Hon. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

My dear Amon:

I have been pleased to have your letter of August twenty-ninth respecting the difficulties Mr. Olive H. Ross is having with the WPB.

It has given me pleasure to present the facts which you set forth to the authorities at the War Production Board respecting the Haddorff Piano Company of Rockford, Illinois, in an effort to be of assistance to Mr. Ross.

You may be assured of my interest and willingness to be of assistance.

I am always glad to hear from you and you need never apologize for writing me.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely,

(Signed) Tom Connally
