Views 'n Viewpoints

T. C. U. as Host. Insufficient Funds. Dance Situation. The New Council.

By Harry Roberts
Student, President-Elect

(Editor's Note: This column is written each week by different students or faculty members who are asked to present their viewpoints on any subjects which they see fit.)

In connection with the activities of the Student body, I have several views which I would like to express. Last December T. C. U. and S. M. U. jointly invited the National Student Federation of America to hold its 1936 conference in Dallas. At the last convention there were about 300 delegates, representing approximately 200 colleges and universities from all parts of the country.

Acting as co-host to that group in 1936 would have meant a great deal to the future of T. C. U. But our Council did not have the funds with which to proceed with the necessary arrangements, and, therefore, we were forced virtually to give up that honor and our rightful share of that privilege.

In October the Texas Student Government Congress will hold its conference in some Texas city, sponsored by some Texas College. That school could very easily be T. C. U. But here again our Council will have to forego the honor, because of lack of funds.

Students representing our school in intellectual affairs in all parts of the country are forced to bear the greater proportion of their expenses. Now this is due to many and varied reasons, but the fact remains that the activities of the student body have been sorely limited, and in many cases absolutely prohibited, because of the lack of funds available to the Student Council.

Our Council operated the entire year and entered into many fields of endeavor on a budget of about $170, which was raised by the collection of 25 cents from each activity fee paid. Such an insufficient sum has prohibited our Council from entering into the many fields that would serve the welfare of the individual student. If we could raise that fee to, say, $1.00 per student, that would yield a fund of about $750.00, which would more nearly approach the $1500 fund which S. M. U. has. I sincerely believe that it would be well worth that amount to the students.

Now in regard to the dance program here at school, something simply has to be done. Our Council cannot go on giving unattended dances which do not pay for themselves. The admittance price is set so low that it is negligible; the music is excellent, being furnished by one of the best college orchestras in the country; the hours are in accord with the ideas of most students; dances are given on appropriate occasions.

And yet, it is an outstanding fact that they are unattended and, therefore, must be discontinued if something is not done to remedy the situation. The Council will welcome any and all suggestions in this connection. It is our problem. Won't you come to the Council with your ideas and suggestions and help us make this correction before it is too late?

From the plans that are being made, it is evident that the Student Council to be elected in the next several weeks will be one of the busiest bodies on this campus during its entire term of office. Many and varied projects are being introduced and it will remain the task of the next Council to see them to their conclusion. Therefore, in choosing members, the voters should give a great deal of attention to the qualities and the merits of the persons seeking the offices.

Above all else, choose students who are sincere in their work. And those who have the time and will devote that time to the activities and projects of the Student Council.

Debaters Travel 3000 Miles In Fullest Season in Years

Having traveled 3000 miles and engaged in 54 debates, of which they won 62 per cent, the T. C. U. debate squad concluded its fullest season in several years Tuesday night, when they met a Negro team from Wiley College, Marshall.

Trips to Arkadelphia, Ark., Houston, Waco, Waxahachie, Dallas and Commerce made up the approximately 3000 miles which the group covered to speak on the question, "Resolved: That Congress, by a two-thirds majority vote, should have the power to over-ride decisions of the Supreme Court, declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional."

Seven members, Richard Poll, Truitt Kennedy, J. B. Trimble, Harry Roberts, Meyer Jacobson, C. H. Richards, and Charles Weaver, and Dr. Allen True, coach, made the trips by automobile.

The team met speakers from colleges and universities in all parts of the United States, Puerto Rico and Hawaii. They included representa-

Who broke the lock on the henhouse door? What's the purpose of the bandstand? and a thousand more choice bits of scandal.

'Crowning Event' Says Damrosch Over Cowboy Hat

This hat is the crowning event of the season.

This was the reaction of Walter Damrosch, famed conductor, after being presented with a 10-gallon hat and a Texas Centennial Ranger commission by Prof. Claude Sammis recently, Prof. Sammis said on his return to T. C. U.

The hat and commission were presented to Damrosch on the final program of his series of "Music Appreciation Hours" April 4 over a nationwide "National Broadcasting Company hook-up." The presentation was made from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City as a climax to the celebration of National Music Appreciation Week.

