

Wednesday inauguration of Chancellor Boschini to be campuswide celebration

CHANCELLOR VICTOR J. BOSCHINI JR. WILL BE officially installed as TCU's 10th chancellor at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Daniel-Meyer Coliseum during a ceremony that will honor the University's traditions while boldly examining its future. Afterwards, all attendees are invited to a lunch at the Kelly Center.

The inauguration, themed "Vision In Action: Enhancing the TCU Experience," represents the public recognition of Dr. Boschini as chancellor and provides him the opportunity to underscore the University's future and, in particular, his vision for TCU students' total collegiate experience.

The ceremony will begin with a procession of campus community delegates that will include faculty, staff, international students, student leaders and, for the first time, TCU trustees. During the inauguration, Nadia Lahutsky, professor of religion and chair of the Faculty Senate, and John V. Roach, chair of TCU's board of trustees, will present the University Medallion to Dr. Boschini, a symbolic University tradition signifying the official investiture of office and the strength and continuity of the University. A link added to the medallion chain will signify the recognition of Dr. Boschini as TCU's newest chancellor.

Dr. George Kuh, professor of higher education at Indiana University, Bloomington, and director of its National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE), is the inauguration keynote speaker. Other ceremony highlights include one- to two-minute poetry or book readings by faculty, staff and students and remarks from Michael J. Moncrief, mayor of Fort Worth, Pam Roach Thomas, president of the TCU Alumni Association, Laura Miller, board of TCU trustees and Jay Zeidman, president of TCU's Student Government Association.

The inauguration will be capped by a series of celebratory events including TCU's Honors Convocation at 11 a.m. Thursday in Ed Landreth Auditorium, a three-day International Socrates Symposium, and a Town Hall meeting at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, titled "The TCU Experience: What Makes Us Unique?" ♦

Month-long TCU Latin American Arts Festival opens with theater, dance

WHAT BEGAN AS A WEEK OF CLASSICAL music on the campus in 1998 becomes a month-long celebration of Hispanic heritage this year. TCU's 2004 Latin American Arts Festival kicks off this weekend with theater and dance productions and concludes with several days of music events April 19-24.

The days between will feature a lecture, films that celebrate the talent and culture of Mexico, the countries of South America and Spain, and an exhibition of pre-Columbian art.

TCU Theatre presents Burning Patience at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday in the Hays Theater. The play, written by Antonio Skarmeta, is the story of renowned Chilean poet Pablo Neruda and is the basis for the Italian film Il Postino (The Postman). General admission is $10 for adults, $5 for students and seniors. For reservations, phone the box office at ext. 5770.

Ballet and modern dance presents its spring dance concert at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in Ed Landreth Auditorium. Titled Fronteras Entrelazadas (Interwoven Borders), performances feature choreography by TCU faculty and guest artists Sabrina Castillo of Momentum modern dance company (Guatemala), New York-based choreographer Jessica Lang and Miguel Mancillas of Antares dance company (Mexico), as well as Choreographer-in-Residence Fernando Bujones.

General admission is $8 at the door. For information, phone ext. 7615.

Beginning Thursday and continuing throughout April, the department of art and art history will host the premiere exhibition of an important collection of pre-Columbian sculpture and ceramics recently donated to TCU by Dr. William Runyon, a retired Fort Worth dentist. About 15 pieces will be on display in the lobby of the Walsh Center.

(Turn to Latin Arts on Page 2)

EVENTS

Today - April 2

Honors Week

Today

School of Education Green Honors Chair, Dr. Adelaide Sanford, 6 p.m., Sid Richardson LH1. Call ext. 6775.

March 31

Inauguration of Chanc. Victor Boschini Jr., 10 a.m., Daniel-Meyer Coliseum. Lunch at Kelly Center Classes are suspended from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. Call ext. 7114 for more information.

TCU's Vision in Action planning initiative Town Hall meeting, 2:30 p.m., Student Center lounge.

KinoMonda International Film Series, L'Homme du Train (France), 6:30 p.m., Sid Richardson LH1. Call ext. 7292.

April 1-30

LAAF pre-Columbian sculpture and ceramics art exhibit donated by William Runyon, Walsh Center lobby. Call ext. 7143 for more information.

April 1-3

International Socrates Symposium hosted by TCU and UT Austin. Call ext. 6374 for schedule of events.

