

TCU THIS WEEK

EVENTS AND INFORMATION FOR THE TCU COMMUNITY

VOL. 1, NO. 21

OCTOBER 30, 1995

Alumni center groundbreaking will highlight Homecoming events

GROUNDBREAKING FOR THE Dee J. Kelly Alumni and Visitors Center is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 4, at 10:30 a.m. Gifts and pledges totaling more than $6 million will pay for the new center. The largest gifts, from the Burnett-Tandy and the Sid W. Richardson foundations, total $3.5 million and were made in honor of prominent Fort Worth attorney Dee J. Kelly '50. Kelly is one of four Next Frontier Campaign co-chairs and has been a TCU trustee since 1971.

"Dee Kelly has been a leading Trustee and unfailing supporter of this University for years," said Chancellor Bill Tucker. "What better way to honor a distinguished alumnus who has stood behind and beside his alma mater as Dee has."

Gifts of $250,000 or more were made by John L. and Maurine Cox, John and Jane Justin, the William and Elizabeth B. Moncrief Foundation and Clarence and Kerry Scharbauer. Other gifts included about 1,000 engraved bricks for the patio purchased for $100 each.

Bridget Guthrie Thomas '68, president of the Alumni Association, said she is excited to see the center finally become a reality. "It's a place where all alumni can gather and meet friends when they come back to campus," she said. "There is no place like that now."

The center is scheduled to open in time for Homecoming 1996 events and will provide a distinctive campus home for the approximately 54,000 TCU alumni. It also will provide meeting rooms and office space for alumni relations, The TCU Frog Club, annual fund staff and a telemarketing center as well as the Justin Board Room where the TCU Board of Trustees and other groups will meet. Other rooms in the center include the Scharbauer Library, the Monroe Meeting Room, the Ray Meeting Room, the Loudon Alumni Director's office and the Allen Student Foundation office. The center also will serve as a visitor's center for guests seeking information and directions.

The new center will be located on the east side of Amon G. Carter Stadium on Stadium Drive just south of the Winthrop Rockefeller Building for Ranch Management. ♦

Controller's office sets new hours

BEGINNING NOV. 1, the controller's office will be open from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. They will remain open on Mondays until 6 p.m., on a trial basis only, to meet the needs of students who cannot take care of their business during regular hours. ♦

EVENTS

Now-Dec. 15

"An Ongoing Voyage" display, Mary Couts Burnett Library lobby.

Oct. 30-Nov. 22

Thomas Walsh sculpture and drawing exhibit, Moudy Exhibition Hall. Free. See related story.

Oct. 30

Men's Soccer - TCU vs. Southwest Missouri, 2 p.m., TCU soccer fields. Free.

José Feghali piano recital with Everest Quartet, 7:30 p.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium. Free. See related story.

Oct. 31-Nov. 1

Wit's End! a play by TCU theatre faculty member Steven Breese featuring music faculty member Richard Estes, 7:30 p.m., W.E. Scott Theatre, 3505 W. Lancaster. Tickets are $4 for TCU students, faculty and staff. Call 738-6509 for more information. See related story.

Oct. 31-Nov. 3

Mozart's sonatas in a cycle, performed by TCU piano students, 7:30 p.m. each evening, Ed Landreth Auditorium. Free.*

Nov. 1-5

Homecoming Week. Call Ext. 5233 for more information. See related stories.

Nov. 1

Student recital hour, 3 p.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium. Open to all. Free. See related story.

Nov. 2

Faculty Senate meeting, 3:30 p.m., Faculty Center.

Nov. 4

Horned Frog football game - TCU vs. SMU (Homecoming) 2 p.m., Amon G. Carter Stadium. Call Ext. 7967 for ticket information.

Frog Alley, noon - 2 p.m., lawn in front of Amon G. Carter Stadium. Entertainment includes jugglers, sumo wrestling, face painters, puppet wagon and the Strolling Country and Fingerprints bands. See related story.

Nov. 6

Monday at TCU

Fort Worth Chamber Orchestra featuring TCU faculty members Jan Eberle and Steve Weger, 1 p.m. and 2:15 p.m., T.A. Sims Elementary School. Call 921-2676 for more information.

American Music Week lecture by TCU musicology instructor Beth McGinnis: "And Called it Macaroni: Common Character Songs as a Portrait of America," 3 p.m., Ed Landreth Hall, Room 103. Free. See related story.

American Music Week recital by TCU associate professor of voice Sheila Allen: "Beyond Brahms: 20th-Century Repertory for Piano, Viola, and Voice." Ed Landreth Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. Free. See related story.

