The Centennial. What About T. C. U. Activity Points. World Peace.

By ANNE CAUKER President Mellorist Club

Editor's Note: This column is written each week by different students or faculty members who are asked to present their viewpoints on any subjects which they see fit.

This year Texas goes on the map with one of the greatest fairs, exhibitions, and whatnot that has ever been attempted. Thousands, perhaps millions, of people from all over the world will be coming to our state to see one part or another of the Centennial. Most of them will visit Fort Worth during the Frontier Show. This is T. C. U.'s big opportunity to show the world what it is.

So far as this writer knows, nothing has been done on a T. C. U. project for the Centennial. Why not start it now, and make it different? Dramatize our history, our future. Plan a unique exhibit. Live up to the rest of the Centennial. Let's put T. C. U. on the map with Texas.

Little Billy Rose, one of the greatest show directors in the United States, is going to try his hand at putting over Fort Worth's part of the Centennial. That is the most encouraging thing in the whole of our plans. If Mr. Rose has had the success he's had with "Jumbo," we'll be showing the rest of the state how to run a Centennial celebration.

T. C. U. employs a system of activity points which grades a student on the amount of extracurricular work he does. That system includes a limit for the number of points one student may have. But when the most active seniors were named last week, only five of the group of ten were within the range of legitimate points. If we're not going to use our activity point system, let's do away with it. Personally, I'm in favor of enforcing it.

There is a great deal of good to be gained from participation in campus activities; but when one student is given the presidency of more than one organization, he can not possibly do all of the jobs as well as they should be done. Moreover, when a junior or senior accepts important offices in several different clubs, he keeps needed experience in leadership from sophomores who could do the work almost as well as he, or better. The time is nearing for election of officers in campus organizations. See if you can be strong enough and intelligent enough to refuse those extra offices. As for the nominators, look for new material. It will do your organization good.

To committee chairmen and class presidents comes a bit of choice news. For the past two years the catalogue has been cluttered with classes scheduled for 10 o'clock on Monday and Friday. Thanks to the Student Council and the co-operation of the Administration, next year we will have Monday and Friday at ten free again.

In intercollegiate circles T. C. U. is recognized as a leader in liberal thought. Largely as the result of the work of certain members of the faculty, our students have been open-minded and progressive. But we must recognize that there are other liberal groups at work. One of the most important of these is the Quakers. That group has begun the organization of a movement for peace education throughout the whole of the United States.

The organization, led by the Quakers and a national board chaired by Harry Emerson Fosdick, will unite all forces for peace. The aim of the movement is to keep America out of war and thereby prepare for world peace. T. C. U. will undoubtedly have an opportunity to participate in this movement through its campus organizations and through the work of individuals. We will have a chance to put into practice our liberal ideals and to uphold the reputation we have earned. When that opportunity comes during the next few months, will you be ready to support it? Will you be ready to co-operate with the rest of the population in keeping America out of war?

Inman Will Talk To Student Body Friday, March 27

Has Traveled 18,000 Miles In Studying Latin-America.

Is Noted Authority "Comparison of North and South American Life" Will Be Subject.

"Engineers Versus Poets—A Comparison of North American and Latin American Life" will be the subject of a lecture by Dr. Samuel Guy Inman at 8 o'clock Friday evening, March 27 in the T. C. U. Auditorium. This is the sixth in T. C. U.'s lecture series this year.

Dr. Inman is one of the leading authorities of the United States on Latin American life. He has recently been in South America, where he acted as special representative of the commission set up there by the League of Nations for taking care of German refugees to South America. He claims that Latin American countries offer a special opportunity for German intellectuals, such as professors and scientists, and he has been active in placing them in all the capitals of South and Central America. During his trip to South America, Dr. Inman visited 14 countries, covering 18,000 miles by plane, and interviewed presidents and government ministers in his survey of colonization opportunities.

He lived in Mexico 10 years as director of the People's Institute, and since that time has spent about half of his time during the past 20 years visiting South American countries and studying Pan-American problems. He recognized the right of every people to work out their own destiny and is a most convinced enemy of imperialism.

This lecture will be free to students and faculty members. The general public will be admitted for a small fee.

Oscar Wilde Play Will Be March 24

"The Importance of Being Earnest," three-act play by Oscar Wilde, will be given March 24 instead of March 16, as previously announced, reports Miss Ruth Connor.

Those in the cast are: Charles Wilson, Miss Helen Adams, Miss Mary Agnes Rowland, Louis Pitchford, Miss Millie Fears, Truitt Kennedy, Harry Roberts and George Beady.

Mrs. Murphy, Versatile Palmist, Can See Into Deep, Dark Future

Is your life a mystery to you? If so, take your troubles to Mrs. Helen Murphy, who is well qualified to put your life back on the natural course.

Mrs. Murphy has as her hobby fortune telling. She is not content with one kind of prophesying but uses the palm reading, card telling and astrological methods.

It all dates back to a boardwalk in Santa Monica, Calif., and W. A. A. circuses. In California one summer an astrologer told her she was born under the same signs as Aimee Semple McPherson, the evangelist. He said that the same things influence both lives. This led to Mrs. Murphy's becoming greatly interested in astrology.

