

TCU THIS WEEK

EVENTS AND INFORMATION FOR THE TCU COMMUNITY

VOL. 1, NO. 22

NOVEMBER 6, 1995

Roe vs. Wade attorney to speak on campus

SARAH WEDDINGTON, KNOWN FOR her winning argument in one of the most famous legal cases in American history, Roe vs. Wade, will speak about "Leadership: A Critical Skill for Tomorrow" on Nov. 8 at 8 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom.

Weddington has advanced national awareness of women's issues as an assistant to the President of the United States from 1978 to 1981, when she led the White House efforts to extend the time for ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment. She also co-chaired the U.S. delegation to the United Nations Mid-Decade Conference on Women in Copenhagen in 1980. She has served on the Texas House of Representatives, where she helped to reform Texas rape statutes, provide equal consideration for both mothers and fathers in custody disputes and pass a pregnancy leave bill for teachers.

Weddington has received numerous awards and honors, including the Planned Parenthood Federation of America's Margaret Sanger Award and recognition as Time magazine's "Outstanding Young American Leader." In 1990, she was named "Lecturer of the Year" by the National Association for Campus Activities.

Weddington's lecture is sponsored by the Programming Council's Forums Committee and is free and open to the public. Her book, A Question of Choice, a documentation of the historic Roe vs. Wade case, will be available following the presentation.

For more information on the event, call Ext. 5233. ♦

Student service project reaches out to area children

ON NOV. 11, ORGANIZATIONS FROM ACROSS campus will come together to stage a carnival for about 300 local children in a program called "Into the Streets." Busloads of children from the Lena Pope Home, Tarrant County Women's Haven, The Bridge Emergency Youth Services and the Boys and Girls Clubs of Fort Worth will descend upon the intramural fields from noon until 3 p.m.

Complete with Shriners, bands, relay races and the TCU Players (a theater troupe), the event will give children from kindergarten to 12th grade an opportunity to have fun and interact with college students. "Into the Streets" will be staffed by TCU students, giving them a chance to understand how much community outreach programs affect those involved, said Melissa Kelly, the project coordinator. "Into the Streets" is a nationwide service

EVENTS

Nov. 6

Monday at TCU

American Music Week lecture by TCU musicology instructor Beth McGinnis, 3 p.m., Ed Landreth Hall, Room 103. Free.*

American Music Week recital by TCU associate professor of voice Sheila Allen, 7:30 p.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium. Free.*

Nov. 7-8

1996 Horned Frog Yearbook photo sitting for faculty and staff members, 1:30-2 p.m., Student Center lounge.

Nov. 7

Celebration of Women in Athletics, 6 p.m. in front of Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

Women's basketball exhibition game - TCU vs. Central Texas AAU, 7 p.m., Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. **

TCU artist-in-residence Thomas Walsh will discuss "35 Years of Making Sculpture," 7 p.m., Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth. Free. Open to all.

Nov. 8

WordPerfect 6.0 training, 8 a.m.-noon. ***

Student recital hour featuring American music, 3 p.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium. Open to all. Free.*

Men's basketball exhibition game - TCU vs. Conoco Oilers, 7 p.m., Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. **

American Music Week concert: TCU Symphony will perform Aaron Copland's "Quiet City," 7:30 p.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium.*

Lecture by attorney Sarah Weddington, "Leadership: A Critical Skill for Tomorrow", 8 p.m., Student Center ballroom. Free.

Nov. 9

TCU artist-in-residence Thomas Walsh will critique student artwork, 10:45 a.m.-noon, Student Center lounge; open to all.

Human Resource's Hobby Hour, noon-1 p.m. Learn how to create an inexpensive holiday craft to give or keep. ***

Lucy Harris Linn Institute, featuring Gerri S. Lamb, clinical director for research at Carondelet Health Care in Tucson, Ariz. Call Ext. 7650 for more information.

Phi Mu Alpha Symphonia presents an all-American recital, 7:30 p.m., Ed Landreth Hall, Room 103. Free.*

Fine Arts film: "The Piano," 7 p.m., Moudy 164S. Discussion following the film. Free.

Nov. 10-11

Contemporary Dance/Fort Worth repertory concert, fifth anniversary celebration, 8 p.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium. Call 335-9000 for ticket information.

Programming Council film: "Crimson Tide," 9 p.m., Student Center ballroom. Free.

