SEPT. 21

On the Town (1949)

Three sailors spend a 24-hour leave in New York City—singing and dancing. After all, they are Gene Kelly, Frank Sinatra, and Jules Munshin. Also starring: Vera Ellen, Ann Miller, and Betty Garrett.

SEPT. 28

The Razor's Edge (1946)

This faithful adaptation of Somerset Maugham's novel stars Tyrone Power as a young man seeking wisdom rather than financial success. Co-stars Gene Tierney, Anne Baxter, Clifton Webb, and Herbert Marshall. (Film runs 146 minutes.)

OCT. 5

Gunga Din (1939)

Cary Grant, Douglas Fairbanks Jr. and Victor McLaglen tear up the screen as British officers in Colonial India. Also starring Sam Jaffe and Joan Fontaine.

OCT. 12

Red River (1948)

John Wayne and Montgomery Clift fight for control of the first herd to travel the Chisholm Trail.

OCT. 19

The Third Man (1949)

This stunningly photographed mystery features Joseph Cotten as a naive American in over his head in post-WWII Vienna. Also stars Orson Welles and Alida Valli.

OCT. 26

The Invisible Man (1933)

H.G. Wells' novel is brilliantly adapted for the screen, with Claude Rains as the scientist who pays a high price for his experiments.

NOV. 2

To Each His Own (1946)

Olivia DeHavilland won an Oscar for her performance as an unwed mother who struggles to remain in her son's life after she loses him to another woman.

NOV. 9

How Green Was My Valley (1941)

John Ford directs a stellar cast in this bittersweet story about a Welsh mining community.

NOV. 16

The Bandwagon (1953)

Fred Astaire and Cyd Charisse star in this exuberant musical about a movie star's return to Broadway. ♦

KUDOS

The School of Music has received the year 2000 First Place award for "The Promotion and Performance of American Music," presented by the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Between June 1999 and May 2000, TCU musicians gave a total of 213 performances of works by 138 American composers on 70 programs. Nearly 20% of the programs were "All-American," and at least one American work was heard on 60% of the programs. Some 21 composers were present for their performances and 13 works were given their premieres.

In addition to concerts and recitals, 15 visiting artists and lecturers participated in seminars, workshops or master classes. Discounting a considerable radio audience, approximately 8,740 people attended these events, with an average audience of 125.

The TCU School of Music has been a member of the 101-year-old NFMC since the early 1950s and previously won the First Place award in 1966, 1988 and 1997.