W. A. A. Is Influence. The second half of her fortune telling ability can be traced to W. A. A. At carnivals and circuses given by the W. A. A., Mrs. Murphy was called upon to go Gypsy and read palms.

Gathering together material on the subjects of palm-reading and card telling, she began to study the art of fortune telling. Now there is seldom a day that goes by without some friend's coming to learn of the future. If you have a firm hand you are determined, and, on the contrary, if you have the flimsy hand shake of a dead fish, you are more than likely the wishy-washy type.

Frog Band Members May Play At Texas Centennial in Dallas

Twenty-five members of the Horned Frog Band have been invited to work at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas, reports Prof. Claude Sammis.

"They will act as guides and, also play in the Centennial Band," Sammis said.

Applicants must be at least 5 feet 8-inches tall and weigh 150 pounds. Preference will be given to those of senior standing in the University. Sammis has also received a letter concerning the employment of two or three Centennial entertainers. They will have to entertain on the stage and over the radio and will make about $30 a week.

"Men are preferred, but girls may make applications," he said.

C. E. Haydon of Mission has written Prof. Sammis concerning three college band men to join a band he is organizing and go to Europe this summer.

"He needs a drummer and alto and tenor sax players," Sammis said. The band will leave New York June 27 and return from Havre Aug. 19. Members of the band will be able to pay their passage by playing for dancing on the ship. All expenses to New York and after they leave the boat in Europe must be paid by the individuals.

Social Science Group to Be Here

Southwestern Association to Meet April 10-11 at Texas.

The annual spring convention of the Southwestern Social Science Association will meet in Fort Worth April 10 and 11, it was announced recently by Prof. Floyd L. Vaughan, chairman, and head of the department of business administration at the University of Oklahoma.

The T. C. U. social science faculty will be in charge of local arrangements. Professors from the departments of government, economics, sociology, business administration and history will appear on the program.

Approximately 250 faculty representatives from universities in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Louisiana, New Mexico and Texas, will attend the meeting, which will be held in the Texas Hotel.

"Presentation of new discoveries and discussion methods in fields of social science will be the main object of the educators," says Dr. W. J. Hammond.

This is the first time Fort Worth has ever been the site of the meeting. The convention was held in Oklahoma City last year.

All students interested in the departments concerned are invited to attend.

Biology Group Plans Picnic

Members of the biology department are planning a picnic to be held the latter part of next week. Anyone wishing to attend is requested to see Miss Helen Spinks in the office of the laboratory before Tuesday.

Regional Y Secretary Is Guest on Campus

Plans Are Made for Members to Attend Conference at Hollister, Mo.

Miss Fern Babcock, regional executive secretary for the "Y's", visited on the campus this week.

The "Y" members, together with Miss Babcock, held a Hollister rally picnic at the Rose Garden Monday night to discuss plans for attending the "Y" conference which is held each year at Hollister, Mo.

A savings fund was started to help members attend the meeting and also a transportation fund to take them to the meeting. The conference this year will be held from June 5 to 14.

'28 Graduate Teaches At Williams College

Luther Mansfield to Receive Ph. D. From Chicago University Tuesday.

Luther S. Mansfield, M. A. '28, has recently been appointed instructor of English at Williams College, Williamstown, Mass. Prof. Mansfield will receive his Ph.D. degree from Chicago University Tuesday with a thesis on "Melville, Author and New Yorker."

Since his graduation from T. C. U. he has been teaching in Jamestown, N. D. Prof. Mansfield when at T. C. U. was president of Sigma Tau Delta in his senior year and is now adviser of the Iota Alpha chapter of Jamestown. He is a member of the National Advisory Council as Northwestern Regent.

Old Timer, C. P. McGaff, Asks for Age Pension

An employe on the campus for 20 years, C. P. McGaff, 75, recently applied for one of the old age pensions to be given by the state and national governments.

McGaff, who is remembered by many "old timers" at T. C. U., has been under a doctor's care for five years. "The pension comes at a good time," said McGaff, who is proud of having obtained a poll tax each year since he came to Fort Worth in 1878. "I'll use my money to live on."

Petition Deadline Set

Petitions for the nomination of candidates for next year's student body officers must be turned in by March 20, Melvin Diggs, student body president, announced yesterday.

The election of the officers will be held in chapel Wednesday, April 1. At 10 o'clock Friday, March 27, supporters of the candidates will be given an opportunity to make speeches in behalf of their nominees at a special assembly in the University Auditorium.

The election time, which in past years has been on May 1, will be a month earlier because of a resolution passed last year by the Student Council. This enables the new officers to attend the remaining meetings of the Council and to acquaint themselves with its functions.

The Denton representatives will be entertained with a dinner in the Cafeteria, that evening.

Southern Methodist University will send students here Thursday night for two debates.

A T. C. U. team will travel to Albany, Tex.; that evening for a debate with Abilene Christian College at a meeting of the Lion's Club of that city.

