The Colorful Hour. The World's Worst. Chapel Standards. A Sore Spot.

By MORTON KLEIN

Editor's Note: This column is written each week by different students or faculty members who are asked to present their viewpoints on any subjects which they see fit.

By far the most colorful hour of the school week is from 10 to 11 o'clock on Wednesday—our chapel hour. The period is given over to a variety of pastimes—studying, knitting, gossiping with an occasional lonely soul trying to get the gist of the program. As a group we generally ignore, both thoroughly and consistently, anything that takes place on our platform—and from diverse sources have been labeled "the world's worst audience." Well, let's take our bow and frankly acknowledge the criticism—we're pretty bad. I'm not going to try and analyze that audience; it's a bit too complex for me, but I will venture what I believe is a partial explanation.

Chapel is the only opportunity the student body has for getting together; it's a bit of an occasion, and we want to be entertained, nothing else. Our few moments of worship are routine and sterile affairs. We go through the motions, sing the songs, bow our heads, but the entire affair doesn't bring forth a spark of an emotional response. The few students that are in earnest find themselves overwhelmed by a mass of indifference surrounding them.

If the speaker of the day is in earnest about anything, he is studiously ignored, and the only response he may get is from an occasional wit. The more jokes the better the speaker—chapel standards. Everything indicates that desire to be entertained, and all attempts at anything else are looked upon as intrusions. There is plenty of room for criticism of our chapel audience, and of our chapel programs, but we do know that there is little harmony between the two.

A great many students want to get together every week and devote the entire period to entertaining themselves; another group wishes a more serious program; and a third group probably doesn't care to go. The bizarre blend is our chapel audience.

Let's set aside an hour every week that is frankly devoted to entertainment, picking our "queens" and discussing our social problems. The students want it, and a gay, spirited program would add a good deal to our campus life. Clubs might offer their programs; and our students might perform as individual entertainers.

However, a chapel program that is essentially a period of worship is needed, but let's make it voluntary. There's little reason in making a student fill up a seat and trying to have him swallow a religious and educational program that he has no complex—expecting to be bored and taste for. At a voluntary chapel wondering how best to spend the hour—will disappear.

There is no need to have a chapel program every week, even though an adequate program has not been planned. Though arranging a thorough chapel program takes more than one week, let us wait and offer the student body a period that will be significant and in demand.

The chapel period as it now exists is a sore spot on our campus life, and increased discipline doesn't seem to be the cure. A change is desirable—let's get together and do something about it.

Quartet Entertains Club

The T. C. U. quartet composed of Weldon Allen, G. L. Messenger, Raymond Stewart and George Cherryhomes sang at the ninth annual dinner of the Fort Worth Business Woman's Club Wednesday night.

Carnival to Be Largest Social By Single Club

W. A. A. Event Will Be From 8-12 P. M. Tomorrow.

Coronation Feature

Dancing, Fortune Telling, Grab Bags and Side Shows Are Other Attractions.

The largest social event ever to be put on in T. C. U. by a single club will be presented from 8 to 12 o'clock tomorrow night, when the W. A. A. will stage its spring carnival in the Basketball Gymnasium.

The main feature of the evening will be the crowning of the king and queen of the carnival, whose identity will be kept a secret until then. Wednesday the student body voted on a king and queen from nominees made from the W. A. A. and "T" Association. The girls selected as candidates for queen are Misses Lucy-Bess Wester, Helen Miellmier, Maxine Whitten, Evelyn Lowe and Martha Cell Graves.

5 Boys Nominated The boys, who were selected as nominees for king, are Taldon Mantón, Tracy Kellow, Melvin Diggs, Mason Mayne and Jack Tittle.

The four candidates from each of these organizations who were not elected as king and queen will serve as attendants to the royal pair.

Every club in school is arranging for a booth and a prize will be given for the most attractive one.

The carnival will also feature an array of hot dogs, peanuts, fortune telling, grab bags, pink lemonade, side shows, raffles, dancing and everything that goes with a carnival.

Committees Named Miss Wynelle Moxley is general chairman of all arrangements, assisted by Misses Mary Elizabeth McConnell, Clemence Clark, Mary Frances Hutton and Helen Adams.

Miss Jeanette Mantooth and Miss Shelley Blount are in charge of the freshman girls who will furnish publicity on the campus today and tomorrow.

Lester Receives Wset Point Post

Darrell Lester will continue his scholastic and athletic career at the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y. He was appointed by Congressman W. D. McFarlane, of his home district, Graham.

Lester's acceptance was wired Wednesday. He will receive his A. B. degree from T. C. U. in June and enroll at West Point on July 1.

Speaks in Bright Chapel

The Rev. B. A. Porter, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, spoke in Brite Chapel this morning.

"Ad" Building Basement Place To "Eat, Drink, and Be Merry"

By GENEVIEVE PAPINEAU. If you want to eat, if you want to sleep, if you want to study, or if you just want to loaf, go to the basement floor of the Administration Building. There may be found rooms devoted to any one of these functions.

The largest room is the Cafeteria, a scene of mad crowding three times a day by starving students. Just across the hall, whence pours the chilled air, is the storeroom where the butter, lard, sugar and flour for breakfast, dinner and supper are stored.

That the Book Store is located in the north end of the hall and next to the Cafeteria, and is probably the most popular spot in the building, is well known.

Adjoining the Book Store is the girls' lounge, where studying goes on in varying degrees of seriousness. Some eat here, some sleep here, but most of the girls loaf and gossip.

"Early to Bed 'n Early to Rise No Go," Says Atkinson

"Lois Atkinson is the most pleasant roommate imaginable." That is Miss Ruth Campbell's opinion of her. Lois has always lived in San Antonio, which she considers the best city in Texas.

She studied expression 10 years. Lois represented her high school in declamation meets and is majoring in public speaking. At present she is busy practicing teaching.

She will graduate in summer school. She would like to attend a business school in San Antonio next year.

Lois played in the high school orchestra. She studied violin seven years, but she doubts if she could tune one now.

