

Chancellor Ferrari opens area U.S. Savings Bonds campaign at recent luncheon

CHANCELLOR MICHAEL FERRARI IS leading the Fort Worth regional charge for U.S. Savings Bonds, and kicked off the 2001 campaign drive with more than 150 business leaders at a luncheon ceremony last week at the Kelly Center.

"We encourage all employees to think about their own dreams and the role savings bonds can play in helping achieve those dreams," said Chancellor Ferrari.

Jean Walbridge and Jeannie Chaffee (chancellor's office) arranged for the participation of many Horned Frogs in the kickoff luncheon. Gary Patterson (football) was the featured speaker, bringing with him student-athletes from the football and women's basketball teams. Curt Wilson (music) and the TCU Jazz Ensemble entertained guests prior to lunch on the Kelly Center patio. Following the presentation of colors by members of the TCU ROTC Color Guard and the singing of the national anthem by TCU sophomore Christa Zimmer, John McIntyre (music) and the TCU Concert Chorale wowed the audience with America the Beautiful, accompanied by Janet Pummill (music).

According to John Weis (human resources), who will lead the campus savings bonds drive, "Details of this year's savings bonds drive at TCU are being finalized. Information will be sent to faculty and staff in the near future." ♦

"Texas Bound," sponsored by TCU Press, speaks volumes on short fiction

"TEXAS BOUND," THE DALLAS literary series which has been offering Texas short fiction interpreted by Texas actors since 1992, will return to Fort Worth for its seventh year at 7:30 p.m. May 21 at Wm. Edrington Scott Theater, 3505 W. Lancaster.

The annual event is part of the literary series Arts & Letters Live, presented by the Dallas Museum of Art and the Friends of the Dallas Public Library. The local program is produced in association with TCU Press and the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth.

The Fort Worth outing will feature G.W. Bailey (*M*A*S*H** t.v. series, Police Academy movies) reading Ladies' Man by Jim Sanderson, along with Texas Bound director Raphael Parry reading First Day by Robert Garner McBrearty and Denise Lee reading Blood on the Moon by Phyllis Allen of Fort Worth.

Tickets are $12; $10 for students, teachers, librarians, seniors and members of Friends of TCU Library, Dallas Museum of Art, Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth and Friends of Dallas Public Library. Call (214) 922-1220 or (888) 684-3362, ext. 1220, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

Howard Horne's sculptures in wood and bronze will be shown on campus May 5-11

HOWARD HORNE, PRE-PRESS technician in printing services, will introduce the TCU community to another side of his skills and talents with an exhibition of wood and bronze sculptures. The show, titled Backward Glances, will be displayed in the Moudy exhibition hall between 1 and 5 p.m. May 5-11.

An opening reception is set for 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday in Moudy.

A five-year employee of TCU, Howard has about 30 pieces in the show, representing work done over the past decade. Although he studied classical music at Texas Wesleyan College, Howard has been working with wood since he was a middle schooler, having learned a lot about craftsmanship from his father and grandfather, both carpenters.

He later studied painting with Fort Worth artists Dennis Blagg, Ed Blackburn and Ann Ekstrom and, in 1996, had two of his sculptures accepted for the annual

A weekly chat that can make a world of difference to an international student

FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS HAVE a unique opportunity to learn more about another culture, help someone learn English and make a new friend at the same time. It's the conversation partners program, sponsored by intensive English.

Volunteers are paired with an international student, then the two spend one hour a week talking together, either in person, on the telephone or via e-mail.

For more information, contact intensive English at ext. 7485 or e-mail c.orloff@tcu.edu. ♦

Casual dress policy for summer begins May 14

JOHN WEIS (HUMAN RESOURCES) HAS announced May 14-Aug. 17 as the designated period during which employees may wear casual clothing to work.

Appropriate campus apparel during the summer months includes slacks, nice jeans, walking shorts and dress sandals. Please avoid short shorts and sleeveless blouses or shirts.

Good judgment should dictate wardrobe choices during this period. Unit heads may decide what is appropriate for their individual departments, including areas where uniforms are worn. Anyone wishing to wear regular business attire during this time should feel free to do so. ♦

TCU THIS WEEK is published every Monday (every other week in the summer) by TCU's Office of Communications. Submit story information, classifieds and calendar items in writing one week before publication.

KUDOS

Christopher Ohan (history) has received a Fulbright grant to research and teach at the Moscow State Institute of International Relations of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation for the 2001-2002 academic year.

MARKETPLACE

American Lung Association's Tarrant County Walk to Fight Asthma will begin at 9 a.m. May 19 in Sundance Square. Registration is at 8 a.m. Those interested in participating may either form a team or become an individual walker and raise pledges in support of local asthma education programs.

For more information, contact Helen Yakub at 817-332-4549 or e-mail hyakub@texaslung.org.

Asthma is the leading serious chronic childhood illness in the U.S. It can be a life-threatening disease if not properly managed, and it accounts for 10 million lost school days annually.

Lung disease kills more than 335,000 Americans each year. All funds raised through this program help the Lung Association provide local programs and services.