The commission was signed by Gov. James V. Allred and presented to Damrosch "in recognition of the director's eminence in the music field." With the presentation went an invitation for the noted conductor to visit Texas during the Centennial celebrations.

"Mr. Damrosch was highly elated over receiving the hat and held it in preference to a number of other gifts which were presented to him," Prof. Sammis said.

Prof. Sammis was attending the Music Educators' National Conference in New York at the time of the presentation.

Blanket Tax Is A Necessity

Students in the University will be approached during the next few days with a petition asking them to support a movement for the raising of funds to carry on the business of the student body.

The Student Council, during past years, has been severely handicapped by a lack of funds on which to operate. The 25 cents which it receives each year from the student publication fee is wholly inadequate to carry on a successful, worth-while program. The Council has been pressed by the situation for some time, but the necessity for a change has not been presented in such a vivid manner in past years as it is at present, when T. C. U. stands on the threshold of elevating her place in the sun.

T. C. U. and S. M. U. have been selected to serve as co-hosts to the annual convention of the National Student Federation of America next winter. The Texas Student Government Congress, a newly-organized, state-wide organization, could be brought to T. C. U. for its convention next fall.

Oftentimes we have an opportunity to send delegates to student meetings of great importance, but we cannot send them because of a lack of funds.

The Student Council, in order to cope with the situation, is asking the students to join with it in an effort to remedy the situation which now exists. Students can do this by signing the petition, which will provide for the assessing of a blanket tax of one dollar to cover such expenses.

Nearly all student bodies operate under a blanket tax, ranging from five to twenty-five dollars per student. T. C. U. has not had a blanket tax, but all student activities have been carried on under the student publication fee of $6.00.

Students should be willing to co-operate with this movement to the fullest extent, because the amount asked is a small one and will result in a great return to the student body and the status of the University as a whole. Please sign the petition.

Paschal High Hears Frog Band "Swing"

Swing is king! At Paschal High April 8, in the last of the appearances before local high schools, the Horned Frog Band presented for the first time in its history a program featuring popular music.

The Frog musicians went modern even to the use of an amplification system to aid in presenting the vocal renditions of Wayne Dunlap, newly titled band soloist.

Among the numbers presented were "Cling to Me," "Alone," and "Trail of the Lonesome Pine." The principal number on the program was the first movement of Director Don Gillis' new swing symphony, "Woolly Worm Wiggle."

Dr. John Lord Attends Alpha Chi Convention

Dr. John Lord left Wednesday for San Antonio, where he is representing T. C. U. in the national Alpha Chi convention, which began yesterday and closes today. He is sponsor of the campus charter of the honorary scholastic society.

The first Alpha Chi Day, which the group plans to make an annual event, was held here Wednesday. Features of the day were a chapel address by R. L. Paschal, library supervisor of the Fort Worth public schools, and a luncheon for club members in the alcove of the Cafeteria. ### Bon Voyage to the Men's Glee Club

Tuesday afternoon the Men's Glee Club will launch forth on its sixth annual spring concert tour, which will take it into some of the outstanding musical centers of the state of Texas. With the club will go the best wishes of the student body and the University as a whole.

The Glee Club is one of the most colorful organizations on the campus and ranks as one of the outstanding publicity-gaining groups in the University. During the past five years the club, through its travels and its concerts, which have always been of the highest caliber, has gained much recognition for T. C. U. and the quality of work done here.

With W. J. Marsh, one of the outstanding choral directors in Texas as its director, the Glee Club possesses one of the most valuable assets that an organization of its nature could possibly obtain. Mr. Marsh, in addition to being a capable director, is recognized as one of the outstanding composers of this section of the country, having written the state song, "Texas, Our Texas," as well as a number of other selections.

The musical ability of the club and its personnel this year are on a par with those of previous years in which the club has done its best work. For this reason we know that this year's club will make as good a showing as it has in previous years, although it does have quite a precedent to live up to.

The University Experiments

The time has come when seniors are more seriously than ever thinking about what they will do when graduation is over. The seniors will be armed with college degrees which will give them a better chance of securing permanent employment than the person without a degree.

Even though conditions are uncertain, the graduates' four-year investment in education will be a good one.