She has no favorite sport. She is hiking manager of the W. A. A. No particular color is preferred. All kinds of foods are liked, but spinach and okra. Her favorite pastime is sitting on a bench with Ray Wester.

Lois is going to A. & M. April 3, to represent T. C. U. at the Cotton Ball. She had a page in the Horned Frog popularity section last year and is a candidate for a page this year. Studying is always done in bed. Usually she is asleep 15 minutes later. It takes coaxing and threatening to awake her in the mornings.

8 to Participate In Gough Contest

Orations Will Be Given at 8 P. M. Wednesday in Auditorium.

Eight students have entered the Gough Oratorical Contest which will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday night in the Auditorium, according to Prof. Lew D. Fallis.

The first award will be $25 and a medal. The second award will be $10 and the third $5.

The names of the orations of those who have entered are: "Depression Youth," Charles Weaver; "Youth," Kenneth Hay; "Lobbies," Elmer Seybold; "Co-operative Exploitation," Lester Rickman; "The Epic of Youth," Johnnie Hughes; "A Living Triumph of Democracy," Truitt Kennedy; "America's Radical Party," Morton Klein, and "A Challenge to Patriotism," C. H. Richards.

Pridemore Is Made Skiff Sports Editor

Walter Pridemore was appointed sports editor of The Skiff this week by Raymond Michero, editor, upon the withdrawal from the University of Carl Maxwell, former sports editor.

Jones Bacus acted as editor of the present issue of The Skiff. He is the first of a group of junior journalism students who will serve as issue editors during the spring semester as part of a journalism requirement.

Roberts, Bussey Are Candidates In Prexy's Race

Brown, Allen, Cherryhomes Vice-President Nominees.

Two for Secretary

"Mud-slinging Fest" to Be Held March 30—Election Will Be April 1.

With the deadline for the turning in of petitions for student body officers drawing near, seven of the nomination forms had been received by the Student Council yesterday. All petitions must be in the hands of the Council by 12 o'clock today.

Indications yesterday were that the race for president of the student body would be a "two horse" affair, with Harry Roberts, junior class representative to the Council this year, and Ben Bussey, present student body vice-president, as the sole entries.

The race for vice-president promises to be a free-for-all, with three candidates known to be dickering for the place. Petitions have been received for George Cherryhomes and Vernon Brown and one for Clyde Allen was reported in circulation yesterday.

Two candidates, Misses Anne Calkin and Ruth Conner, have turned in petitions for the secretary-treasurer's race. No petitions have been received for head yell leader, but one for Olin Jones was said to be in circulation.

Walter Pridemore yesterday was the only person known to be in the race for editor of The Skiff. Nominees for this office must be approved by the publications committee before they are allowed to become candidates.

The election will be held in chapel Wednesday, April 1. A political rally or "mud-slinging fest" will be held in the University Auditorium at 10 o'clock Monday, March 30, at which time candidates and their supporters will be allowed to make public pleas for votes.

Council Approves Poetry Anthology

The Student Council passed a resolution Monday to endorse the T. C. U. Centennial Poetry Anthology.

The resolution follows: "Whereas the Poetry Club of Texas Christian University is preparing an outstanding and representative Centennial anthology of T. C. U. poetry for publication during the month of April; and

"Whereas, this activity is practically the only work of Centennial nature being done on the campus and by the school;

"Therefore, be it resolved that the Student Council representing the entire student body, go on record as endorsing this piece of literary endeavor and recommending it publicly to the attention of all students and friends of T. C. U."

Staff Will Attend State English Meet

Dr. Smith and Dr. Clubb Are To Speak at Conference in Dallas.

Members of the English staff will attend the meeting of the Texas Conference of College Teachers of English tomorrow in Dallas. The conference will be held at the Baker Hotel and Southern Methodist University.

Dr. M. D. Clubb will discuss the history of the English language as a requirement for the B. A. in English at the morning session.

Dr. Rebecca Smith will preside at the afternoon session, which will be devoted to the reading of papers of a scholarly or research type by faculty members of the leading Texas Colleges and Universities. Dr. Smith is also a member of the council of the conference.

There will be a reception and dinner in the evening at S. M. U., which will also be attended by Dr. Clubb, Dr. Smith, Miss Mabel Major, Miss Lorraine Sherley, Miss Lide Spragins, and Mrs. Artemisia Bryson.

Frogs to Debate Girls

Miss Frances Embrey and Kathleen Foulger, College of Pacific debaters, who will meet the members of the T. C. U. Frog Forensic Fraternity in debate at 11 a. m. Thursday at the Woman's Club.

Inman to Speak At 8 P. M. Friday

To Compare North and South American Life for Students.

"Dr. Guy Inman has proved the nobility of his ideals which recognize explicitly the right of each people to work out its own destiny, to develop its own riches, and to put into action its latest forces without foreign intervention," says Dr. Edward Sanchez, former minister of foreign affairs for Colombia and representative in the League of Nations, of Dr. Samuel Guy Inman who has just returned from a tour of South and Central America.

Dr. Inman will speak on "Engineers Versus Poets—A Comparison of North American and Latin American Life," at 8 o'clock Friday evening, March 27, in the T. C. U. Auditorium.

He is the leading American authority in America today on Latin American life, and problems. He has been director of the high commission for refugees proceeding from Germany in South America, and has been extremely active in placing brilliant German intellectuals in educational centers of South and Central America.

"A man of idealism and vast culture," Dr. Inman is greatly beloved by the Latin American people and especially favored and respected because of his violent opposition to imperialism in the new world.

Dr. Inman reports that virtually all of the Hispanic-American countries are emerging from the financial slump and the revolutionary disturbances which have been prevalent since 1930, and that these countries are ideal havens for German refugees.

To Lead Orchestra 2 Weeks

Dog Gillis, assistant director, will direct the T. C. U. Orchestra for two weeks beginning Tuesday. Prof. Claude Sammis, director, will be in New York City.

