Mr. Amon B. Carter
Texas Hotel
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

Please accept my deep appreciation for the fine hospitality shown Mrs. Peters and myself while in your city on October 15th, 16th and 17th. Your hospitality and that of the people generally in Fort Worth is unequalled by few and excelled by none.

It was indeed a disappointment to both Mrs. Peters and myself that we were not able to attend the dinner given by you and Mrs. Carter at your Ranch "Shady Oaks" and I understand from my colleagues who were able to attend, that your dinner and entertainment were of the best and I regret that we could not be there.

Please accept my thanks for the "Shady Oaks" hat which you were so good as to send me by Mr. Yarborough. It is indeed beautiful and a perfect fit and will be worn with a great deal of satisfaction in remembrance of you.

I hope that you and Mrs. Carter will find it possible to visit Miami and Dade County in the near future and give us an opportunity to show you, in our small way, a little of the Dade County hospitality.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Respectfully yours,

Hugh Peters