T. C. U. Is Regular Music Institute; Has Pianos From Cellar to Garret

By all rights T. C. U. should be called the Texas Christian Institute of Music. Why is this? There are 37 pianos on this campus. Of the 37, five are grands and the remaining 32 are uprights: The most mutilated of the lot is the upright of uncertain vintage in the gymnasium. The "Old Masters," meaning Bach, Chopin, Mozart and Beethoven, would turn over in their graves if they could hear the numerous renditions of "Chop-Sticks," either in solo or duet, which are played daily during the physical education classes.

The preferred brand seems to be Wm. Knabe & Co. There are also a few Packards, Mehlin and Fishers. The large grand piano in the auditorium seems to be the only Chickering on the campus.

Practice Hall Has 10 Practice hall proper, located on the third floor of the Administration Building, houses 10 pianos, and it is there that the beginners as well as the music majors practice daily.

The average students who are just taking music because their parents want them to, practice, or are supposed to practice, two hours a day. Ja Ann Montgomery says that she seldom does.

Mrs. Otto Neilsen was practicing diligently when this reporter came snooping to note the make of the various pianos. Rooms 305 and 306 are used for the Music Club's meetings. Passing in this vicinity on the meeting days, one may see Miss Mary Frances Hutten accompanying the lute, and not unharmonious singing of Raymond Michero, Ronald Wheeler and Walter Moody. Incidentally, Wheeler can also tickle the ivories.

Sammis Has Packard Grand There is a mellow-toned Packard grand in Prof. Claude Sammis' studio and another Mehlin grand in the voice studio of Mrs. Helen Fouts Cahoon.

Opposum Mascot Used in Initiation For New 'T' Men

"T" Association initiation was in progress on the campus yesterday. Aubrey "Muscle Bound" Linne, Bull "The Champ" Rogers, Jack "Cave-man" Tittle, Mason "Tyler" Mayne and Charles "Old-Clothes-Man" Needham were initiated into the sacred order of the "T."

Linne was dressed in K. P. breeches and waist coat, with the sleeves of the coat out at the shoulder. He had on a rain hat and was wearing a sign which read, "Cleanliness is virtuous."

Champ Rogers was seen wearing a pair of boxing gloves, blue bathrobe, tennis shoes and a pair of blue trunks. His face was covered with patches and he had on a black cap.

Cave-man Tittle was dressed in a variety of clothes put on backwards. He was wearing checked pants, a black coat, green tie, gray hat and was without socks.

Mayne was the laugh of the bunch. He had on a pair of "long johns" without the coverings and was seen leading a small opossum around the campus. Mayne also was wearing a pair of blue shorts, bedroom slippers and a sign which read "Red Sayles in the Sunset makes me Feel Like a Feather in the Breeze."

Needham was dressed in the typical attire of an old clothes man. He was wearing an old black coat, white shoes, black derby, overall pants, brown tie and a black sweater.

The "T" Association sponsored a "Frog Frolic" last night.

Geology Students To Arbuckle Mts.

Will Study Formations in Camp at Turner Falls, Okla.

A study of the geological formations of the Arbuckle Mountains will be the object of a field trip to be made this week-end by eight students under Dr. Gayle Scott.

The group, which left today, will stay in a camp at Turner Falls, Okla., and return here tomorrow. Tomorrow afternoon the students will be joined by the Ardmore Geological Society and will make a trip through the Ardmore Basin.

King and Queen Of WAA Carnival Will Be Elected

Girls and 'T' Association Each Select Five Nominees.

Students Will Vote

Club Will Offer Prize for Best Booth Arranged by Organization.

A king and queen, chosen from the W. A. A. and "T" Associations with four attendants each, will reign over the W. A. A. Carnival to be held from 8 until 12 o'clock March 21 in the Basketball Gymnasium.

The student body Wednesday in chapel will choose a king and queen from the nominations made by the two clubs. The other nominees will be attendants to the royal pair, whose identity will be kept secret until the carnival.

The W. A. A. members nominated Misses Lucy Bess Wester, Helen Miellmier, Evelyn Lowe, Maxine Whitten and Martha Cell-Graves as candidates for the honor of being queen.

The "T" Association's nominations for king will be announced later.

Clubs on the campus are arranging booths for the affair. Each organization is responsible for its own booth, where it can sell something. Twenty-five per cent of the net profits from each booth will go to the W. A. A. A prize will be offered by the W. A. A. for the best booth.

Miss Mary Frances Hutton is chairman of the committee on booths. She is being assisted by Misses Wynelle Moxley, Willie C. Austin and Miellmier. Miss Hutton has asked that those interested in having a booth see her not later than tomorrow.

Miss Mary Elizabeth McConnell is in charge of making arrangements for music and dancing for the evening.

Miss Clemence Clark is responsible for placing the booths in their desired spots. Miss Helen Adams is in charge of decorations for the carnival.

To Give Second Concert

The Men's Glee Club will give its second concert of the year at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the Chestnut Avenue Christian Church.

"Give Me Sports, Lots of Music," Says Bill Austin

Because her name is Willie C., she is always being mistaken for a boy. In high school Miss Austin found herself in a boy's physical training class. Every day someone asks her what the C. in her name stands for, but that is a secret.

