Dear Mr. Carter:

This is just a note to express to you and Mrs. Carter the sincere appreciation of Mrs. Robertson and myself for the splendid hospitality accorded us during our recent visit to Fort Worth on the occasion of the Airports Advisory Committee meeting. Your many courtesies and acts of thoughtfulness made our visit to your fair city an enjoyable one indeed.

You may be sure I am quite proud of the hat you gave me. I might tell you that ownership of one of the famous "Amon Carter" hats has been one of my ambitions for some time. I shall cherish this hat and remember with genuine admiration the fine friend who gave it to me.

Again, many thanks for everything.

Sincerely yours,

W. M. Robertson
Regional Administrator
