Hon. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth,
Texas.

Dear Amon:

I received your note, which Webb handed me at Austin. I have undertaken to help him with regard to Dr. Mitchell. I shall continue to do what I can.

Of course, I regret not seeing you at Austin, but I readily understand your situation.

Let me express my gratitude to you for carrying an editorial regarding my renomination and re-election. This was most gracious of you and I appreciate it.

I should like very much to accept your invitation to come to Fort Worth, but I am sure that I cannot do so because my time is limited and I am under tremendous pressure.

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

TC/lb