Nov. 10

WordPerfect 6.0 training, 8 a.m.-noon, ***

"Writing Good Exam Questions" brown bag workshop sponsored by the University Writing Program and the William L. Adams Writing Center, 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Student Center Room 211, Call Ext. 6238 to reserve your place.

Biology department seminar featuring thesis progress reports by Julia Cross and Letitia Simpson, noon, Winton-Scott, Room 417. Call Ext. 7165 for more information. Open to all.

The Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies will present a lecture "Women Writers' Outstanding Roles Played in the Latin American Literary Scene" by Costa Rican writer Rima de Vallbona, 7 p.m., Moudy 141N. A reception honoring the writer will be held at 5 p.m. in the Faculty Center.

Nov. 11

Thomas Walsh exhibition reception, 6-8 p.m., J.M. Moudy Exhibition Hall.

Horned Frog football game - TCU vs. Texas Tech, noon, at Texas Tech. Televised on KDFW, Channel 4.

TCU MBA Open House featuring speaker Elaine B. Agather, chair and CEO, Texas Commerce Bank, 10 a.m.-noon, Tandy Hall.

Nov. 12

Texas Music Teachers Association/Music Teachers National Association student competitions, 8 a.m.-9 p.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium. Free and open to the public.*

"Enter the World of Cycling" sponsored by the TCU Police Bicycle Patrol, 1-3 p.m., Student Center Ballroom.

Nov. 13

Welcoming Diversity Interactive Workshop, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Student Center Woodson Room. Call University Ministries at Ext. 7830 by Nov. 10 to register.

Guillermo Martinez organ recital, 7:30 p.m. Ed Landreth Auditorium. Free.*

*Call the Music Department at Ext. 7602 for more information.

Call Sports Information at Ext. 7969.

Call Human Resources at Ext. 7790 for more information.

project designed to jump-start community service on college campuses. In an effort to recognize the importance of children in the tomorrow's world, the "Into the Streets" planning committee has chosen to promote Fort Worth's theme for this year's project: "Our City. Our Children. Fort Worth's Answer to the Future."

"Into the Streets" projects vary from campus to campus, depending on the planning committee's goals for that year. The carnival was deemed as a fun way to maximize participation among both the children and TCU students, Melissa said. ♦

Basketball season off and running this week

DON'T MISS A SINGLE MINUTE of Horned Frog basketball. This season should be full of excitement as Billy Tubbs and his "posse" hit the court with an offense that led the nation in scoring last year, averaging just under 94 points a game. They will see their first action of the season Wednesday night (Nov. 8) against the Conoco Oilers. Tip-off is at 7:05 p.m. in Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

The Lady Frogs look to bring order to the court as they return six players from last year's squad and add a handful of talented newcomers. The Lady Frogs take on Central Texas AAU tomorrow (Nov. 7) at 7 p.m. in Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

For more information, call 922-FROG.

Men's Home Schedule

Nov. 8	Conoco Oilers (exhibition)
Nov. 15	New Zealand (exhibition)
Nov. 30	Middle Tennessee State
Dec. 2	Howard
Dec. 6	Centenary
Dec. 9	SE Louisiana
Dec. 19	North Texas
Dec. 22	Coppin State
Jan. 3	Alaska-Anchorage
Jan. 7	Montana State
Jan. 10	Texas Tech
Jan. 22	Rice (Prime TV)
Jan. 31	Texas A&M
Feb. 11	Texas (ABC-TV)
Feb. 14	Houston
Feb. 24	SMU
Mar. 2	Baylor

Women's Home Schedule

Nov. 7	Central Texas AAU (exhibition)
Nov. 25	Oklahoma (exhibition)
Dec. 5	UT-San Antonio
Dec. 21	Arkansas
Dec. 27	Grambling
Jan. 2	Alcorn State
Jan. 13	Texas
Jan. 17	Houston
Jan. 27	SMU
Jan. 30	Texas A&M
Feb. 7	Texas Tech
Feb. 17	Baylor (Prime TV)
Feb. 21	Rice

TCU THIS WEEK is published every Monday (every other week in the summer) by TCU's Office of Communications. Submit story information, classifieds and calendar items in writing one week before publication.

