O'BRIEN SMASHES FOR FROG TOUCHDOWN! Here's DAVEY O'BRIEN going the Rice line for the only counter in the game at the T. C. U. Stadium Saturday afternoon. Davey rammed inside tackle and scored with his helmet plowing into the chest of OLLIE CORDILL (70), Rice back. The play went through MASON MAYNE'S guard and the Frog captain is lying on the ground under Cordill after blocking out the hole.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—Pitt's rangy Panthers, playing their last home game, kept their undefeated record intact today by bowling over their longtime rival, Penn State, 28 to 7. The Nittany Lions smothered Pittsburgh's power in one period, the third, to get their only score.

Score by periods:
Penn State 0 0 7 0—7
Pittsburgh 14 7 0 7—28

S. M. U.'s great Bobby Wilson ran and passed them dizzy, 21 to 0. Only today the Coliseum seemed filled with Bobby Wilsons.

The Uclans scored first on a long pass from Halfback Washington to his end Strode, 33 yards away on the goal line. The next came on a sustained 82-yard drive, with General Washington leading the way until he gave the ball to Billy Bob Williams, sub fullback, to score from the one-yard line. En route Washington passed 26 yards to Walt Schell to set up the scoring thrust.

Uclan Pass Backfires.
Then the complexion of the game changed. Matty Bell's men started from their own 23 and with young Jack Morrison doing most of the firing, passed four times—and there was a touchdown. Washington interrupted the march once to snare a pass and run 60 yards across the line, but his mates had been off-side. The Mustang score came on a short pass, Morrison to Pete Acker.

When the second half opened, with Bob Belville, Dan Patterson and Morrison in the backfield, the Mustangs charged 62 yards, mixing more ground than aerial plays, but

Safety Thwarts Late Rice Rush

It doesn't make any difference how you spell it—"Lane" or "Lain"—they all turn sooner or later.

Ernie Lain, the barn-doorish sophomore halfback who carried Rice Institute so far in the Southwest Conference football race, turned here at the T. C. U. stadium Saturday afternoon. A fierce charging Christian line and an alert secondary not only blunted his power drives and stopped his passes, but bent them back into such a "U" turn that T. C. U. marched off the field with a 7 to 2 victory.

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 20 (AP).—Sweeney—Charles Aloysius Sweeney—told it to Northwestern today.

The Fighting Irish of Notre Dame conquered their Big Ten arch rival, Northwestern, 7 to 0, in freezing, windswept Dyche Stadium, and it was Sweeney, hero of Notre Dame's triumph over Navy and Minnesota, who scored the single touchdown, result of a second quarter "break."

It was Sweeney also who contributed defensive gems which helped keep the desperate Wildcats, playing their final game of the season, from scoring.

COACHES LOOK JITTERY -- FROGS DERAIL LAIN -- OWLS DEBATE REFEREE

TAKE THAT SAFETY! Just before Star-Telegram Photographer Tom Dillard snapped this picture in the fading minutes of the game at T. C. U. Stadium Saturday afternoon, COACH DUTCH MEYER, right, had sent Bob Cook into the Frog lineup with counsel to give the Rice Owls a safety and stop a late rush. The Frogs followed this strategy and Coach Meyer settled back in relief. The fellow with the head-phones is ASSISTANT COACH MIKE BRUMBELOW.

BLACKMON DROPS ERNIE: The Horned Frogs' LINNON BLACKMON played a blazing defensive game against Rice at T. C. U. Stadium Saturday afternoon. Linnon is shown here throwing the great ERNIE LAIN (66), of Rice, at the line in a thrust at tackle in the third quarter. Blackmon was easily one of the top defensive stars in the Frog lineup, throwing Lain, Cordill and the other Owl backs for frequent losses.

AFTER-TOUCHDOWN ARGUMENT: The Owls gathered about Referee Ab Curtis after Davey O'Brien of T. C. U. scored the only touchdown of the game at the Purple Stadium Saturday afternoon. Some of the Rice players believed that O'Brien did not go over the goal line. PAUL HANCOCK (23), is the angry-looking Owl in the foreground. DON LOONEY (30), is the laughing Frog on the right.