Placement blanks that have been prepared by the National Youth Administration have been issued to the seniors. The blanks are for those who desire jobs other than teaching ones. The blanks are so prepared as to determine what a person is best fitted to do. The University is making a definite effort to place the students that graduate. What's more, it is trying to find students suitable jobs.

What the success will be no one knows, as this is an experiment, but it is certainly a worthy one.

Class Election Time Is Here

Class elections are due to be held in the near future. The students in the various classes will choose leaders for their class next year. There are several things students should take into consideration when voting for class officers. Does he, or she, have the interest of the class and want to make it outstanding? Is he capable? Does he have initiative? Will he work hard or merely hold the honor of the office? These things should be considered when you vote for your future class officers. They are the students who will run your student government next year.

Another thing is the election of Student Council members. Being on the Student Council is more than merely occupying a seat at council meetings. A student should know his fellow students and be acquainted with their desires as regards student government. Find who your candidates for office are and then find out if they have the required qualifications. Then vote for the man you think best qualified and not for the one you think will win.

It Is More Than That

"Spring is the season of the year when the plants begin to vegetate." This is the definition of spring as given by Webster. The plants have begun to vegetate on the campus. Red roses are blooming along the walk in front of Clark Hall.

But this isn't all. Two boys are mopping the library steps as if they enjoyed it. The pond in front of the library has had its spring cleaning.

Bright dresses and gay colored shoes are paraded on the campus. The Cafeteria has strawberries and cream for dessert. Students stroll around the campus and think that it is a shame to have to sit in a classroom on a day like this. Those in class sit half dreaming. Some make an effort to be interested and others make no effort to hide their listlessness.

The benches are occupied. Late in the evening the campus is dotted with couples sitting, talking or walking as couples are seen together for the first time.

Spring is more than the season of the year when plants begin to vegetate. Ah yes, 'tis the season of spring fever.

Is Conversation A Lost Art?

Is conversation a lost art? Judging by a college student's conversation, one would certainly be inclined to say yes.

Campus conversations are too often incredibly dull and commonplace. Too often a person speaks before he thinks. It would be well to follow the old saying to speak nothing unless you have something to say which is worth hearing.

Is dull conversation the result of a person's ignorance, or because a person is ashamed to speak intellectually, or because a person is careless and thoughtless? It is not because a person doesn't know better that he carries on the conversation of a 14-year old. He just doesn't talk better.

Words can be interesting or boring. They are what you make them. Movies, dances and people are the general topics of conversation. Very little interest is shown in important happenings of today that will vitally affect a person's future.

How well this applies to college conversation—no matter how many people are together, only one voice should be heard at a time.

ALONG SHOW ROW

By RAYMOND MICHERO

As the next contribution on a schedule of roadshows such as Fort Worth has never seen, the Majestic next Thursday will bring in "Personal Appearance," a play which has been enjoying a long run on Broadway during the past winter. The play, which has a sub-title of "How Far Is the Barn," is a take-off on a prominent movie star, portrayed by Gladys George, a favorite on Broadway. Eddie Cantor in "Strike Me Pink" will be the Majestic's movie offering for tomorrow. It will be followed Tuesday by "The Voice of Bugle Ann," with Lionel Barrymore, Maurine O'Sullivan and Eric Linden.

A favorite of days gone by will reappear on Show Row this week after an absence of oh so long a time. He is Charlie Chaplin, who comes to the Worth tomorrow night at the mid-night show in "Modern Times." The regular show starting at the Worth tomorrow will be "Small Town Girl," with Robert Taylor and Janet Gaynor. Joan Bennett and Cary Grant will appear Wednesday in "Big Brown Eyes."

The Palace tomorrow offers the latest of the Laurel and Hardy full-length features, "The Bohemian Girl." It will be followed Wednesday by "The Mother of Doctor Harrigan," with Ricardo Cortez, for one day only, Thursday's feature will be "Woman Trap," with Gertrude Michael and Roscoe Karns.

"Sylvia Scarlett," with Katherine Hepburn, Cary Grant and Brian Ahearn is showing at the Parkway today. It will be followed tomorrow by "Ceiling Zero," with James Cagney, Pat O'Brien and Stuart Erwin. "Three Live Ghosts," with Richard Arlen and Cecilia Parker, will run all day Monday, to be followed Tuesday by Bing Crosby and Ethel Merman in "Anything Goes."

