Dear Amon:

If I showed too plainly that I was crushed when you declined to assist me on the Bomber Plant, I am sorry.

I realize that it would be unfair for you to assist me, a customer of your paper who spends about $30.00 per month, when it would conflict with the interest of your customers who spend large sums of money. I have always wanted to do anything that you asked me to do; only today I signed a check for $250.00 for the Trinity Canal Association, and I did it because you asked me to do so, and I still have the same feeling about anything you are interested in.

I do not recall that you have ever refused to help me in anything, and I am much pleased to tell you that my company is about to embark on a program of promotion of All-Masonry houses and our expenditures in your paper and your radio will make the paltry sum that I have been spending with your paper look like nothing. I am not telling you this with any idea of getting you to change your attitude on this matter, but simply because it makes me happy to be able to even up some of the things you have done for me in the past.

With kind personal regards, I am

Very Sincerely,

J.E. Fender:hm