PAPER WORK PAVED WAY FOR LINE

(Play by Play on Page 4)

BY AMOS MELTON, Star-Telegram Sports Writer.

"We simply outdefensed them." That was Coach Dutch Meyer's opinion of what happened out in the T. C. U. Stadium Saturday afternoon as the Purple dropped the Rice Owls, 7-2. If you dig back into the proceedings, the conviction that The Dutchman put his finger down perfectly on the deciding factors grows and grows.

For one afternoon anyway the Frogs were the best defensive team in the country. Even the Purple's great stands against L. S. U. in the Sugar Bowl in 1935 couldn't compare with the way the 1937 Frogs put the damper on Ernie Lain & Co.

When a team with the power and versatility of the current Rice outfit is held to three first downs, the defense was really potent. Of course, the Frog line from end to end turned in a great game. And Linebackers Ki Aldrich and Linnon Blackmon were all-Americans for the day. But there was more to it than that. There were hours of "paper work" and careful preparation, and when the laurels are handed out don't overlook The Dutchman, Mike Brumbelow and Howard Grubbs.

Triumph of Planning. It would be "telling" to put down here just what defensive moves the Frogs used. But we can say that by constantly changing maneuvers the defense had the Owls confused all the way. It was a triumph of fine planning as well as perfect execution.

Coach Jimmy Kitts of the Owls was depressed and half disgusted. "Frankly," he gloomed in the Owl dressing room, after the game, "I don't believe we played anywhere near up to par. Our blocking wasn't strong enough to break an egg shell and in my opinion, we had only one back that had the drive and desire to go. He was Red Vickers. A team that can't take the ball and go places has no chance to win and we didn't have the determination to go today."

Jimmy thought the Frog line turned in a great game and had special praise for Ki Aldrich.

"There's as fine a ball player as I've seen," he said. Assistant Coach Cecil Griggs concurred in the opinion that the Owls didn't play their best. On the other side, Coach Mike Brumbelow of the Frogs was equally as confident that the Frogs turned in their poorest blocking game on offense of the year.

Davey Produces Again. David O'Brien proved beyond all dispute that he has the cool head and determination under pressure necessary to a great quarterback. Here's what happened in those last few seconds.

The Frogs took over the ball on their six-yard line. There was 45 seconds to play. A punt would give the Owls one last effort and Davey was determined to prevent that. Carrying the ball himself, he smashed into the line twice, using up every possible second in getting the play's off. On third down, a man in motion penalty pushed the Frogs back to their one-yard line but there were only six seconds to go.

Bob Cook came into the game and David knew the Dutchman had instructed him what to do. Cook could have talked at once for the penalty would have been only half a yard. But he waited and O'Brien craftily tossed a pass safely out of bounds. Davey had already thought about the safety but Cook confirmed it from the bench. There were three seconds to play as Davey calmly stepped out of the end zone for the automatic safety that was the last play of the game.

Not once during the trying last minute did the mighty atom get rattled or make a mistake. And in passing, his touchdown drive was a masterpiece of quick thinking. The play was aimed at the rice right tackle but the hole was blocked.

In a flash, the Little Man saw the small hole inside the tackle as the defender slid out to meet the play and he smashed through with the power of a 200-pounder. Dave's 150 pounds were worth much more to the Frogs Saturday than Lain's 218. The little lad can go for our money.

The Breckenridge "Twins" Sophomores Spud Taylor and Earl Clark, played their first full game together. And the youngsters were almost flawless. Earl knocked down a pass or two that it seemed impossible to reach. And the bubbling Spud was as happy as a kid with a new toy when he made the run that resulted in the winning score. He had been open several times before but David hadn't been able to get the ball to him. When he did, the result wrecked the Owl hopes.

Linnon Blackmon, the hard luck senior, who finishes his eligibility against S. M. U., is certainly bowing out in a blaze of glory. The boy who was ordered to give up football last Spring after a severe head injury has carried on with heart-clutching courage and his game Saturday was the best of his career. Blackie did everything well.

There were no bad injuries. Bull Rogers was kicked in the head and asked to come out of the game when he couldn't remember defensive signals. He was o. k. Saturday night. Aldrich has been nursing a back hurt for several days and was bumped again but the tough one will be ready to go again Monday.

