

June 27, 1942.

Senator Tom Connally,
U. S. Senate Building,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Tom:

My son, Lt. Amon G. Carter, Jr., is now stationed in Northern Ireland, having arrived there on the last convoy. He is with the 91st Armored Field Artillery, Battery "B".

While I am not sure, the chances are he will have an opportunity sometime to visit London and I wonder if you would feel disposed to write a letter to Ambassador Winant stating that if Amon Junior should call on him to extend any courtesy consistent. If you write such a letter to the Ambassador, will you please send me a copy so that I may forward it to Amon Junior.

Thanking you and with best personal regards,
I am

Sincerely,

AGC.KD