The Bing Crosby-Ethel Merman picture will also run Sunday and Monday at the Tivoli. It will follow "Storm Over the Andes," with Jack Holt, Mona Barrie and Antonio Moreno, which will be shown Saturday only. "Bad Boy," with James Dunn, will be Tuesday's Tivoli attraction. It will be followed Wednesday by "Ceiling Zero."

Thoughts In Verse

SYMBOLS

I am an anchor, you are a flag,
High upon a staff you fly, while I
I drag and grope below life's sea.
Men beat into me their strength,
They weave into you their ideals.

I am hard iron, you are soft silk;
You were woven delicately on life's loom,
I was beaten and forged on life's anvil.

But we are one
In serving our nation.
You, above, symbol of courage and love,
I, below, symbol of man's steadfast hope.

I am an anchor, you a flag,
Our nation needs us;
It is yours to wave, while I
I must hold unseen,
Thus we serve.

Girls Prefer to Be Amused

Girls at the University of Kentucky do not prefer the tall, dark and handsome type of man. They like some one on the order of Jimmy Durante or Joe Penner, on the theory that "There is nothing in all the world like a good horse laugh, and a ridiculous lover would at least keep a girl amused."

Mann Stratton spent the Easter holidays at his home in Lucas.

Editor, The Skiff: I am not a senior, but I should like to make a suggestion as to the senior class gift for this year. In my estimation, there is nothing quite so much needed in T. C. U. as a loud speaker system for the Auditorium.

I know that the Auditorium is relatively small; it does seem that speakers could be easily heard in all parts of the room. But such is not the case, as all students know. As a freshman and sophomore, I could comfortably hear only a few of the more loud-speaking guest speakers.

This was true because of the fact that I was sitting in the rear of the Auditorium, because the speakers generally had low voices, and because most of the surrounding students, talked, studied, laughed, snored, and were generally inattentive. They were inattentive and restless simply because they could not hear without straining to do so.

Let's give our speakers and our students a chance to contact each other and do away with the idea that T. C. U. students are a poor audience. A loud speaker system, an ideal senior class gift, would make our chapels and programs what they should be.

PRIDE'S RATTLE

By WALTER PRIDEMORE

The Frogs managed to come out in third place in the conference chase after their five-game road trip, including a pair with the powerful Longhorns and a couple with the A. & M. Aggies who are proving to be more powerful than preseason dope credited them with being.

With six home games coming up, the season's final with Texas and A. & M., and two each with Baylor and Rice, the Frogs should be able to hold that position.

The Frogs have been making up at the bat what they lack on the mound. Bear Wolf was highly pleased with the way the boys were hitting the ball. They hit hard and often and were able to come through in the pinches. The two late inning rallies against Rice and A. & M. show the boys to be money hitters.

In the last three games exactly thirty-three hits were made by the Frogs batsmen, 20 against A. & M. in two games and 13 against Rice in one. Many of these were for extra bases.

Wolf reported that the team had improved in defense on the road trips also. The Frogs can stand improvement in that division as quite a few mistakes were made in their earlier games. One thing that has helped was changing Willie Walls back to the outfield.

Willie seemed unable to catch on to the first-sacking duties while he seldom makes a hobble in the orchard. Darrell Lester is turning out to be a good first baseman. He is plenty tall and seems to have the hang of it. He didn't make a single error in the A. & M. series or in the Rice Game. He is beginning to get some hits lately, too, something he has been shy on before.

One of the surprises brought out by the road trip was the conversion of Aubrey Linne into a pitcher. He has been working some at that position all season, although he first took the mound against competition in the first Aggie game.

He took over the hurling duties in the Cadets' last inning with one away. He allowed three hits before retiring the side.

However, he pitched the whole game next day, allowing only eight hits in 11 frames. However, he passed 10 enemy batters.

Linne's main weapon is a good curve ball. He also has a fairly fast one and a under-arm baffle.

It looks as though Grandpa Seybold is going finally to get his coveted "E." He has been going out for football and baseball religiously ever since he has been here and has yet failed to make the grade.

