Friends--a few hours ago--40,000 football fans paid tribute to two of the nation's mightiest eleven--Fordham and Texas Christian. Fordham is still undefeated, but not before T.C.U.'s Horned Frogs put up a great battle. Tonight--in honor of the great state of Texas--we have as our guests two of the foremost citizens of the Lone Star State--Mr. Anson Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and No. 1 rooster for the Texas-Christian Team, and Leo Dutch Meyer, head coach of Texas Christian's Horned Frogs. But first let me introduce...MR. ANSON CARTER (APPLAUSE)

RIPLEY

Well, now Anson--I'm sure certainly glad to see you again!

CARTER

Glad to see you again, Bob Ripley. I see you're still wearing that ten-gallon hat I gave you down in Fort Worth last year.

RIPLEY

Yes, Anson, and I'm waiting for that turkey you send us every Thanksgiving.

CARTER

You shall have it, Bob. And, believe it or not, it's going to be the finest and biggest bird that ever graced a festive board.

RIPLEY

Thanks, Anson, if it comes from Texas, I know it'll be big. But say, I want to congratulate you on two very inspiring sights at the Polo Grounds today--that fine Texas Christian Band you had with you and that great football team.

CARTER

Well, Bob, Believe It or Not, we've got the biggest horns of any college team in the country and how we can blow them! But as for the team, well, I'm mighty proud of those Texas boys, but I'm going to step aside for the man who's responsible for putting that great T.C.U. team on the field today. Here he is, Bob. MR. LEO HATCH MEYER. (APPLAUSE).

MEYER

Hi, Bob--hello, folks!

RIPLEY

Glad to see you again, Hatch. Say--with thirteen lettermen gone from last year's team--you've certainly come along pretty fast.