CORDILL'S KICK -- SAVES OWLS -- EMBARRASSMENT

BOOTING FROM END ZONES: Davey O'Brien's phenomenal punt out on the Rice one-foot line put the Owls on the hot spot in the second quarter of the game at the

SPUD SPEARS -- DAVEY'S PASS

FIRST DOWN FROGS! That was the cry after SPUD TAYLOR (45), of T. C. U. after Davey O'Brien's pass on the Rice 25 and was not stopped until

CELEBRATION STARTS DAY EARLY

Special to The Star-Telegram.
COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 20.—Primed to the hilt for its biennial assignment as Mecca of Southwest grid fans, this little college town stands ready for the crowd of 30,000 or more which will jam it for two days in connection with the annual Texas Aggie-University of Texas Longhorn Thanksgiving Day football game.

DEFENDS TITLE -- AT BETHEL TRIAL

BIRD DOG ON THE SPOT: Definitely a marked dog is Texas Open Champion NAVASOTA SHOALS JAKE who defends his title against a great field, including National Champion Air Pilot Sam in Texas Open Championship Field Trial Club's trial over the Bethel course near Palestine, starting Monday.

RAMS CLOSE GRID YEAR THURSDAY

After a week's layoff which put all players in the best shape since the season opened, Texas Wesleyan will wind up its 1937 football year with a game against Daniel Baker in Brownwood Thanksgiving Day. Kickoff for the Ram-Hill Billie battle is set for 2:30. Coach Gus Miller's Red and Black machine has never beaten a Daniel Baker eleven in three attempts. In 1935 at La Grava Field in Fort Worth the two teams battled to a 7-7 stalemate. Last year at Brownwood the Rams showed the Billies all over the field but weakened in the end and lost 0-7. T. W. C. has five wins against three losses to present as 1937 records in games played thus far, while Daniel Baker has four wins against five defeats. Coach Miller, Quarterback Red Rutledge and Line Capt. John Bray, who scouted the Billies when they posed out Southwest last week, believe that the Rams can win against the Blue and Grey team coached by Gene Taylor only by playing their best brand of football. In Loraine Whitmire and Cliff Funderburk the Billies have a pair of backs who can scat. Because of the Billies' luck in passing this season the Rams will be on the lookout for aerials. T. W. C. 100, probably will throw the leather around if the going isn't good enough on the ground. The Ram squad will leave here by bus after a short signal drill on the T. W. C. practice field Thursday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. Six Rams will be playing their last football game for Texas Wesleyan. The seniors are Fulback, Moran, Coach, Guards Robert Randolph and Milton McCleskey, End Dan Rhone and Halfbacks Hall Splawn and a Monroe McCarty.

Field Trial Club Drawings Today

BY FRANK TOLBERT.
Star-Telegram Sports Writer.
Texas' Autumn field trial season opens on the beautiful Bethel courses near Palestine and over the rolling hills of the Buster Haggood Ranch in Clay County this week. Twenty-five of the Nation's greatest bird dogs will be at Bethel today ready to compete in the Texas Open Championship, richest single stakes in the world. Drawing for the Texas Open Championship Field Trial Club's annual trials will be held tonight at the O'Neill Hotel in Palestine. The championship stakes is a $1,000 guaranteed event, the champion to receive $1,000 and the runner-up $500. To the victor, also, goes a leg on the Sid Ferris' Joe memorial trophy, valued at $1,000. All Age Stake First. The Bethel trials will open Monday morning with the all age stake, open to any pointer or setter, as well as to any handler. The starting fee will be $20, 75 per cent to be divided on a 50-30-20 basis. Heats will be run 45 minutes. Entries close at the time of the drawing, tonight. Second will be the Derby, open to any pointer or setter whelped on or after Jan. 1, 1937. The starting fee will be $20, and the fees will be divided among the three leaders on the same basis as in the all age. The drawing will be on Monday night. Drawing for the championship stake, entries for which closed on Nov. 1, will be tonight. Heats will be run one and one-half hours each. Fees are $20 for nomination and $30 to start. Heading the list of entries in the $1,500 stake is National Champion Air Pilot Sam, pointer, owned by L. D. Johnson, Evansville, Ind.; Texas Open Champion Navasota Shoals Jake, and Pete Fielding, pointers, and Champion Ten Broecks Bonnet, setter, both owned by W. W. Bowles of Houston; Spunky Creek Boy, Spunky Creek Co. and Spunky Creek Farmer, pointers, all owned by Ernie Schaffer of Hutchinson, Kan.; Norias Daisy and Black Hawk Kid, pointers, owned by Carl Duffield of Tyler; Rexson's Viking, pointer, owned by A. L. Huber of San Antonio; King Kong, setter, owned by J. B. Daniel, Fairfield, Texas; and Spunky Creek Ace, owned by J. N. Edens Jr., Corsicana. Entries close Tuesday for three-day joint trial of the Fort Worth Pointer and Setter Club and the Northwest Texas Field Trial Association at Buster Haggood's 30,000-acre ranch near Bellevue. Bellevue Events Limited. The trials will start Friday morning with the running of the Amateur Derby. Any pointer or setter whelped on or after Jan. 1, 1936, is eligible. Handlers must be amateurs. The open all age stake, to be run directly after completion of the Derby, is the big money event of the trial at Haggood's. Entry fee is $20 and 75 per cent of the fees will be divided 50-30-20. ## LIONS CAPTURE TITLE, 20-0