This year's baseball is his final chance, and the indications are that he will do it. He played about seven innings against Rice and did a good job of it defensively as well as getting a couple of hits out of four chances, one of which was a triple.

With the largest squad in several years and a number of good men Coach McDiarmid had fine prospects for a good year in tennis this spring.

His hopes were given a severe setback Monday week when Don McLeland rehurt his shoulder in the Denton match. Don's shoulder had been hurt last year and the strain proved too much for it. Arthritis set in and the doctor has advised him to quit tennis for the season.

Don is a fine tennis player, having won several local titles and the state juniors singles champion. In most sports one man doesn't make so much difference, but in tennis it means that every other man on the team will have to meet an opponent a notch better than he would have. Now the No. 2 man will have to meet the opposing No. 1 man, and so on down the line.

Maybe we're prejudiced, but this department still thinks Rex Clark was gypped out of first place in the 100-yard dash last week. Every person near the finish line took for granted that Clark had won before the judge gave his decision.

The official hemmed and hawed and finally announced that Gruneisen of Texas had won. If the Frogs had won that place, they would have once more "rolled old Baylor in the sod," instead of being defeated by two-tenths of a point.

Flunking Insurance Spreads

Students at the University of Missouri may now take out insurance against flunking. If the student flunks, the company gives him enough to pay his way through the summer session. Similar insurance is being taken by other schools as the value is recognized.

Steers to Play Frog Nine Here At 3 Tomorrow

Wolf to Start Linne on Mound With 3 in Reserve.

Lawrence to Catch

Team Splits Series With A. & M. by Losing 1st Game 19-6, Winning Second 12-9.

After dropping two games to the league-leading Texas Longhorns in their camp, the Horned Frogs will face the Steers here at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Coach Bear Wolf will start Aubrey Linne on the mound, with Bill Hudson, Sam Baugh and Red King in reserve. The rest of the line-up will find Jimmy Lawrence behind the plate, Darrell Lester on first, L. D. Meyer on second, Teldon Manton at shortstop, Baugh on third, Walter Roach in left field, Vic Montgomery in center and Will Walls in right.

In the Steer series, Norman Branch pitched three-hit ball to defeat the Frogs 9 to 1 in the first game. The Steers came back to make it a clean sweep the next day by winning 9 to 4.

The Frogs halved the A. & M. series Friday and Saturday by losing the first 19 to 6 and winning the second 12 to 9 by chalking up three runs in the 11th inning.

Kyle Riddle, Aggie pitcher, allowed 11 Frogs hits in the first, but the Cadets collected 18 from King, Hudson and Linne.

In the second game the Aggies held the lead until the ninth frame, when the Frogs tied it up after two were out. Roach was safe when the Aggie short stop muffed the ball. He scored when Walls doubled.

Both sides went scoreless in the 10th. In the next frame a three-run rally, including circuit blows by Lester and Meyer, ended the ball game. Linne pitched all the way, allowing eight hits, while the Frogs collected nine from Herb Knowles and Homer Martinez.

The Frogs repeated their rallying in the 13-to-12 victory over Rice Monday, trailing by 9 to 12 in the

Frog Netmen to Waco Tomorrow for Match

Will Attempt Victory After Losing Four Straight Love Matches.

The Frog tennis team will attempt to get out of its present slump tomorrow afternoon when it meets the Baylor Bears in a return match in Waco. Monday the team will travel to Denton for a match with the North Texas Teachers.

Wednesday afternoon the Texas Longhorns defeated the Frogs 9 to 0. In the singles Ronald Wheeler lost to Gordon Pease 6-2, 6-3; Gene House lost to Carl Smalley 6-1, 6-3; Shirley Farsgard beat Bill Whitehouse 6-2, 6-1.

Walter Moody was defeated by Bill Byrd 6-0, 6-0; Fred Buechel defeated Bobby Bass 6-2, 6-2; and Bill Farley lost to Robert McGinnis 6-3, 6-0.

The doubles team of Bass and Moody lost to Byrd and Farsgard 6-1, 6-0; Buechel and McGinnis defeated Whitehouse and Charles Osheart 6-2, 6-2; and House and Wheeler were defeated by Pease and Smalley 6-0, 6-1.

Previously the Frogs had lost three other love matches, two to Oklahoma University last Thursday and Friday and one to Baylor Saturday.

