Dear Friend:

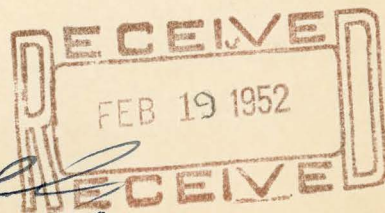

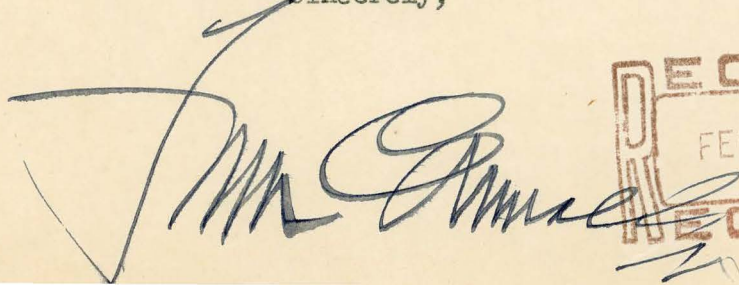

As you are probably aware, I have opposition for re-election to the United States Senate. Because of the urgency of my duties here it will not be possible for me to desert my post of duty at this time and return to Texas to carry on an extended campaign, but I shall come to the state just as soon as my duties permit. In the meantime I hope my friends will look after my interests.

My record of service for the state, I feel, fully justifies my re-election; but it will be necessary for me to depend upon friends, among whom I count you, to make that record known to the people generally. I hope you may become active in my behalf.

I shall appreciate your giving me the benefit of any information or suggestions you may have respecting the situation in your section and what you think should be done.

Let me assure you of my appreciation of your friendship and for any assistance you may be able to give me.

Sincerely,

TC/Pj