Politicians' Campaigns Fail To Convince Writer of Merits

By An Anarchist. POLITICS ARE IN THE AIR! POLITICS ARE EVERYWHERE! And say, but we surely do have some smart politicians around this here campus. Take HARRY ROBERTS for example. Harry is so smart that he takes the Student Council for a treat at the drug store and walks out without paying the check. Do we want this kind of a guy for a student body president? No. Then there is the immobile BEN BUSSEY. Mr. Bussey is another smart candidate. He says he doesn't give a hoot who wins and he thinks he can beat Harry any day. Bussey is the kind of a guy what would rush back from Austin at 60 miles per hour to keep a date with Marguerite Rose, who had previously stood him up. Do we want him? No. Then there is the staunch figure of GEORGE CHERRYHOLMES in the race for the student body president. Mr. Cherryholmes has provided himself with two peti-

Miss Connor to Play Lead in "The Sponge"

Production to Be Entered in State Contest by Alpha Psi Omega.

Miss Ruth Conner will play the leading role in "The Sponge," one-act contest play which will be entered in the Intercollegiate Play Tournament in Houston the week of April 11 by the T. C. U. chapter of Alpha Psi Omega.

The role of Nina, which Miss Conner will play, is that of a temperamental opera singer who dominates the lives of those closely connected with her.

Bennett Rogers will play the part of Ralph, a young pianist who has devoted the last five years of his life to being Nina's companion and accompanist. He is desirous of marrying Katherine, Nina's daughter, played by Miss Idell Emerson.

Another pianist, who is taken into Nina's narrow life, is Alfredo. The part is being done by Elmer Seybold.

Miss Laura Kile has been selected to characterize Betinna, an old Italian servant. This play is being directed by Miss Katherine Moore and will be presented soon to the T. C. U. audience.

To Teach at Princeton

John McDiarmid to Be Instructor in Political Science.

John McDiarmid, A. B. '31, M. A. '32, has accepted a position on the faculty of Princeton University as instructor in the department of political science, his father, Prof. E. W. McDiarmid, learned this week.

McDiarmid will take his Ph. D. from the University of Chicago in June and take up his work at Princeton next fall.

This week he is in Hamilton, Bermuda, participating in the 17th annual tennis tournament there.

F. F. F. to Engage In Five Debates Here Next Week

Teams Are on Way to National Meet at Houston.

Girls' Club to Come

Contest With Florida University To Be Sunday At Meliorist Club.

T. C. U. debaters will engage five debate teams, coming from all parts of the country, in home contests this coming week, to climax the year's activities.

The teams are on their way to the 11th annual convention of Pi Kappa Delta, national debating society, which will open in Houston Sunday, March 29.

Truitt Kennedy, J. B. Trimble, Richard Poll, Meyer Jacobson and Harry Roberts will alternate as the speakers.

The Meliorist Club will be the scene Sunday night of a debate with delegates from the University of Florida. George Young and J. B. Patterson will represent Florida. The issue, which is the subject of all the debates, will be on the powers of the Supreme Court. The public is invited to attend.

Practice debates will be held in the Auditorium Monday afternoon.

The University of Redlands, Redlands, Calif., will be represented by E. R. Nichols, Jr., Fred Drexler and Weston McIntosh in a debate at the Young Business Men's Club at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Both teams and the International Relations Club of T. C. U. will be guests of the club at a banquet at 6:30 p. m. Nichols is a student member of the Pi Kappa Delta national council and the entire team has an exceptionally high record of victories.

Members of the Frog Forensic Fraternity will enter the annual Gough Oratorical Contest Wednesday. A girls' team will arrive in Fort Worth Thursday from the College of the Pacific, California, to meet T. C. U. at 11 a. m. at the Woman's Club. The girls, Misses Frances Embrey and Kathleen Foulger, have won four championships, one in a tournament involving 135 universities.

The T. C. U. group will debate delegates from St. Edwards College, Austin, at 8 p. m. Friday in the Auditorium.

A team from Hastings College, Hastings, Neb., will appear here Saturday to wind up the week's invasion. Hastings tied for first place in the national Pi Kappa Delta achievement ranking last year.

Dr. Allen True, coach of the T. C. U. debate team Sunday in Houston, will accompany the group to the national convention Sunday.

Eight Wogs Entered In Stock Show Meet

Frosh Expected to Make Good Showing at La Grave Field Tomorrow.

The Poliwoog track team will enter eight men in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show meet tomorrow to be held at La Grave Field.

The Wogs have several men who have turned in a good account of themselves in practice this week. John "Indian" Hall is almost a track team in himself. He runs the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, the 110 high hurdles and throws the discus.

Ward Wilkinson is entered in the 100-yard dash, the discus and the shot. Van Patrick is expected to show to advantage in the broad jump and high jump. He has been jumping close to 22 feet in practice and with competition should improve his mark.

Dunivant has been vaulting 12 feet, and this mark is expected to place in the meet. The list of entries in the meet and their events are: 100-yard dash, Hall and Wilkinson; 220-yard dash, Hall; 440-yard dash, Mosley; 880-yard dash, Guy Wilson; mile run, Jim Nicol; 110 high hurdles, Hall and Jackson; high jump, Jackson and Patrick; pole vault, Mosley and Dunivant; discus, Hall and Wilkinson; shot put, Wilkinson, and broad jump, Patrick.

Congratulations to The W. A. A.

The W. A. A. king and queen have been elected by the student body and their identity will be made known at the W. A. A. carnival tomorrow night. Through the efforts of Miss Willie C. Austin this carnival has been made possible and The Skiff thinks she is to be congratulated upon her success. Miss Austin has been president of the W. A. A. for two years, and the organization has progressed in many ways since she was put in charge.

The W. A. A. is one of the most active and important organizations on the campus. It has a larger membership than any other single organization. One hundred and eight girls belong to the W. A. A.

Let's go to the carnival tomorrow night and help make it a success.

Select Officers With Care

Student politicians set the political pot boiling on the campus this week through the circulation of petitions for the nomination of candidates for next year's student body offices.

With a number of persons definitely announcing that their hats are in the political ring, prospects for a "hot" and interesting campaign are favorable.

With much enthusiasm being shown by the candidates themselves, it is hoped that the student body as a whole will take an interest in the election and endeavor to fill the student body offices for next year with persons who are qualified and capable of filling these positions.