Monday week the Frogs tied Denton 3-3. It was in this match that Don McLeland, former No. 1 man, reinjured his right shoulder. He will probably be out for the rest of the season.

The other men have shifted up a notch, making Wheeler the No. 1 man, House the No. 2, Whitehouse the No. 3 and Moody the No. 4.

Timothy Club to Hear Two

W. A. Welch and Lamar Hocker will be the speakers Monday night at the meeting of the Timothy Club.

ninth, the Frogs put over four runs to humble the Owls. Wall's double scored the tying run and the winning run was scored when Seale hit Baugh, the bases being loaded.

King started the game but gave up eight runs in three frames. Hudson relieved King and was effective for the next two innings. He was relieved by Linne, who got credit for the victory, after Hudson had allowed four runs in the next pair of innings.

Frogs to Meet Bears Tomorrow

Tracksters Out to Get Revenge on Baylor in Dual Race.

Coach "Boss" Clark's tracksters will be out for revenge tomorrow when they meet the Baylor Bears in a dual meet in Waco.

The Bears slipped in ahead of the Frogs by two-tenths of a point to take second place in the four-way meet between Baylor, S. M. U., Texas, and T. C. U. last week.

Coach Clark is taking the whole squad to Waco in an effort to take some second and third places to go with the several almost cinch first places.

"Donkey" Roberts should take the 440, Rex Clark the 100 and 220, Puss Erwin the shot-put and discus, Pat Clifford and 220-yard low hurdles; broad jump and high jump.

The quadrangular meet held last week was won by Texas, with 72 points. Baylor had 34 9-10 to T. C. U.'s 34 7-10.

The Frogs garnered their points by taking four first places, three seconds and three thirds. Erwin led the Frogs by taking first place in both the discus and shot-put events.

Roberts was first in 440 and third in the 880. Clark was second to Gruneisen of Texas in the 100-yard dash in a disputed finish. Clark was third in the 220-yard dash, finishing behind Texas' stars, Wallender and Reeves. He was also on the sprint relay team that finished second.

That event was won by the Longhorn team of Wallender, Reeves, Rockhold and Gruneisen, holders of the Texas Relays record.

Clifford took first place in the 22-yard low hurdles, second in the high jump, third in the broad jump and was also on the sprint relay team.

T. C. U.'s relay team was hurt by the absence of Bob Harrell, who pulled a muscle in the triangular meet with S. M. U. and Denton. He will probably be out for the rest of the season, according to Coach Clark.

The feature of the triangular meet, April 3, was the 9.8 performance of Clark in the 100, although there was

Victory Needed Today In Golf Tournament

After losing their opening match to the S. M. U. Mustangs 6-0 Tuesday, the Frog golfers will attempt to break into the winning division against the Texas Wesleyan divot-diggers this afternoon at Glen Garden.

In the singles matches, Jim McBride lost to Capt. Jackie Gore in the No. 1 match, 4 to 3. Alvin Jett defeated Capt. Frank Floyd 4 to 3 in the No. 2 match. Loftis Stroud lost to Dan Voss 6 to 5 and Dewitt Smith Jr. defeated Alvin Pace 6 to 5.

In the doubles, Gore and Jett won over McBride and Floyd two up. Voss and Smith defeated Stroud and Pace 5 and 3.

The Frogs will meet Texas Tech here April 24 and 25 and will play the Mustangs a return match here April 28.

Dr. Jose Antonio Lopez, former Ohio University student, may be the next governor of Puerto Rico.

The following played for the fourth-year men: Diggs, Karl Parker, Duvall, Charles Oswald, McDowell, Richard Oliver and Dave Nicol. The Juniors furnished the Seniors a catcher as they were shy on infielders.

Nevada Coeds Sum Up Wrongs of Fellow Men

Coeds at the University of Nevada have decided what is wrong with the majority of men:

1. Their idea of a well-dressed man is Mahatma Gandhi.
2. The reason they don't wear big hats is because they can't get them big enough to fit their heads.
3. Their line of gab sounds like "The Broken Record."
4. They think that manners are places where you live — and hors d'oeuvres are what you give to waiters.