TCU Theatre presents Burning Patience, the story of Chilean poet Pablo Neruda, by Chilean writer Antonio Skarmeta as part of TCU Latin American Arts Festival, 7:30 p.m., Hays Theatre. Call ext. 5770.

April 1

Kinesiology Green Honors Chair, Dr. Abhimanyu Garg, 9:30 a.m. - 6 p.m., four lectures about diabetes. Call ext. 6871 for more information.

TCU Honors Convocation featuring Dr. Alexander Nehamas of Princeton University, 11 a.m., Ed Landreth Auditorium. Call ext. 7125 for more information.

RTVF Film Series, Mutiny on the Bounty (1935), introduced by Juan McSetigan, 7 p.m., 1645 Moudy Bldg, free and open to the public. Call ext. 7630 for more information.

Dr. A.J. Levine of Vanderbilt University and Dr. Carolyn Ossiek of Brite Divinity School, along with a panel of rabbis, pastors and faculty, to discuss Christ's death, 7:30-9 p.m., Robert Carr Chapel, Reception following. For more information call ext. 7804

April 2 - 4

LAAF/Spring Dance concert, presenting works choreographed by TCU faculty and guest artists Sabrina Castillo, Jessica Lang and Miguel Mancillas as well as Choreographer-in-Residence, Fernando Bujones, 8 p.m. Fri. & Sat. and 2 p.m. Sat. & Sun., Ed Landreth Auditorium, general admission is $8 at the door, free with TCU ID. Call ext. 7615.

April 4

TCU Horn Ensemble concert, Alton Adkins and Aaron Pino directing, 7:30 p.m., PepsiCo Recital Hall.*

April 5

Friends of the TCU Library hosting CBS news anchor Bob Schieffer '59, 6:30 p.m. Kelly Center, open to the public, $30/person by March 30. Call ext. 6109 for reservations.

(Latin Arts from front)

The remainder of the LAAF schedule, including films, a lecture and music events, will be detailed in future issues of TCU This Week. For more information visit the Web site at www.LatinArts.tcu.edu or call ext. 7143. ♦

Flute virtuoso James Galway teaching here today

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC IS HOSTING a flute masterclass by Sir James Galway from 3 - 8 p.m. today in PepsiCo Recital Hall. While TCU music students will be part of the class, it is also drawing participants from the Texas Flute Society. More than 300 flutists are expected to attend, according to organizer Karen Adrian (School of Music). Admission is $35, which entitles attendees to bring a flute.

Galway and his wife, Lady Jeanne Galway, who is also a flutist, will present a concert at Bass Performance Hall at 8 p.m. Tuesday as part of the Cliburn Concerts series.

Galway, a native of Belfast, Ireland, is regarded as both a supreme interpreter of the classical flute repertoire and a consummate entertainer whose appeal crosses all musical boundaries. He has recorded over 50 albums on RCA. ♦

Kinesiology bringing in noted diabetes expert as Green Honors Chair

THE DEPARTMENT OF KINESIOLOGY hosts Dr. Abhimanyu Garg, a leading researcher on diabetes as a Green Honors Chair Thursday, April 1. He will present four lectures between 9:30 a.m. - 6 p.m., ranging from proper diet for diabetics to understanding inherited and acquired fat storing diseases. All lectures are free and open to the public.

Dr. Garg is a professor of internal medicine and chief of the division of nutrition and metabolic diseases at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas. He also is a senior clinical nutrition research scholar and associate program director in the Center for Human Nutrition at UT Southwestern Medical Center, and director of the diabetes clinic at the VA North Texas Health Care System in Dallas.

For more information, contact Meena Shah at ext. 6871 or m.shah@tcu.edu. ♦

Purple-White game April 3

TCU FOOTBALL FANS CAN GET THEIR first look at the 2004 Horned Frogs April 3 at 10 a.m. during the annual Purple-White game at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The game is free and open to the public.

The team, which returns 14 starters off of last year's 11-2 squad, will workout in an offense vs. defense scrimmage format for about one hour, according to Director of Football Operations Mike Sinquefeld.

