing the aroma is.