DENTON, Nov. 20.—The North Texas Teachers College Eagles fell before a second half rally of the East Texas Teachers College of Commerce here this afternoon, and the visitors took the Lone Star Conference crown with a 20-0 victory. By winning the Lions kept their state clean in conference games for the season. The victors were doped to win past performances of the season, but after the whistle sounded the Eagles, led by a passing attack by Reeves and Hester, surprised the huge crowd by keeping the Lions on the run during much of the first half, which ended scoreless for both teams. At the beginning of the second half, however, the Lions came on with a savage attack that turned the tide and kept the Eagles on the run throughout the remainder of the game. Big Bill Defee led the Lion attack and drove to near the Denton line twice in succession in the third quarter, enabling Tully to take the ball over first. Hodge made another touchdown soon. No more scoring came until late in the fourth quarter, when Garrison made a touchdown. East Texans made 18 first downs to eight for Denton, all the latter being made in the first half. The lineup: North Texas—Vitek and Burns, ends; Martin and Dudley, tackles; Collins and Ricks, guards; Killian, center; Hester, quarterback; Shoemaker and Reeves, halfbacks; Reppas, fullback. East Texas—Pirkey and Owens, ends; Hudek and Lightfoot, tackles; Neal and Hodge, guards; Morphet, center; Taylor, quarterback; Montgomery and Defee, halfbacks; Grook, fullback.

Ban 'Smoke' Cars At Coliseum Races

Heavy smoke-producing 2-cycle motors will be barred from the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum midweek racing shows until stronger velocity fans are installed, Shirley Johnson, co-promoter of the races, said last night. Johnson said the ban would not reduce average speed of the races, which are held every Wednesday night, as 4-cycle motor machines won most of the prize money last week. At the beginning of the second half, however, the Lions came on with a savage attack that turned the tide and kept the Eagles on the run throughout the remainder of the game. Big Bill Defee led the Lion attack and drove to near the Denton line twice in succession in the third quarter, enabling Tully to take the ball over first. Hodge made another touchdown soon. No more scoring came until late in the fourth quarter, when Garrison made a touchdown. East Texans made 18 first downs to eight for Denton, all the latter being made in the first half. The lineup: North Texas—Vitek and Burns, ends; Martin and Dudley, tackles; Collins and Ricks, guards; Killian, center; Hester, quarterback; Shoemaker and Reeves, halfbacks; Reppas, fullback. East Texas—Pirkey and Owens, ends; Hudek and Lightfoot, tackles; Neal and Hodge, guards; Morphet, center; Taylor, quarterback; Montgomery and Defee, halfbacks; Grook, fullback.

SUNDAY ON THE RADIO • WBAP • SOUTHWESTERN STATIONS

Radio Has Lifted Leaf From Film Bill of Fare

Almost Every Program Becoming 'Variety Conscious'; Sunday Most Popular Day.