In addition, the team will hold its annual TCU Football Banquet later that same evening at the Round-Up Inn at Will Rogers Memorial Center. A silent auction begins at 6:30 p.m. and the dinner begins at 8 p.m. Cost for the event is $30. For more information on the banquet or to reserve seats, contact Mike at ext. 7970. ♦

Bob Schieffer is dinner speaker for Library event

CBS-TV NEWS ANCHOR (AND FORT Worth native) Bob Schieffer will be the featured speaker at a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday, April 5 at the Dee J. Kelly Alumni and Visitors Center. The event is sponsored by the Friends of the TCU Library.

Reservations are $30 per person. Checks payable to the TCU Library should be received there by March 30 at TCU Box 298400. For information, phone ext. 6109.

One of TCU's most distinguished graduates, Schieffer was a reporter for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram in the early 1960s. He later joined the local NBC-TV affiliate as a news reporter and anchor and moved to Washington, DC to work for CBS News 31 years ago. Since 1991, he has been anchor and moderator of Face the Nation each Sunday morning on CBS.

In 2003, his bestseller This Just In, What I Couldn't Tell You on TV landed on The New York Times' bestseller list. Copies will be available at the dinner, for purchase and signing. ♦

Annual Fund seeks support of TCU faculty and staff

THE FACULTY/STAFF ANNUAL FUND Drive is under way, with Bob Vigeland (Neeley School) and Mike Scott (financial aid) as co-chairs of this year's initiative. The goal is to raise $150,000 (up from the $144,000 given last year) and to increase campus participation in Annual Fund from 42% to 50%.

Meetings are being held across campus and will continue until mid-April. Volunteers from each department were recruited to lead the effort within their areas. They include: Ellen Shelton and Harry Parker (College of Fine Arts), June Koelker (library), Darron Turner (student affairs), Jan Fox (academic affairs), Steve Mann (Neeley School), Angie Larkin-Ravaloli (athletics) and John Breyer (College of Science & Engineering).

Also Paulette Burns (College of Health & Human Sciences), Janelle Davila (ranch management), Tommy Thomason (College of Communication), Sam Dietz (School of Education), Arturo Flores (AddRan), Dave Mestemaker (physical plant and facility services), Vince Pankey (administrative services), Sandra Mackey (admissions), Pat Miller (registrar), Wendy Crowley (finance) and Mike TenEyck (information services). ♦

"Race for the Cure" team forming for April 10 event

IT'S TIME TO REGISTER FOR participation in the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation "Race for the Cure" scheduled for April 10 downtown, beginning at 7:30 a.m. in Sundance Square. Cost is $25 per person and covers entry fee, t-shirt and race cap.

A TCU Frogs team has been part of the race for the past four years, in honor and memory of campus colleagues who have been touched by the disease. The TCU Staff Assembly Community Service Committee is organizing the group. To register for the team, contact Julie Graver at ext. 7713 or Hao Tran at ext. 7778. ♦

WEDDING

David Grebel (extended education) and Katherine Elizabeth Godby were married March 20 in Broadway Baptist Church.

DEATH

Sympathy is extended to Doris Wallace (journalism) in the death of her mother, Geraldene Napier, on March 21. Funeral services were held March 22 in North Richland Hills.

CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE: Twin mattress in good condition, $10. Quasar 1.2 cubic ft (large) microwave in excellent condition, $40. Call ext. 7280.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

The Human Resources office lists the following vacancies as of March 24. For more information on any of these positions, call ext. 7790.

Accompanist/Ballet/Temporary staff - Ballet/Modern Dance
Manager Residential Housekeeping - Residential Services
Associate Director Residential Services - Residential Services
Minister to the University - University Ministries
Asst. Dir. Bands/Coord. Instrumental Music Ed - Music
Assistant Director of Fitness & Wellness - Campus Recreation
Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach - Athletics
Head Women's Rifle Team Coach - 40% - Athletics
Assistant Director Recreation Facilities - Campus Recreation
Director Academic Advising/Coord. Athl. Elig. - Athletics
Assistant to Director/Tennis Professional - Athletics
Administrative Assistant - Brite (Admissions)
Craft Tech Supervisor/Mech. & Elect. Maintenance - Physical Plant
Data Control Specialist - DIS
EMCS Operator - Physical Plant
Security Guard - TCU Police
Service Assistant - Facility Services
Service Assistant - 75% - Facility Services

Gardening tip from Robert Sulak in physical plant: Cool loving seasonal color plants such as dianthus, geraniums, snapdragons and petunias can be planted now. Do not plant caladiums until the soil temperature is 70 degrees.