MORNING

SUNDAY

AMON G. CARTER, PRESIDENT

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

August 5, 1941.

Major R. H. Fleet, President,
Consolidated Aircraft Corporation,
San Diego, California.

Dear Major:

We were sorry that you could not make the trip with Mr. Knudsen and General Brett. They arrived in Fort Worth at 1:45 P.M. and the luncheon had been called for 12:15 Noon, so there were 950 guests who waited from 12:15 until 2:00 P.M. at which time we arrived at the hotel. Both Mr. Knudsen and General Brett were delightfully and favorably impressed with the crowd and the reception.

We drove them out to your plant and from there on over to the North American plant at Grand Prairie. After their visit there they took off for Tulsa.

I hope the first time you and Van have an opportunity that you will stop off and see us in Fort Worth. I realize, of course, that you are tremendously busy.

Is the Consolidated going to use any office space down town in Fort Worth? If so, I am anxious to have them consider the Fort Worth Club which has some vacant space available at this time. I naturally assume you will probably have your operating offices at the plant; however, someone mentioned the fact the other day that the Consolidated was considering acquiring some office space. If this is your plan, I hope you will recommend to Mr. Hall that he give us consideration at the Fort Worth Club.

Hope you are feeling fine and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

AGC.KD
