Mr. Amon Carter,
Fort Worth Star Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

In line with your request over the telephone, I am enclosing you something of an agreement I think should be followed in connection with our Bond subscriptions.

I am not particularly tied to this thing in every detail, in fact, I am not all together satisfied with it, but it is about the best I could do, and I have consulted one of my local T. C. U. Lawyers who seems to think it contains the necessary elements to make the agreement stand up in the event that any one gets obstreperous, after subscribing for bonds in good faith.

This agreement could be single spaced and printed so as to take up a good deal less space, and it might be a good idea to have these executed in duplicate, giving the subscriber the carbon and the solicitor the original.

This is another mere detail, and your committee will probably have some specific ideas along these lines.

Good luck to you, and if at any time I can help just give me a ring and after I discharge my duties at the bank any day, I will be glad to do any pushing that I can.

Yours very truly,