By Bill Potts. Into the realm of crowded air that is present-day radio there is being injected a definite type program that is almost identical with the bill of fare offered at the neighborhood movie—the so-called "variety show."

The increase in the number of these mixture hours can not be labeled a trend, for some have lived now a number of years. Week by week new programs of this sort sprout wings, and day by day old timers add a bit here and a bit there until they are too "variety conscious."

There is at least one of these programs on the air any night in the week. Some—and these are not exceptions—will give a listener news, comedy, music and a dramatic sketch or play all in one. That's exactly what's offered at the average movie.

Sunday is the hey-day for these varieties as hour by hour they are aired with every form of entertainment. Each is known by its star name or catch name, and nearly every star is a comedian or singer. For instance: Today the dial will offer Jack Benny, "Hollywood Show Case," Phil Baker, Major Bowes, George Jessel, Joe Penner, "The Time of Your Life," Charlie McCarthy, Feg Murray and Jeanette MacDonald.

Here's a few for the Sunday listeners:

"SEEING STARS" Publicity does a swell and deserved job for Feg Murray's regular 6:30 show on Sunday. The brothers, Ruggles, Charles and Wesley, will be two of his guests tonight on the WFAA-NBC circuit. Charles is the comedian and Wesley the director and each is a "big name" in film-land. They will give Murray a rapid-fire history of the place where stars are born. Another guest will be Marjorie Weaver, who is likely to be one of those newborn stars because of her performance in "Second Honeymoon." Ozzie Nelson's orchestra and Harriett Hilliard offer the music. By the way, Murray's reference the other night by Miss Barrett, "snoppyquop," has caused much ado about nothing. For it really means nothing. A "snoppyquop" is a fantastic fable animal living only in the star seer's imagination. Most of us draw something of the kind on the backs of envelopes and call them "scribbles."

GAL APER Sheila Barrett, mistress of mimicry, and Roland Young this afternoon at 4:30 will bring to the air a new version of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" on "The Time of Your Life" show. Miss Barrett is climbing the ladder by making fun of people, and Young is the British comedian of "Topper."

Sandwiched into the stuffed program will be an erudite bit of satire on commercialized football by Miss Barrett. Probably also worth a hearing will be Joe Rines and his orchestra.

WOODEN HEAD Charlie McCarthy meets some real competition at 7 tonight on the 800 kilocycle wave when Billie Burke, screen comedienne, trades inanities with him on the Don Ameche-Edgar Bergen hour. Ameche and Miss Burke will do the drama first, and then Bergen's offspring takes a bow. An appearance with Charlie is rapidly becoming one of those "end of the rainbows" for Hollywood. Nelson Eddy will sing "Through the Years," "Danse Macabre" and "Thomas Rotunda." The hour will be rounded out with Dorothy Lamour and Stroud Twins.

TONIGHT Woodbury's HOLLYWOOD PLAYHOUSE

WBAP, 10:30 P. M. TYRONE POWER with FLORENCE RICE in the Riotous Stage Hit "THE TRUTH GAME"

Ribbers Put the Bee On Fiddler Benny

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 20.—It happened at the Dunes the other night when the Palm Springs Club is not so crowded. Jack Benny borrowed a fiddle and began to play. Ribbers passed the word around and the room began to empty. Alice Faye, Tony Martin, Ed Gouling, Mae Sunday, Dave Harris and a few more of the Hollywood regulars slipped quietly into the bar. Finally, the only people left in the room were Benny and Marcel Damaz. Jack came over to the restaurant man's table and fiddled a solo.

When he was finished Lamaze dug into his pocket and gave Benny a dollar.

Showing Roland Time of His Life

The chances are the gal on the floor has just finished depicting Roland Young in one of his off moments. For the man with the scolding finger is Young and the girl is Sheila Barrett, radio mimic. The two will appear in the "Time of Your Life" show at 4:30 this afternoon over WBAP-NBC. The Young-Barrett drama will be a streamlined version of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

TEXAS SOPRANO Gets Audition

Lucia Graeser of Tyler Will Make Second Appearance on 'Met' Opera Program.

Symphonic music, as today's array indicates, has assumed a prominent position on radio networks. In the classical procession is the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air" at 4 o'clock on WBAP-NBC. A Texas soprano, Lucia Graeser, will make her second appearance on the program. As a result of her remarkable voice heard on the program last year, she secured a spot on the coast-to-coast program for 13 weeks. Her home is in Tyler.