Bill, as she is called by her friends, likes nothing better than sports. She has been president of the W. A. A. for two years. At present she is busy with plans for the W. A. A. carnival. Physical education is her major. During the first semester she taught a girls' sport class.

Next to sports, Bill likes music. She frequently harmonizes songs with Misses Ruth Duncan and Lockie Mae Miller. Bill knows the words to all the popular songs. She doesn't particularly care for opera. "Star Dust" is her favorite song. She sings alto and takes voice lessons.

Although Bill's home is in Fort Worth, she lives in Jarvis Hall. Her room is finished in blue and white. Even the clock is blue. She has a large whatnot stand that contains 25 objects. Some of the objects are gifts from Mexico and California. There are numerous elephants on the stand.

She is collecting poems which she intends to put in a scrap book this summer. She has a scrap book of all the W. A. A. activities for the past three years.

Skirts and sweaters are preferred to any other type of dress. She keeps her closet well stocked with food, including many cans of tomato juice. She gets up early every morning, as she simply can't sleep late.

Attention Students! It's Your Privilege

The Student Council went in the hole on the dance Saturday night. Why? Because the students, for whom the dance was given, did not attend. Again the question Why? Is it because you don't like the music? The Skiff thinks the "Dictators" have the best band in town and see no reason why the students shouldn't go to every dance. Is it the price? Surely that isn't the reason. Forty cents for three hours of dancing to the tunes of a good band is as cheap as could be expected. Then what is the reason?

Several students requested that the Council vote a regular dance for last Saturday night. That is what it did, only to receive a lack of co-operation on the part of the student body. If we are to continue having dances every Saturday night as in the past, the students must co-operate.

It has been suggested that a floor show be given along with the dance. If this meets with the approval of the student body, The Skiff feels safe in saying that the Student Council will back it up. A piece of machinery will decay and become of no value if not used. So likewise will the privilege of having dances on the campus be forfeited if it continues to be neglected.

Let's Cooperate With the Dean

Quoting from Dean Colby D. Hall's letter to the Open Forum in last week's issue of The Skiff:

"Provision is made for a room for smoking in the building. Professors are left free to control their own offices. This does not question the personal habits of students, but asks them only to consider the comfort and welfare of the whole group in a spirit of self-control and courtesy."

Read the above paragraph again. Now consider its content. Students are asked to think of others in their habits and actions. It isn't the fact that the Administration wants to take the personal habits of students in hand and tell them what to do, but it is a matter of thinking before acting.

Smoking is all right for those who wish to smoke—but maybe your friend doesn't smoke. Maybe the odor of tobacco is irritating to him. As Dean Hall said in his letter, provision is made for smoking in the building and this should be regarded by students as a co-operative move on the part of the University. They should in turn co-operate. If you must smoke, do it in the room set aside for this purpose.

A sign in the workshop reads, "If you spit on the floor at home—go home." Is it necessary to put such a sign up concerning smoking in the halls and the throwing of stubs on the floor?

The Skiff is of the opinion that such a move is entirely unnecessary. It thinks students of Texas Christian University are far enough advanced in education and social conduct to understand the situation and to co-operate.

A Bouquet For The Band

For 10 consecutive years the T. C. U. Band has been asked to play at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. After hearing the band in chapel Wednesday, one understands why the band has received this honor.

The enjoyable program presented by the band showed it to be a serious organization and a hard working one. The program was arranged to please a university student body. Don Gillis, director, deserves praise. His "Panhandle Suite" is one that any musician would be proud of having composed.

The band recently went to South Texas on a good will tour with the Rotary Club. There the band received many compliments. The band has played at Stripling and Polytechnic High Schools. They are to play at Paschal High School soon. A concert has been given at the University Christian Church. The band played at Azle at a public meeting Monday night.

What student isn't proud of the University's band?

Is T. C. U. Really A University?

The region covered by a university is "that period beyond the secondary school during which the student has become capable of pursuing self-dependent study and in which he utilizes the instructor in the same sense in which he utilizes the library, the laboratory, the occasional public lecturer, the office consultant," according to Henry C. Morrison, professor of education in the University of Chicago, who is considered by many as one of the foremost educators in America.

The writer of the Open Forum letter in The Skiff recently, who expressed the belief that students should not be penalized for failure to attend class so long as the student's work meets the required standards, has, in Morrison, at least one noted authority on his side. From Morrison's definition of a university it is evident that he does not think it necessary for a student to attend class every day. Indeed, the education goes so far as to say that until a student reaches the place where he can pursue individual study he is not actually a university student, but has been promoted beyond his capabilities.

To advocate so radical a change as doing away with class sessions at T. C. U. would be foolish, but it is foolish to expect to be given credit for the quality work done, even if the student has been absent several times. At least the teachers might take into consideration the fact that many students' absences are not voluntary, but that the student is attending educational meetings, etc., which greatly benefit both the student and T. C. U.

OPEN FORUM

EDITOR'S NOTE: The opinions expressed in this column are the personal views of the writers and are not necessarily the policy of The Skiff. Students are invited to write to the Open Forum. Letters of more than 250 words are not accepted. Anonymous letters will not be published, but a writer's name will be withheld from publication if he so desires.

