Dear Senator: The D. E. Leathers family of Clarendon, which was chosen as the representative Texas family in the New York World's Fair contest of last summer and represented Texas at the Fair, has now been selected as the "Typical American Family". Present plans call for this family to be in Washington on either October twentytwo or twentythree, accompanied by Mr. Harvey D. Gibson, President of the New York World's Fair.

I have wired Steve Early asking if it will be possible for them to see the President on either date and hope that you also can arrange to be present at that time. I shall appreciate it if you will assist in getting this date arranged. Best regards.

Amon Carter