Malisa Mann, editor, TCU This Week, internal communications editor
Victor Neil, assistant editor, TCU This Week, communications specialist
Rick L'Amie, director of communications
Nancy Styles, administrative assistant
Becky Pretz, student assistant
Natalie Taylor, student assistant

How to reach us:
 921-7810
 Campus mail: Box 30776
 e-mail: NEWS@TCU.EDU

Printing Services
David Grebel, manager
Joe Lusk

For delivery changes, call Judy Cartmill at 921-7899.

Women athletes to be honored at basketball game

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF WOMEN athletes will take center court at the first "Celebration of Women in Athletics," on Nov. 7. The event will be held in conjunction with the Lady Frogs' basketball exhibition game against Central Texas AAU.

Festivities begin at 6 p.m. and will include music, face painting, a clown/balloon artist, Superfrog, the TCU Frog Horn and free food.

Both the event and game are free and open to the public. The game begins at 7 p.m., and will include an introduction of the current women's teams and former letterwomen during halftime. ♦

Nursing faculty members learn Spanish

FACULTY MEMBERS IN THE Harris College of Nursing are going back to the classroom... to take Spanish, that is.

Many of TCU's nursing faculty members and their students work with Spanish-speaking clients, so faculty members saw a practical need to be bilingual role models for students and clients alike.

"More and more of the clients we see in health care settings speak only Spanish," said Pat Bradley (nursing), who oversees the college's community health nursing program. "In our new curriculum we are requiring nursing majors to take six hours of a foreign language. We advise them to take Spanish, especially if they plan to work in Texas. We need to prepare our students as well as be good role models for them."

Pat, who conceived the Spanish language training idea, also coordinates the program. Laura Bever (modern languages) is teaching two customized, 10-week courses especially for 12 faculty members.

"We need to learn how to communicate in clinical settings where frequently more than half of the clients speak only Spanish," said Pat. "Rather than how to read a menu, or ask for directions — the topics typically covered in conversational Spanish courses — we learn how to ask clients about their symptoms, the drugs they've taken or how to relieve their pain."

Faculty members are making a professional as well as a personal commitment to foreign language training. Each of them is paying for the course, which also is supported in part by the Harris College of Nursing. ♦

TCU students reach out to community through Day of Caring

ON SUNDAY, OCT. 29, 55 TCU students donned their grubbier jeans and picked up their brushes to paint the interior of a residential facility of St. Teresa's Home for children in Fort Worth. The project was part of a United Way of Tarrant County's Days of Caring program coordinated by TCU students through the University's Community Action Network (CAN) organization. CAN is designed to involve students in community service.

From 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., TCU students tackled a 4,000-square-foot building which serves as a home for 12 youngsters aged 4 to 6 who suffer from problems stemming from abuse and neglect. The showpiece of the project was a large mural of a tree and pond that students painted on a gameroom wall. "We really do appreciate the help," said David Chumchal, St. Teresa's facilities manager. "Without volunteerism, a lot of this wouldn't get done or it would take a lot longer."

The United Way's Days of Caring program helps groups of volunteers conduct community service projects or activities that benefit local non-profit organizations and the people they serve. "The students worked with United Way very closely to determine which project they would do," said the Rev. John Butler, TCU's University minister. ♦

DEATHS

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Charles Latham, who died Nov. 1 after a long bout with cancer. A memorial service was held Friday (Nov. 3) at Robert Carr Chapel. Charles supervised the TRIO Programs at TCU, which include the Upward Bound college preparatory program and the Ronald E. McNair baccalaureate program. He also served as the University's director of special programs.

Memorials may be sent to the Charles Latham Scholarship Fund, Southern Arkansas University Foundation, SAU Box 1174, Magnolia, Ark. 71753-5000. Charles is survived by his mother Bertie Lee Roestchke of California, sister Sonya Von Montz of Salt Lake City, Utah, and brother Frank Latham of Olympia, Wash.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

The Human Resources office lists the following vacancies as of Oct. 30. For more information on any of these positions, call Ext. 7790.

Director/Center for Productive Communication — School of Business
 Assistant Program Director/Tennis Pro — Athletics
 Director — Financial Aid
 Assistant Director — Communications
 Assistant Director — Alumni Relations
 Instrument Technician — Research/Sponsored Projects
 Accompanist/Technique Classes — Ballet/Modern Dance
 Police Officer — Campus Police
 Security Guard — Campus Police
 Plasterer — Physical Plant
 Cabinet Maker — Physical Plant
 Service Assistant I (p/t) — Facility Services
 Service Assistant I (f/t) — Facility Services