Dear Editor:

I have heard our students comment both pro and con on the dirt column, but no expression of any student in the Open Forum concerning it. May I inflict my opinion on you by saying that until recently I did not consider it as either a good or bad addition to our school paper. I agree with the editor of the dirt column that it is our paper, and that we are the ones to be pleased, though I think there have been times when we might have taken the fact into consideration that it enjoys a not-unconsiderable circulation over the state.

I cannot see that it adds anything of value in the way of entertainment or information to our paper when it casts slurs or unpleasant implications on some of our students. At such times it is not at all entertaining—it is sickening, and I don't have a weak stomach.

I believe the students would appreciate a dirt column that is not filthy but rather on a little higher level than the plane to which we seem to have descended.

We have a great paper. Let's not spoil it by retaining something in it that blemishes the impression it gives.

MELVIN DIGGS.

Dear Fellow Students:

There have recently been several embarrassing situations due to a misunderstanding on the part of some students. When we enroll in T. C. U., we pay a five dollar library deposit. Some think that this fee enables them to have fines amounting to that figure.

Such is not the case. When fines exceed two dollars the student has to pay another library fee. These fines amount up easily; therefore, unless you want to pay some more money, bring your books back on time. Two cents a day soon grows.

Some also seem not to understand the use of reserve books. These books are put on reserve by professors, because a number of people will need to use them. They, therefore, do not go out of the library, except over the week-end or overnight after 9:30 p. m.

These reserve books are due back at 8 o'clock the next morning and after 2 o'clock are counted late. One is charged five cents an hour or 25 cents a day for keeping a reserve book out late.

Now you cannot say you have not had fair warning. Watch these fines! M. R.

Dear Editor:

Just a note through your most worthy Open Forum to the element known as chislers, that always appear at the dances and try to sneak in without paying the fare. A goodly number of these cheap-skates were present Saturday night and at their usual tricks. To you guys that are guilty—there is nothing cheaper than stealing and that is what you are doing when you dodge the tax at a student dance.

If you haven't got the 40 cents to go like a gentleman, for gosh sakes stay at home and look at yourself in the mirror! Maybe you will get a good look at yourself and find out what a sneak looks like. It has been said that there is honor among thieves—is there? Well, if you have any honor, or pride, quit trying to make the honorable class foot your bills.

 Music by The Dictators

Don's Music, Knitting, Napping Provide Chapel Entertainment

The chapel program Wednesday was a good one—I think everyone enjoyed the music because they could do what they wanted to and still listen—MARY FRANCES UMBEN-HOUR knitted. G'GARA took a nap. DUTCH KLINE was CHUNKING at someone. We don't know what he was chunking. MAXINE HOGAN and DAVID HICKEY enjoyed playing and talking. R E X CLARK had a mirror and flashed it in RED'S eyes. GILLIS went through the necessary and violent motions of directing the band. MARY COGSWELL also directed the band in her OWN WAY from where she was sitting. And so everyone had a swell time in chapel FOR ONCE.

PAUL RIDINGS insisted in his sleep the other night, that "WE'VE GOTTA LAY AN EGG" he didn't say who WE was supposed to be but sat up in bed and insinuated that it had to be done. CLIFTON COWAN has been accused of having SEX APPEAL with no regard as to its value. He even broke a date and refused an invitation to go on a hay-ride JUST TO STUDY. JACK TITTLE doesn't make a PRETTY PICTURE riding a MOTOR-CYCLE. BALDY FULENWIDER is now working the SERVICE DRUG STORE. BOOTISSE BEAVERS was the topic of conversation for several members of the fair sex in the girls' lounge the other day. GEORGE, they don't understand why your friends call you "Bootsie". RAB GRADY has been accused of knowing how to ACT DRAMATICALLY. VIRGINIA SCHELL has consented to COMMIT BIGAMY in order to get her name in this column. WHO'S WAITING NOW GIN-NIE? JIMMY LAWRENCE and WHO ATE SOUP? HARRY ROBERTS have affection for a certain blonde on the campus. Lawrence took her to see "Milky Way" last week, Harry. You had better cut your diet to soup once more and take her around if you want to win out. DID YOU KNOW THAT... The Skiff used to publish a freshman edition in green ink? In 1918 the freshmen were made to purchase SHOWER BATH TICKETS in Clark Hall at the rate of 25 cents each. The Skiff also ran a column many years ago entitled GOODE HALL GROANS. We still have the groans in both Goode and Clark but we don't have the column. Students had to pay a POLL TAX on the campus in 1916 in order to vote. Maybe it would be a good idea to charge this tax in 1936. Some people won't accept anything free. Less than 20 per cent of the T. C. U. students vote in any election. RICHARD OLIVER has a new style pair of pants since his fencing bouts last week. The audience saw part of what happened. Oliver did get the buttons ripped off his pants all right and it must have scared him pretty bad because they also ripped about a yard in the seat. For some reason we don't understand. RUTH CAMPBELL wrote POTSY DE VLAMING a two page letter as a token of love when he sent her some flowers Wednesday. nice going Campbell. We hope the flowers make you shake the blues away. Here's regards to the five boys and six girls that are occupying the campus hospitals this week. rapid recovery to you. Here's a poem that HULBERT SMITH said ELLEN SUE YEAGER wrote about him. he was just bragging, though, because we happen to know that he wrote it himself. "He hits the spot, About him girls rave a flop. Of his company they never tire— I'm speaking of none other than— J. Hulbert Smith, Esquire!"