There will be much high pressuring on the part of the candidates and their supporters during the ensuing campaign. Student voters should not place too much confidence in the opinions of others, but they should do some investigating on their own initiative in order to determine for themselves who they think are the best qualified persons to represent them.

Every student in the University owes it to himself and to the student body at large to take part in the elections and to do his part in the choosing of the student leaders.

Don't Use Sidewalks As Billboards

"Don't paint signs on our sidewalks!" This was the Student Council's admonition to members of the student body and to outside organizations this week, following the appearance of signs on the sidewalks of the campus advertising a motion picture appearing at a local theater.

With the coming of the annual student body elections, the Council anticipated that some industrious supporters of student office nominees might feel the urge to use the sidewalks as billboards to publicize the qualifications of their candidates.

As a preventative for this, the Council has urged all nominees for student offices to ask their supporters to refrain from this practice. Any violation of this request will be looked upon as an unethical move on the part of the candidate for office.

I Come First

There are class organizations on the T. C. U. campus. If this fact is already known, it is certain that the reader didn't find it out from the activity of the various classes.

If there has ever been more dead class organizations on the campus, no one can remember when. Whether this is the fault of the presidents or the students themselves, no one seems to know, but it is a known fact that there simply is no class cooperation.

Time and time again affairs have been planned by the various classes. Stories appear in The Skiff that a certain class is going to have a picnic. How often is this picnic really held? Not once in 20 times.

The affairs are invariably postponed. The postponement becomes a definite one. The students in a class just can't seem to get together.

Naturally, any date that would be set would not be to everyone's liking. That would be impossible. Yet that seems to be what the students expect.

Why not put groups before self once in awhile?

Just a Matter Of Courtesy

It is just a matter of courtesy. When you take a date to the dance it is up to you to see that she has a good time. Find out if she is getting a rush. Don't let her get stuck with one of your friends, because if you do he won't tag again. Although this isn't nice to think about, it is the truth.

Find her for intermission. If the fellow who is dancing with her is half a gentleman he will bring your date to you, and she won't have to ask him. Stags are necessary at any dance in order that everyone have a good time, but they should realize their position as well as that of the man who brings a date.

Then there is the last dance. If you are dancing with someone's date on the last dance and that someone tags in don't run for another fellow's date, but get yours. If you don't have a date, check out for home.

This is not advice but mere suggestion. The girls won't say anything to you, but they surely can think a lot and they do think about things like these.

OPEN FORUM

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The opinions expressed in this column are the personal views of the writers and are not necessarily the policy of The Skiff. Students are invited to write to the Open Forum. Letters of more than 250 words are not accepted. Anonymous letters will not be published, but a writer's name will be withheld from publication if so desired.)

Fellow Students:

One of the column writers in last week's Skiff made the following statement: "So far as this writer knows, nothing has been done on a T. C. U. project for the Centennial." We wonder how many others on the campus have not heard about our Centennial anthology of T. C. U. verse?

Members of the Poetry Club have been working since last September gathering poems from the files of The Skiff and The Horned Frog to be used as material for this book. We have sent letters requesting poems from exes-known to have written. We have asked every student of T. C. U. past and present, to submit verse for consideration. We are now selecting the most representative poems from the tremendous mass of material on hand. The complete volume will appear May 1.

The English department is back of the club, lock, stock and barrel, and the Student Council has voted a resolution endorsing the book. So you see, we have plenty of support, and the volume will come out on time.

We are sure everybody who has heard of the anthology will want one. Of course, among friends, there is a dollar standing between you and the book. But don't let that worry you. We have worked out a plan whereby a copy will be reserved for you if you sign up now. Then, when the book is delivered, you pay. Of you can pay us installments. We will be most accommodating, so long as we get your dollar before you get our book.

Here is T. C. U.'s Centennial project, students. Help us make it a success.—The Poetry Club.

To the Student Body:

There will be no dance this Saturday, March 21, because the students do not desire it. The Student Council realizes that there have been, and still are, many attractions off of the campus that interest many of the students, so that our dances have become in the nature of a private party with the usual crowd.

To the freshmen the dances may not seem so important because they were not here when there were no student dances. But surely the upperclassmen remember the time when dances were forbidden.

In the spring of 1934 the school was amazed because the senior class was allowed to give a dance. Last spring and fall the dances were successful, and, while they did not make money, at least they did not lose money for the Student Council.

If the present state continues, dances may become a thing of the past. So it is to the interest of the student body to support these dances in such a way that they will pay the Student Council to continue them.

A Student.

Dear Editor: There are a few students in the University who make a practice of gunning along the narrow street back of the Administration Building at the speed of 30 to 60 miles per hour.

If it were not so vital, the safety of the other motorists and pedestrians need not be mentioned. But it is obvious that these "fast" guys may bring sudden death to some trusting individual who is unaware that we have a race park on the campus.

Another thing—and this is catty but true as a Sam Baugh pass—the boys, and girls, who burn up our campus road have only one apparent reason doing so—they want to be noticed.

But, say, if you did not "get noticed" by receiving an office in the Student-Body Association, or by rating honors in the popularity vote, do no take vengeance on some innocent person, PLEASE! G. T. C.

Mud Is Due to Start Flying Soon In Annual Student Body Election

Well it is about time for another election and the mud is due to start flying about Monday morning. I guess that will be a swell place to get material for this column, so maybe I'll be seeing some of you office-seekers get the third degree at the slinging of slime.

I'd kinda like to run for dog catcher myself since the canine population of the campus seems to be increasing. Of course, you understand what I mean by "dorg." The only thing about the election I don't like is the fact that Dictator Diggs is not running for an office. You see Diggs kinda let me have the works in a letter to the Open Forum last week, and I would like to expose him. Don't think I couldn't either.—Mr. Diggs. Thanks for signing your name to the letter palswaislie. By the way, someone condensed your letter for me, and this is what they said: "The dirt in the dirt column isn't dirty enough and the clean exposition isn't clean enough." How's that?