*Call the Music Department at Ext. 7602 for more information.

Call Sports Information at Ext. 7969.

Homecoming '95: A look at TCU

TAKE A LOOK INTO SNAPSHOTS of TCU time during this week's Homecoming activities. "Picture This...TCU!" is this year's Homecoming theme, which is designed to illustrate the different elements that alumni, students, faculty/staff and members of the Fort Worth community contribute to create the "total picture," said Kristin Conover, 1995 Homecoming chair.

Homecoming Week has extended its events throughout the week with noon events every day, instead of concentrating on a bulk of activities for the weekend, Kristin said. Concerts and antique photos are just some of the attractions in the Student Center lounge at noon. Friday's activities will commence at 6 p.m. with a street party, sponsored by 106.1 KISS-FM, in the field in front of the stadium. That will be followed by a pep rally in the stadium at approximately 7 p.m. with football Coach Pat Sullivan pumping up the crowd. After the rally, a four-act concert with a Tejano band, an acoustic guitarist, a country band and the alternative band, The Neighbors, will rock the stadium.

In order to involve more alumni and members of the Fort Worth community, the Homecoming Committee moved the parade to Saturday, Nov. 4, at 9 a.m. in lieu of the traditional Friday night procession. Saturday night will feature a round-robin all-campus party starting at 9 p.m., with a disco in the Student Center ballroom. Buses will transport participants to Billy Bob's, Hyena's Club 604 and Dog Star Cafe.

Homecoming Week is sponsored by Programming Council's Homecoming Committee. For more information, call Ext. 5233. ♦

University holidays scheduled

JUST IN TIME FOR HOLIDAY PLANNING, here's a list of official University holidays and days the University will be closed. Only essential personnel will be required to work during these periods.

Nov. 23-24

Dec. 25-29

Jan. 1 ♦

Annual Institute honors college's first dean

THE 20TH ANNUAL Lucy Harris Linn Institute, which honors the first dean of Harris College of Nursing, will be held Nov. 9, 5:30 p.m. - 9:15 p.m., in the Woodson Room of the Student Center.

Gerri S. Lamb, clinical director of research at Carondelet Health Care in Tucson, Ariz., will speak on seizing opportunities in managed care. Lamb is also the director of Carondelet's Community Nursing Organization, a Medicare demonstration project.

Registration before Nov. 1 is $35 and includes dinner. After Nov. 1, registration costs $40 and will not include dinner. Full-time undergraduates may register for $10. For more information, call Ext. 7650. ♦

Did you find Inside TCU in your mailbox?

WE HOPE YOU ENJOYED your first issue of the new feature-oriented TCU publication, Inside TCU. If you are a full-time faculty or staff member and you did not receive a copy of the October issue at home and would like to be placed on the mailing list, please contact the Office of Communications at Ext. 7810. ♦

University faculty share talent on campus, around town

UNIVERSITY FACULTY MEMBERS do more than just teach classes, conduct research and advise students. Many share their varied talents with the community at large. Below is a brief listing of upcoming events, mostly TCU-sponsored, that showcase the talents of TCU faculty and guest faculty members. Unless otherwise indicated, all events are free and open to the public. Watch the TCU This Week Events calendar for additional details.

Oct. 30 Opening for exhibition of sculpture and drawings by master metal caster and TCU artist-in-residence Thomas Walsh. Walsh, who is professor of art and head of sculpture at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, will feature recent work derived from his intensive investigation of the human figure. The exhibition runs through Nov. 22 in the Moudy Exhibition Hall, and a public reception will be held Nov. 11 from 6 to 8 p.m. Walsh will discuss "35 Years of Making Sculpture" Nov. 7 at 7 p.m. at the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth.

Oct. 30 Concert by TCU artist-in-residence and pianist José Feghali featuring the works of Mozart and Schumann. Members of the Everest Quartet will be special guests.

Oct. 31-Nov. 1 Scott Theatre will present staged readings of Wit's End!, a new mystery/thriller written by TCU theatre faculty member Steven Breese. The murderous saga, which will feature music faculty member Richard Estes, chronicles two brothers in love with the same woman for 20 years.

Nov. 6-12 TCU will celebrate American Music Week with five events, making the University the most active Southwestern U.S. participant in this nationwide celebration of American music.

