Dear Amon:

I have been distressed to learn that you have been ill and I hasten to express the hope that you may soon recover your normal strength. You must take care of yourself.

Alloe me to thank you for courtesies extended me by the Star-Telegram. Particularly, I appreciate editorial in your issue of November 18, 1946, entitled, "Connally's Diplomacy" and referring to a controversy between myself and Mr. Molotov.

With all good wishes for 1947,

I am

Sincerely,