AND NOW FOR THE LATEST... This columnist has been told that SOLON HOLT and BETTY BRIM are now NIGHT WATCHING at FOREST PARK... that RUTH CAMPBELL is RUNNING AFTER BEN BUSSEY since she expects him to win in the 1936 presidential campaign... that HAROLD FULL-ENWIDER thinks LUCY BESS WESTER and CHARLES MOSSHART are brother and sister instead of man and... that the "Y's" have been having joint meetings instead of single because LORAIN O'GORMAN is looking for A MAN... maybe someone could tell us just what they mean by "JOINT" MEETINGS... BILL SCOTT was seen carrying some girl in the women's side of the Gymnasium the "other day"... FIELD BAUGHMAN gave some BLONDE a dime to ride the bus last week... Why didn't you put the ten-cent piece in the bus nickel-grabber BAH?... TINY GODWIN and MISS CLINGER seem to be turning lightly to THOUGHTS OF LOVE...

Political Campaigns

circulating a petition to make Hays Bacus, vice-president of the student body. Bacus is the type of fellow who knows how to blow a bass horn. For the intellectual body of citizens within the scope of our great University we need a man who does not only know how to blow a bass horn but how to handle the female sex. Bacus knows not the art of making love. No man would make a good vice-prexy who does not know how to soft soap the fair sex included on our faculty list. Maybe this doesn't include faculty alone. You know we gotta have a man in there that can help the prexy get more socials for the common body politic.

Third and last comes the most important office, of secretary and money holder. The most loyal servant of the student body, Miss Ruth Campbell, at present holds this worthy position. It is rumored that NANCY LEE McCONNELL is entering the race for this office. A brunette? Yes, and a lovely one... But will she make a good student body officer. Our answer is NO. Miss McConnell is entirely too fair a figure to sit at the table of the Student Council. Why, you wouldn't get the ornery council members to consider business as long as they had a lovely lady like Miss McConnell to gaze upon and talk to.

Oh Yes! There is another candidate in this race. She goes by the title of Miss RUTH CONNOR and boy is she a wow? Yeah, by all means. Miss Connor is the kind of lady who thinks competition is the spice of life and proves it by taking Paul Snow outta the hands of a Jarvis Hall co-ed. We won't mention names because the other co-ed isn't in any political race, and we think she is a sweetheart.

It has been rumored also that a certain Miss Anne Cauker may run. May the will of the Gods change her mind. Miss Cauker would make an excellent secretary for the president of the States, but for the great student body of T. C. U., our answer is NO.

As for Mr. JOSEPH REEDER, Mr. Reeder, a politician from the bottom of his feet to the tip of his cranium, has a petition out for a DARK HORSE. We don't know what race he is planning to enter his candidate in, who the candidate is or what Reeder's motive is, but we are against anything Mr. Reeder has anything to do

Senior Day, Date For Horned Frog Final Copy for Annual Turned Over to Engraver.

The Greater 1936 Horned Frog will be issued to the student body on Senior Day, reports Jones Bacus, editor. The final date for Senior Day has not been set but will probably be during the last week of school in May.

"The final copy has been turned over to the engraver and the book should be ready for the printer by April 15," Bacus said.

All club secretaries are urged to pay the final installment on their club page in order to be included in the book.

Philosophy Majors Guests at Dinner.

Prof. and Mrs. E. W. McDiarmid entertained the Philosophical Union with a dinner Tuesday night at their home.

The Rev. Perry Gresham was guest of honor. Joe Findley read a paper on "Wieman's Psychology of Religion."

The Philosophical Union is an organization for those majoring in philosophy. The following attended the dinner: G. L. Messenger, Will Wetzler, Findley, Harrell Rhea, Jimmie Duvall, Charles Wilson and Johnny Knowles.

Miss Jimmie Miller visited her home in Mineral Wells last week-end. Miss Clemence Clark's parents and sister were her guests last week-end.

Mr. T. L. Head and daughters, Misses Murrie, Tommie and Thelma, of Seymour, were the guests of Miss Shella Head this week.

ALONG SHOW ROW

By RAYMOND MICHERO

Headed by the stage attraction, "The Old Maid," which will appear at the Majestic for one performance Thursday, this week's movie menu is replete with big names. Judith Anderson and Helen Mencken have the leads in the Pulitzer Prize play of 1935. Advance ticket sales indicate that the play will draw a full house. "Magnificent Obsession," one of the current movie season's best offerings, with Irene Dunne and Robert Taylor, will start a four-day run at the Majestic tomorrow. Tuesday's attraction will be "I Dream Too Much," starring Lili Pons.

Mae West comes to town tomorrow as "Klondike Annie." She will keep things going on the Worth screen through Tuesday. "Give Us This Night," with Gladys Swarthout and Jan Kiepura, will take over the Worth screen Wednesday. "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," an all-technicolor outdoor picture, with Sylvia Sydney, Fred MacMurray and Henry Fonda, will be the midnight attraction tomorrow night.

Gene Stratton Porter's famous novel, "Ezekias," starring Tom Brown, will be the Parkway's attraction tomorrow. It will be followed Sunday by "The Bride Comes Home," with Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray and Robert Young. "Dangerous," the picture which formed the basis for Bette Davis's being awarded the Motion Picture Academy award for 1935, will be Tuesday's feature attraction. "Captain Blood," with Errol Flynn and Olivia De Havilland, will start Wednesday.

"Yellow Dust," a story of the early days of Nevada, with Richard Dix and Leila Hyams, will be the Palace's feature starting tomorrow, "Shadow Box," a story written by a Fort Worth boy, David Carb, will be Tuesday's attraction. Anne Shirley has the leading role. Jane Withers in "Patty O'Day," with Pinky Tomlin and Jane Darwell, are to be Thursday's attraction.

Stage Star to Propose To Lucky A. & M. Aggie.

Helen Mencken, famed Broadway star now appearing in "The Old Maid," will propose to an A. & M. Aggie when she arrives to present the Pulitzer Prize winning play on March 23 to the corps.

The "most typical bachelor" among the Texas Aggies will be elected by the student body and will meet Miss Mencken at her train to receive her marriage proposal and give his answer.