Music history instructor Beth McGinnis will kick off the week on Nov. 6 with a lecture, "'And Called it Macaroni': Common Character Songs as a Portrait of America." Later that evening, faculty member Sheila Allen will include American songs by Elliott Carter, Charles Ives and David White in her voice recital. On Nov. 8, the regular 3 p.m. Wednesday student recital hour will feature American music, and on Wednesday night the TCU Symphony under the direction of John Burton will perform Aaron Copland's "Quiet City" as part of its fall concert. To wrap up the week, members of Phi Mu Alpha Symphonia will present an all-American recital on Nov. 9. ♦

Frogs hit the court running

WITH FOOTBALL SEASON ALREADY PAST the halfway point, both the men's and women's basketball teams have taken to the court to gear up for their upcoming seasons. Oct. 15 marked the first day teams could officially practice and both Billy Tubbs and Shell Robinson wasted no time getting their squads up and running.

On the men's side, despite leading the nation in scoring last year, the Horned Frogs finished the season with a record of 16 wins and 11 losses before falling to Houston in the first round of the Southwest Conference tournament. The Frogs' biggest challenge will be replacing center Kurt Thomas, who last year led the nation in scoring and rebounding. Sophomore guard Juan Bragg, last year's SWC Newcomer of the Year, said he's looking forward to playing the role of a leader on this team now that he's got a year of experience under his belt.

This year features the Frogs' toughest road schedule in years. TCU opens the season against the University of Connecticut in the Great Alaska Shootout Nov. 22, a tournament that also features perennial powerhouses Duke and Indiana. The Frogs will also be on the road against Purdue, St. Joseph's and Seton Hall before taking on preseason No. 1 Kentucky on Jan. 20. Coach Tubbs said the tough schedule is just another step in building a quality program. "We've got to pay our dues now," he said. "To be good you have to go out and establish yourself. It's a learning process that will pay off in the long run."

As for the women, they are looking to improve over last year's one-win season. Coach Robinson remains optimistic though because of what is probably her best recruiting class in her three years as head coach. "This year we've got a strong foundation on which to build," she said. "The team has a better attitude and these players are used to winning."

This year the Lady Frogs will face their usual tough competition from the likes of Texas Tech, Texas, Texas A&M and Houston. Sophomore Stacy Price said the team is looking forward to the challenge. "Everyone on this team wants to play and wants to win," she said. "We've talked about it enough and now we need to get it done."

The Lady Frogs open their home season Dec. 5 against the University of Texas-San Antonio. ♦

APPOINTMENTS

Jeanne Langdon has joined the staff of the admissions office as administrative assistant I. Jeanne is a TCU alum and was previously employed by Superior Plastics Co. and the University of North Texas Health Science Center.

Howard Horne is the new offset press operator II in printing services. Howard was previously employed by Quick Print, but his background also includes a bachelor's degree in music education from Texas Wesleyan University.

Mark McGuire has recently been promoted from security guard to police officer in campus police. A TCU employee since August 1995, Mark is a Navy veteran and a former employee of Trinity Meadows Race Track.

CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE: Nordic Track Pro Model with personal performance monitor/pulse. Already assembled but barely used. $475. Call 237-1943.

FOR SALE: 1991 Honda Accord EX, moonroof, all power, 53,000 miles, runs and looks great. Call 263-5831 after 5:30 p.m.

FOR RENT: Cute two-bedroom, one-bath cottage, just two blocks from TCU. For information, call Etta Tyson at 924-7443.

CHILDCARE PROVIDER/HOUSEKEEPER NEEDED: For TCU area family. Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Reliable transportation, non-smoker. Call Rebecca or David at 923-7153.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

The Human Resources office lists the following vacancies as of Oct. 23. For more information on any of these positions, call Ext. 7790.

- Director, Center for Productive Communication - School of Business
- Assistant Program Director/Tennis - Athletics
- Reference/Bibliographic Librarian - Library
- Director of Financial Aid - Financial Aid
- Assistant Director of Communications - Communications
- Instrument Technician - Research/Sponsored Projects
- Accompanist/Technique Classes - Ballet/Modern Dance
- Police Officer - Campus Police
- Security Guard - Campus Police
- Plasterer - Physical Plant
- Cabinet Maker - Physical Plant
- Service Assistant I (p/t) - Facility Services
- Service Assistant I (f/t) - Facility Services

TCU THIS WEEK is published every Monday (every other week in the summer) by TCU's Office of Communications. Submit story information, classifieds and calendar items in writing one week before publication.

Ma'lisa Mann, editor, TCU This Week, internal communications editor
Victor Neil, assistant editor, TCU This Week, communications specialist
Rick L'Amle, director of communications
Nancy Styles, administrative assistant

How to reach us:
921-7810
Campus mail: Box 30776
e-mail: NEWS@TCU.EDU

Printing Services
David Grebel, manager
Joe Lusk

For delivery changes, call Judy Cartmill at 921-7899.