Miss Graeser started her career as an interpretative dancer but soon switched to singing. Another on the "Met" program today is Abasha Robofsky, Baltimore baritone.

Charles Kullman, youthful American tenor, soloist on the "Sunday Evening" program, will appear over KGKO-KRLD-CBS at 8. He will be accompanied by Eugene Ormandy and the Symphony Orchestra and Chorus.

For the past few years he has been in concert with Arturo Toscanini. A few of his selections will be "I Greet Thee, Dear Venice," "The Fair City on the Danube" and the gongola song from "A Night in Venice."

Arturo Rubinstein, noted Polish pianist, will make his first broadcast appearance in America when he plays as soloist with the Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra directed by John Barbirolli at 2 on KGKO-KRLD-CBS. This will be an all-Russian concert, all selections being by composers of that country. Deems Taylor will comment.

The Mutual Broadcasting System at 8:15 this morning offers another rendition of the "Deep South," idyllic saga of plantation days.

Marius Thor, WBAP concert master, will play Schubert's "Ave Maria" as a feature of his violin recital at 3:30 this afternoon.

Ziegfeld Star. Fanny Brice, featured in "Everybody Sing," works as Billie Burke's maid in the musical. On Broadway, Miss Brice worked for Miss Burke's husband, the late Ziegfeld.

Stellar Boss. Between scenes of "Mannequin," Joan Crawford will discuss the redecoration of her dressing room.

BY JOHN SELBY. LONG BRANCH, N. J., Nov. 20.—The most unusual specimen of the genus piano prodigy of recent years seems to be 11-year-old Julius (Buddy) Katchen, who lives with his parents in the west end of Long Branch.

Buddy plays piano so well that the ancient and dignified Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra of New York is presenting him as soloist in the D Minor Mozart Concerto Nov. 22, on which day the orchestra plays its annual pension fund benefit.

But Buddy is also driving his family slowly and gently mad because he insists on singing. He has a passion to be a tenor "and then a baritone," and nobody gets any peace—not even Buddy's younger sister, whose name is Rita, and who looks exactly like "Patience" Abbe, the girl who wrote those amusing travel books, with her brothers.

This is because Buddy's voice has not yet decided what it wants to do. Sometimes he is a tenor and sometimes a soprano.

Likes Football. Buddy is compromising on his collection of old Caruso records. He's got a whole album full now, and when he goes to New York to rehearse his concerto his father, Ira Katchen, has promised to take him to an old record shop on Vesey Street and perhaps buy him some more.

He is also devoting considerable time to football. He spends most of his free time in the wide side yard kicking, and claims 45 yards on a drop—which nobody in the family believes.

He is a swimmer—"the instructor always uses me to show how to do a backstroke," says Julius. "I specialize on the backstroke."

Anyway, Julius' chunky little body flashed back and forth the length of the West End Club pool 105 times this Summer before he could be got out of the thing. Everybody thought he'd be exhausted, "but I wasn't. I wasn't a bit tired."

Rita (who also has a nickname, "B-B") giggled. "Well," said she, "not very."

Rita is the balance wheel, and means as well. It is not strange that Julius took to the piano like a duck to water. His great-grandmother, Mrs. R. Parsonnet of Newark, is 83 years old and still plays a little.

Composes a Fugue. His grandfather insists that he is almost equally gifted at composition; he made a fugue one day after he had had that form described

Country 'Doc'

Bringing to radio a role he made famous in the movies, Jean Hersholt is the kindly country doctor who plays "Dr. Christian of River's End" each Sunday afternoon at 1:30 on KGKO-KRLD-CBS.

TCU Teacher To Be Honored

A number of local programs will be presented today on WBAP, KTAT and KFJZ.

From the campus studio of KTAT at 4 will come an address by Lowell T. Bodiford in honor of Miss Eula Lee Carter, associate professor of Spanish at T. C. U. A violin recital by David Montgomery, accompanied by Q'Zella Oliver Jeffus, also will be presented.

