OWLS DEBATE REFEREE

TAKING THAT SAFETY: Just before Star-Telegraph Photographer E. B. Dillard snapped this picture in the fading minutes of the game at T. C. U. Stadium Satu day afternoon, COACH DUTCH MAYER, right, had sent Bob Cook into the Frog lineup with reminder to give the Blue Line a safety and stop a late rush. The Frogs followed this strategy and Coach Mayer settled back in relief. The fellow with the head-phone is ASSISTANT COACH MIKE BRUMBLEW.

both assistant coaches, were watching their Owls punt safely to midfield after Davey O'Brien's kick out of the line. Rice foot ball had pleased the Owls in a good endommaging position. Hertshoberger is looking into the kick following the half while Kits is watching to see how O'Brien fields the kick.

AFTER-TOUCHDOWN ARGUMENT: The Owls gathered around Referee A. C. Curtis after Davey O'Brien at T. C. U. scored the only touchdown of the game at the Purple Stadium Saturday afternoon. Some of the Owls players believed that O'Brien did not hit the goal line.

SPUD SPEARS -- DAVEY'S PASS

FIRST DOWN FROGS: That was the cry after Spud Taylor (45), of T. C. U., gathered in Davey O'Brien's pass on the Rice 35 and was stopped until FRANK STEEN (16), of the Owls, brought him down on the 11. Spud shown here gapping just after he'd taken the flat running pass. (Steen-Telegram Photo by Tom Billlire).

ROOTING FROM END ZONES: Davey O'Brien's phantom punt out on the Rice one-foot line put the Owls on the hot seat in the second quarter of the game at the Frog Stadium Saturday afternoon. Ollie Cordill (78), Rice's leading scooper, was shown here bunting the Owls out of the predicament. His punt carried to the Owl 40. (Steen-Telegram Photo by Tom Billlire).

THAT IMPORTANT PLUS

"I LOOK FOR THAT IMPORTANT PLUS
In a Girl -- and in a Cigar"

What sets one girl apart from another is precisely what sets one cigar apart from another -- that important plus.

The flavor of a high personality.

Van Dyck has that plus. Finer, more expensive tobacco, a sweeter taste, a mellower, satisfying flavor, an aroma that's distinctive. In short, Van Dyck is an intriguing cigar -- one you'll like and cling to.

Men bought over 140 million Van Dyck's last year! Try one today! A nickel makes the introduction.