PRIDE'S PRATTLE

By WALTER PRIDEMORE

It's a little early to do much predicting in baseball, but judging from the few practice sessions, it seems that Bear Wolf may yet get together a pretty fair ball club, although he has scarcely enough men out to fill the nine positions.

Lack of pitchers is Bear's main worry. At present Bill Hudson is the only veteran hurler available. However, Lester hasn't given up hope, and his injured shoulder may allow him to strengthen the pitching staff before the season is over.

Sam Baugh's conversion from third-base to pitcher is turning out well, even though he played the hot corner last year well enough to catch the eye of several big-league scouts. Bear is especially pleased with Sam's control, which is proving to be as accurate with the horse-hide as it was with the hog-hide. It looks now as if Baugh will be the number one hurler.

Red King, rookie pitcher, has been doing a lot of work in batting practice. He may conquer his wildness and inexperience and prove to be the answer to the coach's prayer.

Then, too, Willie Walls, who has done a little twirling, may be called to the mound from his first-base position.

If one or two of these men can come through, T. C. U. should be fairly well up in the running.

The infield promises to take care of itself. Walls, who has been switched from right field, is looking great on first. Roach, who will divide time with Baugh on third, while inexperienced, is developing rapidly.

L. D. Meyer, back at practice this week after being out on account of an infected foot, looks as if he will uphold Jinx Tucker's statement about him as a second baseman. The Waco sports writer hailed him as a "super-sensation."

Manton established himself as one of the best shortstops in the conference last year and is looking every bit as good so far this year. Capt. Jimmy Lawrence, with the aid of Grandpa Seybold, should be able to hold down the backstop berth with no trouble.

Prospects for the outfield are not so bright. Vic Montgomery, center fielder last year, is the only lefthander back. Harold Fullenwider and Aubrey Linne, squadsman of last season, and James Nelson are working out for the other positions. Lester may play some in the orchard if it develops that he will not be able to pitch. Roach, too, will probably play in the outfield when Baugh isn't pitching.

It looks as if Bear will have to be a juggler as well as a coach. Because of the shortage of material, there will be a different lineup with almost every change of pitchers.

Wolf has been working on hitting a good deal this week. He is attempting to teach the players the correct form in batting. There ought to be plenty of power in that department if the boys can learn to connect. Except for two pitchers, Hudson and King, the players are all gridsters as well as baseballers.

Fred Nemitz, Roy Loveless and Bruce Scraftford were among those who passed the life-saving examinations held in the T. C. U. pool last week under the sponsorship of the downtown Y. M. C. A. The three boys are now accredited Red Cross examiners. Roland Balch, ex-student, also passed the test.

Pat Clifford or Rex Clark, which is the faster? That long-standing campus debate should be settled tomorrow at the Stock Show Track Meet. Both are entered in the 100-yard dash event.

Mary Anna Millican To Be Married.

Miss Mary Anna Millican, graduate of T. C. U., will marry Henry Lee Stout March 28, it was announced Sunday.

Music will be played by W. J. Marsh, who played bridal music 24 years ago at the marriage of the bride-elect's parents.

Gresham to Speak

The Rev. Perry E. Gresham will speak at a joint meeting of the "Ys" Monday night in the "Y" room.

Clifford to Bear Most of Burden In Track Meet

8 Men Listed in 11 Contests at Fat Stock Show Event.

Rex Clark in Dashes

Erwin Only Man in Weight Division—Sure to Score in Discus Event.

Pat Clifford, star up from the freshman ranks, will bear most of the burden at the Stock Show Track Meet to be held at Wortham Field today and tomorrow. He is entered in four events 100 yard-dash, relays, broad jump and high jump.

Coach Poss-Clark has entered 8 men in the 11 events of the Stock Show meet.

Rex Clark is also being depended upon to bring in some points for the Frogs in the dashes. Puss Erwin is the only man entered in the weight division. He is sure to add some points to the Purple score in the discus and shot events.

The complete entrance list is as follows. Mile run, Olin Jones and Tom Pickett; 120 high hurdles, Buck Roberson; 100-yard dash, Clark and Clifford; 880-yard run Donkey Roberts; 220-yard dash, Clark; 440-yard run, Bob Harrell; relay, Clifford, Harrell, Jones and Roberts; shot put, Erwin; discus, Erwin; broad jump, Clifford; high jump, Clifford and Roberson.

Coach Clark has announced that he will take several men to the Texas Relays in Austin next Saturday.

Varsity Tennis Meet March 27

Commerce Teachers to Be Opponents in Opening Tilt.

The T. C. U. tennis team will engage the East Texas State Teachers College in Commerce next Friday, in the opening meets for the Purple.

The squad of 12, one of the largest in many years, has only two lettermen back, Capt. Ronald Wheeler and Don McLeland. Although Coach E. W. McDiarmid has assigned no places as yet, the two veterans will probably play the number one and two positions.

The other positions will be made up of sophomores selected from the squad of Gene House, Billy Whitehouse, Charles Mosshart, Elliott Phares, Paul Snow, Bobby Bass, Jim Young, Bennett Rogers, Waller Moody and Bill Farley.

McDiarmid has announced that the conference meet will be held at S. M. U. May 8 and 9.

Other meets have been arranged with North Texas State Teachers' College, Trinity, Oklahoma, Baylor, S. M. U. and Texas. The dates have not been settled.

Meliorists to Hear Debate

A debate between the University of Florida and T. C. U. teams will be the feature of the Meliorist Club at the meeting at 8 o'clock Sunday night at University Christian Church. A social will follow the debate.

Investigation Of "Cram House" Reveals Interesting Treasures

Everything from first editions to colorful Indian baskets is to be found in the dusty realms of the library. A thorough investigation of all the treasures of the "cram house" yields unknown articles of interest.

Probably the most interesting thing is the first T. C. U. thesis. It is the only thesis that the library has from Add-Ran College at Thorpe Spring.

The Rev. R. H. Bonham delivered his thesis in Greek before the commencement audience in May, 1884. This is the only thesis that was ever read by its author to a commencement group. It was written and read in Greek and translated into English.