The chemistry department has received a reprint of an article written by Dr. J. L. Whitman and Le-Roy Clardy. The article was printed in the Journal of the American Chemical Society, February issue. The title of the article is "Densities and Refractive Indices of Bromoform-Benzene Mixtures." Clardy received the M. S. degree in '34.

Miss Frances Taylor was a representative from the Pan-American Student Forum of Fort Worth which met in Austin last week.

Miss Jean Falls visited friends in Dallas Sunday.

Miss Eugenia Chappell spent last week-end in Austin.

NOCTURNE IN TWO SPITS

Aw rats,
 These cats!
 From alley can
 And back yard fence,
 They come in hordes,
 And swarms immense.
 Their hellish sounds—
 Till it is numb—
 Go through and through
 My cranium.
 I hear their squalls
 And screams and howls,
 And snarls and screams
 And spits and yowls,
 Till I swear thunderation
 At such vociferation:
 And gnash my teeth,
 And walk the floor,
 And wring my hands,
 And slam the door,
 And in my very bitter rage
 I swear enough to fill a page.

Then in one swoop
 My temper goes
 And I set out
 To slay my foes.
 One shoe hurled
 Hotly hisses
 Past their ears
 But—curses!—misses
 Another shoe—
 And still more shrieks;
 Again I've missed
 Those feline sheiks.
 Long, long hours
 Of sleepless night—
 I greet the dawn
 Of day's fair light:
 At sun's first peep
 Gone are the "mews"—
 So is my sleep—
 So are my shoes.
 Aw, rats,
 Those cats!

Lipstick Used by Coeds Enough to Paint a Barn

The University of Wisconsin has found through surveys that the annual crop of lipstick used on the campus would paint a barn, and that the average male student removes 1,380,000 little pieces of hair from his face in the course of a year's shaving.

If all the whiskers grown by the combined male student body were carefully pasted together, one by one, they would reach twice around the world. An average college man raises nine miles of beard a year.

SHORTY SPORTS PLANTS

By CARL MAXWELL
LISSEN, BIG BOY, I'M THE BOSS NOW!

NOTE: This was the last column that Shorty wrote before taking the fatal matrimonial leap last night. Maxwell, after reading Dot Luyster's pinch-hit column a couple of weeks ago, decided he needed her help regularly, so he up and married the girl. Perhaps with the two of them working together, the column will be good in the future.

Spring football closed with a bang—several of them, in fact—last Friday afternoon. Coach Meyer divided the squad into two teams and they proceeded to tear each other to pieces for an hour or so.

While all this mayhem was going on a couple of backs probably ripped and plunged themselves into regular jobs next year. Bob Harrell came around on his reverse in a way to make Frog fans forget all about the fine "horses" we had the past season. Harrell looked like a million bucks driving along for yards and yards with his nose on the ground. Linnon Blackmon established himself as the man to beat out for the fullback hole. One time he scatted through a narrow hole, cut back to his right, and outran the defensive backs 95 yards to the goal line. He looked good handling the ball, too. If Blackie has any line-backing ability at all, he'll be playing plenty next fall.

Blackmon has already proved his ability as a blocker. Although one of the smallest men on his freshman eleven, he held down the blocking halfback position.

One of the lines looked like a herd of elephants. I. B. Hale, 235; Allie White, 210; Forrest Kline, 214; Cotton Harrison, 195; and Jack Tittle, a midget at 190 pounds, made up the center of the wall. The other line wasn't so beefy, but they took care of themselves pretty well. Standouts in this bunch were Sub-Capt. Drew Ellis, Bull Rogers and freshman Ki Aldrich.

The boys played a little too rough and several casualties resulted from the mix-ups. Capt. Walt Roach wrenched his back; Allie White hurt his knee; Fish John Hall got a cut in his eyebrow on the second play, and I. B. Hale's elbow slipped out of place momentarily.

A bouquet of roses to Prof. Prouse for the fine show he put on last Friday night. The large crowd that attended was well repaid for coming out.

Comedy highlights of the show were Fencer Oliver's great display of nonchalance when more than a Murad was needed; Joe Findley's aquatic feats; and Jimmy Lawrence's death defying water act.

The boxing matches revealed that maybe T. C. U. has the much-sought after "White Hope" to defeat Joe Louis in the person of barrel-chested Bull Rogers.

Baseball Coach Wolf needs men, especially pitchers. Only a dozen aspirants have reported so far. But those who are out are making up in enthusiasm what they lack in numbers.

Last year's ace infield, Baugh, Manton, Meyer and Jacks, is shot to pieces by graduation and sickness. Tillie Manton is the only man back in his regular slot at shortstop. L. D. Meyer is on the sick list; Jimmy Jacks has played out his eligibility, and Sam Baugh will have a fling at pitching.