Mrs. Ellen Jane Lindsay, Fort Worth soprano, will be Gene Baugh's "Melodic Moments" guest at 10:20 this morning from WBAP. A musical tidbit will be a Rudolph Friml composition, "Po-Ling and Ming Toy," a Chinese romance.

Ted Graves and William Barclay give their twin piano version of "Juba Dance" at 10:15 this morning from WBAP.

The T. C. U. alumnae program will be aired at 3:45 on WBAP with Cy Leland as master of ceremonies. President Frank Ogilvie will speak, and Leland will interview Coach Meyer. Mrs. Charles A. Stephens has charge of the program.

Others: "Czech Revels" on KTAT at 2. Radio Bible Class on KTAT at 1. Rev. Joe Scheumack on KFJZ at 1. Marius Thor, violinist, on WBAP at 3:30.

Mrs. D. T. Bowks of Breckenridge will be the speaker Monday at 3 p. m. on KTAT for the weekly program of the First District Conference of Parents and Teachers. She will talk on "How the Home May Co-operate with the Schools."

Katchen Kid Is Regular Fellow—Getting Ready for Bow With Philharmonic, Thinks 'Buddy' Good Name

Always been, and he probably will be traded for someone else before long. He thought Artur Schnabel took liberties with the Beethoven sonatas he played one night in Newark. Julius uses and likes the great German's edition of the sonatas, and caught its distinguished editor every time he departed from the text.

Buddy plays mostly the standard literature. He likes Chopin, Beethoven, Mozart and Schumann right now. He likes some of Debussy as well, but the moderns he cares very little for—very few children do, oddly enough.

Impressed Ormandy. Has played only once with a big orchestra. That was in Philadelphia recently, and he got that engagement by direct action. Eugene Ormandy had promised to hear him "some day." This Fall Julius got together the score and parts of the Mozart D minor concerto, and walked into a rehearsal of the orchestra.

"Are you Mr. Ormandy?" he asked everybody he met, and finally he got to Ormandy. "I've come to play for you," he informed the conductor. He is still boyish enough to be the subject of wonderment to childhood. This week it was Rita who was remarkable. Rita had a cold, and developed a fever blister. Buddy never has had one, "but I'm very subject to poison ivy."

Sure enough, when he looked on his bare leg there was something that might have been ivy.

Puerto Rican Commemorative to Be Placed on Sale at Unusual Hour; House Is Due to Pass Stamp Bill

STAMP COLLECTING BY OSBORNE B. BOND

The Puerto Rican commemorative of the special United States Territory series will be placed on sale at San Juan at 12:01 a. m. on Nov. 25. The reason for this unusual hour for the sale of the new stamp is because Nov. 25 happens to be a Thursday and it is on Thursdays that mail is dispatched to the United States mainland by steamer from San Juan. The mail boat usually departs in the forenoon.

Had the stamp been placed on sale at the regular hour for first stamp issues, which is usually about 8 a. m. on the first official day of sale, it would have meant that dealers and others servicing covers for a first day postmark would have been able to post only a very small number of covers before the mails closed for dispatch to the mainland. In order that collectors will not have to wait long for their first day covers the Puerto Rican stamp, the department has ordered that the mail steamer be held in San Juan until the afternoon of Nov. 25 and by the placing on sale of the stamps immediately after midnight a goodly number of the covers can be dispatched northwards from San Juan on the same day that the stamp goes on sale.

First numbers for the Puerto Rican stamp have been announced by the department. They are 21,721 to 21,724 inclusive. William Schrage designed the border and William A. Roach designed the central vignette. The engravers are John Eissler, picture, and George E. Huber, lettering.

Lewiston and Auburn, Maine, will become authorized stops on airmail route AM-27 between Augusta and Portland. The department will furnish special first day covers to the postmasters at both cities who will be instructed to hold for the first flight those covers that are sent to them by collectors.

To Vote On Bill Early. Before Congress reassembled last Monday, Representative James M. Mead, chairman of the House Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, announced that he will call up for a vote, at the earliest opportunity, the bill to permit the illustrating of United States stamps in newspapers and other publications. This is the bill that passed the Senate last session but was not reached on the House calendar before Congress adjourned. Mead expects the bill to pass.

