COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

August 4, 1942.

Hon. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star Telegram,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Amon:

Responding to your letter of some time ago, beg to say that your friend, Mr. Seymour Stone, the distinguished artist, is now in my office working on me for the portrait which you mention.

It will be a great pleasure to have my portrait associated with that of yourself in the Texas Memorial Museum.

Sincerely,

His preliminary drawings are very fine.

T. C.