Bill Hudson, Baugh and Red King will make up the hurling staff, with Willie Walls maybe taking a trial on the mound.

Jimmy Lawrence could fill in at an infield berth if necessary. The other day he was scooping up "skinners" with his big catcher's mitt like a big leaguer.

"Knuckle" Hudson says Howard Grubbs kids him that Bear Wolf is planning to put shin guards on the infielders for protection when the knuckle-baller is on the mound.

Tennis may have taken the place of baseball as the summer sport at T. C. U. While only 12 men responded to the call for baseball, 15 racquet wielders answered Prof. McDiarmid's summons.

Frogs to Play Baseball Series With Oklahoma

2 Games Tentatively Scheduled Here March 23-24.

Meyer Is Out Today

Conference Season Begins With S. M. U. April 27—T. C. U. to Practice With T. W. C.

T. C. U. will play a home-and-home baseball series with the University of Oklahoma this month. Coach Bear Wolf is arranging the dates.

"We have tentatively scheduled two games to be played here on March 23 and 24," announced Coach Wolf Wednesday afternoon. The Frog nine will journey to Oklahoma at a later date.

The conference schedule opens with S. M. U. April 27. Practice games with T. W. C. are being arranged before the O. U. series.

Although hampered by lack of material, Coach Wolf expects a hustling ball club out of the men he has. A lot depends on the showing of several men in new positions.

L. D. Meyer is expected to report for practice this afternoon after being absent because of illness since drills began. Meyer's return to the diamond will greatly strengthen the infield.

'Windbreak City' Built

Utah State College Students Form Town With Trailers.

Logan, Utah, (ACP)—Newest municipality in Utah is "Windbreak City," organized by Utah State College students who came to school in automobile trailers, removed the wheels, banked the traveling houses against the cold, and settled down for the winter.

The citizens of Windbreak City turned out of their 12 trailers the other day to elect Ivan Theuson of Rexburg, Idaho, mayor, and Leonard Christensen of Los Angeles, Calif., and Ned Tucker of Fairview, Utah, councilmen.

They Called Him Cotton 'Cause He Was Kinda Blonde

"How much do you weigh?" "190 pounds."
"Color of your eyes?" "Blue."
"How tall are you?" "Six feet, 2 inches."
"Just who are you anyway?" "Wilbert Harrison — 'Cotton' for short."

And the "Cotton" has stuck with Harrison since he was a student in grammar school at Temple. When asked why they called him "Cotton," Wilbert replied, "Aw I was kinda blond then, and I guess that is the reason."

Like all other members of the Frog squad, Harrison has taken part in all sorts of sports ever since he was big enough. He made three letters in high school football, two in baseball, three in basketball and one in track.

He came to T. C. U. in 1933 and gave as his reason the fact that he liked Coach Francis Schmidt and wanted to play with a good football team. Harrison has made a numeral in freshman football, a track letter and two letters in varsity football. He is a member of the "T" Association.

He likes to wrestle, hunt and fish, and wants to coach after he graduates next year. He has worked in the oil fields, on the campus and for the Texas Highway Department since he came to T. C. U.

Varsity Defeats Scrubs 1-0 in Soccer Socking

T. C. U. got its first taste of soccer Thursday morning, when a team made up of varsity football members defeated a "scrub" team, 1 to 0, in the last minute of play on the intramural gridiron.

The national game of Scotland, (Golf, contrary to popular belief, is the national sport of the Netherlands), soccer was introduced to the campus by Prof. Thomas Prouse. The ball may be kicked, or batted with the head or elbows, but use of the hands is barred.

Sam Baugh received credit for the only score of the game which came at the close of two 30-minute periods of play. His kick was deflected between the goal posts by an opposing player.

Outlaws Defeat Seniors 17 to 11

Win Campus Cage Title for 2nd Consecutive Year.

The Outlaws, by defeating the Seniors 17 to 11 Friday night in the Intramural Open House feature, won the campus basketball title for the second consecutive year.

The members of the winning team will receive silver basketball trophies. They are Hugh Wagley, Rex Clark, Jimmy Jacks, Johnny Knowles, Elmer Seybold, Tom Pickett and Charley Needham.

The Outlaws took the lead early in the game, but by the half the Seniors had drawn up to a 9-9 tie. The Seniors were badly outplayed in the second half, making only two more points, while the Outlaws ran their total up to 17.

Jacks High-Point Man.

Jacks was high-point man with three field goals and one free throw. Clark, also of the Outlaws, was second with five points. Melvin Diggs led the Seniors with four counters.

The fencing title was won by Richard Oliver. He defeated Jack Hudson in the semifinals and won over Seybold, five touches to four, for the championship.

The Freshmen eked out a victory in the swimming meet, 20 points to the second-place Juniors' 19. The Sophs were third with five points.

Freshmen Win Medley.

The medley was won by the freshman team of George Goldthwaite, Jack Murphy and Fred Nemitz. Woodrow Lipscomb, sophomore, won the breast stroke, with Goldthwaite second and Gene House, junior, third.