Students Blossom Out In Spring Gogs at Races

BY ROSEMARY COLLYER

Perhaps the most colorful spot in or near Fort Worth at the present time is Arlington Downs. This is a good place to stay away from unless you can lose and grin.

Spring is certainly in the air out there with the exception of a few skeptical souls who know from past experience what to expect from Texas weather. The ladies always take this opportunity to show off their latest frocks and suits.

From the crowds of harassed, nail-biting, and hankercieft-twisting people I spotted a few familiar faces. Miss Grace Maloney was seen gazing earnestly down the list of favorites with Misses Maurine Rice and Helen Adams looking over her shoulder. Miss Maloney was attired in a black and white plaid skirt with a white linen blouse and a finger-tip length black coat. Her hat was black stitched taffeta, and she wore black patent sandals and carried a black patent bag.

Miss Rice was wearing a red, black and white print dress, over which she was wearing a black wool, three quarter length coat. She wore black patent oxfords and carried a black patent bag. Miss Adams, on the other hand, wore a gray tweed suit with a white tacked linen blouse, with gray suede shoes and bag. Her hat was gray felt.

Bill Francis appears to be a daily habitue of the Downs. With Francis was Bill Scott. Bennett Rogers was also seen straining for a view of the finish of the race. Misses Joy Michie and Elizabeth Moore were seen hurrying to place a bet before it was too late.

Mrs. Sprösser Wynn, the former Miss Mildred Patton, was seen watching the "odds" attentively before making her bet. Then talking things over were seen Miss Johnnie Weatherby with Miss Florence and Dale Atkers.

There were perhaps many more T. C. U. students there, but after all I had to take out a little time to do some betting on my own. By the way, I speak from experience, those "tips" are all right I suppose, but it's a funny thing—they never seem to come in.

Pixilation Breaks Out on Campus With "O-Filler-Inners," Doodlers

By Elizabeth Hueter

The currently popular form of insanity, "pixilation," has invaded the T. C. U. campus 100 per cent strong.

A thorough research of the campus revealed unknown facts about members of the T. C. U. student body and faculty.

The newly elected president of the student body, Harry Roberts, may, at an important meeting of the Student Council, begin jangling keys to aid his concentration.

The doodlers in the school are plentiful. Some of the most adept ones at this art are Jones Bacus, Virginia Shell, Catherine Heizlip and Doris Perry.

"O-filler-inners" must be watched lest they become violent and begin blacking eyes. Those to beware of are Rosemary Collyer, Anne Whitley and Sarah Jane Hurley.

When deep thought comes to Genevieve Papineau, Lucile Trent and Lady Baker Griffin it arrives amid a barrage of curl twisting that often ends in tangles.

Most everyone, if he "fessed up," would admit that he scribbled or wrote on telephone books. Warren Agee writes down conversations, while talking over the phone.

When in need of concentration, Boots Beavers gets in his car and drives round and round. He can be dubbed a gas-user-upper. Kindred to this form of thought is that used by Billie Baker. It is said that he is a Blue-Bonnet-circler.

The newest bride on the campus, Jean Fallis Stow, has taken to twisting her wedding ring in moments of thought. This is a very mild form of pixilation, however, and will probably wear off in time.

The pixilators who are inclined musically are Harold Fulenwider, a crooner, and Nez Hallett, a whistler. Although this, too, is a mild form, its worst disadvantage is monotony.

The faculty members who are given over to pixilating are Prof. E. W. McDiarmid, a cane twirler; Dr. Alpheus Marshall, a forehead raiser; Dr. Margaretha Ascher, a lip pincher, and President E. M. Waits, a time waster.

This survey proves conclusively one thing—everyone is pixilated but me.

Laura Is Anxious About Receiving Vacation Tour

If Miss Laura Shelton's hand trembles today as she hands you your daily candy bar, please excuse it. For tomorrow she may win a vacation tour of Alaska, California and the "Golden West."

The contest, sponsored by several Fort Worth business firms, has occupied Miss Shelton's attention the last two or three months. She has enlisted the services of friends and strangers alike in piling up votes for her by patronizing certain local firms.

Growing apprehensive in the "eleventh hour" of the contest, Miss Shelton made the students "tamals conscious" by serving hot tamales every day at noon. Each wrapper from the cans gave her 500 votes.