To our good friend, Albert F. Kunze, we owe thanks for the suggestion that Philippine stamps, at the present time offer an excellent subject for special study. He says: "For many years the natives of the Philippine Islands have been striving for complete independence of government. They have fought the political battle at home and in the United States, with the final victory in the establishment of the present "Commonwealth Government" arrangement, which will result in ultimate independence after a graduated development of the present self-governing political establishment. With the inauguration of this plan Philippine people asserted themselves through the issuance of a series of new stamps. The future appeared bright and Manuel Quezon, the first president, felt that he had accomplished what his people had desired for generations.

A new situation, however, now appears to loom on the horizon of the Pacific. Japan has asserted herself in China and has been condemned by a committee of the society of nations as having been the aggressor in the present conflict which threatens the peace of the world. Many Philippine patriots discern what they believe to be a threatening situation on the wall and recognize that if the Japanese ever endeavor to capture their islands, they, alone and unaided, would be more or less powerless. This group of Philippine patriots now appears to be suggesting that statehood might be more desirable than independence. Should they prevail in their contentions, an interesting situation would arise, with reference to the "Commonwealth" stamps. They would offer a most interesting introduction in the history of a people and the development of a government. For those collectors who relish a broader view of stamp collecting than the mere technicalities of paper, watermark and perforations, the Commonwealth of the Philippines now seems to present an ideal country in which to specialize."

New 1938 Issues. In Washington they're talking about what might be the first commemorative series of the new year. Plans are being perfected for the issuance early in 1938 of the commemorative postage stamps which will have a direct bearing on the one hundred fiftieth anniversary of the forming of the Constitution of the United States. This series will depict the three branches of our Federal Government—legislative, executive and judicial.

The legislative branch of the Government will be represented by a stamp portraying the meeting of the first Congress under the Constitution. The meeting convened in New York City on March 4, 1789, and adjourned on March 3, 1791. The sessions of the Congress, however, did not actually begin until April 6, 1789, there being three of such sessions.

Then there will be a stamp representing the executive department of the Government. This will depict the ceremonies incident to the swearing in of George Washington as the first President of the United States. This took place in New York City on April 30, 1789. The third stamp in the series, representing the judicial branch of the Government, will bear a pictorial representation of the creation of the United States Supreme Court in September, 1789.

Details of the denominations, color and the subjects to be treated have not been worked out. It is possible that these three stamps might be the beginning of the Postoffice Department's schedule of stamp issues for 1938.

Algeria has issued a series of four large horizontal stamps to do honor to the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the city of Constantine, the third city of Algeria. It was once the capital of the Numidian kings and, rebuilt by the Emperor Constantine in the fourth century, it is situated on a magnificent rocky height, 2,150 feet above the Gorges of the Rhummel. The design gives us an excellent view of Constantine as it was in 1837 when it was won by France. The values of the stamps are 65c rose carmine, 1fr brown, 1.75fr deep turquoise and 2.15 fr red violet.

Four Austrian Stamps. Austria's annual Winter charity series will, like in previous years, consist of four stamps which will be inscribed "Winterhilfe 1937-1938." Four different types of nursing service will be used to show the central design which will be different for each value. Upon the 5c plus 2c deep green is a nurse putting clothing on a tiny infant. The 12c plus 3c dark brown shows another nurse feeding a hungry child. A nurse taking care of an aged man is pictured on the 24c plus 6c deep blue and nursing service for all of the sick is the subject of the 15c plus 1c copper red.

From France comes a new value in the current postage series. Of 55c denomination it is dull violet in color and shows the Peace design, type A45.

Norway has issued four more stamps in the new large format of the Lion design, type A16. The values are 25c orange brown, 30c deep ultramarine, 35c purple and 40c dark green.

Word from Australia is that there is a possibility the commonwealth may issue a special coronation commemorative before the end of the year. It seems, according to our correspondent, that the reason Australia had not had a special coronation issue was because no suitable photographs of the King and Queen were available.

A new stamp value from Liechtenstein is the 25c orange brown and buff. The design shows the old "Kapelle St. Michael" in the Samina Valley, an isolated secluded corner of the principality. A peasant girl is pictured in the foreground.

Winner at Eight. Marie Blake made her professional debut at the age of 8 as a vaudeville singer.