Bruce Scraftford, junior, was first in the 40-yard free style, Nemitz second and Murphy third. House, Nemitz and Murphy came in in the order named in the 100-yard free style. The back stroke was won by Scraftford. Murphy was second.

The dormitory girls' cage team, led by Miss Clemence Clark, who made nine points, drubbed the town girls by a 17 to 2 count. Miss Dot Luyster chalked up a field goal for the town girls' only scratch.

Matches Last 3 Rounds.

The results of the boxing matches, all of which were for three rounds, were as follows: Heavyweights, Ki Aldrich and Red Phares drew and Bull Rogers defeated Cotton Harrison.

Light-heavyweights, Travis Griffin defeated Tom Thammisch, Fuller Rogers won over Vernon Cearley, and Griffin and Rogers drew in a special bout.

Welterweights, Bobby Bass and Bill Healey drew; and lightweights, Frank Valencia defeated Walter Bradley.

The class is composed of Misses Lois Atkinson, Martha Ceil Graves, Dorothy Jones, Dot Luyster, Maurine McDowell and Virginia Schell and Mrs. Elizabeth Vaughn.

Technical Experts In Demand in America

Authority Believes Industry Faces a Shortage of Trained Men.

Montclair, N. J., (ACP)—American business and industry faces "a terrible shortage of technically trained men," according to the recent statement of Dr. Harvey N. Davis, president of Stevens Institute of Technology. Among general non-technical industries in particular, he said, the demand for engineering school graduates far exceeds the supply.

"The employment situation definitely broke for Stevens alumni early last Spring," Dr. Davis said. "Ninety six per cent of the graduates of the six depression classes, 1930 to 1935, are employed, close to what one would expect in normal times. For last June's seniors, the figures are 91 per cent employed and more jobs have been turned down than there are men left."

General business concerns of a non-technical nature, Dr. Davis said, are showing an increased preference for graduates of technical schools.

"In the boom years most of our graduates were absorbed by the utilities," he explained. "Now, however, all the men we can supply are being taken by general industry, and I don't know what we'll do when the utilities come back."

Dan Harston, 35, was a visitor on the campus this week.

OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO—"IT'S TOASTED"

Luckies are less acid

PROPER AGING

Tobacco in its natural state is harsh and strong. Though "cured" by the grower before sale, it is unsuited for use without further aging. During this aging period (which ranges in the case of Lucky Strike from 1 1/2 to 3 years) important changes occur. These "Nature" changes result in the partial "smoothing out" of the original harsh qualities of the leaf. Our process of manufacture carries these improvements many steps further—as every Lucky Strike Cigarette exemplifies: A Light Smoke of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco.

LUCKIES ARE LESS ACID!

Recent chemical tests show that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

Poetry Anthology Will Be Truly a Centennial Edition

BY ROSEMARY COLLYER

There are a number of things which go on on this campus about which remarkably few of the students know. One of the most important of these activities is the work of the Poetry Club. The club is going to publish a centennial edition this year of their annual poetry anthology. Surprisingly enough, there are a rather large number of students on the campus who write poetry regularly, and a great deal of it is considerably above average.

This particular anthology will make its appearance during the latter part of April and will contain a number of poems written by students who are on the campus now as well as the poetry of a number of T. C. U. exes who, since their graduation, have become quite well known for their excellent verses.

The most recent and notable of these poets, and a number of students will doubtless remember her, is Miss Sidde Joe Johnson. Miss Johnson graduated from T. C. U. in '31 and is from Corpus Christi.

Another contributor to the anthology will be none other than Amos Melton, sports writer for the Star-Telegram. From this one may easily see that all poets aren't sissies.

Included will also be poems by Mrs. Irene Carlisle, whose work has appeared a number of times in "Voices of the Southwest," a poetry anthology; Mrs. Gatha Taylor, who is president of the Fort Worth Poetry Society; and Kate Crady, who writes negro dialect poetry.

Space will not permit my mentioning all of the names of those who will have poems in this anthology. There will be, of course, poems included by Miss Genevieve Papineau, winner of the Bryson Award last week; Everett Gillis, winner of the Bryson Award for last year; Miss Nina Whittington, '35 graduate and president of the Poetry Club that year, as well as A. L. Crouch, whose poetry we all know, and numerous others.

If you feel that you can write poetry, try it and submit it to the English department before March 21. Who knows, it may get into the anthology!

This book will contain around one hundred pages and will be well worth a dollar investment.

Misses Mary Corzine, Christine Lennox and Betty Buster are new members of the G. D. S. Club.

For centuries the world has gone to the Near East for its flavors and aromas and spices.

... and today Chesterfield imports thousands of bales of tobacco from Turkey and Greece to add flavor and fragrance to Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Turkish tobacco is expensive. The import duty alone is 35 cents a pound. But no other place except Turkey and Greece can raise tobacco of this particular aroma and flavor.

This Turkish tobacco, blended with our own American tobaccos in the correct proportions to bring out the finer qualities of each tobacco, helps to make Chesterfields outstanding for mildness and for better taste.