The oldest book in the library is a Latin Bible printed by Nicholas Kessler at Basel in 1491. The collection of Bibles includes pages from many old Bibles, first editions, the King James version of the Bible and the modern Bible.

First editions are plentiful in the T. C. U. library. "Death Comes for the Archbishop," by Willa Cather,

Frosh, Juniors Win Opening Ball Games

Mosley, Oliver - Are Outstanding for Frosh - Saam Is Junior Hurler.

The Freshmen defeated the Sophomores 11 to 6, and the Juniors took the Seniors by a 7 to 4 count Wednesday afternoon in the opening games of the intramural baseball race.

The Frosh led all the way, the second-year men threatening their lead only in the fifth inning when they made five runs. Bill Mosley, third baseman and Dick Oliver, short stop, were outstanding for the Frosh. Adrian Reed, outfielder, played a nice game for the Sophs. The batteries were: Freshmen, E. C. Caryer, pitcher, and Jack Murphy, catcher; Sophs, Don McLeland, pitcher and Vincent Ziegler, catcher.

Errors defeated the Seniors. Their pitcher, Choc Sanders, allowed only a few scattered hits, but errors in the third inning let the Juniors take the lead when four runs were put across. Byrum Saam, Junior pitcher, bore down and allowed the Seniors only two more runs, while more errors allowed the Juniors to run their total up to seven.

Fred Smith, Senior center fielder, hit a home run in the sixth inning. The batteries were: Juniors, Saam, pitcher, and Bill DeVlaming, catcher; Seniors, Sanders, pitcher, and Tom Pickett, catcher.

Wolf Will Use 4 Frog Pitchers

Baugh, Lester, King, Hudson to Hurl in Tilt With Oklahoma.

Coach Bear Wolf has announced that he will use all four of his pitchers in the first game of the Oklahoma University series, which is to be played here Monday and Tuesday.

Sam Baugh will probably start the game, with Red King, Bill Hudson and Darrell Lester following. Lester's shoulder is still giving him trouble and he may not be able to stick it out.

The rest of the line-up will probably find Capt. Jimmy Lawrence catching, Willie Walls at first, L. D. Meyer at second, Taldon Manton at shortstop, Walter Roach at third, Aubrey Linne in left field, Harold Fullenwider in right field and Vic Montgomery in center.

Practice games have also been arranged tentatively with Wesley Junior College. They will come here for a game April 9, and the Frogs will journey to Greenville April 20.

Endowments to Be Rare

Alleghany College Head Thinks High Taxes to Lessen Gifts.

Harrisburg, Pa., (ACP) — Gather ye rosebuds while ye may, sums up the advice to the private colleges of America just offered by William Pearson Tolley, president of Alleghany College here. Endowments are due to become a rarity on the American scene, he warns.

"Regardless of the party in power," President Tolley said, "taxes will grow steadily higher, the number of great estates steadily smaller and the surplus out of which come the gifts to colleges, schools, churches and other institutions will gradually disappear."

"The change will not assume alarming proportions for about a decade," he said.

Students Agree Judges' Power Should Be Curbed

Majority in Favor of Checking Supreme Court Decisions.

Quick Action Urged

56 Per Cent of Duquesne University Advocates Revision of Constitution.

Washington, D. C. (ACP) — The power of the United States Supreme Court to invigilate legislation has reached socially damaging proportions, in the opinion of American college students, and should be curbed without delay.

Revision of the constitution so as to check the power of the high court is favored by a majority of students, according to an Associated Collegiate Press survey just completed.

Remedies ranging from increasing the number of Supreme Court justices by naming liberal appointees known to have kept pace with the times to giving Congress the power to reinstate legislation thrown out by the court are suggested by college leaders.

Strongly urging revision, The Ohio State Lantern commends a state law-maker:

"Usually conservative, 'safe and sane' Senator Vic Donahey announced in Washington that he favors a revision of the Constitution because he believes it has not kept pace with the times. A revision is necessary, he pointed out, 'to provide additional guarantees of health, safety and security for the people.'"

"We believe that is a significant statement and probably holds significant results. It is indeed heartening to note that Senator Donahey, who is usually classed in the conservative bloc in Congress, has finally recognized need for change. His statement indicates quite clearly a trend away from the traditionally-held belief that the Constitution is a sacred document, one which must not be changed lest we gain the wrath of the gods."

"There is even a new and more liberal attitude growing among the general public toward constitutional change. This is as it should be. The ironical fact is that for too long most of us have clung to the time-worn theory that to change the Constitution is plain heresy."

"It is just as ridiculous for us to believe that we could write a Constitution in 1789 to govern the political, social and economic attitudes of Americans in 2083 as it is to believe that a group of individuals could be expected to draft a document in 1789 to fit the needs of Americans in 1936. Yet a cry for constitutional change has always been met with charges of 'communism' and 'un-Americanism'. So we see an attempt to abolish child labor by constitutional change failing not because Americans feel child labor should be allowed to remain in our economic system, but principally because it suggests constitutional change."

Meanwhile, Duquesne University students, in response to a questionnaire, voted 56 per cent in favor of curbing the power of the Supreme Court. It is increasingly evident, said The Duquesne Duke in commenting editorially on this vote, that the interest of college students is steadily swinging from the frivolous to matters of national concern.

"In Justice Roberts' opinion, in which five other justices concurred," says the Union College Concordeionis "the Supreme Court has one duty when the constitutionality of a law is questioned: to lay the article of the Constitution which is invoked beside the statute which challenged and to decide whether the latter squares with the former. Yet this very duty is not granted to the court by the Constitution. It is a precedent, and 'unwritten law', begun by one man and continued with the help of luck and circumstance until it has acquired an axiomatic prestige."

"We have the logically strange picture of an austere, impartial court, examining laws in the light of an abstract justice, which does not authorize such examination. The obvious question is: where does the power lie? In the Constitution, as the court proclaims; or in the persons of the court who define the Constitution in practice? . . . The fundamental concepts of democracy . . . are really only petrified prejudices, opinions of men as fallible as ourselves."

A LIGHT SMOKE

OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO

Luckies are less acid. For hundreds of years, tobaccos were selected—and gradations in flavor secured—by the roughest sort of rule of thumb methods. Hence, one of the most important innovations made by the Research Department was provision for chemical analysis of selected tobacco samples before purchase; the resulting reports offer the professional buyer an accurate guide and reinforce his expert judgment based on the senses of sight, smell, and touch. Thus extreme variations toward acidity or alkalinity are precluded by such selection and subsequent blending. Luckies—A LIGHT SMOKE—of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco!

W. A. A. Carnival to Feature Coronation of King, Queen

By Rosemary Collyer

Well, the big day is almost here. Tomorrow night the Basketball Gymnasium will be the scene of one of the biggest affairs of its kind ever to be held at T. C. U. This is not surprising since the W. A. A. is the largest organization on the campus and can be relied upon to entertain in an unusual manner.

The atmosphere of a carnival is so entirely different that probably for the first time the entire student body will come to an affair in a body. At the customary dances there is always just a handful of faithful attendants and a new face is seldom seen. Let's all come to the carnival and bring our friends. That is the only way to justify all of the elaborate preparations which have been made by the various clubs on the campus to make the gym attractive with colorful booths.

Speaking of those booths, everything from all-day suckers to pink lemonade is going to be for sale. The main feature of the entire affair will be, of course, the crowning of the W. A. A. "Carnival Queen." To make this more intriguing, her identity, as well as that of her escort, will not be revealed until the ceremony takes place. The four girls and four boys who were not chosen will constitute the loyal attendants.

Back to the booths. There is really a lot of decorating going on over in the Gym because a prize is going to be given for the best one. Clubs are trying in vain to keep the high points of their booth a secret until the last minute, for fear of some one else copying.

Strange as it may seem, admission for the affair is free, but you are not going to get off so easy, because the whole purpose is to spend. Those pretty booths cost money, and the pleasing things that will be displayed in them will also cost you.

The dances are going to be 5-cents each, with two tunes to each dance. There will be a "Lucky Number" dance and another dance where the best couple will receive a prize.

Confetti and balloons will be sold in the Dramatic Club booth; the glee club booth will have a side show; the Home Economics booth will sell sandwiches; Los Hidaigos will have a fish pond; Parabola is going to sell ice cream and candy; Alpha Chi will have a Cinderella booth; Brushes will sell hot tamales and soda pop; the Frogettes will have a booth where one may demonstrate skill by throwing balls at silk bottles.

These and many more are having booths at the Carnival. Just come and the fun and entertainment will take care of itself.

Ampersand Initiates 2 Pledges Today

Two pledges will be initiated into Ampersand at 3 o'clock this afternoon at a meeting to be held in the Girls' Lounge. Miss Mary Elizabeth Hardy and Miss Doris Perry will be the new members.

Mrs. Erline Walker, an alumna, and Miss Lide Spragins, sponsor, will assist in the ceremony.

Immediately following the initiation the group will entertain Mrs. Tom E. Smith, and Miss Dorothy Amann, Mortar Board members, both of Dallas, with an informal tea in Jarvis Hall.

The Ampersand application to Mortar Board National Honorary Society for Women will be discussed.

Science Club Banquet To Be April 25

The Natural Science Society will have its annual banquet April 25 at Steve's. All members who are planning to attend are requested by John Jones, president, to see Miss Spinks in the biology office.

Gresham Gives Book Review.

2. "A good fine-cent piece to get beer with."
3. "Kill Bruno Richard Hauptmann."
4. "Get rid of the damn Reds."

Earl Nichols Directs Parabola Programs.

Earl Nichols had a busy week directing programs for the Parabola Club. He directed program for the Penta Club Paschal High Wednesday afternoon and directed the program for the regular Parabola meeting last night.

At Paschal Wednesday afternoon the Parabola Club presented the following program: Miss Josephine Browder spoke on "Mathematical Prodigies," Sears Roach spoke on the "Slide Rule," and Nichols worked a trick problem.

Last night the program consisted of talks by Miss Evelyn Reese, "Magic Squares;" June Brandt, "Lives of Famous Mathematicians," and Engle Ellis, a mathematical problem.

Plans for the next social were also made last night. Miss Helen Stubbs, president, presided.

Miss Armstrong Reads To Dramatic Club.

Miss Bernice Armstrong, '35, read a paper, "The Life and Works of Maxwell Anderson," to the Dramatic Club Tuesday evening.

Plans were discussed for a booth at the W. A. A. Carnival, and the club colors were announced as black and white.

Elmer Seybold will entertain the organization with a steak fry in the near future.

The club will meet one week from Tuesday in the Auditorium, according to Miss Ruth Conner, president.

Miss Vanabel Clark spent the week-end in Dallas.

Comic Magazine Out Wednesday

New Feature to Appear Each Month Free to Students.

The Skiff Comic Magazine, a monthly humor publication, will make its initial appearance after chapel next Wednesday. This magazine will be a regular feature and will be similar to the Texas A. & M. Battalion and the Texas Ranger.

The magazine will be published under the auspices of the department of journalism and will be edited by students in that department. Every T. C. U. student will receive a copy without cost. The payment of the publication fee which heretofore entitled students to The Skiff and the Horned Frog will now also entitle the student to The Skiff Comic Magazine.

Baseballers Use Horse Linament For Sore Arms

"Room mate, howsa about rubbin' my arm with some of this horse liniment Smitty gave me?"

This is a familiar question among the 16 players who answered Coach Howard Grubbs' call for baseball men Monday.

There are several high school stars and quite a few who would have been stars, but the opposing pitchers cheated them and the umpire was blind.

Those reporting are Gerald Griffith, George Cassidy, Edward Phillips, E. C. Carver, Jr., Edward Cobb, Bill Hymer, Jack Murphy, Ki Aldrich, Paul Tankersley, David O'Brien, Charles "Slim" Mabry, Leroy Gideon, Parris Wheatley, Carroll Adair, Walter Becker and Mann Stratton.
